Son Succeeds Father.

The carpet weaving business for so many years conducted by the late Samuel J. Neal at 218 West Front street, will be continued by his son, George A. Neal.

SERVED THE STATE LONG.

Probably Two Oldest Constables In New Jersey Are Amos Moffett and W. R. Mattox.

The two oldest constables in this city, and possibly in the State of New Jersey, are "Uncle" Amos Moffett and William R. Mattox. The former has been elected to office thirty-five times for terms ranging from one to three years. If Constable Moffett lives to serve out the terms of office to which he has been elected he will have to live to be over one hundred years old. Constable Moffett is a standing candidate for this office and no one would think of disputing his ground. He has been a constable for more than half a century. He is an efficient officer and is known to nearly every man, woman and child in the city.

Constable "Bob" Mattox has also a long record. He has served the city for nearly fifteen years, and like "Uncle" Amos has grown gray in the service. Constable Mattox also numbers his friends among some of the best of Plainfield's citizens, who have known him for nearly half a century. He is father of Roundsman Mattox, one of the efficient officers of the local police department.

AMATEUR THEATRICALS.

Farce-Comedy "Mr. Bob" Will Be Presented at the Casino by Local Talent on New Year's Eve.

Many society people of the city are just now interesting themselves in a dramatic performance that is to be given New Year's Eve at the Casino for the benefit of the Children's Home and the Woman's Exchange. The play to be given is entitled "Mr Bob," and it is a farce-comedy. The rehearsals for the play have already been started and are progressing finely. The cast will be composed of Mrs. Lemuel W. Serrell, Jr., Mrs. Edward M. VanBuren, Miss Maude VanBoskerck, Miss Florence Huntington, Laurens H. VanBuren, Fred W. Goddard and George Stewart Ring. L. W. Serrell, Jr., is the business manager for the affair and he is busily engaged arranging the details for the performance.

DISCUSSED LICENSES.

Borough Council Committee on Marshals and Licenses Does Not Favor Sisser's Place.

A meeting of the committee on marshals and licenses of the Borough Council was held last evening to discuss matters with reference to licenses and particularly with regard to the saloon of William Sisser, located on the county line. No definite action was taken but it was the concensus of opinion that the borough did not need such a place as Sisser conducts and that it was not conducive to the good morals of the community to have the place licensed another year.

Borough Streets in Fine Condition.

The streets of the borough were never in better condition than at present. In fact there is not a borough in the State that can boast of so many finely paved streets as North Plainfield. Credit for this condition of affairs must be given to Superintendent of Highways Thomas Doud, who is painstaking in his efforts to have the streets in apple-pie order.

To Keep Wanderers In.

An iron fence has been erected on the east side of Duer street, extending from Craig place to the new bridge, for the purpose of preventing pedestrians from falling from the high embankment.

Programme for Juniors.

Franklin Council, No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M., will meet this evening and in the good of the order a fine programme of music, etc, will be presented. All the members are urged to attend.

Sale at Guild Room.

A sale of useful and fancy articles will be held this evening in the guild room, of Grace Episcopl church, corner of Sycamore and Sixth streets. Admission will be 10 cents.

New Coaches and Harness.

The Plainfield Cab Company has just purchased five new coaches, very handsome in design and equipped with rubber tires; also four new sets of harness which cost $400 each.

Clarence Brokaw Class President.

At the election of officers of the sophomore class at Rutgers College, New Brunswick, held Monday, Clarence Brokaw, of Grove street, was elected president.

Last Session of Council.

The last session this year of the present Common Council will be held on Friday evening, December 28th, when the business of the year will be concluded.

Christmas Vacation in Schools.

The public schools will close for the Christmas vacation Friday of next week. The pupils will not reassemble until Wednesday, January 2.

CONGRESSMAN'S DINNER.

NEW JERSEY GUESTS WELL ENTERTAINED AT NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Dinner Given by Mr. Fowler and a Reception by Senator Kean—Other Washington Notes.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Washington, December 13—Representative Fowler gave a dinner Wednesday night to Governor Voorhees and the members of his official staff, now visiting the centennial. Those present were the Governor, the New Jersey Congressmen, Attorney-General Griggs, Assistant Postmaster-General Johnson, Adjutant-General Oliphant, General R. A. Donnelly, General B. W. Spencer, General J. W. Congdon, Colonel Charles T. Horner, General McGill, Colonel Robert M. Thompson, Major William Joyce Sewell, Captain William Libbey, Captain C. W. Parker, Franklin Murphy and W. G. Sickel.

The reception at the home of Senator Kean yesterday afternoon was attended by the same Jerseymen who were at Representative Fowler's dinner, and many others.

Senator Sewell yesterday morning called at the Shoreham and accompanied Gov. Voorhees and his staff to the White House, where President McKinley received the delegation.

The part of New Jersey in the centennial parade was highly creditable to the State and elicited many encomiums. The New Jersey official staff was the only one in full uniform.

SUCCESSFUL SOCIAL.

Christian Endeavorers of Seventh-Day Baptist Church Pleasantly Entertained Last Evening.

One of the most enjoyable sociables ever held under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Seventh Day Baptist church, was that of last evening at the home of Mrs. J. R. Truell, on Central avenue. There was a very large attendance of members and friends. Several musical selections were given interspersing the other features. Among those given were piano duets by Mrs. William C. Hubbard and Mrs. Frank J. Hubbard, and vocal solos by Miss Nan Randolph.

Those in the dining room who poured were Mrs. Wm. C. Hubbard and Mrs. Frank J. Hubbard, and those who served included Miss Louella Clawson, Dr. Martha Stillman, Miss Myra Clarke, Miss Ida Spicer, Miss Ernestine Smith and Miss Bessy Fitz-Randolph. The social committee who arranged and had charge of the affair is composed of Miss Bessy Fitz-Randolph, chairman; Miss Ernestine Smith, Mrs. Frank Hubbard, Mrs. James Everitt Kimball and Orra Rogers.

Justice Depue Will Not Resign.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Newark, December 13.—In flat contradiction of stories published recenty it was authoratively stated yesterday by a gentleman very close to Supreme Court Justice David A. Depue, and who is thoroughly conversant with the Chief Justice's affairs, that the latter has absolutely no intention of retiring from office. He said the story that Associate Justice William S. Gummere would be appointed to succeed him is absolutely without foundation.

Christian Hospitality.

There will be preaching in the Seventh-Day Baptist church, corner of Central avenue and Fifth street, tomorrow night by Rev. J. W. Richardson. By request he will repeat his excellent sermon on "Christian Hospitality." All persons not attending other services, and especially those living near the church, are cordially invited to come. Praise and prayer service at 7:45 o'clock.

Many Went Skating Last Night.

All last evening crowds of young people could be seen on every street carrying skates and hurrying toward the various ponds in this vicinity. The majority of them wended their way to New Market where the skaking is excellent. The popular "Guinee Ggg" on West Fourth street found favor with a large number as did Tier's pond also.

Horse Wandered Away.

A horse belonging to John S. Dahl, the carpenter, wandered off from Somerset street where it had been left by the driver Monday evening, and despite a diligent search it could not be found. The search lasted nearly all night but it was not until Tuesday morning that the animal was found in the woods back of the Netherwood Hotel.

NEW MANAGEMENT FOR THROUGH TROLLEY LINE.

James Smith Has Been Appointed General Manager of Elizabeth-Plainfield Trolley.

QUARTERS AT WESTFIELD.

JOHN ADELMANN WILL REMAIN SUPERINTENDENT OF LOCAL LINE.

Manager Smith Will Make His Headquarters at Westfield—Was Superintendent of Elizabeth Division of North Jersey Traction Co.

A change has been made in the management of the trolley line between this city and Elizabeth, which is now known as the Elizabeth, Plainfield and Central New Jersey Railway Company. John Adelmann, who was superintendent of the Plainfield-Elizabeth line as well as of the Plainfield Street Railway Company, will hereafter only be in charge of the Plainfield system.

An official notice has been sent out by the big company announcing that James Smith, of Elizabeth, will hereafter assume control as general manager of the Elizabeth, Plainfield and Central New Jersey system. Until his appointment to the new position, Mr. Smith has been superintendent of the Elizabeth division of the North Jersey Traction Company. He has had much experience in street railway business and is expected to build up the Plainfield-Elizabeth line.

Now that the new double truck closed cars are running regularly between Plainfield and Elizabeth, there has been an increase in the amount of traffic over the line. The smoking compartment has its disadvantages but it is generally voted a success.

When the through line was first started Plainfield was made the headquarters. Now that the change has been made, Managers Smith will make his headquarters at Westfield and direct operations from there. Until the car stables at Westfield are built five cars will be stabled at either end. Five crews will start from either end of the line each morning.

Manager Smith will make every effort to keep the line open no matter how hard it snows or how deep the drifts are. Two sweepers are ready for use and then there will be a large gang of men ready to go on duty should the drifts be so deep that the sweepers cannot get through.

There will be no change in the management of the local trolley system and Mr. Adelmann will continue as superintendent.

FIGHT ON COUNTY LINE.

Quarrel Started in Sisser's Saloon and Settled in Middle of Somerset Street.

As an illustration of the nuisance of the Sisser saloon, that is located on the line between the city and borough, it may be mentioned that two young men rushed out of the place yesterday morning and engaged in a fight in the centre of Somerset street. One of the borough marshals was an eye witness to the affray but he was powerless to make an arrest from the fact that the men were fighting over the line in the city limits. It is understood that the disturbers of the peace had quarreled over a game of cards in Sisser's place and went out to settle their difficulty by a resort to fisticuffs.

Difficult Operation.

Roy, the 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kitchell, of Watchung avenue, will undergo an operation at the hospital this afternoon for a stoppage of the nose. The operation will necessitate the removal of the tonsils so that the stoppage can be removed from in back of the nose. Drs. Ard and Buchannan will do the work.

Foresters Will Elect.

Court Plainfield, 1144, I. O. F., will meet tomorrow evening and elect officers. Twenty candidates will be initiated. There will be a report from the entertainment committee and a programme of music will be presented in the good of the order.

Skating on Tier's Pond.

Tier's pond was filled with skaters yesterday afternoon and last evening by the youth of the city, who enjoyed their favorite sport for the first time this season. The ice is about three inches thick and quite smooth.

THE NEW BEDFORD STRIKE.

Little Change Indicated—Weavers Continue Quiet and Orderly.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Dec. 13.—The third day of the strike at the Acushnet and Hathaway mills passed without incident of special mention. The meetings of the weavers and fixers were held as usual, when it was reported that more weavers had joined the ranks of the strikers.

Secretary Hart made his usual remarks of encouragement to the striking weavers and in conclusion said:

"It is unfortunate for the operatives that the mayor of the city was called away. True, we have an acting mayor, but I fear that Mr. Lawton is too closely allied with the manufacturers to do us any good."

In regard to the report that Mr. Lawton had talked with the chief of police about policemen for duty at the mill gates Mr. Hart said: "None of the strikers has made the least bit of trouble, and the summonsing of the four weavers before the chief did not amount to anything, for the men all denied the charge of intimidating operatives who were going to work. They even said that they had not even as much as passed a word with any one who has seen fit to work since the strike has been on."

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

The Illinois circuit court upheld the antitrust laws.

Professor Marshall Henshaw of Amherst died suddenly at Springfield, Mass.

The river and harbor bill will carry $20,000,000 and authorize $35,000,000 more.

It has been discovered that the Portuguese settlement of Macco is a point of Filipino insurgent activity.

The official canvass showed that McKinley's plurality in New York state was 143,696 and Odell's 111,126.

General Alger, former secretary of war, was thrown down by a thief whom he found in his house in Detroit.

A nonunion telegraph operator was driven from the Santa Fe station at Sedalia, Colo., and shot in the arm.

The report of the New York Lying In Hospital society showed a birth rate of a child every ten minutes on Manhattan Island.

Convent Destroyed by Fire.

FORT DODGE, Ia., Dec. 13.—The Sister of Mercy convent, the largest frame building in the city, has been burned to the ground. A high gale was blowing, and the flames spread so rapidly that several of the sisters were slightly burned before they could make their escape. All of their personal effects and the large library used in the parochial school, where 150 pupils attended, and all the furnishings were consumed. Only $3,500 insurance was carried on the building. It is thought that the fire was incendiary, as a false alarm was turned in from another part of the town, thus delaying the arrival of the fire department. The convent had stood for 35 years and was one of the largest convents and schools in this diocese.

Colombian Insurgents Defeated.

COLON, Colombia, Dec. 13.—Official dispatches have been received from Governor Alban of the state of Panama announcing that after a three days' engagement Tumaco, the former stronghold of the insurgent movement, was reoccupied by the government troops Dec. 4 and that Gaitan has been destroyed. Governor Alban, who returned to the city of Panama, will hand back uninjured to her owners the British steamer Taboga, which was seized last month by the Colombian government to transport an armed expedition from Panama to the port of Buenaventura and was there used in the bombardment of the rebel position on Points Bazan and Soldado.

Carfares For Charity.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Dec. 13.—During the eight busiest hours of yesterday the cash fares of the Burlington Traction company, which are ordinarily supposed to go toward swelling the dividends of stockholders, were diverted to the cause of charity. The company's regular conductors were replaced by pretty young lady fare collectors, and at the close of the day the Home For Aged Women had netted the sum of $215 by the unique undertaking.

Building the Defender.

BRISTOL, R. I., Dec. 13.—The work of collecting the material for the new cup defender is progressing satisfactorily, and there is little doubt but that she will be afloat and rigged by the first or middle of May, a month sooner than in the case of the Columbia. The nickel steel frames for the new boat are being turned out in Steelton, Pa., and orders have been given to push the work if possible ahead of other contracts.

Will of the Late Senator Davis.

ST. PAUL, Dec. 13.—The will of the late Senator Cushman K. Davis, who died Nov. 27, has been filed for probate by Mrs. Anna M. Davis, the widow. The will, which is very concise and was made during the senator's last illness, leaves all his estate to Mrs. Davis and names the St. Paul Trust company as executor. The estate is valued at $25,000 in personal and $40,000 in real property.

Cornell's Medical College.

ITHACA, N. Y., Dec. 13.—The executive committee of the board of trustees of Cornell university has awarded Driscoll Bros. of this city the contract for building the new medical college on Cornell campus. The building will cost $125,000 and when finished will be the prettiest on the campus. It will have all the latest improvements. It is to be completed in 1902.

Cigarette Sellers Fined.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Dec. 13.—Before Judge McDonough in the district court ten proprietors of variety and candy stores were found guilty and fined on charges of selling cigarettes to minors in violation of the law. In one instance a sale of snuff was alleged. One defendant was discharged, and the case of another was continued.

Fell Into Scalding Water.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Dec. 13.—Harry Harris, the 18-month-old son of Israel Harris, tumbled into a tub of scalding water on Monday. All the skin was burned from his body, and after suffering intense agony he died.

Dead of Typhoid in Prison.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—Arthur Harris, a prisoner at Sing Sing, died last evening of typhoid fever. He was serving a term for forgery committed in New York city. There are now 23 convicts ill of the disease.

STRIKERS SANGUINE.

Santa Fe Operators Make Rosy Statements.

RAILWAY OFFICIALS CONTRADICT.

General Manager Says Strike Is Over and of No Effect—Applications For Reinstatement Denied. Union to Be Ignored.

TOPEKA, Dec. 13.—J. A. Newman, chairman of the Santa Fe grievance committee, has arrived here to confer with the striking operators. Mr. Newman is very sanguine about the ultimate result of the strike.

"I have just received a report from the Chicago division," said Mr. Newman, "stating that we have had numerous accessions to our ranks and that the boys there are jubilant over the condition of things. Repeated messages from trainmen on the Chicago division assure me that most of the operators are out. Conductors say that they have great difficulty in running their trains, some of which are late."

In the Topeka depot office three men and one woman are at work. In the general office here three new men are working.

Mr. Newman has been on the road for two days and has not been at any one place long enough to receive complete dispatches from all parts of the system. All he has received, however, indicate, he says, that the strike conditions are decidedly favorable for the operators.

Permanent headquarters for the strikers have been established in a Topeka hotel, where messages can be constantly received from all parts of the system.

The Santa Fe railroad has broken off its relations with the Order of Railway Telegraphers. All the courtesies prevalent between the road and the operators have been revoked.

"We will have nothing further to do with an organization that has proved itself incompetent, that broke its contract to give us 30 days' notice and gave us but 30 seconds," said General Manager Mudge last night. "That is not saying that recognition will be denied the O. R. T. permanently or under competent management. I am not competent to speak for the future. That is a matter for the railroad president to determine."

Strike Closed, Says Manager Polk.

GALVESTON, Dec. 13.—General Manager Polk of the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe railroad announces that the telegraphers' strike is closed so far as the company is concerned. "I have just issued an order regarding applications for new positions," said he. "We have about filled all our places, and the road is going right ahead with business." He said that conditions generally were much improved on all the lines of the system and that he had received applications from members of the Order of Railway Telegraphers to be reinstated. He added that he did not consider these applications nor would he reinstate the men, as they had violated their contracts and the company had dismissed them from the service.

Manley Declines Commissionership.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Hon. Joseph H. Manley of Maine, who has been in Washington for several days, left the city for Augusta yesterday. Before leaving Mr. Manley informed the president that he would decline the office of commissioner of internal revenue which had been offered him. The chief reason animating him is the fact that he has been elected a member of the Maine house of representatives and believes it to be his duty to the people of his native state to serve them in that capacity after having been thus honored by them. Mr. Manley expects to be elected speaker of the house. The appointment of a new commissioner will be announced very soon. Hon. John W. Yerkes, the Kentucky Republican gubernatorial candidate defeated last election, will be chosen in all probability.

Finest Harbor In the World.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 13.—Work has been discontinued on the new government harbor of refuge at the mouth of Delaware bay, and the contractors will store their plant for the winter. Because of the mild weather that has prevailed operations were continued much later than had been expected. When completed, the harbor will be the finest and largest in the world, amply capable of taking care of all ships forced to seek refuge from storms at sea. In the course of the season about 280,000 tons of stone were laid. The substructure for the entire length of the breakwater, as called for in the specifications, has been completed, while a large part of the superstructure is also completed.

Austin Placed on Trial.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Dec. 13.—Peter Austin, the Stormville farmer who killed his farm hand, Charles Brower, 14 years ago and threw the body into an old well on his farm, has been placed on trial in the county court here under an indictment for murder in the second degree. The crime was not discovered until August last, when a new owner of the farm was cleaning out the well and found the skeleton. It was identified, and Austin was arrested. He confessed that he killed Brower, but said he did so in self defense, the other man having assaulted him with a knife while they were returning to his house from milking cows in the evening July 2, 1886.

Tragedy at Port Jervis.

PORT JERVIS, N. Y., Dec. 13.—Florence S. Mollineux Wickham, wife of J. Emmet Wickham, committed suicide by shooting herself with a pistol. The husband sleeps in a room on the opposite side of the hall and says he was awakened by hearing two shots in his wife's room. He hurried in and found his wife disrobed for bed, sitting in a chair unconscious, or dead, and a pistol clasped in her right hand. Domestic troubles are assigned as the cause.

Good Price For a Pacer.

MUNCIE, Ind., Dec. 13.—C. R. Bantley of Buffalo purchased the horse Prince D here for $3,000. He came prepared to pay even more, for he regards the animal the best green pacer in the world.

King Oscar Much Improved.

STOCKHOLM, Dec. 13.—The condition of King Oscar is so much improved that it is expected he will be able to resume the reins of government in a few days.

Influenza In Berlin.

BERLIN, Dec. 13.—The influenza has begun its rage in Berlin.

GREAT CELEBRATION

Centenary of Nation's Capital Fittingly Remembered.

NOTABLE ORATION BY SENATOR HOAR

Brilliant Military Parade Reviewed by the President—Interesting Exercises in Hall of Representatives—Reception in Evening.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—With imposing ceremonies the capital yesterday celebrated the centennial anniversary of the founding of the seat of the federal government in Washington. The exercises combined a brilliant military parade, a review by the president from the east front of the capitol and orations in the hall of the house of representatives, where a brilliant audience was assembled. By act of congress the day was made a national holiday in the District of Columbia, the government departments were closed, business was suspended and the whole city gave itself over to celebrating the capital's natal day. President McKinley and the members of his cabinet took prominent part in all the exercises, and with them were the chief executives of a large number of the states and territories of the Union, the senators and representatives in congress, the judiciary of the United States supreme court, the embassadors and ministers from foreign courts, the heads of the army and navy and a great outpouring of the people.

Although Washington is the scene of many celebrations, it is seldom that one has occurred here of greater brilliancy in its outdoor features or of more impressiveness in its ceremonial exercises at the capitol and at the White House. Early in the day the president received the governors of states and territories at the White House, and the model for a new and enlarged White House to commemorate the exercises was unveiled with suitable addresses. At 1 o'clock the president was escorted to the capitol, where he reviewed a parade headed by Lieutenant General Miles and including the full military strength of the capital, regulars and militia.

SENATOR HOAR.

The ceremonies at the capitol began at 3:30 p. m. and included addresses by Senators Daniel of Virginia and McComas of Maryland, Representatives Payne of New York and Richardson of Tennessee and a notable historical oration by Senator Hoar of Massachusetts. A reception by the president to the governors of states at the Corcoran Art gallery at night closed the festivities.

The address of Mr. Payne of New York, the floor leader of the majority in the house, on "The Establishment of the Seat of Government In the District of Columbia," afforded an interesting glimpse into the political machinations of the forefathers and received marked attention.

Senator McComas of Maryland followed with an address on the "History of the First Century of the National Capital." It also was well received.

The fervid eloquence of Senator Daniel, who spoke on the "Future of the United States and Its Capital," frequently aroused the assemblage to applause.

Mr. Richardson's subject was the "Transfer of the National Capital From Philadelphia." His address, the first on the programme, was largely an interesting historical review of the contest which began as soon as the first congress convened at New York in 1789 over the location of the seat of government.

The controversy was embittered and complicated by the question of the assumption by the federal government of the debts of the several states acquired as legacies of the Revolution, "the price of liberty," as Hamilton denominated it. It was a contest between Hamilton and Madison, the north versus the south, and in the end Hamilton and his friends prevailed. But the decision was a compromise, one of the conditions of which was that the seat of government should go south to the banks of the Potomac. Prior to this action congress had practically decided to locate the capital at Wright's Ferry on the Susquehanna. Wright's Ferry, Mr. Richardson said, at that time had a much better chance of becoming the capital than Harrisburg, Baltimore, New York, Germantown, Philadelphia or any other place proposed. It was described as the "hub of the universe." Yet the place now consists of "two sawmills and 1,310 inhabitants." Germantown, Pa., after the rejection of Wright's Ferry, was the most promising location until the compromise effected over the question of the assumption of the debts of the states fixed it "on the river Potomac some place between the mouth of the eastern branch and the Conogocheague." Mr. Richardson told the story of the founding of the city, the building of the capitol and the executive building in the wilderness between 1790 and 1800 and the removal of the government to this city. Washington's population was then but 3,000, and the number of clerks in all the departments on the date of the removal was only 126, with salaries of $125,881 per year.

In conclusion Mr. Richardson quoted the profoundly impressive invocation to the future prosperity of Washington and the capital which President Adams uttered in his message to the first congress which assembled in this city as follows:

"May this territory be the residence of happiness. In this city may that piety and virtue, that wisdom and magnanimity that constancy and self government which adorned the great character whose name it bears be forever held in veneration. Here and throughout our country may simple manners, pure morals and true religion flourish."

The closing address by Senator Hoar, entitled "A Historical Address," was a very scholarly effort in the best vein of the Massachusetts statesman. In opening he spoke impressively of the antiquity of the European capitals compared with the youth of that of the American republic. London, he said, had been a center of civilization for more than 1,200 years, Paris the seat of government for 13 centuries, Berlin for nearly four and Vienna for seven centuries.

"And yet," said he, "there are few places that can show for any one century more than three products of architecture that equal the capitol, the Washington monument and the Congressional library. If we can add to the glory of Washington three such structures only for each coming century, we need not be ashamed of comparison with any foreign city when Washington shall have reached the same age. If God spares the republic, what may we not hope for Washington? These three structures, unrivaled as they are each for its respective class, are more interesting still for what they typify. The monument to the Father of the Country is but a simple shaft. It marks a narrow spot. It commemorates a single human character. But the spot it marks, as was said, Mr. Speaker, by one of the most accomplished men who ever sat in your chair, 'is a prime meridian.' The prime meridian of universal longitude on sea or land may be at Greenwich or at Paris or where you will, but the prime meridian of pure exalted human character will be marked forever by yonder obelisk. Integrity and patriotism are to be measured by nearness to it or departure from it. The whole city is in a larger sense a Washington monument. It were better that the great name should pass forever into oblivion and be forgotten unless the walls of this building where we are assembled, dedicated to legislation and to justice, also bear honorable witness to the character and influence of him who laid its cornerstone."

With sweeping strokes Senator Hoar then proceeded to paint the great achievements of the country, the glories which had crowned it, the ordeals through which it had passed, the growth of literature, art and science, which had advanced with the years, and concluded as follows:

"The men who wrought this great work are gone, most of them. A few of their companions and coadjutors survive to behold the dawn of the new century and give their counsel to the people who are to carry on its work, as a few of the companions of Washington beheld the beginning of this and inaugurated its great accomplishment on the principles of the Revolution. Their work also is about done. They seem to survive for a brief period only that the new century may clasp hands with the old and that they may bring to the future the benediction of the past."

DE WET EVADES KNOX.

Boer Force Moves Toward Reddersburg In a Running Fight.

LONDON, Dec. 13.—Lord Kitchener cables to the war office from Pretoria under date of Dec. 12 that General Knox reports from Helvetia that he is engaged in a running fight with General De Wet and that the enemy is moving toward Reddersburg, where there is a column ready to co-operate with the other British forces.

General Kitchener's message indicates that De Wet has again evaded Knox. After the latter foiled the Boer general at Coomassie drift the Boers seem to have doubled back, crossed the Caledon river elsewhere and turned thence northwest in the direction of Reddersburg, the memorable scene of the British disaster in April, when the same commander captured the Irish rifles.

General Kitchener in another dispatch reports that the Boers attacked the post near Barberton. The British casualties were 3 killed, 5 wounded and 13 taken prisoners. The captured men have since been released.

The Boers raided the Riverton Road station on Dec. 11. They are being followed up.

Constable Fatally Shot.

HUNTSVILLE, Ala., Dec. 13.—Deputy Constable John Lanier was shot and probably fatally wounded while holding up a wagon which he believed was carrying illicit whisky. Two men were in the wagon, and when the officers accosted them they though the officers were highwaymen and immediately opened fire. Lanier was shot down, and one of the officers with him returned the fire, wounding both occupants of the wagon, Lloyd Johnson and R. M. Drennen of Molino, Tenn.

Two Trainmen Killed.

DESARC, Mo., Dec. 13.—In a head end collision here between freight trains two trainmen were killed and four injured. Both engines were demolished. The dead are: Engineer James Britt, Olney, Ills.; Brakeman Edward Bradley, Desoto, Mo. Injured: Fireman Barrett, Conductor Ralston, Brakeman R. D. Scott and Brakeman G. L. Scott. Barrett was pinioned beneath the wreck, and it was found necessary to chop off his left arm to prevent death from scalding.

Condition of the Czar.

LIVADIA, Russia, Dec. 13.—Emperor Nicholas now takes his meals with the empress. His majesty is deeply touched by the solicitude for his recovery displayed not only throughout Russia, from whence he has received numerous offers of consecrated bread, but also throughout the countries of Europe and particularly America, whence many letters have been received, mostly from private sources, containing advice and suggestions as to treatment.

Six Seamen Drowned.

LONDON, Dec. 13.—The steamer Africa has arrived at Svanike, a town on the island of Bornholm, in the Baltic sea, and reports having picked up the captain and three men of the crew of the Russian schooner Jota, which capsized off the island of Gottland. Six men of the crew of the Jota were drowned. The Africa proceeds to Lubeck for medical assistance.

Rundle Jury Disagrees.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Dec. 13.—In the case of Joel Rundle, on trial at Goshen for killing Arthur Morgan at Guymard July 30, the jury disagreed. Another trial will probably occur in February.

Dock Laborers Strike.

LIMA, Peru, Dec. 13.—The dock laborers at Callao, the port of Lima, have gone on strike, and all work has been stopped. As yet there has been no breach of the peace.

BRITISH FLAG COVERED.

Speaker Henderson's Action Leads to Embarrassing Situation.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The house of representatives was decorated with the flags of all nations yesterday. Shortly before the centennial exercises were to begin Representative Walter Reeves of Illinois, Republican, wandered in. He glanced toward the executive gallery and was horrified to see the British flag dropping over a corner of it. The frightful possibilities of this thing flashed across Mr. Reeves' mind in an instant. Some enemy of the administration had hung a British flag over the gallery reserved for the president, and in the morning the Democratic press would ring with sarcasms.

Mr. Reeves determined to save the president. He hurried to Speaker Henderson and reported that a visible token of the Anglo-American alliance was floating over the executive gallery. Speaker Henderson came in, looked at the gallery and saw that what Reeves said was true. He at once gave orders that a naval signal flag be hung over the British flag, completely hiding it from view. This was done.

Shortly after other members of congress began to drop in. They saw what Reeves and Henderson had not seen, that the house was full of flags representing all the nations of Europe, and that the only nation which was omitted was Great Britain. These congressmen immediately jumped to the conclusion that some enemy of the administration had attempted to get it into trouble with Great Britain by offering this pointed insult. There was a hasty consultation, and it became known that Lord Pauncefote was coming down to the capitol and that he would surely see the omission of the British flag.

Word was at once sent to Speaker Henderson, and he was implored to get a British flag in position as soon as possible. The speaker did the best he could, but the hour had arrived when the ceremonies were to begin, and it was too late. Great Britain was the only nation unrepresented, and her flag remained out of sight behind the signal flag.

BIG RAIL CONTRACTS.

Steel Companies at Pittsburg Have Already Booked a Million Tons.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 13.—Rail producers have taken on contracts for delivery next year amounting in round numbers to 1,000,000 tons. It is a heavier award of new business than the rail makers had secured at the opening of the year 1900.

A few days ago the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad company apportioned its rail order, covering practically the quota this interest will require during the next calendar year. The order is for 80,000 tons at the pool price. Four big steel companies each get 20,000 tons. Participating are the Carnegie Steel company, the Lackawanna Iron and Steel company, the National Steel company and the Federal Steel company.

In all lines of development the iron and steel markets the past week, with a single exception, reveal nothing but a promising future. The plate producers, who have come to terms on prices by joining in an ironclad agreement, have their mills engaged ahead for months. On tin plate for deliveries through the first quarter of next year the price has been advanced $2 a ton. This makes the base price $4.10 per 100 pound box, with the $4 price obtaining for the rest of this month.

Gigantic Skeletons Found.

FORT MEADE, S. D., Dec. 13.—Skeletons of two gigantic dinosauri have been discovered on the military reservation at this post by a party of scientists sent out from New York city by the American Museum of Natural History. The expedition is under the leadership of Professor G. R. Wieland. The first and largest of the specimens was discovered six weeks ago. The second specimen was discovered later. It is in a perfect state of preservation and is part of an animal fully 40 feet long.

Municipal League in Charleston.

CHARLESTON, Dec. 13.—The fourth annual convention of the League of American Municipalities is in session here in the Auditorium. The mayors were welcomed in addresses by Governor M. B. CUBAN CONSTITUTION Committee at Work on Plans For Self Government.

THE ANTI-AMERICANS IN CONTROL.

Governor Wood's Recent Action In Regard to Members of Havana Bar Approved by Several Cuban Judges.

HAVANA, Dec. 13.—There has been no session of the Cuban constitutional convention for eight days. The committees are diligently preparing draft constitutions on the basis of the unitary or centralized form of government, with radical changes in the existing regime. It is thought that the final draft may be ready for review by the United States congress during the present session. The special central committee upon which will devolve the work of making a selection for the convention's ultimate consideration consists of Senores Rivera, Llorente, Brado, Mora and Quesada, a majority of whom are violently anti-American.

Seven Cuban judges of the audiencia, reviewing the decision on which the judges who were elected members of the board of governors of the Havana Bar association were removed, have reached a decision sustaining Governor General Wood and Senor Miguel Gener, secretary of justice. The dismissed judges have asked for and been granted a trial before the supreme court.

Senor Mora, former fiscal, who was elected a member of the board of governors of the Havana Bar association, has resigned the office.

One hundred and twenty American railway conductors have arrived here on an excursion.

The government has made an appropriation of $100,000 to cover immigration for the month of January. Eleven thousand dollars was appropriated for December.

Cattle and horses from Mexico, to be disposed of on favorable terms to poor people, are arriving here.

Gompers Will Head Labor Cohorts.

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 13.—Yesterday's session of the American Federation of Labor apparently disclosed the fact that there will be little or no opposition to the re-election of Samuel Gompers as president. Two propositions, the votes on which may be regarded as tests, resulted in decisive triumphs for the ideas advocated by Mr. Gompers. Max Hayes of Cleveland led the opposition in both instances, but the battle did not at any time become personal or bitter. One of the resolutions was to limit the term of the federation's president in future to two years. The other provided for the election of the officers of the body by the initiative and referendum instead of a vote in mass convention on the last day of the annual convention, as prevails at present. Both were defeated. The contest for next year's convention appears to lie between Milwaukee and Scranton, Pa.

Plymouth Rock Canopy Defaced.

PLYMOUTH, Mass., Dec. 13.—The canopy over that most sacred spot upon American soil, Plymouth rock, has been defaced by vandals. The act to all appearances was deliberately done. This canopy is of granite, 15 by 15 feet and 30 feet high, being built in the form of four piers with arched openings and surmounted by a granite roof. The square stones on either side of the western entrance are bruised and the angles broken off, while marks of other hammering are plain on various parts of the base. A reward has been offered by the Pilgrim society for the detection of the vandals. To make perfect repairs on the canopy the entire structure may have to be rebuilt.

Standard Oil Must Produce Books.

LINCOLN, Neb., Dec. 13.—The supreme court has issued a formal order to the Standard Oil company to permit the attorney general to inspect the books of the company giving the list of stockholders at present and from the time the company was organized, the minute books of the company and other books and papers. The order follows the decision of the court a week ago, wherein it declared it was competent to try the case of the attorney general against the Standard, in which it is sought to debar it from the state on the ground that it is a trust. Dec. 21 is the time allowed for the production of the books.

Fishermen Given Up For Lost.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Dec. 13.—This city of fishermen is again mourning for the loss of several of her hardy sailors, this time for the captain and 12 men of the fishing schooner Sigfrid, which has now been absent from this port for nearly ten weeks, which is believed to have foundered in one of the terrific gales which for the past six weeks have been sweeping the north Atlantic. Five of the members of the crew are married, while 18 children will mourn the loss of fathers. The Sigfrid sailed from this port Sept. 14, and since that time she has not been reported.

Three Children Cremated.

TIONESTA, Pa., Dec. 13.—A fire at Golinza, about 12 miles from this place, resulted in the death of three children of E. W. Grubbs. The mother had gone to call on a neighbor, leaving the children in the house, when an unexpected pressure of gas came on, overheating the stove and igniting the building. When discovered, the fire had gained such headway that it was impossible to enter the building, and the little ones, who were aged 5 and 2 years and 6 months, were burned to a crisp.

Officers' Quarters Burned.

BERLIN, Dec. 13.—The Lokal Anzeiger has a special dispatch from Peking saying that fire has destroyed the quarters of a number of officers about 1,000 paces from Count von Waldersee's. A Peking correspondent, wiring Tuesday, confirms the reports of the agreement as to the collective note and says that a committee of representatives of the powers has been chosen to regulate the conferences with the Chinese plenipotentiaries.

Woman Fatally Burned.

WORCESTER, Mass., Dec. 13.—Mrs. Patrick Smith, 47 years old, of 10 South Ward street died at St. Vincent's hospital of burns received Tuesday afternoon. She was cooking, and a kettle of fat caught fire, setting fire to her clothes. Her body was horribly burned, and she died six hours after the accident.

Weather Probabilities.

Snow and colder; brisk to high southwesterly winds.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., DEC. 13, 1900.

COMING EVENTS.

December 18—Hugh R. Munro, vice-president of the Niagara Lithograph Company, will address the Y. M. C. A. meeting

Reapportionment in Jersey.

Once every decade it is the duty of the New Jersey Legislature to reapportion the Congressmen and members of Assembly in the State. The aim is to so change the Congressional districts as to nearly equalize them from the point of population and to divide the members of Assembly among the twenty-one counties as near as possible according to their comparative population.

Politicians from all over the State have been figuring concerning these changes, but it will be impossible to tell what will be done until after the Legislature convenes. The gain New Jersey has made in population entitles her to another Congressman which may result in a general re-arrangement of the lines of the various districts. Whether Plainfield will be greatly affected it is hard to say. It has been suggested that this city should be added to the Third Congressional district, but such a plan would be likely to find much objection from the local Republican leaders.

No change is likely in Union county's share of members of Assembly. It is supposed that Hunterdon and Warren counties will each lose a member and that Hudson and Passaic will each gain one.

The twenty-second annual report of the Plainfield Relief Association has been sent out by the officers of the association. It is a brief history of a year's work that merits the careful consideration of the thoughtful men and women of this city. Caring for the poor of any town or city is a problem that ought not to be dismissed as an unimportant matter to be governed by impulse or convenience. The worst evils of pauperism are the result of careless and unthinking giving, not worthy the name of charity. To seek the permanent good of the relieved is the object of the Relief Association. With this end in view many worthy women have for more than a score of years given much time and careful thought to this work besides gifts in money. They have investigated, encouraged, relieved present needs and helped to future independence in many cases.

The grand juries in this part of Jersey have, in prospect, several crusades against various forms of vice. In Middlesex county the Grand Jury has been particularly instructed to take cognizance of a prize fight which recently took place in that county while Judge Herr has called upon the Grand Jury of Hunterdon county to investigate and take action concerning lotteries and raffles which are said to be so prevalent there.

If Assemblyman Charles S. Foote succeeds in winning the fight for the Republican leadership in the lower House of the State Legislature this winter, it will be the second time within three years that that honor has been accorded to Union county. Three years ago, George A. Squier, of Elizabeth, led the Republican majority in the State Assembly.

Douglas, the shoe man, who spends more than $100,000 a year for newspaper advertising, says the Philadelphia Record, makes this affirmation: "Any man who has an article of merit or any man who has a business in a good location who will advertise and keep on advertising is bound to more than get his money back and to become successful and wealthy."

New Jersey is said to have made an excellent showing at the Centennial celebration at the National Capital yesterday. The distinguised guests from this State were well entertained and the Representatives of New Jersey in Congress sustained the reputation of the State for hospitality.

Plainfield is unfortunate in not having some available skating pond close to the city without making it necessary for the young people to go to New Market or South Plainfield to get good skating.

The new east bound station of the Jersey Central Railroad is rapidly nearning completion. It will be a great improvement over the old arrangement.

WHAT OTHERS SAY.

Clippings From Other Newspapers Which May Be Of Interest to Plainfield and Its Citizens.

If Alvah A. Clark is the Domocratic nominee for United States Senator, it will be rather embarrassing for Senator Reed, his son-in-law, to vote against him, but such is politics. —Bound Brook Chronicle.

We don't see why it should be. It never did embarrass Mr. Clark when he aided the son-in-law in his political ambition.—Hunterdon County Democrat of Flemington, N. J.

* * * * * *

Several Democratic newspapers of the State are showing symptoms of uneasiness over Robert Davis's assumption of despotic sovereignty, and especially at his selection of Alvah A. Clark as the minority candidate for United States Senator. But Mr. Davis has the votes, so what avails kicking?—Newark News.

It seems to be conceded that Assemblyman Foote, of Union, is to be designated as the "leader" of the Republican forces in the House at the approaching session. Just why a sort of oratorical commander should be needed and named has never been apparent to those who have seen the natural leadership of such men as Garrett A. Hobart, John W. Griggs, Wm. B Gourley, Edward J. Armstrong, Edward C. Stokes, Franklin Murphy, Leon Abbett, R. S. Hudspeth, Allan L. McDermott and men of that grade assert itself. These men were leaders, not because they were stamped officially as such, but because they rose to the position by force of ability. "The rank is but the guiena's stamp—the man's the gowd for a' that." Mr. Foote may possess the necessary qualities of tact, readiness, aptness at repartee, and the other equipments of leadership, but they were not very conspicuous last year. Still, they may develop under the stress of necessity. He has hitherto been considered rather heavy and slow.—New York Herald.

The police in Plainfield seem to be chock full of energy, going so far as to raid quiet poker games and sundry gambling resorts at the very unseemly hour of 4 a. m., when most village (beg pardon) city policemen are supposed to be soundly asleep. Judging from what we read in the local papers, the Plainfield man who is known to daily with the ivory chips is always under suspicion. Chief Kiely's men keep tabs on his goings and comings, and if he disappears into a house where the game is regularly played the place is promptly pulled. This very thing happened on Saturday night last. Four players were held for the Grand Jury, and the owner of the house was fined $30 for violating a town ordinance. It would be interesting to know where Chief Kiely draws the line. Do his lynx-eyed and massive brained Foxy Quillers ever invade the houses of the rich or the influential, or is it only the out and-out gambler who excites the local Hawkshaws into activity? Presumably the big games worth molesting are rigidly ignored. They are everywhere. What a sensation Chief Kiely would create if he should move to New Brunswick, where the merry clink of the ivories may sometimes be heard on George street above the rumble of the trolleys. What a snap for a blue buttoned Sherlock Holmes with a trained ear.—New Brunswick Home News.

Gentlemen:—My mamma has been a great coffee drinker and has found it very injurious. Having used several packages of your GRAIN-O, the drink that takes the place of coffee, she finds it much better for herself and for us children to drink. She has given up coffee drinking entirely. We use a package of Grain-O every week. I am ten years old.

Dunellen, Dec. 13—The funeral services of Assessor William R. Larkin, who died yesterday morning, will be held from his late residence, Saturday afternoon, at 1:30 o'clock and from the Seventh Day Baptist church at 2 o'clock. The deceased was forty-one years old and leaves a wife and three children, Stella, George and Charles. Mr. Larkin was born in Dunellen but spent most of his life in Wisconsin, returning to the borough about twelve years ago. He was a member of Central Lodge, No. 48, A. O. U. W. of Plainfield and Friendship Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., of New Market. Beside being assessor he was a member of the Dunellen school board.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Mohan desire to express their gratitude toward all those who so kindly offered their sympathy and assistance during their recent bereavement. They feel particularly grateful toward the pupils and teachers of the Whittier school and the Sunday schools who by words and actions assisted and comforted them.

By the death of William Larkin, a vacancy exists in the Board of Education. A new member will probably be appointed by Superintendent Willis to complete Mr. Larkins' term which would have expired next spring.

Mrs. Alvah Gray has returned from Washington, D. C., where she has been for the past two weeks on a combined business and pleasure trip.

The Junior Y. P. S. C. E. of the Presbyterian church will give a sociable in the church tomorrow evening to which all are invited.

The installation services of Rev. N. J. Sproull will take place in the Presbyterian church on Friday evening, December 21.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Fetter, of Glen Gardner, have returned home after a brief visit with Mrs. William E. Terry.

NEW MARKET.

(Special Correspondence.)

New Market, Dec 13.—There is now about four inches of ice on the pond and the skating is excellent. Last evening the pond was crowded with lovers of the exhilarating sport, a large number of them being from Plainfield and other nearby places. If the cold snap continues, the ice in the upper pond will be of sufficient thickness for cutting.

Another one of those pleasing sociables for which Lakeside Council members are noted, took place at the home of Robert L. Pierce last evening. A large number were present and several hours passed swiftly in listening to vocal and instrumental selections. The serving of refreshments brought the affair to a close.

A party of young people from New Brunswick came to town by stage last evening and partook of supper at Hotel Nelson after which they spent several hours in dancing. The start for home was made at midnight.

Joseph Waglow picked up a comparatively new horse blanket near the railroad crossing Tuesday night which the owner can have by applying to him.

Mrs. Dantz spent yesterday with Brooklyn relatives.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence.)

Scotch Plains, Dec. 13—The three days rummage sale arranged by the ladies of the Methodist church opened in the Marsh building yesterday afternoon. The committee have gathered together a great many useful things in the way of clothing, toys and bric-a-brac. Those in charge of the sale are working hard to make the affair the success that it deserves and there no doubt but what their hopes will be realized and that the church treasury will be enriched by a neat little sum. The sale closes tomorrow night.

Fanwood Council, No. 744, R. A., elected the following officers for the ensuing year at their meeting Tuesday evening: Regent, T. R. Collins; vice regent, James Nickol; orator, W. R. Buckley; chaplain, John Robison; guide, Wm. R. Stanbery; warden, John Cook; sentry, George Dudley Kyte; collector, J. H. Parks; treasurer, John Bornman; secretary, Norman Dunn; trustee for 3 years, Wm. S. Corey. The officers elect will be installed at the first meeting in January.

No meeting of the Epworth Literary Society was held last evening, owing to a number of the members being interested in the rummage sale which the church is holding. The readings will be resumed again on next Wednesday evening.

Skating is good on Marsh's lake, the cold weather of the past few days has succeeded in covering the lake with a four inch coating of ice. The young people are taking advantage of the sport while it lasts.

Mayor Hall, of Fanwood, who has been seriously ill with typhoid fever for several weeks, but was recovering very nicely, has suffered a relapse which will set his recovery back still further.

Goodwill Lodge will hold an important meeting in their rooms this evening. Business of vital importance to the members will be transacted and a large attendance of the members is desired.

Mr. and Mrs Harry P. Robinson, of the borough, are spending the winter in Brooklyn where their daughter, Miss Madeline, is taking a course of study at the Packer Institute.

The three Sunday-schools in town are all hard at work practicing for their Christmas entertainment which are to be held during the holiday week.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

(Special Correspondence.)

South Plainfield, Dec. 13—The applications for saloon licences from Frank Pooling and Morris Higgins, which were to have been heard Tuesday, will be brought up Friday in Judge Strong's court at New Brunswick.

There is some talk around town of organizing a lodge of the Patriotic Order of America here. The P. O. of A., is an auxiliary of the P. O. S. of A., and ladies are eligible as well as members of the P. O. S. of A.

Miss Sadie Coulter, of Newark, is visiting at the home of her aunt, Miss Mary Coulter. Miss Coulter is steadily declining and has said goodby to many of her friends.

Last night a stereopticon entertainment was given in the school house. A large audience was in attendance.

The skating here is excellent. About fifty people were out on Holly's pond yesterday afternoon.

AT THE THEATRES.

Something About the Attractions Which Plainfield Theatre-Goers May Care to Witness.

"The Christian" engagement here will take place on Saturday night at Music Hall. The cast is an exceptionally strong one, including Miss Lilla Vane, a favorite in the east who has scored the success of her brilliant career as "Glory Quayle." Miss Vane has many admirers in this city who will accord her a royal welcome. The company numbers 50 people. Two cars are necessary for the transportation of the scenery. It is said that "The Christian" is attracting many clergymen among its patrons and will take rank with "Uncle Tom's Cabin" as a moral play. It possesses a queer mixture of the carnal and the spiritual which has proved an attraction to the great mass of play-going public. During its presentation at the Knickerbocker Theatre, New York, its receipts are reported at more more than $12,000 per week. Such returns are phenomenal, even in America. Reports say that "The Christian" paid for itself during the first three or four weeks of its career, and will roll up an immense profit for the season. Hall Caine's royalties have run up to $1,000 or even $1,500 a week. During the five weeks run in San Francisco the receipts averaged $11,000 per week and would have been considerably larger if the theatre had accommodations for the people who were nightly turned away unable to secure even standing room.

PERSONAL.

Miss Pauline Sandford, of East Front street, is visiting friends in Chicago, Ill.

John Little, of Essex street, has gone to Marion, Ind., in the interests of the Campbell Press Company.

Mrs. W. W. St. John, of West Front street, who has been spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Koch, of New York, returned home last evening.

Baron Dillon 2.12

The great race horse, son of Baron Wilkes; Cherry Croft 2 22¼, son of Nutwood 2.18, and Red Lake 2 15¾, are the leading stallions at Glen Moore Stock Farm this year. Baron Dillon's fee is $50, but anyone having a mare well bred in trotting, or pacing lines, or with trotting and running blood crosses, can breed to the two latter horses free this year. Mares kept by the year for $75 00. Before you breed, visit the farm or write for descriptive circulars. E. S. Wells, Glen Moore, Mercer Co., N. J., on Phila. & R. Ry., nine miles north of Trenton.

Wells' "Miracle of Healing" Powder, a marvel of healing, cures any sore on man or beast. 25c. at druggists, or by mail. E. S. Wells, Chemist, Jersey City, N. J.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Aus der Rheinpfalz.

Germersheim. Unter den Mannschaften des 3. Bataillons des 17. Infanterie-Regiments ist der Typhus ausgebrochen. Bis vor Kurzem waren 30 Mann dem Garnisonlazareth eingeliefert.

Gimmeldingen. Der wohlhabend. 70jährige Winzer Gottfried Müller wurde Nachts auf dem Heimwege von Neustadt von unbekannten Individuen überfallen, schwer verwundet und beraubt. Müller wurde am nächsten Morgen bewußtlos aufgefunden und nach dem Krankenhause geschafft, wo er seinen Verletzungen erlag.

Kaiserslautern. Der 28 Jahre alte Schlosser Georg Freytag, der von seiner Ehefrau getrennt lebte, stürzte seine der Ehe entsprossenen drei Kinder im Alter von 4½ und 3 Jahren beziehungsweise 9 Monaten und dann sich selbst in einen Weiher. Zwei Gasfabrikarbeiter, die das Geschrei der Kinder hörten, sprangen sofort herbei und zogen die armen Kleinen aus dem Wasser. Immerhin waren zwei bereits bewußtlos. Die sofort angestellten Wiederbelebungsversuche waren jedoch erfolglos. Mittlerweile hatte sich der Vater wieder aus dem Weiher herausgerettet. Er lief sofort den nahen Bahnkörper zu, um sich von einem Zuge überfahren zu lassen. Er wurde an der Ausführung dieses Vorhabens gehindert und zur Haft gebracht.

Württemberg.

Stuttgart. Unlängst erschien in einem Juwelierladen ein Herr und ließ sich goldene Damenuhren und Ketten zur Auswahl vorlegen. Die Tochter des Geschäftsinhabers bemerkte, daß der Fremde eine Perücke und falschen Bart trug und verständigte hiervon einen Schutzmann. Letzterer nahm den Fremden, der einen mißlungenen Fluchtversuch machte, fest und führte ihn auf das Stadthaupteiamt, wo der Festgenommene sich als der 32 Jahre alte Viehhändler Simon Steinharter aus Mühringen entpuppte, der in einer Nacht in Mühringen die 71 Jahre alte ledige Rosine Schwarzmann durch Ersticken ermordet, ihrer Baarschaft und Werthpapiere beraubt und dann deren Wohnung in Brand gesetzt hatte.

Heilbronn. Der verstorbene Bankier Emil Teuffel hat für wohlthätige und erzieherische Zwecke im Ganzen 14,700 Mark gestiftet.

Plieningen. Im botanischen Garten der landwirthschaftlichen Akademie zu Hohenheim wurde ein von der Studentenschaft gestiftetes Bismarck-Denkmal feierlich enthüllt.

Ravensburg. Der verstorbene Vorstand des hiesigen Kriegervereins, Hoflieferant W. Bierer, hat dem Verein 1000 Mark übergeben lassen, damit die Zinsen je an seinem Todestage einem bedürftigen Veteranen aus dem Feldzugsjahre 1870 auf 1871 ausbezahlt werden sollen.

Tettnang. Der 22jährige, taubstumme Sohn des Wirthes Weißhaupt in Höll, der täglich Milch in eine Käserei nach dem benachbarten Meckenbeuren brachte, wurde Abends das Opfer eines Bubenstreichs. Von einigen jungen Burschen war der Docht seiner Nachtlampe, welche er an sich trug, in die Höhe geschraubt worden. Auf dem Rückwege explodirte die Laterne, die Kleider des armen Menschen fingen Feuer, wobei er so schwere Brandwunden erlitt, daß er denselben erlag.

Baden.

Karlsruhe. Einen Begriff von der gewaltigen Steigerung der Bauthätigkeit in hiesiger Stadt, mit der die rasche Zunahme der Bevölkerung längst nicht mehr Schritt zu halten vermag, gibt eine kürzlich veröffentlichte Statistik. Nach derselben standen zur Zeit 410 Stockwerks- und 110 Mansardenwohnungen leer, deren jährlicher Miethwerth insgesammt 290,000 Mark betrug.

Ettlingen. Anhier kamen nach der stattgehabten Kontrollversammlung seitens der Kontrollpflichtigen der Gemeinde Grünwettersbach schwere Ausschreitungen vor, die das Eingreifen der Schutzmannschaft nothwendig machten. Die drohende Haltung der Exzedenten veranlaßte die Polizei, sich nach weiterer Hilfe umzusehen; die Burschen weigerten sich beharrlich, ihre Namen zu nennen, und machten sich schließlich aus dem Staub. Auf Grund der Kontrollisten konnten jedoch die Namen der Radaumacher ermittelt und diese zur Anzeige gebracht werden.

Freiburg. Der Freiburger Männergesangverein feierte den 80. Geburtstag und das 60jährige Sängerjubiläum seines ältesten, aber immer noch aktiven Sängers, des Schuhmachermeisters Josef Strahm.

Heidelberg. Professor Adolf Stengel, welcher an der hiesigen Universität über landwirthschaftliche Encyklopädie las, ist im Alter von 72 Jahren gestorben.

Untertürkheim. Dahier hat nächtlicher Weile eine Bahnwärtersfrau ihrem zweijährigen Kinde und dann sich selbst den Hals abgeschnitten.

By a city ordinance, it is provided that no dog shall be permitted to run at large within the city limits, unless a good and sufficient muzzle shall be placed over the mouth of said dog in such manner as to render biting impossible. If any person permits or suffers any dog owned or harbored by him and not so muzzled to run at large, the ordinance provides that he shall upon conviction be punished by a fine not exceeding ten dollars for each offense.

Any person prepared to make complaint under oath of any violation of this ordinance may apply to the subscriber and have prosecution begun forthwith.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills.
And are endorsed by Plainfield citizens.

Mr. C. E. Hepburn, of 123 Duer street, formerly of Canada, where he first heard of Doan's Kidney Pills, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have my endorsement for they cured me of a long standing case of backache which annoyed me very much, especially if I took cold, for at such times I was in pretty bad shape. I heard different people speak very highly of Doan's Kidney Pills, concluded to try them, got a box from my druggist, Mr. L. W. Randolph, and used them according to directions with the above results. I do not hesitate to give my endorsement of a preparation like Doan's Kidney Pills."

YEARNED FOR PUGGY

Lions in Chicago Zoo Wanted to Make a Meal of Him.

Dog Guessed Their Intentions and Made a Frantic Dash for a Place of Safety, Followed by His Fat Mistress.

One afternoon last week, says the Chicago Tribune, a stout elderly woman with an exceedingly fat pug dog which she was leading with a chain drew up before the lions' cage at the "zoo" in Lincoln park. Perhaps it was because the lions had not had their regular afternoon meal, and perhaps it was because of the inviting fatness of the pug, but in any event hardly had the woman and her dog come into sight before the fence which surrounds the elevated cage in which the lions are kept than the latter began to evidence the most unmistakable interest in the dog. Crouching like a cat about to spring on a rat, with lowered heads and eyes fastened on the dog, they crept along the bottom of the cage toward where the pug was as if the iron barriers which intervened had been entirely lost sight of. There was no mistaking the greedy looks of their eyes, which held in them the most eager anticipation as if they beheld the most toothsome morsel that had ever come to their notice. Those on the broad shelves where they were wont to stretch themselves in repose slipped quietly down and lined up in a crouching attitude close to the bars of the cage with eyes which followed every movement of the dog.

For a moment or two the woman did not seem to comprehend the significance of their actions, but not so the dog, and it gave every evidence of being anything but pleased by it. It tugged this way and then that way at its chain, and every time it moved the lions within followed up and down along the bars.

"I wonder what ails them," the woman finally said, in a rather un-

WORRIED ABOUT PUGGY.
(With a Scream of Terror She Started After Her Dog.)

easy tone, and then seeming to comprehend, she gave a little scream and made a plunge as though to gather up her dog. But in doing so she let go her hold on the chain, and the pug, finding himself free, proceeded to put as much space as possible between himself and the lions.

The latter had by this time become much excited, and as they beheld the pug lumbering away and rapidly getting out of their reach, they dashed against the bars of the cage and roared their disappointment at the escape of their anticipated quarry.

This entirely completed the poor woman's discomfiture, and with a scream of terror she started after her dog as rapidly as her avoirdupois would permit, shouting at frequent intervals: "O, they will kill my Fido. They will kill my Fido."

The actions of his mistress probably added to Fido's terror, for with one look toward her he fled down the graveled pathway at a rate of speed of which no one would have thought him capable, with his mistress in hot pursuit.

TAILOR MADE GOWNS.

The Bolero or Coat Bodice Predominates For Them.

For tailor made gowns the bodice is always a bolero or a coat corsage with a short basque. For cold weather this is not sufficient for out of doors, of course, and therefore such costumes as are made for wear under a sack, cape or other heavy wrap may have a plain, tightly fitting bodice.

For a long time the skirt has been worn over the corsage with a belt except by very stout women, who have adopted a bodice pointed at the back and front, thus avoiding the necessity for a belt. By finishing the top of the skirt with a fine cord instead of a band and arranging a concealed fastening at the back it may be worn without a separate waistband.

Belts of white kid require to be often cleaned, and one way of doing it is to rub them with flour. Soft india rubber will also clean white kid articles to a certain degree unless the soiled spots have been rubbed into the surface.

The illustration given today shows a tailor made costume of silver gray cloth. The skirt is plain, with a watteau plait at the back. The bolero comes to the waist line at the back, but in front is elongated in round tabs and closed by two stitched straps with buttons. The large revers and collar of cloth are covered with applications of folds of silver gray satin. The tall, flaring collar is bordered and lined with chinchilla. The sleeves are rather short and are open, showing a full puff of gray satin gathered into a wristband of cloth ornamented like the revers. A jabot of lace is carried down the front of the bolero. The hat of gray felt has a brim composed of loops of black velvet and is trimmed with a gray ostrich plume and a buckle.

OUT OF DOOR STYLES.

Furs of Different Kinds For Different Complexions.

Although two kinds of fur in combination are authorized by fashion, they should be in the same garment—that is, a collar of one kind and a muff of another are not permissible. The collar and muff should always match, even if they are of two varieties of fur.

Ermine, once reserved for royalty and the stage, is now used for the fashionable wardrobe, but not alone by itself. It is usually employed as lining for the collar, as revers and occasionally in the form of bands for trimming. It is not particularly becoming to blonds, being of a solid white which is out of harmony with a transparent, fair complexion. Dark fur is preferable for the blond type, although for the red haired a touch of ermine is exceedingly effective. Brown and reddish toned furs approaching the tint of the hair are, of course, best of all.

The illustration given today depicts a sort of cape of navy blue cloth ornamented with motifs of light blue cloth in stitched application. The cape forms box plaits at the sides and back and is mounted on a round yoke, heavily stitched with silk. The large revers and the valois collar are of astrakhan and the lining of light blue broche silk. The accompanying toque is of draped light blue panne, with a chou of the same material in front through which a long, curved feather is passed.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

An official map of Vesuvius on a scale of 1 in 10,000 has just been issued, being the first since 1876. A new plan in relief of the cone of the volcano has also been made.

POWER OF SUNLIGHT

Experiments Prove That It Will Penetrate Human Tissues.

Photographs of Various Objects Made Through the Hand and Cheek of a Man—Medical Value of the Discovery.

A remarkable discovery in the possibilities of photography has been made by Dr. J. W. Kime, of Fort Dodge, formerly editor of the Iowa Medical Journal. Dr. Kime by his experiments has proven that sunlight will penetrate the human tissues, and that a picture can be taken with light that has first filtered through the human body. Dr. Kime's discovery was made in connection with experiments for the cure of tubercular germs by the use of sunlight as a germicide. This discovery was the result of long study of tuberculosis and promises to be the greatest aid to the thousands of people suffering from tubercular troubles.

It is well known that sunlight is the most effective germicide. The difficulty that has confronted the scientific world has been the belief that light could not be made to penetrate the human tissues, and that, therefore, the parts suffering from tubercular affections could not be reached. Dr. Kime combated this theory, and advocated that light could be made to reach the affected parts. To do this he invented a disk of colored glass for the purpose of securing the actinic or light rays as differentiated from the heat rays. The light was reflected from this circular mirror upon the body of the patient.

To prove his theory that light would penetrate the body Dr. Kime began to perform some experiments in photography. In this he was assisted by G. L. Hostetler, a photographer. The results obtained were of such a character as to prove the correctness of the theory.

The subject upon whom the experiment was to be made was taken into the dark room of Photographer Hostetler, and the plates were applied with the greatest care that all rays of light were excluded save those which traversed the body from front to back. The reflector used in the experiment is a compound circular mirror, 30 inches in diameter and overlaid with blue glass. It is so constructed that all the light which falls upon it is focused upon a spot eight inches in diameter, about eight feet in front of it. Thus an extraordinarily powerful blue light is brought to bear upon the part. Blue light is used on account of the high percentage of actinic rays of light in it as compared with the number of heat rays.

A transparency on glass of a valley in the Klondike region was used as the original from which the picture was to be made. This was fastened to a photographic dry plate which had not been exposed to light, and the two were placed upon the back between the shoulder blades of a well-developed man, weighing 160 pounds, the transparency being placed next to the skin with the new plate immediately behind it. Over these were placed black paper, black cotton wadding, some large black cloths, and all were bound down firmly with black bandages. He was then taken into the light room and the reflector was turned upon the chest 15 minutes. After exposure he was again taken into the dark room and the plates were removed and the illustration shown was developed on the dry plate. All sources of air were carefully excluded, and the experiment was repeated on different occasions and with like results. To further test the reliability of the procedure, and to insure that the picture was not produced by contact of the transparency with the plate aided by body heat or by some undertermined influence other than the light transmitted through the body, plates were arranged in the same manner and for like periods of time without attempting to pass light through the body and no pictures were developed upon the plate. The illustration accompanying shows a picture taken through the cheek with the same fidelity and care.

Something About Thibet.

Thibet is larger than France, Germany and Spain combined and has a population of 6,000,000. It is ruled over by Dalai Lama, who acknowledges only a nominal allegiance to China. He is the head of Lamaism, which is the oldest and strictest sect of Buddhism. Nearly all Mongolia is of the religion of the Dalai Lama of Lassa, and an ambitous man in the place would make trouble for China.

Organist with a Record.

An organist who died in Sweden had held the position of choirmaster and organist in one church for 72 years without missing a service. He and his ancestors had played the organ in the same church for 206 years.

New Theory of Robinson CRUSOE'S Island

It Is Advanced by the Rhead Brothers in a New Edition of De Foe's Famous Story

"WHERE is the Crusoe island?" Nine out of every ten people would answer that question by saying San Fernandez, off the coast of Chili.

But is it?

A charming new edition of the old, old story of Robinson Crusoe, issued by Robert H. Russell, of New York, and illustrated by the Rhead Brothers, says no. According to Mr. Louis Rhead, who writes an introduction for this latest edition of the old and popular tale, the island of Robinson Crusoe is situated thousands of miles from the one generally accepted, and he cites proof in defense of his theory. The island of Defoe's imagination, he says, is the island of Tobago, in the Caribbean sea.

None of the popular editions of this book heretofore published has contained a map of the island. It is known that Defoe never saw the island, which is apparent by the scant description he gives, little mention being made in the story of the trees, plants and fruits, which grow in rich profusion, and the many varieties of birds and insects which inhabit it. What local description there is was doubtless gathered from narratives written by Sir Walter Raleigh and other Elizabethan adventurers, from which Defoe derived his information about the island, which is, after all, Mr. Rhead says, wonderfully true as far as it goes. The chief feature of the new edition is the number of illustrations, flora, fauna and the tropical character of the scenes being correctly pictured. Mr. Rhead speaks with authority, he having spent some months in that and other islands of the West Indies.

In the story of Robinson Crusoe there are one or two instances that go to substantiate Mr. Rhead's theory. In the course of the narrative Defoe makes his hero expressly say that he was wrecked on one of the islands of the Caribbean sea, in latitude 11 north. Latitude 11 north runs directly through the island of Tobago. Another instance is, when Crusoe climbs up a mountain and gazes out toward the sea, he cries: "The land which I perceive is the great island of Trinidad." Now, Trinidad lies just 30 miles southwest of Tobago and directly between it and the mouth of the Orinoco river, and was undoubtedly the land which Crusoe saw.

From this evidence it will be seen that Mr. Rhead has some cause for his assertions. The following is another point which, in itself, is quite decisive. On the title page of the first edition of Defoe's work is the following statement: "The life and strange, surprising adventures of Robinson Crusoe, of York, mariner, who lived eight and twenty years all alone on the coast of America, near the mouth of the great river of Oronooque."

"Tobago," says Mr. Rhead, "is a romantic and lovely island, rich in tropical verdure, its climate extremely salubrious, the sea breezes cooling the highlands, which are healthful and pleasant, and though its people are few and mostly of African descent they all speak the English language."

The island of Tobago, after being contested by Dutch, Spaniards and French, came into British possession in 1763. It was united with the colony of Trinidad in 1889 and has a commissioner, appointed by the government. Juan Fernandez, on the contrary, was uninhabited.

It is the general impression that the story of Robinson Crusoe was founded on the experiences of Alexander Selkirk, and that this person was wrecked on an island and did live in solitude there for many years. Although Defoe does not admit that Selkirk was the original of his story, the latter did live in solitude on the island of Juan Fernandez for over four years, and no doubt few have read the real story of his adventure.

Certainly Mr. Rhead has the best of the argument from all sides when he says that Tobago, and not Juan Fernandez, is the real Crusoe isle, but even without Crusoe San Fernandez has sufficient glory for one small spot in the midst of a great ocean. For two centuries it has played a prominent part in the fact and fiction of the deep, and Alexander Selkirk, upon whose adventures the Crusoe tale was so long supposed to be founded, was not the only captive upon its hospitable shores.

Selkirk was rescued from Juan Fernandez by Capt. Woodes Rogers in 1708, after he had spent four years and five months on the island. He embodied his adventures during that time in a book of fact, and it is upon this that the Defoe story of Crusoe has commonly been supposed to be founded. But had Defoe desired to locate his story off this particular island he might equally as well have taken any one of half a dozen stories of strange adventures, all of them true.

Another lonely occupant of this same island was a native of the Mosquito coast named William. He was left there quite accidentally by Capt. Watling in 1680, long before Selkirk's adventure. He remained on the island for three years before he was rescued. An account of his adventures was published several years before Selkirk was landed there.

Another expedition touched there in 1616 and the Nassau expedition from Holland visited the island in 1624, of both of which long accounts were printed.

Six years after Defoe published his story of Crusoe he brought out another book entitled "A New Voyage Around the World by a Course Never Sailed Before," and in this book he has Juan Fernandez play a prominent part.

George Shelvocke in the English ship Speedwell was wrecked on this same island in May, 1720, and he and his crew remained there some time before they succeeded in building a vessel in which they got away. Others of the commanders of buccaneer days touched at the island and told of it and its goats in their writings, but the last visitor who attempted to play the part of Crusoe was an American named J. Ross Browne, who landed there in 1849 while on a voyage to the California gold fields. Mr. Browne wrote an extensive account of the so-called Crusoe island, which after all is not the home of Crusoe at all. Probably Mr. Browne found this out, for in his account of the island he expressed a wish to live for the rest of his days the life of Defoe's hero on this romantic spot, but he afterwards evidently changed his mind, for instead he went as United States minister to China.

In illustrating the new book the Rhead Brothers have been obliged to follow the author in picturing the man Friday and the bear, but in regard to the setting the illustrators have realized their aim in placing before the reader a perfectly illustrated book presenting an idea of the natural aspect of the island described as the scene of the story.

SPORTING.

STRIKES AND SPARES.

Daily Press Bowling League.

	Won.	Lost.
Westfield Club	4	2
Cranford Casino	3	3
Roselle Casino	1	3

A progressive head-pin bowling tournament begins at the Westfield Club alleys on Friday evening. Games will be rolled on Friday evening, and Saturday evening of this week and on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings of next week.

Westfield's victory over the Cranford Casino in The Daily Press Bowling League Tuesday evening was not a great surprise. Judging from the opening games of the league, it looked as if Westfield had the strongest team at present. Cranford made a good showing on the Park Club alleys but the Cranford bowlers are an uncertain crowd and there is no telling when they are likely to fall down. The Parks go to Roselle next week and the result of that match will be watched with interest. If the Plainfielders should manage to get the best of the series, some of the old bowlers of the Roselle Casino are likely to show up again and try to win back the honors for their club.

REGARDING LUNATICS.

County Medical Societies Are Not Satisfied With The Present Laws Regarding Them.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

New Brunswick, Dec. 13—A meeting of physicians representing the county medical societies of New Jersey was held yesterday at the home of Dr. N. Williamson, Mayor of New Brunswick. The meeting was called by the Middlesex County Medical Society to consider the defects in the present lunacy laws of the State and to suggest remedies. The most important point is that touching upon the method to be pursued in securing the commitment of a lunatic to the State asylum.

The physicians doubtless will present their conclusions to the Legislature this winter and ask for changes in the laws.

ANOTHER RURAL DELIVERY.

Residents of Middlebush Petition for Another Free Mail Route in Middlesex County.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

New Brunswick, Dec. 13.—Another application for a suburban mail route which will make six in all has been received by Postmaster Charles W. Russell.

It has been forwarded to the postal authorities at Washington. The people asking for this route reside in Middlebush and South Middlebush and that section of the country in that vicinity between the Pennsylvania Railroad and the Easton avenue turnpike.

S. B. Morris a well known milkman will be made the carrier for this route. The other suburban carriers will begin their work next Saturday.

Spanish Relics for Elizabeth Library.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, Dec. 13.—Lieutenant Commander Dennis H. Mahan, of the United States navy, has through the medium of his sister, Miss Jane Leigh Mehan, secretary of the Elizabeth Public Library and Reading Room, presented to the library a magnificent collection of relics of the Spanish-American War and which will prove of additional historical interest as the years go by.

Valuable Plants Destroyed.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, Dec. 13.—The large greenhouses of Norton & Houston, between Somerville and Raritan, were destroyed by fire about 4 o'clock yesterday morning, ruining thousands of dollars worth of plants. The fire started near the furnace. The Somerville fire department saved the adjoining residence of Mr. Norton. The loss is said to be $10,000, only partly insured.

TEA TABLE TALK.

Short and Gossipy Sketches That Are Not Always News, But Just as Interesting.

Many people are predicting a mild winter. One gentleman with whom the writer talked bases the opinion of a mild winter on the fact that the squirrels have not gathered a large supply of nuts; in fact there was not a great quantity this year to gather.

* * * * *

To Street Commissioner Gavett must be given a great deal of credit for the excellent condition of the streets of the city. It has been a long time since the streets and avenues have presented such a fine appearance and the many wheelmen and lovers of driving appreciate these fine roads. Heretofore the streets have been torn up more or less every winter to make connections of one sort and another, but fortunately, this year, very few connections have to be made.

The family of N. W. Rappelye, of Westervelt and Brook avenues, are the possessors of a number of red squirrels. Last summer one pair of them had young. A member of the family made a place for the little animals near the house. When the mother of the young had brought her family up properly she left for other quarters, leaving the children behind. The young folks have got along swimmingly, however, thanks to the kind attention that is shown them by the members of Mr. Rappelye's family, who each day deposit a few hickory nuts on the stoop near the squirrels' nest. The little fellows come forth and help themselves to the nuts, which they carry away for food. The inmates of Mr. Rappelye's family take much pleasure in watching the frolics of the pets, who have become quite tame.

The first snow of the season, which made its appearance Tuesday afternoon, has led the prognostigators to air their knowledge with reference to the snow storms that are liable to occur this winter. According to one local sage there will be as many snow storms during the winter as the moon indicates. It is this way: The first tracking snow that comes after a new moon is the time to figure. On Tuesday the new moon was nineteen days old, therefore there will be that number of snow storms before spring. Last year the moon was twelve days old when the first snow storm put in an appearance and there were exactly twelve snow storms. This sign is said never to have failed with certain gentlemen who have kept "tabs" on the weather for many years. If this sign can be depended upon then we are to have eighteen more snow storms which is not considered a great number.

In all stages of Nasal Catarrh there should be cleanliness. As experience proves, Ely's Cream Balm is a cleanser, soother and healer of the diseased membrane. It is not drying nor irritating, and does not produce sneezing. Price 50 cents at druggists or it will be mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York. Upon being placed into the nostrils it spreads over the membrane and relief is immediate. It is an agreeable cure.

Prominent Free Mason Dead.

Joseph E Busby, a retired New York business man, one of the best known Free Masons in Jersey, died yesterday from a stroke of paralysis at his home in Elizabeth. He was born in Greenwich street, New York in 1830, and for many years was engaged in the China and East India trade on Beaver street.

Held for Crap Shooting.

Albert Gaub, who was the only one of the Sunday crap shooters to be caught at the time the raid was made and who was afterward discharged by City Judge Runyon, appeared before Justice Mosher last evening. He waived examination and was held in $25 bail for appearance before the Grand Jury.

Watched Six Day Races.

The six-day bicycle race at Madison Square Garden is being closely watched by local enthusiasts most of whom have or intend to witness the struggles of the riders. Last evening nearly a hundred Plainfielders went to New York and remained at the garden for several hours.

A Child's Funeral.

The funeral services of Iva J. Roeder, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Roeder, of West Fourth street, were held from the house yesterday. Rev. Cornelius Schenck, Ph.D., pastor of Trinity Reformed church, officiated. Interment was in Hillside cemetery.

SUCCESSFUL SALE BY GRACE CHURCH GUILD.

Opened in Guild Rooms Yesterday Afternoon and Evening—Continued Today.

TO AID THE ORGAN FUND.

GREAT VARIETY OF ARTICLES ON SALE AT MANY PRETTY BOOTHS.

Good Attendance Marked First Day—Rooms Prettily Decorated—General Committee and Those in Charge of the Various Booths.

Among the pleasant events of the week is the tea and sale that is being held under the auspices of the Grace P. E Church Guild in the guild room of the church. This annual affair opened yesterday afternoon and was continued last evening. It will also be held this afternoon and evening. The attendance yesterday was gratifying to the women in charge. It affords an excellent place to make Christmas purchases, as there are so many pretty and useful things on sale suitable for presents.

The women have decorated the guild room in pretty fashion, making it an attractive place. There are pretty booths and tables upon which are to be found fancy and useful articles, dolls and toys, while provision has also been made for the sale of pies and cake, candy, etc., and after one is tired of buying they can go to the tea room, where this refreshing beverage is dispensed, and enjoy a social chat.

In the decorations the American flag occupies a conspicuous place, while the colors red, white and green are used with artistic effect about the booths and tables. Miss Cock is the chairman of the Guild and she is in full charge with a number to assist her. Those in charge of the various departments are as follows:

Candy table—Miss Rodman, chairman, Miss Holly, Miss May Holly, Mrs. Edward M. VanBuren, Mrs. L. G. Timpson, Miss Cox, Miss Waring. Mrs. Arthur McMasters; fancy table—Mrs. Marion S. Ackerman, chairman, Miss Maria Morgan, Mrs. Francis G. Moore, Miss Ackerman, Mrs. Wills; useful table—Mrs. E. B. Smith, chairman, Mrs. Charles Stover, Mrs. R. M. Stover, Miss Rachel Gough, Mrs. E. Craft; cake and pie table—Miss Hebert, chairman, Miss Pfender, Miss Arens, Miss McClure, Miss Maude VanBoskerck, Miss Rosabel Schroeder; toy table—Mrs. Wilcox, chairman, Mrs. Charles King, Mrs. Day, Mrs. DeWitt C. Ivins, Miss Ashley, Miss Lapsley.

There is also what is known as the Junior Guild table, where dolls and many things for children and young folks are to be found. This is in charge of Mrs. Monroe The lemonade booth is in charge of Mrs. Hyatt, and the tea room is looked after by Mrs. Howard Fleming, Mrs. E. L. Finch and Mrs. W. E. Lowe. Another attraction is the room provided for the serving of Welsh rarebit. Those in charge include Miss Rodman, Mrs. Charles E. Brooks, Miss Hebert and Miss Lee.

The proceeds from the affair will be devoted to the organ fund of the church and it is predicted that a goodly sum will be realized for the fund.

YALE BOYS NOT COMING.

Compelled to Cancel Date in Plainfield for This Month—May Play Here Later.

The Yale University Glee and Banjo Clubs will not appear in Plainfield this month as was announced earlier in the season. The Yale boys expected to play here the first night of their trip and then go to Pittsburgh, Pa., for the next night. Their manager has found that he could not make satisfactory transportation arrangements and so the Plainfield date has been cancelled for this month. The manager says that he will try to give a concert in Plainfield just before Lent.

Plans Drawn for New Dwelling.

Plans have been completed by Architect Edward V. French for a double frame dwelling to be erected for Dr. Marcus L. Clawson at 906 and 908 West Third street, the same to cost about $3,500. W. Wyckoff has the mason work and J. D. Kirch the carpenter work. Dr. Clawson will not occupy the house himself, but will rent the same.

Christmas Vacation at Yale.

The semi-annual examinations at Yale University began yesterday and will continue until next Wednesday when the University will close for its Christmas vacation of three weeks.

GATHERED TO CHAT AND BUY

PARISH HOUSE OF HOLY CROSS CHURCH SCENE OF SALE.

Many Gathered for It Yesterday Afternoon and Evening—Rooms Were Artistically Trimmed.

The sale of fancy articles, cake, candy, etc, held yesterday afternoon and last evening under the auspices of the social and sales committee of the Woman's Guild of Holy Cross Episcopal church, was a most successful affair. It was held in the parish house which had been artistically decorated for the occasion with evergreens, tastefully arranged about the room and at the windows.

The various tables were handsomely set and presented an inviting appearance. They were presided over by the following:

Fancy table—Mrs George P. Dupee, assisted by Mrs. DeMaziere and Mrs. A. E. Faber, Jr.

Cake table—Mrs. J. C. MacClymont, assisted by Miss Ida Davis.

Candy table—Miss Iola Moore, assisted by Miss Helen Phillips and Miss Florence Burr.

Tea table—Mrs. Samuel Townsend, assisted by several ladies of the Guild Mrs. Brock had charge of the ice cream booth.

During the evening many members of the church dropped in and enjoyed themselves in a social way. It was not intended to make any special effort in the way of elaborate preparation and none was attempted. The sale took on the nature more of a social entertainment than anything else.

WASN'T A HOBO.

Judge Runyon Gave Stranger Benefit of the Doubt and Suspended Sentence on Him This Morning.

A typical specimen of the tramp variety, who gave the name of John Brennan, faced City Judge Runyon this morning. Officer McCarthy had found him begging along Front street. The "hobo" was also considerably under the influence of that which cheers men of his class.

Brennan claimed to be on his way to Philadelphia from New York, where he claimed to have just finished a job of firing on one of the Sound boats plying between New York and Fall River. Officer McCarthy told Judge Runyon that he understood that there was a gang of tramps camped in the vicinity of Fanwood and he had heard that one of them came to Plainfield. He thought that Brennan was one of that number. The accused denied that he was a tramp but lived in the "City of Brotherly Love" with his family. He was given the benefit of the doubt and sentence was suspended.

Daughters of Liberty Elect.

Lucetta Council, Daughters of Liberty elected the following officers this week: Councilor, W. W. Stratton; vice-councilor, Mrs. W. E. Keoyer; guard, Mrs. Johnson; secretary, Miss Johnson; financial secretary, Mrs. W. R. Mattox; treasurer, A. Carpenter; outside guard, W E. Keoyer; inside guard, Lloyd Pangborn.

Will Give Clever Farces.

Much interest is taken in the proposed dramatic entertainment which will be given at the Park Club next Thursday evening. Two clever little farces are to be given by the young women who have already appeared in amateur theatricals at the club. The names of the farces have not yet been made public.

No Meeting of Juniors.

There was no meeting of the Junior Endeavor Society of the Congregational church this afternoon on account of the illness of the superintendent, Rev. Charles L Goodrich. Mr. Goodrich is considerably improved but there is very little chance that he will be able to officiate at the church services Sunday.

Last Rehearsal for "Messiah."

The last rehearsal of the chorus which will render the "Messiah" next week, will be held in the Y. M. C. A. hall tomorrow evening. All the members of the chorus are particularly requested to be in their seats at 7:30 o'clock. The entire cantata will be sung through by the chorus.

Assistant Librarians.

In publishing the names of the officers elected for Trinity Reformed church Sunday school, yesterday, the names of W. C. Startup and Will F. Williams, assistant librarians, were unintentionally omitted. There are four assistants in all and only two were published yesterday.

To Arrange for Casino.

A meeting of the executive committee of the Casino will be held tomorrow evening in the clubhouse on West Seventh street. It will be first meeting of the committee since its organization and plans will be laid for the conduct of the club during the winter.

DR. PALMER DEAD.

A Former Pastor of the First M. E. Church, of This City, Passed Away at Somerville Yesterday.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, Dec. 14—Rev. Dr. A. M. Palmer, aged 83, died yesterday morning at the residence of his son-in-law, C. H Bateman, editor of the Unionist-Gazette. Mr. Palmer had been an active minister of the M. E. church for fifty years, retiring about seven years ago. He had filled the largest and most influential churches in the New Jersey and Newark Conferences, notably at Newark, Jersey City and Plainfield. He had built a number of churches. For forty years he was treasurer of the Newark Conference, and during that time over a million dollars passed through his hands for benevolences.

Besides his widow he is survived by four children—Rev. Dr. A. J. Palmer and Dr. E. J. Palmer, of New York city; Mrs. C. W. Dickinson, of Newark, and Mrs. C. H. Bateman, of Somerville.

The funeral will be held at the Rosevile M. E. church, (Dr. Spellmeyer's). Monday. Interment at Fairmount Cemetery, Newark.

NEW BRIDGE ACCEPTED.

Freeholders of Three Counties Approved of Jefferson Avenue Bridge Yesterday Afternoon.

The Freeholders of Union, Middlesex and Somerset counties, in company with contractors Kirk & Company and Wm. Farrier, met on the new Jefferson avenue bridge yesterday afternoon for the purpose of inspection. The structure was thoroughly examined and everything being found satisfactory the Freeholders accepted it. After completing all details of acceptance, at Mr. Kirk's invitation the Freeholders adjourned to Taylor's Hotel at Dunellen, where an excellent dinner was served.

The new bridge has a forty-five foot span and cost $1,400, which is to be paid for by the three counties, part of the structure being in each The iron work was furnished by Kirk & Co., and the abutments were laid by Wm. Farrier, of New Market.

In Honor of Debutante.

Miss Edward H. Ladd, Jr., of Stelle avenue, gave a luncheon yesterday in honor of Miss Lee, of East Ninth street, one of this season's debutantes. The invited guests were Miss Louise G. Fisk, Miss Helen Bushnell, Miss Katheryn Reinhart, the Misses Waring, the Misses Wood, Miss May Evans, Miss Gertrude Andrews and Miss Lydia P. Ackerman.

Getting Ready for Christmas.

The choir of the First Baptist church has been rehearsing special Christmas music to be rendered on Sunday, December 23 In the morning there will be a special programme consisting of several anthems and part songs, and in the afternoon the regular Sunday-school service will be held. At the latter service the church Sunday-schools will unite.

Choir Rehearsal to be Omitted.

The regular choir rehearsal at the First Baptist church will be omitted tomorrow evening on account of the rehearsal of the "Messiah." Mr Fitzpatrick has charge of both the Choral Society and the church choir, and Mr McCutchen of the choir has consented to give up the Saturday evening rehearsal.

High School Hockey Team.

There is considerable talk among the boys of the Plainfield High School of organizing a hockey team. Now that there has been a chance to do some skating, the boys are interested in the proposed team. There is plenty of material in the school, and some of the boys are quite expert at the game.

Legion's Christmas Entertainment.

Those in charge of the Loyal Temperance Legion met at the home of Mrs. Dudley S. Miller, on Orchard place, last evening and arranged to hold the Christmas entertainment on Saturday evening, December 29. A fine programme will be given at that time.

Told of New York Mission Work.

A very interesting meeting was held at the Congregational church Wednesday evening. A number of members who had visited various New York missions told sold something of their visits and the work being done at the various fields.

Hockey Team Organized.

The students at Leal's school have formed a hockey team and Ralph Schoonmaker has been elected captain. The first game was played Wednesday afternoon with a pickup team from the High School.

A Month Later.

The annual election of nine directors of the First National Bank will be held January 8, instead of December 8, as was stated in the Daily Press.

FELL BETWEEN FLOOR BEAMS

WM. S. BOHL SERIOUSLY INJURED AT WOODBRIDGE CLUBHOUSE.

Slipped and Fell From First Floor to Cellar—Arm Broken and Both Ankles Sprained—Other Injuries.

William S. Bohl, of Grandview avenue, the well known builder, met with a serious accident while at work in the new Woodbridge Athletic Club building at Woodbridge yesterday morning. Mr. Bohl has the carpentering contract and was attending to a few small matters on the first floor which has not yet been boarded over. In some manner he slipped and fell between the beams, landing with great force on the frozen ground in the cellar. He was unable to rise and was picked up by the workmen who assisted him to a physician's office.

His left arm was broken just below the elbow, the right arm and both ankles were badly sprained and he was badly cut about the face by coming in contact with broken brick. A conveyance was procured and he was brought to his home in this city, where he now lies.

Drs. Zeglio and Buchanan are in charge and have made the sufferer as comfortable as possible There are now two patients in the house, Mrs. Bohl having been confined to her bed for the past two months by illness

CHARMING "AT HOME."

Mrs. O. T. Waring and Daughters Received at Mrs. Waring's Home on Park Avenue Yesterday.

The "at home" given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. O T. Waring, at her home on Park avennue, was a pleasant society affair. Mrs. Waring was assisted in receiving by her daughters, the Misses May and Florence Waring and Mrs. Lewis G. Timpson. The dining room at the handsome residence was prettily decorated with palms and cut flowers and presented an inviting appearance. Those who assisted in the dining room were: Mrs Elliot T Barrows, Mrs. Howard Fleming, Mrs Clifton Wharton, Jr., Mrs. Eugene Moore, and the Misses Elizabeth Stewart, Louise G. Fisk, Helen Bushnell, Lulu Honney. During the afternoon friends of Mrs. Waring and the young hostesses called to extend the compliments of the season.

New City Nurse.

The City Union King's Daughters has engaged Miss Gwynn Evans, of Melrose, Mass., to take Miss Olive DeLany's place as city nurse, while the latter will pursue a course at Montreal. Miss Gwynn comes very highly recommended by physicians and is thoroughly competent to look after the work. She will come to Plainfield January 1st to enter upon her duties.

Prominent Visitors Present.

Past Grand Master Workman Colyer and Past Master Workman Schroner, of Newark, in company with Grand Overseer V. W. Nash, of this city, paid an official visit to Central Lodge, No. 48, A. O. U. Complaint has been made to the police by the neighbors living on Norwood avenue of a large Newfoundland dog that frightens women and children. The police will investigate the alleged nuisance.

CLIMBED MT. HOOD.

Rev. Dr. Wilding Told an Interesting Audience at Monroe Avenue Church How He Did it.

"To the Top of Mount Hood" was the subject of a lecture to which an appreciative audience listened in Monroe Avenue M. E. church last evening. The speaker was Rev. George C. Wilding, D. D., of Elizabeth, who is not unknown to Plainfielders.

To climb Mount Hood, which is one of the highest in the Rocky Mountains, is a feat which requires considerable time to perform and those who attempt it are not always successful. It is located in the Cascade range in the State of Oregon. Dr. Wilding was one of a party of 300 who essayed the feat only thirty of whom reached the top. The ascent was described in a graphic manner including scenery, mishaps and costumes of the climbers. The description of a thunder storm when 5,000 feet up was especially vivid.

Mr. Wilding interpersed his lecture with many little pleasantries and amusing incidents which kept his audience laughing most of the time. The lecture was greatly enjoyed throughout.

SEEN BETTER DAYS.

Former Student at Brown in Hard Luck and Trouble—Appeared in City Court for Being Drunk.

A gray haired man with hair and whiskers unkept and his body covered with a blue jumper and overalls, was arrested by Patrolman McCarthy for being drunk and disorderly on Park avenue yesterday afternoon. This morning in police court he gave the name of Frank Sweet and said he worked on a farm for William Clark in the town of Metuchen. From his conversation it was evident that the old man had seen better days.

He said that he was born in Providence, R. I., and before the war he attended Brown University, but was not graduated. This being the unfortunate man's first offence he was allowed to go back to the farm, City Judge Runyon suspending sentence.

According to Love.

Everybody realizes, of course, that when love is the arbiter, nothing is too good for the object of its choice; and as love is the prompter of all Christmas gifts, it naturally follows that it goes to Collier's, 103 Park avenue, for the best of everything in the line of bon-bon spoons, shoe-buttoners, belt-pins, key rings and other novelties that the demands of the season create.

Card of Thanks.

Mrs. C. P. Hansen requests The Daily Press to convey her sincere and heartfelt thanks to members of Perseverance Lodge, No 74, K. of P., and the Pond Tool Works Beneficial Association; also the many friends who did so much for her late husband during his illness, and for herself and family in their sad bereavement.

Do Your Shopping in the Morning.

Woodhull & Martin desire to impress their patrons with the importance of shopping in the morning. They will receive better attention then than in the afternoon, when the store is crowded. They also request that baby carriages be left outside.

LEGAL FIGHT OVER CEMENT.

CONTRACTOR LOWRY WANTS HIS MONEY BACK FROM IVINS & CO.

Case on Trial at Elizabeth Yesterday and Today—Claims That Cement Used at Station Was Inferior.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, Dec. 14—The action of Titus H. Lowry, a Plainfield contractor, against DeWitt C Ivins & Co., dealers in builder's supplies in Plainfield, to recover $300 for some cement that had been bought to use on the new passenger station in Plainfield, but was found to be imperfect, has been on trial yesterday and today in the District Court in this city before Judge D. S Atwater and a jury The trial was commenced yesterday and will probably occupy the attention of the court all of today.

There are a number of witnesses, chief among whom is Building Inspector T. O. Doane, of Plainfield. It is claimed that the cement was of an inferior variety and that it did not fill the requirements necessary to do first class work. The cement was put up in bags of the Atlas-Portland Cement Company. The defendants maintain that the cement was of a good variety but that it was spoiled after being delivered to the contractors. Bruce & Runyon represent the plaintiffs and Reed & Codington the defendants, William A. Codington is trying the case for the defendants.

It is understood that the police of Jersey City have succeeded in recovering about $600 of the money alleged to have been stolen from Dr. Andrew Morrison, who was drugged and robbed of a large sum of money, said to be in the neighborhood of $2 200, in a grog shop located in Marien, a suburb of Jersey City last Monday. Yesterday Carmino Balbo, an Italian, who keeps the saloon in question, was arrested on the charge of grand larceny in connection with the case. The accused was held in $1000 bail to await the action of the Grand Jury.

MR. BONNEY'S LAST MEETING.

Temperance Meetings in Reform Hall Will be Concluded Saturday Evening.

Reform Hall was crowded to the doors last evening with an attentive audience which listened to another excellent temperance address by Mr. Bonney, of New York. Several excellent solos were sung by Mrs. John Manly.

An added feature last evening was "The Four Old Maids" who vowed and declared they would live in single blessedness, but all of whom answered the same man who advertised for a wife.

At the conclusion of the meeting eight signers to the pledge were secured. The meetings will be concluded tomorrow evening, when Mr. Bonney will give his farewell address previous to leaving for Bristol, Conn.

Pipes Burst and Flooded House.

The sudden cold snap is liable to play havoc with water pipes. A few days ago a family moved out of a house on Grandview avenue near Westervelt and forgot to turn off the water. Last night the pipes in the kitchen burst and this morning the water was pouring from the windows, having completely flooded the lower portion of the house and doing considerable damage.

Making Dolls For the Poor.

The young women of the Congregational church are dressing a number of dolls which will be sent to several New York missions to be given away on Christmas Day. The work is being done through the efforts of the Christian Endeavor Society.

CITY STREET WORK IS ENDED FOR THE WINTER

When Street Railway Pays Its Share, the Appropriation Will More Than Cover Expenses.

COMPANY OWES $2,300.

WEST FRONT STREET IS IN CONDITION TO GO THROUGH WINTER.

Remacadamizing of That Thoroughfare Will be Completed in the Spring—Street Sweepers Will Work Rest of Year.

Although several weeks more of the present year remain, the active season of the city street department for 1900 ends today. The weather has been so mild until this week that Street Commissioner Gavett's men have been able to work right along. Today, the steam roller goes out of commission for the year and the street department will cease all active work except to keep the gang of street sweepers at work.

A gang of men has been at work on Netherwood avenue, grading that thoroughfare. They stopped work yesterday. The steam roller has been at work on West Front street which is being remacadamized. Although Front street is not completed, it is in passable shape. From Park avenue to Plainfield avenue, it is in good condition. Beyond there one side is practically finished and the other is roughly done so that it can be used. The work there was pushed as fast as possible so as to get done before the cold weather put a summary stop to proceedings. The mild days continued so long that the work progressed much faster than was expected and will now go through the winter all right and be completed in the spring.

When the Plainfield Street Railway Company settles its indebtedness to the city, all the year's expenses of the street department can be settled and there will be a balance remaining sufficient to keep the street sweepers at work for the rest of the year and turn a small sum over for next year's work.

The appropriation for street work this year was $21 500. Then the Plainfield Street Railway Company is compelled by ordinance to pay its share for the macadamizing of such streets on which its tracks are laid. For work done during October, the street railway company owes the city about $500. December 1, another bill of $1 300 additional went to the company. Neither have yet been paid. Then the company's share for the work done this month will amount to $500 more. When the Plainfield Street Railway Company pays the $2,300 it owes the city, the street department will be able to end the year with its disbursements less than its receipts.

Busy Times at the "Klondike."

Five large presses were shipped from the Campbell Press Works yesterday, four of them consigned to London and the remaining one to Mexico. In order to complete another large order several additional gangs have been placed on overtime.

To Look After Street Car Men.

The committee on soldier and sailor work from the W. C. T. U. has arranged to make Christmas day a pleasant one for the motormen and conductors on the trolley cars. They will be served with cake, pie and hot coffee.

New Telephones.

During the past week the following Plainfielders have had telephones put in: Harold Gee, 1461; A. L. C. Marsh, 1452; W L Smalley, 1422; Hans Lambertson, 2081; Rodman, Hibbard, Ely Company, 202.

AT THE THEATRES.

Something About the Attractions Which Plainfield Theatre-Goers May Care to Witness.

Speaking of Hall Caine, the distinguished Manxman, whose great play, "The Christian," will be seen here for the first time at Music Hall, tomorrow night, Mr. Dean, representing the attraction, said: "While he is at work there is something almost sacred in the drama which he is unfolding. He might compose all his novels kneeling before a shrine which he devoutly believed to be of mystic holiness. True Celt, he has a feeling for landscape, for small and lovely things, for innocent maidenhood, for pure manhood, and for courage; admiring most, perhaps, the courage which gives capacity of endurance. He aspires to give the Isle of Man the reputation obtained by the singers of the Sages for Iceland, wherefore he calls for a big canvas and a large brush. The danger from which his friends are always praying that he may be evermore preserved, is that of the grandiose and the otiose—lying so near to the great and grand—nature. In private he has his fun and can laugh with the merriest but there is not a smile in his books. Even the ironic is beyond him. Poetry, sweetness, pathos, gloom, tragedy—those belong to him, but not wit, not humor."

. . . . . .

Proctor's Twenty-third Street Theatre, "the Mecca of all shoppers," has become quite the place to drop in for a few hours' rest after a Christmas shopping tour. Situated in the heart of the big Metropolitan shopping district, no more convenient place could be found to pass a few hours and at the same time enjoy one of the best vaudeville programmes to be found anywhere. For the week of Dec. 17 the all-star features include: The Russell Brothers in their new farce, "A Romance of New Jersey," by George M. Cohan; Billy Clifford and Maud Huth, the comedy pair, in "A Chappie's Visit"; Walter Leroy and Florence Clayton in "Hogan, of the Hansom"; Juggling Johnsons; Joe Sully, the blackface jester; Genaro and Baily, premier cakewalkers; Fisher and Carroll, the Irish comedians; Conway and Leland, the one-legged acrobats; Donohue and Nichols, farcical acrobatic skit, etc. Christmas Day, December 25, the door will open at 10 a. m., and the show will run until 11 p. m.

Tortured A Witness.

Intense suffering was endured by witness T. L. Martin, of Dixie, Ky., before he gave this evidence: "I coughed every night until my throat was nearly raw; then tried Dr. King's New Discovery which gave instant relief. I have used it in my family for four years and recommend it as the greatest remedy for Coughs, Colds and all Throat, Chest and Lung troubles. It will stop the worst cough, and not only prevents but absolutly cures Consumption. Price 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at L. W. Randolph's Drug Store.

Given a Better Position.

Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette A. Bowers, who have been spending a few days at the home of Mrs. Bowers' father, John V. Beekman, of West Eighth street, have left for Clarksville, Tenn. Mr. Bowers, who has been in charge of one of the factories of the American Snuff Company at Lynchburg, Va., has been promoted to a higher position and goes to assume charge of a more important factory at Clarksville.

A Woman's Awful Peril.

"There is only one chance to save your life and that is through an operation" were the startling words heard by Mrs. I. B. Hunt of Lime Ridge, Wis., from her doctor after he had vainly tried to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. Gull stones had formed and she constantly grew worse. Then she began to use Electric Bitters which wholly cured her. It's a wonderful Stomach, Liver and Kidney remedy. Cures Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite. Try it. Only 50c. Guaranteed. For Sale by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

Getting Pointers for Plainfield.

Former Mayor Charles J. Fisk, who is a member of the Plainfield Board of Health, was present at the sessions of the New Jersey Sanitary Commission at Lakewood last week and gained a number of ideas concerning the work which he will bring before the local Board at some future meeting.

Spent a Month Abroad.

Charles Barlow, of Prospect place, has returned after a month's trip abroad. He sailed on the American Liner "St. Louis," and returned by the "New York" of the same line. He visited Paris and London and enjoyed a very pleasant trip.

—Help is needed at once when a person's life is in danger. A neglected cough or cold may soon become serious and should be stopped at once. One Minute Cough Cure quickly cures coughs and colds and the worst cases of croup, bronchitis, grippe and all throat and lung troubles. L. W. Randolph.

PEACE CONDITIONS.

Empress Dowager Reported to Have Expressed Herself.

LONDON, Dec. 14.—"Information has reached the Wu-chang viceroy," says the Shanghai correspondent of The Standard, "that the empress dowager has agreed to accept the following peace conditions:

"'The early return of Emperor Kwang Su to Peking; indemnity to the amount of £40,000,000; the right of each legation to maintain a guard of 2,000 troops and the appointment of a foreign adviser to each province of the empire.'

"Director General Sheng has received a telegram from Sian-fu asserting that the empress dowager is about to start for Chen-ti-fu, in the province of Sze-chuan. Li Hung Chang and Prince Ching have received the empress dowager's permission to take the imperial seal from the forbidden palace and to use it in the negotiations."

The Morning Post publishes a dispatch from Peking dated Dec. 12 which seems to show that there is still a considerable divergence of views among the representatives of the powers. The correspondent says:

"M. Pichon, French minister, is most strenuous in demanding the punishment of the guilty officials."

Kwang Su a Christian.

BERLIN, Dec. 14.—During the session of the reichstag, the last before the Christmas holidays, Dr. Stoecker, former court chaplain, remarked with reference to the situation in China that he had received private letters asserting that the reason the empress dowager hates Emperor Kwang Su is that the latter has actually become a Christian, having been converted by British and American missionary books that came under his eye. At the close of the session Dr. Stoecker was interviewed and gave a number of corroborative details. His informant is supposed to have been Count von Waldersee, with whom Dr. Stoecker is on terms of intimate friendship.

BIG RAILROAD DEALS.

Pennsylvania Coal Company Purchased by Morgan Syndicate.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—The anthracite coal situation is indeed settled. Long after the close of business yesterday announcement was made by J. Pierpont Morgan & Co. that the firm had acquired the stock of the Pennsylvania Coal company, paying therefor 752 per cent of par.

At the same time it was stated that the Erie railroad board had been strengthened by the election of James J. Hill of the Great Northern Railway company, Norman B. Ream of the Baltimore and Ohio and the Pullman companies and Robert Bacon of J. Pierpont Morgan & Co. These directors take the place of J. J. Goodwin, S. E. Williamson and George W. Quintard. The board of directors is thought to be very materially strengthened by the new element.

Transfer of the Pennsylvania Coal company to the Morgan interest involves a much larger transaction than appears on the surface. As the capital of the company is $5,000,000, the amount involved in the deal is $37,000,000. This makes the transaction one of the largest of the kind ever consummated in this country, not only in regard to the amount of money involved, but also in regard to its bearing on the anthracite coal situation.

It is scarcely worthy of comment that shares of the Pennsylvania Coal company sell on the Exchange from 626 to 740. The latter price represents a net gain from the bid price of the previous day of 150 points. The net advance in the stock within two weeks or so has been about 340 per cent.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

A number of electors in Caribou, B. C., agreed to let a jackpot decide whom of three parliamentary candidates they would vote for.

Pension Bill Reported.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The annual pension appropriation bill for the coming fiscal year was reported to the house today by the committee on appropriations. It carries a total of $145,250,000, or about the same as the appropriation for the current year. The pension appropriation proper is about $144,000,000, the remainder being for the expenses of the pension bureau.

Killed Fellow Workman.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14. — David Schrenk, a pianomaker employed in the Sohmer piano factory at Astoria, L. I., shot and killed George Schaeffer yesterday and wounded Henry Becker, both fellow workmen of his. The shooting occurred at the noon hour. The murderer was arrested after a long and exciting chase.

Kost's Death Sentence Annulled.

BERLIN, Dec. 14.—The imperial court at Leipsic has annulled on formal grounds the sentence of death passed at Bremen last September on Bartholomew Kost, who was extradited from Chicago in October of last year on a charge of robbing and killing Marie Vodicka, a cook whom he had married, and throwing her body into the Elbe.

CITY TRAIN ROBBERY

Illinois Central Express Held Up In New Orleans.

CONDUCTOR SHOT IN THE BACK.

Mail and Express Cars Blown Open With Dynamite—Passengers Not Molested—City Police Reach the Scene Too Late.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 14.—The Chicago limited on the Illinois Central, due to arrive here at 7:15 o'clock last night, was robbed at Carrollton avenue, on the outskirts of the city, by masked men. The mail and express cars were blown open with dynamite, and the former was rifled of its contents. Conductor Kennebreu was badly wounded. He was shot in the back because he did not obey orders to uncouple the train. None of the passengers was disturbed, and they knew nothing of the robbery until the heavy charge of dynamite was fired. Then they pulled down the blinds and kept quiet. A large squad of police and detectives arrived at the scene in a few minutes and succeeded in arresting six men, who are held at headquarters. Four of them are negroes.

It is not known just how many men took a part in the robbery. They all wore short, black masks and are supposed to have boarded the train at Kenner, the last stop before New Orleans. The leader of the gang evidently got on in front of the mail car, next the tender. The plan was well laid, and when a point near the railroad crossing at Carrollten avenue was reached the leader crawled up over the coal tender to the engine and, covering the engineer and fireman, ordered them to stop the train. They complied. The other men jumped from the train.

Conductor Kennebreu also left one of the rear coaches and was immediately covered by several revolvers. He was ordered to uncouple the train. He did not step quick enough, and a bullet was fired in his back. The robbers then uncoupled the train back of the tender, and the leader, who was still on the engine, ordered the engineer to "pull out." The engineer complied and kept "pulling out" until ordered to stop, half a mile away. Here the leader of the gang jumped off and hurried away in the darkness.

Meantime the rest of the gang was hurrying matters, and after a demand on the express messenger and mail clerks to open up, which was not complied with, big charges of dynamite were placed under the cars and touched off. The express car was badly shattered, but the express officials claim the robbers got nothing there. The mail car was not badly injured, but an entrance was effected, and all the mail pouches were cut open. Some 75 or 100 pieces of registered mail were carried away.

While this was going on the flagman of the train escaped and went down the track to flag another train. He was met by the robbers and relieved of his watch. Railroad and city detectives and United States secret service men by the score are working on the case.

Case of Anthrax Poisoning.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Dec. 14.—Bert Havens died at Westfield, Tioga county, of anthrax poisoning while preparations were being made to bring him to the hospital here. He was ill but four days. Havens was an employee of the tannery at Westfield, and it is said that while engaged in handling a consignment of Brazilian hides became inoculated with the anthrax germs. His neck became terribly swollen, as did most of his body, and he died after suffering indescribable torture.

The Six Days' Race.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—Six teams continued the whirl of excitement and sport for several thousand enthusiasts and loud mouthed rooters yesterday in the fourth day of the six day bicycle race at Madison Square Garden. The record established by Miller and Waller last year is becoming further and further away. The leading teams, Pierce and McEachern and Elkes and McFarland, were 34 miles and 9 laps behind the record at 11 o'clock last night, their score being 1,810 miles and 1 lap.

Costly Fire In Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 14.—The building, foundry and machinery of the Lane & Bodley works at John and Water streets were burned last night, the total loss being from $200,000 to $250,000. They were large manufacturers of sawmills, traction engines and many other articles, and about 200 men will be thrown out of work. Captain Packer of the fire department was seriously injured while working at the fire. The building and machinery were partially insured.

Train Service Resumed.

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan., Dec. 14.—Yesterday at noon the train dispatchers' office in this city for the Oklahoma division of the Santa Fe began handling trains by orders. This is the first time they have been able to handle trains in this way since the operators' strike, which began last Saturday afternoon. Every station on the division is supplied with at least one operator, and trains are running as usual. Extras will be ordered out this morning.

British Defeat Rumored.

LONDON, Dec. 14.—The Daily Express publishes a rumor of a serious disaster to the British arms. According to this report, the Boers attacked the camp of General Clements in the Barberton district, capturing the camp, killing a number of British officers and taking prisoners all the British troops, including four companies of the Northumberland fusiliers. The story is not confirmed in any quarter and is not generally believed.

Subsidy Question Decided.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 14.—The University of Pennsylvania won the first annual debating contest with Columbia university at the Academy of Music last night. The question discussed was: "Resolved, That the United States should establish a system of graded subsidies based upon mileage traveled by registered American vessels in a foreign port." Columbia had the negative.

End of Rebellion Prophesied.

COLON, Colombia, Dec. 14.—General Uribe, after having been defeated at Corozal, escaped his pursuers. Half a million dollars has just been shipped to Europe and New York from the province of Antioquia, where quiet is restored. Everything points to an early termination of the rebellion.

TREATY IS AMENDED

Senate Favors Right to Defend Isthmian Canal.

MANY OTHER CHANGES PROPOSED.

It Is Announced by Senator Lodge, In Charge of the Measure, That He Will Continue His Efforts to Have It Ratified.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—For nearly three hours yesterday Mr. Hanna of Ohio addressed the senate upon the pending ship subsidy bill. While he has spoken heretofore on the floor of the senate, this effort really was his first formal speech to the body since he became a member of it.

In accordance with previous agreement the senate in executive session took a vote at 3 o'clock on the amendment to the Hay-Pauncefote treaty authorizing the United States to defend its interests in the canal. The senate did not close its doors until 2 o'clock, and there was then left only one hour's time for discussion of the provisions of the amendment. The vote was taken by yeas and nays, 65 votes being cast in favor of the amendment and 17 against it. The negative votes were as follows: Baird, Beveridge, Frye, Foster, Hansbrough, Lindsay, Mason, McCumber, McEnery, McBride, Morgan, Money, Stewart, Tillman, Wellington, Wolcott and Gallinger.

The committee amendment which was adopted is a provision to be inserted after section 5 of article 2 of the treaty and is as follows:

"It is agreed, however, that none of the immediately foregoing conditions and stipulations in sections numbered 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 of the article shall apply to measures which the United States may find it necessary to take for securing by its own forces the defense of the United States and the maintenance of public order."

The committee amendment no sooner had been adopted than various senators took the floor to suggest further amendments. The amendment which probably attracted most attention was offered by Senator Elkins and is as follows:

"Nothing in this treaty shall be construed to prevent the United States from acquiring sufficient security and sovereignty or to prevent it from building, operating, maintaining, controlling and defending the said canal (referring to the proposed Nicaragua canal) or for any other purpose that the United States may deem for its best interests."

Other amendments were suggested by Senators Tillman, Allen, Money and Thurston. Senator Lodge, in charge of the bill, was not slow to recognize the futility of trying to secure further consideration for the treaty as amended during the day, and as soon as the amendments were all submitted he moved an adjournment, which motion prevailed.

Previous to taking the vote on the committee amendments Senator Elkins occupied the greater portion of the senate's time with a speech advocating radical alteration of the treaty. He announced himself as favorable to the committee amendment, but said that to his mind that amendment did not go far enough to meet the wishes of the American people. He believed, he said, that if the canal was to be constructed by the government of the United States the people would demand complete and absolute control over the canal itself and also the right to exercise their own judgment as a nation, not only in acquiring property in connection with the canal, but if need be in securing sovereignty over it. He contended that to pursue this course involved no violation of international rights and in defense of this position said the United States had made an offensive and defensive treaty with France in 1793 and soon afterward had repudiated that obligation. He also cited other precedents and authorities, some of them being from English sources, in support of this position. He argued, in short, that changed conditions warrant a change in conduct and in position.

After the senate adjourned for the day the Republican committee on order of business held a session to decide upon the future line of action with reference to the treaty as amended. After this committee had concluded its conference Senator Lodge, who was with the committee, stated that the senate would proceed with the treaty and that he would continue his efforts to have it ratified.

The debate upon the war revenue reduction bill continued in the house. It was dull and featureless. Those who spoke were Messrs. Grosvenor of Ohio, Bartholdt of Missouri, Hill of Connecticut, Boutell of Illinois, McClellan of New York, Newlands of Nevada, Levy of New York and Underwood of Alabama. Mr. Bartholdt criticised the action of the ways and means committee in not making a deeper cut in the tax on beer and gave notice that he would offer an amendment to reduce it to $1.50 per barrel. General debate upon the bill will close at 2 o'clock today, and Mr. Payne, the floor leader of the majority, expects the bill to pass before adjournment.

The house adopted a resolution for a holiday recess from Friday, Dec. 21, to Thursday, Jan. 3, 1901.

COMMENT IN LONDON.

Adoption of Treaty Amendment Not Liked.

LONDON, Dec. 14.—The adoption by the United States senate of the Davis amendment to the Hay-Pauncefote treaty yesterday is evidently regarded as far too weighty a matter for hurried comment by the London morning journals. Accordingly The Times and most of the other papers will postpone until tomorrow their editorial treatment of the question in its present phase. The Daily Chronicle, however, publishes a short note, in which it says:

"The news is very serious indeed. It means, in a word, that the jingoes and Anglophobes of the United States senate have triumphed and that we are back again today where we were at the time of the Venezuelan imbroglio and President Cleveland's insolent and provocative speech. The better feeling manifested during the Spanish-American war has been shaken by pro-Boer sympathies, and it is now swamped by self interest.

"The Americans intend to fortify the canal in spite of the treaty engagement to the contrary. We cannot possibly stand by and allow the Clayton-Bulwer treaty to be thus imperiously set aside. The good relations between the two countries must of necessity be gravely menaced. This is the outcome of Mr. McKinley's re-election. Worse could hardly have happened if Mr. Bryan had been returned."

The Daily Graphic remarks: "We have no doubts as to the result. Anglo-American statesmanship will find an amicable solution of the difficulty created by American jingoes. We fail to see, however, how the Clayton-Bulwer treaty can be got rid of without the Mosquito territories reverting to Great Britain."

The Standard observes: "It is more of a rebuff for President McKinley's executive than for Great Britain. England cannot possibly accept the Hay-Pauncefote treaty thus amended, and it would be insulting to the people and government of the United States to assume that they would either denounce the Clayton-Bulwer treaty without offering an equitable equivalent or contemplate the gross illegality of disregarding it. There will be time enough to consider the abrogation of the treaty when Washington formally tenders a suggestion which would certainly be approached by Great Britain with every desire to assist the United States to carry out a project highly beneficial to American commerce, but it cannot be supposed that we would abandon our treaty rights without solid consideration in return."

GET RICH QUICK SCHEMES.

Recent Postal Decision Classes Them With Lotteries.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—Harrison J. Barrett, the assistant attorney for the postoffice department, has rendered an opinion which has been approved by the assistant attorney general for the postoffice department holding that while the basic principles upon which the so called bond investment schemes are founded are not unlawful, yet the schemes as at present operated are inimical to the postal laws.

The opinion states that the schemes are in the nature of lotteries, most of the promises made in these contracts being impossible of fulfillment under the known and recognized rules of investment unless many lapses occur and unexpected earnings accrue. It is further held that inasmuch as some of the contract holders will lose on their investments the schemes are fraudulent under the provisions of the statutes which forbid the use of the mails in the promotion of such enterprises. The postoffice department will notify all companies operating schemes of this character and require them to make such modifications in their plans as will eliminate the features which give unequal advantages to persons similarly situated and to make their promises so that the last man will be provided for without depending upon contingencies before any further action is taken in this matter.

Antisaloon League Busy.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Dec. 14.—The New York State Antisaloon league confiscated a truckload of slot machines and had them destroyed by the sheriff, their owners having been fined $25 each. Agents of the league superintended the destruction of the machines. They also caused the arrest of James Calahan, a saloon keeper of Fishkill Landing, on a charge of perjury for false swearing in regard to his liquor tax certificate. Another saloon keeper, David Moors of Mabbettsville, was fined $100 for violating the Raines law, and other cases are pending.

Amnesty For Dreyfus Affair Cases.

PARIS, Dec. 14.—In the chamber of deputies yesterday the first paragraph of the amnesty bill which deals with the cases arising out of the Dreyfus affair was adopted by a vote of 329 against 244. An amendment excluding cases of espionage and treason from the amnesty was adopted by a vote of 296 against 248.

Hobson Very Ill.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—It is learned that the condition of Lieutenant Richmond P. Hobson has grown worse in the past 24 hours and that he has reached a crisis in the fever from which he has been suffering at the Presbyterian hospital for the last ten days. He is very low. The physicians believe that he will recover.

McGovern Won Easily.

TATTERSALL'S, Chicago, Dec. 14.—Terry McGovern is now the undisputed lightweight champion of the world. He knocked out Joe Gans of Baltimore last night after two minutes and five seconds of fighting in the second round. Gans put up a very poor exhibition and was never in it at any stage of the game.

Blizzard at Oswego.

OSWEGO, N. Y., Dec. 14.—Oswego is in the grasp of a blizzard. A high wind is blowing, and snow is falling heavily. The railroads are prepared for the storm, and no delays are yet reported.

CONSERVATIVES WIN.

American Federation of Labor Has a Hot Debate.

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 14.—The conservative element in the American Federation of Labor was dominant throughout yesterday's proceedings of the convention. Two resolutions championed by the radical element were voted down by overwhelming majorities. One was a bitter pronouncement against trusts and monopolies in general and the other a declaration in favor of the co-operative commonwealth and government ownership and control of all means of production and distribution. For both of them much more moderate substitutes were adopted after a long debate.

Throughout the debate the opponents of the resolutions claimed socialism as the only solution of the industrial problems. Trades unionism, they said, would last as long as the competitive system prevails, but the competitive system should be done away with and the co-operative commonwealth should take its place.

President Gompers and his colleagues, who opposed the resolutions, took the ground that the federation should not be committed to any political party and that gov ment ownership is at this time an impracticable theory, with no definite plan for development into a working system.

The substitute of the committee was adopted by an overwhelming majority, the vote being 4,169 affirmative to 685 negative.

Major Romeyn, a retired army officer, also spoke for the retention of the canteen.

THE ARMY CANTEEN.

Noted Prelates Advocate Its Retention as a Temperance Measure.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—In the senate committee on military affairs the hearing on the army reorganization bill was continued, and in addition to a number of army officers Archbishop Ireland and Bishop McGoldrick were heard. The two prelates spoke only on the provision of the bill prohibiting the establishment of canteens or post exchanges. Both of them pronounced the provision unwise and expressed the opinion that the canteen is in the interest of temperance and good morals in the army.

Archbishop Ireland based his remarks especially upon his observations of affairs at Fort Snelling, near his home at St. Paul. He said that he was sure from all that he had seen and heard among the soldiers that the canteen is a powerful factor in the protection of the soldiers from outside temptations of all kinds, and he did not accept the theory that the canteen brings temptation to the troops that otherwise would not come to them.

Reid Has a Conference With Bond.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Dec. 14.—Mr. Reid, the contractor, who started last evening for Montreal, where he will spend the winter, endeavored to reopen negotiations with the Bond government, recognizing the futility of a further attempt to continue his antagonism to the ministry in the face of such an immense following as Mr. Bond secured at the recent general election. After a conference between the premier and the contractor, in which the entire question was discussed, the cabinet considered the matter in special session. The subject is now in preliminary stages only, but the negotiations will be continued through the winter by correspondence with Mr. Reid. Considerable time will elapse before all the difficulties arising are adjusted.

The New Bedford Strike.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Dec. 14.—Nothing particularly new developed in the mill strike situation. The denial by President Lynch of the National Loom Fixers' union that the loom fixers were to be called out lifted a feeling of uneasiness from the operatives all over the city. Secretary Hart reports that 350 weavers had been placed upon the roll of strikers.

A Rise In Plug Tobacco.

BOSTON, Dec. 14.—Information has just been received by the local dealers that a week hence an advance of 1 cent a pound will be made on all plug and cut plug brands controlled by the Continental Tobacco company. This makes the fourth advance within 12 months, and its effect, especially upon the small dealers, will, it is said, be disastrous.

New Statehouse For Mississippi.

JACKSON, Miss., Dec. 14.—The Mississippi capitol commission yesterday afternoon let the contract for the new statehouse to Messrs. Wells & Wells of Chicago for $831,000. The next lowest bid was that of George Dugan of Kansas City, who bid $833,000. The successful contractors agree to commence work on Jan. 1 and complete the work within 28 months.

A Case of Early Teething.

ALBANY, Dec. 14.—Baby Agnes Clark, who is but 4 weeks old, is the possessor of a full set of teeth. The child's father is James Clark, who resides at 66 Clinton street and is employed in the West Albany shops. This case is one which has occasioned a great deal of comment among the physicians of the city.

UNITING THE ISLANDS

Six Hundred Miles of Cable For the Philippines.

PANAY INSURGENTS ACCEPT AMNESTY

Said to Be Swearing Allegiance at the Rate of One Thousand a Day. Taft Commission Appropriates $150,000 For Police Purposes.

MANILA, Dec. 14.—The United States cable ship Burnside will next week proceed to Damuguete, island of Negros, to begin the laying of 600 miles of government cable to connect Negros, Mindanao and Jolo. Negros and Cebu already have cable connection with Iloilo and Manila. The new line will extend from Damuguete to Oromaueta, Misamis, Illigata and Tagaloan, all on the north coast of Mindanao. A land line will connect Misamis and Tigum, and the main portion of the cable will extend from Tigum to Zamboanga and thence to Jolo.

At present there is scarcely any telegraphic communication with southeastern Luzon, owing to the persistent wire cutting. It is proposed eventually to connect that section and the larger islands adjacent by cable with Manila.

General Kobbe, with the Twenty-eighth volunteer regiment, Colonel Birkhimer commanding, landed at Kagayan, on the northern coast of Mindanao, Monday and re-enforced the six companies of the Fortieth volunteer regiment stationed in the town. An aggressive movement had been planned.

From Iloilo it is unofficially reported that the insurgents in that part of the island of Panay are swearing allegiance at the rate of 1,000 a day. The arrest of many prominent insurgents started the movement, which seems to be becoming universal at Jaro, Molo, Mandurriao, Arevelo and Iloilo. Considerable sums of money and large quantities of supplies have been captured by the Americans.

The Taft commission has passed an act authorizing General MacArthur to establish police in the cities and towns and appropriating $150,000 for their maintenance.

Commissioner Wright, who is assigned to supervise the establishment of a constabulary among other duties, said the establishment of a local police force was a necessary feature of civil government and was approved by the military government.

Mail Car Robbed.

TEXARKANA, Ark., Dec. 14.—The mail car on the north bound Cotton Belt passenger train was looted between Bassetts, Tex., and this city yesterday. Several registered mail pouches were cut open and the contents carried away. It is understood that the pouches contained several valuable packages en route from Waco to Memphis. Mail Clerk John M. Dennis was found unconscious from a blow on the head when his train reached Texarkana. Until he recovers no description of the robbers can be secured. Two men have been arrested on suspicion at Naples, Ark., but no trace of the plunder was found on them.

Bryan and Thompson Deny.

LINCOLN, Neb., Dec. 14.—Both William J. Bryan and D. E. Thompson make unqualified denials of the truth of the story printed in New York wherein they are alleged to have arranged a Republican fusion deal whereby they could be elected to the United States senate from Nebraska. Mr. Bryan said: "There is not a word of truth in it. I have other plans." Mr. Thompson, who is a Republican and a candidate for the senate, said: "This story is not true. I am making combinations with no one; certainly not with a Democrat. You cannot make my denial too strong."

False Report Corrected.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The following statement is posted at the war department: "The United States army transport Hancock arrived at San Francisco Dec. 10, 1900, with the remains of 11 soldiers, 10 of whom died en route, and one was transferred to the Hancock from the hospital ship Relief at Nagasaki. The report that 1,500 remains were brought over is without foundation, and it is requested that this statement be given the widest circulation by the press."

Presidential Appointments.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The president has sent the following nominations to the senate: Judson C. Clements of Georgia to be an interstate commerce commissioner, a reappointment; John W. Yerkes of Kentucky to be commissioner of internal revenue. The nomination of Mr. Yerkes to be collector of internal revenue for the Eighth district of Kentucky was withdrawn.

Odell Dined In Washington.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—Governor Elect Benjamin Odell of New York was the guest of honor at a dinner last night given by Representative L. N. Littauer of the Twenty-second New York congressional district. A number of New York and other representatives in congress were present, together with some of the governor's personal friends from New York city and state.

Cold Storage Man Gets Three Years.

MONTREAL, Dec. 14.—Donald McGillis, one of the three directors of the Montreal Cold Storage company who were indicted for fraud, was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary. Of the other directors McCulloch is out on bail, the jury having disagreed in his case, and Chisholm is in hiding somewhere in the United States.

New Coal Mine In Operation.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Dec. 14.—The Greenough mine between here and Mount Carmel and owned by local capitalists began operations yesterday, with 250 men and boys employed. On Jan. 1 300 more names will be added to the pay roll.

COMING EVENTS.

December 18—Hugh R. Munro, vice-president of the Niagara Lithograph Company, will address the Y. M. C. A. meeting

Plainfield's Streets.

It is a matter for congratulation on the part of the citizens of this city that the streets of Plainfield are in such generally excellent condition. Of course, it is no difficult matter to point out places here and there were the macadam surface of some thoroughfare needs repairing. Taken as a whole, however, the street system of the city was never in better condition than it is today.

Much credit is due to the present administration of the street department but it is not wholly responsible for the present condition of affairs. If the work of previous street committees of the Council had not been carried on with system, the present satisfactory situation could never exist.

Plainfield won a reputation for good streets sometime ago and that reputation has not been lost. Each succeeding street committee has carried out the same general scheme instituted a number of years ago. It was planned to keep in fair repair all the macadam streets and to gradually add to their number each year to as great an extent as the appropriation would permit

This plan has been carried forward until good macadam roads are to be found in every section of the city. The last two years have seen particular improvement in the Fourth ward, where the macadamizing of West Third and West Fourth streets has been a great advantage to residents in that section. The repairs to West Front street have put in proper condition one of the most important thoroughfares of the city.

These road improvements have been made without asking for any remarkably great increase in the appropriation. As the personnel of the Council next year will be the same as this and it is probable that the present street committee will be reappointed, the policy of past years will be undoubtedly carried out during the coming year.

One of the bills which will undoubtedly be introduced into the State Legislature this winter, will provide for the changing of certain local elections which now take place in the spring, so that they will take place in November when the general elections are held. Should the bill be prepared so as to affect boroughs like that of North Plainfield, it is very doubtful whether it would receive any support from the people of that municipality. At present the borough elections are entirely independent from the county and state elections and the regular political lines are not so strictly drawn. Local issues and the personality of the candidates assume more prominence in consequence.

There need be no cause for alarm over the fact that a number of cases of scarlet fever have appeared in the Children's Home in North Plainfield. The cases are carefully quarantined and there need be no fear of the disease spreading.

Amateur theatricals are decidedly more popular this winter than they have been for several years. Already, three different dramatic entertainments are being arranged by local talent.

Those who doubt the ability of the local merchants to fill the requirements of the Christmas shoppers can have their doubts dispelled by a visit to their establishments.

It seems generally conceded by all that Assemblyman Charles S. Foote, of this city, will be the Republican leader in the Assembly this winter.

WHAT OTHERS SAY.

Clippings From Other Newspapers Which May Be Of Interest to Plainfield and Its Citizens.

The Hon. Alvah A. Clark will be the Democratic caucus nominee for United States Senator to succeed William J. Sewell. He has been chosen by the Hudson county delegation and that is equivalent to an actual nomination. It is an empty honor this year but Mr. Clark may be in line for the honor at some future day when the Democrats are again elected to power in the very distant future.—Somerville Unionist-Gazette.

* * * * *

The Press was the first newspaper to name Assemblyman Foote, of Union, for leader of the House. For a time he was opposed by Lewis, of Passaic, but there is now little chance of his defeat. Mr. Foote is loyal and forceful. His record is clean in the House and he promises to become one of its ablest leaders. His recognition is a deserved tribute.—New York Press.

* * * * *

Since the name of Alvah A. Clark became so prominently mentioned in connection with the nomination for United States Senator by the Democratic minority in the Legislature some youthful Democrats have expressed an ignorance of his political prominence. Mr. Clark was a most useful Representative in Congress from the old Third district for the two terms between 1877 and 1881. Probably the drifting of his party from its bedrock principles in the last eighteen years caused him to retire from active interest in its welfare, but since there is a prospect of reform he, with many other able men, have come to the front as its defenders.—New York Press.

* * * * *

South Jersey Democrats who are opposed to ex Congressman Alvah A. Clark as the Democratic caucus nominee for United States Senator are making themselves heard. Henceforth, the "Farmer Orator," James E. Martine, of Union county, who was the first Democrat to break ground against Mr. Clark, will not have to plough and harrow alone. Clarence T. Atkinson, who is known as the "Silver Tongued Orator of South Jersey," and who ranks close to Mr. Martine as a public speaker, is reported to have declared his opposition to Mr. Clark in emphatic terms * * * * Mr. Atkinson's complaint is said to be largely composed of a threat that, if the apparent determination to make Mr. Clark the Democratic candidate for United States Senator is persisted in, there will be a split in the party of such force and dimensions that it will sever it in twain, or, in the classic diction of the excited, "rip it up the back."—New York Tribune.

TEA TABLE TALK.

Short and Gossipy Sketches That Are Not Always News, But Just as Interesting.

The short days are here again. It is now dark a little before 5 o'clock and daylight does not make its appearance until about 7 o'clock. The shortest days of the year will be on the 21st of this month, when the days and nights are of equal length. "When the days begin to lengthen, the cold begins to strengthen," is an old adage that invariably proves true.

* * * * * * *

A well-known young man, who is compelled to wear false teeth, went out with boon companions the other night. Being of a convivial disposition he looked not wisely but too well upon the amber fluid with a wide, white collar. When he reached home in the gray of the morning he was considerably the worse for wear. From the indications a casual glance of his room revealed there had been "something doin'" the night before. His room was in disorder and so was his clothing. But the most disastrous thing that confronted him was the fact that he was minus his false teeth. He says that he remembers laughing at a joke perpetrated by his companion and he thinks the teeth must have slipped from his mouth at the time. The young man is at present taking a nurishment of gruel and beef tea.

THEY SAY.

The Merchant Says:

Telephone service is a great promoter of business. It not only is an open door for new business, but increases the facility with which any business may be transacted.

The Railroad Man Says:

It keeps our many departments running in continuous harmony. It increases both our passenger and our freight service, and is a great convenience to our patrons.

The Broker Says:

It keeps me in touch with the market wherever I am; I buy and sell by wire, and by taking telephonic advantage of a turn in the market I have made thousands of dollars.

The Doctor Says:

Telephone service has increased my income to nearly double. Many persons will seek advice by telephone who would hesitate to ask a physician to make a call.

The Caterer Says:

Telephone service enables me to serve my patrons more speedily and with less effort. It minimizes possibility of loss from overstocking.

The Housekeeper Says:

Life without telephone service would be unbearable. It smooths all the rough places. How we ever got along without it, I do not know.

The Suburban Resident Says:

The knowledge that I can call up my house out of town from my office in the city, is a great comfort.

The College Man Says:

"I say, old chap, it's great. You can call up and get the latest news from the football game or the boat race, and every other old thing a fellow wants to know."

Everybody Says:

It is the greatest thing in the world—the greatest convenience of this or any other time. The greatest factor in business, social or domestic life; a service no one can afford to be without.

The Telephone Company Says:

We want your patronage on the basis of LOW RATES, PERFECT SERVICE.

NEWS OF NEAR NEIGHBORS.

INTERESTING NOTES FROM PLAINFIELD'S SUBURBAN TOWNS.

Daily Budget Of News Gathered By The Daily Press' Corps of Special Correspondents.

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence.)

Dunellen, Dec. 14—Pedestrians on North avenue yesterday afternoon were witnesses of a short but exciting runaway, caused, it is said, by the inebriated condition of the driver. A team of horses attached to a loaded hay wagon belonging to Frank Alletti, of Springdale, were the runaways. They were started, by the driver, into a trot, which soon became a run and the next instant were beyond control. The driver made no attempt to stop them but simply held his seat. The team pulled to one side of the road and in front of Wiedenhaupts' market, the wagon collided with a tree. The vehicle was badly wrecked but the driver escaped unhurt. Bystanders secured the team before they broke from the harness. They were afterward unhitched by the driver who returned home and secured another wagon. The load of hay was afterward transferred.

The Freeholders of Union, Middlesex and Somerset counties, together with the contractors, W. T. Kirk, and Wm Farrier, met and inspected the new Jefferson avenue bridge yesterday afternoon. The work being found satisfactory the structure was accepted. At Contractor Kirk's invitation the entire party afterwards adjourned to Taylor's Hotel and partook of dinner.

A large number were present at the rehearsal of the Choral Union held last evening and everything is now in readiness for the concert. It will be given in the Methodist church next Monday evening and promises to be a successful affair.

On account of a rush of orders at the mines after the recent shut-down, the local coal dealers have considerable difficulty in getting their orders filled. Only enough to fill long-booked orders is being sent out.

Mrs. Martha Runyon has returned home after a two months' visit with Rhode Island relatives.

Mrs. Edward Hopkins, of Elizabeth, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Chas. Ross.

Mrs. Lizzie Hunt has gone to Brooklyn for a week's visit with relatives.

The Euchre Club will meet this evening with Miss Edith Boice.

NEW MARKET.

(Special Correspondence.)

New Market, Dec. 14—Mr. and Mrs. Adam Gresser, of New York, have taken up their residence in town. Mr. Gresser has announced his intention of starting in the wholesale cigar manufacturing business here, but has not yet decided where to locate his place of business.

As a result of the warm weather yesterday, the ice on the pond was covered with several inches of water. It did not deter the skaters, however, but the majority of them went home with wet feet.

Contractor Gaskill has completed the new ice house, and the building is now ready for the reception of ice.

William Tabb is now connected with an insurance company with the head office at Somerville.

It is now stated that the suburban delivery in this section will positively commence tomorrow.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence.)

Scotch Plains, Dec. 14—The three-days' rummage sale which is being held by the ladies of the Methodist church in the Marsh building, will close tonight. The committee in charge are well satisfied with the support given the sale Wednesday and Thursday, and with the receipts of tonight's sales they will have a nice sum to add to the church treasury. When the sale closes tonight whatever stock is left will be auctioned off to the highest bidder. It is hoped that in this way the varied assortment of clothes, toys, bric-a-brac, etc., will be entirely cleaned up.

The open weather so far this winter has been a great help to the stone crackers in the valley. Both crackers have been kept running on full time and have orders enough already to keep going as long as the weather will permit.

Joseph Schmidt and Edwin Fancher enjoyed a day's hunting near the Passaic river yesterday. The net result of their day's sport did not tire the hunters very much to carry home.

Little Miss Ada R. Buckley, who has been spending several weeks with her grandmother, Mrs. James Buckley, has returned to her home in Plainfield.

The library of the Baptist Sunday school has recently been increased by the addition of eighteen volumes of Dr. Tomlinson's "Boy's Books."

The members of the recently organized basket ball team of the borough will meet for practice in the Fanwood club house tomorrow night.

Mrs. Wm. A. Gere and child are visiting at the home of Mrs. Gere's parents in Brooklyn.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

(Special Correspondence.)

South Plainfield, Dec. 14—At a meeting of the P. O. S. of A., last night, the following officers were nominated to fill the chairs for the ensuing six months: President, Joseph Eckart; vice president, Joseph Carckoff; M. of F., Wm. Clawson and Lewis Randolph; recording secretary, C. A. Cubberly; financial secretary, H. J. Manning; treasurer, T. H. Brantingham; conductor, R. B. Manning; inspector, A Brundage; guard, C. H. Brantingham; trustee for eighteen months, R. B. Manning.

Harry Weaver was in New Brunswick yesterday, where he appeared before the Grand Jury as a witness in the case of illegal liquor selling against Morris Higgins. This case has become quite complicated but it is doubtful if anything will proven against Higgins.

A valuable dog belonging to Dick Elliot was killed by an express train yesterday which was passing the coal shutes. Mr. Elliot was talking to a friend when he heard a yelp from the dog and looking around he found the animal cut in two.

A constable's sale at the Holly Grove Farm is billed to take place next Monday. This is the result of a suit brought by Frank L. Smith. Horses, cows, wagons and other farming utensils will be sold.

Henry L. Mallison's barn is being torn down. This barn is an old landmark, being nearly one hundred years old.

The masonry work and repairing which was being done on Mr. Johnson's house was completed yesterday.

William Smith has given up his position at the coal plant to take a better one at the Lehigh coal shutes.

Mrs. William Clawson has returned from New York, where she has been making a visit of four weeks.

Miss Nellie Manning is entertaining Miss Mabel Atman, of Jackson street, Trenton.

The signal tower at the Lehigh Valley railroad station is being painted.

Harvey Clawson is confined at home by illness.

Mortgages Filed.

The following mortgages have been filed in the Union County Court: Harry B. McDonald, lot 45, blk 6 map Plainfield Real Estate Company, to William H. Abbott, $600; Bella LaRue et husb, two tracts in Plainfield, along line of C. R. R. of N. J to J. A. Coles, $10 000; Margaret Schmidt et husb, tract on North First street, Scotch Plains, to Home Building and Loan, of Plainfield, $300; Patrick O'Keefe, lot at east corner of Third street and Prescott place, Plainfield, Ignatz H. Mellick, $4,500; Alexander Flynn et ux, tract on McDowell street, Plainfield, to Fanny M. Cross et al, exrs., $1,400.

Sued for Meat and Milk Bill.

The case on contract of Arnold against O'Connor was tried in Justice Huff's court this morning and decision was reserved until next week. The case was that of where the defendant, Mrs O'Connor, was being sued for $20 88 for meats, milk, etc., which she purchased of Charles Arnold. The woman was represented by Walter L. Herfield, Jr., who contended that the defendant's husband was liable and not the wife. Wm. Newcorn represented the plaintiff.

Officers for Jerusalem Chapter.

Jerusalem Chapter, No. 24, R. A. M., held a regular communication last night when the following officers were chosen for the coming year: High priest, Jacob Kirkner; king, Robert A. Meeker; scribe, Clarence Goes; treasurer, Henry Leifke; secretary, F. A. VanAuken; principal sojourner, George A. Macintyre; royal arch captain, Edward Nelson.

Will Aid Miss Currie.

The regular business meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society of the East Third Street chapel was held last evening. In addition to electing three new members, the society voted to assist Miss Sara Currie in her Christmas work in her New York mission.

Will Entertain Friends.

Miss Clyde, the 14 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Slater, of 27 Jackson avenue, will entertain a few friends at the home of her parents this evening.

Discharged From Bankruptcy.

J. H. McVey, formerly of McVey's Hotel, has been discharged from bankruptcy. His counsel was W. A. Coddington, of the firm of Reed & Coddington.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Elsaß-Lothringen.

Straßburg. An der hiesigen Universität haben die ersten Studentinnen der medizinischen Fakultät, Fräulein Hirsch aus Frankfurt und Fräulein Philippson aus Bonn, die ärztliche Vorprüfung, das sogenannte tentamen physicum, mit Erfolg bestanden. Die beiden weiblichen Prüflinge hatten ihre Maturitätsprüfung in Zürich abgelegt.

Hüningen. Bei Ausstellung eines Gesundheitsscheines zum Transport eines Stücks Rindvieh zum Markt gebrauchte der Bürgermeister eines benachbarten Ortes den folgenden Wortlaut: „Ich, Bürgermeister der Gemeinde N. N., bescheinige hiermit, daß in der Gemeinde N. N. unter uns Hornvieh keine ansteckende Krankheit herrscht."

Schlettstadt. In einer Wirthschaft hatte ein junger Mensch Streit bekommen, der sich auf der Straße fortsetzte. Hier überfiel ihn der Sohn seines Gegners, ein erst 19jähriger Metzgerbursche Namens Ligner, von hinten und brachte ihm mit einem Schlachtmesser einen derartigen Stich in den Rücken bei, daß er sofort zusammenbrach und in wenigen Augenblicken eine Leiche war. Der Thäter und alle an dem Streit betheiligten Personen wurden verhaftet.

Oesterreich.

Wien. Dahier erschien zum ersten Mal ein Mitglied des Kaiserhauses als Schüler einer öffentlichen Lehranstalt. Erzherzog Otto ließ seinen 13jährigen Sohn Karl im Schottengymnasium einschreiben, wo er in der dritten Klasse an dem Unterricht in den Naturwissenschaften bei Professor Pater Fellner theilnimmt.—Auf dem Holzplatz des Zimmermeisters Franz Biber spielten mehrere Kinder. Plötzlich löste sich von einem Baumstammlager einer der Stämme ab und traf im Hinabtollern den zehnjährigen Volksschüler Alois Schmidt, Sohn eines Schlossergehilfen der Staatsbahn, so unglücklich, daß der Knabe auf der Stelle todt blieb.

Bodenbach. Am linken Elbeufer, oberhalb der Altstadt, wurde von Passanten der 32jährige Produktenhändler Schneider ermordet und seiner Baarschaft von 80 Kronen und einer silbernen Uhr beraubt aufgefunden.

Bozen. Die neue Eisenbrücke, welche zwischen Bozen und Gries die Talfer übersetzt, wurde vor Kurzem festlich eröffnet.

Eger. Im dritten Quartale dieses Jahres sind in den deutschen Bezirken Böhmens im Ganzen 423 Personen von der katholischen zur protestantischen Kirche übergetreten.

Graz. Der Gemeinderath von Graz überließ dem Verein „Flamme" eine Grundfläche zur Erbauung eines Krematoriums.

Krakau. Der Erfinder des elektrischen Webstuhles, Jan Szepanik, mußte am 1. Oktober d. J. in Krakau einrücken, um seiner dreijährigen Militärpflicht nachzukommen. Der berühmte Rekrut erkrankte jedoch und mußte in das Militärspital gebracht werden. Szepanik wurde nun neuerlich untersucht und für dienstuntauglich erklärt.

Neuhäusel. Während einer Sitzung der Gemeindevorstehung in der Ortschaft Loth tödtete der Ortsrichter Diossy den Beisitzer Joseph Boßanyi durch Revolverschüsse und richtete hierauf den Revolver auf einen zweiten Beisitzer Namens Korpas. Der Unhold wurde jedoch entwaffnet und hierauf in's Gefängniß abgeführt. Ueber das Motiv der That war nichts bekannt.

Przemysl. Der Sozialistenführer Advokat Dr. Liebermann und sechs Arbeiter wurden wegen eines nächtlichen Ueberfalles auf einen Offizier verhaftet und dem Strafgerichte eingeliefert, wobei auf der Straße versammelte Arbeiter Dr. Liebermann während der Fahrt mit Hochrufen begleiteten.

Szegedin. Eine Militärpatrouille des 46. Infanterie-Regiments überfiel während eines Patrouillenganges das Haus des Waldhüters Stary, erschoß die Tochter des Waldhüters und diesen selbst und brachte der Frau Starys schwere Verwundungen bei.

Troppau. Der von der hiesigen Staatsanwaltschaft wegen Betrugs steckbrieflich verfolgte Reisende Max Arnheim wurde in Essegg festgenommen.

Schweiz.

Bern. Durch Referendum sind die Vorschläge, den Ständerath durch Volksabstimmung und den Nationalrath durch verhältnißmäßige Repräsentanz der Kantone zu wählen, mit großer Majorität abgelehnt worden. (Nationalrath und Ständerath sind die beiden Faktoren, die als Bundesversammlung die oberste Gewalt in der Schweiz ausüben.)—Der Pfarrer der römisch-katholischen Missionsstation von Burgdorf hat in der Zeit von drei Jahren für einen Kirchenbaufonds die Summe von über 64,000 Francs aufgebracht.

Zürich. Ein Riesenexemplar von einem Lachs ist bei Eglisau von einem Fischer im Rhein gefangen worden. Das Thier wog nicht weniger als 35 Pfund. Der seltene Fisch wurde nach Zürich geliefert.

An elderly lady living at Fordham Heights, a part of New York City, and who was known to be a warm advocate of Ripans Tabules for any case of liver trouble or indigestion, said to a reporter who visited her for the purpose of learning the particulars of her case: "I had always employed a physician and did so on the last occasion I had for one, but at that time obtained no beneficial results. I had never had any faith in patent medicines, but having seen Ripans Tabules recommended very highly in the New York Herald, I concluded to give them a trial, and I found they were just what my case demanded. I have never employed a physician since, and that means a saving of $2 a call. A dollar's worth of lasts me a month, and I would not be without them now if it were my last dollar." At the time of this interview there were present two daughters who especially objected to their mother giving a testimonial which should parade her name in the newspapers, but to this the elder lady argued: "There may be other cases just like mine, and I am sure I take great pleasure in recommending the tabules to any one afflicted as I was. If the telling about my case in the papers enables some other person similarly affected to be as greatly benefited as I have been, I see no objection." And the daughters, familiar with her case and knowing how earnestly she felt about the benefit she had received from Ripans Tabules, decided that their mother was quite right.

WANTED: A case of bad breath that RIPANS will not benefit. They banish pain and prolong life. One gives relief. Note the word RIPANS on the package and accept no substitute. RIPANS, 10 for 5 cents, may be had at any drug store. Ten samples and one thousand testimonials will be mailed to any address for 5 cents, forwarded to the Ripans Chemical Co., No. 10 Spruce St., New York.

By a city ordinance, it is provided that no dog shall be permitted to run at large within the city limits, unless a good and sufficient muzzle shall be placed over the mouth of said dog in such manner as to render biting impossible. If any person permits or suffers any dog owned or harbored by him and not so muzzled to run at large, the ordinance provides that he shall upon conviction be punished by a fine not exceeding ten dollars for each offense.

Any person prepared to make complaint under oath of any violation of this ordinance may apply to the subscriber and have prosecution begun forthwith.

There are holidays and holidays. There is New Year's day, on which we feel like going around to our friends' houses and making merry, and Fourth of July, when it is incumbent that we should make much noise, and Thanksgiving, when we do our best to see how much we can tuck away in our stomachs without endangering our lives, but Christmas— Well, Christmas is all different. It is the home feast above all others, when the love of the members of the family is shown at its strongest, when every one from grandpa down to the tiniest tot fairly beams with good will and love. A Christmas which is devoted to grand dinners and idle show is no Christmas at all, and a Christmas without a child is the mere pretense of the day. Close your eyes and think what Christmas really means to you. Let the magic of the word steal fully upon your senses and then tell me what you see.

Each room with mistletoe is decked

Perhaps memory brings back to you an old fashioned house with polished staircase and well waxed floors. Greens are wreathed around every picture, and looped across each doorway. There is an indescribable fragrance of holly, mistletoe and Christmas tree. It drives the children half wild with excitement as the little rogues scamper around, trying their best to peek through the cracks of mysteriously closed doors. Finally they are all corralled safely in the nursery, where they gather around the open fire and listen breathlessly to mother's or big sister's Christmas tales. Then when each small stocking has been hung before the dying fire there is silence in the nursery. Perhaps some small boy bolder than the rest steals back on tiptoe only to run in guilty terror as a coal rattles upon the hearthstone warning him of the approach of Santa Claus. Ah, that dear myth of Santa Claus! Will modern science and mothers' conventions ever succeed in destroying it? I hope not for the children's sake.

The greatest night of all the year,
When children watch with glee and fear.

Can you remember at what an unearthly hour you awoke on Christmas morning? How in the chill and gray dawn you crept toward your bulging stocking and fairly grabbed it from its nail? And, oh, what a wealth of goodies rained from it! And how you and the other children exulted thereat, much to the discomfort of the sleepy "grown ups," until even your eyelids refused to stay open and you fell fast asleep, clutching a very sticky but delicious candy elephant or camel or some such Christmas beast! Then when the day really began what fun there was! It was your day, and the "grown ups" felt it was so and for once gave way. You were allowed as a great treat to go to church and hear the beautiful anthems, and when that was over how hungry you suddenly became and how you rushed to get home to dinner!

In the afternoon big sister and some of the older cousins gave a play in which the costumes and scenery were homemade, much to the amusement of the audience, or perhaps there were tableaux instead, which didn't require so much tiresome memorizing and which gave every one an opportunity of looking pretty. The grand finale of course was the appearance of Santa Claus, fur coat, cotton wool and all, with the icicles of the north pole clinging to his burly form. When with a lordly gesture he drew back the curtains and you saw the Christmas tree gleaming with lights and flashing with jewels, with a myriad of pink and white parcels weighing down its green boughs, can you remember how you drew in your breath and cried, "Ah-h!"

Old Santa Claus—behold him still!
The myth which savants cannot kill.

"Ah, yes; that is Christmas in the home!" I hear a girl say. "But I'm studying art in a strange city, struggling to win fame in a solitary studio, and Christmas is the loneliest day in the year for me." Your own fault, I answer. You can't have the home atmosphere, true, but why can't you give it to some one else? Somewhere in the great city there is a little child who is as lonely as you are, and no child has any business to be lonely on Christmas day. Go out in the streets and find that little waif. You will see him skulking around the brilliantly lighted shop windows, staring with all his eyes at the splendor within, wondering, hoping against all hope that by a miracle some one of those candies or those glittering toys may be his. The days of miracles are not past. You can operate one yourself. You can invite him and a couple of his fellows to your desolate studio. He will probably think it the most beautiful place he has ever seen if you decorate it with evergreens and soft lights and have a small Christmas tree standing in the corner with a few goodies and inexpensive trifles upon it. And if the spirit of Christmastide does not steal into your heart as you watch the delight on the small faces of these little outcasts then you are beyond feeling the true joy of Christmas—the joy of giving.

MARION NELSON.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week Beginning Dec. 16—Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

TOPIC. — Confessing Christ. — Math. x, 32-39. (Meeting led by the pastor.)

The confessing of Christ, as set forth is the topical reference by Christ, is made a very important matter. "Whosoever shall confess Me before men," He says, "him will I confess also before My Father which is in heaven, but whosoever shall deny Me before men him will I also deny before My Father which is in heaven." These are very solemn and serious words and should impress upon our minds the importance of confessing Christ if we believe in Him.

Many reasons can be given as to why we should confess Christ, but they may all perhaps be best summed up in three reasons, as follows:

1. We should confess Christ for our own sakes. Each one of us has a soul to be saved or lost. Each one of us will be confessed or denied by Christ before His Heavenly Father, and our destiny in eternity will be determined by that confession. Therefore every one of us should desire to have Christ confess us before God, and the way to have that done is to confess Him upon the earth. How could we bear in the great day of judgment to have Him say to us: "Depart from Me. I never knew you." That this may never be, let us accept and confess Him before men. Then, too, there is a great personal blessing in confessing Christ. It is a duty, because God demands it of us, and every performance of duty carries with it its own reward. There is a joy and a blessing in confessing Christ that only those know who have confessed Him, but this joy is possible to all who will confess Him.

2. We should confess Christ for the sake of others. We are not only interested in ourselves, but in others, our loved ones, friends and neighbors. For their sakes we should confess Christ. What we do or fail to do may have a serious influence upon them. Our action may decide their action. The salvation of their souls may depend upon what we do. Children often fail to confess Christ because parents do not confess Him, wives because husbands do not and friends because friends do not. No man liveth to himself. Every one of us has some influence upon others. It should be exercised for their good and not for their ill. It should be exercised so as to bring them into the proper relation to God in Christ, and this can never be done so long as we refuse or neglect to confess Christ.

3. We should confess Christ for Christ's sake. When we think of what He has done for us, this should constrain us to let the world know what He has done. The redeemed of the Lord should say so. The love of Christ should constrain them. It should make it impossible for them not to do so. Friend, He who died for you on the cross, asks you to confess Him before the world. Can you refuse or neglect to do so?

It may require some small sacrifice to confess Christ. But what if it does, since it pays? The end justifies the means. If confessing Him here assures us of His interest and confession in the day of judgment, no obstacle or difficulty should be allowed to stand in the way of our confessing Him. It costs something to amputate a diseased limb, but it pays to bear the cost if it saves life, and no one hesitates to do it. It will pay us to confess Christ, and, cost what it will, we should do it. We should be numbered among His people and stand up for Him upon every and all occasions.

THE PRAYER MEETING.

This meeting is to be led by the pastor and should be evangelistic in character.

BIBLE READINGS.

Math. xvi, 13-20; Luke ix, 18-22; xii, 8, 9; John i, 29-34; vi, 66-69; xi, 20-27; xx, 26-29; Rom. i, 16; x, 9, 10; Rev. iii, 5.

The Missions and the Church.

The success of missions is the success of the church. The history of one runs parallel with the other, and when any one decries the work of missions it is only another way of decrying church work. Had there been no missionary effort then the church of Christ had never passed beyond the walls of Jerusalem. A glance along the victories achieved in the last century is enough to disprove the statements of those who oppose mission work as useless, and these form no small part of the church. One hundred years ago in heathen lands there were hardly 100 communicants in mission churches. Today there are a million and a half members. There were then but five missionary societies. Now there are 139, besides hundreds of auxiliaries. The Bible has been translated into 386 languages and dialects, so that if they choose nine-tenths of the human race may learn the way of truth. Such gains are not to be despised, and they may be regarded as a promise of what the coming years may hold of success.—Presbyterian Banner.

True Character.

You see a white building in the distance, but you cannot tell whether it has been whitewashed with lime or painted with pure white lead. A closer examination reveals the true character of the coating. You must get very close to a man in these days of shams and frauds before you can know what manner of man he is.—United Presbyterian.

Working In Silence.

One of the impressive things about the greatest engines is the silence with which they do their work. The same thing may be observed in regard to the work of religious leaders or societies. Those which are most powerful are very quiet.—Zion's Herald.

HOW ZULU WOMEN SEW.

It Is a Great Distance from Those Primeval Maids to the Sewing Circle.

The skill of the Zulu of South Africa in sewing fur is a household word in South Africa, and some of the other tribes compete with them. The needle employed is widely different from that used by the ordinary needlewoman. In the first place, it has no eye; in the second, it is like a skewer, pointed at one end and thick at the other, says Stray Stories.

The thread is not of cotton, but is made of the sinews of various animals, the best being made from the sinews in the neck of a giraffe. It is stiff, inelastic, with a great tendency to "kink" and tangle itself up with anything near it. Before being used it is steeped in hot water until it is quite soft, and is then beaten between two smooth stones, which causes it to separate into filaments, which can thus be obtained of any strength and thickness. Thus the seamstress has a considerable amount of labor before she commences with the real work in hand.

Finally she squats on the ground (for no native stands to work or do anything else who can possibly help it), and, taking her needle, bores two holes in the edges of the rug or garment on which she is working. The thread is then pushed through with the butt of the needle, drawn tight, and two more holes are made with a like result, the skewer progressing very slowly compared with an English needlewoman, but fast enough for a country where time is of no value whatever.

The skin upon which the seamstress is working is dampened with water before she commences, and as the damp thread and hide dry out it brings the work very closely together. This is carefully attended to, and the work is not allowed to get dry until finished, when the seamstress lays it flat upon the ground, pulling it this way and that, and mixing and arranging the hair for several hours, until the skin being generally dry, it is impossible to find the joint or hem with the naked eye.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Topic For the Week Beginning Dec. 16, "Confessing Christ"—Text, Math. x, 32-39.

"He that loseth his life for My sake shall find it."

This is one of these paradoxical sayings of Jesus which were so common in His teaching. Appearing to say one thing, it has a deeper and far different meaning. It arrests attention and challenges the ingenuity to discover its hidden intent. It sticks in memory by its peculiar form and rises in recollection repeatedly as common occurrences touch some suggestive spring.

Jesus had selected 12 men from the company of those who professed to believe His teaching and had sent them to preach through the villages and towns. He had given them power to heal the sick and cast out unclean spirits. He closes His charge to them with this lesson of courage in acknowledging Him. He directly promises to confess Him before men and to deny whoever denies Him. He clearly asserts that there shall be persecutions and strife and even family divisions on His account. He claims allegiance from all who will be His disciples. They shall prefer Him above any and all friends. He reaches the climax of His demands when He claims loyalty from His followers even to the sacrifice of life itself. If it comes to a question of denying Him in order to save one's life, "he that saves his life in this way shall lose it." But if one prefers death to the dishonor of deserting Christ he shall find beyond all death can do the eternal life in God's presence and in fullness of heavenly glory.

This lesson the world has been slowly learning, but learning surely. It is not a fanatical fatalism that covets death so as to claim a reward for meritorious heroism and martyrdom. It is rather a deep seated soul consciousness of the truth and an all absorbing personal affection for Jesus Christ as the truth and life which recks little of the pains or pleasures of present existence in themselves, but lives in a world of reality of which the senses give no knowledge. This divine life has no boundaries of space and time. It looks forward not to material heavens and physical well being. It lives in continual enjoyment of love of the right and good above all torment of craving for the evil and wrong. The presence of a spirit of holy peace and trustfulness abides. It has no fear of the scorn nor enmity of the world. It is not anxious for its favor or approval and does not seek its intimate friendship. It does lose its life more and more, so far as the pleasures of fashion, society, worldliness and honors of men are concerned. It gradually loses its capacity for enjoyment in these regards, but grows more and more in appetite for purity, kindness, righteousness and helpfulness. The gain of life is through loss.

Bishop Warne.

Methodism in India has grown wonderfully since it was founded in 1857 by William Butler, D. D. It now covers all the peninsula from the borders of Tibet to Madras and from Bombay to Calcutta and far down through Burma, beyond Siam to Singapore on the strait of Malacca. Bishop Thoburn's health had given way under the strain of such arduous oversight. At the general conference last May it was seen necessary to elect two more missionary bishops for India. Dr. E. W. Parker, the veteran, and Rev. F. W. Warne, a much younger man, were selected.

Bishop Warne has proved himself a man to be trusted in such a position. He is Canadian by birth and academic education. He was born in 1854 and entered the ministry in 1874. Three years were spent in mission work in Manitoba. A course at Garrett Biblical institute and two pastorates in Rock River conference prepared him for the pastorate of the English church in Calcutta, India. Here he has served 13 years, during 12 of which he has also been presiding elder of Calcutta district. Two orphanges, one with 40 boys and another with 50 girls, are connected with the church. It also has an industrial home which relieves about 30 Europeans daily who have been stranded in the city.

His labors have been abundant in the past and have trained him for the responsible place he is now called to fill. He returned to his field of work last summer, via San Francisco, Japan and Manila.

WAITER WANTS MONTH'S PAY

MRS. N. P. ROGERS DISCHARGED HIM AFTER STAY OF FOUR DAYS.

Then Jeremiah Smith Brought Suit and Case Was Tried Before Justice Huff—Claimed to be Incompetent.

Jeremiah Smith, colored, who says that he thinks he is about 45 years old, appeared this morning in Justice Huff's court as plaintiff in an action brought against Mrs. N. Pendleton Rogers, of East Front street, to recover $20 which he claims he is entitled to as wages for one month as a waiter at the home of the defendant. William Newcorn represented the plaintiff while W. S. Angleman looked after the interests of Mrs. Rogers.

At the hearing the fact was brought out that Smith was hired Thursday, November 13, by Mrs. Rogers as a waiter He held his position four days and discharged the following Sunday. The reason given for his discharge was impertinence and for being incompetent. One chief reason given for dismissal that Smith did not know how to set a table. On the Sunday he was discharged he was entrusted with the care of fixing the table for dinner while the family was at church. When they returned Mrs. Rogers stated that the table looked like a "cyclone." She then told Smith she would pay him $2.75 for four days work and he could go.

Smith refused to take the offered amount, but wanted pay for the month, $20. This Mrs. Rogers refused to do, hence the suit. Smith claimed that he had been a waiter for thirty-five years and knew his business. After the case had been well ventilated on both sides Justice Huff decided to reserve his decision for a few days.

HANSEN'S FUNERAL.

Impressive Services Held at Hope Memorial Chapel Yesterday Afternoon.

Hope Memorial chapel was filled with the sorrowing friends and relatives of the late Christian P. Hansen, when the funeral services were held there yesterday. Rev. G. Kennedy Newell was the officiating clergyman and spoke in a very touching manner of the upright character and Christian life of Mr. Hansen.

There were a large number of floral tributes, among them being a handsome pillow from Perseverance Lodge, K. of P., another from his old shopmates at the Pond Tools Works and a pretty piece from the classmates of his little daughter. The pall bearers were Donald McInness, William J. Mattox, William Young, Fred Wharton and David Bowden.

At the conclusion of the services the mourners proceeded to Hillside cemetery where the interment took place. The members of Peseverance Lodge, who attended in a body, were taken from the church to Hillside by a special trolley car.

Injured While at Work.

While at work in the Pond Tool Works Wednesday evening, James McConnell, of West Third street, struck his hand with a hammer, gashing the palm severely. He was forced to quit work and have the injury dressed at the hospital. Yesterday afternoon a boring mill gib fell on the left hand of Wm Skinner, another employe of the same shop. The thumb was smashed, but it was dressed at the hospital It is thought amputation will not be necessary.

Use Allen's Foot-Ease in Your Gloves

A lady writes: "I shake Allen's Foot-Ease into my gloves and rub a little on my hands. It saves my gloves by absorbing perspiration. It is a most dainty toilet powder." We invite the attention of physicians and nurses to the absolute purity of Allen's Foot-Ease. Dr. W. C. Abbott, editor of the Chicago Clinic, says: "It is a grand preparation; I am using it constantly in my practice." All drug and shoe stores sell it, 25c. Sample sent FREE. Address Allen S. Association Football Tomorrow.

The increase in the interest taken in he Association football games on the Clinton avenue grounds promises a large attendance at the game there tomorrow afternoon, if the weather permits. The game will be between the Plainfield Association team and the True Blues, of Newark, and starts at three o'clock.

New Electric Cranes.

The steel frames for the new electric cranes to be erected in the foundry at the Pond Tool Works arrived Wednesday. The work of placing them in position will probably be commenced Christmas week. The new cranes supplant the old steam ones and have a capacity of twenty five tons.

Senior Class Entertainment.

Among those who will take part in the High School Senior class entertainment at the Franklin building tomorrow evening are C. Maynard Evans, whistling solos; the Misses Cahoone, piano and violin duets and recitations by the Misses Miller, Maclay, Rogers and Batchelor.

Didn't Stray Away.

John S. Dahl, the borough contractor, whose horse was reported to have strayed away Monday night, says that such was not the case. Mr. Dahl says that the horse merely walked a hundred feet further down the street when he left in front of a house where he was working.

To Play Basket Ball.

Two scrub teams of the Fanwood Athletic Club will play a game of basket ball in the Fanwood club house tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. There will be no admission fee charged. Most Plainfielders will go to Fanwood on the 7:05 train.

First Indoor Drill.

The Plainfield High School cadet battalion is, at present drilling in Washington Hall since the advent of cold weather. The boys held their first drill there this morning. The hall will be used during the winter months.

Success.

During the chapel exercises at the High School, this morning, the pupils listened to an excellent address delivered by L. N Lovell, a member of the Board of Education. Mr. Lovell's subject was "Success."

Street Sprinkling Stopped.

Since the advent of cold weather the street sprinkler has stopped work. In consequence the streets are becoming dusty.

Reflections of a Bachelor.

Love isn't quite as comfortable as laziness, but it's a lot cheaper.

A woman's heaven would be a dead failure without it had a little fuzzy dog in it and a big garret.

A woman gets most of her happiness out of remembering how miserable she was some particular time before.

A woman is considered bright by the other women by the number of kinds of a fool she can make of a man in five minutes.

Every time a woman sits up half the night acting sweet to a lot of men she wakes up the next morning and acts ugly to the one she is married to.—N. Y. Press.

He Was No Egotist.

"Will you marry me, Miss Tommey?" asked Mr. Collingwood.

"No, indeed," replied she. "I wouldn't marry the best man on earth."

"Of course you won't. You'll never have an opportunity. But that is no reason why you shouldn't marry me."—Detroit Free Press.

PREPARING FOR CHRISTMAS.

GAGHANITES DECIDE TO HAVE A TREE AND A CANTATA.

Sergeant Totten Wanted to Revive the Ancient Custom of Hanging Up Stockings But the Plan Was Voted Down.

After business of a routine nature had been disposed of at the meeting of the Gaghanites' last evening, the president inquired of the members if they realized that Christmas was less than two weeks off. Everyone declared they did and as several remarked, he might easily have found out if he had only investigated the condition of the treasury as the members to a man had been holding back their dues in order to invest the money at the proper time. Becoming assured that the members realized the importance of the day and were ready to meet it, he declared he had a plan to unfold.

On the day in question, it was the custom, he said, to exchange gifts and as the honor of the Gaghanites was to be upheld, he wished to know how they felt on the subject of keeping up the custom. The members nodded assent to his query and, continuing, he asked for suggestions as to how to properly distribute the gifts.

Sergeant Totten hurried to the front and declared he had a scheme. With a most innocent look in his eyes he said the only proper way to distribute gifts was to place them in the stockings of the members while they were wrapt in slumber or a blanket or something like that. The shouts of derision that greeted this suggestion caused Jim to stop and he became aware of the fact that everyone was glancing at his pedal extremities. The next moment a dozen strong arms forced him to his place at the rear door and his ears were assailed with the queries as to whether he knew the cubic space in the stockings worn by some of the members or if he thought the association had an inexhaustible supply of gifts from which to fill them. Totten finally gave up the idea but it was noticed that all those who opposed the motion wore small shoes.

The question was then debated for some time and it was finally decided to give a cantata in the hall and afterward have the gifts handed from a tree by Charlie Hall impersonating St. Nicholas. Having settled this question the members then began hinting for the benefit of those about them, as to what sort of presents they desired. Conroy modestly declared he would be greatly pleased to have someone surprise him with a few shares of Standard Oil stock. Pat Melvin hinted that he didn't dislike diamonds and precious stones, while Feiring openly declared he wanted no present, but would be satisfied with a check in payment for the mules he had secured from his brother at Coontown, to pull the association fire patrol.

It was with considerable difficulty that the hinters were forced to keep quiet and listen to a suggestion made by Mike Nevins. He said it was only proper that the members should present a handsome token to the president to be paid for by popular subscription. Everyone agreed to this with the exception of Aleck Martin. His reasons, he said, were because the dealers had raised the price on his favorite brand of cigars and he felt he would be unable to stand the extra strain on his purse. In place of contributing money, however, he stated that with great sacrificing on his part he would present the association with a beautiful oil painting of himself having a striking green border. Before action could be taken on Aleck's offer, the town clock was heard to strike 10 and the light supply was shut off, forcing the members to adjourn hurriedly.

Attempted Holdup Near Cranford.

Three tramps attempted to hold up Frank Ricketts, of Fairview avenue, in the woods between Cranford and Garwood last evening. Ricketts was driving with a friend when the three men sprang at the horse. Ricketts gave the animal a cut with the whip and it jumped forward, upsetting one of the would-be highwaymen.

Several Adoptions.

There will be an interesting meeting of Miantonomo Tribe, I O. R. M., this evening, at which time there will be several adoptions. A good time will be had after the meeting.

"THE CHRISTIAN" AT MUSIC HALL TONIGHT

One of the Greatest Dramatic Attractions of the Local Season Booked for This Evening.

THE ATTRACTIONS COMING.

ELABORATE PRODUCTION ARRANGED FOR CHRISTMAS DAY.

Bennett-Moulton Company Will Appear in Plainfield New Year's Week—Fine Performance of "Village Postmaster" Last Wednesday.

Manager Maze Edwards, of Music Hall, is to be congratulated upon the very superior presentation of "The Village Postmaster," one of the best of the rural dramas which have come to enjoy such pretige of late years. This is the New England play that created such a sensation in New York and which had a run of 227 nights at the 14th Street Theatre. It was beautifully played and given with all the details of the original production in New York, with the same original cast, scenery and effects.

Archie Boyd in the title role and Miss Angela Russell as the postmaster's daughter, Miranda, and the entire company were seen to best advantage. There was a large audience present, who evinced great delight and additional zest was given to the performance from the fact of the presence of Manager Wesley Rosenquest, of the 14th Street Theatre, who came here for the purpose of witnessing his own splendid play prior to its return for another run at his New York house, Monday. "The Village Postmaster" is a superior play and will always be welcomed by the public.

Another great play is the offering tonight, when Hall Caine's great work "The Christian" will have its first presentation in this city. Manager Edwards considers this one of the most important dramatic engagements of the season. The company includes over 50 people. Two cars of scenery will be transported to the opera house stage, and Liebler & Co., whose splendid production heretofore have won for them a high place in the estimation of our theatre going public, have given "The Christian" an excellent cast. The play is also exceedingly popular here, having been originally produced in this country and presented for 35 weeks at the Knickerbocker Theatre in New York and the Boston Museum in Boston.

When "The Christian" was running in New York Hall Caine made a reply to certain critics who charged this play with "carnality." In Mr. Caine's opinion there is only one way to deal with a statement like this, and that is to brand it at once as a deliberate and palpable misstatement. Said he, "There is no carnality in the relations of John Storm and Glory Quayle. The critics who made these statements ought to be disvoiced." If this were not convincing Mr. Caine clinched it by adding, "that the critic is not an honest man and he knows it. A religious enthusiast," he went on, "built on the lines of the early Christians, counting the body as nothing and the soul as all in all, conceives the idea that the girl whom he loves is being demoralized by association with certain men. He tries to rescue her from ruin and she will not be rescued. Then a voice which comes from Heaven, 'Save her at all costs. She is tottering on the brink of hell. Better a life ended than a life degraded and a soul destroyed.' He resolves to kill her body to save her soul. Only she consents to marry him and so she changes his mind." Lilia Vane, one of the leading emotional actresses on the American stage, will essay 'Glory Quayle."

"The Christian" will be presented here under the management of Liebler & Company and the same careful attention to the smallest details will be shown here that characterized the long run of the play in New York city. A crowded house may be anticipated.

The week before Christmas is always unprosperous for theatrical presentations so in consequence there will be no performances at Music Hall the coming week, but Manager Edwards has chosen a popular and appropriate attraction for his Christmas feast of dramatic dainties. The sterling melodramatic epitome of real life, its joys, sorrows and tragedies, "Ten Nights in a Bar-room," performed by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Webber's Company, who will shortly produce the play in New York city for an extended run, will give a matinee and evening performance on Christmas day. All that skill,

TWO YEARS AT HARD LABOR

MOTORMAN DONNELLY SENTENCED FOR STEALING BOAT AND ENGINE.

Charles James, Brother of the Famous Western Outlaw, Was Acquitted on Trial at Somerville Yesterday.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, December 15—Charles James, the alleged brother of Jesse James, the noted outlaw, was acquitted yesterday in the Somerset Court of stealing the engine from Chas Van-Nostrand's steam launch at East Millstone. James said that he had not assisted in any way and that he did not know Donnelly had stolen the engine

James Donnelly confessed to having asked James to take a ride with him; that they drove to East Millstone and he asked James to hold the lines while he attended to some business. Donnelly unfastened the boat, floated it a mile down the river, walked back, got in the wagon and drove near where the boat was anchored. He got out and asked James to again hold the lines, went down and got the engine, which he placed in the wagon, tumbled the boiler over in the river and drove back to South Bound Brook, where he let James out.

The engine and a skiff belonging to the late Captain Davey, at Weston, were found under the floor in Donnelly's barn.

Judge Schenck sentenced Donnelly to one year at hard labor in States prison for stealing the engine and one year for stealing the boat, the terms to run concurrently. Donnelly was a trolley motorman.

WHERE TO BUY GIFTS.

Woodhull & Martin Have a Store Full of Up-to-date Holiday Goods at Moderate Prices.

A search for Christmas gifts should lead the prospective buyer to a visit to Woodhull & Martin's store in the Babcock building. A great variety, a large stock, first-class goods and reasonable prices are four attractive features about this up to date store. The firm waited later this year to buy their holiday goods, thereby getting the advantage of lower prices. The goods are fresh and of first quality, but big bargains are being offered. There is an endless variety of toys for the little folks. There is also a big showing in fine embroidered handkerchiefs that cannot be excelled for quality or price. A specialty this season is the fine line of handsome furs that are very popular in style and price. Other specialties are Alfred Benjamin's celebrated bath robes for men, Dent's gloves, handsome umbrellas for men and women, a choice assortment of the best copyright books by well known authors. Sterling silver goods are offered in great variety. There is also a fine showing in aprons.

There is a department devoted to fine pictures, nicely framed, at reduced prices. The carpet department is well stocked with handsome designs in carpets and Oriental rugs, lace curtains, etc. A visit to the basement shows everything of a household necessity is there on sale.

SENSIBLE PRESENTS.

C. L. Van Emburgh & Son Are Prepared to Cater to That Portion of the Christmas Trade.

The well known and reliable dry goods and notion store of C. L. Van-Emburgh & Son, East Front street, is now receiving well merited patronage. While the firm does not make any special display of holiday goods, they have an unusually fine line of everything that appeals to the tastes of people who are thinking of remembering their friends with sensible presents. This firm's stock is made up of the best the market affords and in the notion line almost everything imaginable can be found on sale. As to price, the women shoppers have long recognized Van Emburgh's as the place they are sure to find goods at a proper figure.

C. A. MARSH INJURED IN BICYCLE ACCIDENT.

Collided With Horse on Park Avenue Early Last Evening and Was Badly Cut About Face.

DRIVER, THEO. ROANTREE.

STARTED TO TURN INTO SIXTH STREET IN FRONT OF MR. MARSH.

Didn't See the Wheelman and Drove Directly in Front of Him—Latter Was Thrown—Injuries Serious But Are Not Fatal.

Corporation Counsel Craig A. Marsh, of West Eighth street, had a narrow escape from fatal injury last evening, shortly after 5 o'clock, while going from his home to his office on his wheel. He was riding through Park avenue, and when he reached the corner of Sixth street, he collided with Theodore Roantree, of New Market, who was driving in the opposite direction. Mr. Marsh was thrown from his wheel by the horse, sustaining a severe wound in the forehead over the right eye. He also sustained a severe nervous shock, and while not fatally injured, he will be detained at home for some time.

Roantree was driving south and started to turn into East Sixth street directly crossing the path of the approaching wheelman. It was dusk and Mr. Marsh did not have his lamp lighted, as the hour after sunset when lights are required had not yet passed. Roantree claims that he did not see Mr. Marsh at all. As the horse turned into Sixth street, the cyclist and horse came together. Mr. Marsh and his bicycle were forced toward the gutter.

Mr. Marsh called to the driver of the horse, but it was too late, for the next instant he was thrown from his wheel. Some friends were passing at the time, including Chief T. O. Doane, of the fire department. The latter jumped from his wagon and ran to Mr. Marsh's assistance. By that time Mr. Marsh had regained his feet and was leaning against a tree in an exhausted and bleeding condition. He was assisted to Dr. Endicott's office, where temporary aid was given. He was then taken home in Chief Doane's wagon.

At Mr. Marsh's home Dr. Endicott took eight stitches to close up the wound in the head and he gave further treatment to overcome the nervous shock from which the patient was suffering. Dr. Endicott does not consider the condition of Mr. Marsh critical. In addition to the cut over the forehead there is also a bad wound under the eye, which closes the eye entirely. That Mr. Marsh did not sustain greater injury seems to be remarkable.

Mr. Roantree felt deeply sorry that that accident occurred and he did all in his power to assist in caring for Mr. Marsh, willingly giving his services. It is not known at present whether any action will be brought against Mr. Roantree or not. He is employed by "Cider Abe" Smalley, of West Dunellen, and it was Smalley's rig he had when the accident occurred.

Many friends of Craig A. Marsh called at his office this morning to enquire as to his injuries and to express sympathy with him. At the office it was said that he was resting quietly and that no serious results are anticipated. With good care Mr. Marsh will be able to resume business in a few days.

PECK IS RELIABLE.

His Store is Filled With Dainty and Pretty Things For Christmas Presents.

Numbered among Plainfield's best business merchants is S. C. Peck, of West Front street, and his store is always filled with the daintiest and prettiest things in lace, embroidery, hosiery, fine handkerchiefs, flannel goods, etc., all of the very best texture. The prices are no more than one has to pay for good goods, but then there is satisfaction in knowing that the goods are reliable. At this store you will find goods that cannot be duplicated anywhere in this vicinity, all the pick of the very choicest to be found in the market. Peck has prepared his stock for the holiday season and Christmas shoppers should not fail to examine his stock of goods.

WRECK AT WESTFIELD.

Accident to East Bound Freight Delayed Traffic on the Jersey Central This Morning.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Westfield, Dec. 15.—As a result of an accident to a east bound freight train, near the Westfield depot, this morning, all trains going to New York were obliged to take the west bound tracks to Cranford and then switch over, the delay making them several minutes late at Jersey City.

At 5 o'clock this morning a heavy freight, east bound, was going at fast speed on the down grade when something happened to the air brakes and the train stopped suddenly.

Four large coal cars, near the engine, were derailed and badly wrecked, while two freight cars, further back, were thrown against the platform at the freight house and completely torn to pieces. The freight house platform was also broken up.

The wrecking crew, with the large derrick, arrived an hour later and worked until 10 o'clock before the tracks were cleared.

VERDICT FOR LAURY.

Suit Against Ivins and Company Over Cement for New Station Tried Before a Jury—Was Appealed.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, Dec 15—The suit of Contractor Titus H. Laury against DeWitt C. Ivins and Company was finished yesterday before Judge Atwater and a jury and resulted in a verdict for the full amount of his claim. Laury was represented by Bruce & Runyon and Ivins & Company were represented by Reed & Coddington.

It was claimed by the plaintiff that cement furnished by Ivins & Company for use at the new railroad station at Plainfield was defective. The cement was used in the construction of the foundation wall which was condemned and had to be torn down and rebuilt. The defence was that the cement was exactly what it was claimed to be when delivered to Contractor Laury and that any defects which afterwards appeared must be due to lack of care or improper handling.

The jury was out two hours and then brought in a verdict for the full amount. The case was immediately appealed.

RED MEN'S FAIR.

Plans Being Completed For Affair Which Will be Held in Washington Hall Next Week.

The committee of Red Men held the final meeting last evening to complete arrangements for the fair to be held next week in Washington Hall. Progress was reported in every department and it looks as though the fair will be a great success. It was decided to offer as a prize a gold plated tomahawk to the most popular past sachem, to be voted for at the fair. Another prize will be a handsome regalia to be given to the tribe having the most number of members out on Red Men's night, which will be Tuesday evening. On that night many high officers will be present, also visiting tribes. Several other prizes will be offered. They will be announced during the coming week.

PLAINFIELD CAB COMPANY.

Company is Prepared to Give Good Service to the Riding Public.

The Plainfield Cab Company, 127 North avenue, having renovated their stables and vehicles throughout, invite the attention of the public to their equipment and offer their services for weddings, receptions and calling. Their coach supply exceeds any other stable in the city and their turnouts in general are pleasing. Courteous and polite attention will be their aim and their success seems assured. Having the only steam-heated stable in the city they can offer good facilities for those wishing to board their horses. Former Judge W. A. Coddington is president of the company and J. W. Davis is general manager and in charge of the office.

Lights for Lincoln.

The citizens of Lincoln, through the efforts of S. D. Drake, have succeeded in having the electric light system restored. Some time ago the lights were removed from Lincoln because of the inability of the New Jersey Mutual Realty Company to liquidate their indebtedness to the company furnishing the power. After Mr. Drake had a conference with the electric light officials the latter decided to have the lights replaced.

Dance Old Century Out.

Among the holiday festivities being arranged is a subscription dance to be given at the Park Club on New Year's eve. The young people will dance the old century out and the new one in. Miss Saidee Mae Howell is the chairman of the committee of arrangements.

RIKER-HINE SYNDICATE TAKES FORMAL CONTROL

Senator Kean's Street Railways Transferred Formally to the Riker-Hine Combination.

THE DEAL WAS KNOWN.

NEW DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS CHOSEN FOR THE COMPANIES.

Senator Kean Will Keep His Agreement With County—Union of Lines Will Be Known as Elizabeth, Plainfield and Central N. J. Co.

While it has been known for some time that a deal had been arranged by Senator John Kean, and the Riker-Hine syndicate to transfer the Senator's interests in certain street railroads radiating from Elizabeth to the Riker-Hine combination, the formal transfer did not take place until yesterday at Elizabeth. The meeting took place in the office of the Elizabethtown Water Company and Senator Kean was present to personally look after his affairs.

Senator Kean's companies are the Elizabeth Street Railway Company and the Elizabeth City Horse Railroad.

Senator Kean says he considers the lines as very valuable property, but surrenders his interest because of his public duties and other great interests which take up so much of his time. He agrees to extend the roads to the Cranford line and to pay the county what he had agreed to for the widening of Westfield avenue.

The Riker-Hine syndicate has the control of the old Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company. The combination of the lines will be known as the Elizabeth, Plainfield and Central New Jersey Street Railway Company.

Changes were made in the directors of the two companies which were transferred.

Of the Elizabeth Street Railway Company, Frederick L. Heidritter, E. C. Woodruff, John Kean, August Heidritter and Louis Quien resigned as directors, and their places were filled by the selection of Thomas Nevins, Colonel E. W. Hine, Chandler W. Riker, Edwin Riker and Uzal McCarter. Mr. Nevins was elected president and Edwin Riker secretary and treasurer.

The directors who retired from the Elizabeth City Horse Railroad were John Kean, James Maguire, John W. Whelan, F. S. Heidritter, Frank Bergen, Hamilton F. Kean and E. C. Woodruff. In their stead these were chosen: Thomas Nevins, Uzal McCarter, Adrain Riker, Colonel E. W. Hine, Thomas N. McCarter and David Young. Thomas Nevins succeeds Senator Kean as president, and Adrain Riker takes the place of John W. Whelan as secretary and treasurer.

MISS MILLER'S TEA.

Charming Society Affair Given in Honor of Mrs. S. P. Williams, Formerly of Plainfield.

One of the season's delightful occasions was the tea given yesterday afternoon by Miss Anna Wallbridge Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac L. Miller, at her home on Watchung avenue. The tea was given in honor of Mrs. Samuel Porter Williams, of Hartford, Conn., formerly Miss Bertha Clark, of Crescent avenue. The rooms presented a very charming appearance with a profusion of holly decorations, and in the dining room the harmony of color was sustained by table decorations of red. Miss Miller, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Miller, and Mrs. Williams, received the guests in the parlor. Mrs. MacKinzie and Miss Helen Clark presided at the table in the dining room, and were assisted by the Misses Ethel Bowen, May Shreve, Efna Strong, Viola Conklin, Emma Miller and Edith Clapp.

Fell on the Ice and Cut His Face.

While John Motley, of West Fourth street, was skating after a companion on Halsey Compton's pond yesterday afternoon, he tripped and fell, striking on his face. Several bad gashes were the result and they became so painful a visit to Muhlenburg Hospital was necessary. Several stitches were required to close the wounds.

Street Railway Men Laid Off.

Employes of the Elizabeth, Plainfield and Central New Jersey Railway are already beginning to feel the effect of the new management. Within the past week twelve men have been laid off, the list including motormen, conductors and car stable men. Other changes have been made, all of which tend to reduce expenses.

FIREMAN DIED AT HOSPITAL.

WAS FATALLY INJURED AT WHITEHOUSE YESTERDAY MORNING.

Eugene Smith Died This Morning—Father Was With Him and He Was Conscious to the Last

Eugene Smith, aged 28 years, the fireman on the Jersey Central freight engine, who was fatally injured at Whitehouse yesterday morning, died this morning at the hospital about 9:30 o'clock. His father was with him from the time he was taken to the hospital, and the son was conscious from the time he was injured until he died. Later the body was taken in charge by Undertaker Cole and it will be sent to Bayonne for burial.

Smith was a new employe of the Jersey Central Railroad. Yesterday morning his train stopped at Whitehouse, and he left the engine while it made a shift. He was standing on the tracks near the train when the engine backed down and run over him. Smith's two arms were taken off, his leg was fractured. He also sustained a puncture of the lung and a severe scalp wound.

SHOPPERS THRONG THERE.

Many Christmas Attractions at Crosby & Hill's Big Store Draw Numerous Purchasers There.

One of the busy places in town, as the holidays draw near, is the large department store of Crosby & Hill, which is at present the attraction for a large number of shoppers. Every day the store is crowded to almost its limit. The display made was never more elaborate or finer than this year

There are sterling silver effects in all styles and makes, while in the toy line there is an endless assortment sufficient to make the eyes of any boy or girl bulge with astonishment. They include all kinds of books and games. For the older people there can be found handkerchiefs, gloves, bric-a-brac, together with fur boas which will make excellent Christmas presents for the women. If one wishes to indulge his tastes in something a little more fancy there are to be found the more staple goods, cloaks, umbrellas, etc., any one of which would make the very best of a rememberance.

SUITABLE GIFTS.

Isaac Lederer Offers a Large Assortment for Christmas Shoppers to Choose From.

Readers of The Daily Press, who are casting about to find something for a Christmas present, should not fail to drop into the handsome store of Isaac Lederer on West Front street, where the quantity of fine goods displayed to the visitor will both please the eye and help in the selection of a present. There are toilet sets in profusion, silver novelties, celluloid cuff and necktie boxes, while in the line of handkerchiefs, both plain and initial, something that would be acceptable to either man or woman, they are to be found in endless variety In addition Lederer makes a good showing in the fur line; also in gloves, silk mufflers and some of the more substantial things that are suitable for Christmas gifts, the stock will be found all that one can desire.

National Organizer James Dunn to Speak

Hon. James Dunn, of New York, national organizer of the Catholic Total Abstinence Society of America, will deliver an address Sunday afternoon at St. Mary's Hall, under the auspices of St. Mary's Total Abstinence Society. Mr Dunn comes highly recommended. Where he has addressed large audiences on the temperance question in Europe the press has spoken of him favorably.

Entertained in Honor of a Guest.

The Misses Luella and Fanny Mills, of 301 East Fifth street, entertained a few friends last evening at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Mills, in honor of their friend, Miss Clara Davis, of Port Chester, N. Y. The evening was pleasantly passed with music and refreshments. Miss Davis is an accomplished musician, who has many friends in this city and vicinity.

Must Keep off Tier's Pond.

Complaints having been made that the boys are destroying fences and using them to build fires, the police this morning were asked to drive the boys and girls from Tier's pond. Patrolman McCarthy, of this city, and Marshal Emmons, of the borough, were sent to notify the skaters to vacate the ice.

A Hint From the Gridiron.

It is the player's mettle that makes the football goaled, and it is metal of equal purity that contributes to make the gold novelties at Collier's. Call and examine them; in variety and price they will meet every taste and every pocket.

BRAVE YOUNG WOMAN BATTLED FLAMES ALONE

Mrs. Isaac P. Runyon Saved Her Home From Destruction by Fire Last Evening.

AND THEN SHE FAINTED.

THE PIANO LAMP EXPLODED AND STARTED A LIVELY BLAZE.

Lives at 248 Somerset Street—Borough Fire Department Called Out, But Mrs. Runyon Had Done the Work With Rugs and Fishpole.

The residence of Isaac P. Runyon, at 248 Somerset street, had a narrow escape from being destroyed by fire last evening. It was all due to the presence of mind of Mrs. Runyon that a destructive conflagration was averted. It was about 6:30 o'clock when a large piano lamp in the parlor exploded, setting fire to the fancy shade that adorned it. Before rushing in to fight the fire, Mrs. Runyon wet her clothes and seized a fish pole and some rugs. The first thing Mrs. Runyon did was to throw the blazing lamp through the wind. Then she gave battle with rugs and fish pole to the flames which were licking up the white curtains and the carpet.

Lawyer Runyon was on his way from his office at the time, all oblivious to the danger that threatened his home. The first intimation he had of the fire was when an alarm had been sent in by Philip Currin from box 143, at Somerset street and Grandview avenue. The fire had first been discovered by Miss Belle Lewis, who was passing the house at the time.

The firemen of the borough responded with alacrity, but before they reached the scene Mrs. Runyon had succeeded in beating out the flames with a fish pole and rugs. Mr. Runyon reached his damaged home just in time to see his wife carried upstairs by some of the firemen. The brave woman had fainted from the excitement and exhaustion after it was all over. Dr. Clawson, the family physician, was sent for and she was soon restored to consciousness.

Although the firemen did not use their apparatus the members of the various companies rendered valuable aid in setting things to rights. The damage will not exceed $100; fully covered by insurance.

WILL MEET ALL DEMANDS.

I. H. Boehm is Prepared to Look After the Wants of Those in Search of Christmas Gifts.

One of Plainfield's oldest and most reliable dry goods houses is that of I. H. Boehm, of West Front street. Mr. Boehm is always ready to meet the demands of the people and this year he has made a special effort to stock his store with the best goods for the holiday season. There is a complete line of dress goods, cloaks, suitings, hosiery, handkerchiefs, while in the house-furnishing department there is a great variety of goods that can be purchased at reasonable prices. There is a well stocked toy department, and everything is arranged in a most attractive way.

Christmas shoppers can do well at this store as many people can testify. Reliable house and reliable goods at reasonable prices is the motto that Mr. Boehm believes to be a good one and on this line he has made himself a successful merchant.

Verdict For Defendant.

Justice Huff has given his decision in the contract case of Charles Arnold against Mrs. Catherine O'Connors in favor of the defendant. This was an action brought to recover $20 88 for meats, milk, etc. Walter L. Hetfield, Jr., the counsel for the defendant proved that the husband was responsible in that he was supposed to provide for his family. This point no doubt won the decision for the defendant as it was a very strong one.

Injured While Skating.

George Apgar, of East Front street, collided with a companion while skating on Tier's lake last evening. Both were thrown to the ice, and Apgar was rendered unconscious for some time. He was assisted home by friends. One foot was badly hurt and the shoe cut by coming in contact with a skate. The other skater escaped injury.

Keep Bad Boys Out.

William T. Kirk, of Park avenue and Seventh street, has been obliged to erect a wire fence in front of the hedge on his property, in order to keep boys from ruining the hedge. At one time it looked as though it would be entirely destroyed by malicious boys.

CHRISTMAS AT HOLY CROSS.

Elaborate Plans Made For Christmas Festival to be Held Thursday Night After Christmas.

The Christmas exercises and tree for the children of the Sunday-school of Holy Cross Episcopal church will be held on Holy Day evening, the Thursday after Christmas As is customary services will first be held in the church proper at 7:30 o'clock to which the public is invited. The children will sing carols and there will be responsive reading and a few remarks by Rev. William Montgomery Downey, the rector.

At the close of the services the five prizes given by individual members of the church will be awarded to the choir boys who are deserving of them for proficiency in singing during the year. This is an interesting feature of the exercises and one which the choir boys look forward to each year with a degree of zeal that is worthy of their appreciation of the generous donors.

After the services in the church the children of the school and their teachers will march to the parish house where the Christmas tree will be lighted and presents distributed.

TO AID FARMERS.

Methods of Meeting Two Dangerous Pests to be Considered by County Board of Agriculture.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, Dec. 15—A meeting of the Somerset County Board of Agriculture has been called for December 20 to consider two dangerous insect invasions. The wheat moth has done great damage since the crop was harvested, and some farmers estimate the loss at 50 per cent. Professor John B. Smith, the State entomologist, has promised to be at the meeting called and will suggest a remedy for the pest.

Professor Smith will also give some further information to peach growers as to the San Jose scale, which has infested many of the orchards. A hydrometer has been sent to test the crude petroleum, which is to be applied to the trees. The danger from this application comes from putting it on the trees too strong.

—When you need a soothing and healing antiseptic application for any purpose, use the original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, a well known cure for piles and skin diseases. It heals sores without leaving a scar. Beware of counterfeits. L W Randolph.

Could Only Tell His Name and Age.

Considerable mystery surrounds the death of a man who gave his name as John L Arens. He was admitted to the hospital on November 21, suffering with a complication of diseases. He would give no account of himself. He died Thursday afternoon and the body was taken in charge by Undertaker George Cole, of West Second street.

World's Champion.

"I tried many remedies to cure piles," writes W. R. Smith, of Latham, Ill., "but found no relief till I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve. I have not been troubled with piles since." It's the only champion pile cure on earth and the best salve in the world. 25c per box, guaranteed by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

WAR TAX REDUCTION

Express Receipts Retained on the List.

COMPANIES MUST PAY THE TAX.

Attempt to Further Reduce Tax on Beer Defeated—In the Senate Discussion of the Hay-Pauncefote Treaty Occupied the Day.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The house yesterday adjourned without disposing of more than half the war revenue reduction bill. General debate closed at 2 o'clock, after which the bill was opened to amendment under the five minute rule. A determined effort was made to reduce the tax on beer below the committee rate of $1.60 a barrel, but the ways and means committee overwhelmed the opposition. The committee, however, sustained two signal defeats. In connection with the beer tax Mr. Payne offered an amendment in the language of the bill passed by the house last session designed to abolish the use of small beer packages one-sixth and one-eighth barrels, but it was defeated by 85 to 94 after charges that its purpose was to crush out the small brewers. Another defeat occurred in connection with the amendment offered by Mr. Henry C. Smith of Michigan. The bill abolished the 1 cent stamp tax on express receipts and telegraph messages, but retained the tax on railroad and steamship freight receipts. Mr. Smith's amendment restored the tax on express receipts and altered the form of the section so as to compel the company instead of the shipper to pay the tax. The amendment precipitated a lively debate, in the course of which Mr. Smith made a personal allusion to a United States senator who is connected with one of the express companies. Mr. Payne vigorously fought the amendment, but it was carried—123 to 106.

Throughout nearly the entire legislative day the senate was in secret session discussing the Hay-Pauncefote treaty. No business of importance was transacted in the brief open session except the adoption of the house resolution providing for a holiday recess to extend from Friday, Dec. 21, to Thursday, Jan. 3.

After reporting to the senate in executive session the new amendments to the Hay-Pauncefote treaty as made by the committee on foreign relations, Senator Lodge made an effort to have a day set for the taking of a vote upon the treaty. He suggested next Thursday as the most acceptable time, but did not succeed in getting the unanimous consent necessary. Senator Mason first made objection, and when he withdrew it Senator Money suggested that Senator Morgan had given notice that he would ask that the vote upon the treaty should be postponed until a vote could be secured upon the Nicaragua canal bill. Senator Morgan, however, stated that he was not disposed to make that contention any longer, because he did not wish to do anything which would lead Great Britain to conclude that this country desires to take a threatening position. Senator Butler then entered objections to fixing a time for a vote. Senator Lodge said that in view of the position taken he should press the treaty upon the attention of the senate early and late until a vote could be had, and he afterward declined to move an adjournment until Monday because of the refusal to allow a day to be named for a vote.

THE TREATY QUESTION.

It Will Be Useless to Present a Substitute to England.

LONDON, Dec. 15.—The Times, which regards the matter as a "check to President McKinley" and suggests that "the new senate, meeting in March, may not consider itself bound by the present vote," says:

"In any case, our course is perfectly clear. Mr. McKinley is well aware that it would be a superfluous and unmeaning formality to present the mutilated Hay-Pauncefote treaty to her majesty's government. The proposal to give the United States military authority over the canal is analogous to that technicality reserved for Turkey under the Suez convention. It ignores such vital distinctions as that Egypt is a vassal of Turkey and that the exercise of the authority in question requires to be sanctioned by the protecting powers under the treaty of London.

"England has made a frank and liberal offer in the hope of removing any possible cause of discord, and, despite the action of the United States senate, we believe the course of Great Britain is appreciated by the people of the United States. If concessions are refused, we can only express our regret."

"No other construction can be placed upon the action of the United States senate," says The Daily Chronicle, "than that senators have deliberately made up their minds to force England into a false position and to make the refusal to ratify the Hay-Pauncefote treaty come from this side. President McKinley, as usual, shouts with the larger crowd.

"If the United States go out of the way to break treaty engagements, such conduct will come within the definition of an 'unfriendly act.' We are loath to think that the era of good relations with America is coming to an end, but if she were to take advantage of our complications in South Africa and China after we had given our aid during her complications with Spain, we could neither desire nor trust her friendship in the future."

Hay Has Not Resigned.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Notwithstanding what amounted to the authoritative denial that the secretary of state had resigned the story persistently circulated during yesterday and finally reached the ears of some of Mr. Hay's fellow cabinet officers. These declared that nothing whatever was said at the cabinet meeting on this subject and said even the treaty proceedings in the senate were not discussed. So, as before stated, it is not to be expected that there will be any change in the head of the state department, for the present at least.

Upper Hudson Closed.

CATSKILL, N. Y., Dec. 15.—Navigation of the upper Hudson closed with the departure of the steamer Onteora for New York. The river at this point is closed tight by ice. Last year navigation closed two weeks later.

Fire In Jackson, Mich.

JACKSON, Mich., Dec. 15.—Fire destroyed the Lewis Spring works in this city and badly damaged the same firm's axle factory. The loss is between $50,000 and $60,000, fully covered by insurance.

PACIFIC COAST STORM.

Gales Play Havoc With Buildings and Electric Lines.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 15.—One of the most severe storms that ever visited San Francisco broke over the city at an early hour yesterday and raged in fitful gusts, rain and wind sweeping over the city with unusual violence, accompanied by thunder and forked lightning, a rather unusual occurrence in this city. At one time rain fell in such torrents that many thought a cloudburst imminent. During the height of the storm several houses were overturned by the wind, fences blown down and other damage done. One of the great receiving tanks of the San Francisco Gas and Electric company was struck by lightning, the gas taking fire. No one was hurt in the explosion, but the tank was completely demolished.

During the storm this city was entirely cut off from telegraphic communication with the rest of the world, the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies losing every wire out of San Francisco. The damage to telegraph wires is being repaired rapidly. Only partial service is yet being given by the companies. Much damage to wires was caused by the blowing down of about 100 poles on the Oakland side of the bay. Some damage was done in the mountains, but nothing definite can be stated as to its extent. The telephone company also lost many of its long distance wires.

So far no marine disasters of any moment have been reported. On the bay several boats were capsized, but no one was drowned so far as is known. Several vessels dragged their anchors, but no damage is reported. Reports from points at short distances from San Francisco tell of much damage by the storm. Buildings were blown over and unroofed in many sections, chimneys blown down and other damage done, but so far no fatalities have been reported. The storm ceased almost entirely at noon.

KWANG SU WILL AGREE.

Ten of the Conditions Acceptable to the Emperor.

TIEN-TSIN, Dec. 15.—According to credible Chinese sources of information Emperor Kwang Su will agree to the following ten demands of the powers:

First.—Indemnity to the amount of 700,000,000 taels (about $500,000,000) payable within 60 years and guaranteed by the likin.

Second.—The erection in Peking of a suitable monument to the memory of Baron von Ketteler.

Third.—An imperial prince, a near relative of the emperor, to go to Berlin to apologize and express regret for the murder.

Fourth.—Foreign troops to hold the lines of communication between Taku and Peking.

Fifth.—Punishment of the Boxer officials.

Sixth.—Candidates from districts where antiforeign outrages have been perpetrated not to be allowed to compete in the Chinese examinations in Peking for five years.

Seventh.—Abolition of the tsung-li-ya-men.

Eighth.—Foreign envoys to have access to the emperor at all times.

Ninth.—Importation of arms and ammunition into the province of Pe-chi-li to be abolished.

Tenth.—The land and sea forts between Shan-hai-kwan, Taku and Peking to be destroyed.

MAY SPLIT ON SUFFRAGE.

Predictions That This Question Will Break Up Convention.

HAVANA, Dec. 15.—Predictions are freely made, especially among the Conservatives, that the Cuban constitutional convention will break up in a wrangle over the question of suffrage, the issue between universal and restricted suffrage being sharply drawn. The eastern delegates and the radicals from the western part of the island advocate giving the blacks the right to vote.

The convention committees are also wrangling as to the presidential qualifications and as to the form of government, some advocating the federal system and others the unitary or centralized system.

Eagle Shot on Long Island.

EASTPORT, L. I., Dec. 15.—William H. Hallock killed an eagle near this place yesterday. It was flying at the time, and his first shot simply broke its wing. After falling to the ground it made a hard fight, and the hunter had to dodge behind a tree while he reloaded his gun. Afterward he emptied both chambers into the bird and killed it. It is a splendid specimen, measuring more than seven feet from tip to tip. Hallock will have it mounted by a taxidermist.

Coogan In a Fix.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—James J. Coogan, president of the borough of Manhattan, has apparently forfeited his right to hold that office under the provisions of section 382 of the city charter. At the last election Mr. Coogan registered and voted in Southampton, N. Y. Section 382 of the charter says the president of a borough must at the time of his election be a resident of the borough and must remain a resident of such borough during his term of office.

New Torpedo Boat Takes a Spin.

NEWPORT, R. I., Dec. 15.—The torpedo boat Bailey was given a spin on the bay yesterday, being driven under full speed over the measured mile course. It is believed she equaled the contract speed of 30 knots. Monday, provided the day is fair, the boat will be run for two hours over the measured mile for standardization of her screws.

More Weavers Go Out.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Dec. 15.—Some 47 weavers left the mills yesterday and were added to the roll call of the strikers. A big mass meeting of all the strikers employed in the Acushnet and Hathaway mills was held in city hall last evening, when the strike situation was discussed.

Suspected Chinamen Released.

SYRACUSE, Dec. 15.—A special to The Post-Standard from Malone says that 33 Chinamen arrested for violating the exclusion act were discharged by United States Commissioner Paddock. Action was taken with the consent of the government officials.

Porter Failing Rapidly.

PUTNAM, Conn., Dec. 15.—John Addison Porter, former secretary to President McKinley, has been failing rapidly through the day, and the end is thought to be near.

A BRITISH REVERSE.

Clements Forced to Retire From Nooitgedacht.

SEVERE FIGHTING IS REPORTED

Four British Officers Killed—Kitchener Sends Re-enforcements. Attacks on Bethlehem and Vrede Repulsed.

LONDON, Dec. 15.—Lord Kitchener telegraphs the war office as follows:

"Clements' force at Nooitgedacht was attacked at dawn Thursday by Delarey who had been re-enforced by Beyer's commando, making a total of 2,500 men. Though the first attack was repulsed, the Boers reached the top of the Magalies berg, which was held by four companies of the Northumberlands and thus commanded Clements' camp. He retired to Hekpoort and took up a position on a hill in the center of the valley.

"The list of our casualties is incomplete. The fighting was severe. Four officers, including Colonel Legge, were killed.

"Re-enforcements have left Pretoria for Hekpoort. Broadwood's brigade was about seven miles west of Clements. Broadwood has not yet been able to report the action."

Lord Kitchener also states that the commander at Lichtenburg reports that in an attack on the British column there the Boer commander, General Lemmer and two other Boers were killed. Lord Kitchener also reports that attacks on Bethlehem and Vrede were repulsed and that the Boers had 10 killed and 14 wounded. Vryheid was attacked at dawn on Dec. 11. Sniping by the Boers continues.

The officials at the war office do not entertain the idea that a great disaster to the British occurred at Nooitgedacht though a heavy casualty list is expected.

The Battle Continues.

JOHANNESBURG, Dec. 15.—The battle still continues in the hills a few miles from Krugersdorp. General Clements has asked for re-enforcements, and mounted men under General French have already gone. There have been many casualties on both sides. It is estimated that the Boers number 2,800.

Proctor Buys Italian Quarries.

ROME, Dec. 15.—Representatives of Senator Redfield Proctor of Vermont arrived at Leghorn this week and are closing up a deal through Gastaldi & Co. of Genoa, representing Alexander Konta by which Senator Proctor takes over the entire Carrara quarries, which, with his Vermont possessions, will give the senator practical control of a large proportion of the marble output of the world. The Carrara quarries heretofore have been controlled by a large number of small owners, who have been constantly warring with each other. The consolidation it is believed, will result not only in largely increasing the output of these important quarries, but will largely reduce the cost of production. Negotiations have been in progress in London, but it is understood that Senator Proctor quickly took up the scheme which is now being completed. The price is understood to approximate $10,000,000.

Porto Rico Commissioner Welcomed.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The newly elected commissioner from Porto Rico, Mr. F. Degetau, made his appearance at the capitol yesterday for the first time and was cordially welcomed by senators and representatives. He was a delegate to the Spanish cortes and has spent much time at Madrid. In talking with members of congress he expressed satisfaction at the warm greeting given him by the president and other officials and with the general spirit of friendliness shown toward the island he represents. The Porto Rican people, he said, want to become Americans in the full sense as fast as possible, and they also hope their representative will be accorded the rank of delegate, since as commissioner the island has less representation than it had under Spain.

Suicide of a Druggist.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., Dec. 15.—F. Frank Olmstead, a pharmacist of Black River, aged 40, is dead in St. Joachim's hospital from the effects of five bullets self inflicted with suicidal intent. Olmstead came to this city to see a physician, being in poor health and fearing appendicitis. He remained over night at the residence of his sister-in-law. Yesterday afternoon he got out of bed, secured a revolver from an adjoining room, returned to bed and shot himself five times, three bullets entering his head and two going into the abdomen.

Soldiers' Sentence Commuted.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Privates Benjamin Stanley and Thomas Feaster of Company G, Forty-eighth volunteer infantry, stationed in the Philippines, were convicted recently by court martial of rape and desertion, and each was sentenced to be hanged. The president has commuted the sentence in each case to dishonorable discharge, forfeiture of all pay and allowances and confinement at hard labor at Leavenworth penitentiary for the period of 20 years.

Chinese Immigration to Canada.

OTTAWA, Ont., Dec. 15.—The number of Chinese entering Canada who paid poll tax for the year ended June 30, 1900, was 4,231, as against 4,385 for 1899. The immigration of Chinese in both years was larger than usual owing to the belief that the agitation for the increase in poll tax would be successful. For the five months of the present year Chinese immigration declined.

Held Up a Jewelry Store.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—The second store hold up in this city this week occurred yesterday, when two men entered the jewelry store of Zachariah Frank on Market street, beat the proprietor into insensibility and robbed the store of three watches. The thieves escaped.

Niagara Falls' Mayor Bankrupt.

BUFFALO, Dec. 15.—A special from Niagara Falls says: "M. C. Butler filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy today placing his liabilities at $78,277 and his assets at $370. Mr. Butler is mayor of Niagara Falls."

Emperor Nicholas Out of Doors.

LIVADIA, European Russia, Dec. 15.—Emperor Nicholas for the first time since his illness began went into the open air yesterday, sitting on a veranda. Subsequently he received one of the ministers in audience.

TRADE CONDITIONS.

Collections In the Country Continue Good—Iron Industry Brisk.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Holiday trade has increased moderately, and in wholesale staple lines no relapse is seen either in volume of transactions or in prices. Cold weather has helped New York, but it is still behind the rest of the country, for some recent losses from failures in the textile markets have fallen rather heavily here. Collections in the country continue good, and this relieves anxiety which might otherwise be felt over the higher rates for money. Merchants' accounts are in strong position, so that new sales of commercial paper are light even for this season. Industrial conditions continue strong, with no great accumulation of new goods in any quarter.

In spite of the break in cotton the market for fabrics is still in good position, sellers having little to offer and nothing at cuts in prices.

Even the most sanguine estimates did not equal the actual decrease in furnace stocks of pig iron during November, which amounted to 84,830 tons, according to The Iron Age.

Merchandise exports in November fell $26,638,773 behind the previous month but exceeded every other month on record with a total of $136,678,594. Imports were $64,846,418, leaving a trade balance in our favor of $71,832,176.

Failures for the week were 240 in the United States against 218 last year and 26 in Canada against 26 last year.

GOLD AND SILVER.

Production In the United States Shows Large Increase.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The report of the director of the mint on the production of gold and silver in the United States during the calendar year 1899 shows only slight variation from the approximate figures given out early in the present year. The final figures are $71,053,400 for gold and $32,858,700 for silver at its average commercial value during the year.

The gold product was the greatest in the history of the country, exceeding that of 1898 by $6,590,400, and greater by $6,053,400 than the estimated product of 1853, the record year in the working of the California placers. The principal gains in 1899 over 1898 were in Alaska $2,934,700, due to the Cape Nome district; Colorado, $2,787,500, and Utah $1,165,400.

The silver product of the United States in 1899 was slightly greater than in 1898, being 54,764,000 ounces against 54,438,000 ounces. The average price for silver during the year on the London quotations was 60 cents per ounce as compared with 59 cents in 1898.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

The Taft Philippine commission has passed a liquor license law for Manila.

Hamilton Harris, former counsel of the New York Central roalroad, died in Albany.

Professor G. W. Tyrrell has discovered rich forests on the so called barren lands of northern Canada.

The skeleton of a man was found in the hull of the American line steamer St Paul at Cramps' shipyard.

In New York city Alexander Stewart, a 14-year-old boy, was sentenced to 20 years in prison for murder.

Miners in the Shamokin region will receive this month over $275,000, the largest pay roll ever known there.

The jury in the case of Jessie Morrison, on trial at El Dorado, Kan., for murder of Mrs. Olin Castle, disagreed.

General Harrison at Ann Arbor.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Dec. 15.—General Harrison delivered a lecture last evening before the Students' Lecture association of Michigan university upon the relation of the annexed territories and their civilized inhabitants to the United States. It was, General Harrison declared, not intended to be a legal argument on questions brought into discussion by the Porto Rican bill, but rather a popular discussion of some of the views that have been expressed in relation to the status of our annexed territories. The lecturer declared that we had done something out of line with our historical precedents—not in the way of expansion, but in the character of it. He said we had taken over peoples rather than lands, as heretofore. He held the view that the civilized inhabitants of the territories were citizens of the United States and that the revenue provisions of the constitution relating to taxation for federal purposes applied to the territories.

Oldest Confederate Veteran Dead.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Dec. 15.—General Michael J. Bulger, a distinguished Confederate general and public man, is dead at Dadeville, Ala. General Bulger was the oldest Confederate veteran living, being 100 years of age. He was a member of the secession convention at Montgomery and led the fight against secession. He was a candidate for governor of Alabama soon after the civil war.

Coal Lands Bought.

WASHINGTON, Pa., Dec. 15.—Contiguous blocks of coal land near Rutan and Oak Forest, Greene county, including 16,000 acres, have been sold to Pittsburg and Brownsville parties. A New York syndicate has bought 10,000 acres near West Middletown, this county, at $30 per acre. This was optioned a year ago. Its development must await a railroad.

Typhoid Fever Cases In Prison.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Warden Johnson of Sing Sing prison says that three or four of the typhoid cases in that institution have developed into typhoid pneumonia, and the men are pretty sick. There are now 27 cases in the hospital. There has been but one death so far, but it is likely some of the other cases will prove fatal.

Fierce Winter Storms.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Dec. 15.—The worst period of snowfalls known in the colony during the last ten years has prevailed this week, paralyzing traffic. The railroads are blocked, the trains being days behind; steamers are unable to leave the port, and fishing vessels are compelled to remain in the harbor.

Seeds For Congressmen.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The lowest bidder for the contract of furnishing seeds for congressional distribution during the fiscal year 1902 received by the agricultural department was the New York Market Gardeners' association at $101,975.

Weather Probabilities.

Fair; continued cold; fresh northerly winds.

ARE READY AT LAST

Chang and Ching Announce Receipt of Credentials.

PEACE NEGOTIATIONS MAY PROCEED

Germans Said to Be Following a Policy of Extermination In China—Japan Favors Leniency and Desires Speedy Return of Court.

LONDON, Dec. 15.—A Peking dispatch says:

"Li Hung Chang and Prince Ching have sent an official notification to the ministers that they have received the promised documents authorizing them to act in behalf of China in the peace negotiations and announcing that they are ready to proceed so soon as the ministers desire."

"The Germans are still following a policy of extermination," says a dispatch to The Standard from Tien-tsin, dated yesterday. "A German force has just returned from an expedition against General Mei at Tsan-chou-fu, on the Grand canal, after routing his troops, plundering his baggage and releasing some dangerous Boxer prisoners he had taken. These proceedings are regrettable, as General Mei has all along been active in suppressing the Boxers and defying the empress dowager."

The Times publishes the following from Tokyo, dated Dec. 13:

"Japan's policy in China appears to be based equally on popular sentiment and political expediency. The barbarous behavior of the Russians, especially the atrocious treatment of women and children, amply confirmed from other sources has produced intense disgust, which is enhanced by the silence of western public opinion in contrast with the severity of western comment upon Japan's action at Port Arthur six years ago. Hence there is a distinct reaction here in favor of leniency toward the Chinese.

"The greatest stress is laid on securing the earliest possible return of the Chinese court to Peking."

Request For Warship Denied.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—About the only subject of popular interest discussed in the very short cabinet meeting yesterday was the application of the Rev James F. Hill of Cannonsburg, Pa., for governmental aid in protecting native Christians in the New Hebrides islands. The subject was brought before the cabinet by Secretary Long, to whom application had been made for a warship in behalf of the missionary interests. The islands lie about 1,000 miles east of Australia and just north of New Caledonia. They have been under a divided French and British protectorate. There was a general disposition on the part of the cabinet officers to do everything proper and possible to meet the request of the missionary interests, but it was found that to send a warship to this part of the world would require a trip of about 4,000 miles from the nearest American station, and the navy department has no vessels now available for such service. It also was reported that French and British gunboats patrol those seas and doubtless would seek to prevent any such attack upon the native Christians as is said to have been planned.

The Santa Fe Strike.

TOPEKA, Dec. 15.—No new developments have come to light in the telegraphers' strike. The telegraphers have established headquarters here, with chief officers of the Order of Railway Telegraphers in charge, and announce that they will keep up the fight until they shall have won. Not all the telegraphers on the division are out, but the officers say that they will be out before the operations go much farther. Mr. Newman said last evening that the new men were not succeeding in getting in any of the train reports on time, and this is one of the points about which Third Vice President Barr has been particular in the extreme. No great difficulty is experienced in the running of the trains on the main line, though they rarely run just on time. Freight is not moving so rapidly as it was.

Vanderbilt Interests Win.

LOCKPORT, N. Y., Dec. 15.—The Vanderbilt interests have won, and the big power canal from Niagara river to this city, which will cost at least $6,000,000, will be built. The special committee of aldermen which has had under consideration the propositions of the rival companies, the Niagara, Lockport and Ontario company and the Lockport and New-tane Power company, met at the Hotel Stevens yesterday and conferred with J. W. Ledoux, an expert engineer from Philadelphia, and Attorney King and S. Q. Mengle, representing the first named company, behind which is Vanderbilt capital. As a result of this conference the committee will report to the common council in favor of the Vanderbilt proposition.

Suspected Bank Robbers Arrested.

WHEELING, Dec. 15.—It is reported that two men were arrested on a Wheeling and Lake Erie passenger train at Bridgeport, O., on suspicion of participating in the Shanesville (O.) bank robbery Wednesday night. The men resisted arrest and were fired on repeatedly. Passengers in the car were panic stricken, and several tried to jump through the windows to escape the bullets.

The American Invasion.

LONDON, Dec. 15.—The Earl of Crewe, in an address before the Gimcrack club at York city last evening, referred to the "American invasion" of the English turf and said it was not fair to confine censure of unjustifiable practices to the American jockeys, as the English jockeys were also guilty.

Famous Castle Burned.

BRUSSELS, Dec. 15.—The Chateau Bel Oeil, the castle and summer residence of the Prince of Ligne, dating from 1146, has been destroyed by fire. The paintings and most of the principal works of art which it contained were saved.

Destructive Pampas Fires.

LONDON, Dec. 15.—According to the Buenos Ayres correspondent of The Daily Express 600 miles of grain and grass crops, with vast herds of cattle, have been destroyed by a pampas fire in the Bamablanca region.

Earthquake In Missouri.

JOPLIN, Mo., Dec. 15.—An earthquake shock lasting nearly a minute was experienced in this city yesterday. The motion was from north to south and of a quivering nature. No damage is reported.

COMING EVENTS.

December 16—Hugh R. Munro, vice-president of the Niagara Lithograph Company, will address the Y. M. C. A. meeting

Democracy's Troubles.

If the Democratic party of New Jersey ever intends to play an important part in the future elections in this State, there is much that must be forgotten and forgiven. There are some questions that the men who formed the Democratic party of six years ago cannot agree upon. These will have have to be relegated to the background if the New Jersey Democracy expects to regain its former strength.

The name of Alvah A. Clark, of Somerville, has been given prominence as the one which will be presented by the Democrats as their choice for United States Senator. Of course there is not the slightest chance of his being elected. It's only to give him the honor of such a nomination. Now some of the men who have been prominent in their defence of free silver and Bryanism are opposing Mr Clark's nomination on the ground that he is no longer a Democrat and that he has not been true to his party.

There isn't any doubt but that men like Mr. Martine and Mr. Atkinson sincerely believe that Mr. Clark is a Democrat no longer. But it is just as likely that Mr Clark believes just as earnestly that he is a far better example of a real Democrat than his friends, Mr. Martine and Mr. Atkinson.

While the ablest men who have once fought under Democratic colors continue to exhibit such a decided difference of opinion without any attempt to effect a reconciliation, the Republican leaders of New Jersey will continue to sweep the State by overwhelming majorities.

Robert Davis, of Hudson county, is quoted as saying that he wants to see all Democrats in line once more. He does not distinguish "gold" Democrats from those who supported Mr. Bryan. And he has chosen Mr. Clark as his candidate. Nobody doubts that Mr. Clark is an excellent man and did, at one time, render good service to his party. The objection is simply on the lines of the division in the Democratic ranks since Col Bryan has been the Democratic candidate. But it so happens that Hudson county, which will obey the wish of Mr. Davis, has a controlling voice in the Democratic minority in the State Legislature and so it is very likely that Mr. Clark will be nominated for the United States Senate despite any opposition that may develope. Such opposition does not, however, point out any immediate reconciliation in the present badly split ranks of the New Jersey Democracy.

The reason which causes any business man to make a window display of his wares and to offer tempting bargains is the reason why he should advertise in the newspaper. The reason which causes him to make frequent changes in his window display and in the character of his bargains is the reason why he should change his advertisements often. Changes in "ads" indicate enterprise and lead people to look regularly for new announcements, says the Philadelphia Record.

WHAT OTHERS SAY.

Clippings From Other Newspapers Which May Be Of Interest to Plainfield and Its Citizens.

Clarence T. Atkinson, South Jersey's representative Bryan Democrat, charged himself with the mission of opening the eyes of Robert Davis to the enormity of his offence in selecting Alvah A. Clark as the minority candidate for United States Senator. If reports from Jersey City are to be believed, the South Jerseyman's success was hardly commensurate with his zeal. He was plumply informed by the Democratic dictator that Mr Clark was a better Democrat than many who were criticising him, the application of which observation was left to Mr. Atkinson. All this, of course, is calculated to promote harmony in the Democratic party.—Newark News.

The North Plainfield Borough Council has taken a decided stand on the liquor question. The licensing power is vested in Judge Schenck, of the Somerset County Court of Common Pleas, and therefore is not under the jurisdiction of the governing body of the municipality. The Mayor and Council, at their meeting last Friday night, adopted a resolution requesting Judge Schenck not to renew the license for William Sieser's saloon in that borough, owing to the disorderly reputation of the place, and further petitioned the court to increase the license fees generally of the borough hotels and saloons. This step seems to be entirely in keeping with the duties of the borough authorities, whose knowledge of the local conditions is naturally better than that of the court.—Bound Brook Chronicle.

* * * * * *

The Union County Republicans are working with all the earnestness they can command to obtain the place of Republican leader in the next House of Assembly for Charles S. Foote, of Plainfield. The Essex county members elect of the Assembly have unanimously indorsed Joseph H. Bachelier for the place, and it was said in Newark yesterday that if they could not elect him in the caucus there was a friendly feeling in the Essex delegation for Vivan M. Lewis, of Passaic county. According to good Republican authority, the choice of leader was not likely to be decided until the Republican caucus had made the selection.—New York Tribune.

TEA TABLE TALK.

Short and Gossipy Sketches That Are Not Always News, But Just as Interesting.

One of the sad disappointments in political life for the average man is to think he is running for office and then to find that he is not. An incident of this kind happened to Patrick Kane, the well-known sewer contractor, who was nominated at the Democratic primary for constable in the First ward. Although Kane was nominated he failed to sign the certificate of acceptance. This very important proceeding was a new thing to Pat and he did not give the matter the attention that it deserved. So the committee on vacancies substituted another name.

Kane did not forget, however, to have a quantity of pasters printed with his name on for constable. On the day of election Pat hustled for votes and handed out his pasters indiscriminately. When the votes were being counted Pat was an interested spectator. With eager gaze he watched the ballots as they were counted and tallied up. Pat thought he was making a great run. But, alas, there had been "nothin' doing'" in his favor. The votes had all been counted, but strange to relate and to the surprise and chagrin of the supposed Democratic candidate for constable, not a single vote could be found for him Patrick Kane had not been running for office at all, but he thought he had.

Condemns Killing of Dogs.

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—I beg most respectfully to protest against the tone of the paragraph headed "Killed the Canine", in your issue of the Press of Wednesday's date—the subject, treated with such unbecoming levity, was a very serious one—if the author of the paragraph in question realized the intense suffering the dog, so facetiously called a "cur," endured before he was finally put out of his misery, I think he would also see how illadvised he was in considering the matter a subject for jest. The practice of shooting "so-called" mad dogs by incompetent persons is too prevalent and by reason of the suffering inflicted thro' ignorance, one that cannot be too severely condemned. Dr M O'M. Knott.

Christmas Entertainment.

The homes and haunts of Jesus and village life in Palestine, illustrated by living tableaux and lecture, will be given Monday evening, December 24, as the Christmas entertainment at the First Baptist church. It will be given by Mrs. Lydia VonFinkelstein Mountford, a world famed lecturer, under the auspices of the Christmas entertainment committee. Everyone is invited to attend. A silver offering will be taken at the close of the entertainment.

—Many persons have had the experience of Mr. Peter Sherman, of North Stratford, N. H., who says: "For years I suffered torture from chronic indigestion, but Kodol Dyspepsia Cure made a well man of me." It digests what you eat and is a certain cure for dyspepsia and every form of stomach trouble. It gives relief at once even in the worst cases, and can't help but do you good. L W. Randolph.

Gentlemen:—I must say in regard to GRAIN-O that there is nothing better or healthier. We have used it for years. My brother was a great coffee drinker. He was taken sick and the doctor said coffee was the cause of it, and told us to use GRAIN-O. We got a package but did not like it at first, but now would not be without it. My brother has been well ever since we started to use it.

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence.)

Dunellen, Dec. 15—The adjourned meeting of the Borough Council will be held this evening at which time matters of importance will be discussed. It is expected that the macadam work on Madison avenue, which was inspected Monday, will be accepted. The bill of the Watchung Water Company will also probably be paid, the question of pressure having been settled.

The third of the Board of Education's series of educational lectures will be given in the Methodist church next Tuesday evening. The speaker will probably be Henry M. Maxson, superintendent of the Plainfield public schools. Mr. Maxson is an interesting speaker and the address will no doubt be as instructive as that of Superintendent Willis given two weeks ago.

A pleasant sociable was given in the Presbyterian church last evening under the auspices of the Junior Y. P. S. C. E. A large number of young people were present and enjoyed themselves thoroughly for several hours. Before leaving for home refreshments were served to all.

An exceptionally good programme has been arranged for this evening's meeting of the Literary Society. The members will be entertained by Mrs. John Herbert.

Rev. N. J. Sproull will deliver an intererting discourse at the morning service in the Presbyterian church tomorrow on "Reviving the Church."

Mrs. A. N. Randolph and Miss Virgie Tunison were the guests of Mrs. Manning Randolph, of Piscataway, Thursday.

Mrs. R. J Swackhamer spent Thursday in New Brunswick as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Oakley.

Presiding Elder G. W. Smith, of Plainfield, will preach in the Methodist church tomorrow evening.

Miss Pauline Kraezel has returned from a visit with relatives at Tottenville, S. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wiedenkaupt spent yesterday with Newark friends.

New Market, Dec. 15—With the ice in the best condition it has been this season, the skating on the pond was excellent last evening and a large number of young people took advantage of it. If the present cold snap continues the ice will soon be thick enough to cut.

W. J. Davis is proudly exhibiting to his friends a rosebush in the front yard in full bloom. The flowers are of the Christmas variety and it is no unusual thing for them to blossom at this season of the year.

It is said that a tonsorial artist from Dunellen has intention of starting a shop here in the near future.

George Leonard has been confined to the house for the past few days by an attack of illness.

Fred Williams, of Trenton, has been the guest of friends in town for the past few days.

Miss Irene Day visited in New York yesterday.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence.)

The large new cars of the Elizabeth and Westfield Street Railroad have brought many comforts to the patrons of the road, but it is amazing for one to notice how the regular passengers brace themselves when the motorman puts on his brake to bring the car to a standstill. Experience has taught them that it is either brace yourself or slide half the length of the car. When some of the motormen have had more experience in handling the electric brakes they will be able to bring their car to a stop without jarring the life out of the passengers.

The rummage sale, which has been held in the Marsh building for the past three days, came to a close last evening. The proceeds of the sale is more than satisfactory to the ladies who arranged the affair, and the treasury of the Methodist church will be increased by a neat little sum. This is the first experience the village has had in the line of rummage sales, but it will probably not be the last.

The skating on the lakes through the valley is reported as being excellent. Every afternoon and evening Marsh's lake is filled with merry skaters who seem to be determined to get all the pleasure they possibly can out of the sport while it lasts.

The subject of Rev. G. M. Shott's Sunday morning sermon will be "Sackcloths." In the evening Mr. Shott will give the fourth of his series of sermons upon the Prodigal son, the subject being "The Elder Son Entreated."

The executors sale of the estate of late John Cook will be held at the homestead, corner of Westfield and Coles' avenues, Monday afternoon.

The members of the Episcopal Sunday school will enjoy their Christmas entertainment in the church Friday evening, December 28.

A number of the lovers of amusement will attend the popular play "The Christian" at Music Hall this evening.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

(Special Correspondence.)

South Plainfield, Dec 15—Peter J. McDonough has sold out his interest in the grocery business which has been conducted for several years under his name. The purchaser is Frank Miller. Mr. McDonough is preparing to go into the ice business more heavily than ever before and has just received a new supply of tools.

The Spring Lake Ice Company has offered to furnish the Middlesex Water Company with anthracite coal for use at their pumping station during the winter. They claim that the smoke and cinders from the stack settle upon the ice and detract from its purity.

Rev. J. A. Cubberly will speak tomorrow morning on: "How a Boy Was Educated Long Ago." The topic at the evening service will be, "How the Wise and the Winning Shall Appear."

The pastor's subject at the special meeting held last night was: "The Guidance of Christ." A good audience was in attendance.

Lawrence Kerwin has been granted a license by Judge Strong to sell spiritious liquors in Piscataway township.

The skating here is excellent. The pond is completely frozen over with ice as smooth as glass.

Miss Hattie Dickerson is visiting at Miss Nellie Manning.

Alfred Young is suffer from an attack of malarial chills.

Mrs. Frank Poling is confined at home by illness.

Miss Coulter is slowly loosing every day.

HONORS FOR FRANK PUTNAM

Recommended for Office of Deputy Grand Chancellor of Knights of Pythias.

A district meeting of the Knights of Pythias in District No. 14, was held with Perseverance Lodge, No. 74, K. of P., in their lodge rooms last evening. There was a very large attendance including all the Grand Lodge officers from Grand Chancellor Dexheimer down. Frank Putnam, of Perseverance Lodge, was recommended for the office of deputy grand chancellor and the chances are he will be appointed by the grand chancellor at the Grand Lodge meeting to be held in Trenton next February.

Pennsylvania Railroad Company Will Issue Clerical Orders for 1901.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company announces that clerical orders will be issued for the year 1901 to ordained clergymen having regular charge of churches located on or near the line of its road.

Application blanks may be obtained of ticket agents, and same should reach the General Office by December 22, so that orders may be mailed December 31 to clergymen entitled to receive them. Orders will be issued only on individual application of clergymen when made on blanks furnished by the Company and certified to by one of its agents.

Old Copy of New York Herald.

James E. Martine, of "Cedar Brook Farm," has a curiosity in a copy of the New York Herald, dated November 24, 1847. The paper is noted for the contents of a long address made by Henry Clay at a mass meeting at Lexington, Ky., in which he spoke on the Mexican War. The paper is very well preserved and makes an interesting study.

New Office for Street Commissioner.

Street Commissioner Andrew J. Gavett has taken possession of the office in the Coward building, formerly occupied by the Mayor, and at present he divides his time between his old office and the new one. He may give up the old quarters entirely in a short time.

Successful Operation.

The operation performed last Wednesday on Roy Kitchell, the four year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kitchell, of Watchung avenue, for the removal of a stoppage of the nose, was very successful. Drs Buchanan and Ard performed the operation.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused be catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Preußen.

Provinz Brandenburg.

Berlin. Ein Erlaß des Kaisers betreffs der Reform des Unterrichts in den Gymnasien und Realschulen bestimmt, daß auf den Gymnasien mehr Werth auf die englische Sprache gelegt werden soll. Der Unterricht im Englischen soll in den unteren Klassen mit dem Griechischen beginnen und in den drei oberen Klassen an die Stelle des Französischen treten. Französisch soll in diesen drei Klassen nur fakultativ sein. Dagegen wird für die Oberrealschulen mehr Latein empfohlen.—Die höfische Feier des 200jährigen Krönungsjubiläums des ersten Königs von Preußens wird dadurch vereinfacht werden, daß sie mit dem Ordensfest am 18. Januar vereinigt wird.—Die Zahl der zu versteuernden Hunde in Berlin ist auch im letzten Etatsjahre wieder in die Höhe gegangen. Die Gesammteinnahme belief sich auf 553,310 Mark, einschließlich des Erlöses für verkaufte Steuermarken und der Beträge für Ordnungsstrafen. Die Zahl der steuerfreien Ziehhunde ist in Folge der vermehrten Einführung von Eseln als Zugthiere merklich zurückgegangen.—Fräulein C. Stewart, eine Amerikanerin, hat an der Universität Berlin das medizinische Doktorexamen bestanden.

Friedeberg. Ein Theil des Seegefelder Rittergutes, der sogenannte Schäferhof, ist in den Besitz des Fabrikbesitzers Dr. Ellon von Charlottenburg übergegangen. Die auf diesem Grundstück befindlichen Gebäude werden durch Umbau zum Fabrikbetriebe geeignet gemacht. Die Firma will in der neuen Fabrik Glasplatten für Photographen herstellen.

Nauen. Der Obermaschinistenmaat Krüger vom Kreuzer „Hansa," ein Sohn des Restaurateurs Julius Krüger dahier, ist in Tsingtau, Kiautschau, am Darmtyphus gestorben.

Provinz Hannover.

Göttingen. Auf der Mascherschoß sich der Student der Medizin Schwertfeger aus Wetterhagen. Der Beweggrund der That ist unbekannt.

Lehrte. Dem Staatssekretär des Reichsmarineamtes ist seitens des Kommerzienraths Manske hierselbst der Betrag von 10,000 Mark für die Stiftung „Frauengabe" zum Besten der Chinakämpfer überwiesen worden.

Provinz Hessen-Nassau.

Hanau. Neulich ist der Cigarrenfabrikant A. Hengsberger sen. im Komptoir seiner Fabrik in Folge eines Herzschlages plötzlich verstorben. Der Dahingeschiedene war früher langjähriges Mitglied des Stadtrathes.

Wiesbaden. In feierlicher Weise konsekrirte der altkatholische Bischof Dr. Weber die von der hiesigen altkatholischen Gemeinde errichtete Friedenskirche. Die Mittel für den Kirchenbau wurden wie folgt aufgebracht: 18,000 Mark Abfindung von der römisch-katholischen Gemeinde für den Verzicht auf ihren Antheil am Kirchenvermögen, 15,000 Mark Staatszuschuß, 5000 Mark aus der kaiserlichen Schatulle, den Rest hat ein Glied der Gemeinde zur Verfügung gestellt. Ohne Orgel, Glocken und Altargeräthe beliefen sich die Kosten des Neubaues auf 120,000 Mark.

Provinz Pommern.

Stettin. Während eines Tanzvergnügens in einem Lokale der Köslinerstraße entstand eine Schlägerei, in deren Verlauf der Grenadier Wilke vom 2. Regiment mit einem Bierglas erschlagen wurde.

Kolberg. Die von dem früheren Redakteur der „Zeitung für Hinterpommern," Rudolph Knobloch, vor 19 Jahren begründete „Kolberger Volks-Zeitung," die sich aus kleinen Anfängen und schwierigen Verhältnissen im Laufe der Jahre zu einem angesehenen Provinzialorgan der konservativen Partei emporgeschwungen hat, ist von ihrem Begründer an den Buchhändler Johann Courtois aus Eberswalde verkauft worden. Der Kaufpreis beträgt 160,000 Mark.

Provinz Posen.

Posen. Der Senatspräsident des Oberlandesgerichts Müller ist im Alter von 71 Jahren gestorben.

Bromberg. In Elsenau und Swiontkowo sind kürzlich die schwarzen Pocken ausgebrochen. Die Krankheit wurde durch galizische Arbeiter eingeschleppt.

Rawitsch. In der Nähe des Lehrerseminars wurde Dr. Max Kulla aus Ratibor in ganz verwahrlostem und betrunkenem Zustande aufgefunden und dem städtischen Krankenhause zugeführt. Kulla war Kreisschulinspektor in Samter und wurde darauf Seminardirektor in Exin. Nachdem er dort im Jahre 1895 wegen Trunksucht seines Amtes enthoben worden war, wurde er Redakteur in Köln, doch verlor er wegen seines Lasters auch diese Stellung und ebenso immer wieder die ihm übertragenen Privatlehrerstellen. Schließlich führte er ein unstetes Wanderleben, das ihn neulich nach Rawitsch führte.

A journeyman barber in Cincinnati, a specially intelligent man and a favorite with his patrons, says of
"I want to say that for eight months I have taken three a day, and have not been to see a doctor once since I commenced to take them. Before I would have to have a long tube put down my throat and have my stomach flushed (I believe that is what they call it) three times every week by a doctor that charged me 50 cents for every time. Of course, that gave me relief, but the trouble always came back again, and I can tell you it was no fun to be pumped out about every two days. The doctor said I had catarrh of the stomach. Whatever it was, it don't bother me now. For four years I was troubled, so that I used to lose about three days out of every month." When this barber observes that a customer has a feverish breath, he occasionally presents him with a Tabule, and if taken it removes the difficulty forthwith.
WANTED—A case of bad health that R·I·P·A·N·S will not benefit. They banish pain and prolong life. One gives relief. Note the word R·I·P·A·N·S on the package and accept no substitute. R·I·P·A·N·S 10 for 5 cents may be had at any drug store. Ten samples and one thousand testimonials will be mailed to any address for 5 cents, forwarded to the Ripans Chemical Co., No. 10 Spruce St., New York.

By a city ordinance, it is provided that no dog shall be permitted to run at large within the city limits, unless a good and sufficient muzzle shall be placed over the mouth of said dog in such manner as to render biting impossible. If any person permits or suffers any dog owned or harbored by him and not so muzzled to run at large, the ordinance provides that he shall upon conviction be punished by a fine not exceeding ten dollars for each offense.

Any person prepared to make complaint under oath of any violation of this ordinance may apply to the subscriber and have prosecution begun forthwith.

Burning of Normal School at Fredonia, N. Y., Saddens Many Homes.

DUNKIRK, N. Y., Dec. 15.—From the smoldering ruins of the Fredonia State Normal and Training school, which was destroyed by fire at 6 o'clock yesterday morning, one charred body has been recovered and a revision of the list of missing makes it certain that seven persons perished in the fire which licked up the structure, entailing the appalling sacrifice of life and a property loss of $200,000.

There were 75 young women students in the building, of which six perished. The other victim was the aged janitor. The dead:

Phineas J. Morris, janitor; Irene Jones of Busti, N. Y.; Bessie Hathaway of Cannonsville, N. Y.; Ruth Thomas of Pike, N. Y.; Cora Storms of Boston; Mae Williams of Lake Como, Pa., and Maud F. Fizzell of Bradford, Pa.

The young women were students and occupied rooms on the third floor of the building in company with a matron and 50 other young women who succeeded in escaping by descending the fire escapes. Up to a late hour last night one body was recovered from the ruins. It is supposed to be that of Miss Storms. It was burned beyond recognition.

To account for the origin of the fire puzzles the local board of managers, as there was no fire in the building, the heat being piped from a boiler two blocks away. The fire started in the private room of Janitor Morris and was discovered by Charles Gibbs, assistant janitor, who notified Janitor Morris and then ran to the fire alarm station a block away. Janitor Morris evidently lost his life while fire fighting. Miss Fizzell was at the head of the fire escape and turned back into the burning building to save a diamond ring, thus losing her life. The others who perished suffocated without being able to find the fire escapes.

It is stated that heavy wire screens were firmly nailed across the windows leading to the fire escapes, and the only way the lucky ones escaped was by crawling through windows adjacent to the escapes and then creeping along the gutter of the mansard roof. Lawyers say there will be damage suits instituted against the state because of the fire escape screens.

A search for remains is being made as rapidly as possible, but it is slow work digging over the acre of debris which is still burning. Principal Palmer estimates the loss at $200,000, with $93,000 insurance.

Nothing was saved from the magnificent building, not even the personal effects of the ladies in the dormitory or the valuable records of the school. Grief stricken parents are arriving to assist in the search for their dead.

School has been adjourned until Jan. 3, when classes will meet in the different halls and churches of the village. Plans for a new and larger structure are already under way. The legislature will be asked to make an appropriation equal to the insurance.

CHOSEN FRIENDS' FAILURE.

Benefit Order In the Hands of a Receiver—How It Happened.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—The attorney general of Indiana filed suit yesterday morning in Indianapolis for the appointment of a receiver for the Order of Chosen Friends, a fraternal insurance association which was incorporated in the state 22 years ago and which has its national headquarters there. The attorney general's application was granted, and Cyrus J. Clark was made receiver.

Supreme Councilor Morse of this city said that the primary cause of the failure was in the stupidity of the founders of the order in promising too much for too little. The immediate causes of the failure, he added, were the stealings of the late supreme treasurer, William H. Wilson, and the demands for death benefits amounting to $60,000 resulting from the Galveston flood. This loss of about $100,000 in a lump was too much for the order in spite of the fact that it had 22,000 members and had been doing business 22 years.

Skunks For Ladies' Pets.

GENEVA, N. Y., Dec. 15.—August Isdell of Lodi, who has a famous skunk farm, was in town yesterday. He has 500 skunks on the farm and is having success in taming and selling them as household pets. "It is claimed by lovers of pets," said Mr. Isdell, "that when the skunk is properly trained and domesticated it is one of the smartest and best natured of all house pets. I cannot say that I have experimented to my satisfaction in this direction. The favorite color seems to be black. I have a considerable demand for skunks of this color from the larger cities, where dealers in pets sell them to ladies for a neat sum."

Three Boys Drowned.

LAMBERTVILLE, N. J., Dec. 15.—Two sons of William Snyder and one son of Elmer Doan, aged 7, 9 and 10 years respectively, were drowned in a milldam at Finesville above here last evening. The boys broke through the ice on the pond. One body was recovered.

Nethersole

An Artist In Dress

By Henriette Rousseau.

I am going to tell about some of the lovely things the sad Olga Nethersole wears on the stage. In one act she wears a wrap the like of which has not been seen in this country ever. It is worn over a dress of rich silk, and this is in turn covered with an overdress of fine silk mousseline de sole, and this is embroidered with everything imaginable which could be impressed to make it still more beautiful. There is a design of trailing flowers, among them calla lilies made of chiffon, and all the leaves are made in the same way, so that out of the chiffon there have bloomed these pure and lovely flowers. They look as if swimming on the surface of the water. Chiffon is so soft and delicate that it gives effects that nothing else can. When mingled with pearl and all manner of silken flossy threads, it can be imagined how very beautiful the whole is. This dress has a train, and the whole of this is wrought with more of the chiffon in the form of flowers and studded with pearls and held in place with other flowers of floss. The effect of the close worked lilies made of chiffon on the thin and filmy silk muslin is simply exquisite. This dress is made in something of an empire style, and the same ornamentation is somewhat like that on the skirt.

But it is the cloak, coat or wrap, whichever it is called, on which I wish to lay stress, for nothing like it has been seen here before. The shape is empire and has short fronts and hangs from the back high up on the shoulders. It is open in front and has a train almost as long as the dress. The body of the garment is of velvet cisele, and the figures are raised in high relief and are surrounded with gold embroidery in the finest possible threads, and it is fairly stiff with the material and its added embroidery. The sleeves have the upper parts solidly wrought with the most superb of work in addition to the original richness of the velvet. Around the bottom of the sleeves are bands of Russian crown sable and ruffles of chiffon. The collar, which is to be worn up or down as suits, is also of sable. The whole garment is lined with the heaviest and richest brocade, and the edges are bordered with sable fur, which we all know is worth its weight in gold. At the sides this is made double depth, and around the upper edge is a row of gold balls. Along the front there is a full ruching of white chiffon quite deep. It is a daring thing to do to put white chiffon and such costly fur together, but when it is done we are obliged to admit it is well done.

I suppose I ought to mention the hat worn with this wrap, so say that it was an enormous picture hat of black velvet, with drapery of Irish lace and with three great white flowers something like white poppies, and they were made of chiffon. Some black plumes curled around the crown, and the flowers rested on the hair. Now all of you know all I can tell about the wonderful coat that has set half New York crazy, and I will say a few words about a waist worn by this really tasteful woman. It is not every one who has fine clothes who has the most taste. This is a white baby waist of white mull shirred closely at the belt and at the neck. It is pompadour shape and has a bertha of fine point across the front, and over this is a figaro of point de venise worth a farm. This has a flat collar and revers of the same and sleeves also. All along the edge of this is a row of loops made of white silk featherbone cable cord, which gives it a superb finish. Not one point of color goes with the whole suit. The hat is of black shirred tulle, with a long black ostrich plume and a large square gold buckle. These are but few of the beautiful things worn by the famous young actress.

Connor; finance committe, Henry Hansen, Otto Moore.

Deputy Supreme Chief Ranger Bingham, of Elizabeth, was present. The installation of officers takes place the second Friday evening in January.

Bed Bugs and Cock Roaches.

For destruction and complete riddance of Cock Roaches, Beetles, Wood and Water Bugs, Bed Bugs, Ants, Rats, Mice, etc., "Rough on Rats," though poisonous, if used with care is most effective. In fact it is the only thing that will permanently annihilate Bed Bugs and Cock Roaches. As an exterminator of Rats and Mice, "Rough on Rats" is the old reliable that never fails nor disappoints. They "don't die in the house." Is sold all around the world. Is used by all civilized nations of the earth. Is the most extensively advertised, the best know and has the largest sale of any article of its kind on the face of the globe. It gives satisfaction every time. Beware of imitations. I employ no peddlers. Have a suspicion of any dealer offering substitutes said to be as good. 15c. and 25c.

Miss Laura Birkhaufer, of Somerville, resigned her position today as stenographer with the Prudential Insurance Company. She will be succeeded by Miss Emily Lacey, of La-Grande avenue.

In all stages of Nasal Catarrh there should be cleanliness. As experience proves, Ely's Cream Balm is a cleanser, soother and healer of the diseased membrane. It is not drying nor irritating, and does not produce sneezing. Price 50 cents at druggists or it will be mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York. Upon being placed into the nostrils it spreads over the membrane and relief is immediate. It is an agreeable cure.

experience and capital combined can do has been achieved, and the result is an admirable, well balanced and entertaining performance, containing a capital acting company, brilliant scenery, bright specialties, witching music and above all a drama well worthy the attendance of every theatre goer in the land.

"Too Rich to Marry," a play dealing with life among the peculiar sect known as The Dunkards, is booked for presentation on Wednesday, Dec. 26, and on Monday, December 31, the very popular Bennett and Moulton Repertoire Company will be seen and continue through New Year's week in a series of their beautiful plays at popular prices.

WILL CHANGE STORES.

E. S. F. Randolph and A. D. Mallinson Will Assume Each Other's Business Monday.

At 7 o'clock Monday morning, Edward S. F. Randolph will give up possession of the drug store at the corner of Liberty and West Fourth streets and take possession of the one at the corner of Watchung and North avenues, now occupied by A. D. Mallinson. Mr. Mallinson will, at the same hour, transfer his ownership from one place to the other.

While Mr. Mallinson has only been located on the corner of Watchung and North avenues for two years, he has had a store in that immediate neighborhood over a decade. He is well-known in this city and has a host of friends. Mr. Randolph is a rising young pharmacist, who has built up a good business at his present location, and should do well in his new quarters. He attended a school of pharmacy at Philadelphia from which he graduated.

DEATH OF MICHAEL FIELDS.

Passed Away After a Lingering Illness—Had Always Lived in Plainfield.

After a lingering illness, which first began last August, Michael Fields, a well known Plainfielder, died early this morning at the home of his sister, Mrs. John Flynn, of West Front street. Death was due to lung trouble.

Mr. Fields was born in this city in 1860 and lived in the West End ever since. His friends were numbered by scores, all of whom will remember him for his quiet and unassuming disposition. He was last employed in the Pond Tool Works, but gave up his position last summer.

Besides his sister, who is the wife of Roundsman John Flynn, he is survived by another sister, Mrs. E. J. Lucie, of New York, and a brother, Cyrus Fields, of this city.

The funeral services will be held from his late residence Monday morning at 8:30, and from St. Mary's church at 9 o'clock.

An Explanation.

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—May I in justice to our faithful "domestic committee," say that ever since the Home was built our cesspools have been cleaned once a year. This was done in May, 1900, and there is no reason for anticipating possible trouble from this Home, at this time.

M. E. Kimball.

Many at Tier's Pond.

The present cold snap has made the ice on the local ponds as smooth as glass and the skaters are enjoying the results. Last evening a crowd of several hundred young people glided over Tier's lake, while smaller crowds enjoyed themselves on minor ponds.

"ROUGH HOUSE" ENDED CAMP'S GROWLER PARTY

There Was Much Doing at Camp's Home Until Police Arrested Them.

STARTED OVER BOER WAR

WHEN SUPPLY OF BEER RAN LOW OTHER THINGS FOLLOWED.

Camp's Wife Went to Her Husband's Assistance and Then Mrs. Brun in Behalf of Her Son Joined the Fray —All Fined by Judge Runyon.

There was a veritable "rough house" at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Camp, on Plainfield avenue, between Second and Third streets, late Saturday night. It appears that the Camps and Mrs. Peter Brun occupy the same house, Mrs. Brun and her son James living up stairs. The Camps had an idea that they ought to celebrate the approach of the holiday season according to their notions of propriety.

Accordingly they invited in a few friends to help along the festivities. Among those bid to the "doins'" was Mrs. Brun, an old man named Barry and Jim Brun, son of the widow who lives in the upper apartments. The "growler" was rushed with rapidity and frequently emptied of its contents. All hands enjoyed themselves to their liking until near 11 o'clock, when Jim Brun was dispatched to a near by saloon for more beer. The saloon was closed and he returned with empty pail.

While Jim was after the beverage that was to help along their evening of coviviality, George Camp, who by the way is of good physique, started a row with old man Barry over the knowledge each possessed of the Boer war. In a twinkling all hands were engaged in a five hand game of "knock out." Some one hit old man Barry and then there was an attempt on the part of Camp to clean house. He seized a chair and started to drive every body from the room.

He made a mistake, however, when he gave battle to Jim Brun. The latter is young, athletic and is something of a scrapper. The younger man was getting the better of the elder Camp, when Mrs. Camp, arousing herself, hastened to the assistance of her lord and sometimes master. For a moment young Brun was being roughly handled and might have been seriously injured but for the prompt aid rendered by his aged mother, who "could not stand by and see her darling Jimmie misused by them Campsee." For a few moments there was plenty "doing" in that room. It was a typical repetition of the celebrated melee of the Donnybrook fair, so graphically recorded in ancient history.

But the sound of smashing window glass and the loud calls for the police, mingled with the alarm from the more peaceable neighbors, brought Patrolmen Totten and Watson on a run to the scene. Without listening to any explanations from those mixed up in the row, the officers arrested the whole gang and marched them to the police station.

Yesterday morning, before City Judge Runyon, many explanations were offered, but none were allowed. The edict of the court was as follows: Mrs. Camp was fined $8 or thirty days; Camp was asked to pay $5 or twenty days; Jim Brun, $5 or twenty days, and Mrs. Brun, who claimed to be acting as a peacemaker, was let off with a $3 fine or ten days.

ARMSTRONG IS RELIABLE.

One of Plainfield's Oldest Pharmacies is Ready to Fill Wishes of All.

T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary, at the corner of Park and North avenues, has one of the reliable places that are to be found in Plainfield. While this old established stand doesn't make any great preparations to observe the holidays in the way of making a display of fancy articles, it is always found a reliable place to secure anything in the drug line. Prescriptions are always carefully compounded and every attention shown to customers.

Dupee on Undergraduate Committee.

George H. Dupee, of 30 Rockview avenue, and a member of the class of 1904 of Yale University, has been appointed one of the undergraduate committee to prepare for Yale's bicentennial celebration next October.

Arranging Christmas Music.

Miss Pauline Jennings, organist at the First Presbyterian church, is arranging a very choice programme of Christmas music to be rendered next Sunday.

MAN AND WIFE ARRESTED.

Patrolman Totten Gathered Them in Early Sunday Morning for Quarrelling on the Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wheeler were gathered in at an early hour Sunday by Patrolman Totten, who found them quarrelling under the Plainfield avenue bridge. There was a young man also involved in the row, but when the officer put in an appearance he beat a hasty retreat. Mrs. Wheeler was ugly drunk and when the blue coat appeared among them she was engaged in quarrelling with her husband. What the quarrel was about the officer did not learn, but it is believed to have been over the young man who fled at the approach of the officer.

In police court yesterday morning Wheeler tried to explain to City Judge Runyon that he was trying to get his wife home when the officer appeared and placed them under arrest. Judge Runyon imposed a fine of $5 or twenty days upon Mrs. Wheeler. Her husband was fined $3 or ten days.

PARK CLUB PLAYED.

Took Part in First Round of Intercity Whist Tournament and Finished in Ninth Place.

The first round of the intercity whist tournament was played at the rooms of the Knickerbocker Whist Club on Saturday night, seventeen teams of four players, including the Park Club, of this city, entering. The top score was made by the Passaic Club, who won ten matches and made ten tricks plus. H. B. Newman and A. W. Foster, of the Elizabeth Club, made the best individual scores, ten tricks plus, N. and S. The Park Club players came out ninth in the contest. They won 8 1-2 matches and won one trick. The next meeting will be on January 12, and after that every two weeks until six rounds have been played.

CHRISTMAS NOVELTIES.

Hepburn & Co. Are Supplying the Wants of Many Christmas Buyers.

Among the attractive novelties to be found at the drug store of Hepburn & Company at Second street and Park avenue, is a splendid line of perfumes of the best makers, besides an assortment of the most complete atomizers to be found in the city. Any of these goods would make splendid Christmas gifts and would be appreciated by the recipients for the sentiment they express as well as proving useful in the future. Besides the above goods this firm keeps a splendid line of drugs and sundries that can always be depended upon.

POWERS' ATTRACTIONS.

Somerset Street Druggist Has Much of Interest to the Christmas Shoppers.

John P. Powers, the Somerset street druggist, is making a fine display for the holidays. The north window of his store is handsomely dressed for the holiday season, there being the finest exhibit of varieties of perfumes ever shown in the borough. They consist of the goods of Palmer, Wright, Ricksecker and Lazell. Besides the perfumes, Mr. Powers has a fine assortment of Huyler's celebrated candy, for which he is booking orders for delivery on or before Christmas.

Grant Club to Give a Concert.

The Grant Club had a rehearsal Friday evening in anticipation of the proposed concert to be held next month. The club is being brought to a degree of efficiency under the direction of Prof. William Miller, former organist at the First Presbyterian church of this city. The club will be assisted at the concert by a well-known prima donna of New York. The club is also arranging to attend the inauguration of President McKinley at Washington, D. C., next March.

Windup of Old Council.

Plainfield's Common Council for 1900 will hold its last session for this year Friday evening of next week at which time the year's business will be closed up. There will be the annual reports from the various departments, and it is expected that the street and sewer committee will present a report on the sewer beds and their improvement. There will be many matters to engage the attention of the members.

Common Council of 1901.

The 1901 Common Council will not hold its first meeting until Monday evening, January 7, owing to the fact that that is the first Monday coming the nearest to the first of the month. This will be the first instance in many years where the Council meets so late in the month.

Finishing Touches to Front Street.

The finishing touches to West Front street were made Saturday afternoon by George Conover and some of the street employes. Fine crushed stone was spread along the street in places where it had become rough.

SENIOR CLASS ENTERTAINED.

SUCCESSFUL ENTERTAINMENT AND RECEPTION BY CLASS OF 1901.

Held at Franklin School Building Saturday Night by Pupils of Plainfield High School.

Before an audience which completely filled the Assembly Hall of the Franklin school building, the pupils of the senior class of the High School gave their entertainment, Saturday evening. It was followed by a reception of so pleasing a nature that it was nearly midnight before it broke up.

The entertainment was given by local talent and was greatly enjoyed It consisted of whistling solos by C. Maynard Evans, violin and piano duets by the Misses Cahoone, a recitation, "That Waltz of Von Weber," by Miss Lillian Maclay, another recitation, "The Man from the West," by Miss May Batchellor and vocal selections by Miss Mabelle Smith. In addition to these Miss Elsie Smith recited by request, "How the LaRue Stakes were Lost." The hit of the evening was made by little Miss Rosamond Rogers, a pupil of Miss Smith's. She recited "Bessie's Secret," very creditably and responded to an encore with a plaintive little piece entitled, "Weariness"

At the conclusion of the entertainment the young ladies of the class served chocolate and wafers to all present after which dancing occupied the attention of the young people. The committee in charge of the affair consisted of Miss Elsie Smith, chairman, Hollywood Titus, Harold Smalley, Miss Ella Lounsbury, Miss Madeline Evans, Miss Martie Anthony, David S. Pond and Edward Janes. They were assisted in serving the refreshments by Miss Ethel Titsworth, Miss Mildred Green, Miss Beulah Kline and Miss Evelyn Lewis.

"THE CHRISTIAN."

Plainfield Theatre-Goers Given a Treat at Music Hall Saturday Night.

"The Christian," which was given at Music Hall Saturday evening, was without doubt one of the best and most complete performances ever given on the local stage. The name of Viola Allen has been so associated with the play that Miss Lilla Vane was placed in a position of unusual difficulty in attempting to portray the character of "Glory Quayle." Miss Vane succeeded beyond all expectations, and she gave the part with life and feeling. As "John Storm," J. Henry Kolker was a success. The difficult scenes between the two leading characters were very effective. The support of the other members of the company was at all times good.

All the original stage settings were used, and the whole performance was one that ranked equally with the play as seen in New York. The theatre was well filled, and the audience showed that it appreciated the great treat which Manager Max Edwards had prepared for them. Music Hall will be closed all this week.

LEGGETT IS ALWAYS READY.

Huyler's Candies are His Chief Attraction for the Throng of Shoppers.

J. H. Leggett, the Y. M. C. A. pharmist, will not make any special display of holiday goods this year. He always has in stock, however, a full line of Huyler's celebrated confectionary and he is prepared to fill orders for delivery before the holidays. In the perfume line Leggett can supply his customers with any of the celebrated makes at prices within the reach of all his customers. As for drugs, Leggett will fill any prescription with care and attention to the minutest detail

Will Not Flag Sidewalk This Winter.

The borough officials have decided not to flag the sidewalk on Duer street leading to the new bridge this winter. The reason assigned by Superintendent of Highways Doud is that the stones could not be laid during the winter months owing to the frost on the ground. The sidewalk has been covered with fine dust that is not altogether agreeable to walk upon and is detrimental to shoe leather.

Christmas at the Hospital.

A week from tomorrow the annual Christmas festivities will be held at Muhlenberg Hospital. There will be appropriate singing by a choir under the direction of Mrs. Freeman, organist of Grace P. E. church, and there will also be an address from some member of the Board of Governors.

New Uniforms for Firemen.

The members of the fire department have been securing their winter clothing which was made in Newark. As the men pay for their own clothes they have a right to determine where they shall be made.

BASKET BALL SEASON HERE.

OPENING GAME BETWEEN SCRUB TEAMS AT FANWOOD CLUBHOUSE.

Active Season Planned By Officers of the Club—Some Games Arranged—Others to Follow—New Officers.

When the season first opened there was very little prospect of much activity in basket ball in Plainfield this winter The organization of the Fanwood Athletic Club has, however, changed the situation materially. Saturday evening, the first basket ball contest under the Fanwood A. C management was played in the Fanwood club house between two scrub teams.

Fifty people from Fanwood and Plainfield gathered to see the game which was quite exciting. The two teams were captained by George Proctor Smith and Walter L. Long. Smith's team won by the score of 20 to 10, after a hotly contested game.

The teams lined up as follows:

SMITH'S TEAM		LONG'S TEAM.
Kieb	forward	Long
G. P. Smith	centre	Hall
Ray Smith	right guard	Hobble
Bonney	left guard	M. Moraller

Officers for the club and basket ball team have now been chosen. Norman Kieb was elected president. Walter L. Long will act as manager of the basket ball team and George Proctor Smith will captain the team on the floor. The management is planning for an active season and hopes to arrange contests at the club house for every week during the playing season.

The first scheduled game is for January 19, with the team from the Polytechnic Preparatory School, of Brooklyn. It is expected, however, that the first game will be played January 4, and the opponents will be either the Plainfield Business Men's team of the Y. M. C. A. or the Summit basket ball team.

Other games have not been arranged as yet but the management is negotiating with teams from the Erasmus High School and the Brooklyn High School, both of Brooklyn, the ex-Polytechnic Prep School team, of Brooklyn, Newark Academy and various regimental organizations of New York and Yonkers.

QUARTETTE IN JAIL.

Mayor Smalley Administered Judgment in Four Cases in the Borough Court This Morning.

The first cases to come before Mayor Smalley, acting recorder of the borough, in several weeks, were arraigned in court this morning. There was just a quartette. Maria Jones, a colored woman, who was drunk on Saturday night, was fined $5 or ten days. Frank Willett, also an unfortunate who drank too much for his good, was compelled to pay $5 or go to jail for ten days for his indiscretion, which also led him to smash a window in the Manhattan Hotel

Peter Thompson and Fritz Sabacker were fighting on Somerset street and ran into the arms of Marshal Emmons who gathered them in. The recorder imposed fines of $10 each or ten days. All the derelicts settled and were given their release.

Carriage Collided With Pole.

A horse attached to a wagon, in which were seated Mr. and Mrs. Francis Bartell, of Watchung, ran away Friday afternoon on Somerset street The runaway turned into Regent street, where the wagon collided with an electric light pole, throwing out the occupants and injuring Mrs. Bartell quite seriously. After the injured woman had been given medical attention another rig was procured and the couple drove home.

Heptasophs to Elect.

Protective Conclave, I. O. Heptasophs, will meet tomorrow evening and elect officers for the coming year. An attraction will be a game of quoits between teams composed of Michael Armstrong and C. E. Hepburn and John Green and J. P. D. Kirch. Fred Lounsbury will be referee and V. W. Nash and E. M. Laing will be the judges. The prize will go to the team winning two out of three games.

Musical Service at First M. E. Church.

The musical service at the First M. E. church, last evening, attracted a good-sized congregation, and it was a helpful and inspiring service. The hour was devoted to the singing of favorite hyms, the rendition of several anthems by the choir, under the leadership of Charles L. Lewis, and solos by Mrs. H. S. Tugwell, Dr. C. Brun Lufburrow and Miss Templin. Dr. Snodgrass preached a short sermon.

Collector's Office Open at Night.

Collector George F. Brown, of the borough, will keep his office open every evening until 9 o'clock for the purpose of accommodating those who have taxes to pay. Remember, that the 20th, of this month is the last day when borough taxes can be paid without a penalty attached.

HOUSE WARMING AT CASINO.

WILL BE HELD AT CLUB HOUSE SOME TIME DURING JANUARY.

Meeting of Executive Committee of Casino Held Saturday—Mr. Mellick Resigned and Dr. Ard Elected.

Although the doors of the club house of the Casino, Plainfield society's new club, have been open for over a week and there are frequent gatherings of the members there, the Casino will not formally inaugurate its winter activity until after the holidays There are so many dances and other social gatherings set for Christmas week, that it has been decided to defer the proposed "house-warming" until after the new year begins.

A meeting of the executive committee of the Casino was held Saturday evening at the club house. It was then decided to hold the "house-warming" in January. After that, the club will probably arrange for a series of dances under club auspices. The resignation of Councilman George P. Mellick as chairman of the house committee and as a member of the executive committee was received and accepted with regret. Mr. Mellick found that he would be unable to fill the positions on account of press of other duties.

It was decided to combine the house and entertainment committees into one. William R. Cock was chairman of the entertainment committee. He will be chairman of the new committee, with Lewis E. Waring, one other gentleman and two ladies as members. The members of the committee will be announced later. Dr. F. C. Ard was elected a member of the executive committee in place of Mr. Mellick.

There are now 135 active members of the Casino. No attempt has yet been made to secure the list of the associate members, but it is expected that they will number fully seventy-five.

STILL SKATE ON TIER'S.

Crowd Driven Away From Pond, Return When Police Depart—Warmer Weather Coming.

Notwithstanding the police have repeatedly driven the boys and girls from Tier's pond, they persist in skating there. Saturday night and all day yesterday many were enjoying the sport. The weather continues cold, and the ice becomes thicker and thicker. This morning thermometers about the city registered from eight to ten degrees above the zero point. The indications for today and tomorrow are that it will be somewhat warmer.

FUNERAL OF MICHAEL FIELDS.

Was Held From St. Mary's Church This Morning—The Pall Bearers.

Funeral services were held from St. Mary's church this morning over the remains of the late Michael Fields, who died Saturday morning. They were conducted by Rev. Father J. A. McGeary, curate of the church. The services were very impressive and were witnessed by a large number of friends and relatives of the deceased. A number of handsome floral tributes showed the esteem in which the departed was held. Those who acted as pall-bearers were Thomas Carty, John Deady, John Sullivan, Moses Quass, Edward Harding and Peter Flynn Interment was in St. Mary's cemetery.

KILLED BY TRAIN.

Benj. VanHouten, Travelling Salesman, Struck at Cranford Station Saturday Night and Instantly Killed.

Benjamin VanHouten, aged 60 years, a well known travelling salesman, who for many years past has travelled all over the State selling novelties, was struck Saturday evening at Cranford by a Royal Blue Line train going west. The train passes through this city about 5:15 o'clock. The man was instantly killed. Dr. Westcott was called and gave permission to have the body brought to Undertaker Cole's place on West Second street. Yesterday the dead man's son arrived in Plainfield and arranged to have the body sent home.

Mr. VanHouten resided at 583 Communipaw avenue, Jersey City, and had been a resident of that place for seventeen years He was born in this State. He left home last Thursday and his wife and son were expecting him home just about the time he was killed.

RIOT ON THE ICE.

Several Young Men Injured in Trouble Which Occurred on Tier's Pond Saturday Afternoon.

There was a small riot on Tier's pond, Saturday afternoon, in which several young men were slightly injured. The trouble originated during the progress of a game of hockey. John Phillips, of Madison avenue, was thrown down and beaten. His brother, Harold, went to his assistance and was roughly handled. His right thumb was cut open. Abbott Brainerd and several others tried to aid him and Brainerd had his left hand badly cut. The cutting is supposed to have been done with a pen-knife. It is not known who had the knife.

READY FOR THE HOLIDAYS.

A. D. Mallinson Now Located at His New Quarters and is Prepared for Christmas.

A. D. Mallinson, the well-known druggist, is now located in his new pharmacy, corner of Liberty and West Fourth streets, and he is prepared to see his many friends and patrons. His store is stocked with a full and complete line of drugs, perfumes, and in fact medicines of every kind. He also has a good assortment of goods for the holiday trade. Prescriptions are carefully and accurately compounded.

Runaway Plunged Into Trolley Car.

A horse, belonging to Clarkson and Firstbrook, took fright at a trolley car on Somerset street, Saturday evening Before the animal could be stopped, it plunged into the car, breaking both shafts of the wagon. It was captured before doing any further damage. William Clarkson, the driver, escaped unhurt.

Handing Coal to Poor Woman.

Charles McCann, who was caught by Patrolman Winzenreid throwing coal from the cars of the Central Railroad Saturday afternoon, was fined $1 by City Judge Runyon this morning in police court. McCann claimed that he was only handing a poor woman a bucket of coal when the officer saw him.

Chapel Schools to Unite.

According to the annual custom, the Sunday-schools of Hope chapel, Warren chapel and Bethel chapel will unite in service next Sunday at the Crescent Avenue church. The primary classes and others who desire it will be conveyed from their respective chapels to the church by stage.

Native of Jerusalem to Speak.

Dr. James Rosendale, a native of Jerusalem, will speak at the Christmas exercises of the Sunday-school of the Park Avenue Baptist church next Sunday afternoon. Dr. Rosendale will be accompanied by his three daughters, who will appear in their native costumes.

In His New Quarters.

Edward S. F. Randolph, the druggist, is now in charge of his new store, corner of Watchung and North avenues. He has planned many improvements for the store, including a very large plate-glass window on the Watchung avenue side.

Good Times for Little Ones.

The primary department of the First Baptist church Sunday school will enjoy their Christmas festivities next week Thursday afternoon. The entertainment for the older scholars will be next Monday evening.

Goodly Sum For Organ Fund.

The sale at Grace P. E. church last week was very successful and the Guild realized a handsome sum for the organ fund. The women appreciate the patronage accorded.

Dr. Schenck Will Lead.

Dr. Schenck will lead the Christian Endeavor meeting tonight in Trinity Reformed church. The subject will be "Confessing Christ." Everybody welcome.

PUBLIC REHEARSAL OF "MESSIAH" TOMORROW

Will Be Held in Crescent Avenue Church for Benefit of Subscribers and Friends of Singers.

SOLOISTS WILL BE PRESENT.

PUBLIC RENDITION OF THE ORATORIO THURSDAY EVENING.

Names of Soloists Who Will Sing Both Nights—Mr. Fitzhugh Will Lead—Doors Will Open at 7:30—Tickets for Rehearsal.

One of the chief features of the Christmas season this winter is to be the presentation of the oratorio "Messiah," at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, Thursday evening. It is to be more of the nature of a religious service than a concert and it will be free to the Plainfield public.

Tomorrow evening the public rehearsal of the "Messiah" will be given at the same church for the benefit of those why have subscribed the funds necessary for the production of the well-known oratorio. Tickets have been issued for tomorrow evening's rehearsal and the number has been limited to the capacity of the church. The rehearsal will be exactly like the public rendition Thursday night. The side doors to the front entrance will be opened at 7:30 o'clock but, as the number of tickets is limited and no one will be admitted without them, no crowding is anticipated. All the members of the chorus, are requested to be in the chapel, ready to take their seats on the platform, before 7:45 o'clock, so that the service may begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

The "Messiah" will be rendered by a chorus of over a hundred voices, all local talent. The solo work will be done by Miss Alice Merritt, of New York, soprano; Miss M. S. Perry, contralto of the Crescent Avenue church choir; E. C. Towne, of New York, tenor, and Oley Speaks, of New York, basso. E. J. Fitzhugh will, as usual, be the conductor. Howard M. Case will preside at the organ and Miss Jessie Utter at the piano.

Miss Perry is well and favorably known in this city where she has sung a number of times. Miss Merritt is a stranger to Plainfield but has a sweet, well trained voice and is said to be perfectly capable of taking the soprano work in the oratorio. Mr. Towne sang in the "Messiah" last last year and his part was very creditable. Mr. Speaks, the bass, is new to this city but bears an excellent reputation.

The public rendition, which takes place Thursday evening, will be free to all. The side doors at the front entrance of the church will be opened at 7:30 o'clock and closed as soon as the church is filled to its capacity. Those who were present at the public service last year will remember the big crowd which assembled in front of the church some time before the doors were open. Many were disappointed at that time because they gathered at the front doors, which were not opened at all. Particular attention is called to the announcement that they will not be opened this time, but that the audience will be admitted through the doors facing Watchung and Crescent avenues at the north end of the church.

Christmas Service at First M. E. Church.

A Christmas service will be held next Sunday morning at the First M. E. church with an appropriate sermon by the pastor. The Sunday school will hold a service in Vincent chapel in the afternoon.

Election of Sons of Veterans.

John Hand Camp, No. 28, Sons of Veterans, will meet tomorrow evening, at which there will be nomination and election of officers. The installation will take place early in January.

First Rehearsal

The first rehearsal of "The Private Secretary," will be held this evening in the barn at W. L. Saunders' home. At this time the date for giving the performance will be decided.

Realized $400.

The women of All Soul's church, on Park avenue, realized about $400 as profits from the recent tea and sale held at the church. This money will be devoted to the church.

Christmas Entertainment at Hope Chapel.

The pupils of the Hope chapel Sunday-school are making preparations for their Christmas entertainment. It will be given on Friday evening, December 28.

—Trinity Commandery, No. 17, K. T., will hold a regular conclave this evening.

Street Signs Needed.

It is a good thing to boom Plainfield and to point out its advantages to those who are searching for a suitable location for their homes. But it would be eminently wise if the city would provide some means whereby these home-seekers might be able to find their way about this city on their arrival here. A diligent search all over town will reveal a few signs bearing the names of the streets but, in most cases, there is absolutely nothing by which to distinguish the different thoroughfares. This state of affairs has existed for several years. Plainfielders, who know the location of the streets, are not bothered but a stranger is simply lost if he attempts to find any street outside of the business section of the city.

Years ago, there were some street signs scattered about, chiefly on the fences. When so many residents took down the fences in front of their properties and left the lawns open to the street, the signs went with them. A little effort was made to have signs placed on the electric lights poles at the corners but they were not entirely satisfactory and the Council allowed the matter to drop. Since then, the few remaining signs have been disappearing one by one and no effort has been made to replace them.

If the incomnig Council, which will begin its duties next month, desires to win the approbation of many citizens, it will provide the city with suitable street signs. Other cities have them and see that the signs are kept up. The cost will not be great and there is nothing which is more necessary if the Councilmen desire to bring new residents to Plainfield and keep them here.

As the city grows and the number of streets is increased, it becomes more and more difficult to remember the names of all of them without the aid of signs. It is doubtful today if few people, besides those whose business makes it necessary for them to to know all the streets, can ride over the city and name each thoroughfare. Perhaps all the members of the Common Council are not positively certain as to the names of every thoroughfare. Other Councils have known about this state of affairs but have done nothing. It was their duty to have attended to it. Therefore let the Council of 1901 act, where its predecessors have failed to do, and provide Plainfield with proper street signs such as every well-governed city should have.

It is a matter for regret that the young people of Plainfield have not a convenient and suitable place to skate. Nobody blames Mr. Tier for trying to keep his pond clear if he wants to harvest the ice, but it is too bad that there isn't some large skating pond in close proximity to the city, where the young folks can enjoy their favorite winter pastime without damaging property or annoying the adjacent property owners.

This is the week before Christmas and all the store windows have assumed their holiday attire. Plainfield merchants have made a special effort this year to provide for every wish of the Plainfield Christmas shoppers.

The British Empire declared that the war in Africa was over some time ago and yet the world hears of battles and fighting.

New Jersey's two Senators voted in favor of the Davis amendment to the Hay-Pauncefote treaty.

Miss Cora King, of Newark, spent yesterday at the home of her aunt, Mrs. A. D. Pope, of Duer street, corner of Park place.

WHAT OTHERS SAY.

Clippings From Other Newspapers Which May Be Of Interest to Plainfield and Its Citizens.

The consolidation of the street railway lines of Union county is a decided step in the development of the already extensive trolley systems in New Jersey and the probable addition of many miles in the near future. The development of the trolley systems means the development of the State. There is nothing that will cause a more rapid growth than increased and inexpensive traveling facilities such as the trolley affords.—Morristown Chronicle.

* * * * * * *

The Democrats of New Jersey must be hard up for material when they propose to take up ex-Congressman Alvah A. Clark, of Somerville, for their candidate for United States Senator. He is politically, n. g., as we understand that he failed to support the regular Democratic nominee for President in 1896 and 1900. Such fool work as this is no way for the Democracy to get in line for Governor next year. Ex Senator James Smith or any other straight Democrat should be named for this honor.—Dover Index.

The Council of North Plainfield are after the saloonkeepers of that place with a sharp stick. At their meeting on Friday night they passed a resolution requesting that William Sieser's license be refused, as his saloon on the Somerset street bridge was offensive to the public morals, owing to the way in which it was conducted.

A resolution was also pased requesting Judge Schenck to increase the license fee of four other places from $225 to the following: Rudolph Spiegel, $450; Richard Boyce, $400; John B. Gracely, $350; Charles Jensen $300. It was explained that the fee should be lower toward the mountain, because the saloons near Plainfield did more business.—Somerville Democrat.

TEA TABLE TALK.

Short and Gossipy Sketches That Are Not Always News, But Just as Interesting.

At the annual festival of the Pennsylvania Society of New York held last week at the Waldorf Astoria, Former Governor Beaver in his toast on "The State of Pennsylvania," referred to the fact that Philadelphia had no monument to the memory of Robert Morris who rendered such a notable service to the young nation when he gave it strong financial assistance. His proposition that if Andrew Carnegie would provide the monument, he would furnish the epitaph reminds one of the old proposition to make lemonade, when the girl suggested that if the man would provide the lemons, she would furnish the aid.

AT THE THEATRES.

Something About the Attractions Which Plainfield Theatre-Goers May Care to Witness.

Revivals of the sterling dramas are now the order of things dramatic, trashy farce comedy and trashy problem plays giving place to heart interest and dramatic plot. One of the most recent to receive attention of managers and public is also one of the best. We refer to T. S. Arthur's admirable drama, "Ten Nights in a Bar Room," which although the most powerful temperance sermon ever given, is filled with startling, interesting and humorous scenes and incidents. There is not a dull moment from start to finish, and the locale of the drama lends itself readily to the plausible introduction of musical and other novelties, making of the whole a most enjoyable entertainment. The company which appears at Music Hall Christmas Day, matinee and night, will shortly produce the drama for a long run in New York city.

Borough is Dusty.

The streets of the city and borough have not been in such a dusty condition in several months. Of course since the advent of cold weather, it is not safe to have them sprinkled. In consequence the public suffers from clouds of dust which are blown about in the faces of pedestrians and doing much damage to the merchants' stock of goods.

—Many persons have had the experience of Mr. Peter Sherman, of North Stratford, N. H., who says: "For years I suffered torture from chronic indigestion, but Kodol Dyspepsia Cure made a well man of me." It digests what you eat and is a certain cure for dyspepsia and every form of stomach trouble. It gives relief at once even in the worst cases, and can't help but do you good. L. W. Randolph.

THEY SAY.

The Merchant Says:

Telephone service is a great promoter of business. It not only is an open door for new business, but increases the facility with which any business may be transacted.

The Railroad Man Says:

It keeps our many departments running in continuous harmony. It increases both our passenger and our freight service, and is a great convenience to our patrons.

The Broker Says:

It keeps me in touch with the market wherever I am; I buy and sell by wire, and by taking telephonic advantage of a turn in the market I have made thousands of dollars.

The Doctor Says:

Telephone service has increased my income to nearly double. Many persons will seek advice by telephone who would hesitate to ask a physician to make a call.

The Caterer Says:

Telephone service enables me to serve my patrons more speedily and with less effort. It minimizes possibility of loss from overstocking.

The Housekeeper Says:

Life without telephone service would be unbearable. It smooths all the rough places. How we ever got along without it, I do not know.

The Suburban Resident Says:

The knowledge that I can call up my house out of town from my office in the city, is a great comfort.

The College Man Says:

"I say, old chap, it's great. You can call up and get the latest news from the football game or the boat race, and every other old thing a fellow wants to know."

Everybody Says:

It is the greatest thing in the world—the greatest convenience of this or any other time. The greatest factor in business, social or domestic life; a service no one can afford to be without.

The Telephone Company Says:

We want your patronage on the basis of LOW RATES, PERFECT SERVICE.

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence.)

Dunellen, Dec 17—The friends of the late William R. Larkin nearly filled the Seventh-Day Baptist church Saturday where the funeral services were held. Rev. L E Livermore was in charge and preached a very touching discourse and gave a sketch of Mr. Larkin's life. Several solos were rendered by a special quartette. The pall bearers were W. L. Larrabee, C. T. Rogers, C. E. Rogers and James Dunham, of New Market, L. T. Titsworth, of Dunellen and A. A. Titsworth, of New Brunswick. Representatives were present from Central Lodge, A O U W., of Plainfield, and Friendship Lodge, Jr. O. U. A M., of New Market, to which the deceased belonged. Interment was made in the Hillside cemetery at Plainfield.

At the special meeting of the borough council held Saturday evening, the Madison avenue question was the only one taken up. A conference was held with the borough engineer and he was ordered to make an estimate of the cost of the work. When a few small matters are completed the bill will be paid with the exception of $100 It was also decided to ascertain from the borough counsel if the borough's contract with Garretson and Gray would be made invalid by making a partial payment of the bill.

Everything is now in readiness for the Choral Union's concert to be given in the Methodist church this evening and from all accounts will eclipse any previous effort. The soloists and programme were given in Saturday's Press. None of the former need any introduction to local audiences. Director William Holmes, of Plainfield, will be in charge.

For the past few nights a thief, evidently a four footed one, has been raiding M. B Smalley's hennery. Six fowls have aleady been taken and in the hope of saving the few remaining ones Melvin has had the coop equipped with traps and burglar alarms.

An excellent programme was followed out at Saturday's meeting of the Literary Society which was held at the residence of Mrs. John Herbert. At the conclusion of the regular reading and discussions, a social time was held.

The pupils of the Methodist Sunday-school are already making preparations for the Christmas entertainment which will be held Christmas night.

The regular monthly meeting of the Building and Loan Association will be held this evening.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence.)

Scotch Plains, December 17.—Several arrests have been made through this section this fall for hunting Sundays, and a conviction always means a navy fine to the offenders, but this does not seem to put a stop to the practice. Sunday a hunter was seen near Johnston's drive with a gun and three dogs. It seems as though there should be some effort made by the game wardens to put a stop to the practice.

The Board of Trustees of the Baptist church have been assured of the necessary amounts needed by the church to make the repairs needed so badly upon the church building. The painting work which has already begun is being done by Henry Kenher.

"How to Listen" was the subject of an interesting B. Y. P. M. meeting held in the parlors of the Baptist church last evening. Edward Jonnston led the meeting.

The committee in charge of the rummage sale held last week for the benefit of the Methodist church reported a profit on the sale of nearly $40.

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Fanwood Township Firemen's Relief Association will be held in its rooms this evening.

Richard Fisher, a former resident of the borough, but now station agent at Dunellen, was the guest of friends in town yesterday.

Mrs. Nellie Crane, of Brooklyn, has been spending a pleasant visit with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Parks.

Miss Bella Mercein was the guest of her sisters at Plainfield yesterday.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

(Special Correspondence.)

South Plainfield, Dec. 17.—Miss Nelie Manning's home was the scene of an informal party Saturday evening. Among those present were Miss Georgia Brantingham, Miss Dickerson, Daniel Laing, Harry Manning, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Manning and Fred Manning. Games and music were the features of the evening.

A new vacunm pump is about to be installed into the pumping station of the Middlesex Water Company. The old one has caused considerable trouble and is about worn out.

A protest against the maintenance of more than one saloon is being circulated for the benefit of those who wish to sign it.

Miss Dickerson has returned to Trenton after a two day's visit with Miss Nellie Manning.

Miss Emma Faulks has returned home after a two day's visit with friends in Elizabeth.

Arthur Hawkins, of New York, was here yesterday renewing old acquaintances.

Daniel Laing has been entertaining Mr. Neilson, of Brooklyn.

Lewis Randolph spent yesterday out of town.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—The Woman's Home Missionary Reading Circle of the First M. E church wi l meet tomorrow afternoon at the usual hour.

—Justice Nash has issued writs of attachment in the cases of VanSickle against Vail and Smalley against Vail. They were served on Saturday.

—The quarterly meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the First Baptist church will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the church parlors.

—The Christian Endeavor Society of the First Baptist church will hold a consecration service next Friday evening. The subject will be "God's Christmas Gift."

—If you go to Campbell's candy store you will find yourself in a dream of decoration of sweet things, novelties, etc. Their prices are low and goods high class.

Ants, Cockroaches, Bed Bugs.

Mix, say, a 25c. box of "Rough on Rats" carefully with a pound or so of mashed boiled potatoes, or with a loaf of finely crumbled dampened bread, or two tin cups of fine powdered sugar, and place about their haunts, out of reach of children or pet animals. Even the hardier Black Cockroaches, Beetles, Wood or Water Bugs, in one or two applications will be completely annihilated. "Rough on Rats" is the only thing that will effectually and permanently annihilate Bed Bugs, and it stands unrivalled the world over for the prompt and effective extermination of Rats and Mice. 15 and 25 boxes at druggists.

Card of Thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Roeder, of West Fourth street, wish to thank their friends for the many expressions of sympathy and kind assistance rendered them during the recent illness and death of their little daughter, Ira.

R·I·P·A·N·S TABULES

Every symptom of headaches, backaches, biliousness, dizziness, constipation and other derangements leaves at once when Ripans Tabules come to the rescue. These Tabules reach the root of such disorders. The stomach is toned and strengthened, the liver receives a gentle stimulus, the bowels are regulated—thus aiding regularity in all the functions. The whole physical being is renovated and re-inforced by the capacity to expel waste and receive nourishment. All people of sedentary or confining occupations—men or women—will ensure better digestion, clearer minds, and increased power of application and enjoyment by the use of Ripans Tabules.

WANTED—A case of bad health that R·I·P·A·N·S will not benefit. They banish pain and prolong life. One gives relief. Note the word R·I·P·A·N·S on the package and accept no substitute. R·I·P·A·N·S, 10 for 5 cents, may be had at any drug store. Ten samples and one thousand testimonials will be mailed to any address for 5 cents, forwarded to the Ripans Chemical Co., No. 10 Spruce St., New York.

HARPER THE Stationer,
411 Park Ave.,
Plainfield, N. J.

The blase girl leaned back in her comfortable Morris chair and stifled a yawn. "So you went to the Van Sutphen crush last night," she remarked. "Well, how did you like it?"

The debutante frowned. "I think it was the most ill bred crowd I ever was in," she answered.

"Ill bred? Why, my dear child, you were associating with the cream of polite society!"

"They stared at me as if I was a strange animal, and I distinctly heard one matron say, 'Who is that insignificant little girl in white?'"

HER IMPERTINENT LORGNETTE.

"And did you hear the answer?"

The debutante blushed. "Yes," she admitted, "I was wedged in among a lot of people, and I couldn't get away soon enough. The other one answered: 'Oh, she's just come out. Mother's an old school friend of Daisy Van Sutphen. They don't amount to anything, though—poor as church mice.'"

The blase girl put her feet up an inch higher and laughed unpleasantly. "Just like the dear creatures," she sneered. "Wonder what they'll say when your old aunt dies and leaves you that tidy little fortune of hers. I don't think you'll be 'that insignificant little thing' then, but 'that stately and beautiful heiress.'"

"I didn't know more than half a dozen people, and they sent me in to supper with a man old enough to be my grandfather, and he talked to the woman on my right all the time."

"All the best men had gone to the heiresses, you know, my dear."

The debutante made a tragic little gesture. "Betty," she exclaimed, "you made use just now of the term 'polite society.' What do you mean by that?"

HER FLIPPANT HANDSHAKE.

The blase girl clasped her hands over her head. "My dear girl," she drawled, "I'm one of its shining lights."

The debutante gave a hasty and somewhat scandalized glance over the room, which resembled a boy's den, with its collection of arms and armor and its boots and riding crops scattered about. She took in also the pile of cigarette ashes at her friend's elbow and the general bohemian style of that young lady. "You're awfully good to me, and I've known you ever since we played dolls together," she said with a little smile, "but I shouldn't ever think of calling you"—

"Polite!" the blase girl finished for her. "Well, I never said I was, did I? I only said I was a prominent member of polite society, and so I am. My mother belongs to one of the real old families, and as for dad—well, he left me quite a decent share of this world's goods, so you see I'm not rude or tomboyish or ill bred as a poor girl might be. I'm simply eccentric. You can do the same thing when you inherit your aunt's property. Polite! Why, yes, I really was quite a well bred little girl when I first came out, but after a month or two watching the impoliteness of my elders I came to the conclusion that my politeness or gentleness or whatever you call it was taken as a sign that I was awkward, timid or afraid of those people, so I changed my tactics a bit."

"My mother used to tell me that true politeness was just charity," said the debutante softly.

"Well, that isn't the politeness that does for society then," laughed her friend. "When Mrs. Crœsus invited the Misses Soprano to her reception, it was hardly charity to let them stand by themselves the greater part of the evening, but she was polite, oh, yes! She wriggled up to them with that serpentine glide of hers and told them what lovely voices they had and how sweet of them it was to sing for her. She also saw to it that they had a large trayful of supper apiece, and she said she hoped they would have a nice time and enjoy themselves. Bah! The little puppy! They are twice the ladies she is with all her money!"

"Have you noticed the handshake Mrs. de Vries gives you when she has had enough of your conversation?"

"Yes; that little stiffening of the arm, that almost imperceptible—really if it wasn't Mrs. de Vries one might call it a shove."

"And Mrs. Hightopper's impertinent lorgnette! Really it makes you feel like a microbe."

"Charley Snob repaid her in kind. It was at the races. She raised her lorgnette and favored him with a long, cool stare. What do you suppose the boy did? Whipped out his fieldglasses and focused them full upon her. Really do you know she blushed?"

"First time on record then."

"Have you noticed how the Newly-riches' man announces visitors?"

"Um-m. Mumbles or dislocates ordinary folks' names; but, my, you should hear him shout Mrs. Astorbilt's when that lady deigns to call!"

"Well, you can't blame servants for imitating their masters. That's why the worst snobs of all are found below stairs."

"I'll tell you what, Betty, I don't believe there is such a thing as politeness in society."

"My dear, polite people nowadays are those who have something to gain—people who are trying to get into society or have poems or literary efforts to sell or are trying to get subscriptions for charity. Most of the rest are snobs. I believe in the west people associate together because they feel drawn to each other; but, dear me, their civilization is so crude out there!"

"Then real politeness is only found outside of so called polite society?"

The blase girl closed her eyes wearily. "I'm afraid you're right, dear," she murmured.

MAUD ROBINSON.

Men Who Made Brooklyn's Winning BASEBALL Team

BROOKLYN'S ball team won the pennant of the National league this year after a brief but spirited struggle at the end, with the onrushing pirates of Pittsburgh. Just to demonstrate for the second time that they were the premier players of the big league, the Brooklynites engaged in a cup series with Pittsburgh, as a post-season attraction, and easily conquered over the pirates. Why did Brooklyn win? That query is easily answered now by the many who follow baseball—the team had the best pitching staff in the league for emergency work, its batsmen were among the greatest generals, and the team work excelled even when individual batting suffered pronounced slumps. Before the season began an eastern paper asked for opinions on the result of the pennant race. In company with several others, I gave it as my opinion that Hanlon's team would again take off the pennant because of its personnel. It had the pick of the men of Brooklyn and Baltimore to select championship material from and, better than all, it had the shrewd and lucky Ned Hanlon to enforce discipline.

Standing out in bold relief is the work of Pitcher Joe McGinty—he told me the other day that he never could understand how they began to spell his name McGinnity. This "iron man," unhappily for Brooklyn and the fans, is determined to forsake baseball to attend solely to his iron foundry business in the Indian territory. McGinty is the pitching marvel of the year. He participated in 42 games, and he won

STARS IN THE BROOKLYN BASEBALL TEAM.

32 contests. Eight times only was the superb twirler—he was a perfect master of the underhand ball and had slow ones and wide curves to spare—forced to acknowledge defeat. Twice he tied his game, so that his record of 80 per cent. stands as a marvelous performance. Jesse Tannehill, the well-known southpaw of the Pittsburgh team, earned a winning percentage of 80 per cent., but he only worked on the slab in 25 games, winning 20 and losing five contests. McGinty, like all the good pitchers, invariably had one bad inning in which he seemed to go to pieces. This inning was generally the eighth. But in no instance did a club get a winning advantage over him early in the game. I guess five times would be about the number of times he has been knocked out of the box. The remainder of the pitching staff comprised of "Roaring Bill" Kennedy, Kitson, Dunn, Howell, Nops, Weyhing, Donovan and Yaeger, divided the other 50 victories of the trolley dodgers between themselves. Kennedy, that veteran campaigner, earned a place as one of the good pitchers by taking a fair percentage of his games. Kitson was next, his good work being done on the away-from-home series, where he was as effective as McGinty. Dunn, although a fine pitcher, was released by Hanlon for the improvement of the team's discipline. Nops, too, suffered from "Foxy" Hanlon's strictness. Weyhing has been playing since the Pilgrim Fathers landed, Hanlon giving him a fair trial this year.

Behind the bat Brooklyn was most fortunate with its veteran catchers, James McGuire and "Duke" Farrell. The latter was an invariable source of strength as a batter, while McGuire, especially in the critical stage of the league race, was so deadly in his work of throwing to bases that he personally won several games and saved many others from "the enemy." That phlegmatic little Knickerbocker Dutchman, "Bill" Dahlen, who could not show his real worth with Chicago because of incompatability of temper, played shortstop better than any other man in the league. This may be doubted, but, considering the number of games he played in, he excelled even George Davis, of New York, and the official figures, soon to be issued by the national league, will bear out this statement. Perhaps Dahlen played a bit better in 1899, but the fact remains that Dahlen is considered the "pearl of great price." When Hanlon got Lave Cross, that busy, energetic, heady, hardworking, if not showy infielder, to fill up a weak spot at the third corner, he found the keystone of the infield. Lave is a prize for third base. He is considered even better than "Jimmy" Collins, of Boston, or Bradley, of the orphans, besides his stick work was a decided advantage to the team. Few people have read much about Outfielder Jones, who was retained at center field although there were plenty of others ready to fill that position. Yet Jones hit the ball hard and often, "gobbled" everything that came out to him with very few mistakes, and, above all, he assisted wonderfully in bringing up the baserunning of the winning team. Then there was Capt. "Joe" Kelley, the premier of left fielders, who also shone at first base whenever the team needed him. This superb ball player may be a permanent fixture at the initial corner next season. Hugh Jennings, when able to play, showed that his generalship and knowledge of the game, together with his fortunate work at the bat, were more than an offset for his proneness to injury and his partially "dead" arm. He leads the league in ability, and his fielding is up with that of the leaders. The greatest little scientific hitter in the league, Willie Keeler, played right field with his usual ability, and just missed getting premier batting honors. Hans Wagner, of Pittsburgh, had his eye on the ball oftener and hit it harder this season than this little master of left-hand batting. Hanlon was fortunate in having Sheckard ready to play the outfield at any moment. For his base running and all around play, his dash and luck in scoring, this player has earned a warm place in the hearts of the fans. He may be permanently located in left field next season.

Eugene Demontreville, the infielder who played with a species of brilliancy when in the neighborhood of Dahlen, helped the team by his willingness to play third, short and second base. Veteran Tom Daly may not be seen again at second base, but this heady infielder did his part in many a game in winning the pennant. Although his form was off and he made many errors, he frequently redeemed himbself by the most sensational sort of play. His hitting has been timely to a degree. Once he batted in six runs, and added one for himself and defeated Philadelphia in a sensational 8 to 6 game.

Brooklyn led in batting, fielding and in team work. The team was guided by Hanlon, who has directed a championship nine five times in seven seasons. The reason for Brooklyn's victory seems, therefore, doubly plain.

Mending an Ordinary Chain.

The operation of mending an ordinary chain is the same whether a so-called stretched chain is to be shortened by the removal of a link or a broken link is to be replaced. One of the heads of the rivet is filed down sufficiently to admit of its being driven out. The new link is then put in place, and a new rivet inserted and clinched. In some forms of chains the outer faces of the links are countersunk to receive the heads on the rivets. In such cases the head of the rivet cannot be entirely filed away, but must be bored out by a drill, which can only be done by a repair man or other person equipped with a suitable tool.

The mineral output of Canada for 1899 was placed at $37,000,000, of which $21,019,000 was gold.

A Kitchen Worth Seeing.

There is a restaurant in Paris which employs 4,000 persons. The smallest kettle in its kitchen contains 100 quarts and the largest 500. Each of 50 roasting pans is big enough for 300 cutlets. Every dish for baking potatoes holds 225 pounds. When omelets are on the bill of fare 7,800 eggs are used at once. For cooking alone 60 cooks and 100 assistants are always at the ranges.

Last year Germany imported 214,739 metric tons of potatoes and 1,370,850 of wheat.

HAVE TO WORK HARD

American Soldiers Who Do Garrison Duty in Philippines.

Pen Picture of Cavite Viejo, the Oldest Town in the Island Group—Former Home of Emilio Aguinaldo.

[Special Philippine Letter.]

THE town we are in is called Cavite Viejo, meaning Old Cavite, and it is said by the natives to be the oldest town in the entire Philippine group, not excepting Manila or New Cavite. It has a population of about 8,000 inhabitants, and is situated on an arm of Manila bay, about 20 miles from Manila. On a clear day the latter can be plainly seen with the aid of field glasses.

The two things of most importance in this town are the old ruined church and the house that was at one time owned and occupied by Aguinaldo, the rebel chieftain. The church, which is reported to be over 300 years old, is in very bad condition, owing to the bombarding of the Spanish gunboats in 1896. The picture gives a fair view of the church and the convent in its present state.

The convent is also in bad condition, and cannot be used for any purpose whatever, but the front part of the church is still used for religious services. Large holes can be seen inside where cannon balls went through the three-foot stone walls.

The church, like the rest of the Philippine churches, is not supplied with seats or benches like those in the "States," but instead has a stone floor on which the worshipers kneel, or squat down on their heels. The services are somewhat similar to the Catholic services in the churches of the United States, but instead of an organ they have a brass band.

The natives as a rule are very religious and say their prayers four or five times a day, in fact every time the church bells ring. No matter what work they are at or how interesting the subject they are discussing when the bells ring they stop instantly and say their prayers. One peculiar thing about the hombres (men) is that as soon as the church services are over they go directly to the cock pit and for several hours enjoy themselves at their favorite sport, cock fighting.

Along the shore for a distance of about 400 yards near the church are large earthworks or trenches, the work being done at the time the place was bombarded in 1896.

Another picture gives a view of the large 12-foot cannon in the churchyard, mounted on a mahogany carriage. It is trained on New Cavite, three miles across the bay, but the writer has never heard of its ever having done any damage there. The cracks in the gun can be plainly seen, where our troops tried to explode it with guncotton.

CANNON IN CHURCHYARD.

The third illustration is Aguinaldo's house, which is quite a mansion compared with the other native houses. It is about 25 years old, but is still in excellent condition considering the rough usage it has had since company M took possession of it, over six months ago.

The glass windows seen in the picture can be opened up, leaving almost three sides of the front room open to the fresh sea breezes. On the inside of this room the ceiling is supported by large, carved mahogany posts finely varnished. The floor, also of mahogany, was at one time polished, but this was soon worn off by the soldiers' rough brogans.

On the ceiling of this room is one of the finest large oil paintings that the writer has ever seen. It is called "Filipino liberated." The picture is of oval shape and measures 15 by 30 feet, being done in several colors.

It represents a Filipino senorita in full native dress sitting on stone steps by the sea shore looking out over the water. In the distance can be seen the rising sun coming over the mountains with the sunbeams glistening on the waves. With her right hand the senorita holds aloft the tricolored Filipino flag, while at her feet lies the Spanish flag with the pole broken in two places. To the left of the flag lies two broken handcuffs and a ball and chain which, to all appearances, she had just cast off. The features of the senorita are of the oriental type, and are said to be a likeness to Aguinaldo's sister. It is certainly evident that the picture was painted before the American occupancy of the islands, because if it hadn't been there would have been another flag there.

Altogether there are four rooms in this part of the house, the others being used at one time for a sitting-room, dining-room and a kitchen, all having the walls and ceilings painted with fancy designs, such as native fruits, flowers, birds and butterflies.

The east wing of the building (not shown in the picture) is at present occupied by the officers, the hospital, the orderly-room and the commissary office. To have an idea of the size of the building one must remember that there are 90 men quartered in the first half. The company had some heavy fatigue duty fixing up the lower part of the house. They put a tile floor in it and had two native prisoners make seven large bamboo dining tables with seats. Then they built a large bake oven in an outhouse and put stone walks all over the grounds. A large cistern furnishes rain water for all purposes. A nipa shack in the back yard was repaired and cleaned up and is now a first-class canteen.

The lower part of the quarters is now used as the guardhouse, dining-room and company shoe and barber shop.

The company barber, while on a visit to Manila a short time ago, invested in an Edison graphophone, and every evening the company has a vocal and musical concert with the latest songs and music from the states. The readers may be assured that the entertainment is greatly appreciated by the soldiers who have been "on the line," away from civilization for over 18 months.

The duties of the company are considerably harder than they were in the States. They do a guard every third day and have to drill two hours a day when off duty. Every night a detail of 12 men patrols the outskirts of the town for a few hours.

It is rumored that in a short time there will be a native police force in town, which, of course, will make the soldier's duty much lighter.

On August 26 the long-looked-for "flag-raising" took place at the president's house. Although it was raining there were about 200 natives present. At ten o'clock sharp Capt. McQuiston, then in command of company M, pulled the rope which unfurled the flag, the native band played "The Star Spangled Banner" and all present took off their hats.

The captain then made a short speech, which the presidente interpreted in Tagalo. An hour afterward, when the rain had ceased, the band serenaded the company and played a piece of music that the bandmaster had composed himself and named the "Fourth Infantry march."

A. A. LORBER.

(The above article was written by a member of company M, Fourth regular infantry, and gives a pleasing picture of garrison duty in the Philippine islands. Mr. Lorber's communication is interesting not only in itself, but it is also an eloquent commentary on the intelligence of American soldiers, who, it seems, can write as well as fight.)

Getting Ready for War.

It is reported that the Siamese government is in the market for 20,000 rifles and 10,000,000 cartridges. Bids for the construction of a plant for the manufacture of ammunition in that country are also invited.

Duels Popular in Italy.

During the last year 2,400 duels have been fought in Italy and 480 deaths have resulted. Most of these combats were between army officers and based on the most trivial pretexts.

LOCAL COUNCIL SUFFERS.

Failure of the Order of Chosen Friends Makes Trouble for Plainfield Branch.

A reporter of The Daily Press interviewed this morning, W. D. Williams, of Plainfield Council, Order of Chosen Friends, the head office of which has applied to the Superior Court for the appointment of a receiver. He said that he had been expecting to hear the news for some time. Regarding the local Council, he said that he supposed they would have to give up, unless some plan of reorganization is effected soon. They raise just enough money to pay per capita tax, the running lodge expenses, and in consequence there is nothing in the treasury whereby the members can be reimbursed. Further than the above Mr. Williams could say nothing until he hears from headquarters.

SPOKE FOR TEMPERANCE.

National Organizer Addressed Plainfield Audience Last Evening.

Hon. James Dunn, of New York, National organizer of the Catholic Total Abstinence Society of America, delivered an interesting lecture on the temperance question last evening at St. Mary's Hall to a small but appreciative audience. Mr. Dunn, who is an excellent speaker, depicted in an earnest manner the evils of drink. One of the greatest evils in connection with the use of liquor was the saloon and its evil effects upon the young.

Mr. Dunn referred to the physical as well as the moral effects of the drink habit, and how it ruins the body even before it does the mind. Before closing he urged that the local temperance society should form cadet temperance organizations among the boys and Veronica leagues among the young women for the purpose of influencing as many as possible to join the Total Abstinence Society.

First of Series of "At Homes."

The first of a series of three "at homes was given Saturday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock by Mrs. Harriet Augusta Schuyler, of 318 LaGrande avenue. The affair was an informal one and very simple in detail. Mrs. Schuyler was assisted in receiving by her daughter, Miss Sarah Schuyler, and Miss Strong, Miss Elsie Martin, and Miss Tweedy, of this city, and Miss Roberts, a college mate of Miss Schuyler at Barnard College. The other two "at homes" will be held next Saturday and the Saturday following.

DEATH CAME SUDDENLY.

William P. Wynn Passed Quickly Away at His Home Last Night—Well Known in Town.

William P. Wynn died suddenly at his home on West Second street early last evening. He has been a sufferer for some time past from Bright's disease, but it was not regarded as anything serious, as until a few days ago he was able to be around.

Mr. Wynn was thirty four years old and unmarried. He came to this city twenty-years ago from Brooklyn, with his two brothers James and John, both of whom survive him. He was a machinist by trade and had worked in the Scott and Pond factories at various times. For the past few years he had been working as a steam fitter. He was well known and popular among a large circle of acquaintances all of whom will be surprised to learn of his death.

The funeral services will be held from his late residence, 232 West Second street, Wednesday morning at 8:30 and from St. Mary's church at 9 Interment will be in St. Mary's cemetery.

MISS MESSLER PROMOTED.

Appointed Superintendent of Muhlenberg Hospital at Recent Meeting of Board of Governors.

The many friends of Miss Emma Messler will be pleased to learn that at a meeting of the Board of Governors of Muhlenberg Hospital yesterday she was appointed superintendent of the hospital. Since the resignation of Miss Moss several months ago, Miss Messler has been acting superintendent, she being thoroughly qualified for the position. The Board recognizing Miss Messler's efficiency and excellent work decided to retain her in the position. She has been at the hospital several years and was the assistant to Miss Moss, when she was in charge. She holds the respect and admiration of all with whom she comes in contact and the action of the Board will be commended by all who has interest in hospital affairs.

Water Pipe Burst in Street.

A water pipe connecting the house at 531 West Front street with the main pipe, burst early yesterday morning. Before the trouble was discovered the water had risen above ground and flooded the street. The trouble was attended to by workmen later in the day. The break is thought to have been caused by electrolysis, a similar case occurring on the same street in front of the Baptist church, a short time ago.

Boroughites Don't Like Dusty Streets.

Many complaints are coming to Mayor Smalley from the citizens of the borough because of the dusty condition of the streets. If the weather moderates the street sprinkler may be again placed in commission, at least temporarily. At present, however, it is dangerous to sprinkle the streets, from the fact that the water freezes as fast as it falls.

Mr. Tracy's Partner Dead.

The death of Charles Cotesworth Beaman, who was a member of the well known law firm of Beaman, Tracy & Choate, occurred on Saturday at his residence in New York. There are many friends in this city who will learn of Mr. Beaman's death with deep regret. He was a partner of J. Evarts Tracy, of West Eighth street.

The Difference.

A present may be something which only meets the needs of the present; a keepsake is that which one may keep for the sake of the giver. Therefore it is best to make your Christmas gifts keepsakes, such as you will find at Collier's, where durability is always blended with utility and beauty of workmanship

Break in Wire Caused Alarm.

The alarm upon the fire bell in the borough about 11 o'clock this morning, was caused by a break in the wire, which will be at once repaired. The fire boys were promptly on hand and had the team hitched to the apparatus ready to go out when the discovery was made that the alarm was a false one.

Plans for Christmas Services.

Special Christmas services will be held at the Seventh-Day Baptist church next Saturday morning and the Christmas entertainment will be held Wednesday evening, December 26.

The Ostrich a Good Fighter.

Although the ostrich has powerful legs and can kick like a mule, his limbs are very brittle and are easily broken. He has two toes on each foot, one being armed with a horny nail, which he uses as his principal weapon of warfare. When an unarmed man is attacked by one of these birds the chances are very much against the man unless he can climb a tree or jump over a five-foot wall.

Clock for a Sweet Tooth.

A strange clock was made during the last century for a French nobleman. The dial was horizontal, and the figures, being hollow, were filled with different sweets or spices. Thus running his finger along the hand, by tasting the owner could tell the hour without a light.

Where Hemlock Is Appreciated.

In parts of South America where mahogany is used for railroad ties and other ordinary uses, the native business men are said to prize the cheap hemlock and pine boards which are sent in the form of boxes and crates from this country.

POSSIBLE CHANGE IN PRESIDENT OF COUNCIL

Names of Councilmen Coriell and Lee Suggested to Succeed President Dumont.

FEW APPOINTIVE CHANGES.

REGARDING CHAIRMANSHIP OF COMMITTEES FEW CHANGES ARE LIKELY.

Additions to Police Force are Probable—Successors for Doorman Grant and Overseer of Poor Hansen Have to be Chosen.

Regarding the makeup of the various committees, the appointments, etc., in the city government for 1901, there has been little talk. In fact, there is no great concern felt on the part of the Councilmen as to the outcome. It is not expected that there will be any great number of changes, but a few are predicted.

There is every reason to believe that all persons now holding appointive offices will retain them. There are no evidences of a change in any department at this time. Mayor Jenkins is not a man disposed to make radical changes, providing the place is being properly filled, and it is generally believed that all are at present.

In the Council there may be some few changes. It was believed that President J. B Dumont would return to the floor, but he has friends who would like to see him remain in the chair. Councilman B Frank Coriell is mentioned for the presidency, but he is quite useful at the head of the fire committee, and a change would mean the loss of his experience and counsel there. Councilman Lee has also been mentioned for the chair, but it is rumored that he would prefer to become the chairman of the street committee, although part of the Council, at least, wants to see R. I. Tolles returned to that office. It is more than likely that in the main the committees for next year will be almost the same as they are now.

In the police department there will be some additions. The present number of regulars is deemed not sufficient to properly cover the city and one of the important matters to be considered will be the selection of additional men who are efficient. It is also likely that the place of the late G. W. Grant will be filled.

The vacancy caused by the death of Overseer of the Poor Christian Hansen is to be filled. For some time past Mr. Hewson, of New street, has been filling this position, and he no doubt would like to remain in office. Another aspirant for the place is Israel Ten-Eyck, who has for a long time been in charge of the Industrial Home. His claims are very strong and no doubt strong pressure will be brought to bear to secure his appointment. In the other departments there are not likely to be any changes as the holders of the various offices are serving to the apparent satisfaction of the powers that be.

COPLEY PRINTS.

Members of Wellesley's Art Society Will Exhibit and Sell Them Saturday Afternoon.

Something new has been planned by several of Plainfield's young women who were formerly students at Wellesley College. They are all members of the Tau Zeta Epsilon, the art society of the college, and will give a sale and exhibition of Copley prints for the benefit of that society. It will be held Saturday afternoon at the home of Miss Mabelle Phillips, of 921 Madison avenue. All lovers of art are familiar with the Copley prints, a large collection of which will be shown. Then there will be tea served from 3 o'clock until 5 by some of the young women of the Tau Zeta Epsilon and their friends.

Prepared for Holiday Trade.

Eggerding, the Park avenue tobacco dealer, is now ready to supply his patrons with Christmas goods. He has a well selected stock of fine cigars, tobaccos, pipes, etc., and they are all first quality. Mr. Eggerding has a reputation for selling good goods, as many can testify. He has also arranged for a big sale in cigars by the box for presents, which are sold at reasonable prices. He manufactures the cigars he sells and can therefore guarantee their purity and the quality.

Bartle Takes Possession.

W. E. Bartle, of Warrenville, dealer in stone, has taken possession of his recently acquired property at the corner of Church and East Second streets. He intends erecting a building on the premises at some future time.

FIRST REHEARSAL.

Satisfactory Beginning Made By Local Talent Which Will Give "The Private Secretary."

The first rehearsal of "The Private Secretary," that is to be given early next year for charity, was held last evening in the barn of W. L. Saunders. Every member of the cast was present and all entered heartily into the work. Alfred Young, the coach, was in charge and he is much pleased with the first rehearsal. While everyone in the play is sure to make more or less of a hit, those who will undoubtedly score success are Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Saunders, W. R. Cock, Miss Saidee Mae Howell and Miss Elsie Martin. It was impossible last evening to set the date for the play, but it will be given early in February.

HOLIDAY RUSH IS HERE.

EXPRESS COMPANY AND POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT FEELS ITS EFFECTS.

It Starts Earlier Than Usual This Year and Promises to be Unusually Large.

These are busy days with the railroads, express companies and postal clerks. From now until after the holidays the employes of these concerns will be on the jump. With regard to the railroads, there is always considerable travel at this season of the year, especially just before Christmas. But of course the railroad people are not quite as busy as the express companies and letter carriers. The employes of these companies are putting in extra time just now. It is early and late with them

E. W. Mills, local manager of the United States Express Company, has added to his force of clerks and also put on several extra wagons to facilitate the delivery of the extra quantity of packages that will be dumped off at the Plainfield station from now until Christmas morning. There are now eight wagons and if necessary others will be sent from headquarters to help with the rush. The office will be kept open every night from now until next Tuesday night to accommodate patrons of the company.

The rush this year has commenced a trifle earlier than last. More packages are being sent away and more being received. The evidence of prosperity is therefore apparent. With good times there is always a noticeable increase of business at the holiday season.

With the letter carriers and postal clerks all is now bustle. With each mail the letters and packages increase. By tomorrow the faithful carriers will be loaded down with letters and packages.

WAS HE MURDERED?

Aged Man Found Near Skillman With His Skull Fractured—Died in a Short Time.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, Dec. 18—A mysterious death occurred at Skillman on Saturday night, and murder is suspected. On that evening William Von Sheffler, aged sixty five, employed by Dr. Mosher, was found in the road near the doctor's residence wounded, bleeding and nearly frozen stiff. He was carried into the doctor's house, where he died before morning. The Overseer of the poor was notified by the doctor and he removed the body to the Poorhouse. County Physician Wagoner was called on Sunday, and after an examination deemed an inquest necessary. He turned the case over to Coroner Reed, who impanelled a jury on Monday, and after an examination of the scene and the body they adjourned until 10 a. m., on Thursday.

An autopsy was performed by Drs. Wagoner, Hecht and Reed, and they found the base of the skull fractured.

Junior Society Gave Entertainment.

Under the auspices of the Junior Society, a well attended entertainment was given in Hope chapel last evening. The programme consisted of violin solos by Hugh Gray, piano selections by Miss Lucy Ruckman, recitations by Miss Marie Newman, Miss Mary Weber and Howard Firstbrook. The committee in charge consisted of Robert Kirch, chairman, William Meyers and William Firstbrook. The proceeds of the entertainment will be added to the fund for the reduction of the chapel mortgage.

Patronesses for Strollers.

Among the patronesses for the performance of "The Cruise of the Summer Girl," by The Strollers at the Waldorf-Astoria, New York, during the early part of the month, were Mrs. J. W. Reinhart, Mrs. A. D. Shepard, Mrs. C. W. McCutchen, of this city. Wyatt E. Barnes, of this city, was a member of the chorus at the various performances.

WANT COUNCIL'S AID IN ADVERTISING PLAINFIELD

Board of Trade Will Ask the City Fathers to Appropriate $1,500 to Boom the City.

PUSHING THE TROLLEY LINE.

BOARD OF TRADE AWAKENS TO RENEWED ACTIVITY.

Want Street Signs as Press Suggested—Will Confer With Trolley Officials Regarding Watchung and South Plainfield Lines.

After a period of inactivity the members of the Board of Trade held their regular meeting last evening. From the number of important matters brought up it is evident that the Board has intentions of resuming its old-time vigor in order to promote the welfare of the city. The question of trolley extensions occupied considerable time and the reports show that rapid progress is being made and that by next summer Plainfield citizens will be enabled to visit suburban sections now almost inaccessible.

In reference to the extension of the extension of the Somerset street line to Watchung, it was reported that J. Y. Wilson, the main objector, had signified his willingness to confer with the Board committee in regard to changes. In answer to a query from the Board, Chandler Riker stated that in company with the new president, David E. Young, he would soon meet the members of the Board and listen to suggestions.

The Plainfield avenue route to South Plainfield and possibly New Market, is one for which the Board is making an extra effort. Secretary Harry C. Runyon has been securing consents from property owners, and, with a few exceptions, has been very successful. There are a number of property owners holding off on account of giving previous consents to a South Plainfield man, who, however, represents no company. The trustees of the Methodist cemetery have withheld signing on this account. If their consent is secured enough property will have been signed for. The proper committees were instructed to continue the work and it was decided to meet with the trustees of the cemetery in regard to securing their consent for the line.

The matter of placing street signs about the city as suggested by The Daily Press was discussed and, on motion, the president and secretary were authorized to draw up a preamble and set of resolutions to present to the new Council, to the effect that the city is in need of street signs and asking the Council to put up the same.

The Board is desirous of placing the advantages of Plainfield as a residential city before the notice of New York and Brooklyn business men. It is their intention to do this by advertising, mainly in the papers of those cities. In order to defray the expense, the Council will be asked to appropriate the sum of $1,500 for the purpose, they being empowered to do this, it is said, by a State law.

In case the amount should be appropriated it will be doubled by popula subscription. The president and secretary were ordered to draw up a petition signed by the Board and as many business men as can be secured, asking the Council to act upon the matter, that is, after the alleged law is looked up and confirmed.

Several other matters were taken up and discussed in an informal way but no definite action was taken. John McIntyre, Francis Wood, James Manning, L. M. French and J. D. Loizeaux were admitted as members. On motion of the secretary the customary initiation fee was dispensed with, it being the object of the board, he said, to secure active members and not the fee. The meeting then adjourned.

To Unite for Christmas Service.

The Sunday-school from the First Baptist church, together with the schools from the Mt. Olive Baptist church and the East Third Street chapel, will unite in a Christmas service next Sunday afternoon at the First Baptist church at 3 o'clock. A special programme will be rendered with the assistance of the choir.

Fourth Class Prepares for Christmas.

A meeting of the Fourth class of the Plainfield High School was held yesterday, at which plans were made for observing Christmas in a fitting manner. Harold Davis was elected president, pro tem, and Miss Bessie Phillips was made chairman of the committee on decorations.

PUBLIC REHEARSAL TONIGHT.

ORATORIO "MESSIAH" WILL BE RENDERED FOR SUBSCRIBERS' BENEFIT.

At the Crescent Avenue Church, Beginning at Eight o'Clock—Admission Only By Ticket.

The public rehearsal of the oratorio "Messiah," sung by a chorus from this city, will take place this evening at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church. Admission will be by ticket only. The doors, facing Watchung and Crescent avenues at the north end of the church, will be opened at 7:30 o'clock. The number of tickets has been limited to the capacity of the church, so there will be room for all.

Members of the chorus are requested to be at the chapel, in the rear of the church, before 7:45 o'clock, so that they may be ready to take their seats on the platform in time to start the oratorio promptly at 8 o'clock. E. J. Fitzhugh will be the conductor. Howard M. Case will act as organist and Miss Jessie Utter as pianist. There will be a small orchestra present from the Philharmonic Orchestra, of New York.

The public rehearsal is only for the benefit of the subscribers and the friends of the members of the chorus. Thursday night, the public rendition of the celebrated oratorio will be given in the same church. It will be free to all. The two services will be exactly similar, as near as it is possible to make them.

BOROUGH SCHOOL MATTERS.

COURSE AT MANUAL TRAINING SCHOOL APPROVED BY STATE.

Committee Appointed to Secure Speaker for Commencement Exercises Next June—Other Business.

At last evening's meeting of the Borough Board of Education, a committee was appointed to engage a speaker for the commencement exercises of the High School, which will be held in Music Hall Friday evening, June 21. The committee have two speakers in view, but it has not been definitely decided which one will be secured for this important occasion.

In regard to the manual training school, Mr. McCutchen reported that the course followed by the school had been approved and adopted by the State as being the best method. It was declared to be a model course. The fact that the State has thought sufficient to adopt the system is highly complimentary to the committee on manual training, of which Mr. McCutchen is chairman.

In regard to the cooking school, it has been decided to adopt the white tiled tables as being considered the best for the purpose. These are the same as those in use in the Pratt Institute.

The committee on finance reported that the warrant for the $2,590 school money had been received and placed to the credit of the Board. After transacting some routine business the Board adjourned.

Fowler Makes Good Candy.

One of the handsomest of the new stores recently opened in this city is that of Benjamin Fowler, on East Front street, who deals in candy and confectionary of all descriptions. Mr. Fowler is a first class candy maker, and he manufactures nearly all the goods he sells. Remember the little ones Christmas morning by filling their stockings with some of Fowler's pure candies. He makes a specialty of chocolates and candy canes made of pure sugar, no glucose used.

Flowers for Christmas.

Stanley, florist, 142 North avenue, telephone No. 673, has a large stock of holly, roping, wreaths, crosses, Christmas trees, palms, cut flowers and well-grown plants of all sizes in blossom. He also has a good stock of callas, ferns, orange trees, rubbers, begonias, cyealum and primroses. He has leased part of Rogers' bicycle store for the holidays and will make a fine display there all this week.

Office of City Board of Health.

The office of the Board of Health has been moved from the Coddington building to the second floor of the Craig A. Marsh building at the corner of Park avenue and Second street. The room to be occupied by the Health Board is one of those formerly used by the Republican city executive committee.

THIRTEEN ARRESTED FOR SKATING ON TIER'S POND.

Borough Police Raided the Pond Last Night and Captured a Crowd of Boys.

THEY WERE LOCKED UP.

ARRAIGNED BEFORE MAYOR SMALLEY AND DISCHARGED WITH WARNING.

City Police Refuse to Make Arrests Without Formal Complaint—Many Young Women Were on Pond When Raid Was Made.

John H. Tier has been in a peck of trouble since the boys began to skate upon his pond. The police of the city and borough have been notified to drive the skaters from the ice. This has been done to some extent, but the young folks would come back like so many flies about a fish market.

Yesterday the borough police posted signs about the pond on the North Plainfield side warning trespassers to keep off. The signs did not appear to do much good. The police of the borough warned the skaters that, if they did not vacate the ice, they would be arrested. Many complaints came from not only Mr. Tier but also some of the neighbors, who claimed that some of the boys abused the privilege and made themselves a nuisance. Fences have been destroyed and much damage done to property in general.

Last night Marshals Campbell, Emmons and Voorhees swooped down upon the skaters and made a big haul. They captured a baker's dozen—just thirteen. They might have arrested more if they had made an extra effort, though some of the smaller boys beat a hasty retreat when the officers arrived. There were a number of girls and young women also among the skaters, but no attempt was made to arrest them. They were simply told to keep off the pond. However, some of the girls who were with the young men when they were gathered in, followed them to the station house.

It was about 8 o'clock when the raid was made by the police. All of the prisoners were locked up for an hour or so, when they were arraigned before Mayor Smalley, who reprimanded them and gave fair warning that if they were caught again trespassing upon the ice they would be re-arrested and fined.

The round up consisted of the following well known young men, some of whom are residents of this city: Frank Barney, John Yulch, Harvey Bulmer, George Whitney, Joseph Packer, John Devine, Walter Roll, Ernest Smith, Harry Joseph, Henry Emmons, Arthur Austin, Geo. Becker, Thad Doane, Jr.

Chief Kiely, of the city police department, says he has no authority to make an arrest in the case unless Mr. Tier will make formal complaint.

There seems to be some question whether Mr. Tier has the power to drive the skaters from the pond. It is claimed by some that the pond, or at least a portion of it, is a public highway, as it is a State stream. There does not appear to be anybody who wishes to assume the authority in the premises.

Holiday Gifts for Smokers.

M. C. Dobbins, of North avenue, manufacturer of cigars of the best quality and dealer in all kinds of smoking tobacco, pipes, etc., is prepared for the holiday trade. A box of his cigars, a fine mearschaum or briar wood pipe would make an excellent Christmas present. Mr. Dobbins makes all of his own cigars and he guarantees them to be first quality. He is making a specialty of cigars by the box for the holiday season, and invites inspection and trial.

Reception to the Mothers.

The Christmas entertainment for the primary department of the First Baptist church Sunday-school will be in the nature of a reception to the mothers of the children. This is a departure in some respects from previous entertainments and no doubt will be a success and much enjoyed by all. Mrs. Powlison, superintendent of the department, has about completed the details for the affair which will be held Thursday afternoon, December 27.

The Land of Nod.

"The Land of Nod," a Christmas operetta, will be given by the pupils of the Bryant Public School Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Assembly hall. Preparations have been made to give all who attend a pleasant time.

—A cottage prayer-meeting will be held this evening at the home of Mrs. Perrine, on East Third street.

STATION IMPROVEMENTS.

To Replace Board Walks at Station—Tunnel Under Track is Nearly Completed.

The work of tearing up the board walks between the tracks at the North Avenue station has commenced. In place of the boards, heavy stone is being spread between the tracks. On top of this stone will be put screenings, and this will be rolled down. The same sort of a walk will be laid between the tracks and the concrete walk at the new station. The interior of the tunnel under the tracks is about completed. The top and sides have been finished off with concrete and there is also a concrete walk. It is one of the best tunnels along the line of the Jersey Central and everything has been done to make it both safe and convenient.

RESPECTED CITIZEN GONE.

JOHN C. VAN NAME DIED AT HIS HOME LAST EVENING.

Came to Plainfield Twenty-five Years Ago and Was Engaged in the Oyster Business With His Son.

In the death of John C. VanName, which occurred last evening about 9 o'clock at his home on Elmwood place, one of Plainfield's oldest and most respected citizens passed away. For a long time past he had been ill and confined to the house, but Sunday he began to fail rapidly.

Mr. VanName was born at Mariners Harbor, S. I., July 9, 1820, and was for many years engaged in the oyster business. He came to Plainfield twenty-five years ago. Up to a few years ago he was in excellent health, being engaged in the oyster business with his son, Henry, on East Front street. He was a faithful Christian and a member of the First Baptist church. During his long illness he evidenced great patience and never complained. He is survived by two sons and a daughter. The sons are Henry and Garrett VanName, of this city, and the daughter is Mrs. Charles Koller, of Stapleton, S. I.

The funeral services will be held tomorrow morning from the late residence, 110 Elmwood place, at 11 o'clock. Interment at Staten Island.

DEATH OF MRS. SYMONS.

A Woman of Christian Character—Well Known in This City Where She Has Lived for Years.

After suffering patiently for the past six months, Mrs. Paul Symons passed away quietly at her home on East Third street, shortly before six o'clock this morning. By nature of a cheerful disposition her long illness was borne uncomplainingly and she met the end with Christian fortitude.

Mrs. Symons was born in England in 1847 but has lived in Plainfield for the past thirty years. During that time she made a host of acquaintances by all of whom she was greatly beloved. She was a member of the First M. E. church and up to within a short time before her illness was a regular attendant and took an active part in all church affairs.

Beside a husband, she is survived by one son and two daughters. They are William Symons, Miss Florence and Miss Mabel. The funeral services will be held from her late residence Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Interment will be made in Evergreen cemetery.

The Place to Buy a Nice Gift.

Plainfield is particularly fortunate in having among its merchants a hustling and enterprising furniture firm like Powlison & Jones, of East Front street. They keep a full and complete line of furniture from the plainest design to the most expensive. The firm also keeps a superior grade of mattrasses, springs for beds, plate glass mirrors, all kinds of easy chairs, willow and hard finish, baby carriages, brass beds, etc. It is one of the best places to select Christmas purchases.

Wieda is Prepared for Christmas.

When making up a list of presents for your friends, do not forget a little choice candy, especially if the young folks are the ones to be remembered. The confectionery that Wieda sells can be relied upon for being pure. He keeps a fresh stock to select from. Many of his home-made goods have become popular with those having a sweet tooth. In fancy candies Wieda keeps a full line and his prices will be found right.

Killed Dog With Club.

Officer Wisenreid put an end yesterday to the earthly career of a stray cur which has been running at large on East Second street. The officer at first thought he would shoot the dog, but one glance at his gun showed it to be so much larger than the dog that he decided to kill the animal with his club, which he did most effectively.

RED MEN'S FAIR OPENS IN AUSPICIOUS MANNER

Large Crowd Thronged Washington Hall on Opening Night of the Fair.

MANY CONTESTS STARTED.

PROGRAMME AND DANCING WILL TAKE PLACE EACH EVENING.

Affair is Under Joint Auspices of Miantonomo and Wetumpkah Tribes and Iona Council—Will Continue all the Week.

With a good-natured crowd present which completely filled Washington Hall, the Red Men's fair began last evening and will continue until Saturday. Last evening's attendance was very gratifying to the members of Miantonomo Tribe, No. 118, Wetumpkah Tribe, No. 229, and Iona Council, No. 14, D. of P., who have the affair in charge, and they have every reason to believe that it will far exceed their expectations in regard to success.

Of course dancing will be one of the features each night. Prof. O'Reilly's orchestra has been engaged for the entire week. Previous to the dancing the proper committee has made arrangements for a first-class entertainment to be given each evening, the programme to be changed nightly. Last evening was taken up mainly with the efforts of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hammill, specialty artists, who gave a laughable sketch entitled "Wanted, a Manager." Judging from the applause the sketch was thoroughly enjoyed.

Following the entertainment the dancing began and occupied the attention of the young people for the remainder of the evening. The dancers were looked after by Victor Christofferson, Frank Burke, Howard Woolston and Charles Shirley, who composed the floor committee.

For those to whom the dancing offered no attraction the Red Men had provided other amusement. This was found at the tables, where articles are for sale and where voting in the different contests goes merrily on. The tables were surrounded by eager buyers all the evening and the attendants were kept busy caring for them.

The supper table, which was patronized by the hungry ones, was looked after by a committee composed of Mrs. Charles Dencklau, Mrs. Emma Weigmann, Mrs. Samuel Montrose and Mrs. Fischer. A candy table, whereon the most toothsome dainties from Fowler's candy kitchen were temptingly displayed, was in charge of two young women, Miss Kate Cortright and Miss Nellie Apgar. A fancy table, where numerous pretty articles could be bought for a small sum, was cared for by Mrs. Edward Bowman and Mrs. Robert Hangliter.

For the benefit of the thirsty dancers, a soda water stand is situated in one corner and is presided over by Foster Johnson and Frank Sheldon. On a table in charge of Frank Humphrey are arrayed a number of handsome articles which are to be contested for, a vote being allowed any person upon the payment of five cents. The articles and their contributors are a lamp, John Wanamaker, N. Y.; a framed picture, Siegel-Cooper Co., several small pictures, Bamberger, Newark; mahogany stand, Plainfield Furniture Company; opera clock, Miss Ella Sebring; a rocking chair, Mrs. J. A. Blatz; a case of wine, Henry Haurand; Past Sachem's regalia, Raynolds, New York; Red Men's ring, Horstman, Philadelphia. The Past Sachem's regalia is to be presented to the tribe having the greatest number of braves present on Thursday evening. In addition to these contests there are a large number of book contests. FOR ENDEAVORERS.

Interesting Side of the Work Being Carried on by Young Christians.

(Conducted by Press Department Union County C. E. Union.)

Some of the societies of the county will hold services on Christmas day. The First Methodist Prostestant Endeavorers of Elizabeth will hold their usual sunrise service at 6 A. M.

A union of Church of England Endeavorers have been formed in London. There was a representative attendance from places as remote as Bristol and Reddington. The union was enthusiastically effected, and one young man discussed the constitution with a view to "the time when we get fifty or sixty thousand societies." It is not long since there was only one Christian Endeavor Society of this denomination in all England.

Dr. Clark and Secretary Baer have been prominent participants in the recent meetings held in New York city to consider aggressive plans for evangelistic work at the beginning of the new century. Nearly every evangelical denomination and young people's religious organization in the country has been represented at these meetings and the announcement of the details of the work, to be made by the plan and scope committee, of which William Phillips, "the business men's evangelist," is chairman, is awaited with much interest.

A mass-meeting for the consideration of the Local Option bill, which is to be presented at the coming session of the State Legislature, will be held in the First Presbyterian church, Westfield, this evening. A good speaker will be present and the provisions of the proposed measure will be discussed. Christian and moral people from every part of Union county are invited to attend the meeting which will be similar to those which are being held in various places throughout the State under the auspices of the New Jersey Local Option Committee, a non-sectarian, non-partisan body, which is endeavoring to bring this moral measure before the minds of the thinking people of the State.

AT THE THEATRES.

Something About the Attractions Which Plainfield Theatre-Goers May Care to Witness.

Like a gleam of sunshine across the dramatic path comes T. S. Arthur's truly fine version of "Ten Nights in a Bar-Room," endorsed by the late Jon. B. Gough and many other great temperance orators as the most valuable object lesson ever given the public. As years pass by its hold upon the public becomes more and more pronounced, and the large city theatres induce it among their most successful revivals. Webbers Company, which produces the sterling drama with scenic embellishments never before attempted in this particular piece, will shortly produce it at the Academy of Music, Brooklyn, for a run with the Wentical Company and surroundings that comes to Music Hall on Christmas Day. No expense has been spared to make this a notable holiday event. The scenery is from the well-known studio of Henry Seavy and truly illustrates the locale of the drama. Six powerful tableaux are incidental, and the music is charming and appropriate.

* * * * *

That uproarously funny comedian Jefferson De Angelis will begin an engagement at the Broadway Theatre, New York, Monday evening, December 24, appearing in his new and tremendously successful operatic comedy entitled "A Royal Rogue." Charles Klein, the author of "El Capitan" and several other popular comic operas, wrote the piece, and W. T. Francis composed the music, and both have been enthusiastically complimented upon giving to the public something new in the way of entertainment. Mr. De Angelis is reported to have made the hit of his career in this new piece. It is said to be a most delightful novelty in a musical and dramatic way. It is out of the beaten paths of the old stereotyped comic opera, and it is so far above the average "musical comedy" that there is no comparison. The music of "A Royal Rogue" is said to be a dainty and exquisite throughout, with here and there a melody worthy of the genius Offenbach himself. "A Royal Rogue" is the kind of a piece Jefferson De Angelis has been looking for for years, and its success has certainly corroborated his judgment. A new and splendid production is being prepared for the big stage of the Broadway Theatre, the cast is being strengthened and the chorus augmented. It is sure to be one of the eventful productions of the year in the metropolis.

A Woman's Awful Peril.

"There is only one chance to save your life and that is through an operation" were the startling words heard by Mrs. I. B. Hunt of Lime Ridge, Wis., from her doctor after he had vainly tried to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. Gall stones had formed and she constantly grew worse. Then she began to use Electric Bitters which wholly cured her. It's a wonderful Stomach, Liver and Kidney remedy. Cures Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite. Try it. Only 50c. Guaranteed. For Sale by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

Irving Clark, of Princeton University, has returned to his home at Crescent avenue for the holiday vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O Chapman, formerly of this city, are now living in New York, where they will remain until next spring.

World's Champion.

"I tried many remedies to cure piles," writes W. B. Smith, of Latham, Ill., "but found no relief till I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve. I have not been troubled with piles since." It's the only champion pile cure on earth and the best salve in the world. 25c per box, guaranteed by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

The Spirit of the Season.

Of course it always adds to the exhilaration of Christmas to have the stockings get full, and it equally sure to follow that you will add to your own exhilaration to get full of satisfaction over your selection of holiday gifts—a result that you are sure to recieve if you make your selection at Collier's.

—Samuel Dreier is selling the balance of his pawnbroker goods at private sale.

—The regular meeting of the Borough Board of Education will be held Monday evening, Dec. 31.

—The Christmas entertainment at the Park Avenue Baptist church will be held on Thursday evening of next week.

—There are twenty-two patients at Muhlenberg Hospital, and with the exception of one or two, are all doing very well.

—Don't let your Christmas be without Wieda's fine candies and bon bons, Dutch baskets and cradles and other varieties.

—When you need a soothing and healing antiseptic application for any purpose, use the original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, a well known cure for piles and skin diseases. It heals sores without leaving a scar. Beware of counterfeits. L. W. Randolph.

—Miantonomo Tribe, I. O. R. M., willl elect officers at the meeting to be held Friday evening of this week.

—Don't use any of the counterfeits of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Most of them are worthless or liable to cause injury. The orignal DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is a certain cure for piles, eczema, cuts, scalds, burns, sores and skin diseases. L. W. Randolph.

LABOR CONFERENCE.

Arbitration and Conciliation Under Discussion.

COMPULSORY MEASURES OPPOSED.

Representatives of Capital and Labor Trying to Find a Cure For the Strike Evil—Believe It Lies In Voluntary Arbitration.

CHICAGO, Dec. 18.—Men who in the past have bitterly opposed each other in industrial contests filled Steinway hall at last night's session of the conference on conciliation and arbitration which has begun here. Both the day and night sessions were taken up with papers read by representatives of capital and labor looking to the same end—a cure for strikes. From the tone of the addresses it seemed plainly evident that both sides were vigorously opposed to compulsory arbitration, and if a recommendation on the subject of a national board results from the present gathering the recommendation will in all probability specify that all the board's work shall be along the line of voluntary arbitration.

The night session was called to order at 8 o'clock. After a few introductory remarks by Franklin McVeigh, the presiding officer, Henry W. Hoyt, president of the National Founders' association, was introduced. Mr. Hoyt spoke in part as follows:

"The industrial problems, so called, must be adjusted along the lines of least resistance, and the line of least resistance, in my opinion, is voluntary arbitration.

"As long as the wage earner believes or is taught to assume that society is in league to rob him as an individual of some of the purchasing power of his services so long must society reckon with him in his collective capacity. The employer who elects to ignore this fact is often as much of a menace to the industrial peace as is that agitator who plays upon the prejudices and inflames the passions of the men he falsely serves. But the conditions are improving on both sides. The progressive manufacturer has learned that a union is not an altogether reprehensible evil in social economics and readily admits that when organized wage earners are dominated by strong conservative men they will meet the employers half way in arbitration.

"Unions must remember that there never was an attempt made to unite manufacturing employers in the common cause of treating collectively with the relations of labor until the unions themselves had asserted their power. Both the employer and the employee must be honest enough to concede that their interests are mutual and that the deep problems of economics cannot be solved in a decade. It is a slow evolution that cannot be hastened by violence or intolerance."

The next speaker after Mr. Hoyt was Samuel Gompers. At the outset Mr. Gompers stated that he desired to take positive exception to statements that had been made before the conference during the afternoon. He had already, he said, advised the gentleman whose remarks he intended to criticise of his intention. Mr. Gompers added: "One of the things to which I took exception was that as an officer of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad he should undertake in this conference to present his side, the side of the railroad, in a strike which is still in progress without a representative of the strikers being here to present their side of the controversy. It seemed to me that if the opportunity of this conference is to be taken advantage of for the presentation of the railroad's side of this controversy due notice might have been given to the representative of the Order of Railway Telegraphers in order that he might be here to listen to what was said and refute it if necessary. I am not prepared to say that what the gentleman said was untrue, but one story is very good until the other side is told."

Though admitting that strikes ought to be avoided in the interests of both capital and labor, Mr. Gompers declared that there were some evils more dreadful than strikes. He added: "We strike. People in China do not strike. I wonder whether those who would try to prevent the strikers from striking or those who would punish the workers for striking would like to change the condition from that which obtains in our country to that which obtains in China. If the absence of strikes was the measure of civilization, then China ought to stand at the head of the world."

In conclusion he said, "We shall insist upon the right to quit work whenever the work becomes irksome to us, and we shall always insist on our right to strike for any reason or for no reason at all."

Thieves Torture a Woman.

SHARON, Pa., Dec. 18.—Three masked burglars visited the home of Mrs. John Bell, a widow living near Coaltown, and attempted to force her to open a safe in the house. Mrs. Bell was alone with her granddaughter, Miss Sargent. The burglars got in by smashing an outside door. Mrs. Bell told the men that she could not open the safe, as she did not know the combination. The robbers then twisted her arms, threatening to burn her feet and otherwise torture her. They carried her to the safe, got a can of oil and threatened to pour it over her and touch a match. Then they became convinced that the woman did not know the combination and left after taking $8 and all the jewelry they could find.

Ruhlin Beats Maher.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 18.—Gus Ruhlin last night at the Penn Art club bested Peter Maher in one of the fastest fights between heavyweights that has been seen for some time. The bout was limited to six rounds, and under the local law forbidding any decision being announced by the referee the judgment as to the outcome was left to the audience.

Vote to Change Name of Sing Sing.

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—By a unanimous vote the citizens of Sing Sing have voted to petition the legislature to change the name of the village from Sing Sing to Ossining. To prevent the state prison at Sing Sing from taking on the name of the new town it is proposed to erect a new station at the prison gate and remove the Sing Sing sign to it.

City In Darkness.

BATH, N. Y., Dec. 18.—The armature of the incandescent dynamo was burned out at the electric light station last night, leaving the business portion of the city in total darkness.

Another Indiana Lynching.

OWENSBORO, Ky., Dec. 18.—John Rolla, colored, of Rockport, Ind., was lynched last night at Booneville, Ind.

CHARITY FOR CHINESE.

Destitute Given Rice—New Railway Makes Four Miles an Hour.

PEKING, Dec. 18.—The Russians have purchased $700,000 worth of rice, which is being given to destitute Chinese. General Chaffee, the American commander, is also having a large amount of rice issued, and the other nations are displaying liberality.

M. de Giers, the Russian envoy, says that Russia is making no exception in favor of Christians, because the latter have the least need.

While a number of German officers were dining they narrowly escaped death by asphyxiation in the fumes from a Chinese stove. Four out of seven were partly insensible for more than half an hour. Fortunately all recovered. The stoves in this country are a constant source of danger.

The railway from Peking to Taku is now completed. To make the trip of 80 miles generally takes 20 hours.

The French are issuing an invitation to an excursion by train to Pao-ting-fu Jan. 15.

General Chaffee, desiring a thorough investigation of the reports from Ho-si-wu as to Boxer activity in that district, has sent a troop of the Sixth United States cavalry and 50 members of Company E of the Ninth volunteer infantry there with instructions to explore the neighborhood thoroughly and to render all assistance necessary to quell any disturbance caused by Boxers or bandits.

Neither General Chaffee nor Sir Alfred Gaselee, the British commander, believes that there is a large body of Boxers anywhere near under arms, although some reports represent the Germans as seeing Boxers every day.

A meeting was held yesterday of the provisional government, including five prominent Chinese whose assistance is desired.

With the exception of one all the foreign envoys believe that the governments will agree upon the text of the preliminary joint note.

England is disputing a point with Japan, and it is now doubtful whether the meeting that had been fixed for today will take place.

New Instructions For Conger.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—A long instruction has been sent to Minister Conger informing him fully as to his course. He already had been authorized to sign the agreement, and it is said that this fresh instruction will so clear the way of obstacles at Peking as to make it probable that all of the signatures of the ministers can be affixed at once. This statement even includes the British minister, Sir Edward Satow, who has been the last to come forward.

Chaffee Sends Chinese Flag.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—The secretary of war has received from General Chaffee, commanding the legation guard at Peking, a large red bordered yellow flag made of the finest silk, captured by Troop I, of the Sixth cavalry, commanded by Lieutenant Hyer, in an engagement with Chinese imperial troops at Chang Ping Chow, about 30 miles north of Peking, Sept. 4 last. In the center of the flag in white letters is the name "Chang," which means Chang Chun Fa, the commander in chief of the province of Huhei. At the side in black letters are the words (in Chinese) "Commander in chief of advance corps of left flank of Hu Wei army of the province of Huhei," together with the title, "Cher er Ching" (distinguished) and "Pa Tu Lu" (brave).

Porto Rico's Cuban Claim.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—The state department has rendered an opinion to the effect that the United States government cannot intervene in favor of Porto Rico in the matter of her claim agains Cuba for $2,500,000. The Spanish government raised a loan to this amount from the Porto Ricans to help prosecute military operations in Cuba, basing the loan upon the revenues of the latter island. In substance the decision of the United States government is to the effect that, leaving aside the question of equity in this case, to sanction the collection of this claim against Cuba now would be to open the door to numberless other and larger claims which would exhaust the financial resources of the island.

Strikers Refused a Conference.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Dec. 18.—The fifth week of the Acushnet and Hathaway mill strike began yesterday, with practically no change in the situation. The strikers at their meeting claim to have made 41 additions over last week and reported three desertions. The latest development in the situation is the receipt of an answer to a request made directly to Treasurer Knowles for a conference. Treasurer Knowles declined to confer, saying that the company was satisfied with the new men now at work.

Convict Kuhns Heard From.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 18.—The News yesterday afternoon published a copyrighted dispatch from a correspondent at Albion, Ind., who claims to have interviewed Marvin Kuhns, the escaped convict who has been eluding the officers for several days. Kuhns recently shot a policeman at Logansport and escaped after fighting a pitched battle with a posse. The correspondent says he found Kuhns comfortably situated at his brother's house near Albion.

Presents For Soldiers to Enter Free.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—The war department has issued an order providing for the admission into Cuba and the Philippine Islands free of duty of packages and articles clearly intended as Christmas presents for the officers and enlisted men of the army and navy and for other employees of this government now serving in those islands. The provision as to the free admission of such Christmas presents will terminate as to Cuba on Feb. 15 and as to the Philippines on March 15 next.

London Press More Temperate.

LONDON, Dec. 18.—The Daily Chronicle and The Standard publish editorials this morning on the canal question which are in a much more temperate tone than some of their former expressions. Both journals admit the difficult position of the Washington government and advocate "all reasonable concessions to the sentiment and interests of the American people with a view of preserving the Anglo-American understanding."

Rear End Collision.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Dec. 18.—In a rear end collision here between two east bound freight trains on the Erie railroad a caboose and two coal cars were demolished and an engine damaged. One of the trains was on a siding at the time.

TO RISE AGAINST TURKEY.

Big Army Ready to Deliver Kurdistan and Armenia.

PARIS, Dec. 18.—The Matin publishes a dispatch from London giving an interview with Osman Pasha, a general of the Ottoman army, who recently left Turkey clandestinely. The Turkish officer, who is a relative of the late Osman Pasha, the "hero of Plevna," unfolded plans for ridding Kurdistan and Armenia of the yoke of Turkey.

Accompanied by his partisans, some of whom are in Europe, he will return to Kurdistan, where, according to his statement, the population, already secretly armed, only awaits his arrival to march as one man against the oppressor.

He says that the Ottoman empire will be compelled to engage in one of the most formidable struggles in its history. He expects to be able to put into the field an army of 100,000 men and is confident of rescuing the people from a state of anarchy and social abjection.

DADY AHEAD.

Sewerage and Paving Contract For Havana Going His Way.

HAVANA, Dec. 18.—The municipal council last evening accepted the report of the committee appointed to submit a proposition regarding the conditions of advertising for bids in connection with the sewering and paving contracts. The report, which recognizes Mr. Michael J. Dady's right of "tanteo," virtually shuts out other bidders.

The next matter to be disposed of is the report of the committee of appraisers giving Mr. Dady more than $500,000. This will undoubtedly pass the council, but General Wood's approval will have to be secured before the advertisements appear.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

The first issue of the London Sun under the editorship of Rev. Dr. Parker has appeared.

The agrarian provinces comprising 200 square miles around Leutschau, Hungary, are famine stricken.

A red haired Italian girl was the first immigrant to land at the new depot at Ellis island, New York harbor.

The French government has ordered cases of Chinese loot sent to President Loubet embargoed at Marseilles.

A Lehigh Valley coal train dashed into an electric car at Luzerne, Pa., completely wrecking it and injuring seven people.

Stolen Diamond Returned.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 18.—The one missing diamond of the 20 stolen by Express Messenger Hoffman from the Adams Express company was returned to Deputy Police Superintendent Rowe Sunday evening. The deputy superintendent had guests at home Sunday evening, and just after the last of them had left a rap came at the front door of his residence. A small boy handed the officer a brown envelope and, stating that there was no answer, disappeared. Deputy Superintendent Rowe opened the envelope, and in it was the missing diamond. On a slip of paper were the words, "This is the Adams Express company's diamond." The identity of the small boy is not known, and who sent the diamond to the deputy superintendent is also a mystery.

Sagasta Opposes the Marriage.

MADRID, Dec. 18.—General Azcarraga, the premier, in full uniform, read yesterday in the chamber of deputies a royal message announcing the projected marriage of the Princess of Asturias to Prince Charles, second son of the Count of Caserta. Subsequently, accompanied by the other ministers, he proceeded to the senate chamber, where the message was again read. A committee is drawing up a reply to the message unanimously favoring the alliance. It is reported, however, that at a private meeting last evening Senor Sagasta, former Liberal premier, decided to vote against the marriage.

Big Sugar Plant For Porto Rico.

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, Dec. 18.—In the house of delegates yesterday Senor Descartes introduced a bill granting unrestricted suffrage to women on the same terms as men. Governor Allen will shortly perform the ceremony of starting the new sugar mill of the De Ford company near Guayama. It is the most complete plant in the island, with a capacity of 12,000 tons. The estate, with an area of 6,000 acres, is capable of producing 10,000 tons of sugar a season.

Coal Companies Consolidated.

SCRANTON, Pa., Dec. 18.—All the collieries which have been recently secured as feeders to the Ontario and Western Railroad company's coal department have been consolidated into one company under the title of one of the consolidated companies, the Elkhill Coal and Iron company. Seven companies are by this consolidation merged into the Elkhill company.

Claim Against the Government.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Dec. 18.—Chester M. Hardenbergh of this city, a veteran of the civil war, is preparing to present a claim to congress for $5,670 against the government. He enlisted when 14 years old and was taken sick in the service and then sent home, where he was when the war closed. He claims he never received a discharge.

Cold Weather.

PLATTSBURG, N. Y., Dec. 18.—Yesterday was probably the coldest of the season throughout northern New York, although it was only 5 below zero in this village. At Saranac Lake it was 22 degrees below zero, and at Lake Placid it was reported to be 30 below. At Malone the thermometer registered 12 below.

Survivors Number 314.

BERLIN, Dec. 18.—An official dispatch received here from Malaga accounts for 314 survivors out of the 450 persons who were on board the German training frigate Gneisenau, which foundered at the entrance to the port of Malaga while she was taking refuge from the terrible storm prevailing at the time.

The Kentucky Leaves Smyrna.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 18.—The United States battleship Kentucky, Captain Chester M. Colby, has sailed from Smyrna on her way to Manila. Mr. Lloyd C. Griscom, United States charge d'affaires, gave a concert to the members of the diplomatic corps.

Socialists Losing Ground.

VIENNA, Dec. 18.—The elections for the new reichsrath are now proceeding. The Socialists are losing ground throughout the country and will probably have only six seats as compared with the 15 they held during the last parliament.

WORK OF CONGRESS.

House Passes Many Private Pension Bills.

A TRIBUTE TO BOUTELLE OF MAINE.

Senate Discusses Hay-Pauncefote Treaty In Executive Session and Agrees to Vote on the Measure on Thursday Next.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—Under suspension of the rules the house yesterday passed bills to divide Kentucky and West Virginia into two judicial districts, to create another district judge in the northern district of Ohio and to refer to the secretary of the interior for investigation the claim of the state of Texas for moneys expended on public improvements in Greer county before the decision of the supreme court placed it within the jurisdiction of Oklahoma. An attempt was made to pass a bill to give soldiers and sailors of the civil war, the Spanish war and the war in the Philippines preference in the matter of appointment to and retention in positions in the executive departments of the government, but it aroused opposition on the ground that it would practically shut out of the government employ for years to come all civilians and was overwhelmingly defeated. One hundred and two private pension bills were passed.

Just before the house adjourned a fine tribute was paid to Representative Charles A. Boutelle of Maine, who served 18 years in congress and who has been re-elected to the Fifty-seventh congress. Mr. Littlefield of Maine asked unanimous consent for the consideration of a bill to place him on the retired list as a captain in the navy, Mr. Boutelle having been a captain in the navy during the civil war. Mr. Littlefield stated that Mr. Boutelle's condition was such that he undoubtedly would resign.

The condition of the Maine representative was well known to representatives, and although some of them were inclined to protest against the proposed legislation as establishing a dangerous precedent no objection was made, and the bill was passed.

The senate was in open session only an hour, the remainder of the legislative day being spent in executive session upon the Hay-Pauncefote treaty. Mr. Chandler of New Hampshire created a little flurry by endeavoring again to get up the resolution relating to the Montana senatorial case. The effort was futile. No legislative business aside from the purest routine was transacted.

Just before adjournment late in the afternoon the senate gave its consent to the fixing of a time to vote upon the Hay-Pauncefote treaty. Senators Money and Mason had occupied the time of the executive session in making speeches upon the treaty, and when Mr. Mason, who was the last speaker, concluded Senator Lodge renewed his request to take a vote next Thursday. No voice was raised in opposition, and the unanimous agreement was recorded. The understanding is that the voting shall be on the amendments at 3 o'clock and that the senate shall continue in session until the first vote on the treaty itself is reached.

Atlanta's Mayor In the Lockup.

ATLANTA, Dec. 18.—Mayor James G. Woodward of this city was arrested and locked in the police barracks last night on the charge of being drunk. Some time ago for the same cause the city council and board of aldermen threatened impeachment proceedings against Mayor Woodward, but upon promises that he would abstain from further intoxication no action was taken. The mayor tendered his resignation to the body, and it was placed in the hands of Councilman Rawson, who holds it on condition that if the mayor becomes intoxicated it shall be tendered for acceptance. The resignation was submitted yesterday afternoon at a meeting of that body, but action was postponed until Friday.

Rich Gold Discoveries.

BUTTE, Mon., Dec. 18.—A great gold strike has just been made at Virginia City by C. A. Damours, from Canada, who has had a lease and bond on an old quartz mine known as the Kearsarge. In years past more than $120,000,000 in gold have been taken out of the placers of the gulch. Young Damours now believes he has discovered the mother lode. Experts who have been permitted to inspect his find say he has $1,000,000 worth of ore in sight now and that the indications are that the greatest deposit of gold quartz in the known world has been uncovered.

Shut In a Cavern.

WEST BADEN, Ind., Dec. 18.—Willard Holcomb, a traveling man, representing the firm of Lieber & Co. of New York, is imprisoned in the Lost River cavern, 13 miles from this city. With him is Lafe Jones, a guide. The two men started from West Baden early to explore the cavern, which they were seen to enter by boat. A short time afterward the river began to rise so rapidly that the entrance to the cavern was closed. It is feared by some that Holcomb and his guide have been drowned.

Many Election Protests.

HALIFAX, Dec. 18.—The political parties in Canada seem determined to fight the recent Dominion campaign over again through the medium of the courts. Four more elections in Nova Scotia were protested yesterday, making ten in this province alone. All the elections in Prince Edward Island are protested, among them one against Hon. L. H. Davies, minister of marine.

President to Be at Launching.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—President Scott of the Union Iron works, San Francisco, the builders of the new battleship Ohio, saw the president yesterday and received his assurance that if nothing occurred to prevent he would go to San Francisco some time next May to witness the launching of the big vessel. The exact date has not yet been decided upon.

A New Flag For Speaker's Desk.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—A new silk American flag was placed on the speaker's rostrum in the house yesterday. The old flag, which has been there since 1882, had only 38 stars in it. The new one has a star for each state.

Indian Appropriations.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—The Indian appropriation bill has been completed by the house committee on Indian affairs. It carries something over $9,000,000, the exact aggregate not yet being determined.

December 22—W. W. Berry, of Philadelphia, will speak, and Mrs. Emma Moffett, an evangelistic singer, from Los Angeles, Cal., is expected to sing at the Y. M. C. A. rally at 4:15 p. m.

Board of Trade Meets.

Everyone who is interested in the progress and growth of Plainfield will be glad to see signs of renewed activity in the local Board of Trade. There is a place in every city for such an organization and Plainfield's Board has many opportunities whereby it may advance this city's interests. If the members of the Board succeed in making this present burst of activity a permanent one, they will be doing the city an untold amount of good for an enterprising Board of Trade can greatly aid the city in the march of progress.

It is to be hoped that the resolutions of the Board, concerning the necessity of street signs, as advocated by The Daily Press, will be the means of bringing the matter before the Common Council, and thereby giving Plainfield a set of suitable signs at every street corner.

If the Board can bring about an amicable settlement between the objecting property owners and the trolley railroad officials, and thereby make a trolley line from Plainfield to Watchung possible, it will be performing an act of great value to the city and to its neighbors.

Will It Be Mr. Foote?

The Republican members of the New Jersey Assembly hold a caucus at the State House in Trenton this afternoon to select their officers. As far as Plainfield is concerned the chief interest will be centred in the choice of a leader for the Republican forces in the Assembly. Assemblyman Charles S. Foote is considered one of the strongest candidates for the place, and, unless something happens to upset the slate, Mr. Foote will receive the coveted honor.

Mr. Foote's chief opposition comes from Essex county. The Assemblymen from Essex want to see J. H. Batchellor as leader, but they started their campaign for him too late in the day, and now the Union county man has so much support through the State, that it is doubtful if he can be beaten now.

Since Mr. Foote has been in the State Legislature he has served the county well and won favor on all sides. If this honor comes to him it will be a well deserved one, and Mr. Foote's friends in Plainfield will feel that they did well when they sent him to Trenton to represent Union county in the lower branch of the Legislature.

There have been many attempts to give the public music of a high order but none were more successful than the public rendition of the "Messiah" last year. The manner in which the people thronged about the church at that time showed that the public appreciated the act. This year the "Messiah" is to be given again for the public of this city. Plainfield is particularly fortunate in numbering among its citizens those who will take the trouble and effort to carry such an affair to a successful termination. Their love for music and the desire that others, as well as themselves, should enjoy some of its pleasures, has led them to arrange for this public rendition of the famous oratorio. The least that Plainfield can do is to give them its hearty support in the undertaking.

The importance of the building of the bridge over Green Brook to connect Madison avenue and Duer street cannot be over estimated. Already the people of the borough are beginning to utilize that new thoroughfare and, as they become better acquainted with it, it will tend greatly to relieve the present overcrowding of Somerset street. Merchants, whose stores are located on West Front street, will find that the borough people will find their way into these stores far easier now that the bridge has been built.

Plainfield has never seen such an array as is now to be found in the local stores. Christmas shoppers should not forget that fact and give their patronage to the merchants of the city.

Winter seems to be better behaved this year than usual. The sudden changes in temperature which usually mark the winters of Jersey have been noticeably absent this year.

WHAT OTHERS SAY.

Clippings From Other Newspapers Which May Be Of Interest to Plainfield and Its Citizens.

A few days ago a gyrating figure in silhouette appeared against the brilliant coloring of the western horizon, and careful inspection proved that it was the eloquent and flamboyant orator who is populary believed to have a farm in Plainfield. He was evidently excited, and between spasms it became clear that the irritant which disturbed his physical and mental equilibrium was the resurrection of Alvah A. Clark, who was temporarily interred when "Nelse" Pidcock ceased to control politics in the old Fourth district.

"Farmer Jim" had not been long in evidence when the "silver tongued orator" of the Delaware Valley joined him and both lifted up their voices and smote the ears of the Democracy.

This duet of lamentation soon attracted a chorus, and now the gilded horizon is lined with little black figures all jumping around like corn in a popper, and the burden of their song is that Alvah A. Clark won't do. He was a backslider in the time of trial. He deserted his party. He would not support Bryan or his isms, and should not be rewarded with honors, even if they are empty.

If Hudson persists in forcing Alvah A. on the Democratic party there will be another split in the ranks which will array the faithful of the Delaware Valley from Sewell's Point to the Tri-State monument against Hudson.

The orators from Wayback are sure they voice the feelings of the Democrats outside of Hudson, and they want everybody to listen to their tale of woe.

The exhibition that is in progress is interesting and may become instructive.—Jersey City Journal.

TEA TABLE TALK.

Short and Gossipy Sketches That Are Not Always News, But Just as Interesting.

Christmas greens and trees have already made their appearance in market. Most of the trees come from Maine, where they are cut in great quantities early in the winter and shipped to the New York markets, from where they are again re-shipped to buyers in small cities and country towns. The prices for these trees range from twenty-five cents to about three dollars, according to the size. A good tree, however, can be bought for one dollar. As the holidays drew to a close the price of the trees drop to almost any price that the dealers can get, usually not more than fifty cents.

Did it ever occur to the readers of The Daily Press that Plainfield has one of the best postoffices in the State. For a second-class office there are few superior to it, at least in point of service. There are fourteen letter carriers who make from three to four deliveries a day. Even New Brunswick which has a first-class office, has but three deliveries a day in the business portion of the city, while the suburban part of the city receives but two deliveries in the twenty-four hours. Plainfield, on the other hand, can boast of having three deliveries in the residential part of the city each day and four in the business centre. It is safe to say that there are few cities the size of Plainfield where the citizens are as well looked after by Uncle Sam. Then, too, the handsome postoffice is a source of pride to the citizens, who always point it out to strangers as one of the best in the State outside of those cities which can boast of having a Government building.

—Many persons have had the experience of Mr. Peter Sherman, of North Stratford, N. H., who says: "For years I suffered torture from chronic indigestion, but Kodol Dyspepsia Cure made a well man of me." It digests what you eat and is a certain cure for dyspepsia and every form of stomach trouble. It gives relief at once even in the worst cases, and can't help but do you good. L. W. Randolph.

Mrs. J. W. VanHorn, of Duer street, is confined to her home by a serious attack of illness.

A Few Good Things.

As a Life-Saver.
A Doctor may be called, Police aid summoned, Fire Department notified.

As a Money-Maker
It is the speediest means of Negotiating, Buying or Selling, Arranging an option or closing a deal.

As an Incentive to Business.
Residence and Shop, Producer and Consumer, Manufacturer and Salesroom are kept in constant communication.

Greater than Pills or Potion.
In the speed with which it brings relief and mitigates disaster.

As a Time-Saver.
It lessens the necessity for travel.

As a Promoter of Friendship.
It keeps the social world in touch and makes possible immediate and satisfactory interchange of inquiry or invitation.

As a Preserver of Youth.
The saving of wear and tear of travel—of the anguish of anxiety and of petty irritation, keeps away the wrinkles, saves the complexion and keeps the disposition amiable.

As an Aid to Matrimonial Happiness.
Wives may be notified of any change in the husband's hour of return; meals need not be kept waiting and bad temper and dyspepsia are rendered improbable

NEWS OF NEAR NEIGHBORS.

INTERESTING NOTES FROM PLAINFIELD'S SUBURBAN TOWNS.

Daily Budget Of News Gathered By The Daily Press' Corps of Special Correspondents.

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence.)

Dunellen, Dec. 18—It is with regret that the Board of Education announces that the lecture "A Trip to Switzerland," which was to have been given in the Methodist church this evening, has been postponed indefinitely. Those interested will not be deprived of hearing Professor Maxson, however, as he will deliver the lecture at a later date. The next of the series of four lectures is scheduled to take place in two weeks. The subject has not yet been announced.

The members of the Banjo, Mandolin and Guitar Club are practicing hard for their proposed reception which will take place in Apgar's Hall on January 8. Extra rehearsals are being held and in addition to music by the club itself, outside talent will assist. The next regular rehearsal will be held at the residence of Charles Coriell, Jr., tomorrow evening.

Besides the installation of Rev. N. J. Sproull, the Board of Presbytery will hold their regular session in the Presbyterian church next Thursday. Several prominent speakers from various places will be present and the session no doubt will be an interesting one.

Charles Tilton, former switchman at the round house yards, has been given a position as night watchman in the Communipaw yards.

Fred Warden has made arrangements to entertain a number of young friends at his home next Thursday evening.

The regular meeting of the W. G. Holton Council will be held this evening at which routine business will be transacted.

Mrs. and Mrs. Frederick Archer have returned home from a visit with friends in Port Chester, N. Y.

Mrs. Emily Apgar is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Charles Van Arsdale, of Flemington.

The railroad employes were gladdened yesterday by the arrival of the pay train.

Mrs. William Lewis, of Ashaway, R. I., is the guest of Mrs. William Carman.

Mrs. Lewis Gordon has returned from a visit with Elizabeth friends.

Mrs. William E. Terry spent yesterday with Somerville relatives.

NEW MARKET.

(Special Correspondence.)

New Market, Dec. 18.—When Rev. L. E. Livermore accepted the call to the Seventh-day Baptist church some time ago, he shipped his household goods from Lebanon, Conn., by a special car which was not to be opened until it reached New Market. Upon its arrival here, however, it was found the contents of the car had been tampered with. Several valuable articles were missing while others of a minor value were found in their place. Mr. Livermore communicated with the railroad authorities at Lebanon and the latter made an investigation which led to the arrest a few days ago of the freight agent at New London, Conn. The railroad officials claim the agent has made a practice of robbing cars at this point and the goods taken from Mr. Livermore's car were removed by him.

William Brokaw, who was severely injured early last month, is now able to walk about slowly without the aid of crutches.

Owing to several other events occurring there will be no meeting of the G. E. Club this week.

Mrs. William Ackerman, of Plainfield, has been spending a few days with her parents.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence.)

Scotch Plains, Dec. 18.—The sale of the farm of the late John Cook was held at the homestead, corner of Westfield and Coles avenues, yesterday afternoon. Several bids were received upon the property and the price was gradually run up until Miss Margaret Cook, a daughter and one of the heirs, bid $4,900 and the property became hers. The price is considered remarkably cheap.

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Fanwood Firemen's Belief Association was held in their rooms last evening. The report of the several officers shows the association to be in a very prosperous condition. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, James H. Parks; vice president, Thomas J. Nichol; treasurer, John Robison; secretary, Norman Dunn.

A number of the sidewalks in town could be greatly improved if they were covered with a light coating of sand and then rolled. This would give the crushed stone a chance to pack and make walking much pleasanter for pedestrians.

Edward L. Hand, Wm. Trayno, Charles Haberly and Joseph Schmidt attended an important meeting of Westfield Lodge, F. and A. M., held in Westfield last night.

The weekly meeting of the Epworth League Society was held in the Methodist church last evening. Rev. Mr. Bright, the pastor of the church, led the meeting.

The members of Excelsior Hook and Ladder Company held their regular monthly meeting in their rooms last night. Routine business only was transacted.

Miss Hattie Wilcox, of Brooklyn, has been visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Nancy Wilcox, of East Front street.

A special meeting of the Board of Education will be held in the school parlors this evening.

Judge Clark is recovering slowly from a painful attack of sciatic rheumatism.

Rev. G. M. Shott was the guest of friends in New York Monday.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

(Special Correspondence.)

South Plainfield, Dec. 18.—Frank Poling has been granted a saloon license by Judge Strong's court. The accusation against him in regards to illegal selling was thrown over, the Judge declaring that the witnesses had been bought, and therefore deserving of no consideration At the same time the application for a license from Morris Higgins was not granted. This leaves two licensed hotels for a village of one or two hundred people.

Alfred Young is sick and unable to work. His place at the signal tower is being filled by J. S. Thuma. Mr. Ledder, of Easton, has temporary charge of the ticket office.

McDonough Bros. have secured David Blackford's portable engine and have placed it, preparatory to operating the chain lift when filling their ice-house.

About sixteen signers have been secured toward the installation of a P. O. S. of A. here. At least twenty are required before a charter can be granted.

Harvey Clawson, who has been confined to the house by a severe attack of sore throat is again able to be about.

David Sofield, of Staten Island, was here yesterday. His trip was occasioned by pleasure as well as business.

A WOMAN LAWYER TALKS.

Addressed The Monday Afternoon Club on "Economic Harmonies and Social Evolution."

Mrs. James Welles Finch, a lawyer, of New York, lectured on "Economic Harmonies and Social Evolution," before the Monday Afternoon Club, yesterday afternoon, in All Souls church. Mrs. Finch, gifted with great command of language, spoke fluently on the questions of rent, capital, interest, profits, wages, competition, trusts, labor unions, social equality and the income tax. She believed the conditions of trade were not favorable for competition in the present and future as they had been in the past. The tendency is to combination, and the equalizing and counteracting force against combined capital lies in the labor unions. She believed in social evolution toward equality, not revolution.

Rough on Piles.

Used largely in this and foreign countries. Only complete, absolutely successful, never failing cure; Relief at first application, and quick cure. External and internal treatment in the one package. Price 50c at Druggists, or sent promptly by mail on receipt of price. E. S. Wells, Chemist, 710 Grand St., Jersey City, N. J.

Gray Hair.

If gray, Wells' Hair Balsam gradually restores to original color, black or brown, elegant tonic dressing, 50c., $1. Druggists, or sent by express prepaid. E. S. Wells, Chemist, Jersey City, N. J.

Harper Has Large Assortment.

In hunting about for Christmas presents do not forget that reliable house of A. M. Harper on Park avenue. Mr. Harper has made an extra effort this year to supply his many friends with everything that is to be found in an up-to-date stationery store. He has fine writing paper, envelopes, pocketbooks, pens and a large assortment of toys for the little folks. Mr. Harper sells his goods at reasonable prices and they always give satisfaction.

Rev. John Reid, Jr., of Great Falls, Mont., recommended Ely's Cream Balm to me. I can emphasize his statement, "It is a positive cure for catarrh if used as directed."—Rev. Francis W. Poole, Pastor Central Pres. Church, Helena, Mont.

After using Ely's Cream Balm six weeks I believe myself cured of catarrh. Joseph Stewart, Grand Ave., Buffalo, N. Y.

The Balm does not irritate or cause sneezing. Sold by druggists at 50 cts. or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St, New York.

Mr. Janke's Recital.

The first recital by pupils of E. Arthur Janke, pianist, will take place tomorrow evening at his studio, 931 West Sixth street, at 8:15 o'clock. He will be assisted by Miss Florence Wohlfert, violinist. Miss Clyde Burnett and Miss Florence Cahoone will also assist in the rendition of a very choice programme.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Provinz Westfalen.

Beckum. In einer Klagesache der hiesigen städtischen Sparkasse gegen die Stadtgemeinde Kirchhain wegen eines Darlehens von 88,000 Mark, welches der verstorbene Bürgermeister von Kirchhain unterschlagen hatte, ist unlängst in erster Instanz das Urtheil ergangen, daß die Stadt Kirchhain der Sparkasse ihre ganze Restforderung nebst Zinsen zu zahlen hat.

Hamm. Bei den Stadtverordnetenwahlen haben in der dritten Abtheilung die von der Centrumspartei aufgestellten Kandidaten gesiegt. In der zweiten Abtheilung wurden nur Liberale gewählt, auch die in der ersten Abtheilung Gewählten dürften mit den Liberalen zusammengehen.

Sachsen.

Dresden. Im Bankgeschäft Rockisch Nachfolger versuchte der Schlossermeister Pickas mit seinem Gehilfen, einen großen, schweren Geldschrank mit einer Winde vom Platze zu rücken. Dabei fiel der Geldschrank nach der Wand zu um und zerdrückte beiden Leuten die Köpfe. —Ueberfahren und getödtet wurde von einem elektrischen Straßenbahnwagen in der Leipziger Straße das vier Jahre alte Söhnchen des Kohlenhändlers Köhler in Mickten.

Auerswalde. Anhier fiel in Folge Leichtsinns einer Freundin das 14 Jahre alte Schulmädchen Frieda Steinbach im Schulhofe in die Düngergrube und schlug dabei mit dem Kopfe derart auf die Mauer auf, daß es in Folge der Verletzungen eine halbe Stunde nach dem Unfall verstarb.

Freiberg. Nachdem die staatlich konzessionirte Bauschule des Direktors Scheerer von Döbeln hierher verlegt worden war, wurde dieselbe vor Kurzem feierlich eröffnet.

Leipzig. Bei der Stadtverordnetenwahl siegten im dritten und vierten Wahlkreise die Sozialdemokraten, während im ersten und zweiten die Hausbesitzerpartei die Majorität davon trug. Die sogenannte „Mietherpartei" unterlag in allen vier Wahlkreisen.

Niederrabenstein. Vor den Augen der Passanten warf sich beim Dorfe Künsa der Arbeiter Pohlert vor einen Eisenbahnzug und wurde sofort todtgefahren.

Waldenburg. Anläßlich seines Abganges als Fachlehrer an der hiesigen gewerblichen Fachschule erhielt der Strumpfwirker Wilhelm List aus Altwaldenburg das Albrechtskreuz. Der Dekorirte feierte gleichzeitig an diesem Tage in voller Rüstigkeit seinen 90. Geburtstag.

Thüringische Staaten.

Gotha. In der Flur Holzhausen wurde während einer Jagd der Gastwirth König in Folge der plötzlichen Entladung seines Gewehres durch einen Schuß in den Kopf getödtet.

Neustadt. In der Senf'schen Lederfabrik gerieth die 50jährige Ehefrau des Gerbergesellen Biliowski in die Transmission und wurde so schwer verletzt, daß der Tod nach wenigen Stunden eintrat.

Weimar. Als Landtagsabgeordnete wurden in Ilmenau der Sozialdemokrat Reith, in Apolda der Kommerzienrath Müller (nationalliberal) und in Auma der Bürgermeister Kolbe gewählt.

Freie Städte.

Hamburg. Jüngsthin fand auf der Werft von Blohm u. Voß der Stapellauf des nach dem verstorbenen Präsidenten der Handelskammer benannten, für die Ostasienfahrt bestimmten Dampfers der Hamburg-Amerika-Linie, „C. Ferdinand Laeisz," statt.—Just 3000 Mark Schmerzensgeld muß die Direktion des Hamburger Thalia-Theaters, wie das hanseatische Oberlandesgericht entschied, an die Schauspielerin Fräulein Rosner ausbezahlen, die im Vorjahre bei der Probe zum Weihnachtsmärchen „Dornröschen" mit einer Flugmaschine stürzte, wobei sie schwere Verletzungen erlitt.

Bremen. Die Deputation für Häfen und Eisenbahnen hat in der Erkenntniß, daß bei der demnächst erfolgenden Vergrößerung des Freihezirks eine umfangreiche Schwimmdockanlage, eine Reparaturwerkstatt und ein Reparaturbassin nicht entbehrt werden können, mit der Aktiengesellschaft Weser einen Vertrag abgeschlossen behufs Erbauung eines großen Schwimmdocks und einer Werftanlage an der Hafeneinfahrt zum Bassin 2 des Freihezirks. Die Kosten dürften sich auf über 6,000,000 Mark stellen.

Bremerhaven. Das Quarantäneamt in Bremerhaven hat eine scharfe Kontrolle über alle aus Häfen des Kaplandes und Natals kommenden Schiffe angeordnet, da in Natal und dem Kapland die Rinderpest ausgebrochen ist.

Lübeck. Die Kaufmannschaft bewilligte 823,202 Mark zur Erbauung von Lagerhäusern am Hafen.

Oldenburg.

Schwartau. Bei den Gemeinderathswahlen in Rensefeld siegten die sechs sozialdemokratischen Kandidaten.

A New Back for An Old One—How It Is Done In Plainfield.

Sometimes the back aches with a dull indescribable feeling making you weary and restless; sometimes pain shoots across the region of the kidneys and again the loins are so lame to stoop is agony. No use plastering the back in this condition. You cannot reach the case. To exchange a bad back for a new and stronger one. Follow the example of this Plainfield citizen.

Mr. Charles Giese, Cigar Manufacturer of 25 Elm Place says: "I was subject to attacks of kidney complaint for 2 or 3 years. Most of the pain was in my back and hips and I could not stoop or straighten without feeling sharp, shooting twinges. When I sat for any length of time I grew stiff and sore and was compelled to get up and move about. I grew so bad I had to do something for it. I had read a great deal about Doan's Kidney Pills being such good medicine for kidney troubles so I got a box of them at L. W. Randolph's drug store. I used them according to directions and after 2 or 3 days I felt better. I continued their use until the pain disappeared."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo N. Y. sole agents for the U. S

One of those brilliant young southern women, of whom there are many, should write the life of the late Elizabeth Van Lew of Richmond. Opposed though she was to the cause of the Confederacy and bringing to bear all her force and talent against it during the civil war, yet quite apart from any political consideration Elizabeth Van Lew was one of the most remarkable women the south ever produced. The hidden chambers and passageways in which in wartime she concealed Union soldiers, the openly secret nooks and holes in which womanlike she kept letters and dispatches from Grant undiscovered under the very eyes of Confederate detectives who watched her continually, made of the old Van Lew mansion a historic castle of romance and mystery. There alone, ostracized and disliked, Elizabeth Van Lew lived more than 35 years, from the close of the civil war till her death. Hers was a career fuller of thrilling, dramatic incident than that of the hero of the play "Secret Service," and in her case the scenes were real. In the final act of the great war drama at Richmond she was more help to Grant than all the rest of his private agents together. Mark the sequel: After the war, as in some measure a reward for her invaluable aid, the Richmond postmastership was given to Elizabeth Van Lew. If she had been a man, there is nothing the United States government would not have done for her. The best of its consular places, the fattest of its appointments at Washington, would have been open to her, for she had more nerve and ability than nine-tenths of its officials. While Grant was president she kept her place as postmistress of Richmond. General Grant never deserted his friends. But after his time the office was taken from her to be bestowed on a white male voter. Dark days fell upon Miss Van Lew. Piece by piece she sold the family silver and rich belongings, acre by acre she mortgaged and parted with the fair inheritance her father left her, and not a soul in the north cared a jot whether she starved or fed. She died neglected and poor. Thus it is to be born a woman.

There is one New York landlady who has come up from the ranks of working girls herself and knows and remembers how hard it is for such girls to obtain comfortable and respectable lodging houses for the small sum they are able to pay. When this blessed landlady finds a really worthy young working woman of small means, she gives her a room at about one-third below the current price. She does not lose anything through her benevolence, however. She says, "I make up the difference on men who are able to pay good prices."

Miss Mary H. Krout, who first became generally known through her political correspondence for the Chicago Inter Ocean during an exciting campaign, has returned from her journey to China and Japan. Miss Krout, in whom the wander blood is strong, has been in nearly all parts of the world—Europe, Asia, Australia and Hawaii. In each she accumulated material to be spun by her brain into delightful reading matter. She has removed to New York city and will make that her headquarters in future.

I have just seen a little book which may prove helpful to many women the country over. It is written by Mrs. M. V. Norys of Westfield, N. J., and it is called "Easy Poultry Keeping For Invalids." Mrs. Norys tells us that she herself has had much experience both in invalidism and poultry keeping and that the two go well together, and the experimenter is able often to evolve out of the invalidism. Perhaps the hen cure will be on the list of future specifics for the weak and ailing. Who knows? The little book contains photographs of some of Mrs. Norys' pets. She recommends as a help to beginners the state agricultural experiment station poultry bulletins.

The school board of New York city has a woman truant officer who is shiningly efficient. She is Mrs. Mary E. Alger, a young and decidedly healthy woman. She has proved especially valuable in running in and returning to home and school boys who have become fascinated with dime novel tramp life and attempt to join vagabond bands. Lately she performed a really daring and dramatic exploit. At the head of 20 policemen she raided a freight train on the New York Central road and captured nine truant schoolboys, as well as the tramps with whom they were running away. Mrs. Alger herself collared an 18-year-old boy and dragged him from his hiding place. The police remained in concealment till the woman unearthed the game. The game did not suspect her of being an officer and so was taken unawares.

STEEL PLATE TRUST.

Fourteen of the Largest Establishments to Form a Pool.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 18.—Negotiations are on foot and are declared to be certain of successful conclusion for the formation of a pool by 14 of the largest steel plate manufacturing establishments in the United States. Among the concerns included are named the Carnegie Steel company, the Illinois Steel company, the Federal Steel company, the Lenkens Steel company, the National Steel company and the American Steel and Wire company.

It is said that the Carnegie company heads the list with 10 per cent of the total business of all the mills. The meetings for the formation of the pool have been held within the last two weeks in Chicago and Pittsburg. The pool is arranged on the percentage basis, and the country is divided into territories to be exclusively supplied with steel plates by the various members of the pool. The price agreed upon at the last meeting in Chicago was $28 per ton at Pittsburg, with conditions elsewhere equivalent to freight charges. The decision also was reached to do away with commission agents.

The pool affects the domestic market alone, all the concerns being on an equal footing so far as the foreign market is concerned.

BRITISH VICTORY REPORTED.

Big Battle at Orange River—Boers Said to Have Lost Heavily.

LONDON, Dec. 18.—The report of another severe battle, resulting in a British victory, is current here.

According to the story, the fighting began at daybreak yesterday and lasted for several hours. The Boers, who numbered from 1,500 to 2,000 men, were surrounded at the Orange river and totally defeated, with very heavy losses in killed and wounded. It is added that a number of Boers were captured.

General Kitchener, in a dispatch received by the war office, confirms the dispatch from Aliwal North, Cape Colony, of Sunday night announcing the capture by the Boers of a detachment of Brabant's horse on Dec. 13 near Zastron, Orange River Colony. Lord Kitchener says 107 men were made prisoners on that occasion.

Boers Enter Cape Colony.

CAPE TOWN, Dec. 18.—Seven hundred Boers have crossed from Orange River Colony into Cape Colony near Aliwal North and have reached Kaapdaal.

The Booz Inquiry.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 18.—The taking of testimony in the case of Oscar L. Booz, the West Point cadet who died two weeks ago from injuries which his parents allege were inflicted at the West Point Military academy, was begun yesterday by the board of inquiry appointed by the secretary of war. Three sessions were held during the day, two at Bristol, the home of the Booz family, and a short session in this city in the late afternoon. The members of the board, Generals Brooke, Clous and Bates, accompanied by Captain Dean of the Fifth artillery, who acted as recorder, arrived at Bristol at 10:30 and shortly afterward went into session. The court sat in the study of the Rev. Dr. Alexander Alison, the pastor of the Bristol Presbyterian church, which adjoins the Booz homestead. The witnesses called were William H. Booz, father; Mrs. Sarah Booz, mother; Nellie Booz, sister of the young man; Rev. Dr. Alison, Dr. Weaver, a Bristol physician, who attended Oscar Booz, and several others. Little of their testimony was new.

Baptist Ministers Snubbed Lopez.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 18.—The weekly conference of Baptist ministers at their session yesterday refused to hear the appeal for sympathy and aid which Sixto Lopez, the emissary of Aguinaldo, desired to address them. The decision was reached by the committee on hearings, and Senor Lopez, who was present with his interpreter, was obliged to content himself with a single halting sentence expressing his wish to further address them. Rev. Wayland Hoyt, who led the opposition to Lopez, said that to allow him to speak would virtually be acknowledging a traitor.

Death For Train Robbers.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—Senator Hoar of Massachusetts has introduced a bill to provide for the suppression of train robbery in the territories of the United States. The bill provides that any person convicted of train robbery in any of the territories of the United States shall be deemed guilty of a felony and shall suffer the punishment of death.

Naval Movements.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—The war department is informed that the transport Sheridan arrived at Manila on the 15th inst. and that the Sherman sailed the same day for San Francisco. Admiral Remey on his flagship, the Brooklyn, has sailed for Cavite from Iloilo, which has been his temporary headquarters for about a week past.

Fire Destroys Costly Paintings.

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—Two men were badly burned and several paintings, valued at $50,000, were destroyed by a fire at 1132 Broadway. One of the burned paintings is Grosso's masterpiece, "The Last Meeting," which has been on exhibition there. It was valued at $20,000.

By a city ordinance, it is provided that no dog shall be permitted to run at large within the city limits, unless a good and sufficient muzzle shall be placed over the mouth of said dog in such manner as to render biting impossible. If any person permits or suffers any dog owned or harbored by him and not so muzzled to run at large, the ordinance provides that he shall upon conviction be punished by a fine not exceeding ten dollars for each offense.

Any person prepared to make complaint under oath of any violation of this ordinance may apply to the subscriber and have prosecution begun forthwith.

BURNED BY FILIPINOS

Cabatuan, In Panay, Nearly Destroyed.

A POLITICAL PARTY BEING FORMED.

It Is Understood to Favor American Sovereignty, with Native Autonomy Concerning Local Affairs.

MANILA, Dec. 18.—Advices just received from Iloilo island of Panay, say that the insurgents Saturday night burned a large part of the village of Cabatuan. Assistant Surgeon Frederick A. Washburn, Jr., of the Twenty-sixth volunteer infantry, with 18 men, held the principal building. A strong wind was blowing at the time. The Americans sustained no casualties.

The first political party under the American regime is in process of formation. Its principles have been embodied in a platform which will shortly be made public. It is understood that the declarations of the platform give the fullest recognition to American sovereignty and also favor a considerable degree of native autonomy concerning internal and local affairs.

Several of the most intelligent Filipino leaders who have been instrumental in bringing the matter to a head have been in conference with those interested, and the platform will be outlined to the Philippine commission by Senor Buencamino, former premier in the so called government of Aguinaldo; Colonel Aquiles and Dr. Frank S. Bourne, an American, formerly chief surgeon with the rank of major and health officer of Manila.

Dr. Bourne was with Professor Dean C. Worcester prior to the American occupation and has confidential relations with the Filipino leaders.

The commissioners are not likely to give public expression of their views regarding the formation of political parties, but the principles of the new organization so far as made known seem to be favored by intelligent Filipinos.

Thirty rebels were captured in a barrio, or suburb, of San Pedro Macati, four miles from Manila, by 25 men of the Twentieth United States infantry and 20 members of the native Manila police, all under Captain Gaines, assistant chief of police. The force landed from a banca, surrounding the suburb and capturing 70. Only 30, however, were identified as insurrectos.

Later advices from Iloilo announce that detachments of the Twenty-sixth volunteer infantry surprised the headquarters of Quintin Solas, capturing considerable quantities of stores and some valuable papers. Several natives were killed. The Americans, who had no loss, were still in pursuit of the fleeing insurgents when the dispatch left Iloilo.

A Small Mining Strike.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Dec. 18.—The strained relations which have existed for some time past between the Kingston Coal company and its 1,500 employees has culminated in a strike. The firemen and pump runners were allowed to remain at work. The principal grievances of the men are the enforcement of the two weeks pay law, the privilege of having their own check weigh boss and not more than six inches of topping on any car. The discharge of Mine Foreman Thomas R. Morgan is also demanded. The lockout was sanctioned by T. D. Nichols, district president of the Union Mine Workers, who is in charge of the strike. Mr. Nichols says the strike was not ordered until all other efforts to bring about a settlement had failed.

Brave Men Remembered.

BOSTON, Dec. 18.—Captain George C. Savage of the steamer City of Macon, from Savannah, has been presented by the Massachusetts Humane society with the society's certificate for conspicuous bravery. First Officer James Howlett and Seamen Thomas Hartley, Gus Anderson, A. Olsen, Walter Nilson and John Nilson were also remembered by the society, the mate with a heavy silver medal and the sailors with $5 each. The presentation was made in recognition of the service of the men in saving the survivors of the crew of the schooner Myra B. Weaver in Vineyard Haven sound on Nov. 10.

Noted Jurist Dead.

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—Henry R. Beekman, justice of the supreme court, was stricken dead with apoplexy on his own doorstep yesterday at 35 West Seventeenth street. He had not been in good health for some time. Justice Henry Rutgers Beekman was one of the foremost figures of the New York bench and bar. Justice Beekman was born in New York Dec. 8, 1845. The first of his family to come to America was William Beekman, who came with Peter Stuyvesant, the famous last Dutch governor of the colony, in 1647.

General Parke Dead.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—General John Parke, retired, is dead at his residence here of a complication of diseases incident to old age. He leaves a wife, but no children. He had lived here a number of years. Funeral services will be held here Wednesday. The interment will be in Philadelphia. General Parke served with distinction during the civil war and later gained a fine reputation in the engineer corps. He was superintendent of the Military academy at West Point for two years.

Costly Blaze In Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 18.—Fire almost entirely destroyed the big plant of the Brown Hoisting and Conveying Machine company at the corner of Hamilton and Belden streets. Five out of seven buildings used by the company are in ashes and property estimated to be worth over $500,000 entirely consumed. Eleven hundred workmen are thrown out of employment as a result of the fire.

To Abandon Barracks.

OSWEGO, N. Y., Dec. 18.—Orders have been received here directing the transfer of Company G, Fifteenth United States infantry, stationed at Fort Ontario, to Plattsburg barracks. The post here is to be abandoned, and the contracts for the new buildings are ordered canceled. An effort will be made to retain the garrison here.

The Plague In Argentine Republic.

BUENOS AYRES, Dec. 18.—Five cases of what is believed to be bubonic plague have developed in Tucuman. Tucuman, which has a population of about 110,000, is the chief city of the province of the same name, which is one of the richest sections of the Argentine Republic.

The bowling match between the Y. M. A. of Hope chapel, and the Y. M. C. A. teams, which was to be played on the latter alleys next Friday evening, has been postponed. It will now take place some time after the holidays.

BASKET BALL.

The candidates for the basket ball team of the Fanwood Athletic Club met last night at the Fanwood club house for practice. They will practice again Friday evening.

Next Friday evening the first of a series of basket ball games will be played at the Y. M. C. A. between teams from different classes. The winning team will play the new business men's team probably the following Friday.

The members of the business men's class at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium have decided to have a regular basket ball team in the field this winter. Three years ago they had a team which made an excellent record for itself. Most of the old players have gone but there is some new material on hand and this year's team promises to be a strong one. John H. Doane, who managed the team during its previous career, will be in charge again this year and will also captain the team. Besides Mr. Doane, the other players are new at basket ball but are making good progress. The game will probably be played January 8, against the Somerville Y. M. C. A. at the latter's gymnasium.

Death of Anton Milberg.

The death of Anton Milberg, aged 39 years, occurred last evening at his home, 132 Johnston avenue. The funeral services will be held from the late residence tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Interment at Hillside Cemetery.

A Joint Initiation.

The officers of Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., the Woman's Relief Corps and Sons of Veterans will be installed early in January, probably the same evening.

Hotel Opening.

There will be an opening at the Lincoln Hotel at Lincoln tomorrow evening under the auspices of the new proprietor, W. F. Polhemus.

VERDICT FOR WAITER.

Justice Huff Has Given Judgment Against Mrs. N. Pendleton Rogers and Case Has Been Appealed.

A decision has been given by Justice Huff in the contract case of Jeremiah Smith against Mrs. N. Pendleton Rogers in favor of the plaintiff. It will be remembered that Smith sued Mrs. Rogers for $20, a month's wages. He worked for the defendant four days when he was discharged because of impertinence and incompetence, but before doing so she offered him $2 75 pay for four days. This Smith refused to accept and he immediately brought suit. W. S. Angleman, who represents the defendant, has given Justice Huff notice of an appeal from his decision.

CELEBRATED BIRTHDAY.

Miss Stratton's Parents Gave Her a Party in Honor of the Event Last Evening.

Miss Emma L. Stratton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Stratton, of East Fifth street, celebrated the seventeenth anniversary of her birthday yesterday, and last evening her parents gave a party in her honor. There were guests present from New York, Brooklyn, Jersey City, Elizabeth, Plainfield and other places. The evening was passed in dancing and playing games. Andrew Carpenter furnished the music for dancing. Miss Stratton received many presents from her friends, including seventeen bright and crisp one dollar bills from a relative.

[Stephenson, the Caterer.]

M. E. Stephenson, the North avenue caterer, is in great demand these days serving many Plainfielders, and the excellence of her goods and the superior service, has given an established reputation that is enviable. Why go to New York for a caterer when in this city can be found some one who can do just as well. The goods furnished by Stephenson are first quality and satisfaction is guaranteed. There is also on sale fresh candies, cakes, bon bons, and in fact everything that is to be found at a first-class place of this kind.

Different Organizations.

W. D. Williams, of the local council of Chosen Friends, desires to have it known that the recent action of the order in its application for a receiver will not affect the State Benefit League, which has its control in this State. This is separate from the Chosen Friends, although no one can belong to the League unless they are Chosen Friends. There are about 1,400 members of the Benefit League in this State.

SHOWED IMPROVEMENT.

The Choral Concert at Dunellen Was Very Satisfactory, and Reflected Much Credit on the Leader.
(Special to The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, December 18.—The second concert of the Dunellen and New Market Choral Union was held in the Methodist church at this place last evening under the direction of William Holmes, of Plainfield. There was a good attendance and the concert was greatly enjoyed. The efforts of the participants to make it even more successful than the one given last spring, were rewarded by frequent encores.

In addition to the soloists, the work of the chorous was much better than at the previous concert, showing a decidedly better finish. It would be hard to improve upon the soloists as without exception the different selections were excellent. The duet, "Love Divine," by Mrs. Robert Giddes and William Tallamy, may be mentioned as the most appreciated, being exceptionally well rendered.

Mr. Tallamy possesses a rare tenor voice, which, combined with the soprano of Mrs. Giddes, produced a beautiful effect. The baritone solo by Mr. Holmes and the contralto solo, "Oh Fair, Oh Sweet and Holy," by Miss Jessie Haynes, called forth loud applause.

The work of the accompanist, Miss Irene Day, is also deserving of special mention, this oft neglected part being executed with a familiarity which showed careful preparation. As a whole the concert surpassed anything of this nature yet attempted in the borough and those who took part are to be congratulated upon its success.

PERSONAL.

Owen Fleming, a student at Princeton University, is spending the holiday vacation at his home on Park avenue.

Lindley M. Hillman, formerly of this city, but now of New York, is visiting his friend, B. O. Bowers, Jr., of Franklin place.

WHALE AND SWORDFISH.

Battle Was a Draw Until a Shark Aided in the Defeat of the King of the Deep.

A fight to the death between an 80-foot whale on one side and a thrasher, or fox shark, and a swordfish on the other, was witnessed a few days ago by the visitors and sailors on two yachts and the crews of some other small vessels outside San Francisco bay. All the witnesses agree that for thrilling interest the fight was ahead of anything they had ever seen or heard of. It lasted half an hour and resulted in the defeat and probable death of the whale.

The whale, and the swordfish, and the shark are ancient enemies, and fights between them are not rare.

TRIANGULAR SEA FIGHT.
(The Shark Seemed to Rise Twenty Feet Into the Air.)

However, it seldom falls to the lot of landsmen to see a combat between the largest inhabitants of the sea, and many a sailor has spent his life on salt water without chance to see such a sight.

Part of the time the yachts were within 200 yards of the combat, and some of the other boats ventured even nearer, or the fish in their blind fury worked nearer them. All the time the water was churned into foam, and the spray was dashed high into the air as the whale spouted or the thrasher leaped into the air to fall upon its enemy. The whale's efforts were mainly directed to escape from the constant attacks of the smaller monsters. In his efforts to avoid the rushes of the fox shark he would try to sound, only to be forced back to the surface by the thrusts of the swordfish below. Every time he came up he would send forth a fountain of silvery spray. The same instant a column of water would be hurled upwards, as if by an explosion beneath the surface, and in the column would appear the gray body of the fox shark, spreading its two wing-like fins. The shark seemed to rise fully 20 feet into the air, and, turning as a diver would when leaping from a springboard, would fall muzzle first upon the back of the whale, and the two would sink beneath the surface. That sort of fighting went on for fully 30 minutes. The thrasher kept right after the whale, and the swordfish waited below until he had a chance from that vantage.

After about 15 rounds of that sort of battle, as one of the sports on board one of the yachts put it, the whale began to lose interest, and seemed willing to call it a draw. But the shark was game, and kept right after him. The whale began to lumber along, not up to his speed, and it was plain that a dead heat would satisfy him. But the shark was a Fitzsimmons. Finally the whale turned, belly up, and he was done for. He sank like a foundered ship. He simply could not withstand the slugging of the mighty head of that shark, falling 20 feet upon him, and the thrusts of the swordfish from beneath.

GRAND MUSIC RENDERED BY "MESSIAH" CHORUS

Public Rehearsal of the Oratorio Was Held in the Crescent Avenue Church Last Night.

THE CHURCH WAS FILLED.

WORK OF SOLOISTS AND CHORUS WAS VERY SATISFACTORY.

Rendition Was of the Nature of Religious Service Rather Than That of a Concert—E. J. Fitzhugh, Conductor—Effective Accompaniment.

Every available seat in the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church was occupied last night at the public rehearsal of "The Messiah" given by the Plainfield Messiah Chorus. This rendition of the oratorio was for the benefit of the subscribers, and admission was entirely by ticket. Tomorrow night the oratorio will be repeated, and will be free to all.

The chorus was seated on a large platform built out from the pulpit. A grand piano stood at one side, presided over by Miss Jessie M. Utter. Howard M. Case was at the great church organ, whose tones gave depth to the music, and in the choir was a small orchestra from the Philharmonic Society which added much to the general effect.

The affair was more of the nature of a devotional service than a concert. There was no applause and the general spirit that prevaded the audience was one of reverent attention. The oratorio is one especially appropriate to the Christmastide, with the story of the prophecies of Christ's coming to the world, His advent, His work and His sorrows. It begins with the messages of the prophets, and after the exquisite Pastoral Symphony, like the twenty-third Psalm in music, comes the story of the vision and announcement to the shepherds, an account of the wonders to be performed by the Son of God while on earth, and the gracious invitation to come to Him and find rest. The second part begins sadly, with the story of the rejection of the Saviour and the going astray of those He came to save, but ends with the proclamation of His great power, and the burst of joy known as the Hallelujah Chorus. The third part sets forth the hope of the resurrection and closes with the ascription of honor and glory to the Lamb. Choruses, solos and recitatives vary the effect.

The work of the chorus, under the efficient leadership of Edward J. Fitzhugh, who has conducted many successful concerts in this city, was very creditable. Many members of the chorus were well acquainted with the oratorio, having sung it in previous years, and all had had thorough practice, so that the leads were well followed, harmony was maintained, and the singers entered heartily into the spirit of the words they were singing. Mr. Fitzhugh showed himself as usual a careful and spirited conductor, and infected his chorus with his own enthusiasm. Some of the choruses that were especially enjoyed were "Unto Us a Child is Born," "He Hath Borne our Griefs," "Lift Up Your Heads," and the magnificent "Hallelujah." In the chorus beginning "All We, Like Sheep, Have Gone Astray," the rushing in all directions of the straying sheep can be distinctly traced in the music.

The soprano soloist was Miss Alice Merritt, of New York, who had a voice of remarkable sweetness and purity. Her principal solos, "Come Unto Him," and "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth," which are among the most important and the most beautiful in the oratorio, were sung with ease and taste, as well as with much feeling.

The contralto soloist was no stranger to Plainfield, being Miss M. S. Perry, of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church choir. Her well-trained voice filled the large church easily, and her solos were given with skill and sympathy. Among her songs perhaps the most important were "O Thou that Tellest Good Tidings," "He Was Despised and Rejected," and the well-known "He Shall Feed His Flock Like a Shepherd."

E. C. Towne, of New York, the tenor soloist, sang with the Messiah chorus in their rendition of the oratorio a year ago; and on this occasion, as before, made a favorable impression upon the audience. His pronunciation was particularly good, every word of his solos being plainly distinguishable at the rear of the church. He sang entirely without notes, which greatly heightened the effect of his songs.

DEFIED POLICE.

Many Young People Were Skating on the Ice on Tier's Pond Yesterday Afternoon.

Notwithstanding the authorities of the borough have attempted to drive the skaters from Tier's pond, and even have gone so far as to arrest some of those who persisted in trespassing upon the property, there were half a hundred boys and girls skating on the pond yesterday afternoon. When a reporter for The Daily Press made a visit to the scene of the amusement resort late in the afternoon, the young folks were found busy dogging Officer Emmons of the borough, who stood along side the pond near the Elm place bridge, looking askance at the boys and girls.

When the officer put in an appearance the boys scooted to the city side of the pond, where they stood upon the embankment and made wry faces at the blue coat and alluded to him and Mr. Tier in sarcastic terms that caused a laugh all around. No attempt was made by the officer to arrest the boys, from the fact that most of them did their skating at the upper portion of the pond.

NO FIRE LAST NIGHT.

Edward Mosher Supposed That The Press Room of The Daily Press Was on Fire, But It Wasn't.

Edward Mosher was passing the office of The Daily Press about 6:45 o'clock, last evening, when he saw a bright light in the press room. He made a hurried investigation and thought he detected flames bursting through the floor. Hastening to the nearest box, No. 13 at Park and North avenues, he sent in an alarm. The supposed blaze came from the reflection caused by burning refuse paper. There was no fire and consequently no damage.

It has been the custom for the past twenty years to burn the refuse paper under the boiler every evening. Mr. Mosher is a fireman and thought that every second saved in summoning assistance meant the saving of thousands of dollars of valuable property, so he did not stop to investigate carefully.

DON'T FORGET KENYON.

Popular Music Dealer is Ready for the Holiday Trade.

At this season of the year when all are casting about for presents it is well to remember that no better gift can be made than a handsome piano or an organ. There is no better place to buy these goods than at the well-known music store of G. H. Kenyon, 315 West West Front street. Besides handling the celebrated Kimball piano, Kenyon keeps in stock all the latest sheet music, and everything pertaining to that which is musical. No better present could be made to your son or daughter than one of the world renowned Kimball pianos. Before deciding upon your Christmas gift do not fail to see Kenyon.

Officers for Sons of Temperance.

Choice Display at Moraller's.

In visiting the handsome jewelry store of Moraller & Son, on Park avenue, one is attracted by the large and very choice display of jewelry, both in gold and silver. The finest cut and most brilliant diamonds, watches of a high grade and many things in the novelty line, all of which makes it easy for one to select a suitable present for Christmas. The firm has been especially careful in their selections this year and the goods and prices are all right.

Christmas Flowers.

Mrs. L. J. Denton, the West Front street florist, has a fine array of choice plants and flowers for the holiday season. One cannot fail to find a suitable and lasting Christmas present out of the large assortment. The handsome window decorations gives one a good idea of the many pretty plants and flowers at this place. Mrs. Denton also has a supply of holly and greens for decorating.

Attractions at Y. M. C. A.

Among the attractions offered the young men and boys of this vicinity are the gymnasium, bowling alleys, swimming pool, evening classes in the physical and educational classes and the star course of entertainments. Terms low. For particulars call at the association building.

SOCIETY WILL BE BUSY DURING HOLIDAY WEEK

Continual Round of Dances and Other Attractions Planned by Plainfield's Society Leaders.

HOUSE PARTIES ARRANGED.

MRS. H. P. TALMADGE WILL GIVE DANCE AT HER HOME.

Young Married Folk Are Arranging Series of Dances—The Junior Set Will Give Two Subscription Dances.

Never has Plainfield's society set had such a Christmas week as is in prospect for this year. A continuous round of dances, dinners, receptions and amateur theatricals has been planned for the holiday season. There will be house parties at nearly a score of Plainfield's largest residences while many of those prominent in local society circles who have been out of town for the fall will return in time for these festivities.

This week is a remarkably quiet one in society circles as all are reserving their efforts for the following week. Thursday afternoon, Mrs. O. T. Waring and her daughters will receive, while Saturday afternoon the second of the "at homes" given by Mrs. Schuyler and her daughter will be held. Then there is a dramatic entertainment at the Park Club Thursday night.

Christmas Eve and Christmas Day will be largely devoted to family gatherings and will see the rallying of the guests for the house parties. Tuesday of that week is Christmas Day. On the night following, the junior set have arranged to hold a subscription dance at the Casino. It will be entirely for the younger set, many of whom will be home from college and school for over the holidays.

The young married people of the society set have decided to give a series of four dances during the winter. They will probably be given at the Casino. The first one will be held Thursday evening of Christmas week. It will be almost entirely for the married folk but there have been so many weddings lately that their number has been largely increased of late. The first dance will be held at the Casino.

For Friday evening of that week Mrs. H. P. Talmadge, of Netherwood, will give a dance at her spacious home in honor of her daughter, Miss Helen Talmadge. It promises to be a very elaborate affair, to which society, particularly the young set, will be bidden.

Many informal dinners have been planned and there will undoubtedly be many smaller gatherings. Thursday afternoon of that week Mrs. O. T. Waring and her daughters will give a reception at Mrs. Waring's beautiful home on Park avenue.

New Year's Eve will see "Mr. Bob" produced at the Casino by local talent. Society has given its approval to the play, which is given for charity, and a large and fashionable audience may therefore be expected. The same night the younger set have arranged a subscription dance at the Park Club-house on Washington avenue.

New Year's Night will close the eventful week with the Assembly, the second in the series of society's formal dances. It will be held at the Casino, and is to be given on a scale exceeding all previous efforts. There have been a large number of additions to the list of subscribers since the first Assembly was held on Thanksgiving Eve and there will also be many out-of-town guests. One particular feature of the affair will be the music. Beside the regular orchestra, furnished by a famous Brooklyn leader, Brooks and Denton, the well known banjoists, will be present with a quintette composed of three banjos, a banjorine and a piano. They will alternate with the orchestra in furnishing the music which will thus be made continuous. Banjo music for dancing was first tried here at Former Mayor Fisk's barn party, and it proved so popular that it is now to be introduced at the Assembly.

Doane is Ready for Christmas.

In making selections for Christmas presents one should visit the jewelry store of J. Hervey Doane on Park avenue. Here can be found some of the prettiest things in silver and goldware, watches, that are guaranteed to keep time, novelties in jewelry, diamonds, all of the latest design and at prices that cannot fail to attract buyers.

COAL PILE CAUGHT FIRE.

SERIOUS FIRE NARROWLY AVERTED AT STILLMAN BUILDING.

Was Not Discovered Until Yesterday Morning When It Was Rapidly Gaining Ground.

While the residents of the Stillman building were peacefully sleeping last Monday night, little did they think that they were in danger of being driven out into the cold, with a possibility of losing some of their belongings. Such was a fact, however, and a serious conflagration was luckily averted yesterday.

In the basement of the large building is stored many hundred tons of coal, and in some way some hot coals from the furnace got into this coal. It was not noticed Monday night and gradually the hot coals were making the foundation for a serious fire. Yesterday people living in the building detected a strong odor of gas and they could not discover its source. It finally became so strong that an investigation was ordered. The janitor, George Washington, found that the coal in the basement was on fire. It did not take him long to secure a hose and deluge the fire with water. In a short time the danger was removed.

When the fire was discovered it was found that the heat from it was very intense about the basement and first floor, and stone foundation was also very hot.

TROUBLE WITH SKATERS

Peter McDonough is Trying to Keep the Crowd Off the Ice at South Plainfield Pond.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

South Plainfield, December 19.—A large crowd of young people who were skating on the mill pond last evening, were ordered of by Peter McDonough, who harvests the ice crop. The skaters at first refused to go, claiming they were beyond the place where ice was cut. After considerable argument the objectors finally decided to leave.

McDonough claims the ice is greatly injured by the skating, causing him a considerable loss. A number of the skaters allege that far more injury is done by a drain pipe from a nearby house which they say empties directly in the pond.

RESISTED EVICTORS.

Little Was Arrested For Interferring With Deputy Sheriff Weaver—Sentence Was Suspended.

Deputy Sheriff Peter V. Weaver, armed with dispossession papers, had two men engaged in evicting Mrs. Mary Brown from one of Walter L. Hetfield's houses on East Third street, yesterday afternoon. Howard E. Little, the woman's son, attempted to interfere. As fast as the men carried out the furniture Little would lug it back. He refused to desist when Deputy Sheriff Weaver asked him to and became "sassy." Then Officer Weaver arrested him and marched him to the station house, where he was locked up. Later Little was arraigned before City Judge Runyon, who gave him a reprimand and then suspended sentence.

A Worthy Object.

An entirely new field is entered by "The People, The Land and The Book," a quarterly which is being published by Benj. Alexander M. Schapiro, of Brooklyn. Plainfielders may remember him as he spoke in Trinity Reformed church last winter. This publication treats of the people of Israel, their native land and of the Bible, together with Jewish traditions and literature. The object of this publication is to reach many of the educated Hebrews of this country who have heretofore been greatly neglected. Support is asked from those of Christian denominations so that the publisher will be able to distribute a large part of his edition gratuitously. The quarterly contains a number of interesting articles and is well printed and carefully edited.

The pupils at the Whittier school will enjoy a Christmas entertainment Friday forenoon. A pleasing programme has been arranged by the teachers.

FOOTE'S BOOM DEFEATED FOR HOUSE LEADERSHIP

Vivian M. Lewis, of Passaic, Chosen at Caucus of Republicans Held Yesterday.

MR. BACHELLOR WITHDREW.

ASSEMBLYMAN FOOTE OBJECTED TO BEING CALLED "SOMEBODY'S" MAN.

So He Went Into Contest at the Caucus—Union County Will Name Journal Clerk—W. J. Bradley, of Camden, Elected Speaker.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, Dec. 19.—The attempt to secure the leadership of the Republican majority in the lower House of the State Legislature for Assemblyman Charles S. Foote, of Plainfield, was defeated. At the last moment J. Harvey Bachellor, of Essex, withdrew from the contest and threw his strength with Vivian M. Lewis, of Passaic. The caucus of the Republican members of the Assembly was held at the State House yesterday afternoon and Mr. Lewis was chosen leader. The other officers for the Assembly were also chosen.

According to agreement, the chairmanship of the caucus carries with it the leadership on the floor of the House and so the fight was over the chairmanship. The morning brought the withdrawal of Mr. Batchellor and other changes in the contest. Mr. Foote would have undoubtedly withdrawn but for some ill advised remarks by other of the Assemblymen.

Fearing that the contest might develope bitter feeling in the caucus it was the wish of some of the members to make the caucus a secret one, but it was finally decided to allow the newspaper men to be present. Assemblyman Chas. Wright, of Burlington, the oldest member of the House, called the meeting to order.

When nominations were called for Mr. Meeker, of Union, presented the name of Charles S. Foote. Mr. Bachelier, of Essex, nominated Vivan M. Lewis, of Passaic, and said that in doing so he represented the unanimous wishes of the Essex delegation. Mr. Lewis' name was seconded by Mr. Lyons, of Middlesex.

When the vote was taken it showed that Mr. Lewis had received 31 votes and Mr. Foote 13. Before the vote was officially announced Mr. Meeker moved that the choice be made unanimous.

"It is with pleasure that I arise to second that motion," spoke up Mr. Foote. "A situation developed this morning which changed matters. Had it not been for these developments I should have had the extreme pleasure of withdrawing, without any vote, in favor of my friend from Passaic. When I came to the State House this morning I heard that Mr. Foote, of Union, should not be voted for because he was 'somebody's man.' That was my only reason for allowing my name to go before this caucus for votes. I do not think that to any man who knows me it is necessary for me to say a word on this subject and I hope that it will not be necessary for me to revert to this matter again until the end of the session when I am hopeful that you will all know that Mr. Foote's collar is not of any man's fabrication.

"It is now my extreme pleasure to second the motion to make the nomination of Mr. Lewis unanimous."

Mr. Meeker presented a resolution pledging the support of the caucus to William J. Sewell for re election as United States Senator, which was unanimously adopted.

William J. Bradley, of Camden, was named for Speaker and elected without opposition.

These officers were then elected without opposition:

Clerk, James Parker, Passaic, (re-elected).

Assistant Clerk, George E. Poole, Morris, (re-elected).

Journal Clerk, name to be supplied by the Union delegates.

For Supervisor of Bills, Assemblyman Wright, of Burlington, presented the name of last year's incumbent, Charles H. Folwell.

Assemblyman Williams, of Essex, named George A. Grover, of that county. Folwell was elected by a vote of 28 to 17.

Frank Tantun, of Monmouth, was re elected sergeant-at arms without opposition.

TRIED FOR GAMBLING.

Justice Mosher Reserved His Decision In Case Against Men Arrested at Home of William Kline.

Nearly three hours were taken up in Justice Mosher's court yesterday afternoon by the trial of William Boe, William Baldwin, John Angl man and Gustav Sutterlein, charged by the police with gambling. The men were arrested at the home of William Klein on East Second street, about four o'clock on Sunday morning, December 9.

Sergeant Frederickson and Patrolman Vanderweg, who made the arrests, claimed the men were playing poker. At the trial, this was denied by the men. They admitted playing cards but declared it was only a social game in which there was no betting. The evidence of the police was very strong, their testimony remaining unshaken.

Justice Mosher reserved his decision until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. The defendants were represented by Walter L. Hetfield while Francis J. Blatz, of the firm of Murphy & Blatz, appeared for the prosecution.

RED MEN'S FAIR.

Second Night Saw a Larger Attendance Than Was Present at the Opening Night.

With a much larger crowd than was present on the previous evening, the second night of the Red Men's fair proved more satisfactory than the first. Everything is now in perfect running order and the attendents are looking forward to a busy and prosperous week.

The programme was opened last evening by the musical sketch team, Jenre and Renand, local artists who play selections on nearly a dozen musical contrivances. At the conclusion of their performance, dancing commenced and despite the crowded condition of the floor last until midnight.

In addition to the usual programme this evening, Clarence Waldron, champion clog dancer of State of New Jersey, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hammill, and the lightweight boxing team, Harkins and Baker, will give performances.

Sebring's Goods are Satisfactory.

For custom made clothing or men's furnishings, readers of the Daily Press should keep in mind that the well known store of William H. Sebring, on West Front street, is a most reliable place to secure anything in the line of serviceable goods in the clothing line. Sebring is well established and his goods can be relied upon to give satisfaction and to fit. If you are thinking of treating yourself to a Christmas gift in the line of a new hat Sebring can fit you out.

That's the Right Place.

Among the many clothing establishments in Plainfield none are perhaps better known than the old established firm of Schepflin & Schultz on West Front street. Besides selling clothing, all of which the firm manufactures, this firm does quite a custum business. Their goods are as cheap as they are reliable and those looking about for a sensible Christmas gift need have no fear of making a selection at this store.

Everybody Knows Him.

Everybody knows Harry Werner, the well-known and thoroughly reliable clothier on West Front street. He has as good a stock of clothing as is to be found in the large cities. There is nothing shoddy about either Mr. Werner's goods or his treatment of his customers. His reputation for fair dealing has extended beyond Plainfield where he also is known for his upright dealing and trustworthiness.

Sensible Presents to be Had.

Sensible presents are always acceptable to the average person. What better present could be suggested than a suit of clothing or a hat, or a nice pair of gloves such as can be found at the well stocked clothing store of the New York Clothing Company, of which M. Weinberger is manager. This establishment has the reputation of selling first-class clothing at prices within the reach of all.

Wheelmen Collided.

William H. Rogers, the bicycle dealer, and George VanBlake, the colored coachman for J. Wesley Johnson, of LaGrande avenue, collided while riding their wheels on Park avenue yesterday afternoon. They were coming in opposite directions and met in front of Justice Nash's office. VanBlake's wheel was wrecked.

Manager for Hockey Team.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the High School Athletic Association held yesterday, Claude Cubberly was elected manager of the recently-organized hockey team. Steps will be taken at once to get the team in shape and arrange games.

TOO FAMILIAR AGENT IN BOROUGH LOCKUP.

Methods of Selling a Wonderful Cureall Landed Wm. Brainerd, of South Orange, in Jail.

CALLED IT "ELECTRICURA."

CHARGED WITH BECOMING TOO FAMILIAR WITH YOUNG WOMAN.

Gained Entrance to House on Pretence of Explaining His Wonderful Cure—Couldn't Pay $5 Fine Given By Mayor Smalley.

A young man who gave the name of Walter Brainerd, and his home as South Orange, was arrested last night by Marshal Emmons in the borough for acting in a disorderly manner. Brainerd pretended to be selling a preparation called "Electricura," which was said to be a sure cure for nearly all the ills that flesh is heir to. His methods, however, were more forcible than business-like or elegant.

He would call at the back doors of homes in the borough and introduce himself to the servant. If Brainerd was not invited in he would push his way into the house. When he could find a servant, or the lady of the house, who was willing to let him demonstrate his goods he was in high feather. But the privilege that was some times granted was frequently taken advantage of by the seller of nostrums.

Several complaints reached the Mayor and police regarding Brainerd's obnoxious methods of doing business. Where it was possible, Brainerd took undue liberties with certain women, particularly those who were not up to the wiles of men of his ilk. A case in point came to the attention of the borough police last evening.

Late yesterday afternoon Brainerd called at the home of George F. Brown, collector for the borough. He succeeded in inducing Mary Dubdoe, the family servant, to allow him to demonstrate to her the merits of his goods.

The representative of "Electricura" had been in the house but a few moments before he became familiar in his attentions. It is alleged that he started to take liberties with Miss Dubdoe which she resented. He was finally ordered from the premises and later arrested.

This morning in police court Brainerd was arraigned before Mayor Smalley. He claimed that he was only demonstrating the merits of his medicine, which he maintained was a positive cure for pains, etc.

The Mayor said he was satisfied that the accused had been acting in a disorderly manner and he found him guilty. He imposed a fine of $5 or seven days in the borough lockup.

Brainerd said he had no money, but would wire his friends in South Orange.

Chapots Will Rebuild.

The rumor that the firm of C. Chapot and sons, whose factory was destroyed by fire, have intentions of leaving Plainfield, is declared by a member of the firm to be untrue. Pending a settlement with the insurance companies and during the time it takes to rebuild, the firm will continue the manufacture of chamois in some other factory adapted to the purpose. At present they have several unoccupied factories in mind and one of them will soon be selected. As soon as matters can be arranged work on the new building will be commenced.

Handsome Calendar.

J. Emmons Henry, local agent for the Mutual Life Insurance Company, of New York, has presented some of his friends with handsome calendars which are the most artistic productions of colored lithographs that it is possible to produce. There are twelve handsome pictures, each representing the progress made in the transportation during the past century.

House Broken Into.

Some time between Friday and Saturday nights, the home of Mrs. Mary Riley, on East Front street, was broken into and a number of articles were taken. The matter was reported to the police, but as yet there is no clue to the thief or thieves.

Gave Him a Case of Wine.

Great Sachem William Newcorn has been presented with a case of wine by the management of the fair being held in Washington Hall under the auspices of the Red Men.

Vacation in Borough Schools.

The public schools of the borough will close Friday afternoon for the holiday vacation. They will not open again until Thursday, January 3, 1901. By this arrangement the teachers and pupils will have twelve days vacation. Friday morning the pupils of the High School will have appropriate exercises, followed in the afternoon by those of the grammar departments.

—Help is needed at once when a person's life is in danger. A neglected cough or cold may soon become serious and should be stopped at once. One Minute Cough Cure quickly cures coughs and colds and the worst cases of croup, bronchitis, grippe and all throat and lung troubles. L. W. Randolph.

The Proper Move.

When you feel that you are being driven to despair, the proper thing to do is to get out and walk; and as at this season most everybody is being driven to despair on the problem of holiday selection, the proper thing to do is to get out and walk to Collier's, and have the matter settled to your entire satisfaction. There you will not only find the means to meet your requirements, but the requirements to meet your means as well.

Potato Race.

The second contest in the series of events being held at the Y. M. C. A took place Saturday evening. The event was a potato race and was participated in by ten men. A. S. Hurst, of Westfield, finished first, securing seventy-six points. There were two seconds, William Heinecke and William LaTourette, each receiving sixty-six points. Heinecke now leads in the contest.

Marshal Emmons Acting as Chief.

Fred Emmons, one of the borough marshals, is at present acting as chief marshal, in place of William Campbell, who has been detailed by the police committee to do night duty. Mayor Smalley told a reportor for The Daily Press that the change was made "for the good of the service."

AT THE THEATRES.

Something About the Attractions Which Plainfield Theatre-Goers May Care to Witness.

On Christmas Day, at Music Hall, will be given one of the grandest dramas in the English language, performed and produced in the grandest manner by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Webber's super company of twenty people. "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" will be given in a manner never before attempted. In addition to a powerful acting company that develope, the tragic and comic sides of this fine play, the scenes of revelry at "The Sickle and Sheaf," the awful murder of young Willie Hammond, the pathetic life and death of little Mary, and the great delerium scene of Joe Morgans. There will be entrancing high-class specialties. Among the latter are the wonderful Glidden family, of five beautiful girls, who accomplish the most surprising feats, a lighting gun drill in full uniform with regulation wapons, triple silver clog in satin costumes, reels, buck and wing dancing. Black and white face specialties, groteseque cake-walk, songs, glees, solos, choruses and vocal gavottes. The well-known comedian, Harry Webber, plays "Sample Switchel" in his inimitable manner and the entire performance is simply perfect. Beautiful new special scenery. A richly uniformed band, orchestra and daily parade, also night concert before performance are features of this truly fine organization.

LITERARY NOTES.

McClure's Magazine for January will contain the first installment in the Memories of Clara Morris, entitled "Recollections of the Stage and Its People." This chapter describes the famous actress' first appearance before a New York audience and tells vividly of all the trials and triumphs on the crucial occasion. Apart from its sentimental value as the autobiographical work of our greatest actress, the dramatic intensity of the writing gives to the article a literary charm worthy of its high historic interest. c

A Wide Awake and Handsome Paper.

The New York Tribune has produced in its daily edition a newspaper which is certainly attracting the attention of intelligent readers far and wide. Within the past ten or fifteen years pictures have gained a large place among the many newspapers. In some cases they are inserted merely to amuse. The Tribune employs pictures in a sound and sensible, although most entertaining, way, as legitimate illustrations of the news, by means of which it gives a vivid idea of many things which could not be described in words. The Tribune also prints spirited cartoons, many of which are capital hits on politics and politicians.

We doubt if there is a better or handsomer general news and family paper in the United States than the New York Tribune, and it is of interest to remark that that newspaper has increased its circulation within the past year. The Tribune has a consistent record as the particular champion of thriving home industries, settlement of the public lands and protection to American business interests, and is always an interesting and readable publication. No printed matter of any kind can be taken into the family, for general reading, of any higher value than the Tribune. It is an inspiration to the young, a reliance to the mature a source of entertainment to all. It keeps pace with the times and in the second half century of its existence is is as young and fresh in spirit as it was back in the early forties. (See Prospectus in another column.)

LABOR CONFERENCE CLOSED.

General Opposition Shown Toward Compulsory Arbitration.

CHICAGO, Dec. 19.—The conference on arbitration and conciliation, which passed into industrial history with its adjournment last night, was enlivened during the day by a debate between Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and Hugh H. Lusk, ex-member of parliament of New Zealand. The venerable New Zealander during the forenoon turned aside from his prepared address to express displeasure at a declaration made by Mr. Gompers in his address Monday night. The labor leader on the occasion mentioned asserted that he wanted to see labor organizations retain the privilege of striking when they pleased, why they pleased or merely because they pleased.

"That is not liberty," cried Mr. Lusk. "It is license."

At this moment Mr. Gompers entered. The speaker proceeded:

"Mr. Gompers wants conciliation, and he says you can never have any conciliation unless you are ready to cut one another's throats. Well, if that is the unfortunate condition of the people of America I am sorry for them. We are not so anxious to cut one another's throats where I came from. I wish Mr. Gompers had taken the trouble to find out what our compulsory arbitration law is before he told you about it, but as he has not I am obliged to do it for him."

During the afternoon Mr. Gompers secured the stage and reiterated his assertions of the night previous.

"We do not," he said, "clutch each other's throats unnecessarily, but I would rather have the right to clutch at a man's throat than to have my arms amputated. The compulsory labor law is equivalent to the amputation referred to. I want labor to have the strength of a giant, but to use that strength gently."

Following this two speeches were sandwiched in, and then Mr. Lusk again secured the floor. He explained at length the workings of the arbitration court of New Zealand, generally talking straight at the labor president.

"You'd cut my arms off in your country," said Mr. Gompers, speaking from his seat.

"If you were good, we wouldn't amputate your arms," replied the New Zealander, "but we might enlarge your head."

A lively exchange of questions and answers which bewildered the audience followed. Mr. Lusk explained that during the hearing of a dispute between employer and his employees neither side could under penalty change the conditions which caused the appeal to the arbitration court. The hearing, during which neither side had the right to independent action, generally lasted about a month.

"I'd rather be at swords' points in America, an independent, than to surrender my right to strike for one minute!" shouted Mr. Gompers. And with that he left the hall.

Aside from the skirmishes between these two men, and they took up considerable time, there were numerous speeches favoring voluntary arbitration. Even Mr. Lusk declared that America was not ready for compulsory arbitration.

Chicken Pie Killed Her.

MALONE, N. Y., Dec. 19.—Mrs. Hattie Goodale, a widow 52 years old, has lived for months in her house on Rockland street in this village all alone and entirely neglected, lacking care and subsiding upon the poorest and scantiest of food. She was possessed of some property, however, and a week or two ago succeeded in making a small raise of money. She paid off her few debts and then hired a baker to make her a large chicken pie, which she proceeded to enjoy without check or hindrance. The sudden change of diet was too much for her enfeebled system, and she died as the result of overeating.

Brumbaugh's Salary Increased.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—At the request of the secretary of war the house committee on insular affairs has reported a bill increasing the salary of the commissioner of education of Porto Rico from $3,000 to $4,000. When Professor Brumbaugh of the University of Pennsylvania accepted the position at the urgent request of the president and Secretary Root it was with the understanding that his salary should be increased. He received $5,000 at the University of Pennsylvania and only accepted the position in Porto Rico out of a sense of public duty.

Senator Sullivan Weds.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—Senator Sullivan of Mississippi and Mrs. Marie Newman Atkins of this city were married yesterday afternoon at the parsonage of St. Stephen's church, the Rev. W. S. Caughy performing the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of the late Dr. Newman of this city, who was a well known physician. She has a graceful figure and is of attractive personality, is a graduate of the Georgetown convent and an accomplished musician.

Sensational Suicide.

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—Thomas Nolgraft, 40 years old, a saloon proprietor of Jamaica, L. I., committed suicide by hanging himself in a peculiar manner. He first broke all the windows and furniture in his place; then going to the head of the stairs he tied one end of a rope around a heavy trunk, the other around his neck and jumped over the banisters. When found, he was dead, and his neck was broken by the fall.

Wolcott's Condition Unchanged.

BOSTON, Dec. 19.—The condition of former Governor Wolcott is reported as practically unchanged since the bulletin given out earlier. Dr. Putnam, his physician, says that his patient appears to be no better and certainly seems no worse and that the latter fact may perhaps be in his favor. The crisis in his sickness has not yet been reached, but may develop at any time.

Two Killed by Dynamite.

SELLERSVILLE, Pa., Dec. 19.—Isaiah Hunsberger of Souderton and Joseph Bownawitz of Telford were killed by a dynamite explosion while the former was thawing out some frozen sticks of the explosive. The men placed the dynamite in a pan over a fire, and while Hunsberger was stirring the mixture the explosion occurred.

Postmasters Appointed.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—The following fourth class postmasters have been appointed: Delaware—Blackwater, Irwin W. Bennett. New York—East Beekmantown, George M. Howes; Newman, F. C. Mihill. Pennsylvania—Rand, James C. Foster.

DISTRICTS ASSIGNED.

Territory About Peking Placed Under Military Supervision.

SEVERE WEATHER MAY STOP FIGHTING

Presence of Allied Troops Alone Prevents Robbers and Boxers From Congregating—Envoys Meet Today.

PEKING, Dec. 19.—Count von Waldersee has issued an order assigning various districts in the neighborhood of Peking for supervision to the military representatives of the various powers. The order says that the extent to which the co-operation of the French and American troops can be depended upon is a matter to be determined by agreements made with the generals commanding those forces.

Under the plan the United States troops will supervise the district southeast of Peking from the road to Tshangtshang to the road extending from Nakukrin to Ho-si-wu.

Count von Waldersee says he knows that there is a considerable force of Chinese under General Ma in the northern part of the province of Shansi and another south of Tshang-tshang, but during the severe winter that has now set in he does not expect an aggressive Chinese movement.

On the other hand, wherever the allies leave a district for any length of time bands of robbers and Boxers will congregate. For this reason the field marshal desires the co-operation of all the allies to cover the varfous districts with strong patrols.

It is now understood that a meeting of the foreign envoys will be held today.

"It is reported from Sian-fu that the real director of the grand council is the empress dowager's favorite eunuch, Li Lien Yueng, who was erroneously reported dead last April. He is responsible for the general confusion and indecision. His latest suggestion is that the court should proceed to Nankin. General Tung Fu Hsiang is said to be still at Sian-fu. An imperial decree authorizes the governors of the provinces of Shansi and Shensi to sell titles and decorations for the benefit of sufferers from famine."

AGREED ON JOINT NOTE.

Great Britain's Proposed Changes Accepted by the Powers.

LONDON, Dec. 19.—"Great Britain's proposed alterations in the preamble of the joint note have been practically accepted by all the powers," says the Peking correspondent of The Daily Mail, wiring Monday. "Both Russia and Japan, whose support was regarded as doubtful, have agreed.

"Only the attitude of the United States remains as yet not clearly defined, but the acquiescence of America is anticipated, and it is probable that the joint note will be signed and delivered to the Chinese plenipotentiaries within three or four days. The German minister has warmly supported the British proposal."

"An experienced general with whom I conversed today," says the Peking correspondent of The Morning Post, wiring Monday, "considers a settlement by next spring improbable. He foresees some danger of complications here that will disturb the peace of Europe."

United States Embassador Choate had a long conference yesterday regarding the Chinese situation with the secretary of state for foreign affairs, the Marquis of Lansdowne, and subsequently Mr. Henry White, secretary of the United States embassy, paid a visit to the foreign office. The greatest secrecy is maintained as to the outcome of these consultations. What could be learned from British and American sources varied considerably, the former expressing annoyance and anxiety, the latter maintaining that nothing serious was developing.

Loot to Be Restored.

PARIS, Dec. 19.—In addition to the order directing that the cases filled with Chinese loot sent to President Loubet and others by General Frey, commander of the French marine forces in China, shall be embargoed at Marseilles when they are unshipped the government has decided that all objects, unless material of war, which have been seized or shall be seized by the French expeditionary force in China shall be restored, whether belonging to the Chinese government or to private individuals.

Actress Murdered by Her Lover.

HOPEWELL, Pa., Dec. 19.—Alfred Metzger of Newark, N. J., shot and killed an actress of the Al Davidson Theatrical company at her hotel in this place early yesterday morning and immediately afterward shot himself and fell dead upon her body, in which life continued for a few minutes longer. The woman was known as his wife, but appeared on the stage as Elsie Dinsmore, her proper name, it is said, being Hannah Carruthers and her home Buffalo. It has since been learned that Metzger was enamored of her and that he had for her forsaken his wife and children at Newark.

Big Strike at Antwerp.

ANTWERP, Dec. 19.—The dock laborers' strike, growing out of the dispute between the shipowners and their employees regarding night and Sunday work, has become general, and it is estimated that 30,000 men have quit work. The coal men have joined the dock laborers. Ships' crews and firemen are loading their vessels, but they make little progress. Few, if any, outsiders have yet arrived to take the places of strikers. Four hundred men are expected from England.

Doctor Who Saw Lincoln Die Dead.

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—Dr. Charles Sabin Taft, who was raised upon men's shoulders in Ford's theater into the box when Abraham Lincoln was assassinated, whose hands were on the martyred president's head when he breathed his last, died yesterday at his home, 39 South Seventh avenue, Mount Vernon. His death leaves only three survivors of those who were at Lincoln's deathbed. Dr. Taft was 65 years old. Death was due to cancer of the throat.

Christmas Dinners For the Poor.

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—The Salvation Army will furnish 25,000 Christmas dinners this year. Sixteen thousand of them will be distributed in baskets on Christmas morning at Madison Square Garden. Each basket will contain a chicken and enough bread, vegetables, coffee and sugar for a family of five. The other 9,000 dinners will be served on Christmas night in the Garden.

CAPE COLONY RAIDED

Boers Enter at Widely Divergent Points.

INVADERS MET BY MACDONALD.

Proposed Thanksgiving Service In Connection With Lord Roberts' Return Abandoned—British Denounced For Being Lenient.

LONDON, Dec. 19.—"The Boers have raided Cape Colony at two separate points, 100 miles distant," says the Cape Town correspondent of The Daily Mail. "One commando advanced upon Philipstown, between Colesberg and Kimberley. The other, supposed to be Herzog's commando, crossed the Orange river between Odendaal Stroom and Bethulie, northwest of Burghersdorp, its object apparently being Cradock.

"General Macdonald is engaging the invaders, who have no guns, 20 miles west of Burghersdorp. The latest news is that they are being slowly forced back to the Orange river, where a warm reception is being prepared for them."

The contemplated thanksgiving service in St. Paul's cathedral in connection with the return of Lord Roberts from South Africa has been abandoned, owing, as the government announces, "to its being considered desirable to defer a general thanksgiving until the close of the operations in South Africa."

The programme now is for Lord Roberts to debark in the Solent, to visit the queen at Osborne House Jan. 2, to reembark and to land finally at Southampton, coming from that point to London.

The Times, editorially denouncing "misguided leniency toward the Boers," says: "Such a concentration of Boers as brought disaster on General Clements' force would not have been possible had we carried on the war as it would have been carried on by any other civilized nation."

A dispatch from Lourenco Marques says: "Herr Pott, the Netherlands consul, has sailed for Europe. There was no demonstration. Mr. W. W. Stanley Hollis, the United States consul, went on board the steamer to bid him farewell."

Lord Salisbury's gloomy reference to South Africa yesterday at the conference of the National Union of Conservative associations causes much heartburning. The Conservative press, reluctant to admit that the situation is worse, complains of the premier's "needless pessimism."

The Daily News asks whether Lord Salisbury's utterances foreshadow the news of another reverse, and it suggests that the government has received dispatches from Lord Kitchener asking for more troops on the ground that the war, instead of being finished, is entering upon a new and difficult phase.

Ammunition Failed British.

PRETORIA, Dec. 19.—The Northumberland fusiliers who were captured by the Boers at Nooitgedacht made a dogged defense against superior numbers and fought on until their ammunition was exhausted. Then, when they saw that they were irretrievably hemmed in and that there was no hope of assistance from the valley below, where General Clements had his hands full directing the retirement of the rest of the force, they surrendered. Most of the prisoners have since been released at a point close to Rustenburg. The Boers lost heavily. They carried nine wagon loads of dead and wounded off the field.

Justice Ludlow Dead.

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—Associate Supreme Court Justice George C. Ludlow of New Jersey died yesterday at his residence in New Brunswick of bronchitis. Justice Ludlow was born in Milford, Hunterdon county, April 6, 1830. He had lived in New Brunswick since 1835. He graduated from Rutgers college in 1850 and was admitted to the bar in 1853. He served as city counsel, freeholder and president of the board of education. In 1876 he was elected to the state senate. Two years later he became president of that body. In 1880 he was elected governor of the state, defeating Frederick A. Potts, his Republican opponent, by 651 votes after an exciting canvass. In 1884 he was a member of the constitutional commission.

Another Gift From Rockefeller.

CHICAGO, Dec. 19.—At the convocation exercises of the University of Chicago President Harper announced that John D. Rockefeller had made another gift of $1,500,000 to the institution. Of this sum $1,000,000 is to be used as an endowment fund, and the university is to derive the benefit of the income of it from year to year. It is also stipulated that the $1,000,000 is to be in the university's name and is to be considered its absolute property for all time. The balance of the gift is to be used for immediate purposes and for general needs.

May Strike In Sympathy.

TOPEKA, Dec. 19.—Santa Fe switchmen and brakemen here say they will strike if the demands of the telegraphers are not granted by Third Vice President Barr. The conductors announce that they will stay by the road, but it is asserted that they will be induced to join in the strike if one is ordered. The engineers and firemen have not yet said whether or not they would strike. Considerable pressure has been brought to bear on them, and they show much sympathy with the strikers.

Lost With Eleven Men.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Dec. 19.—The famous steamship Alpha, which led the Cape Nome fleet to Alaska this year, went to the bottom of Union bay, Vancouver island, on Saturday night. The storm that made the Alpha founder swept the whole coast, and telegraphic communication has not yet been established, the news being brought to this city by the steamship Czar. Eleven lives are reported lost.

Who Will Build the Ships.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—The board of naval construction considering the bids for the construction of battleships and cruisers has settled these points: One of the big armored cruisers shall go to Cramps', one to Newport News and one to the Union Iron works in San Francisco. One battleship will go to the Fore River Engine works at Quincy, Mass. This leaves seven ships to be disposed of.

Socialists Going to New Zealand.

LONDON, Dec. 19.—"Sixty American Socialist Democrats have landed here," says a dispatch to The Times from Wellington, "attracted by the settlement conditions under New Zealand's advanced legislation."

DISCUSSING THE TREATY.

Senate In Executive Session—House on District Legislation.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—The friends of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty occupied nearly all of the time of the senate in executive session yesterday, Senators Foraker and Morgan being the speakers.

Previous to the taking up of that treaty the senate, for the purpose of clearing its calendar, disposed of several other treaties of comparatively little importance. Five conventions in all were ratified. Among the documents thus disposed of was an agreement supplementary to the Hay-Pauncefote treaty itself and extending the time within which it may be ratified. Under the terms of the original treaty the time for ratification expired five months ago. The agreement favorably passed upon yesterday extends the time until the 4th of March during which the treaty may be completed. Senator Lodge, who had the matter in charge, manifested some anxiety over this treaty and evidently was somewhat relieved when it went through without a dissenting voice.

The house devoted the day to District of Columbia business. The whole time was occupied in the consideration of a bill to change the terminal facilities of the Pennsylvania railroad in this city and to provide for the elevation of its tracks across the Mall south of Pennsylvania avenue. The opposition was persistent, but after much filibustering the friends of the bill succeeded in securing a recess until 11 o'clock today in order to continue the legislative day and complete consideration of the bill.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

Deputy Attorney General Edward P. Coyne has resigned.

The president nominated John C. A. Leishman for minister to Turkey.

Impressive funeral services for the late Oswald Ottendorfer were held in New York.

The river and harbor bill, as provisionally agreed upon, calls for more than $75,000,000.

The Canadian steamer Alpha was wrecked on Vancouver island, and eight lives were lost.

A man supposed to be one of the gang which held up the Chicago limited was found dead in the suburbs of New Orleans.

Charles S. Francis of New York was appointed to be envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of the United States to Greece, Roumania and Servia.

Reports to the New York state forest, fish and game commission show that hunters killed more than 1,200 deer in the Adirondacks during the season just closed.

Bank Robbers Get Rich Haul.

HOPE, Ind., Dec. 19.—The safe in the Citizens' bank here was blown open by robbers and looted of its contents. There were five explosions in opening the safe. The telephone girl saw the flashes and called up a number of citizens. Postmaster Spaugh, one of the first to arrive upon the scene, saw a man on guard in front of the bank who ran inside the bank door just in time to avoid a load of shot from Spaugh's shotgun. The robbers fled with their booty and made their escape. It is not positively known the exact amount of money secured, but there was at least $18,000 taken. Three or four men were connected with the robbery. A party of 20 men are scouring the country in search of the robbers, who are now thought to be in hiding not far off.

Notable Woman Dead.

LOCK HAVEN, Pa., Dec. 19.—Mrs. Jane Elizabeth Waggoner is dead here of paralysis, aged 70 years. She was the great-great-granddaughter of President John Adams and the great-granddaughter of John Quincy Adams. Her grandfather was killed in the war of 1812. Her father served in the Mexican war, her husband was killed in the civil war at Atlanta while under General Sherman, her son served through the civil war, and her grandson, Lieutenant Gardner, was killed recently in the Philippines. She was born in Carlisle, Pa., and had resided here since 1878.

Breaking Cable Causes a Wreck.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Dec. 19.—A cable broke at Locust Spring colliery, causing three loaded cars to run 1,000 feet down the main slope, which was wrecked. The cable in parting described a circle and, striking the engine house, crashed through the roof and struck the seat which Engineer Peter Veith had just left to examine the engine and demolished it into kindling wood. Veith stood two feet away. Five hundred employees will be thrown out of employment until the slope can be cleared of debris. It will require at least a week to clear the place.

Cashier P. M. Wood Dead.

HERKIMER, N. Y., Dec. 19.—Palmer M. Wood, cashier of the New York postoffice since last March, died of cerebral hemorrhage at his home in this village last night. He had been twice clerk of Herkimer county and was a politician of considerable note in the interior of the state. He was born in 1839. Mr. Wood was knocked down by a team in New York two weeks ago and did not recover from the shock. He came home Thursday night and failed very rapidly until the end came.

Order of Chosen Friends.

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—It has been decided by members of the Order of Chosen Friends in Newark, N. J., to contest the powers and rights of the receiver appointed by the Indiana courts. To this end a call was sent out to all the councils of the order in New Jersey to send representatives to a meeting to be held in Newark on Friday of this week. A meeting of the councils will be held in New York on the same day. The question of a reorganization of the order will come before these meetings.

Getting Ready For Ice Yachting.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Dec. 19.—There is activity among the members of the Hudson River and Hyde Park Ice Yacht clubs in anticipation of good sport as soon as the river freezes over. The Hudson is now closed north of Rhinebeck. The members expect to have a race this winter for the world's challenge pennant now held by the Hudson River club.

THE BOOZ INQUIRY.

Examination of Students at West Point Begun.

WEST POINT, Dec. 19.—The military court of inquiry which began taking testimony in Bristol, Pa., on Monday arrived at the Military academy at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. At 2:30 o'clock it resumed the investigation of the charges of hazing and brutal treatment made by the parents of former Cadet Oscar L. Booz, who died a couple of weeks ago in his home in Bristol, Pa. The courtroom was open to the public, but no nonmilitary men except the reporters were present. A great many officers and attaches of the academy were interested spectators, and from the opening of the proceedings to the adjournment at 6 o'clock not a person left the room. Generals Brooke, Bates and Clous and Captain Dean questioned the witnesses as to the practice of hazing in the academy, both in camp and barracks.

Fourteen of the 68 cadets of the second class were examined during the afternoon, and all of them who knew Booz declared that his standing with his classmates was not very high, as they looked upon him as a coward. The story of his fight with Kellar in 1898 was told by Cadet O. N. Tyler, who seconded Booz. When asked by the court why he did so, Tyler said, "Well, Booz asked me to be his second, and I could not well refuse."

Every one of the witnesses denied that any brutal hazing occurred, and two of them said that the "bracing" and "setting up drills" were only "correctional measures" and neither injurious or humiliating. Every one of them seemed to give a straightforward story, and one and all denied that Booz had been interfered with on account of his religious belief or tendencies. Just how long the inquiry here will last could not be figured on by the officers of the court, but it is expected to take up the greater part of this week.

Petition Refused.

PARIS, Dec. 19.—The French government has refused the petition of the American and British embassadors requesting that the Passionist fathers and chaplains of the English speaking Catholic church of St. Joseph be exempt from the heavy tax which the special law imposes on religious bodies. The petition represented that the fathers discharged the duties of secular priests stationed in Paris solely to minister to the needs of the English speaking colony and that their withdrawal will be an irreparable loss to the colony. The church was built 30 years ago with English and American money, and the congregation is composed chiefly of English, Americans and Irish. The fathers have already contested the matter in the courts, which have decided against them. The government has now seized St. Joseph's and the property of the fathers on the Avenue Hoche and threatens to sell them unless the sum of 20,000 francs, arrears of taxes since 1898, is paid. The services, however, are not interfered with.

Farmer Heir to Millions.

DUBOIS, Pa., Dec. 19.—Creighton Wandrell, a farmer, aged 70 years, living at Pennfield, has unexpectedly fallen heir to $3,500,000. Wandrell had an uncle who ran away from home in 1834 at the age of 13. He became a sailor and later a ship owner and accumulated a fortune of $15,000,000. He died in New York in 1893, leaving his millions to three brothers and his nephew Creighton Wandrell. For seven years an attorney of Albany has been advertising and searching for Wandrell's heirs. They were discovered a few days ago and will come into immediate possession of the fortune.

Logging Train Wrecked.

SWAINSBORO, Ga., Dec. 19.—A logging train belonging to Rentz Garbutt & Co. left the track over Yam Grandy creek and fell into the creek. Engineer Elmore Vales was killed. Dr. D. H. Durham and Dr. J. M. Nunez, passengers on the train, and two negroes were seriously injured. Dr. Durham, after having been extricated from the wreckage, where he was being slowly cooked by a stream of boiling water from the engine, at once went to work relieving the other sufferers until he fainted from the agony of his scalded arms and legs. He was brought to the city unconscious.

A Tie on Mayor.

WORCESTER, Mass., Dec. 19.—Worcester is in a tangle over the mayoralty question. The registration of voters have given their official declaration that both O'Connell and Lytle received the same number of votes, 8,061. On these returns neither man is elected. The city charter provides that in the failure to elect a mayor a special election shall be ordered by the board of aldermen. This will probably be the next move.

Unknown Man Killed.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Dec. 19.—An unknown man, who is said to have been a resident of Cincinnati, while attempting to board a freight train at Afton, Chenango county, yesterday afternoon, was struck by west bound Delaware and Hudson train No. 7 and instantly killed. A companion, also of Cincinnati, was probably fatally injured.

TROOPS COMING HOME

First Regiment Leaves Manila Jan. 1

ELEVENTH CAVALRY WILL FOLLOW.

To Be Mustered Out In the Same Order as They Arrived In the Philippines—Increased Insurgent Activity Feared.

MANILA, Dec. 19.—The volunteer regiments will proceed to the United States to be mustered out in practically the same order as they arrived in the Philippine Islands. They will be replaced by regulars provided by the army bill. The Thirty-seventh volunteer regiment, which is to begin the homeward movement by embarking on New Year's day, will be brought from the Laguna de Bay district and will sail on the transport Sheridan. The women and sick soldiers who were to sail on the Sheridan will leave on the Warren Saturday.

The Eleventh cavalry, which is to follow the Thirty-seventh volunteer regiment, will be transferred here from Camarines province and will sail Jan. 15 on the Meade.

The Thirty-sixth regiment, which began service the earliest, in July, 1899, is now in the province of Ilocos, but will be transported here soon.

The officers of the regular army holding commissions in volunteer regiments will be retained in the Philippines, and volunteer officers on special duty will be relieved only on the authority of headquarters.

Arms, ammunition, equipment, stores and animals will be transferred to division headquarters exceptiug 100 rifles, 100 cartridge belts and 5,000 rounds of ammunition per regiment. The men will retain their haversacks and utensils.

Volunteers desiring to leave the service and remain in the Philippines will be allowed to do so. Enlisted natives will be discharged.

It is believed that the temporary depletion of many posts and the checking of operations will result in renewed insurgent activity.

The announcement of the early commencement of the transportation home of the volunteers caused surprise.

General Hughes reports that 21,000 persons in the island of Panay have sworn allegiance to the United States.

Lieutenant Herbert L. Evans of the Forty-fourth volunteer infantry regiment, with 50 men, attacked Dec. 12 several hundred bolomen and 50 insurgents armed with rifles, occupying an intrenched position at Tonoxigan, island of Cebu. The Americans had three men wounded, and the enemy lost 12 men killed and many wounded.

Every One Got His Deserts.

CHICAGO, Dec. 19.—Decided interest was manifested at the general offices of the Illinois Central railway in the dispatches telling of the tragic fate of Channing Barnes, the last of the gang that robbed one of the company's trains at Wickliffe, Ky. Vice President J. T. Harahan said: "It is a matter of great satisfaction that the systematic, continuous work of the company's special agents has resulted in every individual one of the Wickliffe robbers meeting his just deserts. There has been no let up in the work since the date of the Wickliffe affair, and it was only a question of time as to the final result. Of the ultimate outcome itself there could be no doubt whatever considering the ceaseless and thorough process of following up which was inaugurated at once and has been kept up persistently. It was a grim realization that his escape was impossible which led Barnes to commit suicide in the swamp."

Spanish Government Suffers Reverse.

MADRID, Dec. 19.—During the discussion in the chamber of deputies on the special naval budget for the increase of the navy the government suffered a slight reverse. Senor Inclan contended that difficulties would arise at the time of liquidation. The minister of finance, Senor Alende San Lazar, replied that fears on this score were groundless. The opposition proposed a resolution unfavorable to the government, which was adopted by 117 against 116 votes. Great excitement ensued, the Left and Center applauding loudly. Senor Silvela, former premier, who is president of the naval committee, withdrew the report. It is believed that, in spite of the adverse vote, the cabinet will not resign.

Governor Mount Aroused.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 19.—Governor Mount is much exercised over the lynching of the third Rockport negro murderer at Boonville Monday night. He consulted with the attorney general yesterday morning with a view to setting on foot at once an investigation as to the members of the mob, which was composed, as usual, of the "best citizens." It is highly probable that he will not wait for the local authorities to act, although this had been his purpose previous to the third lynching. The governor is highly incensed at the sheriff of Spencer county for failing to notify him that a mob had formed to proceed to Boonville.

Large Coal Land Purchase.

WHEELING, Dec. 19.—A syndicate headed by J. V. Thompson of Uniontown, Pa., has bought 6,250 acres of coal land in this county, near the Pennsylvania state line, paying for the tract $181,953.76. The deal is the biggest of a number that are being engineered in northern West Virginia by the same parties. It is the intention of the purchasers to develop the Pittsburg No. 8 vein immediately and ship the product south from this point.

Morocco Settles Our Claim.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—A message from United States Consul Gummere at Tangier informs the state department that the Moorish government had settled the claim of the United States for $5,000 indemnity on account of the murder of Marcus Eszagui, a naturalized American citizen, in Morocco last spring.

Bold Safe Crackers.

CHARLESTON, Dec. 19.—The safe of Dicks & Sally, a firm at Sally, a small town in Orangeburg county, was blown open with dynamite and $7,000 in currency and gold was taken, besides mortgages, etc., amounting to $2,000.

Boston Postal Clerk Arrested.

BOSTON, Dec. 19.—Michael A. Wheeler, living in Roxbury, has been arrested at the postoffice on the charge of stealing or secreting a letter from the mails.

President of the Council.

While the Common Council of 1901 will be composed of exactly the same men who make up the present City Council, it is probably that there will be a change in the presiding officer. When the question of a choice of President of the Council came up at the beginning of the present year, two names were mentioned for the place. From point of length of service, Mr. Dumont was entitled to the honor and certain of the Councilmen voted for him. The members from the Fourth ward believed, however, that the honor should go to that ward and so they presented the name of Frank H. Smith. He received the support of the members of the Council from the First and Fourth wards and was elected. He subsequently resigned, however, to accept the the appointment as City Collector in place of James Martin resigned, and Mr. Dumont was then elected to the office of President without opposition.

Since that election took place, Mr. Dumont has made an excellent presiding officer and has served the city well in that capacity. The desire to see another President of the Council this year is not for reason of any opposition that the members feel toward Mr. Dumont but rather a repetition of the situation last January. The honor is desired for the Fourth ward and it seems probable that Mr. Lee will be the choice of that ward when the caucus is held.

There has been some talk to the effect that Mr. Lee desires to be placed at the head of the street committee rather than to be made President of the Council. One of the strongest arguments brought to bear on Mr. Tolles to secure his consent to accept a renomination at the hands of the Republican party was that the Councilmanic committee on streets and sewers, of which he has been chairman, had only started in the work of making the necessary changes at the city's sewage disposal plant and that it was very desirable that the same committee should carry the matter to its conclusion. It would therefore be very strange if Mr. Tolles were not appointed chairman of that committee in 1901, as that committee will have to take charge of the proposed improvements at the sewer beds.

If there is to be any change, it is likely that Mr. Lee will be made President but there are some Councilmen who desire to see Mr. Dumont remain in the position and it is possible that the Fourth Warders may decide to relinquish the honor in his favor.

A retailer who has been interviewed by a representative of The Advisor, says the Philadelphia Record, refuses to handle any articles which have not been thoroughly advertised in the newspapers. "It is the advertised things that sell," he said. Another thing I have found out is that a firm cannot afford to stop advertising. A case in mind is that of Shrewsbury ketchup. Several years ago that was was supreme. Then it stopped advertising and a new brand came into the field, used a great deal of newspaper space and thoroughly displassed the other.

The public will have an opportunity tomorrow evening of listening to good music without cost. The well-known oratorio "Messiah" is to be given in the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church. It is a splendid opportunity, and those who have never heard that oratorio should not fail to take advantage of it.

With the trolley connecting Plainfield with Watchung on the north and South Plainfield and New Market on the south, there will be little else left to wish for as far as trolleys are concerned except a line connecting Plainfield with Metuchen.

The members of the Plainfield Board of Trade are sensible business men and fully realize the need of proper street signs for Plainfield. The Councilmen should recognize the need as well and provide them as soon as possible.

Plainfield shoppers who are in search of Christmas gifts will receive far better attention and will find just as reasonable prices by patronizing the local stores instead of going to New York.

What's become of the Plainfield Advancement Association? It has not been heard of since the clam bake.

WHAT OTHERS SAY.

Clippings From Other Newspapers Which May Be Of Interest to Plainfield and Its Citizens.

The Paterson Press quotes, with concurring remarks, an article which recently appeared in the New York Herald, indirectly questioning Assemblyman Foote's claims and qualifications to leadership in the House of Assembly at the approaching session of the Legislature. The quotation is:

It seems to be conceded that Assemblyman Foote, of Union, is to be designated as the "leader" of the Republican forces in the House at the approaching session. Just why a sort of oratorical commander should be needed and named has never been apparent to those who have seen the natural leadership of such men as Garret A. Hobart, John W. Griggs, William B. Gourley, Edward J. Armstrong, Edward C. Stokes, Franklin Murphy, Leon Abbett, R. S. Hudspeth, Allan L. McDermott and men of that grade assert itself. These men were leaders, not because they were stamped officially as such, but because they rose to the position by force of ability. "The rank is but the guinea's stamp—the man's the gowd for a' that."

We respectfully suggest that if Mr. Foote had not fully satisfied his Republican colleagues that he is well qualified to be their leader, he would not have been considered. Union county would naturally advocate the perferment of one of its own Assemblymen, but Union county has but three out of 60 members, and does not carry either the house or the caucus by numerical preponderance. It may be that the next house will not contain men of the ability of Hobart and Griggs, or of the mischievous aggressiveness of Abbett, Hudspeth and McDermott; but it will have men of good calibre and none of them will be more sincere and straightforward and studious of the State's interests than Mr. Foote. It may be said, without fear of successful contradiction, that Union county has not and will not furnish Republican leaders in the house, of more limited qualifications than some of those who have hitherto come from Passaic.—Elizabeth Journal.

Short and Gossipy Sketches That Are Not Always News, But Just as Interesting.

When the alarm of fire went in last night for what was supposed to be a threatening conflagration in the basement of The Daily Press office, one of the collectors on the paper, who was in the counting room at the time of the alarm, in his haste to find the fire ran up Park avenue to Second street to Watchung avenue and down North avenue—in fact clear around the block. The supposed fire was directly beneath where he had been standing; but he didn't know it.

—Appetites are apt to be rather capucious. Fred Endress, the popular butcher, can please the most languid appetite, when you buy of him you can make your money go the farthest, he says he does nothing to abuse a customer's confidence. Those who love seafood can obtain of him their favorite dish of fish and oysters, which he receives daily.

—Many persons have had the experience of Mr. Peter Sherman, of North Stratford, N. H., who says: "For years I suffered torture from chronic indigestion, but Kodol Dyspepsia Cure made a well man of me." It digests what you eat and is a certain cure for dyspepsia and every form of stomach trouble. It gives relief at once even in the worst cases, and can't help but do you good. L. W. Randolph.

THEY SAY.

The Merchant Says:

Telephone service is a great promoter of business. It not only is an open door for new business, but increases the facility with which any business may be transacted.

The Railroad Man Says:

It keeps our many departments running in continuous harmony. It increases both our passenger and our freight service, and is a great convenience to our patrons.

The Broker Says:

It keeps me in touch with the market wherever I am; I buy and sell by wire, and by taking telephonic advantage of a turn in the market I have made thousands of dollars.

The Doctor Says:

Telephone service has increased my income to nearly double. Many persons will seek advice by telephone who would hesitate to ask a physician to make a call.

The Caterer Says:

Telephone service enables me to serve my patrons more speedily and with less effort. It minimizes possibility of loss from overstocking.

The Housekeeper Says:

Life without telephone service would be unbearable. It smooths all the rough places. How we ever got along without it, I do not know.

The Suburban Resident Says:

The knowledge that I can call up my house out of town from my office in the city, is a great comfort.

The College Man Says:

"I say, old chap, it's great. You can call up and get the latest news from the football game or the boat race, and every other old thing a fellow wants to know."

Everybody Says:

It is the greatest thing in the world—the greatest convenience of this or any other time. The greatest factor in business, social or domestic life; a service no one can afford to be without.

The Telephone Company Says:

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence.)

Dunellen, Dec. 19—The success of the second concert of the Choral Union proves beyond a doubt that Dunellen people are musically inclined and willing to support a good musical organization. The present union has shown, by the two concerts given, that it is capable of good work, and it is to be hoped that another concert, of as pleasing a nature, as was that of Monday night, will be given in the near future. The organization is now but a year old, but during that time, under the direction of William Holmes, the improvement among the members has been very noticeable. By the time another year passes, at the present rate of progress, the union will become the pride of the citizens and reflect credit upon its director and members.

A well deserved promotion has just been tendered to William Dunham, of the borough, who for some time past has been fireman for Engineer Frank Wynkoop. He has been made engineer and will run on a Mauch Chunk coaler for the first time today. Altogether Mr. Dunham has been firing on the Central for twelve years.

Tomorrow afternoon the Elizabeth Board of Presbytery will meet in the Presbyterian church and the installation of Rev. N. J. Sproull, the new pastor, will be carried out. Prominent speakers from Elizabeth, Plainfield and other places will be present. Rev. Mr. Cadwell, of Westfield, is expected to preach the sermon.

Arthur Vail has taken a position with the U. S. Express Company as messenger on a Jersey Central run.

Miss Lillie Warden has gone to New York for a few days visit with her aunt, Mrs. Wilson.

Merle Larrabee has been confined to the house for the past week by an attack of illness.

Rev. A I Martine, of Marlboro, spent yesterday in town as the guest of M. L. Barick.

Frank Smalley is enjoying a few days vacation with out of town friends.

Mrs. John Hunt has returned from a visit with Brooklyn relatives.

NEW MARKET.

(Special Correspondence.)

New Market, December 19.—While seated in an armchair at her home on Maple avenue, Monday evening, Mrs. Ann Logan, was stricken with an attack of heart disease and died in a few minutes. Dr. Nelson was summoned as soon as possible, but upon his arrival saw that his services were not needed. Mrs. Logan was seventy one years old and had lived in this vicinity since 1851, coming here from England. The deceased is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Isabelle Wright, with whom she lived, and Mrs. Frederick Pangborn, of Plainfield. The funeral services will be held from her late residence tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made at Samptown.

The Christmas exercises of the school will be held in Friendship hall this evening. An excellent programme of songs and recitations has been prepared and the parents and friends of the pupils are invited to attend.

If the skating remains good a hockey match will be played upon the pond next week between a Plainfield team and one from Rutgers college.

M. W. Casterline has been entertaining friends from New Brunswick.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence.)

Scotch Plains, Dec. 19.—An exciting runaway occurred on Front street yesterday afternoon when one of A. D Shepard's horses hitched to a rubber tired runabout became tired of waiting for the coachman and concluded to start for home alone. The coachman had left the horse standing along the curb while he was attending to some business at one of the stores. In some way the animal became frightened and before any one could catch him had started upon a wild run down Front street. When opposite the old well he managed to free himself from the wagon and as soon as he found himself free he started upon a clean run for the stable and did not stop until he had reached it. The harness and wagon were badly damaged but the horse escaped fortunately with but a few scratches as a reminder of the wild run.

Skating is still being enjoyed upon Marsh's Lake and the other ponds through the valley, but Mr. Marsh has threatened to forbid the sport upon his property unless the boys stop burning up the fences upon the property, where they build their fire along the bank. There is no reason why the fences should be broken down and burned as there is always plenty of driftwood along the brook that can be used for firewood.

Yesterday and today were the annual taxpaying days for the residents of the township. Collector John L. Darby has been holding froth at the Town Rooms from 10 o'clock until 5 for the convenience of the residents at this end of the township. Taxes are now payable until tomorrow at the Collector's home at Alton. After that date delinquent payers will be placed in the hands of a justice of the peace for collection.

The members of the Baptist Sunday-school will enjoy their Christmas exercises in the church on Thursday evening, December 27. An interesting programme of carols, recitations and other pleasant little attractions which are always looked for by the children, will be rendered.

A special meeting of the Board of Education was held in the school parlor last evening. The Board have decided to give the scholars a two weeks' holiday vacation this year instead of the one week they usually enjoy.

Mr. and Mrs. Stiles M. Parse, of East Front street, have been entertaining their nieces, Miss Parse and Miss Alyaa, both of Newark.

The Epworth Literary Society will resume their Wednesday evening readings in the class rooms of the Methodist church this evening.

Richard Hart, who has been spending a few days with his sister, Miss Katie Hart, has returned to his home in New York.

John Benner, of "The Cottage" on South avenue, has added a pool room to his hotel business.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD

South Plainfield, Dec. 19.—At the prayer meeting in the Baptist church last night, seven young people related their experiences and were accepted by the church as candidates for baptism, which will take place one week from next Sunday.

Captain William Hand & Son have completed the contract for moving the boiler and steam pump from the cars to the new pumping station and setting it there. They did the work very quickly and very satisfactorily to the water company.

Thomas Brantingham, who has been spending two or three weeks in West Virginia, starts for home tomorrow. He will bring with him a new pacer.

Peter McDonough has posted signs on the mill pond to the effect that all skaters must keep off.

Miss Flossy Smith is visiting at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Libby Smith.

Alfred young resumed work today after an illness of a few days.

Miss Appiebee is visiting at the home of Mrs. Payne.

Miss Carrie Dayton has taken a position in Plainfield.

Grabow. Seine Frau wider Willen vergiftet hat der Erbpächter Edler in Ziegendorf. Eine Hebamme hatte beim Besuch der schwer entbundenen Frau Edler ein Fläschchen mit Zimmettinktur, die zum Einnehmen bestimmt war, mit in ihre Wohnung genommen und dafür eine Flasche mit Karbolsäure stehen lassen. In Folge dieser unheilvollen Verwechselung gab der Mann seiner Frau, anstatt der zum Einnehmen bestimmten Tropfen, die Karbolsäure ein. Trotz sofort angewandter Gegenmittel und ärztlicher Hilfe gab die bedauernswerthe Frau nach einer Stunde unter entsetzlichen Schmerzen ihren Geist auf. Die Strafkammer verurtheilte die Hebamme wegen ihrer Fahrlässigkeit zu zwei Monaten Gefängniß.

Darmstadt. Das Kriegsgericht verurtheilte den Lieutenant Wichert vom 17. Infanterie-Regiment, weil bei einer Schießübung im Sommer auf den Schießständen bei Gonsenheim ein Soldat aus Unvorsichtigkeit erschossen wurde, zu einer Festungshaft von sechs Monaten. Der Offizier hatte bei der Uebung die nöthige Vorsicht außer Acht gelassen.

Bingen. Wegen Unterschlagung im Amt erhielt der 38 Jahre alte Rathsdiener Benedikt Erbelding zwei Jahre Gefängniß.

Mainz. Der Vorstand des hiesigen Gartenbauvereins hat beschlossen, im September 1901 hier eine internationale Gartenbauausstellung abzuhalten. —In einer Nacht tödtete der Schiffer Falz von Mainz den Metzgerburschen Karl Fischer aus Freudenberg durch einen Stich in den Hals. Der Thäter und ein Mannheimer Schiffer Namens Schrimpf, der ebenfalls an der That betheiligt war, wurden verhaftet.

Worms. Die neue Eisenbahnbrücke über den Rhein wurde jüngst dem Betrieb übergeben und die Station Worms Hafen für den Personenverkehr, mit Ausnahme der Richtung Worms-Lampertheim, geschlossen. Der Schluß für diese Richtung soll am 3. Januar 1901 erfolgen, an welchem Tage zugleich die neue Hafenbahn eröffnet wird.

There is a veteran harness maker in Portland, Oregon, now eighty years of age, who made a full set of harness before he was seven years old. This enterprising old gentleman gives in a recent letter an extremely interesting account of some difficulties he has had to overcome. "I came to Portland ten years ago from Janesville, Wis.," he writes. "On account of sedentary habits I am greatly troubled with dyspepsia, and after hearty eating have had severe pains in the region of my heart. I saw Ripans Tabules advertised, but there are so many nostrums put out to gull innocent people that I was loath to try them. About two months ago a friend came into my shop just after lunch time, while I was belching wind and when my stomach felt very bad. He took a little carton out of his vest pocket and handed me two Tabules and told me to get some water and take them. I did so, and from that day I have not been without the Tabules nor have I had any such disagreeable feelings. I take one when I think I need it, after a meal, and my food does not distress me any more than it did fifty years ago. I write to congratulate you on the happy combination you have gotten up in Ripans Tabules."

WANTED—A case of bad health that R·I·P·A·N·S will not benefit. They banish pain and prolong life. Operate on relief. Note the word R·I·P·A·N·S on the package and accept no substitute. R·I·P·A·N·S, five cents, may be had at any drug store. ACCESSORIES.

Pretty Ideas In Neckwear and Ornamental Belts.

A favorite boa consists of a thick ruche of gauze or mousseline de soie, the edges of the folds forming the ruche being crested with a line of heavy chenille. From the ends of the ruche, which is long enough to just go around the neck, there fall clusters of chenille cord to match, which drop half way down the skirt. These boas are seen in black, white and colors.

These long chenille cords are a favorite trimming for scarfs, boas of various kinds, stoles and other fanciful accessories for the neck and shoulders. While pretty they are not serviceable, but with good care will probably last for a time until their novelty departs and they are abandoned.

LIGHT CLOTH JACKET.

Belts to accompany nice gowns and bodices are becoming quite elaborate affairs. One of the new ideas is to have a band of gold or perhaps jeweled ribbon on a wider band of black velvet fastened with jeweled rings and a ribbon in front or forming a point in front and fastening at the side with a chou and ends or a cluster of long, narrow loops.

The cut given today illustrates a rather elaborate jacket of mastic cloth, tight fitting at the back and loose in front. White cloth with corded plaits forms a sort of facing in front and across the lower part of the large revers. The other edge of the revers and the collar are bordered with a narrower band of plain white cloth. The pockets are similarly bordered and are buttoned down with a tab and a horn button. Stitched cloth tabs and horn buttons close the front and ornament the sleeves, which are additionally decorated with bands of stitched white cloth. The hat of plaited emerald panne is trimmed with fans of tulle and bouquets of violets. JUDIC CHOLLET.

OUT OF DOOR STYLES.

Fashions In Fur For the Winter Season.

Astrakhan is the fur most employed for wear during the period of mourning. In connection with fur garments it may be mentioned that ornamental clasps, artistic buckles and decorative buttons are greatly used for fastening them. These ornaments are of old silver and variously tinted golds, with jewels and enamels intermingled.

Trimmings of bright or rich toned panne are often seen upon fur wraps and lace also, especially in the cream, yellow and ecru tints. Turquoise, sapphire, emerald, garnet and mauve are among the colors of the panne employed, and one of these colors, with lace, will, if properly selected, often make a fur becoming which would otherwise be quite unsuitable to the complexion of the wearer. The accompanying muff is always trimmed to match with panne and lace.

TAILOR MADE COSTUME.

The plain round fur boa is not seen at all, much as fur is worn this season and various as are the forms it takes.

Today's illustration shows a tailor made costume of gray blue cloth. The skirt is plain except for a number of rows of stitching near the foot. The coat bodice is tight fitting at the back, loose and open in front and is entirely covered with lines of stitching in silk of the color of the cloth. The seams of the darts are carried up to the armhole. The collar and revers are cut in an ornamental form and are faced with mandarin velvet and bordered with lines of stitching. The sleeves flare over the hand and are stitched horizontally as far up as the elbow. The vest is of white silk, the collar and belt are of mandarin velvet, and the cravat is of lace. The accompanying hat is of the Spanish shape and has lines of blue velvet on a ground of beige felt. The trimming consists of a fringed scarf and a beige plume.

MUST BE PROTECTED.

Native Christians in China Are Entitled to Liberty of Worship by Tientsin Treaty.

The announcement from Washington that the president is determined to insist that the Chinese government shall obey its treaty obligations pledging protection, not only to the Christian missionaries, but to the native Christians, will command universal approval, says the Chicago Evening Post. The treaties repeatedly made between the United States and China have been most specific on this point. The massacre of the hundreds and the thousands of native Christians has been as intentional a defiance of the other governments of the world as has been the murder of so many missionaries and the destruction of all their homes and possessions. It is plain that the empress and her immediate advisers have been at the back of the horrible outrages perpetrated by her "bashibazook" Boxers. The allied powers owe it to civilization to make it plain that the international compacts insuring liberty of conscience and security against persecuting violence must be respected. Russia may not take great interest in this matter, but Great Britain, France and Germany, and Japan, also, may be depended upon to be in accord.

PRINCE CHING.
(Chinese Leader Who May Be Made Temporary Regent.)

The following are the terms of the treaty of Tientsin:

The principles of the Christian religion, as professed by the Protestant and Roman Catholic churches, are recognized as teaching men to do good, and to do to others as they would have others do unto them. Hereafter those who quietly profess and teach these doctrines shall not be harassed or persecuted on account of their faith. Any person, whether a citizen of the United States or Chinese convert, who, according to these tenets, peaceably teaches and practices the principles of Christianity, shall in no case be interfered with or molested.

These terms are perfectly specific and unmistakable. Their renewed affirmation by the great powers of the world cannot fail to have a salutary effect on the minds of the Chinese throughout the Celestial empire.

DR. JOSEPH PARKER.

England's Greatest Pulpit Orator Declares That He Is About to Retire from the Ministry.

Rev. Dr. Joseph Parker, the famous preacher of London, is about to retire from the ministry. He is the pastor of the City temple, the leading Congregational church of Great Britain, and has been ever a prime favorite with Americans abroad. Dr. Parker established the City temple in 1869, and during the years that have passed since then he has developed an important work among the poor of the great city. Few pulpit orators are more eloquent, more outspoken or more fearless than the celebrated British divine. Preaching has been a passion with him. "What is your hobby, doctor?" a lady once asked him. "Preaching, madam." "But apart from preaching?" "There is nothing apart from preaching. It touches all life," he replied. Dr. Parker's father was a stonecutter, herculean in physique and strength and with the tread of a Roman soldier. All this the son inherited. He does not know the meaning of the word "ill." Dr. Parker in most of his opinions is most liberal. "The stage," he says, "cannot be put down. It responds to an instinct which is ineradicable." And he is dramatic in his pulpit. The retiring minister will be 71 years old next April. His degree of doctor of divinity was conferred by the University of Chicago.

DR. JOSEPH PARKER.
(Famous English Preacher Who Will Retire from the Ministry.)

By a city ordinance, it is provided that no dog shall be permitted to run at large within the city limits, unless a good and sufficient muzzle shall be placed over the mouth of said dog in such manner as to render biting impossible. If any person permits or suffers any dog owned or harbored by him and not so muzzled to run at large, the ordinance provides that he shall upon conviction be punished by a fine not exceeding ten dollars for each offense.

Any person prepared to make complaint under oath of any violation of this ordinance may apply to the subscriber and have prosecution begun forthwith.

THE BRAINS OF THE MIDDLE STATES,
THEIR PUBLIC SPIRIT, CULTURE AND CAPITAL, ARE EARNESTLY ENLISTED IN FAVOR OF POLICIES WHICH MAKE FOR PROSPERITY.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE is the leading exponent in the United States of the development of mines, farms, factories, mills, railroads and trade, and all other practical sources of the common weal.

THE DAILY AND SUNDAY TRIBUNE, $10 a year, is par excellence the edition for alert and wide-awake men and their families, in this part of the country. It is handsome, printed in large type, and, so far as its news columns are concerned, without a superior and with few equals. Its cable dispatches are considered so definitely ahead of the foreign news service of any other Eastern Journal, that a large number of Western papers purchase them from THE TRIBUNE for simultaneous publication. The Sunday paper is accompanied with a most admirable illustrated supplement.

The WEEKLY, issued every Thursday, is a compact news, agricultural and family paper, unexcelled for cultivators of the soil and their families. Its market reports have given that edition a special reputation. Numerous special departments are projected and managed so as to attract every household and all the members thereof. Several half-tone pictures appear in each number. Price, $1 a year.

The TRI-WEEKLY, printed Monday, Wednesday and Friday, is a handsome, spirited and condensed every-other-day daily newspaper, easily the best publication of its class in the United States. It has all the special features of the Weekly and the important news of the Daily, and is printed and mailed at the same time as the Daily. The news—clean, accurate and fairly presented—is admirably displayed according to its value, and is never distorted. For political news you cannot find any better newspaper, and the news is given without any political bias. The editorial page breathes the spirit of purest patriotism and broadest charity, untainted by any consideration save the welfare of the home and the country. Its reviews are pungent, wise and witty. The TRI-WEEKLY, $1.50 a year. Sample copies free.

Don't you think that such an admirable national newspaper should be in your own home?

Don't you think THE TRIBUNE, handsome in appearance, full of the best news and reviews, well illustrated, a purchase for yourself and family?

Your order can be handed to the local postmaster or sent to this office direct.

TRIBUNE ALMANAC, 1901, an End of the Century number. Ready in January. Enlarged, carefully revised, with a rich budget of new features. 25 cents, postpaid.

Any reader, so situated that he can raise a club for THE TRIBUNE, will oblige us by sending for terms and sample copies.

THE TRIBUNE,
NEW YORK.

COUNT VON BLUMENTHAL.

Famous German Strategist Reported Seriously Ill at His Residence in Berlin.

Count Leonard von Blumenthal, the eminent German soldier, last of the generals who were conspicuous in the Franco-Prussian war, and one of the most distinguished strategists of the German army, is reported seriously ill in Berlin.

Count von Blumenthal was given his title of "graf" in 1883 and was made field marshal in 1888. His missions to England for the German government were many and important. In 1850 he was dispatched to Great Britain with special military propositions and was rewarded with the order of the Red Eagle. In 1871 he represented the emperor at the military maneuvers at Chobham, and was enlisted with other affairs of gravity in connection with the war department.

On July 30 last Count von Blumenthal was 90 years old. He was a soldier from his boyhood. In 1827, when but 17, he was commissioned a second lieutenant in what is now the Fusilier guards. In 1846 he had risen to be premier lieutenant in the topographical division of the general staff. His first fighting was done in the streets of Berlin during the disturbances of 1849. He took part in the Schleswig-Holstein campaign, fought in the skirmishes at Auenbull, in the battle of Colding, and in the battle of Fredericia.

Having meanwhile risen to the rank of colonel, Von Blumenthal, on December 15, 1863, was appointed chief of general staff of the combined army against Denmark. This was the first opportunity he had been given of showing his fine abilities as a soldier. For the brilliant manner in which he stormed the trenches at Dueppel he was promoted to major general, and after the peace he was made chief of the general staff of the second army, receiving the oak leaf of the Order of Merit and the star of the Order of the House of Hohenzollern. After the outbreak of the war with France Gen. von Blumenthal was appointed chief of the general staff under the supreme command of the crown prince. When the latter was presented by the emperor with the Iron Cross he declared that Gen. von Blumenthal was as fully deserving of the honor as was he. The great strategist has been living in retirement for many years.

UNIQUE POST OFFICE.

Located on Boundary Line Between Vermont and Quebec and Used by Both Countries.

On the boundary line between Vermont and Quebec province, in Canada, is an old building which is now used as the post office for both countries. It is an old stone building, built about 75 years ago, and is located at Beebe

UNDER TWO FLAGS.
(Post Office on Boundary Line Between Quebec and Vermont.)

Plain, a town that is United States on one side of the street and Canada on the other. The post office is an exhibition of the good will of the people of the section. The father is the postmaster for Quebec and the daughter postmistress for Vermont. The post in front of the building is the boundary line. It was moved at one time by one of the citizens to get a road into his place that would be in Canada and cost the governments a great outlay to establish the exact line again. The cellar under the building, "which was originally a general store," connected the two countries. Whisky was known to be put down in one country and come out in the other. The offices were put in the same building to accommodate the farmers, who did not wish to get out of their wagons at two points.

The Czar's Regular Suite.

The suite of the czar of Russia consists of 173 persons, of whom 15 are members of the imperial family, 17 are princes who are not of imperial birth, 17 are counts, nine are barons and the remaining 15 are noblemen of lower rank. Only 128 are Russians, the rest being Germans, Finns, Poles, Circassians, Greeks and Roumanians.

The open recitative and air, "Comfort Ye," and "Every Valley Shall Be Exalted," were his, as well as the plaintive air embodying the words "See if There be Any Sorrow Like Unto His Sorrow," and the spirited "Thou Shalt Break Them."

The bass soloist was Oley Speaks, of New York, who had a pleasant and sympathetic voice, with a good range. He had some of the most difficult solos of the evening, and sung them in a manner that proved careful training. "Who May Abide the Day of His Coming?" "Darkness Shall Cover the Earth," and "The Trumpet Shall Sound," were among his important solos.

The pianist, Miss Utter, who has accompanied the chorus on previous occasions, managed the difficult accompaniments with great success, following the soloists and the conductor with practiced precision. Howard M. Case, as organist, supplied an important part of the general effect very successfully. The most conspicuous part borne by the organ was in the beautiful Pastoral Symphony. The little orchestra furnished the needed background for the singers and other instruments, and proved especially effective in the air beginning "The trumpet Shall Sound."

The audience remained seated in quiet attention until the beginning of the "Hallelujah Chorus," when all instantly arose and remained standing until the conclusion of the number. The effect was to add greater strength to the sense of exaltation that swept over the audience while the grand harmonies of one of the most triumphant pieces of music ever written filled the building.

During one of the brief intermissions W. W. Howland spoke to the audience, requesting that those who on this occasion were present at the rendition of the oratorio should not attempt to come on Thursday evening, in order that as large a number as possible should be able to enjoy the privilege.

"The Record" Almanac for 1901.

Of the countless almanacs which put in an appearance yearly, there is none more useful than that issued by the Philadelphia Record. It is not of interest only to Philadelphians but contains matter of interest to all. In political data and statistics for New Jersey, the almanac is particularly strong. The Record Almanac for 1901 has just made its appearance and it is even more satisfactory that those of previous years. Several new features have been added including some very valuable statistics of the new census.

BIG TIME FOR HEPTASOPHS.

Election and Reception at Meeting of Protective Conclave of This City Last Night.

There was a large and enthusiastic gathering of Heptasophs at the regular meeting of Protective Conclave, No. 505, in their rooms last evening. In addition to the routine business the annual election was held and resulted as follows: Past archon, Fred C. Lounsbury; archon, J. P. D. Kirch; provost, C. E Hepburn; secretary, V. W. Nash; financier, Michael Armstrong; treasurer, Eugene M. Laing; prelate, John Green; inspector, F. A. Weber; warden, M. Kadansky; sentinel, W. C. Dilts; trustee, Alfred Harral.

After the election a reception was given to the new members who have been secured through the efforts of George M. Outten, of Townsend, Del., deputy supreme organizer, who has been in the city for the past few weeks. There were brief addresses by Brothers Nash, Kirch, Hepburn, Laing, Armstrong and Deputy Supreme Archon Vanderhoef and the new members.

A feature of the evening was the playing of quoits. The first match was between J. P. D. Kirch and John Green and Michael Armstrong and C. E. Hepburn.

Messrs. Armstrong and Hepburn won the two out of the three games. In a match between Messrs. Nash and Lang and Green and Hupburn, the former won two matches. A third match between J. V. E Vanderhoef and Alfred Harral and Perle Lindsly and W. C. Dilts, resulted in a victory for the former team. After the games a collection was served and all enjoyed a good time.

Masons Choose Officers.

A regular communication of Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. & A. M., was held last evening when the following officers were chosen for the coming year: Master, Clarence Goss; senior deacon, Robert Kenny; junior deacon, James A. Stafford; treasurer, Calvin H. Rugg; secretary, Charles Yaeger; trustees, L. B. Woolston, Garrett T. Dunham, T. O. Doane; representatives to Masonic Hall Association, J. F. Buckle, W. R. Codington and James A. Stafford. At the next meeting of the lodge the other officers will be appointed and the installation will take place.

Officers for the Quarter.

Martha Washington Council, No. 23, Daughters of America, met last evening and elected officers as follows for the ensuing quarter: Councilor, Mrs. Henry Angleman; associate councilor, George A. Allen; vice-councilor, Mrs. Joseph Randolph; associate vice-councilor, Mrs. Johnson; assistant recording secretary, G. S. Martin; conductor, Miss Frey; warden, Samuel H. Allen; inside sentinel, F G Welsh; outside sentinel, Mrs. William Smith; representative to State Council, Mrs. Katie Bennett.

Wants a Trial Order.

J. W. VanSickle, the well known butcher, at 122 North avenue, being thankful for past favors, solicits a continuance of trade. He has a very large stock of turkeys, chickens and ducks to select from. His prices are low and he always gives entire satisfaction. Mr VanSickle is one of the oldest butchers in the city, and has established a reputation for selling the best of everything and charging reasonable prices. All he asks is that everybody give him a trial order.

Forefather's Day Service.

There will be a Forefather's Day service at the Congregational church this evening. Among the subjects upon the programme will be: "Pilgrims to Newark Bay and the Passaic;" "A New Jersey Mayflower;" "The Holy Experiment;" "A Twenty Mile Walk to Meeting;" "Puritan Principle" and "Puritan Pluck."

Dr. Simpson Returned From Philippines.

Dr. M. S. Simpson, formerly of Plainfield, has been relieved from his duties in the United States Army in the Philippines, at his own request, that he may come home and be with his wife who is quite ill in Philadelphia. He is now on his way home.

Is Doing a Good Work.

Rev. Arthur Crane, formerly of Plainfield, but now of Camden, S. C., where he is the pastor of the First Baptist church, is doing a good work. Many additions have been made to the church membership and the people like their pastor very much.

Aid Is Needed.

Capt. J. M. O'Neil, of the Plainfield Salvation Army Corps, will be glad to receive donations in clothing, food, cash or toys for distribution among the needy for Christmas.

W. F. JONES PROMOTED.

Former Jersey Central Employe Has Accepted Better Position With New York Central at Albany.

W. F. Jones, of 314 East Sixth street, son of Rev. W. L. Jones, of Westervelt avenue, who has been employed as storekeeper for the Jersey Central Railroad at Elizabethport, has resigned his position to accept a position as general storekeeper for the motive power department of the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad, with headquarters at Albany. He left on Monday to enter upon his new duties. He will not move to Albany until next spring.

As a testimonial of esteem, his many friends among the employes of the Jersey Central, presented him with a handsome mahogany couch and an umbrella, on Saturday last. The presentation was made by H. W. Workman, of this city. Mr. Jones goes to his new field with the best wishes of a host of friends who will be pleased to learn of his promotion.

Funeral of Wm. P. Wynn.

The funeral services of the late William P. Wynn, were held from St Mary's church, this morning, solemn requiem mass being said for the repose of his soul. Remarks were made by Rev. Father J. A. McGeary, who was in charge of the service. A number of floral tributes denoted the esteem in which the deceased was held. Those who acted as pallbearers were Eugene O'Reilly, Patrick Marron, Thomas Walsh, Daniel Galbraith, Phillip Butscher and Clinton Shannon. Interment was made in St. Mary's cemetery.

Will Buy Plainfield Automobile Co.

Silas D. Drake says that a party of capitalists, representing one of the strongest of the automobile manufacturing concerns of the country, are arranging to purchase the controlling interest in the Plainfield Automobile Company, which was organized to provide lines of automobile stages in this city. He says the deal will be closed the first of the year and that the new management will be ready to start service in the city April 1.

Mr. Moore is Improving.

Former Councilman Wm. H. Moore, of East Sixth street, who has been dangerously ill with typhoid fever, is now improving. The crisis in the disease came last evening, when the fever broke. Dr. Endicott now feels that his patient will recover. Mr. Moore was formerly superintendent of the Plainfield Electric Light Station, and he has been associated with Edison, having made a trip to Japan for the noted electrician.

Thirty Days in Jail.

The man whom Patrolman McCarthy arrested yesterday morning and who was acting in a suspicious manner about the home of Mrs. Herman Simmonds on Watchung avenue, was last night sentenced by City Judge Runyon to thirty days in the county jail. The man gave the name of John Ayers and said he hailed from West New York.

What a Press Ad. Did.

Miss Martine, of Watchung avenue, lost a valuable seal and Persian lamb fur cape last Sunday. An advertisement was inserted in the Press yesterday. The same day the cape was returned to this office by Mr. Terry, of Terril road, who found it, and he received a reward. The moral is plain.

Christmas With Salvation Army.

The Salvation Army will have two Christmas trees and an entertainment Monday evening at 8 o'clock. One tree will be open to the public to place presents on for their friends and the other will be for the children who attend the army Sunday school.

SUIT FOR COUNSEL FEES.

Another Move in the Trouble Over the Saloon at Lincoln Which Didn't Get a License.

Lawyer William Newcorn was called to New Brunswick this morning to defend his clients, Bernard Clark and John Clark, in a counter-action brought by George Bodine, lawyer, who is suing for counsel fees. It will be remembered that the Clarks were to have a license for a place at Lincoln, and Daniel Whitlock was to get it for them. In the meantime W. F. Polhemus got the license and the Clarks were left out. They brought suit against Whitlock, which has not been settled yet. The case will probably take up the best part of the day.

VanArsdale's Customers Always Satisfied.

VanArsdale, the East Front street shoe dealer, is prepared to sell anything in footwear. He has a large stock of fine shoes and slippers and one cannot fail to find a suitable Christmas present in such a stock. The quality is all right and so are the prices. VanArsdale is an experienced dealer in shoes and knows just how to fit any foot. He never allows a customer to become dissatisfied, and you are sure to be pleased if you deal at this store.

Will Take Advantage of Vacation.

All the teachers of the borough schools will avail themselves of the advantages to be derived from the Christmas vacation and will spend the holidays at their homes out of town. Superintendent Wightman will remain in the borough and spend his Christmas with his family.

Next Lecture.

The next lecture under the auspices of the Monday Afternoon Club will be given on Monday afternoon, February 4, when Prof. A. M. Wheeler, of Yale, will lecture on "Some Features of British Rule in India."

—Some great bargains in Florida oranges by the box are being offered by Neuman Brothers.

HAPPILY WEDDED AT HOME.

MISS ANNIE STARKER MARRIED TO PHILIP EBERLE, OF NEW YORK.

Ceremony Took Place at Bride's Home on Park Avenue Last Evening—Will Reside in New York.

In the presence of nearly sixty relatives and friends, Miss Annie Starker, of this city, and Philip Eberle, of New York, were married at the bride's home on Park avenue, last evening. Rev. A. I. Mattine, of Marlboro, N. J., the bride's former pastor at Dunellen, pronounced the words which made them man and wife.

The young couple were attended by Miss Grace Clark, of High Bridge, who acted as bridematd, and Alex. Siebecker, of New York, who was best man. Miss Starker wore a gown of white landsdown, trimmed with liberty silk. She carried bridal roses.

At the conclusion of the ceremony a reception was tendered the young couple and a very enjoyable time followed. Amid a shower of rice they took their departure for New York on the 9:43 train, where they will take up their residence. The groom is connected with the New York Produce Exchange.

Many useful and ornamental presents were received by Mr. and Mrs. Eberle, consisting of silverware, bric-a-brac and a great variety of other articles. Miss Starker was formerly a resident of Dunellen, where she is popular among a large circle of acquaintances.

FINE MUSIC PROMISED.

Programme of Musical Numbers For Christmas Service at Crescent Avenue Church Sunday.

Ward Stephens, the organist and choir director of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, has arranged a a very attractive musical programme for next Sunday. In the morning Gounod's "Sanctus" and "Nazareth" will be sung by the solo quartette and a volunteer chorus. Miss Terry will sing a solo.

In the evening "The Holy Child," a Christmas oratorio by Horatio Parker, will be rendered, and Hans Kronold, the 'cellist, will play. Mr. Stephens and Mr. Lott will give an organ and vocal recital in the church Saturday evening, Dec. 29th. Admission will be free.

Campbell Keeps Pure Candy.

Campbell's candy store is receiving the admiring patronage of great crowds of people these yuletide days. They make an improved grade of pure candy. Their fine bon bons and chocolates are being ordered in large quantities and they are indeed very fine. One of Tenney's old hands is employed at their place and he is making for them many special and high class goods This year Campbell's are supplying St. John's church in Brooklyn with their Christmas candies, and many others.

Forefather's Day Service.

The Forefather's Day service at the Congregational church last evening attracted many persons and proved to be very profitable to all. The several subjects presented had to do with the Forefathers in New Jersey and they had a peculiar interest. Included among the subjects, upon which papers were presented, were "Pilgrims to Newark Bay and the Passaic," "A New Jersey Mayflower," "The Holy Experiment," "A Twenty Mile Walk to Meeting," "Puritan Principle" and "Puritan Pluck."

That Question of Christmas Gifts.

What better gift can be thought of than a good pair of shoes or a handsome pair of slippers. One of the best places in the city to secure goods of this kind is at the well-known and reliable shoe store of Flynn Brothers, 222 West Front street The Flynn Brothers have a reputation for selling the output of the most celebrated shoe manufacturers in the United States. They carry all styles and can suit the tastes of the most fastidious.

Will Plant Smaller Trees.

It is understood that Dr. Pittis intends to replace the trees which he had cut down yesterday with young trees that he is to set out in the spring. The old trees supplied more shade than the doctor cared to have, and, in consequence, he was unable to maintain a grass lawn. It is expected that a fine lawn will be seen in front of the doctor's handsome residence next summer.

Steamer is Ready for Service.

Steamer No. 2, the only one now in the city fire department, has just been painted and re decorated in an artistic manner. It has also been re-numbered now being designated as No. 1. The department boys are proud of the machine and to enable their friends to see and admire it, will have a "wash" on Friday night, December 28 The location has not yet been decided upon.

XMAS IN CITY SCHOOLS.

High School Will Hold Its Exercises Tomorrow Morning According to Usual Custom.

The pupils of the various public schools in the city, have made preparations to hold the usual Christmas exercises tomorrow. At none of the schools will the programmes differ to any extent from those given last year. At the High School the exercises will begin at 11 o'clock. They will be in charge of Principal Travell and consists of readings, songs and recitations. The custom of exchanging gifts as practiced between the Senior and Junior classes will be carried out and many little pleasantries may be expected. The committees of the various classes will decorate their respective class rooms with the class colors this afternoon.

ONLY A WRECK LEFT.

Delivery Wagon Demolished in Lively Runaway on West Front Street Yesterday Afternoon.

Manager Thompson, of the Singer Sewing Machine Company, is today mourning the loss of one of the company's delivery wagons, the remains of which are at Homan's carriage factory for repairs. The wreck of the wagon was caused by his horse running away yesterday afternoon.

Manager Thompson had left the horse, without being hitched, in the vicinity of the Industrial Home on Rock avenue, while he went to see a customer. When he returned the rig was not in sight. He started in search of the runaway. At the corner of Front street and Rock avenue Mr. Thompson found the wagon, or at least what was left of it. It was completely demolished. There was scarcely enough left of the vehicle to tell that it had ever been a delivery wagon The runaway horse was caught near Clinton avenue. Mr. Thompson says that he has no one to blame but himself.

WAITED THREE HOURS.

Somerville Man Left His Hat in Visitors' Gallery and Had to Wait to End of Executive Session.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Washington, Dec. 20—H. T. Beekman, of Somerville, N. J., had an unpleasant three hours' wait Tuesday and all because he forgot to take his hat with him when he retired from the Senate gallery at the beginning of the executive session. He tried every known device to get the hat, and even enlisted Congressman Howell in his behalf, but even he was not able to secure admittance or find any doorkeeper who dared to enter the sacred portals until after the executive session ended. And so Mr. Beekman waited with all the patience he could command for three weary hours

Crowds go to Gavett's.

Hundreds of Christmas shoppers are thronging J. W. Gavett's place of business on West Front street, selecting presents from the very large and handsome stock of crockery, cut glass, lamps and dainty pieces of china that are being offered. Mr. Gavett always keeps a complete stock of goods, but just now his store is filled with an endless variety of pretty things, any one of which would make a choice gift. His prices are low.

Carted to Jail.

Estil Elliott, who lives on West Eighth street, was found by Patrolman Wiensenreid in a helpless state of intoxication on West Third street about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The officer was compelled to procure a wagon to convey the unfortunate man to the station house. It was his second offence. This morning City Judge Runyon suspended sentence.

Entertainment at Park Club.

A dramatic entertainment will be given at the Park Club house this evening by local amateur talent. Two clever little comedies will be given, the titles of which have not yet been made public The young women who have been given plays at the club in the past, will take part this evening.

Will Sustain Hockey Team.

The Board of Directors of the Plainfield High School Athletic Association met yesterday and decided to appropriate funds for the maintainance of the recently organized hockey team. The captain and manager for the team have already been elected and games will soon be arranged.

Sprinkling Again.

To the delight of the borough citizens, the street sprinkler has been doing duty since the weather became more mild. The dust has been almost unbearable and the wetting of the streets is much appreciated by the citizens, particularly the merchants.

Storm Coming.

The frost this morning was the heaviest of the season. Evidences of an approaching storm are apparent.

FOUND STRAY CERTIFICATE.

DOCUMENT WAS FOUND BLOWING ABOUT BOROUGH STREETS.

Tells of Marriage of Miss Mary Peel and James McCann at Dunellen, December 6.

It is not often that one hears of marriage certificates flying about the streets and but few are ever laid aside so carelessly as to be lost. Usually marriage certificates are supposed to be of value to the parties interested. At all events, they are considered as sacred pieces of property, which are zealously guarded, at least by the young bride. A few days ago a marriage certificate was picked up in the borough by a well known citizen, who found it being cavoted about by the high wind. When the paper was picked up it was supposed to be only a letter. Close inspection, however, revealed that the find was none other than the certificate of marriage of Miss Mary L. Peel and James McCann, who had been made man and wife by Justice A. W. Warden, of Dunellen, on the 6th of December, A. D., 1900.

The certificate is written upon an ordinary piece of paper, but is evidently genuine as it is signed by the justice and witnessed by James Reedy and Lillie Warden. The certificate can be obtained by Mrs. McCann if she will call at the office of the Daily Press, where it has been left by the finder, who wishes it turned over to its proper owner.

YOUNG PEOPLE TO BOWL.

Monday Evening at Park Club Alleys Will be Devoted to the Younger Set of the Club.

Monday evenings at the bowling alleys of the Park Club will hereafter be devoted to the young people of the club. The young women and young men of the club have arranged to meet at the alleys every Monday evening for a series of informal contests which will tend to increase the interest in that winter sport and furnish pleasant social gatherings.

A trial of the plan was made last Monday night when a dozen of the young people were present and spent a delightful evening. The young people will be paired off by lots in teams of two and all will compete in a contest. Monday night saw Miss Adelaide Ball and Ralph T. Willis in the lead. Beginning next Monday night prizes will be awarded to the winning team The young women will provide refreshments.

MARRIED IN UNIFORM.

Robt. McMaster and Mrs. Mary Shepherd Were Quietly Wedded Last Evening by Rev. Mr. Newell.

In a very quiet manner Robert McMaster, of Jersey City, and Mrs. Mary Shepherd, of this city, were united in marriage, last evening, by Rev. G. Kennedy Newell, pastor of Hope chapel, at the latter's residence on West Fifth street. In addition to the contracting parties the only witnesses to the ceremony were Miss Margaret Campbell and Alex. Muir, both of this city, who acted as bridemaid and best man.

The bride was becomingly attired in a traveling suit of grey. Miss Campbell's gown was of castor colored cloth. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. McMaster left for Jersey City, where they will reside in the future. The groom, who has been a private in the Fourth New Jersey Regiment for thirteen years, was married in his company uniform.

They Have Good Shoes.

This is the time of year when it is necessary to have a good pair of shoes on one's feet. Perhaps you are thinking of making yourself a present of a pair of shoes or of giving a present to some friend. If so, do not forget to take a look at the splendid stock offered by Deane & Edsall in the Stillman building on West Front street. This firm has a reputation for selling not only stylish footwear but also substantial goods. Their stock is up to date and will be found reliable in every particular.

Elegant Gifts at Collier's.

Asa Collier, the reliable jeweler and watch maker, on Park avenue, is providing his many patrons with elegant presents for Christmas and he finds ready sale for his large and fancy stock of silver and goldware. He also keeps a fine stock of watches and in precious stones he has the finest at reasonable prices. It is easy to select gifts from such a stock as that kept by Collier and one makes no mistake in trading at this store.

Will Deliver Christmas Address.

Rev. W. T. Griffin, of LaGrande avenue, U. S. Consul at Limoges, France, will deliver an address on Sunday evening at Trinity Reformed church to the Sunday-school.

BRAVES NOMINATE CHIEFS.

Paughcaughnaughsinque Tribe Held Meeting Last Night—Will Try to Have Big Turnout at Fair.

Paughcaughnaughsinque Tribe of Red Men, met last evening and nominated officers for the election next week, as follows: Sachem, Lawrence Doyle; senior sagamore, Peter McChriskey; junior sagamore, Peter Lund and John Snyder; prophet, F. A. Weber; chief of records, Thomas Osmun; keeper of wampum, A. D. Pope; collector of wampum, F. G. Bach; trustee, Oliver Voorhees and Lawrence Doyle. Preparations were also made for a big turnout at the Red Men's fair in Washington Hall this evening, as a prize Sachem's tomahawk will be presented to tribe with the largest representation present.

TONIGHT'S PROGRAMME.

Attractions at the Red Men's Fair Being Held at Washington Hall This Week.

No decrease was noticed in the attendance at the Red Men's fair at Washibgton Hall last evening, and the patrons continue to enjoy themselves as heartily as upon the first night. The programme last evening was the best yet rendered. It consisted of a boxing bout between the lightweights, Harkins and Baker, clog dancing by the State champion, Clarence Waldron, and another humorous sketch by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hammill, who, have become favorites with the attendants.

This evening a larger crowd is expected than has been present on any previous evening, as a Sachem's tomahawk will be presented to the tribe having the largest representation present. The programme, in addition to the dancing, will include such well-known local entertainers as John H. Carney, in original monologues, and the Wetumpka Trio, Robert M. Clark, Edward O Clark and Joseph Martin. Under the watchful eye of Special Officer Aaron Mattox, the order so far has been perfect and no one need stay away for fear of a boisterous crowd,

FORGOT THE CHANGE.

Man Selling Easels Departed With Ten Dollar Bill and Now is Wanted by Police.

A young man who has been about town selling rustic easels is much wanted by the police. Yesterday the man called at the home of Mrs. Nancy Wheeler, at 228 East Fifth street, and prevailed upon Mrs. O'Reilly, the servant, to purchase one of his ornaments. Mrs O'Reilly handed the man a ten dollar bill, expecting to receive some change. Without a moment's hesitation he ran from the stoop and made his escape, leaving the customer gasping with astonishment at the boldness of the theft. The matter was reported to the police, who are looking for the thief. He is said to be a well known character who has been apprehended on previous occasions.

Funeral of Mrs. Logan.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

New Market, Dec. 20—The funeral services of Mrs. Ann Logan, who died suddenly from heart disease, were held from her late residence on Maple avenue, this afternoon. Rev. Frank Fletcher, pastor of the First Baptist church, of this place, was the officiating clergyman. A large number of friends of the deceased witnessed the services. The bearers were Stanley Day, Sr., Frederick C Holden, John M. Dayton and Philip Jenner. Interment was made in the cemetery at Samptown.

Street Sprinkling Resumed.

Beginning yesterday the sprinkling of the city streets was resumed under orders from Street Commissioner Gavett. The streets have been very dusty during the recent cold spell, but the water froze as fast as it fell and dusty streets were preferable to icy ones. The sprinkling will be continued until there is a storm or the cold weather returns.

Last Day for Borough Taxes.

This is the last day for the payment of taxes in the borough at the office of Collector George F. Brown. He will be in his office until 10 o'clock tonight to receive taxes, and all taxes not paid today or evening, will be returned to a Justice of the Peace for collection. The wise man will save himself the interest on the tax by paying today.

Yale University Closed.

Yale University closed yesterday for the Christmas holidays and the students left for their respective homes. A crowd of Plainfield boys returned from there last evening and more are expected home today.

Bills Against the City.

All bills against the city must be in the hands of the City Clerk by Saturday night in order to ensure payment at the next meeting of the Common Council.

CENTRAL'S NEW FERRY BOATS.

DOUBLE-DECKED STEEL BOATS WILL REDUCE RUNNING TIME.

It is Expected Trip From Jersey City to New York Will Be Made in Ten Minutes.

H. C. Wintringham, naval architect, has the drawings of the Central Railroad of New Jersey's two new double screw ferryboats being built by the Harlan & Hollingsworth Company at Wilmington, Del.

The perspective drawing shows the craft to be in design very much like the Netherlands, Hamburg and Bremen, of the Hoboken line. In fact, Mr Wintringham said they would favor these boats in exterior appearance. They will be sister boats in all particulars and will have no superiors, either in workmanship or speed among the double-deckers on the North river.

They will be equipped with every modern device that other companies have adopted as successful and tending to the additional comfort of the public, which statement was verified by the architect. These are the architect's details of construction: Dimensions, 207 feet long over all; beam, 44 feet; breadth over guards, 65 feet; depth, 17 feet 3 inches. Hull to be built of steel with four watertight bulkheads. Deck to be of steel over each end and over boiler and fireroom. Steering apparatus will be controlled by steam.

With the boats at present in service 12 minutes are allowed between Jersey City and New York, which may be reduced to 10 when the newcomers arrive. The first one will go the Liberty street line early next July, and its running mate in September. The adoption of the double-deck-boats by the Central is the first move toward the erection of an upper deck at the ferryhouse foot of Liberty street to comply with those of the boats, and a bridge across West street similar to that used by the Pennsylvania at Cortlandt street.

MR. JANKE'S RECITAL.

Given By His Pupils, Assisted By Miss Florence Wohlfert, Violinist, Last Night.

Last night's concert at Mr. Janke's studio was devoted to two of his advanced pupils, Miss Clyde B. Burnet and Miss Florence Cahoone, who were offered ample opportunity to show their skill as pianists, acquired under the well known teacher's instruction Both young women, who are studying music professionally, cannot be too highly complimented on the artistic and finished rendering of the difficult compositions of Bach, Schumann, Chopin, Liszt, Grieg and others, all being played by memory. Miss Burnet's brilliancy in playing and Miss Cahoone's exquisite touch and clearness were well appreciated by the large audience, and both young women may consider this applause by music lovers as a reward for their earnest study and practice.

Miss Florence Wohlfert, violinist, a young and very promising pupil of Franz Kattenborn, added greatly to the success of the evening by her fine rendering of compositions of Svendsen and Ries.

Willett Always Pleases.

Christmas specialties in shoes and slippers, around the corner at A Willett & Son's up-to-date store, 107 Park avenue. This firm handles a superior line of footwear and they have a happy faculty of pleasing their many patrons. They sell Haanan's famous shoes for men and women, also the celebrated Queen quality shoes for women. Their stock of slippers of all kinds is complete. After your friends have worn their shoes out in hunting about for your Christmas present, go to Willett & Son, get a pair of their shoes and make your friend a present

Funeral of John C. VanName.

The funeral services of the late John C VanName were held yesterday morning from the residence, 110 Elmwood place, and were attended by relatives and many neighbors. Rev. Dr. D. J. Yerkes, pastor of the First Baptist church, conducted the services, making a few remarks concerning the exemplary Christian character of the departed. The remains were taken away at noon to Grantville, S. I., where they were interred in the afternoon.

Borough School Ready to be Used.

The class rooms at the Somerset street school building, which were damaged by the fire last fall, have been repaired sufficiently to be used. New desks of the adjustable pattern have been placed in position and the rooms are now as good as before the threatening fire. During the Christmas vacation the rooms will be painted and thoroughly renovated.

PUBLIC RENDITION OF "MESSIAH" TONIGHT.

Oratorio Will be Given at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church This Evening.

DOORS WILL OPEN AT 7:30.

ONLY SIDE DOORS AT NORTH END OF CHURCH WILL BE OPEN.

Rendition Will be Exactly Similar to That of Tuesday Evening—Admission Will be Free Without Ticket—Doors Closed When Church is Filled.

The final and public rendition of the Christmas oratorio, "Messiah," will take place this evening in the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church. The service will be free to the public and no seats will be reserved. The service will begin promptly at 8 o'clock and the doors will be opened just a half hour before that time.

Particular attention is called to the fact that only the side doors at the north end of the church, those facing on Watchung and Crescent aveuues, will be opened. As soon as the church is filled to its capacity the doors will be closed. The church is said to seat 1,200. The orders of Chief T.O. Doane, of the fire department, are very strict, and the State law which forbids filling the aisles will be carefully observed. It will therefore be necessary to shut the doors as soon as the seating capacity of the church has been reached.

This evening's service will be exactly similar to that of Tuesday evening except that the chorus work will probably be a trifle improved Tuesday evening's rehearsal giving the needed training for the final rendition. The soloists will be the same as Tuesday night. The soprano will be Miss Alice Merritt, whose birdlike voice was so greatly admired. Miss M. S. Perry, of the Crescent Avenue church choir, is the contralto. She is very popular in this city. E. C. Towne, of New York, is the tenor and Olney Speaks, of New York, is the basso. Their work of Tuesday evening was very satisfactory.

There will be no change in the accompanists. Howard M. Case will preside at the organ, Miss Jessie M. Utter will be at the piano and a small orchestra from the Philharmonic Society, of New York, will assist.

FIGHT OVER MILK ROUTE.

C. E. Wengenroth Charges Davis With Deceiving Him as to the Size of Milk Route.

Charles E. Wengenroth, formerly of Brooklyn, but now of Plainfield, has brought suit in tort against Charles M. Davis, of LaGrande avenue, a former milk dealer. On November 20, Mr. Davis sold his milk route to the plaintiff, representing, the latter says, that he sold eighty quarts of milk a day.

After the route had changed hands Mr. Wengenroth claims that he only sold forty quarts a day. He alleges fraud and deceit and sues Mr. Davis for $200 damages. The case was to have been tried before Justice Moffett yesterday, but was adjourned to December 29. Bruce & Runyon represent the plaintiff, while Murphy & Blatz represents the defendant.

Non-Suit Granted.

In the case of George Berdine against Bernard Clark and John Clark, tried yesterday before Justice Suydam, at New Brunswick, the defendants, represented by Lawyer William Newcorn, were granted a non-suit. This was a case of the plaintiff, a lawyer, suing the defendants for counsel fees in the effort to secure for them a license which was promised them by Daniel Whitlock, of Lincoln. New proceedings will probably be started as the old ones were defective.

New Directory Nearly Completed.

Work upon the new city directory, being compiled by Wand & Co., is nearly completed. It is expected that the directory will be ready for delivery some time next month. The new directory will be the most complete of any heretofore published for this city. Besides containing the names of all residents of the city and borough it will also show the names of the residents of Westfield, Scotch Plains and Dunellen.

Rendered Judgment.

Justice Mattison has rendered a judgment in favor of the plaintiffs in the action of Nischwitz & Kitchen against Lebbus Pack, who was sued on a contract.

Recited at New Brunswick Church.

Miss Etta Raybert, of North avenue, gave several recitations at a Christmas entertainment in the Livingston avenue Baptist church at New Brunswick last evening.

LITERARY.

Chrysanthemums and snow typify the Winter season and The American Queen for January is resplendent in such an exterior. Between this exquisite picture and its back cover are pages devoted to fiction, fashion, fancy work and woman's interests generally. Its fiction is from the pens of Annie Swan, Mrs. E. T. Cook and Hannah B. Mackenzie. Its fashions are the latest copies of Paris, London and New York styles, sketched by Mrs. Jessie Shepherd. Its fancy work is up to the usual mark of excellence and contains many dainty pieces of lace and embroidery, of which patterns are supplied at a nominal sum.

PERSONAL.

AT THE THEATRES.

Something About the Attractions Which Plainfield Theatre-Goers May Care to Witness.

The performances of "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" given by Mr. and Mrs. Webber's fine company on Christmas Day at Music Hall will be nearly continuous, as the number of fine introduced specialties almost constitute a complete entertainment. To allow time for all to be enjoyed there will be no tedious waits or long overtures, everything bright, snappy and full of "go."

The Gilden family of five persons, refined singers, dancers and trick gun manipulators, Harry Webber presenting quaint and amusing character songs, little Irene, the gem of stage children. Thomas Irving and Walter Ernestine will add their quota to the general enjoyable effect, nor a word phrase or gesture exists to offend, but everything to please. A matinee will be given in the afternoon and the company's uniformed band will give a parade and concert.

* * * * *

There is probably no actress on the American stage today who has attained the popularity with the American theatre going public of Miss Maud Adams. In "The Little Minister," Miss Adams made a wonderful reputation for herself and the run of that play was phenominal. This year, Miss Adams has attempted something far more difficult but her success has been continuous. She is now playing the leading role in "L'Aiglon" at the Knickerbocker Theatre, New York, and the demand for tickets has been so great that they have been sold weeks in advance. Next week will close her engagement at the Knickerbocker Theatre after which she will appear in the same play in other of the prominent cities. Miss Adams' success in her new play has been a complete one and those who have seen her in the role of the weak young son of Napolean say that her presentation of the part is even greater than that of "Lady Babbie."

Tortured A Witness.

Intense suffering was endured by witness T. L. Martin, of Dixie, Ky., before he gave this evidence: "I coughed every night until my throat was nearly raw; then tried Dr. King's New Discovery which gave instant relief. I have used it in my family for four years and recommend it as the greatest remedy for Coughs, Colds and all Throat, Chest and Lung troubles. It will stop the worst cough, and not only prevents but absolutly cures Consumption. Price 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at L. W. Randolph's Drug Store.

Will Observe the Day.

The Christmas celebration at Muhlenberg Hospital will be held next week Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and a cordial invitation is extended to all who are interested in the institution. There will be a pleasing programme and the presentation of gifts.

Wardens, Not Deacons.

Robert Kenny and Jas. A. Stafford were elected senior and junior wardens at the meeting of Jerusalem Lodge, No 26, F. and A. M., last Tuesday evening, and not senior and junior deacons as reported.

Many to Spend Christmas in Hospital.

One of the cases that has been at the hospital a long time for treatment is that of Angelo Delago, aged seven years, whose home is on Netherwood avenue. She was admitted last June suffering with hip joint trouble. She will never be able to walk without the aid of crutches and braces. No doubt she and many others at the hospital will be remembered at Christmas time. Possibly two or three now at the institution will be able to leave before next Tuesday, but there will be quite a number at the hospital over Christmas.

IN THE REALM OF SOCIETY.

PERSONAL JOTTINGS COLLECTED IN CITY AND BOROUGH.

George R. Vanderhoef, manager of the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company, is confined to his home on West Front street by an attack of tonsilitis.

Mrs. Norman K. Barnes, who has been at the hospital some time under treatment for disease, is improving every day. She hopes to be able to go home the first of January.

A Woman's Awful Peril.

"There is only one chance to save your life and that is through an operation" were the startling words heard by Mrs. I. B. Hunt of Lime Ridge, Wis., from her doctor after he had vainly tried to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. Gall stones had formed and she constantly grew worse. Then she began to use Electric Bitters which wholly cured her. It's a wonderful Stomach, Liver and Kidney remedy. Cures Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite. Try it. Only 50c. Guaranteed. For Sale by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

READY FOR A VOTE.

Discussion of Hay-Pauncefote Treaty Falls Flat.

TREATY WITH SPAIN TAKEN UP.

Boutelle Resolution Passed by the Senate—House Votes to Compel the Pennsylvania Railroad to Build New Depot at Washington.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Yesterday's executive session of the senate demonstrated that the discussion of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty by that body is practically exhausted and that the senate is ready for the vote, which has been fixed for today. When upon Senator Lodge's motion the doors were closed yesterday and he called up the treaty, no senator evinced a desire to speak upon it.

Without making any special request for speakers Mr. Lodge asked the senate to take up the treaty with Spain providing for the cession to the United States of the Philippine Islands of Sibutu and Cagayan Zulu and their dependencies in consideration of the payment to Spain of $100,000. Objection to this request was made by several senators, including Messrs. Hoar, Wellington and Bacon, and Senator Lodge, with the hope of removing the objections made, went into a brief explanation of the terms of the negotiations.

Senator Hoar said he should like to have more time to consider the question, and Senator Bacon said that notwithstanding he is a member of the committee on foreign relations he had not been present when a report upon the treaty was authorized. He therefore would appreciate further opportunity to go over the document. Senator Wellington made unqualified objection.

Accordingly the treaty was laid aside for the time being.

Congress has authorized the president to appoint Representative Charles A. Boutelle of Maine to be a captain of the United States navy on the retired list. Without a word of opposition, even of comment, the senate passed the house resolution authorizing Mr. Boutelle's retirement.

Aside from the transaction of some routine business and the passage of 71 private pension bills the senate did nothing of importance in open session.

The house at the end of a spirited contest extending over two days passed bills to compel the Pennsylvania and Baltimore and Ohio railroads to abolish grade crossings, to alter their routes into the city and to change their terminal facilities. An amendment was placed upon the Pennsylvania bill to require the road to build a new station to cost not less than $1,500,000.

Sight In Answer to Prayer.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 20.—A remarkable case of entire restoration of sight after years of total blindness comes from Kenton county, Ky., near here. The experience is that of the Rev. J. W. Iles, assistant at the Decoursey Methodist Episcopal church on Decoursey creek. Mr. Iles is 27 years old. At the age of 17 he had an attack of measles and in four years his sight had vanished. He said: "About four years ago I was married without ever having seen my bride. One evening recently after church service a number of the brethren and sisters went to Brother Wade's little log house, and all prayed earnestly for a return of my sight. Two of the friends put their hands on my head, when in the midst of the prayer four scales or cataracts fell off my eyes, and I saw my wife and my little child for the first time in my life."

General Lee at a Banquet.

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 20.—General Fitz-Hugh Lee, commander of the department of the Missouri, last night was the guest of honor at the annual banquet of the Commercial club, given in commemoration of the signing of the John Jay treaty. The banquet, where 330 plates were laid, was the most elaborate ever given by the club. General Lee responded to the toast "Our Country," speaking extemporaneously. General Lee will remain in the city until tomorrow afternoon, when he will continue, with his staff, to Jefferson City, Mo., to inspect the barracks there.

Our Lighthouse Service.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The annual report of the United States lighthouse board shows that at the close of the fiscal year there were under the control of the lighthouse establishment 1,243 lighthouses and beacon lights, 44 light vessels in position, 8 light vessels for relief, 11 electric lighted buoys in position, 82 gas lighted buoys in position, 172 fog signals operated by steam, caloric or oil engines, 1,783 post lights, 496 day beacons, 73 whistling buoys in position, 120 bell buoys in position and 4,794 other buoys, including piles and stakes in the Alaska district.

In Charge of Wilson's Office.

NEWARK, N. J., Dec. 20.—Cyrus J. Cook, who was appointed receiver of the Order of Chosen Friends by the courts in Indianapolis, arrived here yesterday and took charge of the books and effects in the office of the late William B. Wilson, the alleged defaulting supreme treasurer of the order. He also made claim to the funds of the order on deposit in the Essex County National bank. The law firm of A. O. Keasbey & Sons is retained by the receiver to represent him in any litigation that may arise in New Jersey.

Estate of H. Walter Webb.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—The appraisement of the estate of the late H. Walter Webb, which was filed in the surrogate's court of Westchester county, shows the gross estate to be worth $673,725.79, but the deceased gave to his widow $118,000, which was not taxable, leaving the taxable estate $555,725.79. From this comes $4,000, the expense of appraisal.

Governor Wolcott's Condition.

BOSTON, Dec. 20.—Former Governor Wolcott's symptoms were reported by his physician last evening as slightly improved since the earlier bulletin was issued, although his general condition shows no material change. The patient is now in the middle of the typhoid, and the fact that he is no worse is in itself encouraging.

Minnesota's Official Vote.

ST. PAUL, Dec. 20.—The official vote of Minnesota has been announced. For the principal candidates it was: For president—McKinley, 190,461; Bryan, 112,901; McKinley's plurality, 77,560. For governor—Vansant, 157,905; Lind, 150,651; Vansant's plurality, 2,254.

TO STOP INSURRECTION.

General MacArthur Issues a General Warning.

MANILA, Dec. 20.—Today General MacArthur issued a proclamation warning the inhabitants of the archipelago that hereafter strict compliance with the laws of war will be required of noncombatants as well as combatants. The proclamation sets forth the principal laws of war.

It refers to recent proclamations issued by insurgent commanders threatening natives who are friendly to the American forces and also to the orders issued to their men to kidnap and assassinate residents of towns occupied by Americans. The insurgent leaders are notified that such practices, if continued, will put an end to the possibility of their resuming normal civic relations and will make them fugitive criminals.

Residents of places occupied by Americans are notified that compliance with the demands of the enemy will create a presumption that such acts are voluntary and malicious. They are also notified that pleas of intimidation will rarely be accepted and that where secret committees are permitted to exist in behalf of the insurgents even well disposed persons will be exposed to the danger of being tried as traitors.

The proclamation says that its warnings and requirements are to apply with special force to Manila, the "rendezvous of the emissaries of insurrection."

Newspapers are warned against publishing sedition, and the proclamation declares that the rebels who are not part of an organized force are not entitled to the privileges of prisoners of war, adding that the fact that they have not hitherto been held responsible is "evidence of the solicitude of the United States to avoid the appearance of harshness."

The proclamation clearly disavows any recognition of technical belligerency.

HABEAS CORPUS IN CUBA.

Act Takes Effect Today—Dady Fight to Be Carried to Washington.

HAVANA, Dec. 20.—The habeas corpus act of the island will go into effect today. The first case under it will be that of an American of the name of Thompson from Detroit, who is held on telegraphic request under a charge of altering the books of the Standard Life Insurance company. Thompson is represented by a Cuban attorney, and the developments of the case will be watched with interest.

The municipal council voted unanimously to incorporate in the advertisements for bids in connection with the sewering and paving contract the facts of Mr. Michael J. Dady's appraisement and the award of more than $500,000. It is believed that Mayor Rodriguez will veto the whole proceedings. Mr. Dady expects that the fight will be carried to Washington, where Mr. Lemuel Quigg will go immediately. The military government and the engineers generally are disgusted at the outcome.

The special committees of the Cuban constitutional convention are still fighting bitterly over the questions of suffrage and presidential qualifications. Their reports will be delayed, and harmony is doubtful.

Pennsylvania Railways.

HARRISBURG, Dec. 20.—Major Isaac B. Brown, superintendent of the bureau of railways of Pennsylvania, has submitted to Governor Stone his annual report for the fiscal year ending June 30. The report shows a capitalization, including stock, bonds and current liabilities, of $2,965,077,932, with assets of $3,067,955,557, of the 443 steam railways operating in whole or in part in Pennsylvania. These companies have 28,885 miles of road, own 11,747 locomotives, 10,700 passenger cars and 512,048 freight cars. On these roads there were employed during the year 307,737 persons, to whom there was paid during that period $176,762,468 as compensation for services. The trains of these corporations traversed 257,777,050 miles and carried 205,939,884 passengers and 598,995,338 tons of freight.

Strike Declared Off.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Dec. 20.—The strike at the collieries of the Kingston Coal company has been declared off, and the 1,000 employees returned to work this morning. The officials of the company and the committee of strikers were in conference all day yesterday. The company agreed to pay all its employees semimonthly in the future and also allow the miners a check weighman of their own. The toppage and company store questions will be arbitrated in the near future. The strikers demanded the discharge of Foreman Thomas R. Morgan, but it was mutually agreed to refer the matter to the executive branch of the United Mine Workers. It is understood the men are satisfied with the concessions made by the company and will not insist on Morgan severing his connection with the company.

Prince Nicholas Honored.

CETTINJE, Montenegro, Dec. 20.—Yesterday Voyevede Bojo Petrovitch Niegosh, president of the Montenegro council of ministers and minister of the interior, in the presence of the members of the council of state, the cabinet and the diplomatic corps, formally requested Prince Nicholas as a sign of gratitude of the people of Montenegro for his beneficent reign to accept the title of "royal highness." Prince Nicholas accepted, expressing his thanks and referred to the presence of the diplomats as a sign of the friendship of European states for Montenegro.

Serious Freight Wreck.

UTICA, N. Y., Dec. 20.—An M. and M. freight train of 35 cars was wrecked near Trenton, 16 miles from here, last night. Nine cars were derailed, and their contents blocked the tracks for several hours. Brakeman Walter D. Jordan of Utica was injured.

Government Census Sustained.

RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 20.—The police census of the city of Raleigh, taken on account of dissatisfaction with the result of the government census, has been completed. It shows 13,674 people in the city limits, or only 31 more than the government enumeration.

JOINT NOTE COMPLETED.

Ministers In Peking Agree to All the Terms.

PEKING, Dec. 20.—At a meeting of the foreign ministers late last evening everything in regard to the terms of the joint note was agreed to, including the British modifications.

The ministers refuse to disclose anything in connection with the matter, believing that the home governments should give the particulars to the public.

What Caused the Delay.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—It is now learned that the entire misunderstanding which has delayed the consummation of the agreement at Peking was caused by the change or omission of the single digit in a complex group of figures making up one of the cipher messages of instruction to Mr. Conger. Curiously enough the change in this single digit exactly reversed the meaning of the entire message, so that Mr. Conger in opposing the English view was acting exactly contrary to the spirit of his instructions, though in accordance with their letter.

Officials here still decline to make public the text of the note agreed on, but it is believed that the following points cover the essential features of the agreement:

"The punishment of the officials guilty of the Boxer outrages; the payment of indemnity for the wrongs inflicted by the Boxers on the persons, corporations and societies which have suffered; the revision of commercial treaties.

"Some reform in the tsung-li-yamen so that the ministers having business with the foreign office may transact it more expeditiously and with a responsible head.

"A monument to Baron von Ketteler, the German minister who was killed in Peking, and the appointment of a prince of the blood to proceed to Germany to make formal apology to the emperor for the crime.

"The right to keep a legation guard in Peking if this is desired.

"The exclusion of candidates for examination for office for a certain number of years in the case of those who may be guilty of antiforeign activity.

"An interdiction of importation of arms into China and of material to be used exclusively in the manufacture of arms.

"The taking of measures to prevent future troubles."

Some modification, it is believed, was made to the proposed dismantling of forts so that hereafter there will be nothing of this character that will prevent ready access to the legations in Peking.

The Shangtung Railway.

BERLIN, Dec. 20.—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Shangtung Railway company is was reported that the work of construction had not been interrupted by the recent troubles. Fifty-nine kilometers of track have been laid and eight locomotives and 228 freight cars shipped. The section of the line between Kiao-chou and Tsing-tau, a distance of 74 kilometers, will be opened for traffic next April.

HELD FOR A RANSOM.

Son of Millionaire Cudahy Kidnaped In Omaha.

POLICE SCOUR CITY AND COUNTRY.

A Mysterious Horseman Leaves a Note at Front Gate Saying the Boy Is Safe and Will Be Returned In Consideration of $25,000.

OMAHA, Dec. 20.—Edward Cudahy, Jr., 15 years old, son of Edward A. Cudahy, millionaire packer and head of the Cudahy Packing company of Omaha, is missing from his home in this city, and his parents believe he has been kidnaped. The entire police and detective force of the city and half a hundred men employed by Mr. Cudahy have been scouring the city and country throughout the day in hopes of locating the young man or securing a clew which would lead to a knowledge of his whereabouts, but without success. Business at Mr. Cudahy's packing plant in South Omaha was practically suspended yesterday, nearly the entire force there joining in the search. The boy's parents are distracted at his disappearance, and the father has offered to pay a substantial reward and no questions asked if his son shall be returned to his home. An anonymous letter has been received at the Cudahy home substantiating the fears of the family that he has been kidnaped.

Young Cudahy left home at 8 o'clock Tuesday night to take some books to the residence of Captain Rustin, about two blocks distant, and that was the last seen of him. As midnight arrived and he did not return the police were notified, and two detectives were detailed to work on the case. It was not until nearly 9 o'clock yesterday morning, however, that the matter began to assume a really serious aspect. At that hour a man on horseback rode rapidly by the Cudahy mansion, and as he passed the front gate he threw a letter into the yard. A servant took the letter into the house, where it was read. It was in substance:

"Mr. E. A. Cudahy—Your son is safe. We have him and will take good care of him and will return him to you in consideration of the payment of $25,000. We mean business. JACK."

The remainder of the note the police refuse at present to disclose, as they say it relates to the place where the money is to be left and where the kidnapers are to leave the boy in case Mr. Cudahy complies with their terms. The servant who saw the man on horseback was able to give a good description of him, and this is the clew upon which the police are working at present.

Of a studious turn of mind, the young man was much devoted to his home and was idolized by his parents, being the only boy in a family of five children. Mr. Cudahy says he is willing to pay a liberal reward for the return of his son. As to the anonymous letter, however, he is undecided as to whether it emanates from the kidnapers or from some crank who threw it in the yard with no purpose other than creating a furore.

As to the methods employed in the kidnaping but little is known at present, but it is believed by some that young Edward was decoyed away through the instrumentality of a boy about his own age, as two youths, one of whom answered the description of young Cudahy, were seen on a Leavenworth street car west bound shortly before midnight.

The Lawson Yacht.

BOSTON, Dec. 20.—The model of the cup defender from Boston prepared from Mr. Crowninshield's plans was shown by George F. Lawley, the boatbuilder, to the advisory board of the yacht syndicate yesterday afternoon, and after some minor changes had been suggested the model was approved. The boat will have at least three suits of sails. Mr. Lawley has begun work on the laying out of the new boat at his shops in South Boston. Mr. Lawley has examined the 90 foot fin keel Jubilee at his yard and reports that it would cost a great deal of money to put her into shape to act as a trial horse.

Clerk Wheeler Exonerated.

BOSTON, Dec. 20.—Michael A. Wheeler, the postoffice clerk who was arrested by inspectors on the charge of stealing from the mail, has been discharged on request of the postoffice authorities. Inspector George S. Evans made public a statement saying that a thorough investigation of the case had satisfied the inspectors that Mr. Wheeler was entirely innocent of the charge and that he stands today an honest man and has been reinstated in his position in the postoffice.

Closed on Account of Smallpox.

JERSEY CITY, Dec. 20.—One of the public schools in this city was closed yesterday because of the prevalence of smallpox in the city. On Tuesday a pupil was stricken, and as a brother and sister of the lad attended the school the closing of it was determined on. Two hundred of the 1,600 pupils were vaccinated.

Kicked to Death by a Horse.

Population of German Cities.

BERLIN, Dec. 20.—The census shows 33 cities with populations exceeding 100,000, whose aggregate, including Essen, is 9,077,034, or an increase of 1,151,882 since 1895. The rapidity of the returns is due to the use of electrical tabulating machines.

Mayor Harrison Approves Law.

CHICAGO, Dec. 20.—Mayor Harrison has revoked all permits for prizefights issued prior to the passage of the anti-fight ordinance by the city council Monday night. The mayor's action puts an end to stories that he would not approve the new law.

No Sympathetic Strike.

CHICAGO, Dec. 20.—The committee representing the engineers, firemen, conductors and trainmen of the Santa Fe railway system declared last night that they would not advise a strike in sympathy with the telegraphers.

Garrison to Be Retained.

OSWEGO, N. Y., Dec. 20.—It is announced here that through the efforts of Congressman Shaw the garrison is to be retained at Fort Ontario. New quarters will be built and hospital buildings erected.

Board of Trade Project.

If the Board of Trade is really in earnest in its attempt to advance the interests of the city, as it seems to be, it certainly deserves the assistance of every good citizen. The public at large, particularly that portion of it which lives in the city of New York, has not the proper idea of this city and the advantages it offers to the home-seekers. The only way in which Plainfield may be properly represented is by judicious advertising and that is what the Board of Trade desires to do.

The project, as suggested by the Board, is that the city of Plainfield appropriate $1,500, the borough of North Plainfield $500, and that $1,000 be raised by popular subscription. This fund of $3 000 is to be used to advertise Plainfield and North Plainfield. It is claimed by the Board of Trade that a law in this State permits the governing body of a municipality to appropriate a certain amount every year for the presentation of the city's interests to the public. Assuming that such a law is in existence, a petition has been drawn up and will be presented to the Common Council asking for an appropriation of $1,500 for the work.

It is impossible to tell how the plan will strike the members of the Common Council, as none have yet expressed themselves on the subject. The Councilmen are known to be in favor of advancing the interests of the city as much as possible, but it is a question whether they will feel justified in appropriating such an amount as the Board of Trade has asked for.

In theory, the plan seems an excellent one. Properly advertised Plainfield is bound to grow rapidly and every citizen and property owner is sure to realize some advantage from its healthy growth. Particularly does this apply to the local merchants as an increased popoulation will mean an increased trade for them.

It is the practical working out of the plan which may trouble the Councilmen. It is no little thing to plan a campaign to properly advertise any large interest. It requires experience and judgment. No matter how great the desire to benefit Plainfield, improper management of such an undertaking would be valueless to the city and the expenditure of the funds from the city treasury under such circumstances would reflect seriously on the Council. It will therefore be well for the Council, should it decide to make any such appropriation, to carefully provide for proper control of the fund by experienced hands as any such expenditure without reasonable returns would undoubtedly bring much criticism to the door of the Council.

It would have been pleasant if the honor of leadership in the lower house of the State Legislature had come to Assemblyman Charles S. Foote, of this city. Mr. Foote would have undoubtedly filled the place with satisfaction to his fellow Assemblymen and credit to Union county and Plainfield. Vivian M. Lewis, the young man from Passaic, is said to be a clever speaker and well fitted for the place. Mr. Foote showed his agreement in the choice when he seconded the motion to make the election unanimous.

It will only be fair to the music loving public of Plainfield if those who were present at the public rehearsal of the "Messiah" Tuesday evening will not attend the public service tonight and allow others, who were not fortunate enough to be present at the rehearsal, to attend.

Christmas is less than a week away. Those who are wise will not wait until the last day before buying their Christmas gifts but will visit some of the local stores this week and look over the fine displays now to be seen.

The campaign against Tammany in New York City is furnishing no end of excitement and the end is not yet in view.

WHAT OTHERS SAY.

Clippings From Other Newspapers Which May Be Of Interest to Plainfield and Its Citizens.

While there has been no discussion of a probable successor to Justice Ludlow, it is not likely that the berth will go to Senator Charles A. Reed, of Somerset, who has been a very active aspirant to the Supreme Court bench for some years, and who is generally regarded among Republicans as being next in line for such an appointment. Senator Reed, however, is a Republican, and the judiciary of the State is already very strongly flavored with representatives of that particular faith. This will undoubtedly operate against Senator Reed, as there is little likelihood of the Governor appointing any one but a Democrat to the place.—New Brunswick Times.

TEA TABLE TALK.

Short and Gossipy Sketches That Are Not Always News, But Just as Interesting.

The wisdom displayed by the authorities of the borough in having the streets sprinkled the past summer, has been shown by the fine condition in which they are left as winter approaches. It has developed that a great saving to the taxpayer has resulted in expending money for this very important improvement. One man whose taxes this year were about three dollars in excess of last year, has admitted that he is perfectly satisfied with the increase. He told a friend that he had saved a dollar by having the borough do the sprinkling. This year his taxes, owing to the sprinkling, were increased by nearly three dollars, but as last year he paid four dollars to a private individual to have the street in front of his house sprinkled, he figures that he has saved just one dollar by the new order of things. Besides he has had better service without the least trouble.

The most startled man in Plainfield Tuesday night was "Charlie" Cook, the oldest employe of The Daily Press, who during more than a decade has looked after the furnace and acted as night watchman of the establishment.

"Charlie's" astonishment came about three minutes after the alarm of fire had been sent in from box 13—that unlucky number. The faithful Mr. Cook was engaged in the industrious occupation of burning refuse paper. He was oblivious to the fact that some over zealous individual had turned in an alarm for what he supposed to be a fire in the press room.

The first thing "Charlie" Cook knew was when a couple of firemen ran into the basement.

"What you men want here," exclaimed the composed Mr. Cook, as he noticed some of Chief Doane's plucky fire-fighters surrounding him

"Where's the fire?" queried one of the men casting his eyes quickly about the basement and ready to give battle to the flames.

"There ain't no fire here" said "Charlie," gazing over his glasses at the men while a scornful expression overspread his face. "Say, can't a man burn up a few papers without having all this fuss? Why I've been burning up papers under furnaces for more than thirty years and never had any trouble 'fore. There ain't no fire here but this one in the furnace and I guess that's doin' more good than harm. You fellows might just as well take up that hose o' your'n and go back to headquarters."

The fire laddies realized that the alarm was a false one and they reluctantly took their departure. Then "Charlie" Cook leaned against one of the large presses and said things to himself, some of which might not sound well in print.

—Neuman Brothers are selling Florida oranges, Indian Rivers, by the box at prices which are unusually low.

—VanArsdale has a nice variety of of ladies' slippers and Oxfords for evening dress, in the newest and best selling styles.

—The advertisement of the Young Men's Christian Association which appears in another column of this paper, suggests a suitable Christmas gift for a young man or boy.

—Many persons have had the experience of Mr. Peter Sherman, of North Stratford, N. H., who says: "For years I suffered torture from chronic indigestion, but Kodol Dyspepsia Cure made a well man of me." It digests what you eat and is a certain cure for dyspepsia and every form of stomach trouble. It gives relief at once even in the worst cases, and can't help but do you good. L. W. Randolph.

Gentlemen:—I must say in regard to GRAIN-O that there is nothing better or healthier. We have used it for years. My brother was a great coffee drinker. He was taken sick and the doctor said coffee was the cause of it, and told us to use GRAIN-O. We got a package but did not like it at first, but now would not be without it. My brother has been well ever since we started to use it.

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence.)

Dunellen, Dec. 20—The Elizabeth Board of Presbytery is in session at the Presbyterian church this afternoon, arranging all details for the installation of Rev. N. J Sproull. The minister who is to deliver the sermon this evening is to be definitely decided upon. As stated yesterday it will probably be Rev. Mr. Cadwell, of Westfield. Rev. Mr. Tyack, of Hightstown, who is a member of the Monmouth Presbytery, which Mr. Sproull leaves, will deliver the charge to the people. The charge to the pastor will be delivered by Rev. Mr. Swain, of Allentown, Pa.

Now that Garretson & Gray are about to open their new quarry, which will probably be in the spring, plans for their proposed tramway will soon be ready. The tramway will be used in transporting stone from the quarry to the railroad, as fully described in The Press some time ago. It will reach the railroad at West Dunellen.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Aus der Rheinpfalz.

Speyer. Die Schullehrer-Wittwen- und Waisenanstalt der Pfalz hatte im Jahre 1899 133,591 Mark Einnahmen, 128,951 Mark Ausgaben. Der Vermögensstand Ende 1899 belief sich auf 518,599 Mark. Am Schlusse des Jahres 1899 betrug die Zahl der Wittwen 492, die der einfachen Waisen 199, der Doppel-Waisen 48.

Landau. Um den minderbemittelten Baulustigen unter die Arme zu greifen, hat der Verband pfälzischer Sparkassen auf seiner Tagung anhier beschlossen, den Kassen zu empfehlen, so weit es ihre Ueberschüsse gestatten, die Wohnungsfrage der arbeitenden Klassen praktisch zu fördern. Es soll ein Zusammenwirken der Versicherungsanstalt der Pfalz mit den Verbandssparkassen nach dem hannoverischen Vorbilde angestrebt werden.

Zeiskam. Auf einer Treibjagd gab der Jagdhüter Georg Theobald Hoffmann einen Schuß auf einen Hasen ab, traf aber unglücklicher Weise den Treiber Peter Meider dermaßen in den Unterleib, daß der Tod des Jungen alsbald erfolgte. Der unglückliche Schütze wurde verhaftet.

Württemberg.

Stuttgart. Eine Abtheilung des bereits über ganz Deutschland verbreiteten Vereins „Frauenbildung-Frauenstudium" ist neulich auch in Stuttgart gegründet worden mit zunächst 88 Mitgliedern. Frau Gertrud Schwendi-Urkull, Vorsteherin des Stuttgarter Mädchengymnasiums, wurde der Vorsitz übertragen.

Friedrichshafen. Das Zeppelin'sche Luftschiff ist in seiner Ballonhalle am Lande bei Marzell am Bodensee verankert worden und wird dort überwintern. Alle Angestellten bis auf drei, die zur Bewachung der Ballonhalle nöthig, sind entlassen worden.

Oberndorf. Bei Schießversuchen auf dem Schießplatz der hiesigen Waffenfabrik leistete der 45jährige Fabrikarbeiter Kopai als Zeiger Dienste. Unvorsichtiger Weise betrat er in dem Augenblicke die Schießbahn, als ein Schütze auf die Zielscheibe abfeuerte. Von zwei Kugeln in den Kopf getroffen, stürzte Kopai todt zusammen.

Ulm. Am Rathhausneubau stürzte aus unbekannter Ursache eine Mauer plötzlich ein. Von drei Arbeitern, die im Erdgeschoß beschäftigt waren, konnten sich zwei noch retten. Der dritte, ein 32 Jahre alte Tagelöhner Namens Balthaser Durner, wurde unter den Trümmern begraben und später als Leiche aus diesen hervorgezogen.

Baden.

Karlsruhe. Die Arbeitslosigkeit hat am hiesigen Platze große Dimensionen angenommen. Laut einer Mittheilung des Arbeitsnachweis-Bureaus konnten im letzten Monate von 3669 Arbeitsuchenden nur 1047 eingestellt werden. Das Arbeitsnachweis-Bureau ermahnte zugleich die Arbeiter, ihre Stellen nicht eher zu verlassen, bis ihnen eine andere Stelle fest zugesichert sei, da die Arbeitslosigkeit voraussichtlich noch länger andauern werde.

Heidelberg. Vor Kurzem wurde die seit etlichen Tagen vermißte, etwa 35 Jahre alte Ehefrau des Handelsmannes Heckmann aus Eiterbach im Walde mit Stich- und Schußwunden ermordet aufgefunden. Der übelbeleumundete Schwager der Ermordeten, Tagelöhner Heckmann, wurde als der That dringend verdächtig verhaftet.

Mannheim. In einer Sitzung des Stadtraths wurde auf Grund der mit dem Maschinenfabrikdirektor Lautenschläger aus München gepflogenen Verhandlungen beschlossen, die längst als dringlich nothwendig bezeichnete Umgestaltung der Bühne des großherzoglichen Hoftheaters, das heißt die Herstellung eines feststehenden eisernen Bühnenober- und Unterbaues mit elektromotorischem Antrieb auszuführen, wofür einschließlich der aus diesem Anlasse anzuschaffenden neuen Dekorationen 452,030 Mark erforderlich sind.

Pforzheim. Dahier wurden sechs Personen, darunter zwei kleine Bijouteriefabrikanten, verhaftet, von denen die letzteren verdächtig sind, gestohlenes Gold im Gesammtwerth von 30,000 bis 40,000 Mark den anderen vier Verhafteten abgekauft zu haben, obwohl sie wußten, daß es unrechtmäßig erworben war. Der eine der beiden Hehler ist ein schon mehrfach bestrafter Mann, der erst vor wenigen Jahren betrügerischen Bankerott gemacht hatte.

Elsaß-Lothringen.

Straßburg. Das augenblicklich in Schlettstadt garnisonirende Rheinische Jägerbataillon Nr. 8 wird nach Ars verlegt. Die Militärverwaltung hat bei Ars bedeutende Ländereien angekauft für den Bau zweier Kasernen, von denen eine für das Rheinische Jägerbataillon bestimmt ist. Gegenwärtig ist zur Bedienung der Maschinengewehre, mit denen umfangreiche Schießversuche gemacht werden, eine Kompagnie der Rheinischen Jäger kommandirt.

Metz. In der Angelegenheit der Stadterweiterung richtete der Festungsgouverneur an die Handelskammer eine Zuschrift, wonach der jetzige Hafen nebst Hafenkanal alsbald zugeschüttet und die Anlage des provisorischen Hafens bei Montigny in Angriff genommen werden könne, um die schleunige Durchführung der Stadterweiterung und der damit verbundenen Bahnanlagen zu ermöglichen.

A Nebraska ranchman recently sent East a gratifying piece of news in a letter to his son, who is a New York State agent on the Delaware & Hudson Canal Co., Northern R. R. Department. "While on a visit to my father last May," explains the son, "I gave him a package of Ripans Tabules, with which I am always supplied. He had been for a long time afflicted with dyspepsia, due no doubt to the exposure and irregularities necessitated by his business. The Tabules seemed to relieve him, and on my return East I sent him a dozen packages. He writes that he has ordered more, and that for the first time in five years is able to eat and sleep naturally and well. He is enthusiastic in praise of the Tabules."

WANTED—A case of bad health that R·I·P·A·N·S will not benefit. They banish pain and prolong life. One gives relief. Note the word R·I·P·A·N·S on the package and accept no substitute. R·I·P·A·N·S, 10 for 5 cents, may be had at any drug store. Ten samples and one thousand testimonials will be mailed to any address for 5 cents, forwarded to the Ripans Chemical Co., No. 10 Spruce St., New York.

A New Back for An Old One—How It Is Done In Plainfield.

Sometimes the back aches with a dull indescribable feeling making you weary and restless; sometimes pain shoots across the region of the kidneys and again the loins are so lame to stoop is agony. No use plastering the back in this condition. You cannot reach the case. To exchange a bad back for a new and stronger one, Follow the example of this Plainfield citizen.

Mr. Charles Giese, Cigar Manufacturer of 25 Elm Place says: "I was subject to attacks of kidney complaint for 2 or 3 years. Most of the pain was in my back and hips and I could not stoop or straighten without feeling sharp, shooting twinges. When I sat for any length of time I grew stiff and sore and was compelled to get up and move about. I grew so bad I had to do something for it. I had read a great deal about Doan's Kidney Pills being such good medicine for kidney troubles so I got a box of them at L. W. Randolph's drug store. I used them according to directions and after 2 or 3 days I felt better. I continued their use until the pain disappeared."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co. Buffalo N. Y. sole agents for the U. S

A Kind Word for William.

"Shakespeare didn't have the genius to make a million dollars," remarked the servile citizen.

"No," answered the millionaire who has been flattered before. "But let us not look down on Shakespeare. Let us give him credit for having sense enough to be comfortable and happy without demanding such an immense amount of capital for the enterprise."—Washington Star.

Guards the Chickens Well.

According to an American the best guardian for poultry is a Scotch collie. It is readily taught to guide ducks, geese, etc., to their feeding grounds and bring them back. The collie, it appears, takes a lively interest in the work, and his courage makes him a good protector.—London Mail.

Mourning Lost Portraits.

The Corean court has gone into mourning for three days because the portraits of the imperial ancestors were destroyed in the recent conflagration. All officialdom will robe itself in white, and the inmates of the palace will wear sackcloth and fare roughly.—Japan Mail.

WINTER MILLINERY.

Hats and Their Trimmings—Gold Ornaments and Accessories.

This winter's hats are more often large than small and are not very voluminous, the trimming being rather compact in effect. Hats of black velvet are much in the mode and are extremely useful, as they can well accompany any gown. Velvet flowers, ostrich plumes, embroidered gauze, and especially buckles and gold embroidery or gold lace, are immensely used as trimming. Hats covered with draped tulle or mousseline de soie are veiled in open lace of gold thread or in heavy cut embroidery of gold. Big choux of gold lace are employed in decoration and draperies of plain gold net or opaque gold tissue.

The cut shows a gown of royal blue velvet. The skirt forms a train and opens in front with large revers of light blue silk embroidered with blue and silver. The lower skirt is also of light blue silk, with a wide band of cream guipure insertion near the foot. The tight bodice of blue velvet has a group of plaits at the middle of the back and at each side of the front, where they meet at the waist under a silver clasp. The plastron of light blue silk has groups of horizontal tucks. There are tight sleeves of blue velvet with puffs of light blue silk at the elbow and wrists. A wide band of cream guipure is carried across the front and also around the upper part of the sleeves. The blue velvet hat is trimmed with the same material and with light blue plumes and buckles. JUDIC CHOLLET.

WINTER WRAPS.

A Great Variety of Outer Garments Now Seen.

It is not every year that so much liberty is allowable in the matter of jackets and coats. Usually when short or long ones are in vogue those of half length are prohibited and vice versa, but this year the bolero, the jacket with a short basque, the half length coat or sack and the full length redingote or coat are all worn.

The sack certainly has its uses. For traveling it is warm and convenient, easy to put on and off and allows full liberty of movement, unlike the cape or raglan. It conceals the figure, to be sure, and is less smart and natty than the coat in consequence, but for circumstances in which comfort, warmth and convenience are the chief considerations it is entirely suitable. The high flaring collar is almost an invariable accompaniment, and a capuchon or one, two or three pelerines are a frequent addition. The double breasted sacks are the more attractive and are usually fastened with two rows of large pearl or horn buttons.

A picture is given of a bolero of gray cloth having a novel effect by reason of its decoration. This consists of wide stitched bands of cloth of a lighter shade of gray which not only follow the edge of the bolero, but are carried across it in two horizontal bars, back and front. The sleeves are of the pagoda form, bordered with a similar stitched band, and a band also runs down the outside of the arm, and two bands encircle it. The flaring collar is faced with the lighter stitched cloth. The chemisette, folded belt and fringed cravat are of gray crepe de chine. The toque of draped gray velvet is trimmed with sable fur and a small animal head. JUDIC CHOLLET.

THE BOOZ INQUIRY.

Cadets Testify Before War Board Regarding Hazing at West Point.

WEST POINT, Dec. 20.—The board of inquiry appointed by the secretary of war to examine into the death of Cadet Oscar L. Booz of Pennsylvania, which, it has been charged, was caused by hazing he got while a first year man at the Military academy, resumed its work yesterday. Promptly at 9:30 o'clock the board met in the spacious room in the north wing of the new academy building. The board, which is composed of Major General Brooke and Brigadier Generals Bates and Clous, entered the inquiry room at 9:20 o'clock, and after a ten minute private conversation with Colonel Hein and Colonel Mills, respectively the commandant and superintendent of the academy, got down to business.

The thread of the examination was picked up where it was dropped Tuesday night. The witnesses were all second class men, members of the class to which Cadet Booz belonged. There are 68 of them in the academy, and only 14 were examined at Tuesday's session. They were all ready in their full dress uniforms of gray, black and gold in an anteroom and came out one by one as they were summoned by a sergeant of artillery kept in waiting to act as messenger. Each cadet kept the stand for about ten minutes. The tenor of their answers to all questions pertaining to Booz indicated that his conduct in his fight with Cadet Keller had cost him the good opinion of his fellow classmen, and it was clear that they had no sympathy for him. When asked if "bracing" and "stretching" and other exercises commonly thought to be hazing were still practiced at the academy, they invariably said "yes." They always acknowledged the part they themselves bore in such affairs, but forgot the names of other participants. Occasionally one cadet would give the name of a man out of the service.

Girl Burned to Death.

VINELAND, N. J., Dec. 20.—Amelia Montfort, daughter of Peter Montfort of Landisville, a small place a few miles outside of this place, was burned fatally just as she was about to go to bed. She started to her room with a lighted lamp, and it exploded, setting fire to her clothing. Her screams attracted her parents, who tried to extinguish the flames with coats and rugs. In spite of their efforts the young girl received such frightful burns that she died a few hours afterward. Her father and mother were also badly burned while trying to save their daughter.

Explosion In New York Herald Office.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Three employees in the engraving department of the New York Herald were injured last night by the explosion of a can of benzine. They were taken to the New York hospital. Other employees put out the fire. The injured men are Herman Sorensen, Charles Hennessey and Frederick Scheele. Hennessey's condition is serious. A wooden partition in the engraving department was blown down by the explosion, and there was a general exodus of employees from all parts of the building.

Fire at Columbia, S. C.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 20.—Columbia last night sustained the heaviest loss from a single fire since the city was burned in 1865. The fire started in the kitchen of the Hotel Jerome, and this new building was destroyed. The J. M. Vanmaker furniture store adjoining, three floors packed with fine goods, is a total loss. The carriage factory of V. Myers in the rear was consumed, with a number of smaller buildings. The loss will be more than $200,000.

General Greene Declines.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—General Francis Vinton Greene, chairman of the Republican county committee, has declined re-election as chairman of the Republican county committee for the year 1901. General Greene in a letter to Chairman Ten Eyck of the executive committee says he cannot give the office the close personal attention it requires. General Greene's declination is said by the members of the executive committee to come as a great surprise.

Bitten by a Boar.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Dec. 20.—Richard Adams, residing about three miles west of Chenango Forks, was bitten by a vicious boar on Monday and now is so crazed by the shock and poison of the bites that he will probably die. His legs and thighs were badly lacerated, and the animal had to be beaten off with clubs.

Bees Considered Harmless to Fruit.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Dec. 20.—"No cause of action" was the verdict rendered by the jury at Goshen in the famous case of William H. Utter, a peach grower, against his brother, Jeffrey Utter, a bee keeper, for alleged damages to a peach orchard from bees. Much scientific testimony was produced by experts on both sides.

Killed by Tarantula's Bite.

MOUNT VERNON, N. Y., Dec. 20.—William C. Grifling, 52 years old, is dead at his home in New Rochelle. Several months ago while traveling in Florida he was bitten by a tarantula. The bite, it is believed, poisoned his blood and led to the disease which caused his death.

Killed by a Burglar.

HOUSTON, Dec. 20.—Charles F. Stone, an insurance man, was shot and killed by a burglar in his room. Stone fired at the man and missed. The thief then shot him above the heart and escaped.

By a city ordinance, it is provided that no dog shall be permitted to run at large within the city limits, unless a good and sufficient muzzle shall be placed over the mouth of said dog in such manner as to render biting impossible. If any person permits or suffers any dog owned or harbored by him and not so muzzled to run at large, the ordinance provides that he shall upon conviction be punished by a fine not exceeding ten dollars for each offense.

Any person prepared to make complaint under oath of any violation of this ordinance may apply to the subscriber and have prosecution begun forthwith.

ALTOGETHER TOO SHY.

Queer Excuse Given by a Pretty Girl for Whom the Bridegroom Waited Long in Vain.

Mary Pliska, shy as a chamois, donned her wedding dress at her home in New Britain, Conn., the other evening and made all preparations to accompany her parents to the cozy little home that Michael Neidboler had prepared for her and there to be married to him.

Michael and his friends were waiting. It was to be an eventful marriage, for Mary was pretty and Michael was popular. When the bride and her parents were not on hand at the appointed moment, the prospective bridegroom was made the object of jests. He laughed with the jesters.

AND THERE HE FOUND MARY.
(Connecticut Girl Who Was Too Shy to Be Married.)

When five minutes had passed the jests became more pointed and the shafts of witticism sank deeper, but still Michael laughed. When ten minutes had passed, and then 15 minutes, and then half an hour, Michael was decidedly uneasy.

Then a messenger handed a note to Michael. He suddenly left, without giving an excuse, and went directly to the home of Papa and Mamma Pliska. They were in a state of great excitement.

They could not find Mary! She had robed herself in her wedding gown with her mother's assistance, and then, when her mother left to put on her hat, Mary mysteriously disappeared.

Michael thought deeply. At last he asked the parents if they had gone to the home of a chum of Mary. They had not. But they were sure she had not gone there. Nevertheless, Michael got into a carriage and drove rapidly to the home of Mary's chum.

And there he found Mary—all dressed in her bridal robes, with a bunch of real orange blossoms in her hair, crying her pretty eyes out.

Michael asked her why she had not come to the house. She cried in answer. He asked her again; and then, amid her sobs, she told him she had feared to face the crowd that would witness the ceremony.

Michael left without a word. He drove back to his cottage, told the guests what had happened and that the wedding was off. Some of them suggested that he take the priest to the home of Mary's chum and be married there. But Michael told them he did not care to marry a girl who had insulted him before his friends.

And the marriage ceremony has never been performed.

FAITH IN BALDWIN.

Millionaire Ziegler, Who Will Spend a Fortune on Expedition, Confident He Will Reach Pole.

William Ziegler, the New York baking powder manufacturer, who is willing to spend $1,000,000 on the Baldwin expedition to the north pole, which will start next year, says he is sure Baldwin will not return without having reached the pole. "I am a business man," he said, in an interview in

WILLIAM ZIEGLER.
(Baking Powder Magnate Back of the Baldwin Expedition.)

New York, "and accustomed to look at things only from a business standpoint. If I did not feel absolutely sure that this expedition will be successful I would not waste my money and Mr. Baldwin would not waste his time. The race to get to the north pole first is not a race between two or three men; it is a race between nations. I do not want to see an Italian or a Norwegian reach the north pole first. I think this country is great enough and progressive enough to have that honor. It is simply a matter of national pride with me. I have every conndence in Mr. Balwin. He is a man of determination and will to get to the pole if it is within human power to do so. He will not turn back and come home."

KNOX GIVES UP CHASE

Invasion of Cape Colony Causes Consternation.

DE WET'S ARMY STRENGTHENED.

Said to Have Force of 4,500 Men Northeast of Ladybrand—Attack on Winburg Expected—London War Office Reticent.

LONDON, Dec. 20.—It is reported that General Knox has been forced to abandon the pursuit of General De Wet owing to the situation created in Cape Colony by the Boers crossing the Orange river. It is said that 3,000 republicans have entered Cape Colony and that a considerable number have reached Philipstown.

The report adds that De Wet, with about 4,500 men, is northeast of Ladybrand and that an attack on Winburg is momentarily expected.

The British losses at Nooitgedacht, according to the official accounts, were 82 killed and wounded, with 44 missing and still unaccounted for.

The war office last evening could give no information regarding the reports of a Boer invasion of Cape Colony. The officials expressed the opinion, however, that the newspaper accounts were exaggerated and that probably the troops who have been employed in chasing General De Wet will be diverted to deal with the invaders. Having regard to the customary methods of the war office, this can only be interpreted as confirming the reports.

Lord Kitchener in the meantime keeps a tight rein over the news, which increases the public disquietude. There is a persistent rumor that he has demanded heavy re-enforcements.

According to The Daily Mail, private telegrams received in London yesterday depict the situation in Cape Colony as somewhat ominous. It seems that the invading Boers are receiving considerable assistance from the local Dutch and that the troops at the disposal of the British authorities are not sufficient to cope with any serious spread of the military operations.

It is believed that the government has at last awakened to the seriousness of the situation and is making the utmost efforts to provide Lord Kitchener with horses and mules.

Funeral of Lawyer Beaman.

WINDSOR, Vt., Dec. 20.—The funeral of Charles C. Beaman, a member of the law firm of Evarts, Choate & Beaman of New York city, took place at St. Paul's church here yesterday. The body reached this town Tuesday and was taken to his late home in Cornish, N. H., where a brief service was held. The services were conducted by the Rev. Edward H. Goddard of Windsor, assisted by the Rev. Edward Parks of Calvary church, New York city, and the Rev. Prescott Evarts, who is a brother of Mrs. Beaman. The interment was in the Evarts family lot in the Ascutney cemetery. The Beaman family were all present with the exception of the eldest daughter, Mrs. Holmes, who has just arrived in Italy.

Pingree's Pardon Upheld.

LANSING, Mich., Dec. 20.—The supreme court has unanimously overruled the demurrer filed by Attorney General Oren to General Arthur F. Marsh's plea for a dismissal of his pending appeal from his conviction in the circuit court on the charge of complicity in the state military frauds. The court holds that Governor Pingree's pardon of General Marsh, under which Marsh asked for the dismissal of his case, is valid. Attorney General Oren's demurrer alleged that the pardon was defective.

Large Fruit Crop.

ALBION, N. Y., Dec. 20.—Orleans county harvested this year the biggest apple crop in its history, a full million barrels being put up. In addition to great quantities of bulk fruit shipped early in the season the largest growers contracted for orchards at $1 per barrel for the fruit, but later prices advanced until $2.50 was finally paid. No fruit was wasted, even windfalls being barreled at $1 and $1.50 and shipped to cities for immediate consumption.

Gifts to Wellesley.

WELLESLEY, Mass., Dec. 20.—At the close of the college term for the Christmas recess President Caroline Hazard of Wellesley college announced donations to the institution aggregating more than $100,000. The names of the donors are not given. One of the benefactions is $5,000 toward a gymnasium, the interest on $50,000 to endow the work of the biblical history and literature professorship and $50,000 to endow the Kimball professorship of art.

A Conditional Gift From Rockefeller

BELLOWS FALLS, Vt., Dec. 20.—Vermont academy, at Saxtons River, five miles from here, has received a communication stating that John D. Rockefeller will make a gift of $15,000 to the school, provided $75,000 additional be raised by the institution. An appeal has resulted in subscriptions aggreg

SPORTING.

STRIKES AND SPARES.

Daily Press Bowling League.

	Won.	Lost.
Westfield Club	4	2
Cranford Casino	3	3

The bowling team of the Park Club will go to Roselle this evening to roll three games with the Casino team, of that place, in The Daily Press Bowling League. It is now a question as to which of those two teams is going to bring up the rear of the column of contestants in the league. With the old team Roselle was invincible on its own alleys, but a number of new men have been put on that team and there is a chance for the Parks to get one and possibly two games out of the series. The Park Club will probably be represented by Fred O. Ball, William B Faber, Morgan T. Townsend, Ralph T. Willis and Laurens H Van-Buren. Captain Allan B. Laing will accompany the team but he is not rolling in good form at present and so will not take part in the games unless one of the other players should fall down in his game.

The annual head-pin bowling tournament at the Westfield Club alleys is now in progress. There are four classes open to the member of any club in Union county. The first prize for the first class (250) is a Morris reclining chair; second prize, parlor lamp. The winner of the second class (209) will receive a handsome pipe or a ton of coal. The first prize in the third class (169) is a silk umbrella and the first prize in the fourth class (129) is a pair of patent leather shoes. The tournament will continue this evening, Friday and Saturday evenings of this week and all ties will be rolled off on Friday evening, December 28. The leaders are first class, W. M. Townley, 233; F. P. Smith, 219; W. S. Smith, 211; second class, C. D. Smith, 207; F. C. Decker, 193; third class H. R. Forster, 168; H. H. Pratt, 165; fourth class, G. H. Bunker, 124; W. E. Tuttle, Jr., 121; F. S. Smith, 85.

GOLF.

Although a number of the big colleges are preparing for a more active season than ever during 1901. the chances are that Princeton will not only keep pace with her rivals, but in fact go them a trifle better. The class of 1886 has decided to present a new golfhouse to the University in honor of "Tilly" Lamar, the famous football player of that class. The house is to be erected on the new golf course and will be ready for use early in June Ground will be broken about the first of the year. According to the plans the building will cost from $18,000 to $20,000.

Rev. John Reid, Jr., of Great Falls, Mont., recommended Ely's Cream Balm to me. I can emphasize his statement, "It is a positive cure for catarrh if used as directed."—Rev. Francis W. Poole, Pastor Central Pres. Church, Helena, Mont.

After using Ely's Cream Balm six weeks I believe myself cured of catarrh. Joseph Stewart, Grand Ave., Buffalo, N. Y.

Christmas at Heavenly Rest Church.

The Sunday school entertainment of the Heavenly Rest church will be held in the parish house Thursday evening, December 27, at 7:30 o'clock.

FUNDS FOR PUBLIC BATH.

LARGE COLLECTION TAKEN AT CRESCENT AVENUE CHURCH SUNDAY.

Although Built at Hope Chapel, Baths Will Be For Use of People of the West End.

An appeal made by Rev. Dr. W. B. Richards at the morning service in the Crescent Avenue church last Sunday for subscriptions toward the proposed West End baths and gymnasium, was responded to in a generous manner by the congregation. The collection, including pledges, amounted to $1 700

The building is to be erected in connection with Hope chapel as told in The Press some time ago. The total cost of the complete baths and gymnasium will be the neighborhood of $3 500 and as soon as this amount is raised or pledged, work will be commenced.

Some time ago a philanthropic citizen hearing of the plan, gave Dr. Richards his check for $1,000. This added to a possible legacy of $500 and various other amounts contributed will bring the total sum now pledged to nearly half the required amount.

While the baths are to be built on the Hope chapel property they are not intended to be for the exclusive use of the chapel members, but for all the residents of the West End.

Blaze in Stationery Store.

A small fire occured in the stationery store of Samuel Harker, on Watchung avenue, early last evening. It was caused by some light drapery igniting from a gas jet. Several articles were soon blazing and a serious fire was threatened. With the assistance of A. Emery and Charles GaNun, Mr. Harker subdued the flames without calling the department. The damage was very slight and will not interfere with Mr. Harker's holiday trade.

Serious Fire Prevented.

A serious fire was prevented at I. H. Boehm's dry goods store yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Boehm was in the basement and while in the act of lighting a gas jet with a wax taper, a spark dropped into some highly inflammable material. In a few minutes there would have been a fire too large for the employes to handle, but presence of mind on the part of Mrs. Boehm resulted in the small flame being quickly extinguished.

Increased Capital Stock.

The Singer Manufacturing Company, of Elizabeth, has filed papers increasing its capital stock from $10 000,000 to $30,000 000 This increase, it was stated, was made necessary by the issuance of $20,000,000 of stock dividends to the stockholders of the company, being a division of that amount of the company's surplus. The papers state that the surplus exceeds $20 000,000, but do not give the exact amount.

New Year's Eve Service.

Arrangements are being made by Rev. Father William H. Miller, pastor of St. Joseph's church, to hold special services on New Year's eve, when a vesper service will be held, followed by High Mass with the usherining in of the new century on New Year's morning. These services are highly interesting and are attended by many others than Roman Catholics.

Brought Back Lots of Game.

A. L Smalley, of the borough, has returned from a hunting trip in Virginia. He had excellent luck and brought back a good lot of game.

MANY LISTENED TO CHRISTMAS ORATORIO

Public Rendition of the "Messiah" Attracted Large Crowd to Crescent Ave. Church.

NO ONE TURNED AWAY.

BUT THERE WAS A GREAT CRUSH WHEN THE DOORS WERE OPENED.

Grand Music Was Well Rendered by Big Chorus—Soloists Were Same as at Public Rehearsal Exciting When Doors Were Opened.

As The Daily Press predicted, the final and last rendition of the oratorio of "Messiah" at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church last evening attracted an immense audience. Every seat in the handsome edifice was filled within fifteen minutes after the doors were opened at 7:30 o'clock.

Previous to admitting the crowd several hundred men, women and children stood in the cold for fully half an hour clamoring for admission at the Watchung and Crescent avenue entrances to the church. It was a good-natured crowd, however.

James E. Kimball had charge of the arrangements. Fire Chief Doane had detailed three of his trusted men from the department, David S. Dunavan, Alex. Muir and John Cose, with Dunavan as lieutenant in command.

But there was but little for the firemen to do though they assisted the ushers when the crowd made a break for the interior of the church. On the outside of the church Roundsman Mattox and two patrolmen were at hand to be of service in getting the people in line.

For the space of about ten minutes there was a great crush. Strong men jostled frail women in their efforts to push their way into the church, while women struggled, pushed and fought their way valiantly every inch of ground until they succeeded in squeezing in, when they would rush for seats in the auditorium or gallery. In the struggle several women were several jostled. Handkerchiefs were dropped and in some instances swept from the hands of the owners. Many bows, ribbons and handkerchiefs, thus lost, were afterwards picked up in the church vestibule or on the church steps.

One young woman became wedged in the crowd and was with difficulty rescued from serious injury by Roundsman Mattox. When she found herself on the outside of the crowd she discovered that her gold eyeglasses had been torn from her nose and trampled under foot.

Although there was a large crowd and something of a crush, it was nothing as compared to a year ago. Once inside the crowd was quickly and easily seated and there was little for the ushers to do. It is believed that all who wished were comfortably seated by 8 o'clock when the concert began.

Before the time announced for the opening, the chorus entered the church and took their places on the raised platform built out from the pulpit. The soloists were seated in the front. They were the same as on Tuesday evening: Miss Alice Merritt, of New York, soprano; Miss M. S. Perry, of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church choir, contralto; E. O. Towne, of New York, tenor, and Oley Speaks, of New York, bass. Edward J. Fitzhugh again acted as conductor, and the instrumentalists, Miss Jessie M. Utter, pianist, Howard M. Case, organist, and the small orchesta in the choir of the church, were the same as at the former rendition of the oratorio.

Promptly at the appointed time Mr. Fitzhugh's raised baton gave the signal for the opening of the programme. After a brief instrumental prelude, E. O. Towne, the tenor soloist, stepped forward and with no music in his hands gave the very message of the Christmas season, "Comfort Ye, My People." In this, as in his other solos, Mr. Towne proved himself a well-trained and practiced singer. He was evidently unusually familiar with the oratorio, singing entirely without notes, and he entered thoroughly into the spirit of the words he sang. Another thing in his favor was his extremely clear pronunciation, every word of his songs being readily understood by the listeners in the back of the room.

After Mr. Towne's first recitative and air, the chorus rose and gave their first number, "The Glory of the Lord." While the work of the chorus on Tuesday evening was very creditable, on this occasion it was even more so, on account of the additional

A CHRISTMAS OPERETTA.

"THE LAND OF NOD" GIVEN BY PUPILS OF BRYANT SCHOOL.

Was Cleverly Acted by the Young Yesterday Afternoon—Those Who Took Part.

"The Land of Nod," an appropriate play for the season, and arranged as a Christmas operetta by Miss Shattuck, principal of the Bryant school, was given yesterday afternoon in the assembly hall of that school by the pupils. The operetta was well given and the good-sized audience present to witness it thoroughly enjoyed every part. For two weeks past the teachers and pupils have worked very hard to give a finished performance, and they succeeded admirably. Not a break was made in the entire production, and much credit is due Mrs. Charles L. Lewis, the pianist, whose work added materially to the success of the affair.

The play was given Wednesday afternoon for the pupils of the Bryant and Lincoln Schools, as a rehearsal, and it was greatly enjoyed. There were solos, part songs and chorus singing by the pupils and the whole play was given in a clever manner. Space will not permit a review of the play, but the various characters are given. Each one was appropriately costumed and every pupil entered into his and her part with zest and enthusiasm. Frequently hearty applause was given.

The part of king was ably taken by Sheppard DeKay, who was seated on his throne in the court room. Surrounding him were the pupils who represented the characters in the play. They were as follows: Sandman, William Jones; Jack o'dreams, Raymond Harvey; pages, William Hand and "Jack" Kenney; herald, Standford Forbes; dream princes, Harold Robbins and Walter Caldwell; princesses, Marguerite Johnston and Grace Knight; queen of dollies, Ethel Skillman; starlight, Enid Fonda; goblin can-and must, Stanley Vardon; dream goblins, Rae Boice and Stanley Robbins; My Lady Fortune, Fanny Hand; Mother Goose, Ethel Gullberg; Santa Claus, Egbert Bogardus; sleepy heads, Benson Hartney, Robert Gullberg, Kenneth Grapel, Marguerite Loizeaux, Helen Platt, Marguerite Forbes; dream sprites, Annie Johnston, Sadie Leahy, Marguerite VanDeventer, Hazel Morrison, Stella Grapel, May Howley; court attendants, Louella Day, Florence Smalley, Lulu Beekman, Charlee Frederickson, May Chamberlin, Herbert Grant, Edna Kelley, Anna Morrison, Helen Guttridge, Hannah Hansen, Laura Dean and Louise Davis.

AT LINCOLN SCHOOL.

Special Christmas Festivities Held There This Morning by Pupils of the Lower Grades.

This morning at the Lincoln public school Christmas carols were rendered by the pupils, including two vocal solos, "Baby Jesus," by Arthur Lewis and "The Birth of the King," by Sheppard Forbes. This afternoon the pupils at both the Bryant and Lincoln schools will have their own good time in their class rooms. At the Lincoln school the pupils will make each presents, their own handiwork, and the pupils in the first year class will make presents to their parents. The exercises in the kindergarten department at both schools were held today forenoon. The schools will close this afternoon to reopen on January 3.

Fluency of Speech.

It has been calculated that a fluent speaker, in the course of an hour's uninterrupted speaking, utters from seven to eight thousand words. This is the kind of a word distributor that would be required to tell you all the dainty creations in gold and silver inviting your inspection at Colliers. Better than hearing them told about, however, is to come and see them; you will never regret the visit to 103 Park avenue.

Don't Forget Drake & Mundy.

One of the well known meat markets in Plainfield there is none perhaps where the citizens can find a better class of the products of the food market than at Drake & Mundy's on West Front street. You will find their prices right and their meat all that can be desired.

Taken Ill at Red Men's Fair.

Mrs. Hill, of North avenue, was taken suddenly ill while attending the Red Men's fair in Washington Hall last night. She was assisted outside, where a cab was procured and she was taken home. She is still very sick and Dr. Currie is in charge.

To Nominate Officers.

There will be nomination of officers at the meeting of Miantonomo Tribe, I O R M, this evening. The election will take place next Friday.

CORONER'S JURY SAYS MAN WAS MURDERED

Inquest Held Over Body of Wm. Van Sheffler, Dr. Mosher's Coachman, Found Dead.

MYSTERIOUS INDICATIONS.

TESTIMONY OF WITNESSES BROUGHT NO LIGHT ON FACTS OF DEATH.

Dr. Mosher Issued Burial Certificate, But John E. DeHart Wasn't Satisfied and Asked for the Inquest.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, Dec. 21—Coroner L. T. Reed and a jury held an inquest at the Harlingen Hotel yesterday to inquire into the death of Wm VanSheffler, Dr. Abraham B. Mosher's coachman, whose mysterious death occurred Saturday at Griggstown. Assistant Prosecutor F. A. Pope examined the witnesses, six in all.

John E DeHart, overseer of the poor, testified to being notified of the death of VanSheffler and a request to have him buried. The doctor gave him a burial certificate, but he thought everything was not all right and notified County Physician H. G. Wagoner, of Somerville.

County Physician Wagoner told of being called and that after an examination he deemed an inquest necessary and so notified Coroner Reed. He was present and assisted at the autopsy and found a fracture at the base of the brain, scratches on the face and bruises on the elbow and knee. The fracture might have been caused by falling on a stone. The bruises might have been caused by the wallowing of a drunken man.

Dr. Louis Mosher testified to finding Van Sheffler while on his way to the post office and to calling in Fred Thompson to help him carry the man into his brother's house. He said that he did not strike Van Sheffler. Dr. A. B. Mosher, the dead man's employer, said that the coachman had been drunk since early in the morning, Friday. He did not know where he got his liquor from. He came into his office early in the evening and complained that a hotel keeper had cheated him out of a dollar. The doctor told him that he did not believe it that he must have lost it. Van Sheffler then went out and that was the last he saw of Van Sheffler until his brother brought in the lifeless body. The doctor said that having seen the man before he died he thought he had a right to issue a burial certificate; he thought death was due to exposure, the man having laid out, as he thought, all night.

Fred Thompson and Charles Love gave unimportant testimony and the jury retired. After being out two hours they brought in a verdict that Van Sheffler came to his death from blows inflicted on the back of the head by some person or persons.

The divorce proceedings brought by Dr. A. B. Mosher's wife were instituted before this tragedy occurred. The grounds upon which the proceedings are brought are infidelity and Miss Snedeker, a former servant, now living in Philadelphia, is named as co-respondent. Mrs. Mosher is now staying quietly with friends in Somerville. Her attorneys are Dungan & Royer, of this place. It is said Van Sheffler was to be a witness in the case.

Trees Need Trimming.

J. E. Martine has men engaged in trimming the trees that line the streets upon which many of his houses are located. Other citizens might follow Mr. Martine's example. There are any number of trees about the city that are sadly in need of trimming. In many instances the branches overhang the sidewalks and street, in some cases interfering with pedestrians and traffic.

In Line for Holiday Trade.

Smalley Brothers, of North avenue, have one of the well kept markets that the citizens like to patronize. Their meats are well cut and their prices are always found right. In the line of poultry for the holiday trade this firm has a splendid stock. They will give you prompt service and appreciate your patronage if you will give them a call.

Edwin Varrey Has Left Watchung.

Edwin Varrey, the well-known actor, who for many years made his home in Washingtonville, has given up his place and gone to New York to live. His place was purchased by George Mobus.

CLEVER SKETCHES GIVEN.

Pleasing Amateur Dramatic Entertainment at Park Club.

Miss Grace E. Overton Took Leading Parts Ably Assisted by Miss Burt, Miss VanDeventer and Mr. Pickering.

Two clever sketches were given at the Park Club last night, and a large audience thoroughly enjoyed the programe. The affair was given under the direction of the entertainment committee of the club and proved to be just as successful as other events during the season.

The sketch given in part first was entitled "A Pair of Lunatics;" place: Anteroom at Morris Plains Asylum. The principals were Miss Grace Elting Overton and Herbert Pickering. Both were supposed to be at the asylum as guests of Dr. Adams, and after an evening among the lunatics, "he" and "she," happened to meet, each believing the other crazy. It gave opportunity for some very clever happenings before the situation was explained. The parts were well taken.

"Petticoat Perfidy," was the title of a comedy sketch which followed. The place was Mrs. Mountrevor's London drawing room. Miss Grace E. Overton took the part of "Mrs. Mountrevor" and Miss Edith L. Burt represented "Mrs. Norwood Jones," while the part of "Juliette," a French maid, was taken by Miss Mabel VanDeventer. Each part was taken in an excellent manner and the sketch produced great laughter throughout.

Mrs. Movntrevor and Mrs. Jones were rivals for society honors and each used all sort or strategy in their endeavors to outdo the other.

At Mrs. Mountrevor's tea, where the scene is laid, there were some very thrilling times as these women tried to outdo the other. The climax of all was the introduction of Mrs. Mountrevor's French maid as "Princes Bardensky." The plan worked successfully and the guest was properly duped.

At the opening and during the intermission, delightful piano music was given by Miss Barlow, which added much to the enjoyment of the affair.

CHRISTMAS EXERCISES.

Programme of Special Services Arranged at Park Avenue Baptist Church Sunday.

The Christmas exercises of the Park Avenue Baptist Sunday-school will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:45 o'clock in the church proper. A pleasing programme has been arranged, consisting of Christmas carols, recitations and exercises by the primary department, including the graduation of two classes into the main school.

Dr. James Rosedale, of Mt. Zion, Jerusalem, will also be present, and will give an interesting Christmas talk to the school. Being a native of the Holy Land, his words will come to his hearers with unusual interest and power. Dr. Rosedale will be accompanied by his three daughters, all dressed in Palestine costume. They will also sing in several different foreign languages. A very cordial invitation is extended to all to be present. There will be no evening service. The pastor, Rev J. W. Richardson, will repeat in the morning his Christmas sermon of last year, by request.

FUNERAL OF MRS. SYMONS.

Held From Her Late Residence on East Third Street Yesterday.

The funeral services of Mrs. Paul Symons were held from her late residence on East Third street yesterday afternoon. They were conducted by Rev Dr. W. O. Snodgrass, of the First M. E. church, assisted by Rev. Mr. Egbert, of Newark, the deceased's former pastor at Belleville. A large number of relatives and friends were in attendance. Many handsome floral tributes were in evidence, among them being large pillows from lodges of which Mr. Symons is a member, and one from the Epworth League of the First M. E. church. Those who acted as bearers were Nathan Pennington, Joseph Blimm, J. E. Flannery and John Bodine. Interment was made in Evergreen cemetery.

Turkeys at Endress'.

Fred Endress, the West Front street butcher, is making a great showing for the holiday trade. His large and well-appointed shop is filled with fine Jersey turkeys and chickens, and pigs, stuffed with Spanish bologna. Mr. Endress will receive this week about 900 Jersey turkeys and he invites inspection and trial.

Peddled Without License.

A rag peddler, who gave the name of Vincinto Corricello, was arrested yesterday afternoon charged with peddling without a license. Sentence was suspended by City Judge Runyon.

CASH AND PROFESSOR DISAPPEARED TOGETHER

Mrs. W. H. B. Drake, of Orchard Place, Paid $500 to Learn of the Future.

OTHERS WERE VICTIMIZED.

CLAIMED TO BE PROF. LITTEN, OF NEW YORK, BUT HE WASN'T.

Was to Reveal Certain Facts for a Big Price—Money Was Put in Envelope for Safe Keeping—Substituted Another.

There are several women in Plainfield who are much wiser though sadder since last week, when they made the acquaintance of "Prof." Litten, who claimed to have wonderful powers for looking into the future. The professor struck town several days ago and secured a boarding place with Mrs Staats on West Second street. For several days Professor Litten did a land office business. Women flocked to his rooms at Mrs. Staats and had private interviews with the wise man.

One woman, Mrs. H. B. Drake, 438 Orchard place, called to consult the wiley "Professor" with regard to family matters. She wanted the clairvoyant to do some detective work. But the work laid out for the "Professor" was of such a delicate nature and so difficult that he felt compelled to ask a good-sized retainer. His price was a cool $500, which he demanded in cash. The over-confident woman hurried to one of the local banks and drew out the five hundred. She met the "Professor" by appointment last Saturday evening. The money was placed in an envelope and then shown to the clairvoyant. By some means the "Professor" succeeded in obtaining possession of the cash, substituting in its place an envelope containing a clipping from the New York Journal and a chamois bag.

The poor woman did not discover that she had been buncoed until the following morning. She then related her loss to some of her friends and later to the police authorities.

"Prof." Litten is described as being about 32 years of age and small of stature, being not over five feet four inches in height. He has been in town but a few days. He left suddenly Saturday night.

Since the disappearance of Litten other women have reported losses ranging from $10 to $50. It is believed that Litten is not the man's correct name but that he assumed that name to lead his victims to believe he was Prof. D. Litten, a well known clairvoyant of New York city, who is a reliable person. Chief Kiely has been looking for the wiley "professor," who he traced to Trenton. From that city all trace of him has been lost.

Grand Lodge Officers There.

Greenbrook Council, No. 1725 Royal Arcanum, held a regular meeting last evening and enjoyed a visit from many Grand Lodge officers including Grand Regent L. A. Lightfoot, of Westfield; Supreme Repreme Representative James Rogers, of Cranford; Grand Guide William Collins, of Fanwood; Supreme Deputy Grand Regent Samuel P. Drummond, of Bound Brook, and Kenyon Messick, of Cranford, a prominent member of the Arcanum. There was a very large attendance at the meeting and many excellent speeches were made, at the conclusion of which refreshments were served.

A First-Class Market.

In the east end of the city there is a first-class meat market conducted by Callahan & Son., and the meats, poultry, etc., at this market are always to be relied upon as first grade. Reasonable prices are asked and one makes no mistake in trading with this up-to-date firm. Their business is conducted in a first-class manner.

Has the Best Cuts.

Jepp Sorenson, the Watchung avenue butcher, has one of the best shops in the city. One can always depend upon what they purchase here, as Mr. Sorenson keeps nothing but the best cuts of meats, poultry and everything to be found in a modern meat market.

Death of a Little Child.

The death of Raymond Cronce, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Cronce, of Essex street, occurred yesterday after a brief illness. The funeral services will be held from the parents' residence tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

—Harper, 411 Park avenue, is headquarters for dolls.

GREAT CHIEFS WERE HERE.

DISTINGUISHED GUESTS AT RED MEN'S FAIR LAST NIGHT.

Paughcaughnaughsinque Tribe Won Tomahawk For Largest Number of Members Present at Fair Last Night.

Washington hall's capacity was taxed to the utmost last evening, on the occasion of the combined Red Men's fair. For nearly four hours the dancing floor was a perfect crush but in spite of the many inconveniences everyone seemed to enjoy themselves.

The large attendance was partly due to the contest for the prize Sachem's tomahawk, which was to be given to the tribe having the largest number of representatives present. Tribes from Elizabeth, Millstone, New Brunswick, Bound Brook, Somerville and South Plainfield as well as the local tribes, competed for the prize. It was secured by Paughcaughnaughsinque, of this city, having thirty-four members present. The tomahawk is beautifully furnished in gold plate and was much admired by all who saw it.

Owing to the large attendance part of the programme was dispensed with, the crowd seeming to prefer dancing to the specialties arranged. Those who did appear were Joseph Harkins, who gave an exhibition of ground tumbling, and John H. Carney, who kept his audience convulsed with laughter by his own inimitable monologues.

The different contests still interest the attendants and they are becoming more exciting nightly. The one which probably is watched the most is the voting contest for the most popular sachem to which a regalia is to be given. Sachem F. J. Blatz is still in the lead, although his competitors are rapidly gaining upon him.

Among the visiting officers from the Great Council who were present last evening were Great Pocahontas Sarah Bellstab, of Trenton; Great Winonah Mary Morgan, of Newark; Great Junior Sagamore Blanchard White, of Pemberton, and Great Sachem William Newcorn and Great Minnehaha Lavinia Holstein, of this city.

In addition to these braves from tribes in all parts of the State were present and assisted in the festivities. The hour of closing which has usually been at midnight, was prolonged to a much later hour last night as it seemed to be the wish of all present.

For this evening the management will have as features, three sparing exhibitions by local semi-professionals. There will also be singing by the Wetumpkah trio and clog dancing by Clarence Waldron.

CHRISTMAS DINNER.

But There Will be no Tree for Little Ones at the Children's Home.

Mrs. M. E. Kimball, of the Children's Home, requests the Daily Press to say that the house physician thinks all the inmates, with the exception of the little girls confined in the infirmary, will be able to enjoy their Christmas dinner on Tuesday. Dinner will be served in the dining room to those down stairs and sent up to the infirmary for the sick ones. The little girls will have chicken broth, fruit, ice cream, etc. They will all have their books and toys on Christmas morning. The tree, usually one of the features of the Christmas festival at the Home, has been indefinitely postponed.

SALE OF COPLEY PRINTS.

By Plainfield Young Women Who Formerly Attended Wellesley College.

An exhibition and sale of Copley prints will be held tomorrow afternoon from 2 until 5 o'clock at the home of Miss Mabelle Phillips, of 921 Madison avenue. The affair is given by members of the Tau Zeta Epsilon, the art society of Wellesley College. Tea will be served. The Copley prints are fine reproductions of the world's best pictures, both classic and modern, and will make excellent Christmas gifts.

Complete Stock at Scheuer's.

One of the best meat markets in the city is that of S. Scheuer & Co., which is run in connection with their large grocery. They always carry a complete and choice stock of meats of all kinds, including fine cured hams and poultry. Their prices are always low as will be seen by their adv. in The Daily Press.

Madame Jarley's Wax Works.

The Christmas entertainment of the Park Avenue Baptist Sunday-school will take place Thursday evening, December 27. "Madame Jarley's Wax Works" will be given by the members of the school, and a very enjoyable evening is anticipated.

CHRISTMASTIDE AT CITY PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Special Christmas Exercises Held Today at Most of the Plainfield Public Schools.

THEY WERE ALL ENJOYED.

LIVELY CLASS RIVALRY AMONG THE PUPILS OF THE HIGH SCHOOL.

"The New Santa Claus" Was Given at Irving School This Afternoon—Programmes at The Other Schools.

Christmas exercises were held in all the public schools today, consisting of the usual recitations, songs and dialogues. At the Irving School the customary programme was departed from and a cantata, entitled "Up To-Date or the New Santa Claus," was rendered by the pupils. It was very interesting and was enjoyed by a large number of parents and friends.

The programme of Christmas exercises given at the Franklin School this afternoon was as follows:

Hark the Herald Angels, Processional; Ring Out Sweet Bells, school; Christmas Tonight, third year boys; Christmas in Song and Story, exercise; The Babe of Bethlehem, carol; recitation, The Five Dimes, Miss Helen Smith; Beautiful Christmas Greeting, carol; Joyous Bells, carol; recitation, Bird's Christmas, Miss Beulah Rogers; List the Song of Holy Voices, second year children; Song of the Christmas Tree, carol; recitation, Eugene Field's "Once Upon a Time," Miss Helen Rogers; recitation, Georgie Rogers; song, Margaret, school; Christmas Carol, third year children; recitation, Miss Irene Dunham; Like Small Curled Feathers, boys chorus; recitation, The Feet of the Christ Child, Miss Katharine Brown; Holy Night, girls chorus; recitation, "Papa and Rosie and Me," Miss Wolf; Ave Jesu, boys chorus; Christmas Bells, carol.

The programme of the cantata "Up to Date" or "The New Santa Claus," given at the Irving School this afternoon, was as follows:

Part 1. Opening chorus, "Christmas Joys;" Recitation, "Mrs. Santa Claus," Nettie Thompson; chorus, "We're Tired of Old Santa Claus" by Twentieth Century Girls; chorus, by members of the city telegraph; physical culture, song and drill, solo and chorus, "Song of the X Ray," the solo by Fred Wallender; chorus, "Telephone Girls" solo and chorus, "On the Trolley Car," the solo by Duncan Patterson; recitation, "Confidence," John Rittenhouse.

Part 2. Duet and chorus, "Longing for Santa," solo, "The New Santa Claus," Charles Leland; solo, "The Old Santa Claus," Ralph Taylor; closing song, "Good Night."

The Christmas exercises at the Washington School this morning were as follows: Singing, Ring Out Sweet Bells, schools; recitation, To Kriss, Elwood Weber; recitation, Kriss Kringle, Oscar Green; singing, solo by Beiah VanWinkle; recitation, Santa Claus' Visit, W. Connett; recitation, Dolly's Christmas, Gretta Trembley; recitation, If, Lillie McNerney; singing, Babe of Bethlehem, school; dialogue, Mother Goose, primary children; singing, Christmas Greeting, school; recitation, The Two Little Stockings, Laura VanJampen; recitation, A Wish, Francis Baker; singing, O Joyous Bells, school; recitation, Little Want-to-Know, Clinton Firstbrook; recitation, A Letter From Santa Claus, Ethel Rogers; singing, A Song of Baby Jesus, Maud Green; dialogue, The Three Little Mothers, Violet VanWinkle, Queena Force, Beula VanWinkle; singing, Christmas Bells, school; recitation, A Gentle Reminder, Gordon May; singing, Song of Christmas Tree, school.

At the High school where the day is always made the occasion for merry-making, the customary good natured rivalry for class supremacy, took place. This year the class of 1903 succeeded in getting its colors to the top of the flag pole and much to the chagrin of the other classes, tied to the halyards high up, defying all efforts to get them down.

All day yesterday the decorating committees worked industriously placing class colors about their respective rooms, some of which present a pretty appearance. The Senior class took charge of Assembly Hall, and the large room was artistically hung with broad streamers of blue and gold, the class colors. A wall of holly surrounded the platform.

The exercises began at 11 o'clock, and, in addition to an excellent address delivered by Rev A. E. Main,

AT THE THEATRES.

Something About the Attractions Which Plainfield Theatre-Goers May Care to Witness.

In "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" at Music Hall next Tuesday, a Christmas attraction has been secured that will strike a popular chord. The company presenting it comes direct from a successful tour of the larger cities of New York and Pennsylvania and is highly endorsed. The cast is a perfect one, each member being especially chosen for their aptness and appearance in the various roles. Mr. Harry Webber who plays "Simple Sintchel," is a comedian of national reputation and Thomas Jeaom, the "Joe Morgan," is also celebrated for his strong and natural representation of this difficult part. Little Irene, who will delight the ladies and young folks especially, is a vertible little ray of dramatic sunshine. The part of Simon Slade is assigned to the fine character actor, Frank Gavin. Eva French gives a laughable performance of the Yankee hoydenish maid, "Mehitable," and "Mrs. Morgan" and "Miss Slade" are performed ably by Miss Bertha Jeaom and May Gildvere. There will be no lack of clean specialties, singing, dancing, clog reel, buck and wing, a comic cake walk, and lightning gun drill.

One of the principal attractions to be offered our theatregoers this season is a new farce comedy by Edward Owings Towne, the well-known author of "Other Peoples' Money." The comedy bears the pleasing and suggestive title of "Too Rich To Marry," and will be seen at Music Hall Wednesday of next week. It is said to be even better than its name would promise. Edward Owings Towne has been for years recognized as one of the leading dramatists and anything from his pen is sure to meet a warm reception at the hands of the great multitude of his admirers. The new comedy is said to be full of sparkling humor, surprising turns and funny situations. One thing is sure, a new play by the author of "Other Peoples Money" is always entitled to be greeted with a crowded house.

Two of the most important facts, in connection with the Christmas bills at F. F. Proctor's four continuous theatres in New York City are first, the shows will begin early on Christmas Day, 10:30 at 23d St. Theatre, 10:30 at the Fifth Ave., corner of Broadway and 28th St., noon sharp at the East 58th St. Palace, and noon sharp at Proctor's 125th St. Theatre. Secondly, the biggest vaudeville stars are now to be seen at the Proctor Theatres. There never was never such an array of expensive vaudeville stars of the highest class as are now appearing weekly under the management of F. F. Proctor. The topliners are so numerous in each Proctor bill that only a few may be mentioned. At the Fifth Ave. Theatre Christmas week will still be seen the famous European feature that has amazed New York, Jean Marcel's living pictures of Bas Reliefs of classical statuary and paintings. They are crowding the Fifth Ave. to repletion at every show. The other stars are Ezra Kendall, Staley and Birbeck, the Pinneys, from England, Les Dumonda.

Tortured A Witness.

Intense suffering was endured by witness T. L. Martin, of Dixie, Ky., before he gave this evidence: "I coughed every night until my throat was nearly raw; then tried Dr. King's New Discovery which gave instant relief. I have used it in my family for four years and recommend it as the greatest remedy for Coughs, Colds and all Throat, Chest and Lung troubles. It will stop the worst cough, and not only prevents but absolutly cures Consumption. Price 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at L. W. Randolph's Drug Store.

William Newcorn, of West Front street, returned yesterday from Ramsey, where he has been attending a Red Men's fair.

—Don't use any of the counterfeits of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Most of them are worthless or liable to cause injury. The orignal DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is a certain cure for piles, eczema, cuts, scalds, burns, sores and skin diseases. L. W. Randolph.

Mrs. L. W. Randolph, of Washington Park, is very much improved from a recent severe illness.

Miss Dorothy Fisk, of West Seventh street, has about recovered from an attack of scarlet fever.

The friends of Harry Brokaw, of Somerville, will be pleased to learn that he has recovered from a serious illness.

Mrs. Charles A. Reed, of Washington Park, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvah A. Clark, of Somerville.

George Mehl, of the fire department, is off duty on account of a severe attack of tonsilitis. Dr. Hedges is in attendance.

A baby daughter has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Titus, of Watchung. Mr. and Mrs. Francis Bartle, of the same place, have also been similarly blessed.

practice the singers had had, and their familiarity with the manner of the accompanists. Mr. Fitzhugh had complete control of his singers, who followed his direction with readiness and sympathy. Mr. Fitzhugh is thoroughly acquainted with the oratorio, and his interpretation of it is always that of a thorough musician, as well as warmly sympathetic. Many of the members of the chorus had sung "The Messiah" before, and all had been carefully trained. The parts of the chorus were fairly well balanced, and kept a proper proportion in the general effect. Even the reeds of the choruses, so easily rendered indistinguishable by a large number of voices, were plainly spoken and readily understood.

After the first chorus came the first number for the bass soloist, Oley Speaks. The long recitative, with the exquisite air following were sung with spirit and sympathy. As on Tuesday evening, Mr. Speaks showed himself to have a voice with a good range of notes, to have had careful training, and to enter warmly into the spirit of his songs. He had some of the most difficult work of the evening, and received much commendation for his rendering of it.

The contralto soloist, Miss Perry, whose first solo followed that of the bass, was no stranger to Plainfield people, who have heard her voice in the choir of the Crescent Avenue church many times. Her voice is full and rich and is skilfully used, and showed to advantage in the beautiful solos which fell to her lot in rendering the oratorio.

The Pastoral Symphony, the instrumental interlude which divides the first part of the oratorio into halves, showed especially Howard Case's smooth and skillful management of the great organ. The delicate harmonies were marred by no sounds from the mechanical appliances of the organ, and the subjective rendering of the symphony carried its message straight to the hearts of the listeners.

Like a continuation of the same thought, came the first solo of the soprano, Miss Merritt, "And There Were Shepherds." Miss Merritt had a peculiar sweet, fresh and bird-like voice, absolutely true in every tone, and clear and pure on the high notes. Her two very difficult and well-known solos, "Come Unto Him" and "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth," were charmingly and most sympathetically sung.

The work of the instrumentalists are worthy of commendation, not only Mr. Case but Miss Utter and the members of the little orchestra bearing their part in the general harmony in a satisfactory manner and providing the needed background for the voices.

While the music of the evening was a great pleasure to all present in an intellectual sense, the emotional effect was even greater. The subject matter of "The Messiah" appeals to every one in a very real sense, and the perfect setting given to the words by the great composer carries their message straight home to the heart. The listener to "The Messiah" rejoices in the message of the prophets, listen to the announcement to the devout shepherds, joins in the joy of the Advent, sorrows in the sorrow of the Son of God, and goes away with the serene hope of the resurrection life in his heart. No matter how many times they may have experienced it, the audience of last night felt a new thrill of reverant exaltation, when, as on Tuesday evening, at the first note of the magnificent "Hallelujah Chorus" the vast oudience rose like one person, and remained standing until the last "Hallelujah!" died away.

A Woman's Awful Peril.

"There is only one chance to save your life and that is through an operation" were the startling words heard by Mrs. I. B. Hunt of Lime Ridge, Wis., from her doctor after he had vainly tried to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. Gall stones had formed and she constantly grew worse. Then she began to use Electric Bitters which wholly cured her. It's a wonderful Stomach, Liver and Kidney remedy. Cures Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite. Try it. Only 50c. Guaranteed. For Sale by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

Walter Harrison, a call man in the fire department, is filling George Mehl's place, while the latter is off duty on account of sickness.

—When you need a soothing and healing antiseptic application for any purpose, use the original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, a well known cure for piles and skin diseases. It heals sores without leaving a scar. Beware of counterfeits. L. W. Randolph.

Fred Breen, of the fire department, who has been laid off for some time past on account of illness, is again confined to his bed, having had a relapse.

TREATY IS RATIFIED.

Senate Stood 55 to 18 on Hay-Pauncefote Instrument.

TEXT OF AGREEMENT AS AMENDED.

Two Weeks' Discussion Ended In a Brief and Not Exciting Session. Spirited Debate on the Montana Senatorial Case.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21. — After spending the greater part of the past fortnight in considering the Hay-Pauncefote treaty for the modification of the Clayton-Bulwer convention of 1850 the senate yesterday consumed only one hour and ten minutes in amending it and ratifying it as amended. During this time there were six roll calls and several viva voce votes. The first five of the roll calls were on amendments offered by individual sentators and the last one on the resolution to ratify the treaty as amended. All the amendments except those offered by Senator Foraker and reported by the committee on foreign relations were voted down by majorities averaging about 19. The ratification resolution was adopted by a vote of 55 to 18.

The senate was in executive session for about an hour before the time for voting arrived listening to speeches by Senators Thurston, Gallinger, Wolcott and Bard explanatory of their attitude.

Senator Lodge, who as a member of the committee on foreign relations has piloted the treaty through the senate since the death of Chairman Davis, lost no time in demanding that the voting begin when 3 o'clock arrived. The foreign relations committee amendments were read first. Senator Lodge himself suggested a verbal amendment to the first of these, adding the word "convention" after the word "which" so as to make the amendment read, "which convention is hereby superseded." He explained that suggestion had been made that without the addition of that word the amendment might be construed as applying only to article 8 of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, whereas, he said, it was intended to apply to the entire treaty.

The amendment was accepted, and the two committee amendments then were both accepted without division.

The text of the treaty as amended is as follows:

"The United States of America and her majesty the queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and empress of India, being desirous to facilitate the construction of a ship canal to connect the Atlantic and Pacific oceans and to that end to remove any objection which may arise out of the convention of April 19, 1850, commonly called the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, to the construction of such canal under the auspices of the government of the United States without impairing the 'general principle' of neutralization established in article 8 of that convention, have for that purpose appointed as their plenipotentiaries the president of the United States, John Hay, secretary of state of the United States of America, and her majesty the queen of Great Britain and Ireland and empress of India, the Right Hon. Lord Pauncefote, G. C. B., G. C. M. G., her majesty's embassador extraordinary and plenipotentiary to the United States, who, having communicated to each other their full powers, which were found to be in due and proper form, have agreed upon the following articles:

"Article 1. It is agreed that the canal may be constructed under the auspices of the government of the United States, either directly at its own cost or by gift or loan of money to individuals or corporations or through subscriptions to or purchase of stock or shares, and that, subject to the provisions of the present convention, the said government shall have and enjoy all the rights incident to such construction as well as the exclusive right of providing for the regulation and management of the canal.

"Article 2. The high constracting parties, desiring to preserve and maintain the 'great principle' of neutralization established in article 8 of the Clayton-Bulwer convention, which convention is hereby superseded, adopt as the basis of such neutralization the following rules substantially as embodied in the convention between Great Britain and certain other powers signed at Constantinople Oct. 28, 1888, for the free navigation of the Suez maritime canal—that is to say:

"First.—The canal shall be free and open in time of war as in time of peace to vessels of commerce and of war of all nations on terms of entire equality, so that there shall be no discrimination against any nation or its citizens or subjects in respect of the conditions or charges of traffic or otherwise.

"Second.—The canal shall never be blockaded, nor shall any right of war be exercised nor any act of hostility be committed within it.

"Third.—Vessels of war of a belligerent shall not revictual nor take any stores in the canal except so far as may be strictly necessary, and the transit of such vessels through the canal shall be effected with the least possible delay in accordance with the regulations in force and with only such intermission as may result from the necessities of the service. Prizes shall be in all respects subject to the same rules as vessels of war of the belligerents.

"Fourth.—No belligerent shall embark or disembark troops, munitions of war or warlike materials in the canal except in case of accidental hindrance of the transit, and in such case the transit shall be resumed with all possible dispatch.

"Fifth.—The provisions of this article shall apply to waters adjacent to the canal, within three marine miles of either end. Vessels of war of a belligerent shall not remain in such waters longer than 24 hours at any one time except in case of distress, and in such case shall depart as soon as possible; but a vessel of war of one belligerent shall not depart within 24 hours from the departure of a vessel of war of the other belligerent.

"It is agreed, however, that none of the immediately foregoing conditions and stipulations in sections numbered 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 of this article shall apply to measures which the United States may find it necessary to take for securing by its own forces the defense of the United States and the maintenance of public order.

"Sixth.—The plant, establishments, buildings and all works necessary to the construction, maintenance and operation of the canal shall be deemed to be part thereof for the purposes of this convention and in time of war, as in time of peace, shall enjoy complete immunity from attack or injury by belligerents and from acts calculated to impair their usefulness as part of the canal.

"Seventh.—No fortifications shall be erected commanding the canal or the waters adjacent. The United States, however, shall be at liberty to maintain such military police along the canal as may be necessary to protect it against lawlessness and disorder."

A spirited debate was precipitated in the senate over the resolution of Mr. Chandler to discharge the committee on contingent expenses from further consideration of the resolution authorizing an investigation of the Montana senatorial case. The exchanges between the advocates and opponents of the resolution took a political turn and resulted in some lively colloquies. No action upon the resolution was taken, the senate proceeding to the consideration of executive business without reaching a vote.

The house passed the Indian and the Military academy appropriation bills. The former carried $9,036,526 and the latter $700,151. Neither provoked much discussion. A few minor amendments were placed upon the former.

England Cannot Accept.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—Nearly all the morning papers have editorials on the action of the United States senate in connection with the Hay-Pauncefote canal treaty. They express regret, rather than surprise, at the supercession of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty and unanimously declare that it will be impossible for Great Britain to accept the amended treaty. "The senate has struck a serious blow," says The Daily News, "at the fundamental principles of good faith among nations, at its own reputation and at the very constitution of the great republic."

Mr. Sankey to Train Preachers.

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—Ira D. Sankey, the evangelist, returned from Europe on the steamship Kaiser Wilhem der Grosse after an absence of nearly four months. He lectured and sang in 30 places during his trip and was forced to disappoint 120 congregations and societies that invited him to appear before them. Mr. Sankey has a new idea in evangelical work. He intends to establish a training school for singers and preachers. He will take only men in whom religious fervor is combined with singing ability, graduate them at his school and send them out to preach and teach. "The English people are very favorably impressed with the proposition," said Mr. Sankey. "They have urged me to return and establish a similar school in England, and I may do so if the one here succeeds. The pupils of the training school will be professed Christians. No other will be accepted."

Married the Other Fellow.

BOSTON, Dec. 21.—Sophie Heykel Maloof, the Syrian girl who disappeared on the eve of her wedding day last week and who, it was thought, had been kidnaped, has returned to her home here. She is the wife of Jabour Nadre, who was a suitor before she was betrothed to Joseph Maloof, a cousin, who was to have married her at noon last Saturday. The wedding of Sophie and Nadre took place in New York on the day she was to have married Maloof. After the wedding they went to Providence, whence they returned to Boston. The girl's family are reconciled to the match, but Maloof, who was deserted, has sworn to be revenged.

Bank Robbers Get Little.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 21. — Robbers blew up the safe of the Hampstead bank of Carroll county. So terrific was the explosion which wrecked the safe that a portion of the wall of the building was demolished. The report awakened the population of the town, which is ten miles from this city. Hundreds of men hurried to the scene, but the robbers escaped, using a hand car and going south on the Baltimore and Harrisburg railroad. Officials of the bank say the men secured about $50 in coin, all the notes having been removed from the safe.

Mexico Losing Her Silver.

EL PASO, Tex., Dec. 21.—The heavy exportation of Mexican silver dollars to China and other oriental countries has caused alarm in Mexico. Silver has been going through this port to China and Japan at the rate of $50,000 a day for five months and has practically drained all the silver out of the country. The banks have been endeavoring to keep the matter secret, but a few days ago acknowledged the truth and petitioned the federal government to stop the movement.

Natural Bridge Sold.

LEXINGTON, Va., Dec. 21. — The Natural bridge property, including over 400 acres of land, has been sold for $50,000, of which $20,000 was paid in cash. The deed was entered on record in the county clerk's office of Rockbridge. The purchasers are a syndicate of Richmond and northern capitalists, with F. H. Brooke of Richmond as president.

Wolcott's Condition Unchanged.

BOSTON, Dec. 21.—There is no change in former Governor Wolcott's condition, according to his physician. The patient, he says, seems more alert and takes more notice of what is going on about him than has been the case recently and is no worse than is to be expected of a person in the height of typhoid fever.

Postoffice Burglarized.

BEDFORD, Pa., Dec. 21.—The postoffice at Everett, Pa., was broken into and the safe blown open. The burglars secured about $500 in stamps and money and some personal papers of considerable value belonging to Postmaster Cobler. A number of letters were also taken.

ON MOUNTAIN TRAILS.

General Young Has Made Thorough Search For Insurgents.

MANILA, Dec. 21.—Every mountain trail in General Young's district north of the Abra river and between the coast and Dolores has been followed up by the American scouts this month. A similar movement has taken place in the provinces of Union, Benguet, Lepanto and that part of South Ilocos which lies south of the Abra river. Fifteen insurgents have been killed and more than 100 captured. The villages are always abandoned before the arrival of the Americans, but many buildings that have been used as barracks have been destroyed.

The leaders of the projected Autonomy party have again visited the Philippine commission, and the platform proposed was discussed privately and in an informal way. The commissioners advise the elimination of a few minor features. Personally they approve the movement as a forward step in the direction of the ultimate measure of self government which the commission has already been instructed to endeavor to bring about.

The plan of the party is to form United States territories involving candidature for ultimate statehood. The platform declares in favor of a senate and a house of representatives elected from the districts of the archipelago according to population. In preparing a bill of rights the United States constitution is utilized, with the exception of the feature of trial by jury.

According to the plan the governor general appointed by the president would have power of veto except in cases of a two-thirds vote of the legislature. The legislature would choose five delegates to the United States congress.

The platform opposes the sale of the Philippines without the consent of the legislature. It contains little regarding judiciary or local affairs. In the main it repeats the features of the United States constitution.

The most influential and honorable natives are identified with the movement.

The United States cruiser Brooklyn will proceed tomorrow to Subig bay to complete the examination of localities available for a naval station.

The United States cruiser Albany, Captain J. E. Craig, grounded on a reef in Subig bay, but was floated off and has reached Cavite.

CAPE COLONY INVASION.

Big Anti-British Excitement—Dutch Sympathizers May Rebel.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—Since Lord Kitchener's dispatch fully confirming the invasion of Cape Colony and expressing a hope not of capture, but only to "drive them north again," not a word has been issued officially as to the situation in South Africa.

Considerable activity is now manifested at Aldershot. A large draft of mounted troops will be ready to start for South Africa Jan. 6, while others have been notified to hold themselves in readiness for the same destination.

According to the Cape Town correspondent of The Daily Mail, wiring yesterday, the treason court sitting in Colesberg was obliged hurriedly to remove to Cape Town with the records and documents owing to the vicinity of the invading Boers.

"The Colesberg district," says the correspondent, "is seething with anti-British excitement. A recrudescence of rebellion is perceptible in the districts immediately south of the Orange river. Tuesday morning a fight was proceeding at Philipstown, presumably with a commando which crossed at Sand drift."

Serious Situation In Cape Town.

CAPE TOWN, Dec. 21.—The situation in the northern districts of Cape Colony is more serious. Fully 2,000 Boers have invaded that section. Grave fears are entertained that Dutch sympathizers will join the rebellion and that this will spread. Although there is no fear as to the ultimate result, the lack of a sufficient number of mounted troops is felt by the British. The enormous waste of horses in South Africa was never fully appreciated until now.

General De Wet's Strength.

BLOEMFONTEIN, Dec. 21.—General De Wet had 6,000 men and 18,000 horses when he captured Dewetsdorp, according to a gentleman who was imprisoned there. The Boer commander then declared that he was not going to surrender without a free pardon for all his men, including many Cape Dutch. The force of 6,000 is now divided into three sections.

A large number of prominent officials, including members of congress and several personal friends from out of town, were present and congratulated the new commissioner on his elevation to the head of one of the most important and responsible bureaus of the government. The large mahogany desk in the center of Mr. Yerkes' room was completely covered with American Beauty roses and other flowers, the gifts of admiring friends.

THE BOY RANSOMED.

Millionaire Pays $25,000 and Son Is Set Free.

OMAHA KIDNAPERS MAKE A RECORD.

Bag of Gold Left by Mr. Cudahy at Designated Spot on a Lonely Road—Story of the Capture and Release.

OMAHA, Dec. 21.—Rivaling in dramatic situations the most sensational melodrama ever staged, the story of the kidnaping of 15-year-old Eddie Cudahy, son of the millionaire packer, Edward A. Cudahy, is a marvelous one.

It is replete with startling situations and threats of death to the victim and ends in a complete triumph for the most ingenious plan of abduction ever formed.

The kidnapers got $25,000 in gold before they returned the boy, and they lived to the letter up to the agreement they made with the millionaire concerning the conditions on which young Cudahy was to be returned.

Several hours after the first threatening letter had been thrown into the front yard at the Cudahy residence another missive was delivered to Mr. Cudahy.

It came through the mails and contained a proposition to return the boy safe and unharmed provided $25,000 was paid.

In the letter were full directions as to where the money was to be left, and the assurance was given that the missing boy would be allowed to return home within a few hours of the time the cash was received.

A consultation was held at once and the matter gone over in detail. Plans were discussed for capturing the bandits when they should make their appearance, but one after another they were dropped as being impracticable.

Finally, impelled by the strain under which the entire household was laboring, Mr. Cudahy decided to comply with the terms offered and ransom his son. The money was secured by a trusted messenger who was sworn to secrecy and was brought to the Cudahy residence. It was all in gold.

After dinner Mr. Cudahy had one of his horses harnessed in a light buggy and, taking the money with him, started for the place at which it had been stipulated it should be left. In his buggy he carried a red lantern and was alone.

He drove out five miles on the Sherman avenue road until he came to a white lantern that was hanging on a short stick by the side of the road.

This was the place he was to leave the boy's ransom, and, alighting from his buggy, he deposited the sack close by the stick bearing the white light. Then without seeing any one he returned to his home.

In the meantime the captors of the boy had seen the red light coming up the road, and as soon as the buggy had disappeared again in the direction from which it had come they visited the spot, took away the money and prepared to keep faith with the father of the boy.

The lad was bundled into a carriage and left close by his father's house.

Where he had been he was unable to say, but as nearly as he could estimate by the few observations he was able to make he thought he had been taken about five miles south of South Omaha.

The cunning of the gang who had the boy in keeping and their thorough knowledge of the geography of the city are evidenced in the plans they laid.

Close by the place where Mr. Cudahy was directed to leave the ransom for his son the river approaches the road, and it is supposed that the men were on the watch for the millionaire and saw his red light from a boat. As soon as he had driven away and they had satisfied themselves that no officers were lurking near they clambered up the bank, obtained the sack of gold that had been left for them, made their way to the boat again and escaped without leaving any trace.

There is absolutely no clew to their identity.

Enormous Holiday Mail.

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—It was said at the postoffice yesterday that the Christmas mails this year are the heaviest ever known. Last year it was thought that a high record had been established, but in the city department this year the mail is estimated at 15 per cent to 20 per cent heavier than last year, and in the money order department 30,000 more domestic money orders have been paid this month than in December a year ago. To keep up with the big increase in work it has been necessary to employ 35 extra men for the month in the money order department, and these men, with the regular force, have been working on an average of five hours overtime every day since Thanksgiving.

A Bandit Murder.

SANTIAGO, Cuba, Dec. 21.—Early yesterday morning a brutal murder was committed in the village of Cuevitas, three miles from Santiago. Vincente Ocejo, proprietor of the principal store in the village, was killed by some one not yet identified. The circumstances indicate that the crime was committed by the remnant of a bandit organization which formerly terrorized the district. The head of the victim had been crushed in by a blunt weapon. The rural guards have a clew to the murderer and expect to capture him. The store was robbed of goods valued at more than $1,000.

Lead For Defender's Keel.

BRISTOL, R. I., Dec. 21.—The lead for the keel of the new cup defender arrived at the Herreshoff dock yesterday afternoon by steamer from Fall River. It was brought to Fall River by rail and transferred to a steamer there and brought down the bay in order to facilitate delivery. The molds and retorts are rapidly nearing completion, and it is probable that the work of running the metal will begin early Saturday morning. There is very nearly 100 tons of lead to be put in the keel.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., DEC 21 1900.

Justice Ludlow's Successor.

The death of Justice Ludlow, of New Brunswick, leaves a vacancy on the Supreme Court bench of New Jersey which Governor Voorhees will have to fill by appointment. The Governor's policy in his appointments in the State judiciary has been a nonpartisan one and so it is but reasonable to believe that he will name some prominent Democrat to succeed the late Justice Ludlow, who was a strong Democrat.

Although a resident of Middlesex county, Justice Ludlow's circuit was in South Jersey, and the newspapers of that portion of the State are asking that the new appointee be taken from among the prominent legal men in the South Jersey Democracy. The fact that the vacancy exists, however, has opened the field for all sorts of conjectures regarding the Governor's probable course in appointing a Supreme Court judge.

There has been more or less talk to the effect that State Senator Charles A. Reed, of North Plainfield, was next in line for an appointment to the Supreme Court bench. If the Governor should decide to appoint a Republican there can be no doubt but that the Republican leader of Somerset county would have an excellent claim which would not be lightly ignored. Judging, howeger, from the Governor's past acts, it seems likely that it will be a Democrat who will receive the appointment.

There is little possibility that the appointment will come to Union county. If it should, however, the most available man in the Democratic ranks would probably be James C. Connelly, city attorney at Elizabeth. Warren county has two Democratic sons who possess the dignity and judicial powers necessary for such a position. Judge Irwin Shults, of Philipsburg, might be chosen while Congressman Joshus P. Salman, of Boonton, is considered by many to be particulary fit for a high judicial position.

Clarence Conover, a former county judge in Monmouth and who is now practicing law at Freehold, is another possible candidate for the appointment.

On account of his activity in the last National campaign, Clarence T. Atkinson, of Camden, is a particularly prominent figure in Democratic circles in that part of the State. He is a lawyer, but it is doubtful whether even his strongest friends would select him as being specially fitted to fill the office. He is earnest and loyal to his convictions, but his mind is rather that of an advocate than a judge.

Remember the Carriers.

No matter how well equipped a newspaper may be in the mechanical and editorial departments, it is powerless to make much advancement unless the circulation department is properly conducted. The Daily Press is particularly fortunate in possessing an efficient corps of carriers who daily distribute this paper to its regular subscribers all over the city and borough. These boys cover their routes day after day, rain or shine, with steady attention to their duties. Particular care has been exercised in selecting The Press carriers and they are all bright lads, honest and truthful, who can be depended upon to perform their duties in the proper manner.

The regular subscribers of The Daily Press may expect a visit Christmas Day from the carriers who serve them. Handsome souvenir calendars have been issued by The Daily Press and will be distributed by the carriers when they call. The lads have been faithful in their duties. Don't forget them Christmas morning.

The Chicago preacher who advertised in the newspapers for fifty young people to aid in building up a church society was so well pleased, says the Philadelphia Record, with the results that he placed an advertisement in the newspapers last week for "five hundred girls to hear a sermon on 'If I Were a Girl.'" For the first time the church was packed. The young women regarded the "ad" as a direct personal invitation, unlike the common announcement of church services. This experience was a new demonstration of the potency of newspaper advertising.

WHAT OTHERS SAY.

Clippings From Other Newspapers Which May Be Of Interest to Plainfield and Its Citizens.

Under the bill agreed upon by the census committee of the House of Representatives New Jersey will gain one member and be entitled to nine. Apportionment that has been figured out on this basis is as follows: First district—Camden, 107 613: Salem, 25,530; Cumberland, 51 103, and Gloucester, 31 905, a total of 216 181. Second district—Atlantic, 46 402; Mercer, 95,365; Burlington, 58 241, and Cape May, 13,201, a total of 213 209. Third district—Middlesex, 79,762; Monmouth, 82,057; Somerset, 32 948, and Ocean, 19,747, a total of 214,514. Fourth district—Sussex 24 134; Warren 37 781; Hunterdon, 34 507; Morris, 65,156, and 40 000 from Newark, making a total of 201,578. Fifth district—Union, 99 353; Essex, outside of Newark, 112 983, a total of 212 336 Sixth district—The city of Newark, less 40,000, a total of 206 070. Seventh district — Bergen, 78 441. and Passaic, 155,202, a total of 233 643. It is proposed to take 26 000 from this district, and transfer it to the Eighth, leaving 207 643. In forming the Eighth district it is proposed to add the 26,000 transferred from the Seventh to Hudson county, outside of Jersey City, making a total of 205 615, while Jersey City, with 206 433, would constitute the Ninth district. The Republican politicians will be likely to scrutinize this proposed apportionment with considerable sharpness of vision, since it would give the Democrats a gain of one member. There will be some very skillful figuring before a satisfactory plan of apportionment is arrived at.—New York Herald.

TEA TABLE TALK.

Short and Gossipy Sketches That Are Not Always News, But Just as Interesting.

A novel reason for taking a newspaper was given by a Philadelphia housekeeper who subscribed for the New Jersey Mirror. She said it was an excellent paper and she was interested in the news of Mt. Holly, where it is printed, but her main reason for taking it was its size, being the largest folio sheet she could get anywhere and she found it valuable for wrapping up clothing and parcels that she wished to pack away, the printer's ink being a defense against moths.

* * * * *

Those who know something about college life, with its successes and disappointments, will appreciate the sentiment in a portion of a letter written by a Plainfield boy at Cornell regarding the defeat of the football team by Lafayette this season. The young man writes concerning the return home of the team and says: "Although it was pretty early in the morning there were about seven hundred students down at the station to meet them, more, in fact, than were there when we defeated Princeton The men were not out of bed when the train reached here, and while they were dressing the cheering was almost continuous. A person who has not been to college hardly can realize what an athletic defeat means to the undergraduates and when you think of nearly a thousand students getting up at about 5:30 on Sunday morning, the only morning of the week that they can sleep, and walking about two miles to cheer a defeated team, you can see that there is a good deal of sentiment hidden away in even such as we. The men at last came out of the cars, although some were in a pretty bad way. Great big fellows, some weighing over two hundred pounds, had to be carried to the float prepared to take them up to the hotel. When at last we started for town and the fellows were singing Alma Mater, the majority of the team were crying like babies. And yet in a way there was a happy look on their faces, too, they had been cheered before in victory and would expect to be, but in defeat, when they had expected to arrive quietly in town and sneak off to their rooms in disgrace, to be received as they were was more than they had ever hoped for. One member of the team said that the reception would do more for Cornell than a dozen victories would do."

—Many persons have had the experience of Mr. Peter Sherman, of North Stratford, N. H., who says: "For years I suffered torture from chronic indigestion, but Kodol Dyspepsia Cure made a well man of me." It digests what you eat and is a certain cure for dyspepsia and every form of stomach trouble. It gives relief at once even in the worst cases, and can't help but do you good. L W. Randolph.

Dear Sirs:—Some days since a package of your GRAIN-O preparation was left at my office; I took it home and gave it a trial, and I have to say I was very much pleased with it, as a substitute for coffee. We have always used the best Java and Mocha in our family, but I am free to say I like the GRAIN-O as well as the best coffee I ever drank.

Morris Chairs.

We have just received from one of the largest manufacturers in the country a carload of fine Parlor Rockers and elegant Morris Chairs. We contracted for these chairs to be delivered by Dec. 1st, but the manufacturers failed to deliver them on that date, so rather than lose the sale on them they offered the entire lot to us at greatly reduced prices, in some instances as much as ½ the regular cost, so we accepted them and they go on sale today. All told there are two hundred and sixty high-grade chairs in the lot. To make buying easy we have arranged them in lots as follows: ROCKERS lot 1, at 2.98, worth regular 3.50 to 5.00. ROCKERS lot 2, at 3.98, worth regular 4.00 to 6.50. ROCKERS lot 3, at 4.48, 4.98 and 5.98, worth regular 5.00 to 10.00. MORRIS CHAIRS, lot 1, at 4.98, worth regular 6.50. MORRIS CHAIRS, lot 2, at 5.98, worth regular 7.50. MORRIS CHAIRS, lot 3, at 6.98, worth regular 8.50. CHILDREN'S MORRIS CHAIRS 2.98, worth regular 3 50. Could you find anything more desirable for a gift than one of these chairs?

THEY SAY.

The Merchant Says:

Telephone service is a great promoter of business. It not only is an open door for new business, but increases the facility with which any business may be transacted.

The Railroad Man Says:

It keeps our many departments running in continuous harmony. It increases both our passenger and our freight service, and is a great convenience to our patrons.

The Broker Says:

It keeps me in touch with the market wherever I am; I buy and sell by wire, and by taking telephonic advantage of a turn in the market I have made thousands of dollars.

The Doctor Says:

Telephone service has increased my income to nearly double. Many persons will seek advice by telephone who would hesitate to ask a physician to make a call.

The Caterer Says:

Telephone service enables me to serve my patrons more speedily and with less effort. It minimizes possibility of loss from overstocking.

The Housekeeper Says:

Life without telephone service would be unbearable. It smooths all the rough places. How we ever got along without it, I do not know.

The Suburban Resident Says:

The knowledge that I can call up my house out of town from my office in the city, is a great comfort.

The College Man Says:

"I say, old chap, it's great. You can call up and get the latest news from the football game or the boat race, and every other old thing a fellow wants to know."

Everybody Says:

It is the greatest thing in the world—the greatest convenience of this or any other time. The greatest factor in business, social or domestic life; a service no one can afford to be without.

The Telephone Company Says:

We want your patronage on the basis of LOW RATES, PERFECT SERVICE.

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence.)

Dunellen, December 21.—With all arrangements carried out perfectly and before a large attendence, Rev. N. J. Sproull was duly received in the Elizabeth Presbytery and installed as pastor of the Presbyterian church last evening. Previous to the evening's exercises, the Board of Presbytery met in the afternoon and arranged all details. Rev. J. A. Stretchell, of Elizabeth, moderator, presided. Among those who were present were Stated Clerk Parry, of Pluckamin; permanent clerk, Rev. Dr. J. E. Kerr, of Elizabeth; Rev. Dr. Cobb, of Elizabeth; Revs. G. K. Newell and J. O. McKelvey, of Plainfield, and Rev. Mr. Tyack, of Hightstown, a member of the Monmouth Presbytery. The elders who were present were R. J. Swackhamer, A. A. Lake and T. C. Bodine. The installation services were presided over by Rev. G. K. Newell. Rev. Mr. Hamilton, of Elizabeth, delivered the installation sermon. The charge to the people was delivered by Rev. Mr. Tyack, of Hightstown, while the charge to the pastor was made by Rev. Mr. Swain, of Allentown, Pa. The anthem, "Awake My Soul," was rendered by the choir very effectively to an accompaniment played by Mrs. Wilson Fredericks.

For some time past coal thieves have been operating on the Jersey Central in the vicinity of the Greenbrook tanks. Wednesday night several men, said to have been residents of Lincoln, were detected by railroad officials, but the thieves escaped in the darkness. Several shots were fired at the retreating figures, but none of them took effect.

The usual custom of holding Christmas exercises was not followed out today by the school pupils, with the exception of several lower grades in the Whittier School. In these grades individual exercises were held in the various classrooms, consisting of songs and recitations. The pupils will not re-assemble for study until Jan. 2.

The pupils of St. John's Sunday-school will have their Christmas entertainment Tuesday afternoon. An appropriate programme will be given, after which gifts will be distributed.

Next Wednesday evening a meeting will be held in the Presbyterian church for the purpose of electing two deacons and two elders. A full attendance is requested.

GIFT FOR PRINCIPAL.

Novel Present For Mr. Travell From Members of Class of 1900 of the High School.

Principal I. W. Travell, of the High School, was given a pleasant surprise this morning by the members of the class of 1900. On entering his office, he discovered a handsome sofa cushion placed on his desk bearing a tag addressed to himself. The cushion is made of red and green silk and bears the names of the class members, together with the class motto, all worked in red and green. The members of the class have been engaged for the past year in making the cushion. Beside being a handsome gift it will serve to bind the donors and the receiver in a more closer relationship during the years that are to come.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Oesterreich.

Wien. Kaufmann Wilhelm Siehl aus Rotterdam, Inhaber eines Versandthauses, wurde hier wegen Betrügereien zu vier Jahren schweren Kerkers verurtheilt.—Die Domänenverwalterswittwe Frau Maria Theresia Kulla beging unlängst ihren 101. Geburtstag. Frau Kulla erfreut sich trotz ihres hohen Alters großer Geistesfrische.

Bozen. Dahier ist Dr. Richard Kinsele, „öffentlicher Agent," der letzte dieses Standes in ganz Oesterreich, gestorben. Im Jahre 1848 war Dr. Kinsele Mitglied der Wiener Studentenlegion und zog damals an die bedrohte Landesgrenze, wo er mehrere Gefechte mitmachte.

Bruneck. Die Renovirungsarbeiten im Schlosse Bruneck wurden für dieses Jahr eingestellt und sollen nächstes Jahr zu Ende geführt werden. Die Kosten dürften 200,000 Kronen betragen.

Budapest. In der Ortschaft Benkocz wurde die Gendarmerie von den Bauern attackirt und mit Steinen beworfen. Die Gendarmerie gab Feuer; ein Bauernbursche wurde getödtet, zwei wurden schwer verwundet.

Graz. Hierorts wurden 36 italienische Studenten wegen Hochverrathes in Untersuchung gezogen, weil sie in einem Wirthshause ein gegen Oesterreich gerichtetes italienisches Lied sangen. Zwei von ihnen wurden verhaftet. Es wurden für sie 100,000 Kronen Kaution angeboten, jedoch abgelehnt.

Karlsbad. Bei der Offertenöffnung zur Verpachtung des Kurhauses Stadtpark war Meistbietender Leonard Kohl mit 96,000 Kronen.

Krakau. In die Kanzlei des Abgeordneten und reichen Brauereibesitzers Götz Okocimski kamen zwei anständig gekleidete Leute und verlangten ein halbes Prozent seines Vermögens für die Nationalregierung. Als eine abschlägige Antwort erfolgte, feuerte einer drei Revolverschüsse ab und verwundete den Verwalter Narzymski. Der Thäter entkam, sein Genosse wurde verhaftet.

Marburg. Bei den Gemeindewahlen siegte im dritten Wahlkörper die ganze Liste der Sozialdemokraten.

Roveredo. Dahier wurde Florian Großrubatscher, der den Gymnasialdirektor Alton in Roveredo sammt seiner Nichte ermordet hatte, hingerichtet. Vor der Exekution gestand er, auch im Innsbrucker Vorort Hölling einen Raubmord an einer Frau verübt zu haben.

Steyr. Anhier starb in Folge Vergiftung der Direktor der hiesigen Fachschule und Versuchsanstalt für Eisen- und Stahlindustrie, Gustav Ritzinger, im 46. Lebensjahre. Ritzinger, der auch Genossenschaftsinstruktor und Mitglied der Jury der Pariser Weltausstellung war, galt als Autorität auf kunstgewerblichem Gebiete.

Teplitz. Neue Kohlenwerksanlagen wurden von der Firma Palme König bei Klostergrab, vom Kalkwerksbesitzer Anton Endisch bei Loosch und von der Verwaltung des Marienschachtes bei Oberleutensdorf errichtet.

Schweiz.

Bern. Der erweiterte Bürgerrath der Stadt Bern hat eine weitere Subvention von 50,00 Francs für die Restauration des Münsters bewilligt.—Die Gemeinde Delsberg hat die Wiedereinführung des neunten Schuljahres beschlossen, was die Errichtung zweier neuen Schulklassen nöthig macht. Das Schulgeld ward für die die Sekundarschule besuchenden Mädchen, deren Eltern in Delsberg wohnen, aufgehoben.

Zürich. Der aus dem Kanton Zürich stammende, in Nervi, Italien, verstorbene Kaufmann Heinrich Huber hat über 1,000,000 Francs zu gemeinnützigen und wohlthätigen Zwecken vermacht.

Basel. Bei Mönchenstein stieß ein Schnellzug in Folge falscher Weichenstellung auf einen Güterzug. Ein gewisser Guggenheim wurde getödtet, zwei andere Personen schwer verletzt. Mehrere Güterwagen, darunter einer mit Vieh, wurden zertrümmert. Mönchenstein ist dieselbe Station, in deren Nähe im Jahre 1891 durch Einsturz einer Brücke eine gräßliche Eisenbahnkatastrophe sich ereignete, die über ein Dutzend Menschen das Leben kostete.

St. Gallen. Die politische Bürgergemeinde der Stadt St. Gallen beschloß einstimmig die Subvention von 140,000 Francs an die elektrische Straßenbahn St. Gallen-Speicher-Trogen.

Graubünden. „Zachäus auf dem Feigenbaum" ist der originelle Name eines in Jenius gegründeten Vereins von Zollbeamten aus den Kantonen Graubünden und St. Gallen.

Waadt. Der Große Rath des Kantons Waadt hat etwa 200 wohlthätigen und gemeinnützigen Vereinen und Gesellschaften die staatliche Anerkennung auf die Dauer von 50 Jahren erneuert.

Genf. Die Polizei in Genf hat einen Franzosen, Fridolin Mercier, verhaftet, der vom Gericht in Poitiers wegen Raubmordes verfolgt wurde. Er war in die Wohnung eines Gutsbesitzers, Leon Prin in Ayron, eingebrochen und hatte den ihn beim Plündern des Hauses überraschenden Mann mit einem Flintenschuß niedergestreckt. Darauf war er mit 2100 Francs entflohen.

By a city ordinance, it is provided that no dog shall be permitted to run at large within the city limits, unless a good and sufficient muzzle shall be placed over the mouth of said dog in such manner as to render biting impossible. If any person permits or suffers any dog owned or harbored by him and not so muzzled to run at large, the ordinance provides that he shall upon conviction be punished by a fine not exceeding ten dollars for each offense.

Any person prepared to make complaint under oath of any violation of this ordinance may apply to the subscriber and have prosecution begun forthwith

Topic For the Week Beginning Dec. 23. "The Glory of Christ." Text, John 1, 1-14.

"In Him was life, and the life was the light of men."

God's glory is a wondrous thing,
Most strange in all its ways,
And, of all things on earth, least like
What men agree to praise.

Whoever studies men, singly and in society, men as they now are, their present aims, achievements, powers and infirmities, studies their doings and feelings, thoughts and fancies in all the past times, in many lands and through long ages; whoever comes to know man best will most deeply appreciate the miracle of the manhood of Jesus Christ. He baffles all ingenuity to class Him with others. He fascinates as no other character. He foils in all attempts to exhaust and fully comprehend. We can measure an Alexander and appreciate his marvelous ability and strategy. We can enter into his spirit and watch the development of his nature and enlargement of spirit and plans. His weaknesses and vices are understood. We admire and criticise, but have no impulse to emulate.

We are told of the greatness of Julius Cæsar. We read in open eyed wonderment of his life from boyhood until he fell at the base of Pompey's statue in the senate house dead in midcareer—millions of money spent on feasts and games for the people, mountains of debt incurred in pursuit of political honors and military position, a million lives sacrificed in Gaelic wars and unspeakable horrors inflicted on the people, with no expression of regret or excuse of necessity, all done, seemingly, from coolest and most selfish calculation of personal interest; a private life of utmost impurity and public administration without care for right and justice. This is the man who is reckoned greatest of all mortals in his influence in his own and subsequent times. What glory!

The glory of Jesus Christ is in sharpest contrast—a private life of spotless cleanness and sweetness in the midst of an age of Herods and Cæsars, this life not lived in monkish seclusion and ascetic austerities, but in close touch with the social customs of His times, mingling with the people in most familiar relations in home life until the home life of Nazareth and Bethany becomes the ideal of the lovers of purity for all times, and the Magdalene's face becomes the radiant type of sacred womanhood, and Mary of Nazareth is enthroned as the queenly one in the place from which Venus has forever fallen.

Conqueror of death—that is the glory of the Christ as over against the triumph of Cæsar. This one came that men "might have life and that they might have it more abundantly." He did not lift up His voice in forum or on battlefield. He left no elaborate glorification of His achievements to live as literature in coming ages. But He lived as the true man should live and showed us once for all the Son of God in human form. He knew God and learned obedience and loved us and gave Himself for us and to us, glory of Godhood and manhood!

Holiday Presents.

As the holidays draw near the anxious question with many is, "What presents shall I give?" Not the cost of the article, but the peculiar fitness it has to express some sentiment, awaken some memory or convey intelligence, is what guides in selection. The best gifts are those which contain most of the personality of the giver and are most appropriate to the condition and feelings of the recipient.

Where some recognition of the Christly relation can be expressed great value is added to the worth of the present. Not mere beauty of design and workmanship, not the rarity and cost of material, will cause it to be cherished, but the spiritual allusion, the subtle charm of reference to inner soul associations, will make it prized when more expensive offerings are forgotten.

Above all other things, make the Christmastide a time of remembering, the source of all its joys and the full fountain head of all abiding happiness. Aim to give joy that shall be permanent. Direct the thoughts and affection of your friends toward Him who is the incomparable gift. And, for yourself, "present your body a living sacrifice unto God, which is your reasonable service."

Do not let the haste and care of these days press out of mind the most precious things of life. Do not allow time and thought to be so overoccupied that there is no room for the reception of God's best gifts. Keep room for the Master and His love.

Followers of Christ.

The Son of God goes forth to war,
A kingly crown to gain;
His blood red banner streams afar!
Who follows in His train?

Who best can drink His cup of woe,
Triumphant over pain;
Who patient bears his cross below,
He follows in His train.

The martyr first whose eagle eye
Could pierce beyond the grave,
Who saw his Master in the sky
And called on Him to save,

Like Him, with pardon on his tongue,
In midst of mortal pain,
He prayed for them that did the wrong.
Who follows in his train?

A glorious band, the chosen few
On whom the Spirit came;
Twelve valiant saints, their hope they knew
And mocked the cross and flame.

They met the tyrant's brandished steel,
The lion's gory mane;
They bowed their necks the death to feel.
Who follows in their train?

A noble army, men and boys,
The matron and the maid,
Around the Saviour's throne rejoice
In robes of light arrayed.

They climb the steep ascent of heaven
Through peril, toil and pain;
Oh, God, to us may grace be given
To follow in their train!

—Reginal Heber.

FRYE TO WED A CUBAN.

Superintendent of Schools to Marry a Teacher of Cardenas.

HAVANA, Dec. 21.—Mr. Alexis E. Frye, superintendent of Cuban schools, who will be married on New Year's day to Senorita Maria Teresa Arruebarrena, a schoolteacher of Cardenas, has issued an appeal to the Cuban people urging them in the spirit of the New Year, the new century and of his marriage with a Cuban to drop the sentiment of hatred of Spain in the Cuban hymn and to substitute for the words "Not afraid of the Spanish tyrant" the words "Not afraid of the government of strangers." Senorita Arruebarrena will issue 100,000 copies of the hymn containing the new words on the wedding day.

"Cuba no longer is nor will she ever be again a colony," says Mr. Frye. "The hour has sounded for her to take her proper place among the nations of the world. Thanks to the sacrifices of her heroes she has won the priceless jewel of freedom, which she must guard not only against a single power, but against the whole world. Cuba must teach her sons that whatever faction tramples on her freedom is a tyrant, and she must be ever ready with life and fortune to guard the freedom of the fatherland against any foreign power whatever.

"Her national hymn should reflect her growth from a colony to a nation and should teach her children not to fear any foreign power that threatens her freedom. The thoughts of Cuba are now turned toward the glory of the Latin race. Rome once ruled the world. Who shall say that Cuba may not soon restore her old time glory, the fleets of all nations riding in her spacious harbors?

"I hope that the constitutional convention will recommend this broader principle as the basis and genius of Cuba's national hymn. In marrying a Cuban teacher I pledge the same loyalty to the Cuban flag as to the stars and stripes."

The Cuban constitutional convention, which is still in secret session, has decided that the qualifications for the presidency shall be citizenship at the time of the promulgation of the constitution.

Mayor Rodriguez has decided to interpose an absolute veto upon Mr. Michael J. Dady's "tanteo" rights under the Havana sewering and paving contract, which will open the competition to all bidders unless Washington interferes.

DR. WISE DISMISSED.

President New York State Lunacy Commission Guilty of Malfeasance.

ALBANY, Dec. 21.—Governor Roosevelt announced last evening that he had dismissed from office Dr. Peter M. Wise, president of the state commission in lunacy, on the charges preferred of malfeasance in office. The governor sets forth his reasons for Wise's removal in the following memorandum:

"In making this removal I consider nothing but the statements and admissions of Dr. Wise himself as made in his testimony taken before me Dec. 10 and 11 inst. and submitted in the form of exhibit 1 at the hearing on the charges Dec. 20, 1900. The accuracy of this testimony was acknowledged by Dr. Wise's counsel.

"Dr. Wise was guilty of gross impropriety in directly or indirectly, by suggestion or otherwise, soliciting subscription to the Copper Hill Mining company, of which he was president, from his official subordinates of both sexes, including superintendents, doctors, stewards and in at least two cases the heads of private asylums which are under the supervision of the state commission in lunacy. Such conduct would be improper in any public officer. It is peculiarly improper in the case of the head of the state commission in lunacy. This commission has extraordinary power, controls vast sums of money and deals with a peculiarly helpless class of people, so it calls for a particularly high type of official rectitude."

Hospital Gets Handsome Gift.

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—The New York Eye and Ear infirmary at Second avenue and Thirteenth street is richer today by $75,000, which has been presented to it by William C. Schermerhorn, its second vice president, for the construction of a pavilion for patients afflicted with diseases of the ear. In the last five months the hospital surgeons have performed 200 mastoid operations for intercranial diseases. This is a comparatively new operation, of great delicacy, and patients from all over the country have presented themselves to undergo it. It is for these cases especially that Mr. Schermerhorn intends the new pavilion. It will be the first of its kind.

To Free Kurdistan.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—General Osman Pasha, who led the Kurd rising in 1878, told a representative of The Daily Mail yesterday that he would leave London today to head another rising to free Kurdistan from Turkish rule. "I hope for English sympathy," he said, "if not for more material support in the struggle against the despotic Turks, who, dominated by Russia, have compelled the brave, warlike Kurds to act the part of assassins toward their brother Armenians."

Tuberculosis Among Cattle.

GENEVA, N. Y., Dec. 21.—Tuberculosis has broken out among the cattle on the New York state experiment station in this city. Dr. W. H. Jordan, director of the station, refuses to say anything relative to the case. It is said the trouble broke out about three weeks ago and that the number of cattle afflicted is reported at from 7 to 12.

PEDDLES MEDICINE.

Former Governor Leedy of Kansas Adopts New Business for Retrieving His Fortune.

Out in Kansas during the last few years many men have leaped into sudden political prominence, and with equal suddenness have gone back into almost complete obscurity. Among the more recent and spectacular of these political meteors is former Gov. John W. Leedy, who has started out to peddle a new patent medicine through the state.

In explaining his action Mr. Leedy points out that as governor his salary was but $3,000 a year, and that he was compelled to spend most of that sum to maintain the dignity of the office. When his term expired he had some money, and with that as capital he went into the Kansas-Missouri zinc districts, where he made speculations which proved disastrous. As a result he found himself practically penniless. Then a well known Kansas physician made him a proposition to go into partnership with him in the manufacture of a patent medicine, and Leedy took him up. He declares that he feels no loss of dignity and is not troubled with false pride in starting out with his wagon.

"I must have an income," he says, "and a man can't make a business of being governor. We have something to sell, and it is my business to find customers. I am simply doing what hundreds of men have done before me. Because I have been a little unfortunate in financial matters, is that any reason why I should lie down and give up the fight?"

MARQUIS OF LANSDOWNE.

Public Career of the Peer Who Has Been Made British Secretary for Foreign Affairs.

The lord of 143,000 acres of land, Henry Charles Keith Petty-Fitzmaurice, marquis of Lansdowne, has a long list of territorial and other titles, but perhaps his chief claim to the distinction of long and honorable descent is the fact that he is the twenty-sixth baron of Kerry and Lixnaw, which carries his pedigree back to 1181, and that one of his ancestors was Strongbow, earl of Pembroke.

The present marquis, the fifth, is 55 years old. His mother was a daughter of Comte de Flahault and Baroness Keith and Nairn. He entered official life at the age of 24, when, as a warm adherent of Mr. Gladstone, he was made lord of the treasury. After three years in this office he became under secretary for war, holding the post two years.

MARQUIS OF LANSDOWNE.
(Just Appointed British Secretary of Foreign Affairs.)

In 1880 he was made under secretary for India, but resigned the office the same year because of his dissent from the home rule policy.

From 1883 to 1888 he was governor general of Canada, and followed this by a term as viceroy of India, being named by Lord Salisbury, with whose unionist policy he has strongly identified himself. His governorship of India from 1888 to 1893 was less remarkable for domestic reforms than for his work in strengthening the frontier defenses and building strategical railways.

Study of Finger Nails.

An exhaustive study of the nails of the hand has been made by P. A. Minakoff, and some of the results appear to be of medico-legal importance. "Among other things," says Popular Science, "he asserts that the nails of the right hand in a right-handed person are wider by one-half to two millimeters than the corresponding nails on the left hand; while in a left-handed person the reverse obtains, and in the ambidextrous the nails are of equal size on the two hands. The thickness of the nails diminishes progressively from the thumb to the little finger."

Great Slaughter of Rats.

After suffering for a long time from the migratory rats, the inhabitants of Copenhagen organized war against them and in 18 weeks 100,000 were killed.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week Beginning Dec. 23—Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

TOPIC.—The glory of Christ.—John 1, 1-14. (Christmas service.)

The prologue of John's gospel resembles its of the opening chapter of Genesis in which the creation of the world is described. It is fitting and appropriate that it should be so. The birth of the Saviour may well be introduced in the same language as the beginning of the creation. The prologue begins with a reference to the eternal existence of the Creator; it ends with a reference to His glory—"And the Word was made flesh and dwelt among us (and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father) full of grace and truth." This glory of Christ, manifested so signally at His incarnation, forms a worthy subject for our contemplation and study at this Christmas meeting.

1. The glory of Christ was a personal glory. "We beheld His glory." The only begotten Son of God would possess in Himself great glory, and this glory was not only particularly manifested at the time of His birth, but all through His life "glory shone around" in His words, in His works and in His life and character. It was the glory of Christ, the Son, that was seen in the Old Testament dispensation. God, the Father, is invisible to man in this life. "There shall no man," says God, "see Me and live." It was therefore the glory of the Son which appeared at the burning bush, in the pillar of fire, on Mount Sinai and at the dedication of the tabernacle and the temple. Not only here, but in heaven, Christ has a personal glory, as John saw in his vision on the island of Patmos. To him was and will be ascribed, "Blessing and honor and glory and power." And so to Christ, the Son, should we ascribe glory and honor by our words and in our lives.

2. The glory of Christ was also the glory of the Father. Christ has a glory Himself, but also a glory with the Father. One of His missions in this life was to reveal the Father. In Christ "God was manifest in the flesh." "He that hath seen Me hath seen the Father." He came as "the brightness of the Father's glory and express image of His person," and therefore manifested in His life the glory of God the Father. It was a veiled glory, to be sure, and yet it was a truly divine glory, and it should inspire in us a strong desire and earnest purpose to witness the unveiled glory of God, to see Him face to face and to behold His glory from the viewpoint of His throne in heaven. Not only Christ, but nature, reveals the glory of God. "The heavens declare the glory of God, and the firmament showeth His handiwork." As a part of Christ, as a part of nature, we also should in our words and lives set forth the glory of God.

3. The glory of Christ was a visible glory. "We beheld His glory." John beheld it, looked intently and earnestly upon it, and none had better opportunities than John to do so. He saw the glory of His words and works. His glory on the Mount of Transfiguration, and had the great privilege of a vision of His glory as it appears around the throne of God. But we also may behold the glory of Christ. In the gospels we may see His glory as manifested upon the earth, by the eye of faith we may have visions of His heavenly glory, and if we are faithful and true to Him in this life we may abide in the presence of Him and His glory forever. Let us glorify Christ here in order that we may behold His glory in the life to come.

THE PRAYER MEETING.

The prayer meeting should arrange a special Christmas service. A Christmas song service expressing the glory of Christ would be very appropriate.

BIBLE READINGS.

Isa. xl, 1-5; Math. ii, 1-12; xvii, 1-9; xxi, 1-11; Luke ii, 1-20; John ii, 1-11; xi, 38-45; xxi, 1-11; Heb. i, 1-3; II Pet. i, 17; Rev. v, 1-14; xv, 3, 4.

Missing the Mark.

There is, moreover, a mark which vastly transcends these petty bylaws and "do's" and "don'ts" of men, though it may include some of them, and that is the law of Sinaitic holiness, the pure prescription of the absolutely righteous commandment of Jehovah. When now it is man's little mark that is missed, we call it "bad form" or a "great mistake" or perhaps a misdemeanor, which is the word of the statute books. But when it is God's great mark of holiness that is missed there is no term for it but that little, awful monosyllable "sin," compact with infinite terrors, fraught with endless consequences, which is the word of the Bible. Sin brings in the idea of a wrong committed against God, of an offense which is not a contempt of court in the earthly sense, but which strikes at heaven, a crime against the Creator, a failure to attain the goal of that perfection on which God rightfully insists.—Observer.

Christ the Greatest Missionary.

Christ was the greatest missionary because He did not wait for the great occasions, but made such use of the little opportunities as to make them great.

He was the greatest missionary because He gave Himself most completely to His work.

He was the greatest missionary because in His strength alone all other missionaries labor.

He was the greatest missionary because He furnished the source, the object and the inspiration of all missionary work.—C. E. Manual.

As We Are.

There are many people in the world who don't know what they really are till circumstances show them. If the pepper caster could know what it really was, it would always be sneezing its head off.—John Ingelow.

THE NOTE APPROVED

Demands Will Be Presented Without Alternative.

GERMAN TROOPS GAIN ILL REPUTE.

Punitive Expedition Against Chinese Undertaken in Defiance of Understanding to the Contrary Pending Negotiations.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—According to a dispatch to the Reuter Telegram company from Pekin, dated Dec. 20, the ministers have again decided upon the terms of the preliminary joint note. The dispatch says it is understood that they have adopted certain British amendments which will require the approval of various governments and that probably some weeks will elapse before negotiations commence.

"All the governments have approved the British amendment," says the Peking correspondent of The Morning Post, "and the demands will be presented to the Chinese plenipotentiaries without any suggestion of an alternative.

"On many grounds the Germans are gaining a worse reputation for severity than the Russians ever had. The country is practically in a defenseless state, moreover, because Count von Waldersee will not allow Chinese troops to do anything, and the foreign troops are absent or engaged in looting.

"It is reported that five days ago the German troops visited Lung-ching and shot 60 imperial troops who were engaged in suppressing Boxers and also killed 30 other Chinese, including three converts. They took 200 prisoners, including 30 natives attached to the Anglican mission.

"In consequence of an appeal from the magistrates, however, the prisoners were liberated in return for the payment of 20,000 taels. This punitive expedition was in defiance of the understanding that no such measures should be taken pending the negotiations. The Germans are said to have looted the place."

The Russian bank, according to a dispatch to The Daily Express from St. Petersburg, is endeavoring to raise a loan in New York for rebuilding the Manchuria railway.

Lord Lansdowne, secretary of state for foreign affairs, has concluded negotiations, according to The Daily Mail, by which Russia will, Jan. 1, give Great Britain entire control of the railway from Peking to Shan-hai-kwan.

Stolen Diamonds Recovered.

ALBANY, Dec. 21.—One of the greatest crimes in the history of Albany county and one of the most sensational robberies of the decade has come to light in the recovery of the $1,000 diamond cross stolen from the residence of Mrs. Frances Lintner, widow of Joseph Albert

PARKS WON ONE GAME.

LOST TWO TO ROSELLE CASINO ON LATTER'S ALLEYS LAST NIGHT.

Series of Games Rolled in Daily Press Bowling League—Parks Are Now Last in League.

For the first time in many years, the Park Club bowlers won a game on the alleys of the Roselle Casino. The two teams rolled a series of three games last evening in the Daily Press Bowling League and Roselle won two out of three. As a result, the Parks have dropped into last place in the League but it is only by a small amount.

Two of the Park Club team disappointed Captain Laing at the last moment and Dr. C. R. Thiers and F. H. Ball consented to accompany the team simply to fill out. Ralph T. Willis showed up in fine form while Faber repeated his performance of of the first series by rolling two strong games and one weak one. None of the scores made were exceptionally high.

Roselle took the lead in the first game on the first frame and kept it to the end winning easily 801 to 709. Both sides did poor work in the second game and for a time it looked as if the Parks might win. They picked up after a poor start and were within two pins of their opponents on the fifth frame. Poor rolling for the visitors lost the opportunity and they went down to defeat, 736 to 681. Roselle took the lead in third game and kept it up to the fifth frame when a clean frame for the Parks put them in the lead. A double header for VanBuren and steady bowling by Laing and Willis saved the day for the Parks and they won out by 46 pins, despite Roselle's strong windup.

The scores follows:

PARK CLUB.

	1st game.	2d game.	3d game
Willis	146	187	185
F. H. Ball	106
Thiers		139	144

CHRISTMASTIDE AT CITY PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

there was a programme of songs, recitations and readings. The Senior Class presented the school with a copy of the statue "Winged Victory," and an engraving of "Sir Galilhad" by Watts. The presentation speech was made by the president of the class, Hollywood Titus.

The Senior class made its usual presentation of gifts to the Juniors. An appropriate rhyme accompanied each gift. There was some very funny hits. A large audience was present at the exercises.

Handsome Gift for Miss Shattuck.

At the conclusion of the exercises at the Bryant School yesterday afternoon, Miss E. V. Shattuck, principal of the Bryant and Lincoln Schools, was presented with a fine bookcase by the teachers in those buildings. It was a most desirable gift and was a complete surprise to Miss Shattuck, she not having had an inkling of her associates' intentions until the presentation.

At VanEmburgh's.

VanEmburgh's is certainly a busy place, where all keep hustling. Yesterday the small store was well filled. A good display of tempting, moderate priced articles, especially adopted for this particular season of the year are there. If you cannot make your purchases during the day you will find them ready to serve you evenings.

Too Drunk to be Tried.

Hannah Vandervoort, a colored woman, who was drunk and acting in a disorderly manner in the borough about 6 o'clock last night, was locked up by Marshal Campbell. She was still in the lockup at noon, being too much under the influence of liquor to be arranged before the Mayor.

A Strong Remedy.

Joseph D. Welsh, who was found wandering about the streets by Patrolman Myers last evening in a helpless state of intoxication, was arraigned before City Judge Runyon this morning. Welsh said he had taken a little whiskey to relieve his dyspepsia and he drank more than he intended. Sentence was suspended.

DOESN'T CLAIM LEADERSHIP.

Remarks by the Jersey City News Call Forth Comment From the Farmer Orator.

Some timid members of the Democratic party are very anxious that nothing should be done to antagonize the rabid, last ditch, Bryan men in the State, like Jim Minturn, of Hoboken, and Jim Martine, of Plainfield—lest, forsooth, these irreconcilables should leave the party.

There are many real Democrats in New Jersey who think it would be a good thing if they did leave the party. Democracy in New Jersey has not made much discernable progress since they have taken an active part in its management, and if the voters of the State could be convinced that they had actually retired, there "might be something doing" for the party again.—Jersey City News.

This I read with amusement. I have never claimed to have leadership of the Democratic party in New Jersey. My Democracy is too deeply instilled and my convictions of the right and justice of our cause too firmly rooted to be driven from the great Democratic party. I only protest against rewarding the open foes to our party's principles and candidates.

J. E. Martine.

BOROUGH SCHOOL EXERCISE

Programme as Published in The Daily Press Was Followed Out at the Somerset Street School.

The exercises at the Borough High School this morning were very interesting. They were attended by many of the parents of the pupils and friends of the school. The High School was tastefully decorated with flowers and evergreens and presented an inviting appearance. The programme published in yesterday's Daily Press was successfully carried out.

This afternoon the pupils of the primary departments are holding their Christmas exercises in the lower floors, the various class rooms having been thrown into one large room. This is one of the interesting features at the Christmas holidays with the pupils of this department of the Somerset Street School and is looked forward to with pleasure by all of the little folks.

In Aid of Temperance.

In spite of the many attractions at other places last evening, the meeting at Reform Hall was well attended. An excellent programme, consisting of dialect stories by John H. Carney, stump speeches by the Jeanrenaud Bros., vocal solos by Miss Jennie Smith and recitations by Mrs. Fred G. Bach were rendered. Addresses were made by John Goodwin, John Sayers, John Manley and President Smith. At the conclusion of the meeting several of those present signed the pledge.

Will Divide Into Building Lots.

John Elwood Dunn, of New York, has purchased the Henry M. Tower property of two and one-half acres at the corner of West Third street and Clinton avenue, and he will divide the same into building lots. He will move the large house now standing on the property and erect four new houses to be completed by April 1. After that he will erect four more houses. The deed for the property was made through the agency of S. D. Drake.

Justice Wants to Celebrate Holidays.

Legal matters will be very quiet in Justice Huff's court until after the holidays. The Justice is preparing to celebrate Christmas and New Year's, and if possible he does not want anything to interfere with his plans.

Special Meeting Necessary.

Iona Council, Degree of Pocohontas, will hold a special meeting before the month is out to elect officers. This could not be done at the last meeting, there not being a quorum present.

Spencer Conway, of West Fourth street, is detained at home by illness.

—A fine assortment of iron and wood toys at Harpers, 411 Park avenue.

PERSONAL.

Alfred B. Marsh, of Plainfield avenue, has resigned his position as clerk with A. M. Griffen.

MURDERED MAN FOUND IN BLAZING HOUSE.

Aged Modecai Mills Supposed to Have Been Robbed and Killed at His Home.

POCKETS WERE INSIDE OUT.

MYSTERIOUS DEATH OF MISER IN HUNTERDON COUNTY THURSDAY..

General Belief That Murderer Set Fire to House to Hide Evidence of His Crime—Mills Found by Neighbor Who Saw Fire.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Flemington, December 22. — All Hunterdon county is aroused over the supposed murder of Mordecai Mills, a veteran of the Civil War, who lived all alone at Sweet Hollow. Mills was found dead on a couch Thursday morning with his pockets turned inside out and the room all ablaze. It is generally believed that he was murdered for his money, of which he was known to have considerable, and that the murderer then set fire to the house in an effort to destroy all evidences of his crime.

"Sweet Hollow" lies between the mountains midway between Little York and Bloomsbury, Hunterdon county. Farmer Harris, in passing the Mills home, about 7 o'clock Wednesday morning, saw smoke coming from the windows, but his suspicions were not aroused and no investigation was made. Two hours later Mrs Harris discovered the house on fire and hastened to the woods, where her husband was working, and notified him.

Harris broke in the door and found the old man sitting upon a couch, apparently dead or in a stupor. The rooms were filled with smoke, and it was with much difficulty that the flames were subdued. The old man's bed, which was in the kitchen, was almost burned up, and a large hole had been burned through the floor.

Harris notified Dr. Carpenter, of Little York, who arrived about 11 o'clock and found that the old man had probably been dead only a short time.

County Physician Isaac S. Cramer, of Flemington, was summoned and began an investigation after which he concluded that it was a case for the coroner's attention and at once notified Coroner N. D. Boileau, of Jutland. County Physician Cramer learned that Mills had considerable money upon his person Wednesday night and although the official thoroughly searched the house for cash, not a cent was found about the place. The old man's pockets had evidently been rifled of their contents. They were turned inside out and everthing about the house was in disorder. On Wednesday evening Mills said he was going to pay a party $40 Thursday morning. This amount and probably a greater sum was upon his person night before last.

Mills was miserly and lived alone, denying himself nearly all the necessities of life. He drew a pension and also made money cutting spokes and selling them.

He had hoarded his money up for years. He had a moderate bank account at the Bloomsbury National Bank.

Whether Mills had the pension money from his last pay upon his person at the time of the supposed robbery cannot be stated, but it is believed that he had. County Physician Cramer was unable to find any marks of violence upon the old man's body. No autopsy has yet been held.

Coroner Boileau took charge of the case yesterday, and an inquest will probably be held today or Monday.

FELL FROM LADDER.

Freeman Pangborn, a Painter, Had His Right Leg Fractured by Fall—Badly Bruised.

While working in a Central avenue residence a few days ago, Freeman Pangborn, a painter, fell from a ladder to the floor, a distance of about ten feet. He struck heavily and was unable to rise. His companions assisted him to his home on Arlington avenue and Dr. Tomlinson was called.

His right leg was found to have been fractured above the ankle and he was bruised considerably. He is now somewhat improved but it will be several weeks before he will be able to work.

FAIR WILL END TONIGHT.

LARGE CROWD EXPECTED AT WASHINGTON HALL THIS EVENING.

Fair Attendance at Red Men's Fair Last Night—Various Contests Will Close This Evening.

Although the attendance at the Red Men's fair last evening was not as large as that of Thursday, it was equal to the three preceding nights. Being next to the last night it was regarded as very gratifying and a much larger crowd is looked for this evening.

Dancing still continues to be the feature of the fair. Aside from this and the attractions at the booths, the only specialties last evening were two sparring exhibitions by local athletes.

A four round bout between John King and Arthur Begram was watched with interest and loud applause greeted each effective blow. A second bout lasted three rounds, the principals being Arthur Palmer and John Taylor. It was not as spirited as the first but was considered a fair exhibition by those versed in such matters. A third match had been arranged but the men failed to appear as did also the Wetumpkah Trio who were scheduled to sing.

Several fancy articles were chanced off but the book contests do not close until this evening. A large amount of money will be received from this source as the friends of the contestants have worked hard all the week. As considerable interest has been manifested the results are being anxiously awaited. The time at which the contests will close is as follows: Girl's ring, 9; Degree of Pocohontas pin, 9:30; boy's bicycle, 10; diamond ring, 10:30; doll, 11; gold watch, 11:30.

The voting contest for the most popular sachem or past sachem becomes more exciting as the end draws near. Sachem F. J. Blatz still leads with 94 votes to his credit. As it will take considerable time to award the prizes no specialties will be given this evening and the affair will come to a close promptly at midnight.

NEW SCHOOL FAVORED.

Public Meeting Will be Held in Somerville to Discuss Advisibility of Building a $45,000 School.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, Dec. 22.—A meeting of the Board of Education was held last night to hear the report of the committee appointed to consider the proposition whether to build an addition to the present public school building, to erect a new building on Cliff street or to tear down the present old structure and erect a new one on its site.

The committee reported that they had examined the present building and found it unsafe and unsanitary; that they had visited the school buildings at Asbury Park, Ocean Grove and other places and decided that it would be best to tear down the old building and erect a new one. They had had plans prepared of an uptodate building sufficiently large enough to accommodate the pupils for the next ten years, which would cost about $15 000 They recommended that a public meeting of the citizens be called for January 8 and the matter be put to a vote.

The recommendations of the committee were unanimously adopted by the Board. If the citizens vote in favor of a new building, it is proposed to have it ready by next September.

New Reading Mileage Ticket.

With the exhaustion of the present form of thousand-mile tickets the Philadelphia and Reading Railway will introduce a new form of mileage ticket similar to that now in use on the New York Central and some other roads. The sale and use of this new ticket will be in accordance with the rules of the company now in effect, except that three miles per passenger will be the minimum charge, instead of five miles, if used for local passage between the Reading Terminal in Philadelphia and Girard avenue.

Fourth Anniversary.

The fourth anniversary of the organization of the Monroe Avenue church will be celebrated Sunday, December 30 The anniversary sermon will be preached in the morning by Rev. D. G H. Whitney, of the Hackettstown Collegiate Institute. In the evening fitting exercises will be held including a historical sketch of the work of the church during the past year to be given by L. C. Batson, president of the board of trustees.

Tiny Snow Storm.

The long expected and predicted snow storm reached Plainfield last evening shortly after 9 o'clock. For about half an hour the "beautiful" fell soft and silently, barely covering the earth with its ermine mantle. The snow was beneficial in one way. It has been the means of covering the dusty streets for a short time at least.

PRESIDENCY WILL NOT GO TO SECOND WARD.

Because That Ward Gave Majority to Col. Tyler in Last City Election It Is Said.

MR. CORIELL OR MR. LEE.

CHOICE OF PRESIDENT OF COUNCIL MAY FURNISH SOME EXCITEMENT.

Friends of Mr. Dumont Want to See Him Re-elected But Opposition Exits in First and Fourth—May Nominate Two Candidates.

While no caucus has yet been held by the members of the Common Council to select the presiding officer for that body during the coming year, a fairly good understanding of the situation exists among those who are prominent in local political circles As far as the presidency of the Council goes, it can be stated with a fair amount of certainty that that office will not go to the Second ward. Present prospects point to either Councilman B. Frank Coriell, of the Third ward, or Councilman Robert L. Lee, of the Fourth ward, as the probable one who is to be thus honored.

It is very doubtful, however, that the choice will be made without contest. A caucus may be held but the feelings of some of the members of the Council is pretty well recognized and it may be that all will not be willing to abide by the result of a caucus. In that case, there will probably be two names presented for the office.

The fight over the presidency of the Council last year will be remembered At that time, Councilman Frank H Smith was elected by a combination of the votes of the First and Fourth wards, defeating Councilman J. B. Dumont. When Mr. Smith resigned to accept the Collectorship, Councilman Dumont was elected to fill his place without a contest.

As the oldest member of the Council for time of service, there are some who believe that Mr. Dumont should be re-elected President of the Council. The opposition to him is on the ground that he comes from the Second ward which was the only ward in the city to give Col Tyler a majority in the last city election and that therefore the greatest honor the Council can bestow should not go to the only Democratic ward in the city.

A Republican leader, influential in city affairs, told a Press reporter last evening that Mr. Dumont would not be re elected to the office of presiding officer of the Council. As to who was to succeed Mr. Dumont, he would not state, but said the First ward had nobody who wanted it, so that it would probably go to the Third or Fourth. Concerning the appointment of committees, he seemed to think that it was possible that Mr. Tolles would not succeed himself as chairman of the street committee.

FINE HOLIDAY TRADE.

Much Business at Nagle's Well Equipped Pharmacy on West Front Street.

Nagle, the West Front street druggist, conducts one of the best pharmacies in the city, and he should not be overlooked by anyone who has need of things in his line. The stock at this store is always complete and the prices are just as low as it is possible to make them. Mr. Nagle is doing an excellent holiday trade in toilet articles, perfumes, brushes, combs, sachet powder, cut glass bottles, and many other things. Prescriptions are carefully compounded.

Christmas Tree of Relief Association.

It is hoped that the friends of the poor of Plainfield will not forget that there is to be a Christmas tree at the rooms of the Relief Association, 544 West Front street, Thursday, December 27, at 2 o'clock. Over 200 children are invited to it, and while the appeal for toys, games, books, etc., has been generously responded to, more will be needed and gratefully received by the ladies in charge at the rooms.

Christmas Tree for School Children.

The pupils of the kindergarten at the Irving public school held exercises yesterday afternoon at which a Christmas tree was the feature. It was decorated with many pretty ornaments made by the children themselves. At the close of school the tree was stripped and the articles were distributed.

NO WORD FROM LITTON.

CLAIRVOYANT AND MRS. DRAKE'S MONEY NOT HEARD FROM.

How The Clever Swindler Managed to Make Such a Big Haul in Plainfield.

No further information concerning the whereabouts of "Prof." Litten, the clairvoyant, who departed last Saturday mysteriously, has been learned and the chances are that he will not be caught very soon. As published yesterday, there are several women and a few men who mourn the disappearance of the "Professor" and the loss of their money.

Mrs. W. H B. Drake, so far as reported, is the heaviest loser. According to the police, she sought his advice concerning some family matters and he induced her to draw $500 from the bank, which she did. When she visited the "Professor" she had the money and he told her to place it in an envelope as she might lose it. While going through this performance the envelope containing the money was exchanged and Mrs. Drake received one containing nothing but scraps of paper. The $500 referred to was to be used it is said to influence certain persons to perform certain acts and there was a sort of legerdermain performed by the clairvoyant.

After the fraud was discovered, Mrs. Drake appeared before Justice Nash and made a complaint, in which she cites that "Professor" Litten obtained $500 of her money through fraud. She therefore prays that he may be apprehended and dealt with as the law provides. Justice Nash issued the papers in the case.

Mrs Lockhurst, a sister of Mrs. Drake, was also relieved of $50 Her object in consulting the clairvoyant was similar to that of Mrs. Drake. A number of other women were also swindled, and, it is reported that two lawyers were also duped In the case of the lawyers, it is said that the "Professor" had engaged them to serve as attorneys for some large corporation. When he saw the legal lights it was after banking hours, and as the "Professor" desired a little money he got them to endorse checks, for which they were obliged to stand as they were no good.

TROLLEY AIDS TRADE.

Many Strangers Bought to Town to Do Christmas Shopping at Plainfield Stores.

The splendid trade the merchants of Plainfield are receiving this week is in a measure due to the large number of people that are being brought into town by the trolleys. The writer dropped into one of the principal department stores yesterday afternoon and was surprised to see so many strange faces. One of the proprietors told him that the customers were nearly all from out of town. He said that home people trade mostly in the morning or towards evening.

The trolleys are of much benefit to the city and their value grows daily. People who formerly went to New York and Newark to do their shopping now come to Plainfield. It costs less railroad fare and they can save time. Besides the merchants of the city are keeping a better class of goods and their stocks are more extensive than in previous years.

AFTER STRAY DOGS.

Police Frequently Called Upon to End Career of Wandering Canines in City Streets.

The police have had their hands full of late looking after mad and stray dogs that have given the citizens considerable annoyance. Nearly every day or so some of the patrolmen have been called upon to kill canines that have made nuisances of themselves. There are probably more worthless dogs in Plainfield and vicinity than any other city in the State. This seems strange, when there is a dog tax. But the trouble is no one seems to claim ownership to some of the cur animals that are running about with no place to call home.

Chapels Will Unite.

No Sunday-school session will be held in Hope chapel, Warren chapel and Bethel chapel tomorrow, as the pupils will unite with the Crescent Avenue church in special Christmas services. Those who prefer will be taken from their respective chapels to the parent church by stages.

Juniors Installed.

WILL SUPPLY LIGHT FOR MANY PLACES.

Combination of Electric Companies Formally Made and Papers Filed at Trenton.

DUNELLEN IS INTERESTED.

BIG POWER HOUSE UNDER CONSTRUCTION AT METUCHEN.

Small Power Houses Will be Abandoned and Electric Current Will be Transmitted From Central Power Station.

Articles of merger have been filed with the Secretary of State consolidating several electric light companies in this vicinity. This calls to mind the story published in The Daily Press last September which predicted this consolidation as now consumated. The companies included are the Central Electric Light Company, the Raritan Electric Light, Heat and Power Company, the Dunellen Electric Light Company, the Edison Electric Illuminating Company, the Rahway Electric Company and the Middlesex Electric Company.

The capital stock is $750,000 and a large power house is now in course of construction at Metuchen. From this plant electric light and power lines will be run to Bound Brook, Dunellen, New Brunswick, Metuchen, Rahway, Carteret and other places. The name of the new concern is the Central Electric Company.

All of the officers of the new company are Newark men and as soon as the new power plant is completed the several smaller plants will be abolished in the several towns and cities to be lighted.

LODGES TO UNITE.

Goodwill Lodge, K. of P., of Scotch Plains, Will be Merged With Perseverance Lodge of This City.

There was an important meeting of Perseverance Lodge, No. 74, K. of P., last evening, when the third rank was worked on one candidate. The important part of the meeting was the action taken deciding to consolidate the membership of Goodwill Lodge, of Scotch Plains. The lodge numbers about thirty five members, and this will give Perseverance Lodge a membership of 250. The consolidation will take effect the first of the year. There was also nomination for officers, many being named for each office. The election will take place next week Friday evening. After the meeting a good social time was enjoyed by the members.

Hustling Times For Expressmen.

The U. S. Express platform near the station has been covered with packages all day and every train adds more to the pile. In order to get as many of them to their destination as is possible before Tuesday, the drivers will work until midnight tonight, and tomorrow eight wagons will be kept going all day. The number of packages being received daily greatly exceeds the amount received at this time last year.

Levy Made.

In the case of Bertha Clum against William M. Walsh which was tried recently before Justice Nash and in which judgment was given to the plaintiff, a levy has been made by Constable W. B. Mattox on sundry goods and chattels belonging to the defendant at 243 East Second street and they will be sold.

Violated Health Ordinance.

Peter Robbins, a garbage gatherer, was before City Judge Runyon this morning, charged by Inspector Addis of the health department with violating one of the health ordinances in regard to using a wagon that did not comply with the law. Sentence was suspended.

Will Visit Trinity.

The members of the Marconnier chapel and Sunday-school will visit Trinity Reformed church tomorrow evening and unite in the Christmas services of the Sunday-school.

No Quorum Present.

Miantonomo Tribe, I. O. R. M., did not meet last evening on account of no quorum being present. The nomination and election of officers will take place next week.

Will Take Account of Stock.

Immediately after Christmas the employes at Woodhull & Martin's store will begin the tiresome task of taking account of stock.

Miss Martha Waterbury, of Craig place, has gone to Cortland, N. Y., to remain until the new year.

PROPOSED CHORAL CONCERT.

ORATORIO OF "ELIJAH" WILL BE GIVEN IF SUPPORT IS ASSURED.

Necessary to Know at Once If Enough Subscriptions Can Be Secured to Make It a Success.

Now that the singing of the "Oratorio of the Messiah," with its many suggestions of the Christmas season, is past, it might be well to remind music lovers that there still remains a proposed rendition of the oratorio of "Elijah."

As those who heard it know, the "Messiah" was given more in the spirit of praise service than a concert, and the expenses connected with its rendition were met by the generous subscriptions of some of our public spirited citizens.

The "Elijah" on the contrary, will be more in the nature of a concert. It will be given in the Music Hall sometime before Lent, and the chorus will be supported by a full orchestra and soloists.

Those unfamiliar with the work as a whole will recognize many of the beautiful numbers as familiar friends in our church services.

The Elijah contains the superb tenor solo, "If With All Your Hearts Ye Truly Seek Me," the stirring soprano solo, "Hear Ye Israel, Hear What the Lord Speaketh," the well-known contralto air "O Rest in The Lord," and the Angelic trio, "Lift Thine Eyes," and many majestic choruses which, though less familiar, cannot fail charm and uplift.

The Oratorio may be classed in the very front rank of musical compositions, and certainly deserves the hearty support of our towns people in making it a possibility.

To defray the expenses of a first-class orchestra and soloists, a price of $1 each has been fixed for the tickets, and the committee begs that all those desiring to subscribe will send their subscription applications to George T. Rogers, treasurer, 44 Myrtle ave-Plainfield, at once.

The cause for this haste will be manifest, as the rehearsals for the Oratorio will, or will not, go forward as the subscription list is complete or incomplete.

LITTLE FOLKS TOOK PART.

Christmas Exercises at Somerset Street School Marked the Beginning of Holiday Season.

The assembly rooms at the Somerset street school in the borough were filled with the parents and friends of the school yesterday afternoon, all highly interested in the exercises of of the pupils of the grammar department. The programme, as published in The Daily Press, was carried out in a satisfactory manner. The little folks aquitted themselves most creditably. The recitations were well rendered and the piano solos and singing nicely done.

The exercises were under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Kiernan, the principal of the school, and the music was in charge of Miss Mary Hart. Miss Van Fleet was the accompanist. All the pupils gave evidence of careful training and their efforts to entertain the audience were well received. The exercises lasted about an hour and were not tiresome as is often the case with affairs of this kind. The borough schools will remain closed until Thursday, January 3.

Change in Running Trolley Cars.

For a few days past a change in operating the lines of the Somerset and Middlesex Traction Company has been in effect, much to the bewilderment of the people not understanding it. Heretofore cars have run through from New Brunswick to Raritan, with the Bound Brook-Dunellen line acting as a shuttle. Under the new arrangement cars are run from Dunellen to Raritan and return, the cars from New Brunswick coming up to Bound Brook only. It is claimed that the schedule can be more closely adhered to in this way.

Stock Company Formed.

C. Schepflin, of the firm of Schepflin, Schultz & Co., of West Front street, is forming a stock company to be capitalized at $300,000, in order to conduct his extensive manufacturing business of wholesale clothing trade on a larger scale. He has one of the best equipped plants in the country to do a large business and the opportunity seems favorable for such a move. There is to be a paid in capital of $150,000 and the plans for increasing the business operations will soon be completed.

Spent Several Seconds Here.

The Duke of Manchester was in Plainfield last evening for a very short interval. With a party of friends, he passed through this city on a fast Blue Line train that leaves New York for Philadelphia at 7 o'clock.

SMALL BOYS IN COURT FOR THROWING STONES.

Roundsman Flynn Rounded Up Two Crowds Who Had Caused Considerable Damage.

BROKE CHURCH WINDOW.

SENTENCE SUSPENDED FOR ONE BATCH ON PROMISE TO PAY.

Small Boys Tried to Throw Stones Over Steeple of St. Mary's Church, But the Missles Broke Window.

The practice of "pegging" stones, indulged in to considerable extent by small boys, has gotten a number of youngsters into trouble.

Yesterday Roundsman Flynn rounded up nearly a dozen lads whose ages ranged from 8 to 14 years, all being charged with throwing stones and breaking windows at the residence of Mrs. Edwina Moore, at 434 East Fifth steeet. The names of the boys who were cited before City Judge Runyon are: John McCauley, Herbert Dobbs, Harry Morrison, Ferdinand Brown, (colored), Albert King, Allen Fulmer, Ordie Brown, (colored), John McCarthy, Walter Sharkey and Geo. Dobbs. The lads acknowledged their guilt and promised to stop the "pegging" practice. Accordingly City Judge Runyon suspended sentence upon a promise that the boys would pay for Mrs. Moore's windows, which they agreed to do.

But the above mentioned boys are not the only ones who have been implicated in the stone "pegging" practice. This morning Roundsman Flynn had another batch of lads before City Judge Runyon, who were charged with breaking windows in St. Mary's R. C church. It appears that it has been the practice of certain pupils attending the Washington School to see if they can throw stones over the church spire.

Often the boys' aim is defective and the result is disastrous to the windows of the sacred edifice. Several days ago a number of the boys were throwing over the spire, when a stone crashed through one of the handsome and expensive stained glass windows, making a hole as big as a hen's egg in the drapery of the figure St. John. Father Smyth complained to the police of the conduct of the boys, and the result was the haling to the police court this morning of Frank McInnery, William Connett, (colored,) Robert Marsh, Fred and Harry Yager.

The boys at first told conflicting stories, but finally Judge Runyon succeeded in eliciting the information that it was Frank McInnery and Robert Marsh who had thrown the identical stones which broke one window but that the other boys were also guilty of the "pegging" practice. The damage may result in $25 or $50. The court held the case open until it could be ascertained what damage had been done and if the boys or their parents were willing to settle for the broken windows.

Familiar Faces in Picture.

In last week's issue of The Alfred, N. Y., Sun, there appears an excellent picture of the Alfred University football team. In the group is noted the familiar faces of Howard L Lewis and Daniel Babcock. The former is a nephew of Mrs. George H Babcock, of West Eighth street. Both he and Mr. Babcock have been frequent visitors to Plainfield, where they have many friends.

Schools Closed For Christmas.

All the schools in the city and borough closed yesterday for the usual Christmas vacation. They will not reopen until Thursday, January 3. With the exception of a few who reside in this city permannently, the teachers left this morning for their respective homes, where they will remain until after New Year's Day.

Pond's Closed Down for Improvements.

The Pond Tool Works closed down this noon and will not open until Wednesday morning. This is done for the purpose of making the proposed improvements. Twenty-five ton capacity electric cranes will be substituted for the steam ones now in use and the three small dynamos will be replaced by one large one.

Adopted School Colors.

The pupils of the Whittier school have adoped the colors red and white and every one can now be seen wearing a bow of these colors.

MONEY FOR HOLIDAY.

Borough Employes Will be Paid Before Christmas According to Resolutions Passed.

There was a special meeting of the Borough Council Thursday night. It had been called for the purpose of auditing and ordering the payment of bills for labor, so that the men can have their money for Christmas There was present at the meeting besides the Mayor, Councilmen Clark, Lee, Valiant, Coddington and Swackhamer. After the resolution had been adopted and the bills ordered paid, the Council adjourned.

Tortured A Witness.

Intense suffering was endured by witness T. L. Martin, of Dixie, Ky., before he gave this evidence: "I coughed every night until my throat was nearly raw; then tried Dr. King's New Discovery which gave instant relief. I have used it in my family for four years and recommend it as the greatest remedy for Coughs, Colds and all Throat, Chest and Lung troubles. It will stop the worst cough, and not only prevents but absolutly cures Consumption. Price 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at L. W. Randolph's Drug Store.

More Cases at Hospital.

Three new medical cases have been admitted to the hospital since Wednesday. None have been discharged since Thursday, making the total number about twenty-two.

—Don't use any of the counterfeits of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Most of them are worthless or liable to cause injury. The orignal DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is a certain cure for piles, eczema, cuts, scalds, burns, sores and skin diseases. L. W. Randolph.

Collection for Children's Home.

The collection to be taken at the Crescent Avenue church on Christmas tomorrow will be for the Children's Home.

—When the stomach is tired out it must have a rest, but we can't live without food. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure "digests what you eat" so that you can eat all the good food you want while it is restoring the digestive organs to health. It is the only preparation that digests all kinds of food. L. W. Randolph.

A Great Brain.

The brain of an ant is larger in proportion to its size than that of any other known creature; this is why the ant, if it were in search of Christmas gifts, would surely go to Collier's, just as you will be sure to go there if you are in quest of the best return for your money, and the daintiest products of the artizan's handicraft.

Extra Help Needed.

Owing to the great rush at Woodhull & Martin's store several extra saleswomen were put on yesterday. Everyone at the store is very busy supplying people's wants for Christmas.

—The contract case of Clark against VanNess has been adjourned in Justice Moffett's court for one week.

Bed Bugs and Cock Roaches.

For destruction and complete riddance of Cock Roaches, Beetles, Wood and Water Bugs, Bed Bugs, Ants, Rats, Mice, etc., "Rough on Rats," though poisonous, if used with care is most effective. In fact it is the only thing that will permanently annihilate Bed Bugs and Cock Roaches. As an exterminator of Rats and Mice, "Rough on Rats" is the old reliable that never fails nor disappoints. They "don't die in the house." Is sold all around the world. Is used by all civilized nations of the earth. Is the most extensively advertised, the best know and has the largest sale of any article of its kind on the face of the globe. It gives satisfaction every time. Beware of imitations. I employ no peddlers. Have a suspicion of any dealer offering substitutes said to be as good. 15c. and 25c.

BLACKSMITHS ARE NOT BUSY.

Good Weather This Winter Has Caused a No Demand for Shoeing Horses.

While the citizens generally enjoy and appreciate this beautiful weather, and to some business men it is welcome, while there are many others weo would prefer to have the weather colder ann a good batch of show. This is true with the blacksmiths, whose business is particularly dull at present, owing to the fact that the wheeling is perfect.

There is nothing to warrant the reshoeing of horses, and owners of carriage horses are not having their animals looked after by the smiths while there is an absence of snow or ice to interfere. To make the blacksmiths happy it is only necessary to have plenty of ice in the streets. In consequence of the fine weather, therefore, the blacksmiths have plenty of time on their hands.

A Woman's Awful Peril.

"There is only one chance to save your life and that is through an operation" were the startling words heard by Mrs. I. B. Hunt of Lime Ridge, Wis., from her doctor after he had vainly tried to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. Gull stones had formed and she constantly grew worse. Then she began to use Electric Bitters which wholly cured her. It's a wonderful Stomach, Liver and Kidney remedy. Cures Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite. Try it. Only 50c. Guaranteed. For Sale by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

Miss Annie Miller, of Park avenue, who recently underwent an operation at Roosevelt Hospital, is improving nicely.

—DeWitt's Little Early Risers are dainty little pills, but they never fail to cleanse the liver, remove obstructions and invigorate the system. L. W. Randolph.

—Plainfield Council, No 711, Royal Arcanum, will meet in regular session next Monday evening.

—When you need a soothing and healing antiseptic application for any purpose, use the original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, a well known cure for piles and skin diseases. It heals sores without leaving a scar. Beware of counterfeits. L. W. Randolph.

Mrs. Jacob Blimm, of Somerset street, has been visiting relatives in Brooklyn for a short time.

World's Champion.

"I tried many remedies to cure piles," writes W. R. Smith, of Latham, Ill., "but found no relief till I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve. I have not been troubled with piles since." It's the only champion pile cure on earth and the best salve in the world. 25c per box, guaranteed by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

George Taylor, of Codington avenue, has recovered from a recent illness and has returned to work.

—Help is needed at once when a person's life is in danger. A neglected cough or cold may soon become serious and should be stopped at once. One Minute Cough Cure quickly cures coughs and colds and the worst cases of croup, bronchitis, grippe and all throat and lung troubles. L. W. Randolph.

DEATH OF WOLCOTT.

Former Bay State Governor Yields to Long Illness.

CLOSE OF A BRILLIANT PUBLIC CAREER

Member of Massachusetts Legislature Several Terms—Lieutenant Governor Three Years and Thrice Elected Governor.

BOSTON, Dec. 22.—Former Governor Roger Wolcott died at his residence on Commonwealth avenue late yesterday afternoon. He became ill with typhoid fever several weeks ago.

He was probably aware that death was near. He knew that he was very sick, but expressed no concern as to the issue.

The disease was probably contracted either while on shipboard or soon after he landed in New York after his European visit. When seized, he was almost in perfect physical condition, said his attending physician. He was possessed of a stalwart constitution, but all the resources of medical science were exhausted in the endeavor to save his life.

The funeral will be held Monday at 11 a. m. in Trinity church, Copley square.

Roger Wolcott was born in Boston July 13, 1847, the son of J. Huntington and Cornelia Frothingham Wolcott. He is a descendant of the Roger Wolcott who was second in command in the expedition of Sir William Pepperell against Cape Breton in 1745, which resulted in the capture of Louisburg.

Another ancestor was Oliver Wolcott, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. Both of these Wolcotts were governors of Connecticut. One of his ancestors, on his mother's side, was active and prominent during the Revolutionary period as a member of the Charlestown committee of safety, and another took part in the Boston tea party.

Roger Wolcott was educated in Boston private schools and at Harvard university, from which he graduated in the class of 1870. In college he ranked high and was the choice of his classmates for orator. He was graduated from Harvard Law school in 1874 and was admitted to the Suffolk bar in the same year. He practiced but little, however, his time having been largely occupied by his duties as trustee of various estates and in the management of financial matters.

Governor Wolcott's public career began in 1877 as a member of the Boston common council, in which he served three years. Then he was elected to the lower house of the legislature, where he served from 1882 to 1884, taking a position among the leaders and winning distinction as a hard and trustworthy worker.

He was elected lieutenant governor in 1893, 1894 and 1895 and upon the death of Governor Greenhalge became acting governor in 1896. In the fall of 1896 he was chosen governor, and in 1897 and 1898 he was re-elected.

Shortly after the resignation of General William F. Draper as embassador to Italy in 1900 President McKinley tendered the post to Mr. Wolcott. The offer was declined on account of the pressure of private business affairs.

On Sept. 2, 1874, Mr. Wolcott was married to Miss Edith Prescott, granddaughter of William H. Prescott, the historian, and great-granddaughter of Colonel William Prescott, who commanded the provincials at the battle of Bunker Hill. They have four sons and one daughter now living.

Congress Takes a Recess.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—No business was transacted by the senate yesterday. The news of the death of Mrs. William P. Frye, wife of the president pro tem. of the senate, was conveyed officially to the body, and out of respect to her memory immediate adjournment was taken until Jan. 3, 1901. The house was in session 25 minutes, transacting some minor business. The news of the death of Representative Wise of Virginia was announced, and a committee of 17 was appointed to attend the funeral. Adjournment was ordered until Jan. 3, 1901.

Cleveland Speaks In Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 22.—Former President Grover Cleveland last night delivered the annual address at the graduation exercises of the thirty-fifth class of the Peirce School of Business at the Academy of Music. The ex-president, accompanied by Mrs. Cleveland, arrived here in the afternoon from Princeton and during their stay in the city were the guests of L. Clarke Davis, managing editor of the Philadelphia Public Ledger, and Mrs. Davis. Admission to the academy was by invitation card, and the vast auditorium was crowded to the doors.

Noted Explorer Dead.

BOSTON, Dec. 22.—Charles L. Erskine, who was believed to be the oldest explorer as well as the only survivor of the first expedition ever fitted out at the expense of the United States government for a voyage of discovery and that was given a roving commission, is dead. He was born in Roxbury 78 years ago and was a survivor of the famous exploring expedition in charge of Admiral Wilkes, sent out by congress in 1836.

Christmas Gift For Employees.

CHICAGO, Dec. 22.—The 3,000 employees of the Crane company, manufacturers, will receive substantial and acceptable Christmas presents from their employers this year. Every man in the service of the company will receive an amount equal to 5 per cent of the aggregate of his wages during last year. The total amount which thus will be distributed reaches $100,000. This is the result of a year of unparalleled prosperity.

RAILWAY EARNINGS.

Surplus For the Year Shows Large Gains Over Previous Year.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—The preliminary report on the income account of railways in the United States for the year ended June 30, 1900, prepared by the statistician to the interstate commerce commission, contains returns of operating railway companies representing 190,406 miles of line.

The gross earnings of the railways included in this report were $1,480,673,054, or $7,776 per mile of line. Of these earnings $396,860,760 was classed as passenger earnings and $1,048,268,875 as freight earnings. The gross earnings shown in the final report for the preceding year were $1,313,610,118. Operating expenses for the last fiscal year aggregated $956,814,142, or $5,025 per mile of line. The net earnings of the roads embraced in this advance report were $523,818,912 for 1900, or $73,110,747 more than they were for 1899. Income from investments and other sources amounting to $60,675,700 were received, so that the total income was $584,534,612.

The total deductions from income were $395,811,056. This item includes interest on bonds, rents for leased lines, taxes ($44,396,165) and other charges to income. The amount of dividends declared was $109,400,147, which is $27,555,388 greater than the amount declared by corresponding roads for 1899. The resulting surplus from the operation of the roads covered by this preliminary report was $79,323,409. The surplus shown in the final report for the preceding year was $53,064,877.

The amount of dividends stated, the report explains, does not include the dividends paid to stockholders by railway companies, the mileage of which is operated under lease or some other form of control.

THE BOOZ CASE.

Inquiry Fails to Show Brutal Hazing at West Point.

WEST POINT, Dec. 22.—The military court of inquiry which is holding two sessions daily at the West Point Military academy ferreting out the alleged brutal cases of hazing which are said to have been the cause of the deaths of Cadets Booz and Breth will not be able to finish its work this week. Today a short session was held, beginning at 9 o'clock and lasting until noon. Yesterday the story of the fight between Keller and Booz in Fort Putnam on the 6th of August, 1898, was told by Keller himself, as well as by some of the seconds and the sentinels who were posted to watch out for officers who might interfere and punish the party. They all agreed that Booz was not badly punished and that he practically lay down. One of the men advised Booz to hide himself in his tent and not come out again until he decided to fight squarely.

Several witnesses testified to the lack of mental vitality possessed by Booz, and the instructor in mathematics, Lieutenant W. F. Coe, said that his mental qualities were insufficient to enable him to pass the necessary examinations.

Nothing adduced in the evidence showed that there was any brutal hazing practiced at the academy, and the trend of the evidence went to show that neither Booz nor Breth was possessed of the necessary mental capacity to go through the entire course of studies necessary for graduation.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

The gunboat Annapolis grounded near Norfolk.

Dr. Richard A. Wise, M. C., died at Norfolk.

Immigration for the calendar year will reach about 460,000.

Mrs. W. P. Frye, wife of the Maine senator, died in Washington.

Philip D. Armour, head of Armour & Co., was reported seriously ill in Chicago.

The proposed national home for aged Elks will probably be located at Colorado Springs.

Some 150,000 French-Canadians are expected to leave New England for their native land.

Vere Foster, who for 50 years had assisted in the emigration of women from Ireland, died at Belfast.

Poor Coal Hindered the Bailey.

NEWPORT, R. I., Dec. 22.—The new torpedo boat Bailey failed in her attempt to complete her standardizing trial yesterday, likewise failing to reach a 30 knot speed on account of a poor quality of coal used in firing. Her failure to reach the necessary speed was not a surprise to those on board who saw the way the poor coal acted. The Bailey would repeatedly go a little over 29 knots, and then the steam would fall off. As a better quality of coal cannot be obtained here it will require some time to have a supply sent, and the boat will return to Washington. Another trial will not be made for a couple of weeks at the least.

Schooner Sunk; Sailors Escape.

ATLANTA, Dec. 22.—A special from Portsmouth, Va., says: "Cut down in the darkness by a big ocean steamship, the little schooner Emblem, Captain George B. Marshall, went to the bottom in Hampton Roads shortly before daylight yesterday morning. The sailors reached the deck just in time to seize the dory, which was being towed astern, and, drenched and shivering, made their way to Old Point. The name of the vessel which struck the schooner is unknown. The vessels of the north Atlantic squadron sent boats to the assistance of the shipwrecked crew."

Big Cave In at Pittston, Pa.

PITTSTON, Pa., Dec. 22.—The big cave in of the abandoned workings of the Seneca mine in the central part of the city, which began Thursday, continues. Fifteen buildings have so far been twisted out of shape, and big fissures from two to four feet wide are visible all over the three acres affected. Yesterday a "bell" dropped, leaving a hole 30 feet in diameter and 40 feet deep on one of the main thoroughfares.

Injured by Bursting of Circular Saw.

CORNING, N. Y., Dec. 22.—Edward Grant of Vines' Mill, about eight miles from here, was terribly injured by the bursting of a circular saw. His head was fearfully cut, and one gash was seven inches long. In probing for particles of steel the surgeons picked out 13 pieces of skull. Grant is still alive, but there is no hope of his recovery.

Snow In Virginia.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Dec. 22.—A storm is coming up the coast. At Leehall, only 18 miles from here, the snowfall is as heavy as any ever seen there.

THE HOUSE FOUND.

Place Where Kidnapers Held Young Cudahy Located.

OMAHA, Dec. 22.—The result of 24 hours' work on the part of the police of the city and half a hundred detectives has established the location of the house in which Edward Cudahy, Jr., was held a prisoner for nearly two days. The house is located four miles from the city and in a place of easy access, but so situated as to allow the desperadoes ample opportunity to lay and carry out their plans without molestation from inquiring neighbors. Within easy communication by rail and wagon roads to Omaha and South Omaha and on a high knoll where sentinels could give immediate alarm in case of necessity, the one and a half story shack was admirably chosen by the bandits. No doubt exists in the minds of the police as to identity of the place. Young Cudahy himself was taken to the house and identified many features which he had recognized while a blindfolded prisoner.

The testimony of the neighbors also is of a nature that leads every one to believe this was the retreat of the abductors. Evidences show that they made a hurried departure when their night's work was completed.

The house is an isolated structure, commanding a full view of the surrounding country for miles about. It is a two story concern and has the rickety stairway and other features described by the kidnaped boy. On the second floor was found a new well bucket containing water from which the boy had drunk. About the room were found hundreds of cigarette stumps and burnt matches and a small quantity of sugar and coffee.

Eddie Cudahy said he had reclined on the floor from the time he entered the house until removed. He said he was only about an hour going from the point where he was abducted to the house and about the same time in returning to the point where he was released and told to go home.

Mr. Cudahy, after looking over the room which had been described by his son, turned to those with him and said: "Boys, this is undoubtedly the place. I am fully satisfied."

Beyond locating the house in which they were located prior to the kidnaping the police have made no progress looking to a capture of any of the outlaws.

An official of the Omaha National bank confirmed Mr. Cudahy's statement that he had withdrawn from that institution the $25,000 in gold with which the latter states he paid the ransom to secure the return of his son.

The reward offered by Mr. Cudahy has caused those working on the case to redouble their efforts, and Chief Donohue says he feels confident of locating part or all of the men engaged in the crime.

TO KEEP HOLIDAYS.

Military and Civil Duties Ordered Suspended In the Philippines.

MANILA, Dec. 22.—An order of General Otis, former military governor, has again been promulgated to the effect that members of the volunteer force imprisoned for military offenses may be released and sent home in the discretion of the colonels of their respective regiments provided they have not been dishonorably discharged.

All the military and civil duties have been ordered suspended for Christmas day and New Year's day with the exception of necessary guard and field duties.

General MacArthur announces that he will hold a formal reception on New Year's day. The members of the Philippine commission, the judiciary, the archbishop, the apostolic delegation, the consuls, the officers of the American and foreign armies and navies and the heads of the civil bureaus and of commercial, civic and religious bodies, together with the general public, are invited to attend. Army officers are directed to appear in the order of rank.

Large River and Harbor Budget.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—The river and harbor bill was completed last night, and Chairman Burton gave out a statement showing the amounts appropriated. The total is approximately $60,000,000, of which about $23,000,000 is in direct appropriations and about $37,000,000 in the authorization of contracts for continuous work. Compared with former river and harbor bills, the present one is the second largest on record, and after the senate has added amendments it is expected to be well up if not ahead of all previous records. The bill of 1900 carried $39,958,165, and that of 1897, which was the largest on record, carried $72,275,954.

Antitrust Cases Dismissed.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 22.—The supreme court of Ohio has dismissed, under the motion of Attorney General Sheets, the cases against the following companies brought by former Attorney General Monnett under the antitrust laws of Ohio: Solar Refining company, Ohio Oil company, Buckeye Pipe Line company, Standard Oil company of Ohio and the Continental Tobacco company. The cases are all dismissed without record and at the cost of the state.

English Furnaces Closing.

STOCKTON-ON-TEES, England, Dec. 22.—The pig iron slump is keenly felt in the Cleveland district. More furnaces will have stopped by Dec. 31 than have been known to shut down since 1886. The production of the district has decreased 35,000 tons monthly. The furnace owners assert that the price has fallen 18 shillings during the last six months and that pig iron cannot be produced at a profit.

Three Drowned In a Wreck.

CAPE HENRY, Va., Dec. 22.—By telephone from Dam Neck Station it is learned that the schooner Jennie Hall, which stranded eight miles south of Cape Henry, will be a total loss. The captain and two men were drowned. The bodies are not yet recovered. Four men nearly died from exposure, but were rescued in the breeches buoy.

Bellevue Victim Dead.

UTICA, N. Y., Dec. 22.—William Sutters, aged 33 years, died here yesterday from alleged ill treatment at Bellevue hospital, New York, it being claimed that he was treated there for alcoholism instead of kidney trouble and was finally turned out. In New York he was a truckman for Siegel, Cooper & Co.

Santa Fe Strike Called Off.

HOUSTON, Dec. 22.—The strike of the telegraph operators on the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe was called off last night. The strike was inaugurated in Texas 15 days ago. No concessions were asked by the men or offered by the company as a preliminary to calling off the strike.

CONFLICT INCREASES

Martial Law to Be Proclaimed In Cape Colony.

FRENCH ROUTS BOERS AT THORNDALE

Boers Attacked Zunfontein, but Were Driven Off—England Will Send Kitchener Re-enforcements at Once.

CAPE TOWN, Dec. 22.—Martial law will be proclaimed in Worcester, Wellington and Stellenbosch. Heavy rains are general, and several railway washouts delay the movements of troops.

General Brabant, commander of the newly raised colonial division, has been ordered to the front and started today.

At Thorndale General French has routed 2,500 Boers, with four guns and a pompom. Thorndale is 16 miles northwest of Krugersdorp. The fight took place Dec. 19. The British had 14 wounded, and the Boers fled in disorder, with about 50 killed.

The Boers who invaded Cape Colony had in most cases pack horses in addition to those they rode. All were in the pink of condition. They commandeered all possible clothing and stores at Venterstad.

General Baden-Powell started for the Transvaal today. The Boers derailed a train at Barberton, killing an inspector and others.

TO SEND MORE TROOPS.

British War Office Announces Early Departure of Mounted Men.

LONDON, Dec. 22.—A Johannesburg dispatch says that the Boers attacked Zunfontein Dec. 18, but were beaten off.

A dispatch from De Aar, Cape Colony, says that the yeomanry have driven the Boers out of Houtkraal, the enemy retiring westward.

The war office made the following announcement last evening:

"In view of the general position in South Africa the following re-enforcements of mounted troops have been arranged: Eight hundred will start next week. Two cavalry regiments have been ordered to leave as soon as the transports are ready.

"The colonial police will be increased to 10,000. Detachments will leave as fast as they are formed. Further drafts of cavalry will be dispatched at once. Australia and New Zealand have been invited to send further contingents.

"Three thousand extra horses, beyond the usual monthly supply, have been contracted for."

The secretary of state for war, Mr. William St. John Brodrick, announces that, in view of the prolongation of the war in South Africa, members of the imperial yeomanry will be paid 5 shillings instead of 1 shilling and twopence per day. Militiamen are promised priority of return over regulars.

From its Cape Town correspondent The Daily Mail has received the following:

"The second invading force was designed to occupy Britstown, but being checked by the De Aar troops it has disappeared into the Ceaderberg mountains.

"An enormous concentration of troops is being made upon the belt country occupied by the invaders, but it is not likely that the Boers will offer battle in large numbers. There is a renewed demand for the wholesale proclamation of martial law."

"We understand that private reliable advices have been received in London," says The Daily Mail, "to the effect that virtually all the districts of Cape Colony in the vicinity of the Orange river are in more or less open revolt and that there is likely to be sharp fighting on a rather large scale before the invasion is crushed. The tactics of the Boers in rallying as many as possible of the Dutch in the back country to their cause are proving successful."

Distributes $150,000.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—One hundred and fifty thousand dollars in gold was distributed in Christmas gifts by the American Express company among its employees in the United States and Canada. Each of the 30,000 employees received a brand new $5 goldpiece of the mintage of 1900, together with a beautifully printed souvenir containing an abbreviated history of the company since its formation in 1850 to the present day. No distinction was made in the distribution, the manager of a department or superintendent of a division receiving no more than the driver or helper or clerk.

Bell Telephone Wins.

BOSTON, Dec. 22.—Judge Colt in the United States circuit court has given a decision in favor of the American Bell Telephone company in the suit brought by the Western Union Telegraph company to recover a large sum alleged to be due on a division of rentals and royalties, accruing under the terms of a contract between the two companies, dated Nov. 10, 1879. The case has been in the courts for 17 years and the sum demanded is said to have been $12,000,000.

Gasoline Explosion and Fire.

CHICAGO, Dec. 22.—Sears, Roebuck & Co.'s five story warehouse at 171-179 West Adams street was damaged to the extent of $50,000 by fire yesterday. The lighting of a match by a boy who stood near a leaking gasoline can caused the fire. The gasoline exploded, but no one was hurt. Occupants of the building escaped at the first alarm, many going down the fire escapes.

Murderer Came From Kentucky.

PARIS, Ills., Dec. 22.—Some hours after the execution of John Owens, the mysterious murderer, yesterday, a card was found in his cell stating that his father's name is T. H. Wolsam and that he resides six miles south of Middlesboro, Ky.

A. Grip Starts For Washington.

COPENHAGEN, Dec. 22.—Mr. A. Grip, minister of Sweden and Norway to the United States, has left for Washington after a four months' holiday, the greater part of which has been spent here.

Fire at Seaside, N. J.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—A fire last evening at Seaside, N. J., which destroyed two cottages and put in jeopardy a number of others is attributed to the work of firebugs.

Rural Free Delivery.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—On April 1, 1901, the postoffice department will establish free delivery service at Port Richmond, N. Y.; Tompkinsville, N. Y., and Stapleton, N. Y.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., DEC. 22 1900.

The President of the Senate.

As there only happens to be four Democratic members of the State Senate, the leadership of that little band is not an honor of overwhelming proportions. It is the custom, however, for the minority in the upper House of the State Legislature to present a candidate for the president of that body, who will, of course, be defeated, but who will, thereafter during that session, be looked upon as the leader of the minority. All signs are now pointing toward Senator Johnston Cornish, of Warren county, as the probable recipient of the honor.

No less a personage than Robert Davis, of Hudson county, has come out in favor of Mr. Cornish and announced that he hopes to see the honor, small as it is, conferred on the Senator from Warren. With such a leader as Davis supporting him, there is little doubt but that Mr. Cornish will be made the choice of the other three Democrats in the State Senate.

There seems to be no doubt but that Senator Mahlon Pitney, of Morris, will be the Republican choice for President for the State Senate. Nomination by the Republicans in that body this year is equivilent to election. With Mr. Pitney as chairman of the upper House, he is likely to be a very prominent figure at Trenton this winter. From the present drift of things, it seems likely that Mr. Pitney is going to be one of the most talked of men in New Jersey as the time for choosing a Republican candidate for Governor comes around. As President of the State Senate, Mr. Pitney would be acting governor in case of the absence or death of Governor Voorhees. While the Governor's health is good, he is likely to step out of the State at any time in which case Mr. Pitney would have a little practice as chief executive of the State.

If the reapportionment of the Congressional districts of New Jersey is done on the lines recently laid down in the New York Herald, Plainfield and the rest of Union county will be part of the Fifth Congressional district. The new Fifth district will then contain all of what now forms the Eighth except Bayonne City. As Bayonne City is naturally Democratic, the result would be to make the new Fifth even more strongly Republican than ever. If there are to be two new Congressional districts instead of one, however, as some have declared New Jersey is entitled to, it will mean a still further rearrangement of the districts.

While the carriers of The Daily Press cover their routes every day in the year, excepting Sundays and holidays, it is only once in the year that they call at the homes of the patrons where they deliver the paper. Christmas Day the boys will be around with Daily Press calendars for distribution so don't forget them.

Now that the Republican caucus has fixed the slate for the Assembly, there is nothing to do but wait for the opening of the Legislature next month.

Christmas is only three days away and the local stores are crowded with articles which will attract the buyer who has delayed the purchase of Christmas gifts until now.

Fractured Two Ribs.

While Charles Harris, of the borough, was painting a house at Metuchen a few days ago, he slipped and fell, fracturing two ribs. He was brought home at once and Dr. J. Hervey Buchanan was called and gave the proper treatment. He will be laid up for a time.

Mrs. Drake's Statement.

ROBBED EXPRESS WAGON.

Packages Found in Elizabeth and Man Was Taken to Somerville Jail Last Night.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, Dec. 22.—Some packages were stolen from the U. S. Express wagon, while the driver was delivering some goods in a house on Cliff street Thursday afternoon. Yesterday the police of Elizabeth arrested a man on suspicion, who had with him several packages directed to W. M. Clark, Somerville. He gave his name as Fred Duncan.

The Somerville authorities were notified and Agent Porter went down and identified the packages. Officer Henderson, of this place, went after the man and brought him to the Somerville jail last night, where he was committed to await the action of the Grand Jury.

Pianos and the Holiday Season.

Piano manufacturers are not a whit behind other manufacturers in setting forth an enlarged assortment of their goods before an admiring public at the holiday season. The elegant warerooms of J. & C. Fischer, 33 Union Square, West, New York city, are now filled with an unusually fine assortment of pianos of the latest styles and designs. Many of these are unique in their casing adornments of choice and rare woods. The reputation of this firm has come down to us from the "Olden Days." You are dealing with no irresponsible people when you deal with them. "The Standard of Highest Merit" which heads their advertisement in this issue is lived up to in every detail, however slight, in their manufacture of the Fischer piano.

Petitions For Anti-Polygamy Amendment.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Washington, Dec. 22—New Jersey was in evidence Thursday in the Congressional Record in the statement that Senator John Kean has filed a lot of petitions. One batch favored the amendment to the federal consitution prohibiting polygamy, and the petitions were from the Home Missionary Society of the Presbyterian churches of Elizabeth; the Home Missionary Society of the Central Presbyterian church, of Orange, and citizens of Plainfield.

Will Wait Until Spring.

Work has been stopped on the macadamizing of Madison avenue and Duer street and will probably not be resumed while the cold weather continues. It will likely be pring before the work is completed, unless a warm spell should come along.

Care in Sprinkling.

Light sprinkling has been done on Front street during the past few days so that the dust may be kept down. Owing to the cold weather great care was exercised in putting water on the street as it is liable to cause havoc among horses.

Raritan Canal Closed.

The Delaware and Raritan canal was closed on Thursday for the winter. Several boats were in the canal at the time they will be obliged to remain there until the canal is opened again.

A Christmas Tree.

The Loyal Temperance Legion will have a Christmas tree and appropriate exercises at their rooms Saturday, Dec. 29. Mrs. R. K. Case and her assistants are arranging the festivities.

Will Install Next Month.

Rehearse Special Christmas Music.

The choir of the First Baptist church will meet this evening, and under the direction of E. J. Fitzbugh, will rehearse special Christmas music to be rendered at the church tomorrow.

Grand Army Meeting.

Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., will hold an important meeting next Tuesday evening when arrangements for the installation of officers will be completed.

Box Office Notice.

The box office of Music Hall will be open until 9 o'clock tonight, to accommodate holiday patrons.

—Many persons have had the experience of Mr. Peter Sherman, of North Stratford, N. H., who says: "For years I suffered torture from chronic indigestion, but Kodol Dyspepsia Cure made a well man of me." It digests what you eat and is a certain cure for dyspepsia and every form of stomach trouble. It gives relief at once even in the worst cases, and can't help but do you good. L. W. Randolph.

Gentlemen:—My mamma has been a great coffee drinker and has found it very injurious. Having used several packages of your GRAIN-O, the drink that takes the place of coffee, she finds it much better for herself and for us children to drink. She has given up coffee drinking entirely. We use a package of Grain-O every week. I am ten years old.

EVERYBODY WELCOME.

A CARLOAD OF Parlor Rockers and Morris Chairs.

We have just received from one of the largest manufacturers in the country a carload of fine Parlor Rockers and elegant Morris Chairs. We contracted for these chairs to be delivered by Dec. 1st, but the manufacturers failed to deliver them on that date, so rather than lose the sale on them they offered the entire lot to us at greatly reduced prices, in some instances as much as ½ the regular cost, so we accepted them and they go on sale today. All told there are two hundred and sixty high-grade chairs in the lot. To make buying easy we have arranged them in lots as follows: ROCKERS lot 1, at 2.98, worth regular 3.50 to 5.00. ROCKERS lot 2, at 3.98, worth regular 4.00 to 6.50. ROCKERS lot 3, at 4.48, 4.98 and 5.98, worth regular 5.00 to 10.00. MORRIS CHAIRS, lot 1, at 4.98, worth regular 6.50. MORRIS CHAIRS, lot 2, at 5.98, worth regular 7.50. MORRIS CHAIRS, lot 3, at 6.98, worth regular 8.50. CHILDREN'S MORRIS CHAIRS 2.98, worth regular 3 50. Could you find anything more desirable for a gift than one of these chairs?

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Makes the lightest most delicious and tasty hot biscuit

ROYAL Baking Powder is indispensable to the preparation of the finest cake, hot-breads, rolls and muffins.

Housekeepers are sometimes importuned to buy other powders because they are "cheap."

Housekeepers should stop and think. If such powders are lower priced, are they not inferior?

Is it economy to spoil your digestion to save a few pennies?

Alum is used in some baking powders because it is cheap. It costs but a few cents a pound whereas the chief ingredient in a pure powder costs thirty. But alum is a corrosive poison which, taken in food, acts injuriously upon the stomach, liver and kidneys.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 100 WILLIAM ST., NEW YORK.

HOLIDAYS AT MUSIC HALL.

SEVERAL GOOD ATTRACTIONS WILL APPEAR THERE NEXT WEEK.

"Ten Nights In a Bar Room" Booked For Christmas Day—First Repertoire Company of Season Is Coming.

Manager Meze Edwards made no efforts to have any dramatic presentations at Music Hall the past week, recognizing the fact that public interest was more in line of holiday purchases than indoor amusements, so there were no offerings. New life begins again the coming week and the first presentation is announced for the holiday on Tuesday followed by another good attraction on Wednesday night.

"Ten Nights in a Bar Room" is a drama which has been endorsed by eminent men of all nations. Not only those English speaking but many foreign climes, and orators give their testimony as to the pure tone and high moral effect of this fine play. The late John B, Gough has openly stated that it has accomplished in the cause of temperance more than any other work. It also abounds in rich dramatic material. The interest begins with the rise and never ceases until the fall of the curtain, the powerful story leaving an impression never to be effaced. It also abounds in comic and laughable scenes and incidents and is alternately interesting and amusing.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Webber's company that appears at Music Hall on Christmas day for matinee and evening performances not only present a fine performance of the drama, with each artist carefully selected for his or her special fitness to the role, but add a number of polite vaudville features. The Glidden family, little Irene, Harry Webber, Thos. Irving and many others of note participate in giving a triple lighting gun drill, a droll cake walk, silver clog, buck, wing and character dancing and trio, solos and choruses.

"Too Rich To Marry," the title of the amusing comedy from the pen of Edward Owings Towne, and which will be seen at Music Hall on Wednesday of next week, is derived from the remarkable sect of people called the Dunkards, of which there are more than 100,000 in the United States. The Dunkard's religion will not sanction vast accumulations of wealth. In the play the author has pictured a bright, up-to-date little Dunkarkess, who has won the heart of a rich young New Yorker. Objections to the marriage on the part of the mother because the young man is rich develops a series of complications intensely amusing in the comedy, and the fun comes along spontaneously, as it were, making every moment of the play enjoyable. It is one of the best comedies on the road this season. The cast is a well-selected one of metropolitan favorites.

Monday, December 31, the very popular Bennett-Moulton Company will inaugurate a season of repertoire plays, the best known at popular prices and during the month of January, many novelties have been booked by Manager Edwards.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence.)

Scotch Plains, Dec. 22—The pupils and teachers in the Public School observed their usual Christmas entertainment in the Assembly room of the building yesterday afternoon. An interesting reading by Mr. Loomis was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Besides this other stories written by pupils of the school were selected for the day and read by some of the pupils. An entertaining address by Rev. G. M. Shott, upon Christmas among the Negroes in the South, concluded an enjoyable event in the school. At the close many kind greetings and best wishes for a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year's were exchanged between pupils and teachers. The teachers received many very pretty remembrances from their charges in honor of the day.

No service will be held in the Baptist church Christmas morning, but Rev. Mr. Shott will preach his Christmas sermon at the Sunday morning service. In the evening he will give the fourth of his series of sermons upon "The Elder Son," subject: "The Elder Son Empty."

Henry Keuhn, Jr., who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis at Muhlenberg Hospital, Plainfield, is convalescent, and it is expected that he will be able to be brought home Monday.

Teachers Exchanged Gifts.

The teachers of the borough public schools, before breaking up for the holiday vacation, extended to each other the compliments of the season and exchanged gifts, as is customary. Nearly all the teachers living out of town will spend their vacation at their homes.

Special Christmas Features.

There will be special features at the meeting of the Primary and Junior Sunday-school Teachers' Union Monday afternoon, appropriate to Christmastide.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused be catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Berlin. Die deutsche Gesellschaft für Volksbäder in Berlin lud zu einem Wettbewerb behufs Erlangung einer für den öffentlichen Vortrag geeigneten Abhandlung über Volksbäder ein. Der erste Preis beträgt 300, der zweite 200 Mark. Die Einsendung muß bis zum 1. März 1901 erfolgen.—Unter dem Patronat der Gemahlin des Reichskanzlers Grafen Bülow fand hier zum Besten der deutschen Truppen in China ein Konzert statt, welchem der Kaiser, die Kaiserin, die Hofgesellschaft, das diplomatische Korps und andere distinguirte Gäste beiwohnten. Der Erlös aus dem Konzert war circa 180,000 Mark.—Lucilie Grahn-Young, eine frühere Tänzerin, deren Gatte ein Amerikaner ist, hat eine Stiftung von 400,000 Mark für wohlthätige Zwecke gemacht.—Max Lenzmann, der zehnjährige Sohn eines Berliner Anwalts, hat das Gymnasium verlassen müssen und wird auf keinem anderen Gymnasium in Preußen zugelassen werden, weil er, als der Gymnasialdirektor den Schülern von dem Breslauer Attentat auf den Kaiser Mittheilung machte, eine Majestätsbeleidigung beging.

Krossen. Dahier feierte der Geheime Justizrath Franz Rudolf Wachsmuth, ein Veteran der deutschen Burschenschaft, seinen 90. Geburtstag. Wachsmuth hatte seine Theilnahme an den Bestrebungen der deutschen Burschenschaft mit sechsjähriger Haft auf der Festung Silberberg in Schlesien zu büßen. Er war dort der Leidensgenosse Fritz Reuters.

Reinickendorf. In der Panke ertränkt hat sich der 62 Jahre alte ehemalige Lehrer Theodor Vogt, der seit Jahren geisteskrank war. Vogt, der aus Liegnitz stammte, war wiederholt in Irrenanstalten untergebracht, zuletzt in Dalldorf. Von dort kam er nach Reinickendorf in Privatpflege.

Provinz Hannover.

Hannover. Neulich explodirte in der Wohnung des Einwohners Sander ein Kessel, in welchem ein Zimmerbohner Bohnermasse kochen wollte. Die brennende Masse ergoß sich über den Mann und zwei Kinder, einen zweijährigen Knaben und ein vierjähriges Mädchen. Alle drei fingen an zu brennen. Der Mann warf das kleinste Kind aus dem Fenster der zweiten Etage. Das Kind blieb an einem Oberlichtfenster hängen und wurde von da gerettet. Das Mädchen hatte schwere Brandwunden erlitten, der Vater war tödtlich verletzt.

Geestemünde. Der Lootsenschooner „Nordsee" wurde bei der Insel Texel von dem spanischen Dampfer „Pisagerri" angerannt und sank. Zehn Mann der Besatzung wurden gerettet.

$2000 IN CASH FREE!

THE CHANCE OF A LIFETIME

Last January, February and March it will be remembered we advertised what was at that time considered one of the biggest contests ever published. The first prize was nothing more nor less than $5 a week for life, or an annuity of $250 a year in advance. Mr. A. W. Madden of Phillipsburg, N. J., was declared the winner, and as Mr. Madden preferred the annuity of $250 a year in advance, a certified check for the said amount was promptly forwarded to him. Just stop and think for a moment what a grand prize this was. It meant that as long as Mr. Madden lived he would receive from us every year on the first day of May $250 in cash. As Mr. Madden is only 27 years old he has a good many years before him in which to enjoy his good fortune.

The next contest we advertised closed October 5, 1900, and the cash prizes were awarded to the following parties:

Mrs. J. S. Poucher, Umstead, Suwanee Co., Fla., Five Hundred Dollars in Cash. Geo. C. Cone, Jr., Una, Davidson Co., Tenn., Two Hundred Dollars in Cash.

Mrs. J. B. Sherwood, Colon, St. Joe Co., Mich., $25; M. Schwartz, Chesterfield, Conn., $25; H. R. Selleck Elkton, Huron Co., Mich., $12.50; Mrs. A. H. Grainger, Independence, Autauga Co., Ala., $12.50; L. J. Garmon, Hillsboro, Hill Co., Texas; July Culey, Phelps, Lawrence Co., Mo.; Mary Booth, Newburgh, Orange Co., N. Y.; Mary Marell, Haselton, Ohio; A. J. Lowry, Trasky, Minn.; R. E. Hart, Searcy, Ark.; Mrs. Kate Lee, 20 So. 9th St., Minneapolis, Minn.; Carrie Henderson, Davis Creek, California; Leroy Loveless, Rockpoint, Jackson Co., Oregon; Miss L. R. Now if you were so foolish as to ignore our previous advertisement, we certainly would advise you not to overlook this one, for without a doubt this is the opportunity of your life, for you have not only a chance to win an income of $300 a year for life, but also to win a large amount of ready cash. We want you to read this over very carefully for it does not cost you one cent. One of these contests is, we believe, a very hard one, in fact so hard that it cannot be solved in a minute, nor an hour, but is going to tax your brains and take considerable of your time. However, do not give it up, for it can be solved and just think of the reward. We will give $2,000 in cash for the correct answer. In the block square to the left we have printed 16 jumbled letters which we want you to try and arrange. These jumbled letters when properly arranged will spell the names of three large cities in the world. One city being located in the United States, one in South America and one in Europe. In making the names of these three cities the letters can only be used as many times as they appear, and no letter can be used which does not appear. When you have found the three correct names you will have used every letter in the sixteen as many times as it appears. If you cannot find the three correct names but find only two you will receive a special prize worth $1. Remember even if you find only two correct names you will have the same chance to win the income for life or one of the big cash prizes mentioned in the second half of this advertisement. If you send in your answer at once we are quite sure you will not be disappointed. Someone is going to win the money and it may be you. Anyway, it does not cost you any money to try and if you are a successful contestant there is only one easy condition, which will take less than half an hour of your time, and which we will write you as soon as your answer is received. This, we can truthfully say, is the very hardest puzzle ever advertised, so get out your geography, atlas or encyclopedia and look for these three cities. The correct names are known only to the president of this company and his private secretary. The envelope containing the three names has been sealed and deposited with a leading Safe Deposit Co. in Boston and will not be opened until the day after the contest closes. This, we believe, is the only honest way of conducting a contest, as everyone will have an equal chance. In the event of more than one correct answer being received, we will request five parties who have answered this advertisement to act as a committee to award the cash pro rata. They will be invited to come to Boston at our expense and be our guests while in this city. We take this unusual method of selecting a committee to show our good faith as we want to treat all in the fairest manner possible. The committee will be selected from among the contestants ten days before the contest closes, January 20, 1901, and you may be asked but not compelled to act as one of the committee. In addition to the Two Thousand Dollars in Cash we will give you an opportunity to win

9 CASH PRIZES OF $250 EACH FREE 58 CASH PRIZES OF $25 EACH FREE

WITHOUT LABOR OR EXPENSE.

We are going to give to someone who has entered this contest and who complies with our easy conditions, an opportunity to win and secure from us without any labor or expense on their part, Three Hundred Dollars every year during their natural life. We mean just what we say. If you are the lucky one, and we hope you are, for some one will get it, we will send the winner every year during their natural life $300 cash in advance. Now, in addition to the cash prizes already mentioned we are going to give away nine cash prizes of $250 each and fifty-eight cash prizes of $25 in the following manner: We will give $250 to one party residing in the New England States which consist of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and Connecticut. $250 to one party residing in the Middle States which consist of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland and District of Columbia. $250 to one party residing in the Central States which consist of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin. $250 to one party residing in the Western States which consist of Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, and North and South Dakota. $250 to one party residing in the Southern States which consist of Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, Tennessee and Kentucky. $250 to one party residing in the Southwestern States which consist of Louisiana, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Texas, New Mexico and Arizona. $250 to one party residing in the Rocky Mountain States which consist of Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, Idaho and Utah. $250 to one party residing in the Pacific Coast States which consist of California, Nevada, Oregon and Washington, and $250 to one party residing in the Dominion of Canada, and that is not all, for we will give to one party residing in each State and Territory in the United States and in each province of the Dominion of Canada a cash prize of $25.

We mean just what we say. You have an opportunity to win and secure from us, without any labor or one cent of expense on your part, any of the above named prizes. There is positively no deception, and as for trickery, how can there be, when the committee is selected from the contestants, and you yourself might be chosen to decide who the winners are.

Do not throw this contest aside and say, Oh, pshaw! I have answered puzzles before and never got anything; for if you do you will regret it as long as you live. Some one is going to win the money and it may be you, no one can tell. Anyway, it does not cost you one cent as we do not want any money from you. Are the prizes worth trying for? We think they are, for $300 a year paid to you for life will keep one from the poor-house and to those who have a small income it will supply them with many a necessity which one has to do without in these hard times.

Do you know of any firm in the world that has made such liberal offers in such a fair manner? Of course we are strangers to you and you have no assurance except our word that we are financially able to carry out the promise we make. If you have the least doubt, we would be pleased to have you get a special report from either Bradstreet's or Dun's Mercantile Agency, or our bankers.

We are a responsible company with a paid-up capital of One Hundred Thousand Dollars, composed of well-known business men, and our sole object in giving away such large cash prizes is to advertise our business and we will leave no stone unturned to accomplish, by honest methods only, our object.

Everyone entering this contest will receive honest treatment, and you will have the same chance whether you live in California, Mexico, Canada or Massachusetts—distance makes no difference.

When you have carefully arranged the jumbled letters into the three names which you think are right, send your answer to us at once and enclose a stamp for reply. Within a few days you will receive an answer telling you whether you are a successful contestant, and we will also send you full particulars regarding our other contest whereby you can win for one moment's thought, without any labor or expense, either $300 a year for life or a large cash prize. Do not delay, as this advertisement will not appear in this publication again. Address us this way:

By a city ordinance, it is provided that no dog shall be permitted to run at large within the city limits, unless a good and sufficient muzzle shall be placed over the mouth of said dog in such manner as to render biting impossible. If any person permits or suffers any dog owned or harbored by him and not so muzzled to run at large, the ordinance provides that he shall upon conviction be punished by a fine not exceeding ten dollars for each offense.

Any person prepared to make complaint under oath of any violation of this ordinance may apply to the subscriber and have prosecution begun forthwith.

TRADE CONDITIONS.

Good Holiday Business—Large Sales of Wool—Great Activity In Stocks.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says:

Better weather conditions on the Atlantic seaboard and pronounced activity in distribution of all staple lines of merchandise at southern cities have imparted a slightly more aggressive tone to general business.

Distinctive holiday business, which at this period of the season means retail distribution, has shown further improvement, and no complaint is heard from any quarter, while the jewelry trade is much more active than for several years past.

Unchanged conditions in the leading manufacturing industry during the last week before the holidays mean much. At this time in ordinary years furnaces close down in large numbers, and dullness is general at mills and shops where iron and steel are handled. Instead of reduction of working force or concessions in price this year, however, reports from the principal cities indicate the existence of contracts that will take months to fill, and new sales are made at the former level despite much talk of cheaper ore next year.

Our industries exhibit the same indifference to precedent. Instead of holiday quiet in the wool market, the last week's figures of sales at the three chief eastern markets amount to 7,238,000 pounds against 6,785,800 in the preceding week and 5,267,344 two weeks ago.

Cotton is fairly held, despite arrivals at southern ports far in excess of last year and little encouragement received from spinners. Crop indications point to a yield about equal to Mr. Ellison's estimate of requirements. Wheat is quiet, receipts aggregating 4,802,779 bushels against 3,306,286 last year, while Atlantic exports were 2,701,412 bushels, flour included, against only 1,536,164 in the same week of 1899. Corn advanced again to about 7 cents above last year's level without important news.

Record breaking activity in stocks continues, but with a slight change in the character of dealings, in that they are more by professional operators and for account of heavy financial interests which have important deals in progress among the railroads.

Failures for the week were 293 in the United States against 220 last year and 18 in Canada against 26 last year.

ENGLAND AND THE TREATY.

London Weeklies Say Many Quite Uncomplimentary Things.

LONDON, Dec. 22.—The responsible weeklies today discuss the Hay-Pauncefote canal treaty at considerable length.

The Saturday Review devotes a page to the "Nicaragua Scandal," saying uncomplimentary things about the United States senate, President McKinley and Lord Salisbury. "The worst of it is," it says, "that we have only ourselves to thank for the whole pother. The policy of perpetual concessions to the United States and of overstrained eulogy upon her statesmen meets with no response from the other party save fresh demands and increasing insolence. Our own statesmen have brought upon themselves humiliations which it is conceivable they may at last be induced to resent."

The worst thing The Spectator says is the following: "Apparently the object of the United States senate has not been to attain a particular object so much as to insult a friendly power and to make it difficult for that power to negotiate in a conciliatory spirit."

The Speaker goes into the canal question historically, citing Nacaragua's treaties with Spain in 1856, France in 1860, Italy in 1868 and England in 1860, neutralizing the projected canal, pointing out that these are all in force now except the treaty with England.

"We foresee for the United States," The Speaker says, "grave diplomatic complications with other powers unless they support America with the object of achieving Great Britain's discomfiture."

Another of the "Spartan Band" Dead.

HOLLIDAYSBURG, Pa., Dec. 22.—David Over, editor of the Hollidaysburg Register and a newspaper man of a half century standing, is dead here, aged 76 years. The deceased was a Mexican war veteran. Among the newspapers that he successfully edited were the Bedford Inquirer and the Lewistown Gazette. In 1856 he was elected treasurer of Bedford county. In 1887 he served as treasurer of Blair county. He was one of the famed 306 delegates who stood by General Grant in the Republican national convention at Chicago. He is survived by his wife, one son and three daughters.

Reception to Governor Elect Odell.

NEWBURG, N. Y., Dec. 22.—The Newburg City club last night gave a reception to Governor Elect Odell, who is a charter member of the organization. The guests were received by Clayton E. Sweet, president of the club, who presented them to Governor Odell. The clubhouse was adorned with flowers, and a Hungarian orchestra provided music. Among the guests were state officers, several of the New York state delegation in congress and other prominent public officials.

YET ANOTHER HITCH.

Preliminary Joint Note Still Unsigned.

HOPE THAT IT MAY BE SOME TIME.

Chinese Claim the Document May Have to Be Drawn Up In Europe or America—United States Considered Friendly.

PEKING, Dec. 22.—Once more there is a pronounced hitch in the proceedings. The preliminary joint note has not yet been signed. Mr. Conger, the United States minister, says he does not believe there are sufficient reasons why it should not be signed in the near future, and Sir Ernest Satow, the British minister, takes the same view. Dr. Mumm von Schwartzenstein, speaking for Germany, believes that the existing agreement will be signed sooner or later. The other ministers also say that they consider the probabilities in favor of signing.

Chinese sources of information, however, say there is reliable authority for the statement that there is very little chance of the note being signed for some time. As a matter of fact, the members of the staff of Li Hung Chang believe that the note will eventually have to be drawn up either in Europe or America, probably the latter, because they claim that the Washington government has had most to do with the existing modifications of the various forms of harshness.

The United States is looked upon by the Chinese as the only power really desiring to retain the integrity of the empire.

The other powers are regarded as desirous of breaking it up with the possible exception of Russia, who, the Chinese think, merely favors a postponement in order eventually to secure a larger share.

SEVERE PENALTIES.

Agreement to Be Signed Will Make Harsh Demands.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—It is learned here that the agreement of the powers at Peking naming conditions as a preliminary to the negotiations of peace terms contains a demand for the severest penalties that China can impose in the punishment of the high officials believed to be responsible for the Boxer outrages. This refers particularly to the 11 prominent Chinese nobles whose names have been mentioned in the press dispatches as those whom some of the nations contended should be executed. Our government has persistently held to the position that penalties should not be inflicted on the Chinese government which she was unable to carry out. The demand for the death penalties was stricken out of the agreement and that for the severest penalties possible inserted.

The trouble and delay over the joint note has been almost entirely over the statement in the preamble to the agreement that the conditions imposd on the Chinese were "irrevocable."

Great Britain sought to obtain the substitution of a milder word, realizing that China might not be able to comply fully with some of the conditions, or that it might be found desirable to revoke them. The United States adopted the British suggestion and instructed Mr. Conger to urge the elimination of the word "irrevocable." But these instructions reached Mr. Conger in somewhat confused phraseology, due to the omission of a cipher symbol, and he undertook to translate them without further communication with the state department. His interpretation of the instructions was that he was to urge the retention and not the elimination of the word "irrevocable."

On two occasions the state department, in the belief that the objectionable term had been modified, had directed Mr. Conger to sign, only to learn overnight that the word had been retained.

As much time had been lost in attempting to make Mr. Conger understand what his government wanted and as the delay was causing uneasiness the president yesterday directed Secretary Hay to have no further correspondence with Mr. Conger on the subject, but to instruct him to sign the agreement, "irrevocable" clause and all.

Emperor En Route to Peking.

BERLIN, Dec. 22.—A dispatch from Tien-tsin to the Frankfurter Zeitung, dated yesterday, says: "Prince Ching's interpreter asserts that Emperor Kwang Su, unaccompanied by the empress dowager, left Sian-fu Dec. 19 bound for Peking."

Weavers' Strike Declared Off.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Dec. 22.—The strike of weavers in the Acushnet and Hathaway mills is undoubtedly off after a five weeks' struggle. A largely attended meeting of the weavers was held yesterday afternoon, when a vote was taken on returning to the mills on Monday. The strike leaders gave out the news that the vote would be kept a secret until after roll call this morning, but the supposition is that the weavers voted to return to work, the only question being whether to go in Monday or to remain out until after Christmas day.

Rockefeller's Big Stock Farm.

WICHITA, Kan., Dec. 22.—It is reported here that Frank Rockefeller is negotiating for the purchase of 140,000 acres of land in Kiowa and Clark counties with a view to stocking it with horses and high grade cattle, sheep and hogs. The land is along Soldier creek, the fastest running water in the state. At present he owns land on both sides of the creek for over seven miles, but the area is too small for his plans.

Mr. Baldwin's Dog Corner.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Dec. 22.—Mr. Evelyn Baldwin, the arctic explorer, who was recently reported from London as controlling the market for polar dogs, has arranged to procure supplies of Eskimo dogs from Labrador if needed. He will take with him 400 dogs and 15 Siberian ponies in his proposed expedition, together with the largest transport train in the history of arctic exploration.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—For Christmas oysters, place your order Monday, with Rogers.

—A pair of the VanAredale $3 shoes would make a good Christmas gift.

—The contract case of McCann against Mills has been settled in Justice Huff's court.

—The Plainfield Building and Loan Association meeting falling on Christmas eve, will be held Wednesday evening, December 26, 1900.

—A new cross-walk is being constructed at the corner of Craig place and Duer street, at a point where the new street has been opened.

—The Board of Health removed the quarantine today at the home of Mrs. Pliny Fisk, West Seventh street, where her daughter has been ill with fever.

—J. J. Goff, Jr., 124 West Second street, claims to sell Jersey turkeys cheaper than any other dealer in the city. Glance at the prices in his advertisement.

—VanAredale has received another lot of the children's red felt slippers from Daniel Green's factory, Dolgeville, N. Y. He has had a large trade on these goods this month and they are about as neat and sensible a gift as you'll find.

—A membership ticket in the Y. M. C. A. differs from many other Xmas presents in that it is good for over 300 days of pleasure miced with profit. Call at the Association building and learn of the privileges offered in the men's and boys' departments. See adv. column.

—People declare that Campbell's this year has finer candy than ever before and that their store is decorated beyond anything ordinarily seen here. Their window contains a dream house with very interesting furnishing and flats. They still claim to sell the best candy lower than anybody else. Their candy is made in their own shop and over the store.

CHRISTMAS OBSERVED IN LOCAL CHURCHES.

Programmes of More or Less Elaborateness Rendered at Yesterday's Services.

APPROPRIATE DECORATIONS

SPECIAL CHRISTMAS ADDRESSES DELIVERED BY LOCAL PASTORS.

Some of the Churches Gave Musical Services For Which Much Preparation Had Been Made in the Sunday-schools.

Special Christmas services were held yesterday in nearly all of the local churches, except those of the Episcopal and Roman Catholic denominations where the last Sunday in Advent was observed. Their Christmas services will be held tomorrow. In the other churches appropriate sermons, special music and pretty decorations marked the day.

CRESCENT AVENUE CHURCH.

At the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church yesterday morning special music was rendered by the regular quartette choir assisted by the following: Mrs. J. Kirtland Myers, Miss Julia Ketcham, Miss Sarah Schuyler, Elmer E. Runyon, E. Maxwell Honeyman, William Gilbert, Jose Machado, Albert H. Masters and Robert Johnston. Gounod's "Nazareth" and "Sanctus" and Shelley's "Christian, the Morn" were the selections rendered. According to the annual custom, the union exercises of the four Sunday schools of the church were held in the afternoon. The visiting schools were those of Hope, Warren and Bethel chapels. The exercises consisted of scripture reading and the singing of carols by the schools and additional carols by the primary and kindergarden departments of the Crescent Avenue Sunday-school. An appropriate address was delivered by Rev. Dr. W. R. Richards. Prayer was offered by Revs. G. K. Newell and J. O. McKelvey and the benediction was pronounced by Rev. F. D. Tildon. At the evening service a cantata, "The Holy Child," was given by the choir and the special chorus assisted by Hans Kronold, 'cellist, of New York. The music both morning and evening services was in charge of Organist Ward Stephens.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

Interesting services were held at the First Baptist church yeaterday, morning and afternoon. The edifice was prettily decorated with greens and over the organ there was a large star illuminated with incandescent lights. In the morning the choir under the direction of Organist Howard Case rendered several anthems. There were solos by Miss Harris, Mrs. Ward, George Smith and William Holmes. William DeNike, 'cellist, assisted in the rendition of several numbers. Rev. Dr. D J. Yerkes, pastor, preached an appropriate sermon.

In the afternoon the Sunday-schools from the First Baptist, Mt. Olive Baptist churches and East Third Street chapel, united in a service entitled "The Desire of All Nations." The choir assisted in the services. Mrs. B. T. Barnes presided at the piano and Mr. DeNike played the 'cello. Superintendent George H. Batchelor, of the home school, was in charge, and L. H. Biglow, Jr., conducted the singing. Others who assisted in the service were Rev. Dr. Yerkes, Assistant Superiniendent G F. Brown, Superintendent M C. Dobbins, of the Mt. Olive school, Superintendent L. W. Randolph, of the East Third Street chapel, Rev. E. E. Jackson and Rev. W. L. Jones.

There was a soprano solo by Miss Harris and recitations were given by Edna Cronce, Helen Jeter, Edith Haffner, Mabel Seals, Edith Runk, Gladys Leland, Marguerite Lee, Isabel Taylor, Helen Smalley, Jessie Clawson, Elizabeth McGee, Mamie Weiss and Beulah VanWinkle. An exercise was given by Russell Miler, Fred Krausse, Charles Lee, Jr., Pierson Bailey and George Rogers. There was no evening service

PARK AVE. BAPTIST CHURCH.

At the Park Avenue Baptist church yesterday afternoon the Sunday-school held Christmas services of an interesting character. The church was appropriately decorated. Miss Florence Hawkins, the assistant superintendent, had charge of the exercises in the absence of Mrs. David M. Runyon, who is ill.

The principal part of the service consisted of recitations by the Misses Cora Brokaw, Elizabeth VanWinkle

RED MEN'S FAIR OVER.

AFFAIR NETTED OVER $500 FOR THE TRIBES AND COUNCIL.

Contests Closed Saturday Night and Furnished Much Excitement—Large Crowd Present.

After a most successful week during which there were nearly two thousand paid admissions, the combined Red Men's fair came to a close in Washington Hall, Saturday night. As was expected, an extra large crowd was present.

As it took considerable time to ascertain the winners no specialties were given, dancing furnishing the only other attraction. As usual the dancing floor was crowded all the evening, the young people stopping only at times to hear the results of the contests.

The voting contest for the most popular sachem or past sachem attracted the most interest. The winner was Sachem Francis J. Blatz, of Wetumpkah Tribe, he having received 120 votes. The prize was a Sachem's regalia.

In the other contests the winners were as follows: Gold watch, Joseph McAlinney; silver watch, Charles Holstein, Jr.; boys' bicycle, Everitt Marsh; childs' ring, Miss May Weigmann; second ring, Miss Frances Hill; diamond ring, Miss May Fahrenholz; Degree of Pocohontas pin, Mrs. Fred Westphal; Red Men's pin, Francis J. Blatz; doll, Miss Adelaide Stiglitz; second doll, Miss Sophine Bowe; parlor lamp, M. Leichtentritt; quilt, Mrs. J. T. Hibbard; second quilt, Harry Dahl; handsome picture, Francis E. Whiteside; muff, Miss Bertha Mellman.

Some of the contests were very close, and the committee in charge are greatly pleased with the receipts.

As a result of the affair nearly $500 will be netted. This will be divided equally between Wetumpkah Tribe, Miantonomo Tribe and Iona Council, D of P., under whose auspices the affair was given.

SALE OF COPLEY PRINTS.

Successful Affair Given by Young Women of the Tau Zeta Epsilon of Wellesley College.

There were many to see the exhibition of Copley prints, held at the home of Miss Mabelle Phillips, of Madison avenue, Saturday afternoon. The affair was given by members of the Tau Zeta Epsilon, the art society of Wellesley College. A fine display of the excellent prints was shown and a large number were sold.

The exhibition was in charge of Miss Mabelle Phillips and Miss Edith L. Burt, of this city, and Miss Elizabeth Turner, of Paris, Ky., all members of the Tau Zeta Epsilon. Tea was served during the afternoon. Miss Amy G. Burt and Miss Helen Brainerd presided at the tea table. Miss Jessie Burt was in charge of the candy table.

Some of the prints were not disposed of and they will be kept on exhibition for a few days.

Carpenters Chose Officers.

The Carpenters and Joiners of America, local union, No. 155, met Saturday evening and elected the following officers: President, W. C. Bodine; vice-president, John Eberley; recording secretary, George Whitlock; financial secretary, W. H. Lunger; treasurer, B V. Kinney; conductor, Isaac Sheppard; warden, Fred Welsh; trustee, John T. Case. The meeting was an enthusiastic one, and it was decided to install the officers on Tuesday evening, January 8.

Great Christmas Rush.

Saturday and Saturday evening was a busy time for the local merchants, many of whom did a rushing business. Nearly every man, woman and child met carried a package. The business tonight promises to be even larger than Saturday, particularly among the dealers in meats and provisions. All places of business will be closed tomorrow.

Mayor Will Not Return This Year.

Mayor Rockfellow, who is in the south for his health, is not likely to return home this year. His term will expire on January 1, but there is no urgent need of his being home at that time. He is reported to be improving rapidly.

Illustrated Entertainment.

The First Baptist church Sunday-school will enjoy their Christmas entertainment this evening when "The Homes and Haunts of Jesus and Village Life in Palestine," will be illustrated by living tableaux and lecture.

Special Officer Needed.

Special Policeman John Gallagher has been on duty at Woodhull & Martin's store during the holiday rush. His presence has a good effect on a certain class of people.

WHO WILL SUCCEED MAYOR N. B. SMALLEY?

Mr. Smalley's Friends Desire His Renomination But He Is Slated for a County Office.

AFTER THE SHRIEVALTY.

OTHER NAMES MENTIONED FOR BOROUGH'S NEXT MAYOR.

Republican Nomination For Sheriff Will be Given Him, if Possible—Might Consent to Fill Office of Mayor Until Then—Col. Wilson Mentioned.

Politics in the borough are beginning to warm up. Already there are rumors and suggestions as to whom will succeed N. B. Smalley, the present incumbent, for mayor. While there are many persons who would be pleased to have the Mayor re elected, because of his careful administration of the borough's affairs, on the other hand there are others who wish a change.

Mayor Smalley has been offered a position on the State Board of Arbitration, but it is said that his ambition lies in another direction. In fact it is no secret that the enterprising Mayor has had his eye upon the Shrievalty for some time. He is said to be anxious, if possible, to step into the political shoes of Sheriff Schoonmaker, of Somerville. It may be, however, that if the friends of Mayor Smalley insist upon his being renominated that he may allow his name to be used and in the event of his election to resign to accept the nomination for Sheriff in the fall.

Republicans of the borough maintain that it is high time that the claims of North Plainfield were recognized in regard to the political plums in reference to county offices. This fact, being recognized by Mayor Smalley's friends, they are pushing his claims in that direction. In the event of Mayor Smalley's being reelected next spring and later resigning the office to accept the nomination for Sheriff, the duties of the office of Mayor would fall upon the president of the Common Council.

But Mayor Smalley is by no means the only person whose name has been mentioned for the Mayoralty. The friends of Former Mayor John F. Wilson and Councilmen Robert Clark, Jr. and John Valiant have expressed a wish to present their names for the office. Mr. Wilson is a Democrat, but is of the conservative kind and his administration gave good satisfaction. As regards Mr. Clark, it is understood that he would not for a moment entertain the proposition of being a candidate for the office of Mayor. He is one of the most efficient members of the Council. As chairman of the street committee he has been of great value to the citizens and his painstaking efforts in reference to this important department of the borough's affair has been so highly appreciated by all classes of citizens that it is believed best to maintain him in the place he so ably fills.

A possible dark horse in the mayoralty race may prove to be Councilman John Valiant, at present chairman of the finance committee, and a most valuable member of that body. Many of Mr. Valiant's friends are urging him to accept the nomination if it should be tendered him. It is possible that he may be prevailed upon to accept the honor should his friends insist upon his being recognized in the convention.

With reference to candidates to succeed Councilmen George T. Rogers and John Valiant, whose terms of office will expire in March, there does not appear to have been any names mentioned thus far. There are a number of good citizens to select from, but as yet their friends have not come forward to press their claims for the positions.

Christmas at Grace Church.

Services at Grace Episcopal church on Christmas morning promise to be on an elaborate scale as regards the musical portion of the programme. Mrs. Freeman, the organist, has been drilling the vested choir for several weeks and something special may be expected in the way of good music. The children of the Sunday-school will have their exercises on Thursday evening in the parish house. They will consist of singing carols and the distribution of gifts from a tree.

Entertainment For the Children.

The Sunday school of Grace M. E. church will have interesting exercises for the children on Friday evening. They will consist of a cantata and the distributation of gifts. There will not be any tree.

"FORTY-NINER" GONE.

Benj. M. Casterline Died at Home of His Son, M. W. Casterline, at New Market Saturday.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

New Market, Dec. 24—By the death of Benjamin M. Casterlie, which occurred Saturday morning after a very brief illness, another of the few remaining "forty-niners" passed away. Death was due to pneumonia brought on by a cold caught Thursday. On account of his advanced age, seventy-four years, he was unable to withstand the attack and succumbed in two days.

The body was taken to the old Casterline homestead at Potter's Crossing near Oak Tree this morning from where the funeral services will be held this afternoon. Interment will be made at Rahway.

Mr. Casterline was born at Newark in 1826. When the gold fever struck the country in 1849 over the discovery of the precious metal in California, he was one of the first to leave for the New Eldorado, going by sailing vessel around Cape Horn. He spent three years in mining and returned in 1852 with a comfortable fortune. He chose farming as an occupation and settled on what is known as the Casterline farm at Potters Crossing. The fortune he made in California was afterward lost through the failure of a friend, Mr. Casterline having indorsed his notes for large sums.

A few years ago he left the old homestead and went to live with a daughter at Penns Manor, Pa. He remained there until the past summer when he came to New Market and settled with his son, M. W. Casterline, with whom he was living at the time of his death. In addition to Mr. Casterline, of this place, the deceased is survived by two other sons and three daughters: Roy Casterline, of Newark; Eugene Casterline, of New York; Mrs. A. P. Mershon, of Penns Manor, Pa.; Mrs. Elizo Tappen, of Potters Crossing and Mrs. James Tappen, of Metuchen.

CONTAINED FAMOUS NAMES.

Prominent Local Endeavorer Received a Novel Birthday Gift Yesterday Morning.

Miss Florence Hawkins, president of the local union of the Christian Endeavor Society, was yesterday morning most agreeably surprised by being presented with a handsome birthday book, the gift coming from her mother, Mrs. M J. Hawkins, and her brother, Joseph Hawkins. The book, besides containing poems on every other leaf, has also the autographs of over two hundred members of the Christian Endeavor Society, prominent among whom are those of Father Francis E Clark, the founder of the Christian Endeavor Society, and who is also president of the United Societies, Dr. A. W. Spooner, president of the State union, Dr. William R Chapman, of New York, the well-known evangelist, and many prominent citizens of Plainfield, who are members of the Christian Endeavor Society.

Mrs. Schuyler's Second Tea.

The second of the series of teas, given Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Harriet Augusta Schuyler, Miss Schuyler and Miss Mellick, of La Grande avenue, was attended by a large circle of friends. Mrs. Tweedy, of Texas, assisted in receiving, and Mrs. John Gray Foster and Mrs. William H. Murray presided at the table in the dining room, aided by the Misses Cooley, Ethel Bowen, Anna Miller and Miss Hudson, of Astoria.

In Honor of Cerlstmas Day.

The Sunday-school of the German Evangelican Lutheran church will hold Christmas exercises at the church tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock. There has not been any extensive programme outlined. There will be musical selections and a few remarks by the pastor, the Rev. William Trebert. There will not be any Christmas tree or distribution of gifts.

Will Give Tableaux.

On Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the children of the primary department of the First M. E. church Sunday-school will be given presents distributed from a tree. In the evening at 7:30 o'clock the pupils of the junior and senior departments will be entertained by tableaux and there will also be gifts distributed.

Old Council Will End Its Career.

The Common Council will hold the last meeting of 1900, Thursday evening, when all accounts and the business of the year will be closed up. It is not at all likely that another meeting will be held before the Council for 1901 holds its first meeting Monday evening, January 7.

Services at St. Stephens.

In St. Stephen's church the services on Christmas Day will be held at 7:30 and 10:30 a. m. The Sunday-school will hold its festival on Thursday afternoon at 4:30.

DELIA MAPESEY STILL MISSING FROM TOWN

Brother From Flemington is Searching for the Young Woman.

THE POLICE WILL AID HIM.

SHE MYSTERIOUSLY DISAPPEARED FROM PLAINFIELD NOV. 23.

Said She Was Going to Flemington to See Brother—Worked at Residence of James Clark, of West Seventh Street.

Thomas Mapesey, of Flemington, brother of Delia Mapesey, the servant employed by James Clark, of 404 West Seventh street, who mysteriously disappeared Nov. 23, was in Plainfield yesterday afternoon to enlist the aid of the local police in efforts to find his sister.

Delia left the Clark residence on the above date between 4 and 5 o'clock in the afternoon. She told Martin Smith, the coachman, that she was going to Flemington to see her brother. She did not go there, however, and all trace of the missing girl has been lost. When Delia left the residence of Mr. Clark she was well dressed. She did not take any baggage with her as she said that she would be back in a few hours. Martin Smith, the coachman, whom Delia left in charge of the house on the afternoon that she disappeared, says that she went away alone and that she did not take any extra clothing with her, as far as he could see.

An inspection of the absent girl's room revealed that she had not removed any of her personal effects. All of her clothing was undisturbed. In her trunk were found two books, one showing deposits in a bank at Easton, Pa., and another noting that she had been a patron of a building and loan association She was considered by Mrs. Clark a very steady girl and is not known to have had any particular male friend, and, in fact, but few acquaintances among the women in the neighborhood.

Delia is described as about twenty-nine years of age and of good physique, standing about five feet eight or nine inches in height and weighing fully 150 pounds. She is of brunette type and of comely appearance. A description of the missing girl has been sent to all cities in this vicinity with a request to look her up. The girl's sudden disappearance is as much of a mystery to her brother as it is to the family of Mr. Clark. When she left there was half a month's wages due her.

HEAVIEST MAIL.

Fifty-five Mail Bags Reached Plainfield This Morning—Mail Carriers Loaded Down.

The heaviest mail that ever reached Plainfield arrived this morning. There were 55 mail bags which James Frisbie, the mail carrier between the railroad station and postoffice, had to deliver. The letter carriers never had so much mail matter as they will be compelled to deliver today. Postmaster Bird has arranged to have teams assist the carriers in the delivery of the many packages that are piled up in the office. Some of the carriers will be compelled to work after hours.

No Meeting Next Week.

Unless some urgent business should demand it, the Borough Board of Education will not meet on the regular meeting night, a week from this evening. A special meeting was held earlier in the month at which time the business for the month was transacted.

One Delivery on Christmas.

The letter carriers will make only one delivery tomorrow morning. The office will be closed at 10 o'clock, but the carriers' window will be kept open until 11 o'clock to accommodate citizens who expect packages of mail.

To Be Wedded Christmas Day.

Isaac Squier, of the borough, and Miss Anna Ammerman, of Pottersville, will be married tomorrow at the home of the bride. The groom is employed by the Campbell Printing Press Company.

Christmas at Public Library.

The circulating department of the Public Library will be closed on Christmas Day. The reading-room will be open from 2 until 6 p. m., and the art gallery from 2 until 4 p. m.

Largest Attendance of Year.

There were 388 scholars and teachers in attendance at Trinity Reformed church Sunday-school yesterday, the largest attendance in the history of the school.

TO ASSIST THE FARMERS.

ANNUAL MEETING OF SOMERSET COUNTY BOARD OF AGRICULTURE.

Held at Somerville Saturday—Edward E. Cooper Was Elected President—Interesting Proceedings.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, Dec. 24—The Somerset County Board of Agriculture held their annual meeting at the Courthouse Saturday afternoon, with a large attendance. President Joseph Fitzgaa and Secretary-Treasurer A. P. Sutphen read their annual reports. The treasurer's report showed a balance of $67 16, in the treasury.

The annual election of offiers resulted in ex Assemblyman Edward E. Cooper, of Warrenville, being elected President, and A. P. Sutphen re-elected Secretary-Treasurer.

State Entomologist John B. Smith gave a practical and valuable address on "The Wheat Moth." He gave a history of the development of the insect, saying that four broods appeared in a season. The best plan was to thresh early and put the wheat in tight sacks or close bins. The remedy was bi-sulphide of carbon. For every 250 feet of bin use a pound of bi-sulphide of carbon. Put it on a plate on top of the grain and the vapor being heavier than the air would sink down through the grain and kill the moth.

Judge Schenck and others exhibited specimens of moth-infested wheat, rye and beans.

It was stated that one pound of bi-sulphide of carbon to 200 bushels of wheat was about the right proportion. The cost is about 40 cents a pound.

Remarks were also made by Joseph Fitzga, Judge Schenck and President Cooper. The latter announced that he had raised 1,300 bushels of sound corn on cob to eight acres last season.

FINE MUSICAL SERVICES.

Will be Held in Church of the Holy Cross on Christmas Day—Careful Preparation For It.

The services on Christmas morning at the Church of the Holy Cross will be especially interesting from a musical standpoint. Morning prayer followed by holy communion will be at 10:30 o'clock, with preaching by the rector, Rev. W. Montgomery Downey, A. M. The music, under the direction of G. Edward Stubbs, instructor at the Theogical Seminary in New York, will be of a high order. The superb vested choir of 30 male voices has been carefully trained for several weeks by Arthur D. R. Brown, organist and choirmaster, who has done much toward bringing the choir up to the efficiency that it has attained. A special feature of the morning service will be the singing during the offertory, the music being composed by Mr. Stubbs.

The church decorations this year at Holy Cross are on a more modest scale than previous years but the effect is much more beautiful and impressive. But little evergreen is used, but in place of it ropes of laurel and holly are twined about the chancel and choir railings and festooned about the edifice, with here and there a large evergreen tree placed about the body of the church. The musical programme given on Christmas will be repeated at the morning service next Sunday.

ADDITIONS TO LIBRARY.

Various Improvements Noted at the Church of the Holy Cross This Winter.

Through the kind offices of a friend of the Church of the Holy Cross a number of music books have been added to the library of the church. Among the improvements that are under way to benefit the choir is a new piano, which is expected this week. Since the Rev. W. Montgomery Downey became rector of Holy Cross a renewed interest has been awakened with regard to the music. The choir has been strengthened and the singing much improved. Arthur D. R. Brown, the organist and choirmaster, who is assisted by Mr. Stubbs, comes to Plainfield twice a week for the purpose of rehearsing the choir boys.

Death of a Lad.

Patrick James Ryan, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Ryan, of Muhlenberg place, died this morning after a brief illness. He was four years and three months old. The funeral services will be held from the parents residence Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment will be made in St. Mary's cemetery.

BURGLARS MADE RICH HAUL AND ESCAPED.

Entered Four Homes in This City and Once Were Nearly Caught—Took Jewelry and Cash.

NO CLUE TO THEIR IDENTITY.

THEO. STECKLES CHASED ONE BURGLAR THROUGH HIS HOUSE.

Intruder Jumped Through Window and Escaped—Jewelry, Clothing and Cash Taken—Haul Amounts to Hundreds of Dollars.

Burglars made a rich haul in Plainfield last night and early this morning. Four residences were entered and cash, jewelry and clothing to the amount of several hundred dollars stolen.

The first place entered was at the residence of Mrs. R. F. Harriott, of 713 Watchung avenue. The house was robbed while the family was at church. Entrance was effected through a rear window. The burglars had plenty of time and they made good use of the opportunities. When the family returned from church shortly after 9 o'clock there were unmistakeable evidences that the house had been ransacked during their absence.

This morning they reported to the police the loss of the following valuables: One gold bracelet, valued at $75, gold bead bracelet, valued at $50, three gold breast pins, two gold hat pins, gold reading glass, silver pin, small gold Mosaic pin, set of gold earrings (tulip shape), gold hand painted breast pin, gold bow knot hair pin, gold bar twisted hair bracelet, gold sleeve buttons, one bar pin with gold bars, a gentleman's scarf pin. Besides the jewelry the burglars took two dress coats and an overcoat.

From the residence of Mrs Harriott the burglars transferred their scene of operations to the West End of the city. Shortly after 2 o'clock the home of Joseph Wells, 1314 West Front street, just below Clinton avenue, was entered through a side window at about 2 o'clock this morning. Here the thieves secured $15 in cash, a gold watch and a check for $1.28, which was taken from the trousers pockets of Mr. Wells.

From the latter place the burglars went to the residence of William Tallamy, the mason and builder, at 1140 West Front street, where they got in through an open window. From Mr. Tallamy's trouser's pockets they abstracted $80, helped themselves to a silver watch valued at $30 and left with two overcoats, one of which belonged to the son, William Tallamy, Jr.

The last place visited by the burglars—there being at least two—and where they were nearly captured, was at the residence of Theodore Steckles, manager of the Hibbard Bodman-Ely Safe Company at 965 West Front street, nearly opposite Compton avenue. As in the other places visited the burglars gained entrance to the house through an open window. This was about 3:25 o'clock this morning. One of the men went up stairs, leaving his companions on guard in the lower portion of the house. About the time that the intruder got into Mr. Steckles' room he was awakened by his sick child. As Mr. Steckles awoke he saw the outlines of a man in his room.

He immediately jumped from his bed and chased the burglar down stairs to the parlor. Mr. Steckles was so close to the man that to elude capture capture the felow jumped through the window, carrying away sash and curtain in his haste to escape.

Mr. Steckles describes the man as being of stout build, about five feet four or five inches tall. He had a smooth face and wore a small, round cloth cap and sack coat. The burglar's companions were not seen. When Mr Steckles surprised the fellow he was in the act of helping himself to the contests of his trousers.

There is not the slightest clew to the burglars. The police have been made acquainted with the facts and Chief Kiely is causing an investigation. It is believed that the burglaries were committed by professionals.

FOR ENDEAVORERS.

Interesting Side of the Work Being Carried on by Young Christians.

(Conducted by Press Department Union County C. E. Union.)

A plan which is meeting with the hearty commendation of Christian Endeavorers generally is the contemplated vigesimal celebration at Portland, Me., in honor of the twentieth anniversary of the Christian Endeavor and the incoming of the much-talked-of twentieth century. The plans, as now outlined, provide for a four-day celebration of Christian Endeavorer's birthday. The programme will commence on January 31st, and close February 3d, the principal exercises being held February 2d, the actual birthday, when the unveiling of the Williston tablet will take place. On that day all the meetings will be held in the famous Williston church, where the first society was organized on February 2, 1881.

Believing that this event ought to be commemorated in some appropriate manner, Christian Endeavorers in this and other lands have contributed a fund which makes possible a fine bronze tablet, whose inscription will make known to all future visitors to the Williston church the fact that it was there that the now world-wide movement had its birth. Portland will accord a hearty welcome to all visiting Endeavorers and the reduced railway rates secured from all companies whose lines run into the city will make it possible for many to attend.

Many societies throughout the county will hold watch-night services this year. In some places these meetings will be of a union character, but in most cases they will be held by individual societies. The United Society recommends this latter plan, giving as its reason the fact that in such a service all would be acquainted and the real purpose of the meeting could be carried out more advantageously.

JAPS ARE POPULAR.

Washington Society Is Pleased with the Mikado's Legation.

Mme. Takahira, Wife of the New Minister, Is Well Liked—She Is a Beauty, Even from an Occidental Point of View.

The Japanese legation is one of the most popular and best administered of the legations at Washington, yet it is one of the youngest. The first minister from Japan visited this government only 40 years ago, and it is scarcely 30 years since the famous embassy with Mr. Iwakura at its head arrived. This embassy had as its object the making of treaties with the United States and other civilized powers, and started out to make a tour of the world, but so impressed was Ambassador Iwakura with the advantages to be gained from a long residence at the American capital that he remained in Washington for six months. In that time he gave 80 official dinners and a banquet for 1,600 people which rivaled in elegance anything ever seen in America, and picturesque tales are still told of his princely entertaining. Diplomatic intercourse between the United States and Japan was established by Mr. Iwakura's visit, and since then it has never been interrupted. Japan has sent to this country the flower of her statesmen, and no nation with which the United States has diplomatic relations has been represented by men of higher intelligence or greater capacity. Good taste and conservatism have invariably marked the administration of the Japanese legation, and that it will hold the high place it has attained under the new minister is not to be doubted, for Mr. Takahira comes to us with a ripe experience, having already served here as consul general and represented his government as minister to China and at several of the European capitals.

The new minister is accompanied by his wife. Mme. Takahira comes of a noble family, and was educated at one of the best schools for women in Japan, established and conducted after western models. She was married to Mr. Takahira in 1887, shortly after her education was finished, and since then has been with him upon all of his diplomatic missions. This, therefore, is not Mme. Takahira's first visit to the United States, since her husband served as consul general in New York in 1891. From this position Mr. Takahira was promoted to the ministership at The Hague, whither Mme. Takahira accompanied him, and later on she went with him to Rome and to Vienna, at both of which capitals he represented his government. These prolonged visits in foreign countries have enabled Mme. Takahira to become acquainted with their languages and their people, and the experience she has had at the European courts will be of advantage to her even in this republican stronghold.

MME. TAKAHIRA.
(Wife of the New Japanese Minister to the United States.)

Mme. Takahira, says the New York Tribune, is a fine looking woman, even from the occidental point of view, which differs so materially regarding the beauty of women from that of the orient. Her complexion has the tinge and softness for which Japanese women are famous, her eyes are large and expressive, and her wealth of glossy black hair is worn in the prevailing style, brushed back from a pretty brow. But the most att active feature Mme. Takahira possesses is the vivacious expression and the quick responsiveness one notes in her face when she is conversing.

Not since the days of Mr Yoshida have the women of the Japanese legation retained their native costume, which is rapidly going out of fashion in Japan among the higher classes, and, like her predecessors, the wife of the new minister has adopted European dress; but, unlike many of her sisters, her clothes are in exquisite taste and her jewels are beautiful. It is doubtful, indeed, if any woman in the diplomatic corps possesses more gorgeous gems. Mme. Takahira has three children, who are in Japan, and will not at present join their parents.

Domestics in Australia.

The relations existing between mistress and maid in Australia are aptly illustrated in a recent issue of a Queensland paper, in which a girl advertises for a situation as caretaker of a laundry or dairy. She can cook and understands housekeeping, and adds: "None but a respectable mistress, who wishes to leave her servant in uninterrupted discharge of her duties, need apply."

Paternal Law in Japan.

Japan has passed a bill to prohibit lads under 20 years of age from smoking.

VETERAN'S SUDDEN DEATH.

Major Poole Stricken at His Home In Syracuse.

SYRACUSE, Dec. 24.—Theodore L. Poole, United States marshal for the northern district of New York state and member of the Fifty-fourth congress from the Onondaga-Madison district from 1894 to 1896, was stricken with apoplexy yesterday morning at 8 o'clock as he attempted to rise from his bed and died immediately.

Major Poole had been in poor health for several months. During the summer he suffered from an attack of nervous prostration, from which he recovered sufficiently to assume in September the active duties of United States marshal, for which he qualified early in July.

Major Poole was born in Elbridge, Onondaga county, on April 10, 1840. When 22 years of age he enlisted as a private in Company I of the One Hundred and Twenty-second regiment, New York volunteers. When the regiment was mustered into service he was appointed quartermaster sergeant and from that time was successively promoted until the close of the war, when he was discharged with the rank of brevet major. At the battle of Cold Harbor he was severely wounded, and after several months of suffering at the hospital it became necessary to amputate his left arm to save his life.

Since the war Major Poole had been prominent in politics. He was a Republican and occupied the offices of assistant assessor of internal revenue, United States pension agent for the western district of New York, United States congressman and United States marshal. He was also a prominent G. A. R. man, serving for ten years as a member of the council of administration and in 1892 being chosen commander of the department of New York for one term.

GARDINER HAD TO GO.

Roosevelt Took Prompt Action In Case of District Attorney.

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—Governor Roosevelt's prompt and summary action in the case of Asa Bird Gardiner was an eyeopener for the Tammany braves. The hearing Saturday at Albany occupied scarcely eight hours, and late in the evening the governor announced the removal of Croker's district attorney and the appointment of Eugene A. Philbin to succeed Colonel Gardiner. Mr. Philbin is the senior partner of the firm of Philbin, Beekman & Menken. Mr. Beekman, who was a justice of the supreme court, died a few days ago. Mr. Philbin is a member of the Reform club, a Gold Democrat and an opponent of Crokerism. He is the opposite of all that Gardiner has represented in the political life of the city.

When the hearing was ended at 7 o'clock Saturday night, the belief was general that a case had been made out against Gardiner and that he had been proved guilty of sympathy at least with Chief Devery's open incitement to riot at the recent election. His failure to help Mr. Hammond in the speedy prosecution of election offenders was made so clear that all who heard the testimony felt that there would be a new district attorney named for New York.

The British Lion Roars.

LONDON, Dec. 24.—The Times, in an editorial on President McKinley's decision to submit the Hay-Pauncefote canal treaty to Great Britain, reproaches him with "shifting a dangerous responsibility" on the British government and says: "The president must bear the responsibility for any friction that may ensue. The amended treaty is a bargain to which we cannot agree and to which no reasonable American who takes the trouble to reflect upon our side of the question can expect us to agree. When Senator Lodge announces that Americans expect Europe to 'keep out' of America, he forgets that England is a great North American power and means to remain such a power. If the Hay-Pauncefote treaty is not adopted in a form acceptable to us, we shall stand on it upon our indubitable rights under the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, rights which cannot be affected by any action the American senate may choose to take."

Ireland Denies Report.

ST. PAUL, Dec. 24.—Archbishop John Ireland returned to St. Paul yesterday and took occasion to deny the statements recently telegraphed from Duluth that he was to visit Cuba and Porto Rico as a special commissioner appointed by President McKinley to settle disputes in regard to the division of church property. "There is nothing whatever to the story," said the archbishop. "Such a thing was not mentioned by the president nor by any one on behalf of the government. If I should ever visit the islands—and I have no present intention of doing so—it would be purely on my own account."

Sauerkraut For Soldiers.

CHICAGO, Dec. 24.—Sauerkraut is to be added to the bill of fare of the United States soldiers now on duty in the Philippines. Bids will be received by Major W. L. Alexander, purchasing commissary officer of the department of the lakes, on Dec. 29 for supplying Uncle Sam's troops stationed in and about Manila with 20,000 gallons of sauerkraut, and it will be shipped from Chicago early in January. With it there will be sent 150,000 two pound cans of roast beef, 60,043 pounds of bacon and 62,500 pounds of ham.

A Connecticut Hostelry Burned.

MILFORD, Conn., Dec. 24.—The Park hotel in this town was almost totally destroyed by fire early last evening, the loss being about $6,000, partially covered by insurance. The house was the second of that name to be burned, its predecessor on the same site being the old Park hotel, destroyed by fire a few years ago, a hostelry known to every Yale man of the older generation as the Mecca for students who had suffered rustification and called by some of the society boys "The Milford Chapter."

Skating Accident.

TROY, N. Y., Dec. 24.—William Noyse, aged 17, of Watervliet was drowned while skating on the State basin, near the Standard Oil works, in the town of Colonie. The young man, with two companions, named Sullivan and Sheehan, skated into an opening in the ice. The two last named were rescued, but Noyse sank from view after a vain attempt to pull him on to firm ice. Coroner Haswell was notified. The body has not been recovered.

Fishing Boats Missing.

LONDON, Dec. 24.—A dispatch from Aberdeen says that five Shetland fishing boats have been missing since the storm that raged last week, and it is feared that 27 fishermen have been drowned.

KITCHENER HOPEFUL

Believes the Cape Colony Invasion Checked.

FEELING NOT SHARED IN LONDON.

De Wet's Raid Thought to Be a Well Planned and Serious Affair—Communication With Bloemfontein Cut Off.

LONDON, Dec. 24.—Lord Kitchener's dispatches, breathing a confidence hardly justified by their contents, are almost the only available news from the seat of hostilities in South Africa, but telegrams from Cape Town depict the situation in anything but roseate views.

Without believing the assertion of the Transvaal agency in Brussels that 6,000 Boers have invaded Cape Colony, it is quite evident that the invasion was a serious and well planned affair.

The Cape Colony cabinet had an important sitting yesterday. It appears that the Boers have destroyed a railway bridge 90 feet long about 12 miles south of De Aar and that no Cape mails have arrived at Bloemfontein for three days.

Further anxiety has been caused in Cape Town by the discovery that during the last two months public bodies in out of the way places have requisitioned supplies of dynamite. The colonial government is now endeavoring to recover possession of these explosives and is removing all stores of arms and ammunition from suspected depots.

Other advices from Cape Town represent the Dutch element in Cape Colony as greatly elated over the southward progress of the Boers and as boasting that the whole district of Victoria West will join the raiders. It is suspected in Cape Town that the force traveling from Zoutpan's drift is not a body of Boers, but one of colonials hastening to join the invaders.

The Pietermaritzburg correspondent of The Daily Mail says:

"The Boers are active between Johannesburg and Pretoria, exchanging shots with the British outposts, and it is reported that parties of Boers are hovering around Johannesburg."

The war office has received the following dispatch from Lord Kitchener, dated Pretoria, Dec. 22:

"So far as it is possible for me to form an opinion from the reports of officers on the spot, I think the Boer movement into Cape Colony has been checked. Of the two forces that entered the colony, the eastern is still north of the Zoutpansberg range, while the one that entered west appears to have been turned in the direction of Britstown and Prieska. Our troops are getting around both bodies, and a special column is also being organized which will be dispatched immediately when I know where its services are most wanted.

"The Boers here have not received much assistance in Cape Colony, so far as my information goes. We have armed some of the colonists, who are assisting our forces. Railway and telegraph communication has been much interrupted by the very bad weather.

"De Wet is in the neighborhood of Senekal. General French, in conjunction with General Clements, attacked a force under Beyers south of the Magaliesberg. The Boers broke away in a southwesterly direction toward Potchefstroom and were followed by General Gordon with a column of French's force.

"Yesterday evening about 5 o'clock Clements' force was engaged south of Oliphant's nek, but I do not yet know the result."

A later dispatch from Lord Kitchener, dated Pretoria, Dec. 22, says:

"The western column of Boers occupied Britstown and cut the railway south of De Aar Junction. The enemy is being followed up."

Manchester Out of Debt.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 24.—The Duke of Manchester's debts in his native land have been paid. His three castles and his 27,000 acres of unproductive land are no longer weighted with I O U incumbrances. These facts are practically admitted by Eugene Zimmerman, father-in-law of the duke. In all 130,000 good American dollars were deposited in London last Friday to cover and liquidate the indebtedness of the bankrupt duke. His grace at the early age of 23 can now begin life anew. As to just where the money came from Mr. Zimmerman is not so free in expressing himself. But in his reluctance there appears to be more of the natural coyness of a father-in-law in touching upon the personal affairs of a prized son-in-law than anything else.

A Rochester Den Raided.

ROCHESTER, Dec. 24.—Late Saturday night a "Tivoli" raid was made on the Empire Music hall by the local police. About 200 women and men were present. After taking their names they were let go. William Abbott, manager of the hall, was taken to police headquarters, charged with running a music hall without a license. The "vaudeville" entertainers, five in number, were also arrested. After giving bail in $50 each they were released.

A Charitable Mayor.

SALEM, Mass., Dec. 24.—Mayor Elect John F. Hurley of this city, pawnbroker and real estate dealer, has planned to give his salary of $2,500 a year, which he is to receive beginning Jan. 1, for administering the affairs of the witch city to the poor. He will not hand over the money to a charitable institution, but will disburse the amount himself as fast as he earns it.

Bank Burglars Surrender.

MONTFORD, Wis., Dec. 24.—A burglar giving his name as Henry Kennedy and a citizen named William Henke were shot during a pitched battle between bank robbers and a posse of citizens yesterday. For half an hour there was a fierce fight, during which 20 or more shots were fired, the burglars finally surrendering.

Railway Wreck In Texas.

DALLAS, Dec. 24.—Texas and Pacific and St. Louis and Southwestern passenger trains collided at the crossing of the two roads nine miles west of Texarkana. Fireman Edward Cotterson was killed and Engineer James Hubbard fatally injured. The mail and express cars were demolished.

Mild In Stockholm.

STOCKHOLM, Dec. 24.—The weather in Stockholm is the mildest that has been known here for many years at the Christmas season.

AN AUTONOMY PARTY

Loyal Filipinos at Manila Adopt a Platform.

FORMER INSURGENT AT THE HEAD.

Newspaper Man Named to Rule Benguet—Thirty-nine Priests Have Proffered Submission to American Rule.

MANILA, Dec. 24.—The recently organized Autonomy party was launched at a meeting attended by virtually all the loyal Filipino leaders in Manila. The declaration of principles was read and, after some discussion, adopted by a vote of 123, less than half a dozen declining to vote. All signed an indorsement of the platform, including Senor Paterno, one of the most influential of the former insurgent leaders, whose real attitude toward American authority has been much questioned.

The principal discussion was with reference to the organization of the government of the party. A council of 25 members was elected, together with an executive committee, including Senor Cayetano Arellano, chief justice of the supreme court; Mr. Frank H. Bourne, Senor Armiosa Frores, a former insurgent general; Senor Florentino Torres, attorney general for the Philippines; Senor Jose Near, prosecuting attorney, and Senor Tomas del Rosario. The smallest number of votes received by any candidate was 80.

Advices brought yesterday by steamer from southern Luzon say that a lieutenant and 60 men of the Ninth United States cavalry attacked a large body of insurgents last Wednesday near Guinobatan, province of Albay. After the battle 45 dead insurgents were counted, together with many wounded. The only American casualty was the wounding of a sergeant who was cornered by several rebels and struck in the leg by a bolo. The rebel loss was the heaviest recorded among recent encounters. The cutting of the wires has delayed the official report of the engagement.

The Philippine commission has appointed H. Phelps Whitmarsh governor and Otto Scherer secretary of the province of Benguet.

Thirty-nine priests, 17 of them belonging in the province of Bulacan, the strongest of the Tagal provinces, have signed and forwarded to the Philippine commission a paper proffering their submission and loyalty to its authority, adding that the promise is made voluntarily and without mental reservation. Judge Taft has replied, welcoming their assistance in the pacification of a people "over whom you will have so great an influence."

A detachment of the Sixteenth infantry has captured Bautista, the head of the Katipunan society, in northwestern Luzon.

A detachment of the Forty-ninth infantry recently attacked a barrio on the Cagayan river, in Isabella province, drove out the insurgents, killing several of them, and captured a thousand rounds of ammunition. The Americans also burned the insurgent quarters. The latest reports from Iloilo say that the islands of Panay and Cebu since the rainy season set in are being rapidly cleared of the enemy and that in a few weeks the only opposition encountered will be that offered by scattering ladrones. The Twenty-sixth infantry in Panay and the Forty-fourth in Cebu are conducting an actively aggressive campaign. The American casualties have recently been slight.

Governor Tanner Pardons Furlong.

CHICAGO, Dec. 24.—Former Policeman Patrick Furlong, who in February, 1900, killed Edward Leach, a brother officer, and was sentenced to the penitentiary for 14 years, has been pardoned by Governor Tanner and will take his Christmas dinner with his family in Chicago. Furlong, who is of Irish parentage, and Leach, an Englishman, became involved in an argument about the Boer war. Leach's declaration that England could whip any country on earth led to blows, and both men drew revolvers. Furlong shot first, with fatal effect.

Crazy Man Shoots Two.

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—John Galletus, a Brooklyn mechanic who has recently shown evidences of insanity, became violent in his home and, taking a revolver, ran out of his house. At the time Nathan Ruth, 9 years old, and Lawrence Kelley, a man, were passing. Galletus without warning fired at both of them. Ruth was shot under the right eye and Kelley in the breast. The boy may die, but the man is not seriously injured.

Germany Wants Her Pay First.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 24.—The expected imperial irade authorizing the signature of the contract for the construction of a cruiser for the Ottoman navy by the Cramp Shipbuilding company, together with the initial deposit of £100,000, has not yet been issued. It appears that the German embassy has protested to the porte against the payment to the Cramps before the amount owing to Herr Krupp for naval guns has been paid.

Troops Home For Christmas.

HALIFAX, Dec. 24.—The steamer Lake Champlain, having on board Colonel Otter and 350 Canadian troops returning from South Africa, arrived from Liverpool and disembarked here. The order to land at St. John, N. B., had been canceled by the militia department. The time saved by the change will enable the western men to get home for Christmas.

A Japanese Minister Resigns.

YOKOHAMA, Dec. 24.—Hoshi Toru, minister of communications and formerly Japanese minister to the United States, has resigned his portfolio in consequence of the persistent allegations of his implication in financial scandals. He will be succeeded by Mr. Hara, former minister to Korea. It is possible that the stability of the Ito cabinet will be affected.

Blizzard In Minnesota.

ST. PAUL, Dec. 24.—This section of the northwest is experiencing the first blizzard of the present winter. The past week was extremely mild and pleasant. In St. Paul the snowfall has been light, but the fierce wind blows it in blinding sheets and makes things very disagreeable. The storm is general throughout the state.

Population of Berlin.

BERLIN, Dec. 24.—The population of Berlin, including the suburbs, is 2,469,676, as compared with 2,076,946 in 1895.

A JAPANESE VIEW.

Delays of the Diplomats Excite Sympathy For China.

YOKOHAMA, Dec. 24.—The wearisome and disappointing delays of the Peking diplomats are having a marked effect upon public opinion in Japan, producing what may be regarded as at most a revolution of sentiment in favor of China. The native papers are now mainly ranged on the side of leniency in dealing with the chief instigators not only from a practical point of view looking at the supreme importance of inducing the government to return to Peking, but also owing to the inherent force of the spirit of patriotism which characterizes the Japanese natives. The Japanese are naturally asking themselves what they would have done under similar provocation. The answer has given rise to an overflow of something strongly resembling sympathy, and Japan is therefore ranging itself on the side of the nations which are counseling the most moderate terms possible in the negotiations with the Chinese court. It is noticeable also that even some of the foreign papers here are upon the same side, The Japan Mail conspicuously so.

The missionary question of course occupies a foremost place in the discussion. It is now felt as essential that the western powers take cognizance of the sentiment here that religious invasions of oriental countries by powerful western organizations are tantamount to filibustering expeditions and should not only be discountenanced, but stern measures should be adopted for their suppression. It is of course admitted that individual religious zeal in the line of propagandism cannot be interfered with, but the feeling here is that the missionary organizations constitute a constant menace to peaceful international relations.

The business stagnation continues and is exciting some alarm in foreign as well as in native circles. The harbor of Yokohama is well nigh denuded of shipping, and there is a steady though as yet small exodus of foreign residents. When the Chinese troubles are settled, however, every one is looking for a substantial revival of trade, and preparations for it are being made. In the meantime indignation against the inexcusable delays at Peking is waxing hot.

To Receive the Joint Note.

PEKING, Dec. 24.—Li Hung Chang, answering an inquiry from the foreign envoys regarding his health, said he believed he would be able to attend the meeting in order to accept with Prince Ching the preliminary joint note. The note will be presented by the Spanish minister, Senor B. J. de Cologan, doyen of the diplomatic corps, with a few words expressive of a hope of as prompt a reply as possible to a note which has been carefully prepared, with every desire to continue the dynasty and not to be hard toward the nation and of a further hope that the Chinese plenipotentiaries will urge upon Emperor Kwang Su the necessity of immediate compliance. An answer is expected about Thursday.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

Fire partially gutted The Chronicle newspaper building in Halifax, causing a loss of $8,000.

A movement is on foot for a great national religious revival at the opening of the new century.

The electric trolley system is rapidly displacing the storage battery system on the busiest streets of Berlin.

The Rev. David Whitney Thurston, one of the oldest Methodist preachers in New York, died in Syracuse.

A strike of electric railway men was ordered at Scranton, Pa., and the whole Wyoming valley was completely tied up.

Boxing Prohibited In Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 24.—As a result of the fatal termination of the amateur boxing bout at the Philadelphia Athletic club between Joseph Kelly and Edward Sanford, who fought under the name of Frank Barr, all boxing contests have been prohibited for the present by the police authorities. Director of Public Safety English has issued an order to the police to the effect that all permits for sparring contests heretofore issued are revoked and that no more permits will be granted for the same for the present, and the police are instructed to prohibit sparring exhibitions until further notice. There are quite a number of athletic clubs in the city where boxing contests, both amateur and professional, were held, six rounds being the limit prescribed by law.

Pennsylvania Street Railways.

HARRISBURG, Dec. 24.—The total income of the 94 street railway companies operating in Pennsylvania during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1900, was $24,447,181. The report of Chief Brown of the state bureau of railways says the total amount of capital stock outstanding of the operating street railways for the year was $103,176,121, and the taxes paid during the year was $1,579,284. The total number of persons killed during the year was 1,582.

Russian Loan Declined.

LONDON, Dec. 24.—"Russia offered Roumania a loan of 16,000,000," says the Vienna correspondent of The Daily Express, "to assist her in the financial crisis, but the offer was declined because there were conditions attached undermining Roumanian independence."

Seven Seamen Drowned.

COPENHAGEN, Dec. 24.—The sailing ship Iverre was wrecked last Friday near Goeteborg, southwestern Sweden. Seven of the crew were drowned. Three managed to reach an uninhabited island, where two died, the third being rescued.

An Italian Strike Ended.

GENOA, Dec. 24.—The strike that was caused by the closing by the prefect of police of the bureau of labor unions came to an end yesterday on the announcement that the government had consented to a reconstruction of the bureau.

Americans Take Another Contract.

SANTIAGO, Chile, Dec. 24.—The government of Chile, which recently invited tenders for 400 freight cars, has accepted 300 from Beeche & Co. and 100 from W. R. Grace & Co., all of American manufacture.

China Will Accept All.

LONDON, Dec. 24.—Dr. Morrison, wiring to The Times from Peking Saturday, says that official Chinese declare that China will accept all the conditions of the joint note without "losing her face."

Weather Probabilities.

Fair; colder; winds becoming brisk to high westerly.

MOUNTS FOR THE BRITISH.

England Buying Horses In This Country—Fearful Death Rate.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 24.—Captain Heygate of the British army is purchasing 50,000 cavalry horses and mules for the British army in South Africa. He came here more than a year ago to buy horses and mules, but was ordered home a short time ago. But the unexpected renewal of hostilities has made the purchase of more horses and mules necessary. As fast as the animals are inspected and bought they will be sent to New Orleans and shipped to Cape Town, Durban and New London on British transports, some of which are now on their way to the United States. One shipload of the animals will be taken to South Africa by Lieutenant David Moberly, leaving New Orleans soon after January. Lieutenant Moberly said:

"By the time the horses and mules are landed in South Africa they cost the British government $360 a head. That is a large price for an animal which will be fit for service only six weeks. Most of the animals die because of the change in climate. They must cross the equator in going to South Africa, and the torrid heat of the tropics kills them rapidly. The average death rate on shipboard is 32 to the 1,000. Forty days after a horse is purchased in Kansas City it is landed in South Africa. So great is the demand for horses at the front that it is impossible to give them the needed rest after landing before putting them into service. Consequently they go to the front in a weakened condition, and, not getting a sufficient amount of food, they soon die. Since the beginning of the Boer war England has purchased over 100,000 head of horses and mules in the United States. It required 65 ships to carry them from New Orleans to South Africa. Government transports will be kept very busy from now on carrying the horses which England will need in South Africa and which have been ordered purchased in the United States. Baden-Powell now has 25,000 mounted police, and it is proposed to mount 50,000 of the imperial infantry. England has discovered that her soldiers must be mounted to be able to cope with the Boer, who gets over the country with alarming rapidity."

The Nebraska Senatorships.

LINCOLN, Neb., Dec. 24.—Assistant Secretary of War George D. Meiklejohn has arrived in Lincoln to assume personal management of his canvass for a seat in the United States senate. The Nebraska legislature, which convenes on the first of the new year, will have two senators to elect, a successor to John M. Thurston and one to fill the vacancy caused by the death of M. L. Hayward, which is being filled at present by William V. Allen by appointment of the governor. Both houses of the legislature are Republican, but the majority is small in both branches. There are a dozen candidates for the vacant seats, the more prominent aside from Mr. Meiklejohn being Edward Rosewater and Congressman Mercer of Omaha, former Congressman Hainer of Aurora, L. D. Richards of Fremont, E. H. Hinshaw of Fairbury and former Governor Lorenzo Crounse of Fort Calhoun, himself a member of the state senate.

Drowned While Skating.

SUSQUEHANNA, Pa., Dec. 24.—While a party of young people were skating upon the ice on the Susquehanna river at State Line, four miles north of Susquehanna, the ice broke, and two of the number, Miss Ida McKune of State Line, aged 22, and Arthur Munson of Lanesboro, aged 20, went under. Miss McKune's body disappeared from view, but Munson succeeded in reaching shore. He hurried to a farmhouse near by for help, and while working with the rescuing party a few minutes later he went through the ice a second time and was drowned. The bodies were recovered several hours later. Hundreds of men were engaged in the search for them. Mr. Munson was employed in the Erie railroad shops at Susquehanna. Miss McKune was employed by the Delaware and Hudson Railroad company at State Line.

A Dry New Jersey Town.

RAHWAY, N. J., Dec. 24.—The storekeepers and other business men of this city felt the effects yesterday of a proclamation issued last Wednesday by Mayor Holmes. In his manifesto the mayor ordered all business to cease on coming Sundays after 10 a. m. with the exception of the express companies, drug stores and restaurants. In consequence saloon keepers, barbers, bootblacks, cigar dealers, fruit stand keepers and all other proscribed merchants closed up promptly at the hour set, and Rahway was "drier" than it has been since 20 years ago the city elected a prohibition mayor.

The Puritan Breaks a Shaft.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Dec. 24.—The steamer Puritan of the Fall River line arrived here with a broken shaft. The break was discovered in New York, but as it was not a bad one it was decided that she should make her regular trip to this city. After the passengers and freight had been discharged she proceeded to Newport, where repairs will be made, and it unlikely that she will resume her place upon the line before next spring. The steamer Priscilla will take the Puritan's place.

Carnegie Remembers Tuskegee.

BOSTON, Dec. 24.—Just before Mr. Booker T. Washington left Boston, where he has been raising funds for the permanent endowment of the Tuskegee school, he received a letter from Mr. Andrew Carnegie to the effect that the latter had decided to give $20,000 for the erection of a library building for Tuskegee institute. The building will be erected entirely by student labor.

Auditor Morris Shot.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.—Frank H. Morris of Ohio, auditor of the war department, was shot and instantly killed about 2:10 o'clock Saturday afternoon by Samuel MacDonald, also of Ohio, recently a disbursing clerk of the treasury, in the former's office at the Winder building on Seventeenth street. MacDonald afterward shot himself and also slashed his throat with a penknife.

Baltimore and Ohio Official Dead.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 24.—W. E. Jones, who has been treasurer and assistant secretary of the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern railway and its predecessors for over 30 years, died suddenly at his residence here, aged 53 years.

Prince Oscar Much Better.

STOCKHOLM, Dec. 24.—The condition of Prince Oscar, duke of Scanie, eldest son of the crown prince of Sweden and Norway, who has been seriously ill, is now much improved.

STARVING TO DEATH

Alarming Mortality and Suffering In Porto Rico.

PEOPLE DISEASED AND EMACIATED.

Surgeon Williams In His Report Tells of Want, Squalor and Sickness Caused by Lack of Food.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Dec. 24.—Dr. A. D. Williams, assistant surgeon of the United States army, has arrived from Porto Rico, where he was detailed to make a report on conditions of the people as observed by him on a march with soldiers across the island. That report was made to the adjutant general, department of Porto Rico, San Juan. A copy of the report was given out last night by Dr. Williams.

"At Los Marias," the report says, "we began to see the vanguard of misery. In that small, squalid town there is no medical man. Many were sick. A Mr. Toucuand, the American schoolteacher there, told me that many of the people not only of the surrounding country, but of the town, were in great distress. I asked him the cause of so much sickness and so many deaths. He answered without hesitation, 'For want of food.'" The report continues:

"At Adjuntas the conditions were appalling—men, women and children swollen, bloated, diseased and emaciated, whose pinched and haggard features appeared weighted with the sorrows of years. When I asked the city physician of Adjuntas the cause of such a large death rate—52 deaths and 4 births the week immediately preceding our visit there—he replied:

"'The death rate is about the same every week. The prime cause is chronic starvation.'"

Dr. Williams in his report declares that with 14 patients in the hospital at this place and three nurses the municipal authorities allow the steward to draw only $1 a day in municipal stamps for the subsistence and care of the patients and that the steward can realize only 50 cents for his stamps, and with that amount daily he has to provide the scanty hospital food.

The Cudahy Case.

OMAHA, Dec. 24.—The mysterious "dark" man in the Cudahy kidnaping case was arrested yesterday afternoon by the police from the description given by Miss Maud Munshaw, who lives near the house in which Eddie Cudahy was held for ransom by his abductors. His name is Ed Johnson. He is a laborer in the Cudahy packing plant and resides at Twenty-sixth and Walnut streets. He admitted having gone out to the Grover street house three times for the purpose of renting the building, which he found already let to the "light" man and his accomplices. Johnson was easily able to prove to the satisfaction of the police and Mr. Cudahy, who was called in, that he had nothing to do with the case and was allowed to return to his wife and family. In the meantime the city is being diligently scoured for any sign of the other men described by persons living in the vicinity of the abductor's prison house.

Fire In a Mine Checked at Last.

TAMAQUA, Pa., Dec. 24.—The officials of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation company are jubilant over the fact that the fire in the celebrated burning mine at Summit Hill, which started 42 years ago, is now under control, and it is said that the next two years will see its extinguishment. The fire, which has consumed about 35 acres of the finest coal land in the anthracite coal region, has moved westward toward Lansford. Two immense drilling machines which have been constantly probing for the fire have now honeycombed the earth to the west of the burning portion. Culm is being poured into these holes, and a solid mass will thus confront the fire.

Blue Stone Properties Purchased.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Dec. 24.—J. F. Kilgour of Passaic, N. J., once famous as the "blue stone king," has just purchased extensive blue stone properties at West Brookville, Sullivan county. A company has been formed of which Dr. Jones of 1027 Third avenue and W. C. Dilger, 108 East Fifty-eighth street, New York, will be members. This property was controlled by the Midland Blue Stone company, with a capital stock of $200,000, 28 years ago.

Marriage Ceremony Stopped.

SUSQUEHANNA, Pa., Dec. 24.—At Hawleyton, while David D. Owen and Miss Nancy D. Vaughan were being united in marriage by a local justice of the peace and when the ceremony was just half completed, the young woman's mother jumped in between the couple and forbade further proceedings. The marriage was then declared off. It is said to be the first instance of the kind in the annals of history.

Large Deal In Coal Lands.

FAIRMONT, W. Va., Dec. 24.—The largest coal deal ever made in Harrison county will be closed in a few days. The territory comprises 12,000 acres, or 19 square miles, lying around Salem. The purchasers are James E. Brown of Uniontown and Alfred J. Cochran of Dawson, who will pay $842,000 for the entire tract.

A Probable Murder.

NAUGATUCK, Conn., Dec. 24.—The finding of the body of an unknown man with one side of his skull crushed early Sunday morning in the yard in front of the Cotton Hollow roadhouse, a well known resort a mile and a half south of this town, develops a mystery that has every appearance of murder.

Snow In Nebraska.

OMAHA, Dec. 24.—Considerable snow has fallen all over Nebraska. The temperature is not so low, but a sharp wind and a fine snow heralds the approach of winter weather. Several minor accidents have resulted from the storm, but only one of them is fatal.

Railroad Fireman Injured.

UTICA, N. Y., Dec. 24.—B. J. Hagen, a railroad fireman, was stricken with paralysis while riding on an engine and fell to the ground. He was not injured by the fall, but the stroke rendered him absolutely speechless and unable to walk.

The Black Eagle For Von Bulow.

BERLIN, Dec. 24.—Yesterday afternoon Emperor William visited the imperial chancellor, Count von Bulow, and personally conferred upon him the insignia of the Order of the Black Eagle.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., DEC. 24, 1900.

Merry Christmas.

Tomorrow will be Christmas Day and through this broad land, it will be duly celebrated in millions of homes. Every man, woman and child, who has a single spark of love for the rest of mankind, will join in the festivities which will mark the day. In palatial mansion or humble cottage, Christmas will be the occasion for general rejoicings. Plainfield will not differ from the rest of the country and the day will be observed throughout city and borough even more pleasantly than in previous years.

It is well that the people of Christendom should remember at least one day in the year that their fellow men exist and are governed by the same emotions and feelings as themselves. In the neverceasing struggle for existance, the finer feelings are apt to become dulled or else be gradually forced down while the material things gain the ascendency. There are some who keep their fellow creatures constantly in mind but the greater part of humanity is so occupied with its own affairs that it seldom troubles itself with the affairs of others.

When the Christmastide comes around, the sordid and selfish souls expand in the warmth of the holiday season, and thoughts turn from self for the time being. The dear ones at home, the friends of former times, the daily associates, all are brought to mind. Troubles, which seemed so real but a short time ago, lose their importance for the Chirstmas season and it's "Merry Christmas" to all. There is a subtle influence which seems in the very air, and the man who does not respond to it, no matter his position, lacks that something which the Creator of all mankind intended him to have. Let there be no "Scrooges" among us. "And so, as Tiny Tim observed, God bless us, every one."

A calendar of pretty design is always welcome but the Daily Press calendars are particularly valued for the fact that they always have a complete list of the fire-alarm boxes in city and borough on them. The Daily Press calendar for 1901 will not differ in that respect from those of former years. These calendars will be distributed tomorrow by the Press carriers. Don't forget these bright little lads who have faithfully delivered your favorite newspaper to you for the past twelvemonth when they come around tomorrow morning and make it a merry Christmas for them.

There are many ways of advertising a business enterprise, and several have been found to be profitable, says the Philadelphia Record, but the experience of most advertisers has been like that of Mr. Semple, of Bangor, Me., who is rated as exceptionally successful. "We put the newspaper first of all among advertising media," he said. "It reaches out the fatherest, and it touches about everybody within reach. That is more than you can say of any other one method."

The Daily Press will not be published tomorrow as it is Christmas Day.

The Daily Press wishes all its readers a merry Christmas.

WHAT OTHERS SAY.

Clippings From Other Newspapers Which May Be Of Interest to Plainfield and Its Citizens.

It is said that Mayor Smalley, of North Plainfield, is slated for member of the State Board of Arbitration in place of John W. Dent. What is the matter with Dent? Is he worn out by the arduous duties of the office?—Somerville Unionist-Grazette.

The news which we publish concerning the consolidation of various electric light companies in Middlesex, Somerset and Union counties, means that in the near future Metuchen will be the central distributing point for a supply of light, heat and power that will radiate in all directions and give little Metuchen a more substantial importance than it has ever had. Even New Brunswick, with ten times its population, will have to rely for its electric light on the central powerhouse at Metuchen. If it ever fails, we shall have to wreak vengeance on our little neighbor.—New Brunswick Home News.

Plainfield, one of the most progressive of New Jersey towns, proposes to take advantage of a law passed last winter and will levy a special tax of one-half of one per cent. for the purposes of advertising the advantages of the town for those seeking homes and looking for factory sites. This is an example which the people of Washington could very profitably follow. Such a tax here would yield about $750 per year, and this amount, judiciously spent by an active Board of Trade under the direction of the Borough Council, would certainly bring results. The whole idea, when properly handled, amounts to the exchanging of one dollar for two and is worthy of serious consideration, not only by this borough, but by all the towns of the State that have any ambition to push ahead and share in the great industrial expansion which has struck New Jersey.—Washington Star.

TEA TABLE TALK.

Short and Gossipy Sketches That Are Not Always News, But Just as Interesting.

The degree of proficiency to which some of the pupils of the borough schools have attained in the art of drawing and penmanship is truly astonishing. A reporter for The Daily Press was shown some really artistic work in the way of drawing a few days ago. Some of the efforts of the young boys and girls, whose ages range from 12 to 15 years, are highly creditable to them as well as to their instructors. The advantages of an education gained in the public schools is beyond comprehension. Besides drawing, pupils are also given the privilege of studying music, and an instrument upon which to practice without one cent of cost to them or their parents. What a contrast to the old district schools which the parents of children attending the public schools had to put up with.

No better illustration of childish faith and simplicity is to be found than that experienced by the employes of the local post office with the approach of Christmas. Usually from two to three weeks before the holiday letters are found in the boxes addressed in a childish scrawl to "Mr. Santa Claus" and followed by various directions as to where that mythical gentleman is to be found. Of course the letters go no further than the local office where they are torn open and read by the carriers who are forced to smile at the favors asked of St. Nick.

The writers usually begin by informing Santa that they have been very good during the year and then make a plea for some coveted present varying in value from pennies to dollars. Many such letters are received and cast in the waste paper basket while the writers, all blissfully ignorant, are supremely happy in the belief that the carefully construed epistle is speeding on its way to Santa. One letter received Saturday bore the following: "Dear Mr. Santa Claus, North Pole, Iceland."

The Elizabeth postoffice is in receipt of several letters addressed to Santa Claus. These letters bear various inscriptions, all in children's handwriting. There are three addressed to Hahne & Co., Newark, N. J., "For Mr. Santa Claus." As these bear only one cent stamps, they cannot be forwarded.

One is addressed to "Santa Claus, North Pole, America." One is simply inscribed "Dear Santa Claus," while another is to "Santa Claus," and is stamped with a Swedish stamp. Two are directed to Lapland, Russia, but the one which is most likely to please old "Santa" is the one addressed to "Mr. Santa Claus, Santaville, Iceland. Two are from German children, and are directed to "Christ Kind, im Himmel.

Many Christmas Dinners.

A great many private dinners will be given about the city and borough tomorrow, at which time there will be a reunion of families, that have been separated during the past year. These events are always marked by pleasant features, and this year will be no exception.

—Many persons have had the experience of Mr. Peter Sherman, of North Stratford, N. H., who says: "For years I suffered torture from chronic indigestion, but Kodol Dyspepsia Cure made a well man of me." It digests what you eat and is a certain cure for dyspepsia and every form of stomach trouble. It gives relief at once even in the worst cases, and can't help but do you good. L. W. Randolph.

Gentlemen:—Our family realize so much from the use of GRAIN-O that I feel I must say a word to induce others to use it. If people are interested in their health and the welfare of their children they will use no other beverage. I have used them all but GRAIN-O I have found superior to any, for the reason that it is solid grain.

THEY SAY.

The Merchant Says:

Telephone service is a great promoter of business. It not only is an open door for new business, but increases the facility with which any business may be transacted.

The Railroad Man Says:

It keeps our many departments running in continuous harmony. It increases both our passenger and our freight service, and is a great convenience to our patrons.

The Broker Says:

It keeps me in touch with the market wherever I am; I buy and sell by wire, and by taking telephonic advantage of a turn in the market I have made thousands of dollars.

The Doctor Says:

Telephone service has increased my income to nearly double. Many persons will seek advice by telephone who would hesitate to ask a physician to make a call.

The Caterer Says:

Telephone service enables me to serve my patrons more speedily and with less effort. It minimizes possibility of loss from overstocking.

The Housekeeper Says:

Life without telephone service would be unbearable. It smooths all the rough places. How we ever got along without it, I do not know.

The Suburban Resident Says:

The knowledge that I can call up my house out of town from my office in the city, is a great comfort.

The College Man Says:

"I say, old chap, it's great. You can call up and get the latest news from the football game or the boat race, and every other old thing a fellow wants to know."

Everybody Says:

It is the greatest thing in the world—the greatest convenience of this or any other time. The greatest factor in business, social or domestic life; a service no one can afford to be without.

The Telephone Company Says:

We want your patronage on the basis of LOW RATES, PERFECT SERVICE.

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence.)

Dunellen, December 24.—The pupils of the Sunday-school connected with the Presbyterian church will give a Christmas entertainment this evening, at which a cantata entitled "The New Santa Claus," will be rendered. An admission fee of ten cents will be charged. At the conclusion of the entertainment presents will be distributed among the pupils. The proceeds of the affair will be placed in the Sunday-school treasury. The Christmas exercises of the Methodist Sunday-school will be held tomorrow night and will consist of recitations and singing by the pupils, after which they will receive their presents from the officers of the school. In St. John's church the pupils will have a Christmas tree tomorrow afternoon, at which time the presents will be distributed.

The teachers in the borough schools have taken advantage of the Christmas vacation and will spend it at their respective homes, Superintendent Cathers has gone to Lahaska, Pa., Mr. Pittinger to Stockton, N. J., Miss Fulper to Flemington, Miss Wilgus to Red Bank, Miss Weathewax to Cortland, N. Y. and Miss Burt to New Brunswick.

David P. Runyon has taken a position with the Central at carpentering and is now employed on the new round house at Elizabethport.

No improvement has been noticed in the condition of Mrs. Frederick Wilcox, who has been ill for some time past.

Charles Tilton and family expect to remove to Elizabethport in the near future, where the former will be near his work.

Mrs. R. J. Swackhamer has returned from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. DeWitt Smith, of Somerville.

Mrs. Frank Wynkoop entertained a number of friends in a pleasant manner at her home Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sproul, of Jersey City, will spend Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Randolph.

Miss Lillian Hunt, of Westfield, has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Josephine Dunham.

Percy Abbott spent Friday with Westfield relatives.

NEW MARKET.

(Special Correspondence.)

New Market, Dec. 24—The ice on the pond has now reached a thickness of eight inches and J. Y. Wilson has made preparations to begin cutting tomorrow. The old method of hauling by horse power will be supplanted by an engine owned by Nelson Giles, of Harris Lane. This will enable the men to work much quicker and to a better advantage.

William Smith, of New Market, and Peter Von Twistern, of Dunellen, have formed a partnership for the purpose of carrying on the quick lunch business. They have erected a tent on the shore of the lake in the rear of Roger's clothing shop, where they will cater to the wants of the skaters.

Wm. Roantree, who was arrested about two months ago for assault and battery, was discharged in the county court Saturday by Judge Strong, the Grand Jury having found no indictment against him.

The body of Benjamin M. Casterline was taken to the old homestead at Potter's crossing this morning. The funeral will be held this afternoon. Interment will be made at Rahway.

The hockey match which was scheduled to take place yesterday, was given up, owing to the poor skating.

The pupils of the First Baptist Sunday-school will hold their Christmas exercises next Thursday evening.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence.)

Scotch Plains, Dec. 24—The prompt action of Edward L. Hand averted what might have been a serious fire at his home Sunday morning about noon. Mr. and Mrs. Hand had left their son, Frank, in the reception parlor on the first floor while they had gone to the dining room above. The little fellow in some way procured a match and in striking it upon a table near the window a piece of the brimstone flew off and lodged in the lace curtains, setting them on fire. His frantic cries alarmed his father, who came running down stairs. When he arrived in the room the curtains were a mass of flames. It took but a moment for him to tear them from their fastenings and smother the flames out with rugs. The window frame was quite badly scorched, but it was very fortunate that help was so near at hand, for a fire in the heart of the village would mean a very serious one, as the buildings are very close together.

For the first time in a number of years the large bell in the Baptist belfry refused yesterday to peal forth the weekly call of the residents of the village to worship. An examination was made and it was found that the pulley over which the rope runs had broken and will have to be replaced by a new one or extensive repairs made to the old pulley before the familiar call will be heard again. As this is the only bell, all in the village depend upon it for their call to church. It's silence on Sunday not only seemed strange but made a number of those, who are in the habit of waiting for the bell, late at service. The damage will probably be repaired during this week.

Judge Clark has issued and placed in the hands of the collectors the annual batch of warrants for delinquent taxpayers for both the township and borough. This means that those who have not paid will now have to pay the added 12 per cent. interest.

The members of the Methodist Sunday-school will hold their Christmas exercises in the church this evening. A real live Santa Claus with presents for all will call during the exercises to make glad the hearts of the younger members of the school.

Joseph Guenier, who has been suffering for several weeks from an attack of rheumatism, is improving will soon be able to return to his position in Plainfield.

T. Gere Paff, who has been spending a pleasant visit of several days with his aunt, Mrs. Charles Grant, of Plainfield, has returned home.

Miss Lizzie Nichol led an interesting meeting of the B. Y. P. U. Society in the Baptist church parlors last evening.

Mrs. Nancy Wilcox, of East Front street, is quite ill at her home. Dr. Westcott is attending her.

John F. Miller has accepted a position with the Gas and Electric Light Company in Plainfield.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Apgar, of Park avenue, entertained relatives from Plainfield Sunday.

Frederick Rose, of Plainfield, was a guest yesterday of relatives in town.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD

(Special Correspondence.)

South Plainfield, Dec. 24—Thomas Hurly had quite an experience one day last week while driving with his truck wagon in the country. A rather seedy-looking individual jumped in at the back of the wagon, and asked for a ride which were granted. In a few minutes another man, his inferior, if possible, in appearance, petitioned for a lift. The two men immediately commenced to quarrel. They had evidently met before. Blows were exchanged and the man who had jumped on last was pushed out of the wagon. Picking up a stick he threw it at the head of his opponent. The man's aim was poor and the club struck Hurly in the face. Both strangers then skipped and Mr. Hurly went for assistance.

After the morning service at the Baptist church yesterday a meeting was held for the purpose of listening to the experiences of those who wished to join the church. There were eight who expressed such a desire.

Miss Wheritt, of Newark, who was expected to address the Farther Lights Society, of this place, has cancelled the engagement and sailed for Bombay, where she is stationed as a missionary.

Another victim was added to the list of deaths on the Lehigh Valley Railroad. Charles Rankiin, an employe of the company, was struck by an express train at Newark and instantly killed.

Miller Jones has been ordered not to run the mill until after the ice has been harvested. He has a large quantity of grain to grind but will have to wait for warm weather.

Chas. Brantingham finished, Saturday, his work for the Lehigh Valley Railroad. He has, for the past year, been building fences and repairing crossings.

R. B. Manning & Bro. have added a new department to their business, having purchased a complete stock of gloves and mitts.

On account of tomorrow being Christmas Day the regular Tuesday evening prayer meeting will be held tonight.

Miss Maggie Geary is enjoying a short vacation, which she is spending at the home of her parents.

Charles Manning, of Newark, spent yesterday at the home of his father, Samuel Manning.

Mrs. Pugh, of Pennsylvania, is visiting her son, Harry Pugh, at the home of Eden Runyon.

Thomas Brantingham has secured a trained ferret, which he will use in hunting rabbits.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ten Eycke, of Newark, are here spending the Christmas holidays.

Howard Snowden is suffering with a complication of sore throat and the grip.

Miss Lenie and Miss Emma Faulks spent Saturday in New York.

Miss Nellie Manning is home for the Christmas holidays.

Miss Lillian Gunther is detained at home by illness.

Children's Trimmed Hats	$1.98
Ladies' Trimmed Hats	$1.98 and $2.98

You have dealt with us so freely, we are assured that our great variety of practical gifts—the appreciative kind—at saving prices, has added to the cheerfulness of many, so it is with much earnestness that we wish

A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS TO YOU ALL.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Alterheim, of Jersey City, is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Hauser, Duer street.

F. H. VanInwagen, of Westervelt avenue, is slightly better after a very painful attack of muscular rheumatism.

Ants, Cockroaches, Bed Bugs.

Mix, say, a 25c. box of "Rough on Rats" carefully with a pound or so of mashed boiled potatoes, or with a loaf of finely crumbled dampened bread, or two tin cups of fine powdered sugar, and place about their haunts, out of reach of children or pet animals. Even the hardier Black Cockroaches, Beetles, Wood or Water Bugs, in one or two applications will be completely annihilated. "Rough on Rats" is the only thing that will effectually and permanently annihilate Bed Bugs, and it stands unrivalled the world over for the prompt and effective extermination of Rats and Mice. 15 and 25 boxes at druggists.

Will Return to Duty.

Rev. W. T. Griffin, of LaGrande avenue, who is U. S. Consul to Lamoges, France, and who has been home home on a furlough, has been ordered to return to his post. He will sail Wednesday by the steamer St. Louis.

World's Champion.

"I tried many remedies to cure piles," writes W. R. Smith, of Latham, Ill., "but found no relief till I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve. I have not been troubled with piles since." It's the only champion pile cure on earth and the best salve in the world. 25c per box, guaranteed by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

Hand Camp Will Elect Tonight.

There will be a special meeting of John Hand Camp, No. 28, S. of V., this evening for the annual election of officers and the transaction of other important business. Every member is urged to be present.

SOME LATE ARRIVALS OF MACKINTOSHES ARE MARKED 1/4 LESS THAN ACTUAL VALUE.

Navy blue and black serge mackintoshes, single cape—
For misses and children - - 2.98
For women - - 3.50

Fine quality of all-wool cheviot serge mackintoshes, double faced plaid cheviot lining, deep circular cape—
For misses and children - - - 4.75
For women - - - 5.00

Umbrellas.

More than two thousand kinds of umbrellas for men, women and children. You are sure to find just what you want from such a large assortment. Three special qualities less than their actual value—

98c Fine twilled serge covers, steel frame, close folder, Congo trimmed handles, for men or women, worth 1.25.

1.39 Gloria cloth covers, steel frames, handsome assortment of trimmed natural wood handles, worth 1.75.

2.00 Handsome assortment of pearl handles, silk serge covers, close folding frames, finished with case and tassel, worth 2.75.

Handkerchiefs for Men and Women.

It would be utter folly to attempt to tell in detail about the different kinds of handkerchiefs. This mammoth stock of perhaps two thousand dozens containing several very special lots is worthy of more than passing notice—

25c Just 100 dozen this morning. Women's all pure linen lawn handkerchiefs, embroidered and hemstitched edges.

39c All pure linen cambric handkerchiefs for women, beautiful fine embroidery, fully worth 50c.

25c Men's all pure linen initial handkerchiefs of a quality worth 35c.

Kid Gloves.

At 1.00 We claim that our women's kid gloves have no superior and few equals; made from the choicest selected skins, cut to fit the hand perfectly, with style and finish equal to any glove shown. We guarantee every pair.

1.19 Women's mocha gloves in all the fashionable shades, 2-clasp finish—would be good value at 1.50.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Provinz Ostpreußen.

Königsberg. Die Arbeitsnachweisstelle der Landwirthschaftskammer für die Provinz Ostpreußen beabsichtigt, für das Sommerhalbjahr 1901 außer den polnischen Arbeitern von der ostpreußisch-polnischen Grenze auch russisch-polnische Arbeiter von der schlesisch-polnischen Grenze in größerem Umfange zu besorgen. Die im Sommer 1900 bereits aus diesem Gebiete bezogenen Arbeiter haben sich nach dem einstimmigen Urtheil der betreffenden Arbeitgeber so gut bewährt, daß die Besteller um Besorgung derselben Leute für das nächste Jahr gebeten haben.

Tilsit. Mit dem Vermessen der Ländereien zu der neuen Bahnlinie Pogegen-Schmalleningken ist vor Kurzem begonnen worden. Die Bahn soll von Pogegen aus über Birstonischken, Willkischken, Wischwill nach Schmalleningken gehen. Durch diesen Eisenbahnbau werden die jenseits des Memelstromes belegenen Ortschaften mit der Hauptstadt Littauens, Tilsit, verbunden.

Provinz Westpreußen.

Bruß. Als der Lehrer Liszywek aus Hutta Abends von einem Besuche zurückkehrte, gerieth er auf den Czarnitzer Wiesen in ein Torfbruch und erlitt den Tod durch Erfrieren.

Elbing. Durch eine, 150,000 Mark betragende Spende des verstorbenen Kommerzienrathes Schichau kam hier die Frage wegen der Erbauung eines neuen Krankenhauses in Fluß. Der Bau geht jetzt seiner Vollendung entgegen. Das Krankenhaus ist auf 150 Betten berechnet und wird so eingerichtet, daß die Anzahl der Betten auf 250 erhöht werden kann.

Rheinprovinz.

Köln. Der außerordentliche Professor der politischen Oekonomie an der rechts- und staatswissenschaftlichen Fakultät der Wiener Universität, Dr. Karl Grünberg, hat eine an ihn ergangene Berufung an die Handelsakademie in Köln angenommen.

Essen. An einem Abende unlängst fand die Polizei, als sie mit Gewalt in einen Laden eingedrungen war, aus dem das Geschrei von Kämpfenden erschallte, den 17jährigen Ladengehilfen Müller, der als Wächter in dem Laden schlief, mit einer klaffenden Wunde sterbend vor, neben ihm lag der Mörder, dem mit einem kleinen Taschenmesser eine Pulsader durchschnitten war, ohnmächtig am Boden. Müller starb nach einer viertel Stunde. Der Mörder wurde in's Krankenhaus geschafft.

Schlebusch. Der Ausstand in der hiesigen Weberei von Schlieper und Engländer wurde nach zehnwöchiger Dauer beendet. Die Ausständigen nahmen die Arbeit bedingungslos wieder auf.

Sinzig. Eine neue Mineralwasserquelle wurde letzthin in Bodendorf, unweit der Appolinarisquelle und dem Neuenahrer Sprudel, erbohrt.

Provinz Sachsen.

Erfurt. Die Strafkammer verurtheilte den ehemaligen Eisenbahnsekretär Tiemeyer, welcher nach Unterschlagung von 73,000 Mark flüchtig geworden und später ergriffen worden war, zu sieben Jahren Zuchthaus und zehn Jahren Ehrverlust. Die mitangeklagte Ehefrau Tiemeyers wurde zu vier Jahren Gefängniß verurtheilt.

Halle. Der czechische Geistliche Gnadauer, welcher auf einer Reise durch das mitteldeutsche Braunkohlenrevier begriffen war, wurde durch Gendarmerie verhaftet und als lästiger Ausländer ausgewiesen.

Provinz Schlesien.

Breslau. Fräulein Marie v. Kramsta hatte bereits im Jahre 1877 ein Kapital von 240,000 Mark der Provinzialverwaltung zu einer Stiftung für hilfsbedürftige Lehrerinnen und Erzieherinnen übergeben und sich Anfang des Jahres 1897 bereit erklärt, diese Stiftung um einen weiteren Betrag von 300,000 Mark zu erhöhen, wenn von anderer Seite binnen drei Jahren wenigstens 150,000 Mark beigesteuert würden. Diese Summe wurde bis vor Kurzem durch Provinzial- und städtische Beiträge, sowie durch Sammlungen aufgebracht, worauf die Stifterin die 300,000 Mark der Provinzialverwaltung übermittelte.

Beuthen. Die trunksüchtige Arbeiterfrau Potsławski gerieth mit ihrem 25jährigen Sohne, einem Schuhmachergesellen, in Streit, warf sich auf ihn und bearbeitete ihn derart mittelst eines scharfen Lederschneidemessers, daß ihm der Hals bis auf die Gurgel durchgeschnitten wurde. Die Mörderin wurde verhaftet.

Grünberg. Die Erbprinzessin von Meiningen übernahm das Protektorat über den Verbandstag der Sanitätskolonnen der sechs östlichen Provinzen, der im Juni 1901 hier stattfindet.

Notice as to Unmuzzled Dogs Running at Large.

By a city ordinance, it is provided that no dog shall be permitted to run at large within the city limits, unless a good and sufficient muzzle shall be placed over the mouth of said dog in such manner as to render biting impossible. If any person permits or suffers any dog owned or harbored by him and not so muzzled to run at large, the ordinance provides that he shall upon conviction be punished by a fine not exceeding ten dollars for each offense.

Any person prepared to make complaint under oath of any violation of this ordinance may apply to the subscriber and have prosecution begun forthwith.

Social obligations lead to the keeping of late hours. Dining is done at a time when the stomach should be at rest, and the food and drink are of a character so rich that digestive disorders are sure to follow. A brilliant and fashionable society woman of St. Louis recently said: "In consequence of late hours and late suppers I would often be possessed next day of that 'tired feeling' I have read so much about. Because I would not arise until late, my regular exercise was neglected, and I ate irregularly at home also. Eventually I developed a large sized case of indigestion, and, aside from the suffering it caused me, it rendered me, with my nervous temperament, exceedingly irritable. It was at my sister's suggestion that I tried Ripans Tabules, but they accomplished all I could have wished; and now, whenever I am feeling badly or have been irregular about my meals, I always take a Ripans and, as a result, I constantly enjoy the best of health."

A case of bad health that RIPANS will not benefit. They banish pain and prolong life. One tablet is a dose. Note the word RIPANS on the package and accept no substitute. RIPANS, Nine Cents, may be had at any drug store. Ten samples and one thousand testimonials will be mailed to any address for 9 cents, forwarded to the Ripans Chemical Co., No. 10 Spruce St., New York.

That's what follows here.

Surely no better backing can be had than the following statement from Mrs. R. A. Martin, of No. 70 Jackson street, who says: "I had pain in my back and loins for about a year or more, no doubt caused by my kidneys being out of order. I felt it more in the morning just after getting up or if I did any stooping or lifting. Notwithstanding the fact that I took all kinds of medicines I never found anything which helped me until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at L. W. Randolph's drug store. They not only removed the pain but they strengthened me in other ways."

FASHION HINTS.

Latest Details of the Wardrobe of the Period.

The newest hemstitched handkerchiefs have a very narrow border and an initial which is extremely small and plain.

Small fichus of plain or dotted net, with a net plaiting or ruffle or a frill of lace around the edge, are often worn in the house. Those of white net and black lace and insertion are especially pretty.

Black stockings continue to be generally worn, particularly for the street, but for the house more latitude is permissible, and there are many fancy designs for wear with low shoes or slippers. The newest are the plain grounds with round spots printed upon them, wide stripes running lengthwise, shepherd's plaids of various sizes and tartan plaids in all sorts of colors. Plain red stockings with red shoes are as pretty as anything for the house, especially with a dark or neutral tinted gown. Slippers are often elaborately embroidered with gold and spangles this year, but such are to be avoided except by women with small feet.

SATIN BLOUSE.

The illustration given shows a bodice of liberty satin entirely plaited all over. The color is also plaited and has a frill of lace around the top. The sleeves are plaited to a point half way between the elbow and wrist, being left loose below that and gathered into two puffs, with a cuff of plaited satin. The wide belt is of elastic gold cloth, fastened by a series of three ornamental buckles. This bodice may be worn with a short bolero of cloth or peau de soie, as is shown in the small accompanying cut. JUDIC CHOLLET.

FASHIONABLE FURS.

They Are Worn In Great Profusion This Winter.

Fur is in greater favor than ever. Entire mantles, long redingotes and even complete walking gowns are composed of it, while it appears largely in millinery and as a decoration. It is combined with all sorts of materials, not merely silk and velvet, but with mousseline, gauze, lace, ribbons, embroideries and even flowers.

WALKING GOWN.

Sable, marten, chinchilla and ermine are chiefly used, with astrakhan for hard service. This last named fur is peculiarly durable and may be worn year after year, thus proving a good investment, while the others, particularly chinchilla, are fragile and last but a short time, comparatively speaking.

Two sorts of fur in combination continue to be fashionable. Astrakhan jackets have revers of mink, and a marten muff is lined with ermine. Otter and sable are most frequently associated with extremely luxurious effect.

The picture shows a walking costume of military blue cloth. The skirt is entirely plain. The bolero is rounded and has a double pelerine, all edges being bordered with a band of chinchilla. The high collar is turned over and faced with black velvet. The bolero closes with buttons and cords over a black velvet pointed vest fastened with two steel buttons. The plastron is of horizontally plaited blue silk. The tight sleeves have a band of chinchilla and a small velvet puff at the wrist. The hat of black velvet is trimmed with black plumes and a chou of velvet with a jeweled ornament.

POWER OF THE MIND

Its Effect on the Physical Body Is Simply Tremendous.

Progressive Physicians in Chicago and Other Centers of Population Now Combine Drugs and Psychological Treatment.

[Special Chicago Letter.]

FROM the earliest times with which tradition deals man's attention has been chiefly occupied by man and those matters which most directly pertain to him. As to what is most conducive to his happiness, opinions seem to have changed somewhat during the ages, indeed at the present day the world's inhabitants do not appear to be at all unanimous on the subject. Nevertheless, in one particular all are agreed. Every one, from the czar of Russia and President McKinley to the poorest peasant and most wretched Filipino, desires a sound body. And no one will doubt that a condition of health is the normal one. All who are ailing in any way desire to be cured, and as new systems of treatment have multiplied with the years, there exists to-day a sufficient variety to satisfy the diversified needs of all. But with the increase of knowledge, and especially with the interest taken during the last half century in psychology, there has been a growing tendency to favor the different systems of healing without drugs. Ever since any sort of history existed so-called miraculous cures have been effected by means which every rational person must recognize as purely mental; and, now that there is afforded an easy explanation of all that had previously appeared mysterious, thinking people are revolving the question as to which of the various forms of mental healing is most logical and effective. After depending so long upon drugs it is not strange that a vast number of people, at the first glimpse of the truth, should swing to the opposite extreme and insist upon being healed, under all circumstances, by some intellectual process independent of all the aids described in the materia medica. But while it is true that most complaints are amenable to psychological treatment, the world is not ready to do away entirely with the medicines to which it has been so long accustomed. However, the physician who can bring about a condition of health in the greatest number of patients with the smallest demand upon drugs is he whose services will, in the near future, be most anxiously sought, and if the medical fraternity in general neglect to keep up with the times in this respect the people will take the matter in their own hands, healing themselves and each other.

The suggestive is the system of therapeutics which must, at this day, appeal forcibly to thinking persons. To obtain the best results from this treatment it was formerly thought necessary to place a person in a condition of deep somnambulism, or, in other words, to "hypnotize" him. The word hypnosis is, in the first place, a misnomer. It is derived from the Greek "sleep." While it was believed that a person in a state of deepest somnambulism was actually at the mercy of the operator, to remember or forget, at the will of the latter, all that had occurred, it is not surprising that the term should have appeared appropriate. But as it has now been proved by thousands of experiments, made under the most favorable circumstances, that a patient in this condition is always conscious of his environment and everything occurring around him, that his memory of these events is at all times perfect, it follows, as a matter of course, that he is not asleep. He is in a state of mental laziness, when it is more easy to acquiesce in a statement made by the operator than to disagree with it, as no effort of the mind is required. If the operator tells him that he will awaken and remember nothing of what has passed, he will deny all knowledge of what has occurred while he was in the somnambulistic condition, but if ordered to remember, compelled to make a mental effort, he can relate all that has transpired. It is only what is called an active somnambulist who can be placed in this condition. The limit of the extent to which such a subject will accept suggestions is clearly defined when his rooted convictions are approached, for no process of reason is required to bring a conviction to the surface. An active somnambulist called recently at a Chicago clinic for treatment. She readily consented to have experiments tried, as she is highly suggestible and would consent to anything not contrary to her ingrained principles.

DR. BERILLON'S METHOD.
(Disgust for Absinthe Inculcated Into the Mind of a Dipsomaniac.)

Somnambulism denotes a high degree of suggestibility and is a symptom rather than a state. The operator told her to open her eyes, and that she would be unable to close them or move until he counted five and said "buttons;" that when she did awaken, she could not remember what had occurred. He then said "buttons" and ordered her to close her eyes. An unwinking pause followed. Then he counted five and told her to close them, with the same result. On his leaving the room, a visiting physician advanced his closed fist rapidly, several times, until it nearly touched her face, and his finger her eyeball, he counted five and said "buttons." No movement. He tried in every conceivable manner to induce her to close her eyes, but to no purpose. The original operator now came, counted five and repeated the magic word; her eyes closed, opened, and she was ready for conversation. When questioned, she said: "Were you out of the room? I do not remember that anything happened," and persevered in the statement. When the suggestion was given that she could and must remember, her face lightened, she recounted everything, even designating the physician who had talked to her. This experiment was a very simple one, but there have been thousands performed, in the same psychological school, that prove that a person in a somnambulistic condition is not asleep. Somnambules will often declare that they remember nothing, until out among other patients, when they will say: "I said that I remembered nothing of what transpired, but I do," and then relate all that passed. This could not happen if they had been asleep. An earnest practitioner does not desire a patient of this class, although it is among these that the "miraculous" cures are effected. It is, usually, on account of their suggestibility that their diseases exist, and it has been the experience of the most advanced thinkers operating along these lines, in this country (which certainly leads in this matter, as must soon be acknowledged), that when a somnambulist has a genuine ailment it is more difficult to cure him than one less suggestible, who has greater reasoning ability and voluntarily places his mind in intelligent cooperation with that of his physician, i. e., one who makes a voluntary theraupeutic auto-suggestion.

Somnambulists are apt to be found in families where the parents are stern and allow very little latitude for original thinking in their children. The brain cells that should be brought into use by voluntary thought are poorly nourished. Little demand has been made upon them and the blood supply is deficient. It is to the cells of the body most frequently used that the blood flows most copiously. Habits of thought are formed by the continual stimulation of their own groups of cells. The involuntary mind stores impressions received through the senses. The same impression, often repeated, causes the formation of habits of thought. If it is desired to break up a bad habit of thought (which is pretty apt to ultimate itself in some way in the physical system), it is better to drop that subject, not even taking the trouble to "deny" it, and substitute some other habit of thought. Every violinist would like to have his instrument "broken in" by an artist. The value of an old violin does not consist in its having been owned by a "master," but in the habits of vibration formed in its fibers. Its rich tones are due to the fact that they have been produced so often and correctly. The more often one thinks correctly, whether in regard to his health or other matters, the nearer he comes to the object he wishes to obtain the mind rules the body as surely as thoughts are things. Most diseases may be referred to functional troubles, and there are none of the latter but may be cured by suggestion alone when intelligently directed.

CHRISTMAS OBSERVED IN LOCAL CHURCHES.

and Allere Brown. Two classes in in the primary department, one of boys and one of girls, were graduated and received diplomas and Bibles. There was also a sand map exercise, after which Rev. Dr. James Rosendale, a Christianized Jew, made a short address on the life of the people in Jerusalem. The Doctor and his daughter, Miss Malcha Rosendale, also sang in Hebrew.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN.

The services at the First Presbyterian church were held in the morning and evening. At the first service there was a prepared programme of carols, responsive readings, etc., in which the Sunday-school took part. P. Ludwig Conde rendered two violin solos and in the rendition of the carols there was violin accompaniment by Martin A. Korff, Miss Charlotte Cave and William MacKillop. Miss Lettie Remsen presided at the piano. An appropriate reading was given by Miss Edna Burr. At the service, the the pastor, Rev. Charles E. Herring, delivered an interesting address to the children.

In the evening a special programme was given consisting of anthems, solos, part songs, instrumental music. Miss Pauline Jennings, organist, was in charge. The vocal solo work was performed by Miss Fellows and Miss Mabelle Smith, and there were violin solos by Mr. Korff. A quartette consisting of Miss Fellows, Mrs. E. H. Bird, Morris C. VanArsdale and Edward J. Kline, sang several selections. The entire programme as published Saturday was given.

GRACE M. E. CHURCH.

The exercises at the Grace M. E. church yesterday afternoon were of an impromptu character. Superintendent John Valiant had charge of the services, which were principally of a musical nature. There was scriptural reading and responsive reading, together with a brief address by the pastor, Rev. G. W. Gardner, and the superintendent.

FRIENDS' MEETING-HOUSE.

An interesting service was held at the Friends meeting-house on Watchung avenue, yesterday morning, at which time George Bond, of Philadelphia, was present and made an address. His remarks were appropriate to the season, basing them on the text, "Peace on Earth and Good will Toward Men."

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

At the Congregational church, the decorations were of green and white, and consisted chiefly of evergreen ropings. The pastor, Rev. Charles Lymon Goodrich, preached a sermon appropriate to the Christmastide. Two instrumental trios were rendered by Anton Gloeckner, of Elizabeth, violinist; Miss Saidee Mae Howell, pianist, and Mrs. R. T. Barnes, organist. Miss Bertha V. Willis, soprano soloist, who was to have sung at this service, was prevented by illness from being present.

The special Christmas service of the Sunday school was held in the afternoon. The programme included two violin solos by P. Ludwig Conde; a vocal quartette by Miss M. G. Morse, soprano; Miss Julia M. Belknap, contralto; Morris C. VanArsdale, tenor, and Stacy Reynolds, bass; singing by the primary department; a song by four little girls, Miss Nettie Steiner, Miss Marguerite VarZandt, Miss Aimee Winant, and Miss Alice VanHorn, and an address by Rev. Antonia Arrighi, who has charge of a large Italian church in New York. Mr. Arrighi served as a drummer boy under Garibaldi; was taken prisoner; spent five years as a galley slave, and came to America as an exile.

FIRST M. E. CHURCH.

There was a good attendance at the First M. E. church yesterday afternoon on the occasion of the Christmas exercises of the Sunday-school. The exercises were not on a particularly elaborate scale and were confined principally to the younger children. Miss Ethel Derby sang a solo, while the children of the primary department rendered some clever recitations. There was also responsive reading led by George M. Rittenhouse. One of the features of the entertainment was the recitation of Miss Bertha Whitney, entitled "Lady Judith's Vision." There was special Christmas music by the choir at both morning and evening services. Chas. L. Lewis was in charge of the music.

MONROE AVENUE CHURCH.

The Christmas exercises at the Monroe Avenue church took place yesterday afternoon. They were opened with singing by the primary class followed by Bible reading by Rev. John McMurray and prayer by E. H. Beekman, assistant superintendent. A chorus was rendered, Miss Margaret Phillips taking the solo part, after which an exercise was given by Ethel Stryker, Ida Wallander, Fred Wallander, Harold Wallander, Avis Aldrich and Arthur Stryker. Rev. John McMurray delivered an address and the exercises closed with the singing of a carol, "Night Hath Vanished in the West."

TRINITY REFORMED CHURCH.

Christmastide was appropriately observed at Trinity Reformed church yesterday. The church was prettily decorated.

In the morning there was special music by the quartette choir, consisting of Miss Minnie Williams, Miss Katherine Glen, Elmer Cutting and A. J. Moore, under the direction of Arthur L Titsworth, the organist. Rev. Cornelius Schenck, Ph. D., pastor, preached a sermon from the text "No Room for Christ in the Inn," Luke 2: 7.

The afternoon service was under the auspices of the primary department of the Sunday-school and included recitations by the following:

Pearl Drew, Anna Vail, Helen Roberts, May Titus, Elsie Debele, Dorothy Neal, Rosmond Rogers, Mildred Caleen, Ira Vail, John Schoefield, Russel Vail, Arthur Thorn, Ellsworth Bennett, George Cole, Elsie Tier, Rose Hook, Rowland Reighton, Mary Neal, Helen Woolley, Edna Coles, Helen Smith, Cathie Gray, Ethel Vail, Gertrude Schleif, Laura Bodine, Hermina Leitheuse, Bessie Randall. There were also songs by the following: Mildred Caleen, Anna Boss and Bessie Randall. This programme was arranged and in charge of Mrs. Josie M. Tier, superintendent of the primary department, and was ably assisted by her assistants, Miss Nettie Krietling and Mrs. Randall.

In the evening the Sunday-school united in a special service entitled "The King Cometh." F. S. Cutter conducted the music. There were short addresses by Rev. Cornelius Schenck, Ph. D., Superintendent E E Anthony and Rev. W. T. Griffin, U S. Consul to Lamoges, France. Recitations were given by Bessie Randall, Mildred Caleen and Rowland Reighton. During the offertory the quartette choir rendered an anthem.

Owing to the bad weather the Marconnier Sunday-school could not attend and the greeting of the home school was sent to them.

MT. ZION A. M. E. CHURCH.

With the exception of a special Christmas sermon by the pastor, no extra services were held at the Mount Zion A. M. E. church. The decorations were very pretty, the proper committee having spent considerable time in arranging holly and greens about the pulpit and sides of the church.

ALL SOULS CHURCH.

A special service was held at All Souls church, on Park avenue, yesterday morning, at which time there was extra music by the choir under the direction of Stephen Haff, organist. Features of the service were the violin selections by Dr. Waldo, his son and daughter, Miss Waldo. The pastor, Rev. A. C. Nickerson preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion, describing the life and works of Christ.

SEVENTH-DAY BAPTIST.

The service at the Seventh-Day Baptist church Saturday morning was appropriate to the season. There was special music by the choir composed of Miss Nan Randolph, Miss Cornelia Miller, Miss Ethel Haven, Miss Ernestine Smith, Miss Elizabeth Allis, Mr. and Mrs. David E. Titsworth, L. T. Rogers, with Miss Jessie Utter at the organ. The choir was assisted by Walter McIlliroy, tenor soloist at St. Paul's Cathedral, Garden City, L. I. He sang several solos acceptably.

GERMAN REFORMED.

The service at the German Reformed church yesterday was appropriate to the season. There were several special selections by the choir and Pastor Hauser preached two appropriate sermons.

FESTIVITIES AT HOLY CROSS

Exercises and Christmas Tree Planned at That Church For Thursday Night.

The Christmas exercises and tree of the church of the Holy Cross will take place Thursday evening. The services will be held in the church, when the children of the Sunday-school will sing their Christmas carols, and the Rector, Rev. W. Montgomery Downsy, will make a few remarks.

At the close of the services the prizes will be delivered to the five choir boys who have showed greatest proficiency. After the services in the church the children and teachers will form a procession and march to the parish house, where the Christmas tree will be lighted and the gifts distributed.

COATS STOLEN.

Sneak Thief at Work While College Men Played Golf Saturday Afternoon.

J. Vincent Rittenhouse, of Sandford avenue, and Carl Dudley Ruland, of Ashville, N. C., both students at Cornell University who are spending the Christmas vacation at Rittenhouse's home, were playing golf on the links of the Park Golf Club Satuaday afternoon. While they were absent from the clubhouse somebody appropriated their coats which had been left behind. A check for $50, some tickets and a book of stamps comprised the valuables which disappeared with the coats.

RECORD BREAKING RUSH AT LOCAL POST OFFICE

Clerks and Carriers Handled Tons of Christmas Mail in Forty-Eight Hours.

OUTGOING MAIL HEAVY.

GREAT DEMAND FOR POSTAGE STAMPS AND MONEY ORDERS.

Wagons and Extra Help Required to Distribute Christmas Mail—Express Company Was Also Greatly Rushed by Christmas Business.

Never in the history of the local postoffice have the clerks and letter carriers been as busy as this holiday season. The amount of mail handled has been unprecedented. All of Monday and far into the night, as well as yesterday morning, the employes have been on the jump. There was scarcely time to eat. With every train dozens of bags of mail arrived, each one loaded with packages containing Christmas gifts.

Postmaster Bird, however, was equal to the emergency He kept the carriers at it and by the aid of a couple of teams and several messenger boys pressed into the service for the time being, was able to deliver nearly every piece of mail by noon yesterday. It was a difficult task and one which tried the patience of the carriers and clerks. It was far into the night when the tired clerks sought their beds on Christmas morning. With the break of day the postal employes were again at their duties and ready to serve Uncle Sam. It is safe to say that two or three tons of mail matter has been handled at the Plainfield postoffice in the past forty eight hours.

But the incoming mail was not the least of the work that the clerks had to look after. The outgoing mail was fully as heavy. Mail bag after mail bag was filled to its limit as fast as possible and sent out on the various trains. This required a large amount of work. Everyone of the hundreds of packages had to be sorted and placed in the proper bags, to say nothing of the labor incidental to the cancellation of the stamps upon them.

Then, too, the sale of postage stamps was very heavy. It required the services of two clerks to satisfy the demands of the patrons of the office in this department. While the clerks selling stamps were hustling to weigh and stamp the packages, William B. Sharp, the money order clerk, was also having his hands full to supply the demands made upon him. The largest number of money orders, especially in regard to foreign orders, that has been issued in some years from the local office kept the order clerk hard at it from early until late.

But the letter carriers and clerks at the post office were by no means the only public officials that were rushed in consequence of the holidays. The office of the United States Express Company in this city never was so busy before. Extra clerks and several additional teams were added to the local force by Manager Mills. Some of the clerks and also the teams were compelled to work on Sunday to deliver the great quantities of express that reached Plainfield on Saturday. They were also hard pushed all of Monday and Monday night until early yesterday morning. Even then all the stuff was not delivered as fast as some of the recepients would have liked. Taken all in all, this has been a busy Christmas season. There are many people who are glad it is over.

TROUBLE IN AN OFFICE.

Officer Called to Induce Deaf and Dumb Woman to Leave Reed & Coddington's Office.

A well dressed woman, apparently about 45 years of age, who was deaf and dumb, caused some annoyance in the office of Reed & Coddington on Monday afternoon. At the request of W. A Coddington an officer was sent to induce her to leave. Patrolman McCarthy, by the use of a little tact, prevailed upon the woman to accompany him to police headquarters where after some difficulty it was ascertained that the woman's name was Miss Noe and that she is a cousin to Jonathan Clawson, of Brook avenue, where she was taken by Roundsman Flynn. She makes her home with relatives at New Dover.

Remembered the Central Operators.

The obliging and efficient young women at the central office of the New York and New Jersey Telephone Company were nicely remembered yesterday by their many friends. Not one of them were forgotten and the kindness is appreciated.

CHRISTMAS AT HOSPITAL.

MANY ATTENDED THE FESTIVITIES AND TOOK GIFTS WITH THEM.

There Were Presents for Nurses and Patients—Christmas Tree Lighted With Electric Lights.

Christmay Day was a bright one at Muhlenberg Hospital, and the host of visitors as well as the patients at the institution joined in the festivities arranged. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon the tree was illuminated for the first time with small incandescent electric lights of varied colors. Heretofore candles have been used, and there was more or less anxiety about that method.

The attendance of friends of the institution was larger than usual and most everyone brought some little gift to be presented to the nurses or patients. There are two little patients at the hospital that came in for a large share of special attention on the part of the visitors. They are Anna Delago, the Italian girl, who has been there since last June with hip disease. She was showered with presents and in her own peculiar way she expressed her appreciation. Another patient to be remembered especially was Howard Warnock, the 3 year-old-son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Warnock, who is convalescing from an attack of pneumonia. The little fellow received many suitable gifts, and many people were attracted to his bedside.

During the afternoon the choir from Grace P. E church, under the direction of Mrs. Freeman, organist, rendered several appropriate carols. The choir boys and young women, also of the choir, sang sweetly. Interspersing the musical numbers there was the reading of Scripture by Rev. Floyd Appleton, who also made a few remarks about Chrismastide and its pleasant associations.

At the close of the festivities there was the distribution of gifts by the members of the Woman's Auxiliary, who were present in large numbers. There were also a number of the Board of Governors present.

LIFE IN THE HOLY LAND.

SCENES IN PALESTINE PICTURED BY YOUNG PEOPLE IN COSTUME.

Novel Christmas Entertainment Given by Sunday-School of First Baptist Church Monday Evening.

"The Homes and Haunts of Jesus—Village Life in Palestine" was the subject of an interesting and profitable Christmas entertainment given at the Firt Baptist church Monday evening under the direction of Mrs. Lydia VonFinkelstein Mountford. It was illustrated by living tableaux and included a lecture by Mrs. Mountford.

Mrs. Mountford is the daughter of a Russian nobleman, and for the greater part of her life she lived in Palestine. She is therefore an authority on her subject, and the illustrations given were very interesting. Familiar sayings and doings found in the Bible were illustrated in a vivid manner, and thoroughly explained by Mrs. Mountford.

She was assisted by young people from the church, all of whom were attired in the costume of the country, showing a group of villagers. She described and illustrated the saying of Christ "Salute no man by the wayside," and the reason why Christ so instructed his disciples was that it requires almost an hour to go through the form, thereby detaining a person unnecessarily. Other familiar subjects such as "The Good Shepherd," "The Lost Sheep," "A Coat of Many Colors," "On the Housetop," "Ten Pieces of Silver," "Salted and Swaddled," were all acted in a way that held the closest attention of all. There was also shown many fine pieces of embroidery that are made by the women of Palestine. During the entertainment Mrs. Mountford sang several native songs. Those who assisted in giving the tableaux were Miss Bertha Needham, Miss Sue Woodland, Miss Ella Serrell, Miss Josephine Serrell, Miss Velma Oakley, Miss Marguerite Lee, Raymond Carver, Fred Emmel, Daniel Douglass, Fred Serrell, Charles Lee, Jr., Cyrus Kinsman.

After the entertainment the members of the school were each presented with a box of candy by their teacher.

Had a Christmas Tree.

Helen Woolley, the bright little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Woolley, of West Front street, enjoyed a Christmas tree celebration last Monday evening. A number of her young friends were invited and a pleasant time was spent. The young lady received many handsome and useful gifts. During the evening refreshments were served.

REFUSED CHRISTMAS DINNER.

EMPLOYES OF TROLLEY LINE WOULD NOT ACCEPT GIFT OF W. C. T. U.

Because, It Is Said, The Local And County Officers of The Union Complained About Use of Liquors by Employes.

The conductors and motormen employed on the Plainfield Street Railway and the consolidated lines yesterday offered a down right insult to the members of the local Woman's Christian Temperance Union. The members of the Union had arranged to furnish a Christmas dinner to these men. It was to be observed in the room used by the employes underneath the trolley waiting station on Watchung avenue. The women had asked permission of Superintendent Adelmann, who willingly gave his consent to the affair.

Yesterday afternoon when the ladies sent around the good things which they had prepared for the men, the messenger was told by Philip Maguire, the starter at the terminal in this city, that the men did not desire to accept the hospitality of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and he had been requested not to accept the Christmas dinner.

The turkeys, mashed potatoes, mince pies, etc., which the kind hearted women had prepared were therefore sent to one of the public institutions, where they were highly appreciated.

It is believed that the railroad men declined the kind offices of the members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union because they felt piqued at a complaint which was recently made by some women to President Riker with reference to men employed by the company who were accustomed to indulge too freely in liquor. The complaint came from the local and county officers of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

ANNUAL FESTIVITIES.

Christmas Day Observed at German Reformed Church With Entertainment And a Tree.

The children of the Sunday-school of the German Reformed church were nicely entertained last evening on the occasion of the annual Christmas festival and tree. The exercises were held in the Sunday-school room in the basement of the church and were under the direction of Philip Bach, the superintendent.

A prettily decorated tree was lighted and around that gifts for the children were placed. Previous to the distribution of the presents the children gave some recitations. Among those who recited were: Anna Bach, Minnie Wurkler, Freddie Krausse, Freddie Conde, Edna Conde, Ida Hauser, Karl Hauser, Arthur Pastler, Irena Hauser, Henry Bender, Flora Krausse. During the evening Prof. Conde, assisted by Freddie and Edna Conde and Emma Almer, rendered some excellent music with piano and violin. Prof. Conde also sang a solo. Among those who were remembered with gifts was Eidie Krausse, the organist of the Sunday-school, who was given a megaphone. The pastor of the church, Rev. G. Hauser, also made a short address in German.

Fine Music is Being Planned.

Extensive preparations are being made by the choir of St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church to supply splendid music next Monday night on the occasion of the New Year's service when midnight mass will be said. The choir, under the leadership of Martin Korf, will render Farmer's mass in B flat with full orchestral accompaniment. These services are very impressive and attract many persons not members of this denomination.

Important Report.

The forthcoming report of the committee on streets and sewers will be of unusual interest as it will contain a full description of the proposed improvements at the sewage disposal beds. The plans, which have been endorsed by the State Board of Sewerage Commissioners, embody the best known practice in this country and in Europe, including the improved methods developed during the past few years.

Gift From Members of the Choir.

Mrs. W A. Freeman, the organist at Grace Episcopal church, was yesterday presented with a handsome cut glass dish. The gift came from the young women of the vested choir. Mrs. Freeman was also the recipient of several other presents from friends in the church and Sunday school.

Song Service at Hospital.

The local Union of Christian Endeavor has arranged to visit Muhlenberg Hospital on the afternoon of New Years day and hold a song service. All Endeavors are cordially invited to be present.

CHURCH SERVICES HELD ON CHRISTMAS DAY

Feast of Nativity Observed in the Catholic and Episcopal Churches Yesterday.

BEAUTIFUL DECORATIONS.

FINE MUSIC WAS A FEATURE OF ALL THE SERVICES.

Large Attendances at Local Roman Catholic and Protestant Episcopal Churches Where Christmas Day Was Well Observed.

There was a large attendance at St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church yesterday morning, many protestants being among the worshippers. The edifice was appropriately decorated with evergreens, while flowers were about the altar and chancel. Masses were celebrated by Rev. Father Miller, assisted by Rev. Father Brennan, at 5:30, 8:30 and 10:30 o'clock. The music was the feature of the services. This programme was rendered at the 10:30 o'clock mass:

Kyrie—Gloria in Excelsis—Sanctus from Gans 2d Mass.
Credo—Agnus Dei from Farmer's Mass in B flat.
Offeratory—Adeste Fideles.....Novello
Quartette and chorus.

The following well known singers composed the choir, together with a large sized chorus: Miss Justina Smith, Mrs. T. J. Reilly, James E. Bailey and A. E. LaPorte. James E. Bailey is the choirmaster and Mrs. A. E. LaPorte, the organist. At the 10:30 o'clock service. Father Miller preached a short sermon with reference to the nativity.

The Holy Cross Episcopal church was filled to the limit yesterday morning at the Christmas services. Full service was celebrated with preaching by the rector, Rev. W. Montgomery Downey, A. M., followed by the administration of the holy communion. The music was excellent. It was under the direction of G. Edward Stubbs, to whose efficiency the vested choir has been made prominent. Mr. Stubbs has been assisting Arthur D. R. Brown, the organist and choirmaster, for several weeks, and the 30 male voices rendered the anthems in a superb manner. A feature of the service was the singing during the offertory, the music being the composition of Mr. Stubbs. The music of yesterday will be repeated next Sunday.

The Christmas service at Grace Episcopal church yesterday were attended by a large congregation. The edifice was beautifully and artistically decorated, evergreens, holly and laurel being conspicuous about the front of the church. At the chancel entrance were festoons of evergreen surrounding a circle of red lights. Suspended above this was a large wreath in the centre of which was displayed an illuminated star. The effect was very pretty and highly appropriate. There were also festoons of evergreens and stars about the body of the church, with here and there a small evergreen tree.

The interesting feature of the programme was the music, which was superb. The vested choir of 34 male and female voices has been carefully trained under the direction of Mrs. W. A. Freeman, whose skill and painstaking efforts has been the means of bringing the choir up to a proficiency that was gratifying and pleasing to the members of the church and congregation in general.

The music rendered was the most difficult that has been attempted at Grace church in some time. That it was given so smoothly is flattering to Mrs. Freeman's efforts and also the members of the choir for their patience in rehearsing the various numbers. The solo in the Benedicite was sung by Miss Cornelia Miller, who also rendered the solos in the "Gloria Tibi" and in "Gloria in Excelsis." William Tallamy's solo, "And There Were Shepherds," and that of F. J. Pope, who sang in good voice, "There Shall Come a Star," were features of the musical portion of the services that were much appreciated and enjoyed.

Rev. E. M. Rodman, the rector of the church, was assisted in the services by the curate, Rev. Floyd Appleton. Dr. Rodman preached an interesting sermon, taking his text from Hebrews, 2:16, "For verily He took not on Him the notice of angels, but He took on Him the seed of Abraham." At the close of the services the Holy Communion was administered.

The Feast of the Nativity was most fittingly celebrated in St. Mary's

WORKER WITH MR. EDISON.

WM. H. MOORE DIED AT HIS HOME ON WEST SIXTH STREET.

Well and Favorably Known by Many Plainfielders—Death Came Very Suddenly.

William H. Moore died this morning at 11:30 o'clock at his residence on West Sixth street, the result of an internal hemorrhage following typhoid fever accompanied with jaundice. A week ago the fever broke and up to this morning he appeared to be getting well.

Mr. Moore was born forty-six years ago in the vicinity of Rahway, his father, Harvey S. Moore, being an extensive dealer in cattle. When a young man he became interested in electricity, and afterwards became acquainted with Thomas Edison, and for many years was employed by him.

He made several trips abroad for Mr. Edison, and on one trip made to Japan he traveled through certain parts where a white man had never been before. His errand was to secure pith from a jointless reed, which was to be used as a filament for the incandescent bulb, Mr. Edison believing it would be a success. It did not prove to be a complete success, however. Mr. Moore also made a trip to Paris and represented Mr. Edison there.

About 1887 the Westinghouse Church-Kerr Company erected the electric light station on Madison avenue. Soon afterwards Mr. Moore was engaged as manager and he successfully conducted the business. He was a shrewed manager and financier.

In 1895 he was elected to the Common Council from the Fourth ward, and he served two terms. He was an efficient member, serving as a member of the committees on police and public lights, license and auditing. He continued his association with Mr. Edison and up to the time of his illness, five weeks ago, he was located at Edison's headquarters in Newark, where he held a responsible position.

During the past few years Mr. Moore developed considerable Plainfield property, among which is that known as West End Park.

Mr. Moore was married some years ago to Miss Mary Rocap, the daughter of the late Lewis and Caroline Rocap. She and one daughter and Mr. Moore's father survive him. The funeral services will be held from the late residence, 431 West Sixth street, Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

ON CHRISTMAS NIGHT.

Festival and Tree of German Lutheran Church Held Last Evening—Interesting Exercises.

The German Lutheran church never contained a larger audience than that assembled last evening on the occasion of the Christmas festival and tree for the children of the Sunday-school. The services were conducted in German by the pastor, the Rev. William Trebert, who also preached a short sermon. During the services a child of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hummel was baptised.

At the side of the church a handsomely decorated evergreen tree had been placed and about this was a quantity of handsome presents for the children. Previous to the distribution of the gifts the following children gave short recitations: Pauline Smith, Ernstine Richter, Amelia Ruppert, Joseph Stencenberger, Helen Hummel, Geo. Hook, George Smith, Henry Yeager, Oswal Heubner.

An interesting address was also made by Martin Heubner, one of the trustees of the church, who briefly outlined the progress that had been made since the pastorate of the Rev. William Trebert, who has been the means of building up the congregation. Mr. Trebert is very popular with the members of his church and it has been through his earnest work that the membership has increased from a mere handful of people to a fairly good sized congregation. In closing his remarks Mr. Heubner presented Mr. Trebert with an envelope containing a handsome sum of money.

Wedded on Christmas.

Last evening at 8 o'clock at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Robinson, of Mountain avenue, Miss Iowa Robinson became the wife of Charles Johnson, of Washingtonville, Elder B. W. Hand, officiating. A wedding supper and celebration followed the ceremony. The happy couple will remain for a short time with the bride's parents where they will make their home at Washingtonville.

Infant Child Dead.

William, aged six weeks, son of Jacob and Annie Serr, of Westfield, died yesterday afternoon. The funeral services will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock and interment will be at Hillside cemetery.

POST-HOLIDAY DIFFICULTIES.

BATCH OF CHRISTMAS DAY OFFENDERS BEFORE CITY JUDGE RUNYON.

One Couple Discoursed Too Loudly on the Boer War—Fight on Somerset Street Ended in Court.

Though it was a quiet Christmas with the police, City Judge Runyon had five unfortunates before him this morning The most forlorn pair was Frank Lawton and his wife, Annie, who were arrested by Patrolman Wiezenreid about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the corner of Front and Somerset streets. Both were under the influence of drink. Mrs. Lawton was expounding her thories of the Boer war and her husband was aiding her. The Lawtons hail from Westfield and are peddlers of small wares. Sentence was suspended upon a promise that they would leave town at once, which they promised to do.

At 2:30 o'clock this morning Patrolman Myers heard a crash as of smashing glass on Somerset street. When he arrived on the spot he found Henry Bilyeu, a machinist, lying on his back on the sidewalk. Beside him stood George Richter, the well-known barber. In the distance was the fleeing form of a man making rapid strides across the bridge. Bilyeu and Richter claimed that the man who ran away at the approach of the officer was George Keating, barber, who had assaulted them. Believing the men to be under the influence of liquor, the officer arrested them. Bilyeu was locked up and Richter was released on his own recognizance In police court this morning the accused were released. The court advised that they have a warrant issued for Keating, whom Richter claimed had assaulted him at a dance in Saengerbund Hall early in the evening.

Louis Burler, while under the influence of too much Christmas cheer, walked into police headquarters last evening to see a friend who was locked up He became abusive to Doorman McCue and was locked up. This morning City Judge Runyon imposed a fine of $3 or eight days in jail.

PLAYED FOOTBALL IN MUD.

EXCITING GAME RESULTED IN FAVOR OF BROOKLYN WANDERERS 2 TO 1.

Defeated Local Association Team on Clinton Avenue Grounds Before Large Crowd.

One of the finest football games in the Association series played this season took place yesterday afternoon on the Clinton avenue grounds before the usual large crowd of enthusiasts. The players were the Plainfield Association Football Club and the Wanderers of Brooklyn. The score was 2 to 1 in favor of the visitors.

Throughout the entire game many clever plays were made on both sides, the team work of the Wanderers being exceptionally good. In this respect the local team was somewhat deficient. The heavy condition of the field was responsible for a number of errors on both sides, the slippery ground causing the men to fall and to slide when making kicks. In the last half of the game the playing was very fast and the ball was kept near the Plainfield goal the greater part of the time but they were unable to score. The game ended with the ball in the Wanderer's territory. The lineup of the teams was as follows:

PLAINFIELD.		WANDERERS.
Hendry	goal	Oats
Turner	back	Callanan
Nicholson	"	Singer
Head	h. back	Fike
Hendry	"	Flynn
Galbraith	"	Lyons
Campbell	forward	Brindel
Cowly	"	Montgomery
McNeil	left wing	Summers
Blair	"	G. Singer
Dodd	centre	Bilbeig

Referee—Robert Gow. Time of Game—Two thirty-five minute halves.

Two Still Alarm.

Two still alarms occupied the attention of the fire department last evening, neither of which, however, proved serious. The first alarm occurred at 10 o'clock. In starting a fire in the Schorb building the paper covering of the chimney on the opposite side in the building occupied by A. M. Griffen was burned off The building was filled with smoke giving the impression that a fire was raging. The second alarm was turned in at 10:10 by Patrolman Myers. The Madison avenue railroad bridge was blazing in a lively manner. It was put out with an extinguisher.

Gathered for Christmas.

A happy family gathering was held at the residence of Mrs. Theodore Adams, of Duer street yesterday. The gathering is an annual affair and is always made the occasion for merry-making and for the distribution of gifts. There were about thirty six people present from this city, Newark, Flemington, Galilee and Westfield.

COURT WILL CONSIDER SISSER'S APPLICATION

Hearing Set for January 4, When Both Sides Will Be Heard in the Matter.

THE LICENSE FEE RAISED.

THE DECEMBER TERM OF SOMERSET COURT OPENED TODAY.

Hotel Fee in North Plainfield Raised to $350—Grand Jury Directed to Investigate Death of Dr. Mosher's Coachman.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, Dec. 26—The December term of the Somerset Courts opened today, Justice A Q Garretson presiding, with Judge Louis I. Schenck associated on the bench. The grand jurors chosen from North Plainfield were Benj A. Hegeman and Wm. H. Rogers. The former failed to appear.

Justice Garretson charged the jury with reference to the death of Wm. VonSheffer, Dr. R. B. Mosher's coachman. He said that the coroner's jury having found that the deceased met his death at the hands of unknown parties, it was their duty to faithfully investigate the matter, and if any criminality was found, to present an indictment.

The list of causes was called and all were reported ready but No 2 on the Supreme list, which went off by consent.

The hotel license fee in North Plainfield was raised to $350. Rudolph Spiegel's license was granted. A remonstrance and resolution from the Mayor and Council of North Plainfield against James Sisser's license was presented, and ex-Judge Bartine requested a hearing for Sisser, which was set down for Friday, January 4.

The case of Joseph Komarak against the Middlesex and Somerset Traction Company, a suit for damages from accident, will be taken up tomorrow, and all other cases went off until January 7, Justice Garretson being required to open the Cumberland County Courts January 2, Judge Ludlow, of that circuit, being dead.

Among the lawyers present from Plainfield were Senator Reed, ex-Judge W. R. Codington, W S Angleman, J. P. D. Kirch and H C Suydam.

RAN INTO HACK.

Chas. Barry's Rig Wrecked by Collision With Trolley Car on Watchung Avenue.

Trolley car No. 19 of the Plainfield Street Railway Company, ran into Hackman Charles Barry's rig last Monday night and did considerable damage. The car was standing on Watchung avenue ready to turn into Fourth street. Barry was driving from Fourth street into Watchung avenue. He noticed that the car was standing still and he felt sure he could turn the corner before the car came around. The car started suddenly and before Barry could get out of the way he was run down.

One shaft and the rear axle was broken, the horse was cut about the legs and body in four different places and the wagon was badly scraped. Mr. Barry says he called out, but the motorman did not heed the cry. The hackman has a witness who says that the motorman did not ring his bell. It is understood that the company will settle without any dispute.

New Association for Plainfield.

Articles of incorporation were filed in the office of the county clerk Saturday by the Plainfield Mutual and Beneficial Association. The objects of the association are to maintain the sick and bury the dead, who are members. The trustees are Edward E. Jackson, Edward Maynard, William Downs, Peter Gordon, Samuel Bolden, Wm. Douglas, James Walker, Wm. Phillips, Samuel Walker, John Keats, George H. Henderson, Thomas Banks, John Reed, John A Scott, Jacob Henderson, Charles A. Kline, James Mann, George Carter and W. H. Manning.

Gave Dinner to Fifty Boys.

The boys' department of the Y. M. C. A gave a Christmas dinner yesterday in the association rooms to some fifty boys. During the progress of the dinner the boys were entertained with instrumental music. The committee in charge consisted of James A. Stafford, chairman; Howard A George, F. Rowland Horne and Walter Cahoone.

Christmas at Warren Chapel.

The primary department of Warren chapel will enjoy their Christmas entertainment tomorrow afternoon. In the evening the older members will have their festivities.

The Train Newsboy Must Go.

The newsboy, once an important factor on railway passenger trains, is gradually becoming a thing of the past, and before long is destined to disappear entirely. Following the lead the lead of the Pennsylvania Railroad, which several years ago excluded the newsboy from their main line trains, others followed, notably the Lehigh Valley and Chicago and Alton, and now comes the announcement that a number of the Western lines will exclude him from their trains after January 1, 1901.

—The Christmas entertainment will be held at the Seventh-day Baptist church this evening.

—Help is needed at once when a person's life is in danger. A neglected cough or cold may soon become serious and should be stopped at once. One Minute Cough Cure quickly cures coughs and colds and the worst cases of croup, bronchitis, grippe and all throat and lung troubles. L. W. Randolph.

TROLLEY STILL TIED UP.

The Scranton Strikers Have Things Their Own Way.

SCRANTON, Pa., Dec. 26.—Owing to the successful work of the scouts of the striking car men ten of the 13 men brought on from Syracuse to take their places were sent home yesterday, and two others were induced to quit and agree not to go back to work. One of them was willing to leave town, but refused to accept money from the strikers. He said he would walk every step to Syracuse before taking money out of the strikers' treasury. He also said he was told that there was no strike here and that if things were not satisfactory when he arrived he would be furnished his fare home. The twelfth man decided to stay and secure other work. The other man could not be corralled by the scouts. Three new men were brought in from Syracuse yesterday morning, but already two of them have been won over by the strikers. The other was kidnaped by a burly striker who was made overzealous by drink.

Only two cars were run in the whole county. One of these, on which Superintendent Patterson was motorman, ran off the track at 11 o'clock and was so badly damaged it had to be taken to the barn. No other car was sent to replace it, and at 1:30 the other of the two cars was taken in and housed.

General Manager Silliman was not downcast by the successes of the strikers in converting his recruits. He says he can get all the men he wants after the holidays, when the number of crews in other cities will be cut down and hundreds of men thrown idle.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

Important clews were found to the Cudahy kidnapers.

Further discoveries of rich quartz mines have been made in the Klondike district.

Defaulter Alvord's Trial.

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—The trial of Cornelius Alvord, Jr., defaulting cashier of the First National bank of this city, is set for today in the United States district court. The amount of his defalcation was $690,000. One of the interesting features of the trial and which in all probability will be brought out by the United States district attorney in his examination is the amount of restitution of the stolen funds made up to this time. The officers of the First National bank have been reticent upon this point ever since Alvord's arrest. The sale of his effects in his home in Mount Vernon was only a drop in the bucket. Where the bank really made good part of its loss was, it is said, in the turning over of Mrs. Alvord's jewels. Their value has been estimated at not less than $150,000.

Supposed Dead Man Alive.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Dec. 26.—After an absence of 11 months, which followed as mysterious a disappearance as though the ground had swallowed him up, Alexander Buchanan of Centralia, former collector for Gately & Britton of Pottsville, was heard from yesterday, his brother John receiving a letter from him dated San Francisco. Buchanan says he took a sudden notion to go west. He journeyed to Seattle and then took a steamer for Alaska, where he spent the summer. Later in the season he left Alaska, going to California, where he was stricken with typhoid fever and was taken to a hospital, where he recovered and was discharged a few weeks ago.

Sickness In Dawson.

VICTORIA, B. C., Dec. 26.—The steamer Danube brings news that on Dec. 18 there had been five deaths at Dawson from pneumonia. The epidemic of typhoid was subsiding. Smallpox had almost disappeared, and there were but two cases in the district. Five thousand vaccine points reached Dawson Dec. 18, and compulsory vaccination was immediately started. It is reported that discoveries of rich quartz mines have been made on Bonanza creek and elsewhere in the Klondike district. Six automobiles have reached Dawson and will be used on the runs to the creeks.

Large Shipment of Cattle.

CHICAGO, Dec. 26.—A special to The Record from Flora, Ills., says: "The largest shipment of cattle from southern Illinois and probably from the state of Illinois within recent years left this city on a special train of 27 cars over the B. & O. S. W. railway for New York, whence they will go direct to Liverpool. The trainload of cattle, which numbers over 400 head and is sent by one shipper, represents a market value slightly in excess of $40,000."

Burned at a Christmas Tree.

HANOVER, Mass., Dec. 26.—While a church festival was in progress at the Baptist church in North Hanover a ladder set against the Christmas tree fell, knocking a chandelier to the floor. One of the lighted lamps struck Mrs. Davis S. Stoddard, setting fire to her clothing, also spilling the burning oil over her 4-year-old son. Mrs. Stoddard is now in a critical condition. Her little boy and Frank Plummer were badly burned.

Russian People's Palace Open.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 26.—The Prince of Oldenbourg, president of the government temperance committee, at noon yesterday declared the People's palace open to the public. After the inaugural ceremonies the prince and 20 of the higher army officers, including the commanding generals, along with high officials, noblemen and ladies, dined side by side with peasants and the families of workingmen.

Captured an Eagle.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Dec. 26.—Willis Ryan, a farmer of Clayville, Ulster county, has a golden eagle captive in his barn. He caught the bird stealing his chickens last week and captured it alive. It measures six feet, eight inches between the tips of its wings and is said to be a very rare specimen in this country.

To Search For Lost Treasure.

VICTORIA, B. C., Dec. 26.—Another expedition will go to Coco island in the spring. It will attempt to recover the lost treasure by means of hydraulic machinery, having for guidance the maps and papers left by the Nova Scotian captain who commanded the schooner Aurora expedition last year.

A DAY OF GOOD WILL

Needy Thousands Enjoy Cheer and Plenty of Christmas.

PRISONERS AND POOR REMEMBERED.

Salvation Army In New York and Other Cities Gives Holiday Dinners to All Who Apply—A Glad Occasion to Many.

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—All over the city Christmas reigned supreme. Rich and poor held high revel, and there were smiles in prisons and happiness in hospitals. Newsboys feasted like lords, homeless men were given a chance to eat to repletion, and nowhere in the city does it seem possible that any person could have gone without a dinner.

Never before was Christmas so generally celebrated, nor so much done by those who were able for others whose holiday time would have been sad without them.

Society entertained in its usual way with house parties and dances, but in the homes of the poor there were many happy families. There the shrubs cheaply decorated brought as much fun as the large tree loaded with expensive gifts.

Political leaders renewed their strength with their constituents by furnishing a banquet free to all, and societies having rented halls set huge tables groaning with good things for those unable to provide for themselves.

Many out of town parties were given by society leaders. Mrs. Howard Gould gave an entertainment to 500 village children at Fort Washington, on Long Island. Mr. George Gould held a Christmas party at Georgian Court, Lakewood, N. J. The Vanderbilt and Twombly house party and dance was held at the Twombly villa, Madison, N. J. Mrs. Amos T. French kept open house in Tuxedo and gave a house party in honor of Miss Elsie French and her fiance, Mr. Alfred G. Vanderbilt.

At Madison Square Garden more than 40,000 persons were the recipients of the Salvation Army's Christmas cheer in the form of a dinner.

Commander and Mrs. Booth-Tucker were at the Garden as early as half past 8 o'clock preparing for the coming of the crowd. Accompanying them were at least 150 soldier boys and lassies who immediately set to work preparing the dinners and decorating the amphitheater for the festival.

Arranged on the main floor of the Garden were 54 long tables. On these the dinner was served. One immense table extending from the entrance on Madison avenue to the exit on Fourth avenue was piled with baskets. There were 3,200 of these baskets, and each one contained a chicken, four pounds of potatoes, two pounds of vegetables, a loaf of bread, half a pound of beets, half a pound of sugar and a quarter of a pound of coffee. Each one of the baskets was made up to feed a family of five. At 2 o'clock not one of these baskets was left.

Seven hundred homeless and hungry men were treated to a Christmas dinner at the McAuley mission, 316 Water street, this being the fifteenth annual dinner given by the mission.

Christmas In Paris.

PARIS, Dec. 26.—Christmastide was favored in France with bright, cheerful weather, and Parisians celebrated it in characteristic fashion. All the restaurants and cafes were crammed Christmas eve with festive supper parties, which did not disperse until early in the morning. At midnight masses with special musical attractions filled the leading churches to overflowing. The charitable side of the festival was represented by numbers of free meals and seasonable gifts to poor families and outcasts. Mme. Loubet gave 7,000 francs to be used for the relief of widows in necessitous circumstances.

Convicts Entertained.

SING SING, Dec. 26.—The convicts in the state prison had as merry a Christmas as the accommodations would permit, thanks to the kindness of George Thatcher's minstrels and Warden Johnson. Immediately after breakfast the minstrel troupe gave a performance in the Protestant chapel in the prison. The stage, which had been erected at the west end of the building, was handsomely decorated with the national colors and holly and evergreen. In the body of the chapel were seated 1,300 convicts, all wearing the usual striped shirts, with vests, but no coats.

Bryan's Christmas Greeting.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Dec. 26.—William J. Bryan, wiring from Lincoln, Neb., to The Evening Standard, states the following: "Please present greetings to my political friends of Leavenworth and of Kansas. The principles of Democracy still live and the policies for which the fusion forces fought will yet be vindicated. We can enter the twentieth century with the confident belief that the people will soon return to the teachings of the fathers and to the traditions of the republic."

Fifteen Hundred Christmas Dinners.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 26.—The Salvation Army fed 1,500 poor people in the Grays' armory. Twenty-five long tables were used, covered with paper and furnished with tin dishes. A large squad of police had a busy time keeping the men and boys in good order. Senator Hanna, who is a stanch friend of the Salvation Army, was present and was greeted with cheers. He made a short speech.

Christmas Dinners For the Poor.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Dec. 26.—The local corps of the Salvation Army fed every poor person who could be found in the city, 518 Christmas dinners being given away. The workers of the organization, under Captain and Mrs. Draziell, hunted up every person who was too poor to buy a turkey dinner and made them welcome.

Poor Remembered In St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 26.—The inmates of the various eleemosynary and corrective institutions of the city enjoyed Christmas along with the rest of the world. There were special celebrations in all of the institutions. The Post-Dispatch provided 15,000 dinners for the poor in different parts of the city.

Erie Trains Crash.

NEWARK, N. J., Dec. 26.—Two trains on the Newark branch of the Erie railroad met head on at Franklin crossing last night. A fireman was badly injured, and many passengers were bruised and shaken up. The collision occurred directly in front of the Franklin railroad station.

REFORMERS KILLED.

Surrounded by China's Imperial Troops, 1,500 Are Slain.

LIBERTY GAINED AT FEARFUL COST.

The Chinese Reform Party Forced to a Battle While Maturing Plans For a General Uprising With With Disastrous Results.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Dec. 26.—The foreign secretary of the Chinese association of Canada, stationed here, has received a cablegram from Hongkong stating that the Chinese reformers, who are thought to be getting ready to rise simultaneously throughout China, have been forced into fighting their first big battle with disastrous results. The cablegram, in cipher, says:

"While on a friendly visit to Chang Chi Tung, governor of Chi-chi-li, supposed to be in sympathy with the reform movement, Chief Loder Tong of Chi-chi-li and 26 other leaders were seized by Chang Chi Tung and executed, while 10,000 imperial troops attempted to surround and capture 5,000 reform troops.

"A bloody battle ensued, and 1,500 reformers were killed before they could cut their way through the ranks of the enemy by charging them with bayonets.

"Hundreds of imperial troops were either killed or wounded.

"The imperial troops did not follow the reform troops in their retreat."

CHINA WILL ACCEPT.

Foreign Ministers Sanguine In Regard to Terms Proposed.

LONDON, Dec. 26.—According to a news agency dispatch from Peking, dated Dec. 24, the foreign ministers there are unanimously of the opinion that China will accept the conditions imposed by the joint note of the powers within a month. The note was started on its way to the dowager empress and the emperor immediately after its presentation, the dispatch says, but wire communication is slow, and it probably will not reach them until Dec. 27.

Vice Admiral Alexieff, says the St. Petersburg correspondent of The Times, has issued orders to the men under his command in China to make detailed lists of the Chinese property—money, cattle, provisions, etc.—taken by them and where such property now is.

The correspondent also says that detachments of Russian troops in southern and southeastern Manchuria continue to pursue the work of exterminating disorganized Chinese troops and brigands.

The Shanghai correspondent of The Standard, telegraphing Dec. 24, says:

"The government has arrested Prince Tuan and Prince Chaung on the borders of the Shansi and Shensi provinces. Yu Hsien has been ordered to return to Sianfu forthwith to be executed, it is supposed.

"It is inferred from these reports that the imperial authorities are preparing to concede the demands of the joint note for the punishment of the instigators of the trouble in China."

Joint Note Delivered.

PEKING, Dec. 26.—The preliminary joint note was delivered yesterday to the Chinese. Li Hung Chang found that he was unable to attend the meeting of the ministers, and his credentials and those of Prince Ching were presented by the latter to the foreign envoys. Prince Ching, replying to the Spanish minister, Senor B. J. de Cologan, who presented the note, said he would immediately communicate its contents to the emperor and assured the ministers that a speedy reply was the desire of the court, as it felt that all China wants peace and prosperity.

French Clash With Boxers.

TIEN-TSIN, Dec. 26.—A French detachment of 100 men left here Dec. 20 for Hung-tsu, 20 miles westward, to search for arms. Approaching a village across a frozen creek, a force of Boxers opened fire, killing Lieutenant Contal and wounding another officer. The French burned the village.

Philbin Succeeds Gardiner.

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—Eugene A. Philbin, the new district attorney, was officially notified late Monday afternoon of his appointment. John A. Waldron, deputy appointment clerk of the executive chamber, brought the certificate of appointment. A very few minutes later Lucien Knapp, the governor's special messenger, who had spent the day traveling around with Colonel Gardiner without serving on him the notice of removal, because it had been agreed not to leave the county without a district attorney even for a few minutes, heard that Mr. Philbin had been notified and immediately served his papers on Colonel Gardiner. The best of feeling was shown on all sides, Colonel Gardiner concealing admirably any chagrin that he may have felt.

No Check Reins at the Funeral.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Dec. 26.—Out of regard for the dying request of Mrs. D. M. Holmes of Norwich none of the horses in the large funeral procession that followed her remains to the grave had a check rein. Mrs. Holmes was a member of the Society For the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. She regarded the check rein as an instrument of torture and a few days before she died called her family to her bedside and asked that no check reins be used at her funeral. The horses in the funeral procession held their heads down as though in sorrow for a lost friend.

Actor Sothern Again on the Stage.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 26.—E. H. Sothern, the actor, who for some time was laid up by an accident that necessitated the cancellation of dates all over the country, made his first appearance Monday night since the accident, presenting "Hamlet" at the Olympic theater before a crowded house. He was well supported, and the production was well received. The interrupted tour will be resumed, the company leaving for Chicago next week.

Our New Pacific Island.

LONDON, Dec. 26.—A dispatch to The Standard from Berlin says that Captain Saxegaard, a Norwegian, has discovered and named after himself a hitherto unknown island in the Pacific ocean, lying in latitude 2 deg. 4 min. north and longitude 135 deg. 30 min. east, between the Philippine and Caroline groups. It is stated that an American gunboat commander has annexed the island, which seems to be richly wooded and very fertile.

TOBACCO GROWING.

Successful Experiments With Sumatra Leaf In Connecticut.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—The following notice has been posted by the secretary of agriculture:

"Milton Whitney, chief of division of soils, reports a successful termination of experiments conducted in co-operation with the Connecticut experiment station in the production of Sumatra tobacco near Hartford. One-third of an acre was planted under a cheesecloth shade nine feet high and cultivated and fermented under the direction of M. L. Floyd, tobacco expert of the department. The yield of cured tobacco was 700 pounds, making an estimated yield for one acre of 2,100 pounds. This lost about 10 per cent in the fermentation. The crop has just been sold by L. B. Haas & Co. of Hartford to Mitchelson & Hibbard of Kansas City for $473.70, making an estimated value for one acre of $1,421. The cost of production, including the whole cost of the shade, the frame for which will last five years, will not exceed $500 per acre, leaving a net profit of over $900 per acre. This was an average price of 71 cents per pound. The crop grown in the same field without shade and fermented in the same way yielded about the same quantity and brought 27 cents per pound, or at the rate of $507.87 per acre. Deducting the cost of cultivation, fertilization and treating, this would leave a profit of about $300 per acre.

"The ordinary crop of the Connecticut valley brings the farmer about 20 cents per pound, or $360 per acre, and, deducting cost and expenses, leaves a profit of about $260 per acre. The Sumatra tobacco grown under shade has been submitted to New York and Philadelphia business men and has been pronounced entirely satisfactory and fully equal to imported Sumatra. These facts, taken in connection with the award at the Paris exposition of two points for the Florida grown Sumatra over that given for the imported Sumatra, show that we can grow Sumatra tobacco of the highest quality in this country and save our farmers between $6,000,000 and $7,000,000 which is now sent abroad annually for the foreign grown leaf. This work is the result of the soil survey made in the Connecticut valley two years ago, and similar results can be expected only from very similar areas where the soils and climatic conditions are similar to those in the Connecticut valley and in Florida."

Cartridges Found at Frankfort, Ky.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 26.—One of the clerks in the state auditor's office in searching the vault for old records yesterday found a cartridge box containing eight metal patched smokeless powder cartridges, 38.55 caliber, corresponding exactly to the bullet found in the hackberry tree and which was believed to have passed through Senator Goebel's body. The significance of the discovery lies in the fact that Henry Youtsey, convicted of participation in the Goebel assassination in October, was a clerk in the auditor's office at the time of the assassination and had access to the vaults where the cartridges were found and that George Barnes, another clerk in the office, testified he saw Youtsey with a box of cartridges.

Brief Strike In Chicago Postoffice.

CHICAGO, Dec. 26.—A strike among the clerks of the registry department of the postoffice here menaced for a time the prompt delivery of thousands of Christmas gifts. Extra hours of work was the grievance of a score of operatives who during the holidays have been compelled to labor 14 hours a day. The trouble was quickly adjusted by the postoffice authorities, who suspended the leader of the strikers. The rank and file of the protesting clerks then returned to their labors. Superintendent Marr of the registry department said: "The mails were flooded this year, and there is no other way than to make the clerks work. We are handling 16 per cent more work this year than in 1899."

Accidentally Poisoned Herself.

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—Mrs. Sarah Frank of Brooklyn arose early to prepare the Christmas dinner for her family. She had a severe headache and, going to a closet, got what she supposed was a headache powder. Instead it was a small paper of paris green which she got hold of, and without noticing that it was poison she swallowed the stuff. She died shortly after surrounded by her children. Mrs. Frank was aged 60.

Christian Science Church Dedicated.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 26.—The opening service and consecration yesterday of the Second Church of Christ, Scientist, marks an epoch in the history of Christian Science in this city. It is the third Christian Science church between New York and Texas, the other edifices being located in Atlanta and Fitzgerald, Ga. The services included Bible readings together with correlative passages from the textbook "Science and Health," written by Mrs. Mary G. Baker Eddy, the "mother" of Christian science.

Collision on Central-Hudson Road.

GENEVA, N. Y., Dec. 26.—A fatal rear end collision occurred on the Central-Hudson, Pennsylvania division, here last night. The south bound passenger train due at 7:30 o'clock crashed into a freight engine standing a short distance north of the station. Louis Peters, the fireman of the freight engine, was instantly killed.

Tod Sloane In the Saddle.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 26.—Jockey Tod Sloane made his first appearance in the saddle yesterday since his return from England. It was at Tanforan, in the Christmas handicap. The race was won by Eddie Jones, an outsider, with Jenkins up. It was also Jenkins' first ride since returning from England.

Two Lumbermen Drowned.

DETROIT, Dec. 26.—A special to The Free Press from Sheboygan, Mich., says that John Hawes, William Campbell and Ernest Marquette, employees at McCarty's lumber camp, while crossing the ice on Mullet lake late Sunday afternoon, 12 miles from here, broke through the ice and were drowned.

The Plague Deadly In India.

CALCUTTA, Dec. 26.—Lord Curzon of Kedleston, the viceroy of India, in the course of a speech said that since the appearance of the bubonic plague in 1898 25,000 deaths from the disease have occurred in the Mysore state.

Town Badly Scorched.

ST. JOSEPH, Mich., Dec. 26.—A destructive fire in Eau Claire, 15 miles east of this city, resulted in reducing half the business section into ashes. Total loss, $50,000; partly insured.

INDIAN SHOOTS THREE.

Too Much Fire Water Causes a Shocking Crime.

MUSKEGEE, I. T., Dec. 26.—John Tiger, a full blood Indian living on the Arkansas river two miles south of Eufala, went to Eufala with his wife yesterday afternoon and while intoxicated met L. B. Roper and threatened to kill him. Roper struck Tiger with a board no words passing between them. Tiger went to his buggy, procured a Winchester and came back to kill Roper, but failed to find him. Enraged, he proceeded to shoot every one he saw, shooting Jesse Beck through the hips and killing him, shooting and killing Dave Porter, a nephew of Chief Porter, and a mover named Johnson on his way to Missouri in a covered wagon with his family. Bud Taylor, a boy aged 18, was shot through the shoulder and is not expected to live.

Tiger immediately jumped on a horse and tried to escape, but was pursued. Tiger was chased three miles, when he jumped off his horse, went behind a tree and began shooting. Deputy Marshall Johnson, who returned the fire, struck Tiger in the arm. The murderer surrendered and was brought to Eufala. Tiger's arm will have to be amputated.

Great indignation prevails over the free sale of liquors and firearms.

UNITED STATES AHEAD.

Henceforth We May Be Regarded as the First Industrial Nation.

LONDON, Dec. 26.—The Times' Vienna correspondent says:

"Under the title 'European Economical Alliance' Paul Leroy Beaulieu in the Neuesweiner Tagblatt, after reciting America's immense resources and growing population, says:

"'They may henceforth be regarded as the first industrial nation, and their superiority will become strikingly evident year by year. The United States will, moreover, soon have a considerable mercantile marine. Americans are already accustomed to regard Europeans, more particularly continentals, in about the same light as orientals, who vegetate in dreams of the past.'

"He points out that European states individually are comparatively restricted as to markets and cannot carry a division of labor."

No Lobby, Says Hanna.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 26.—Senator Hanna was informed of a statement which is in circulation to the effect that there was a powerful lobby in favor of the subsidizing of American shipping at the Philadelphia convention and in Washington. "The only lobby of that kind I know anything about," was the senator's answer, "is a lobby of foreign steamship companies which is trying to defeat the bill. There was no lobby at Philadelphia at all. The subsidy bill is a business measure, and there is no desire to force it through congress. We want it to go through on its merits. It has been three years in preparation and has been amended 20 times. The president in all his messages has urged the necessity of such a measure."

Fatalities at Corning.

CORNING, N. Y., Dec. 26.—Corning had two Christmas fatalities. The body of Charles Speer, a 12-year-old farmer boy, was found in the Erie railroad yard with his skull crushed, both arms and legs broken and other bad injuries. He had been struck by a fast express train. In the afternoon William Shinners, Jr., was hunting on the hill back of this city when his gun caught in a branch of a tree and was discharged. The charge tore his head in a frightful manner, killing him instantly.

Mexicans Slain by Yaquis.

EL PASO, Tex., Dec. 26.—Another fearful slaughter of Mexican troops at the hands of the Yaqui Indians has occurred in Sonora, Mexico. A week ago yesterday, while Colonel Francisco Peinado and a small body of men were crossing the country near La Misa, they were suddenly attacked by the Indians from ambush, and five officers and a number of men and Indians were killed outright and Colonel Peinado himself seriously wounded. The soldiers had no knowledge that the Indians were in the immediate vicinity, and the attack was such a surprise they had little time to prepare for it. Nothing is known about the attack but that the Indians fled to the mountains after firing a few volleys.

Consul General Shaw a Suicide.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 26.—W. Irvin Shaw, who had been filling the position of United States consul at Barranquilla, Colombia, and who was recently appointed consul general to Singapore, committed suicide in a hotel here. He opened a femoral artery and slashed his throat and wrists with a knife. Ill health is supposed to have affected his mind. For three years he had attended to his duties as consul at Barranquilla while revolutions shook the southern republic. Heat, fevers and the arduous duties undermined his health.

Maine Lumbermen Fight.

BANGOR, Me., Dec. 26.—News has just been received here of a bloody contest in a lumber camp on the upper Kennebec river in which one man was probably fatally injured and others so badly beaten that they may die. The fight started with a quarrel between William, alias "Wild," Hennessey and a Frenchman named Philip Ouilette over religious matters. The quarrel was taken up by the other men, at first with fists, then with axes, clubs and limbs of trees. In all 30 men were engaged, about evenly divided.

Indiana Race War.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., Dec. 26.—A race war is in progress at Cementville, a small station on the Panhandle road five miles north of this city, and serious trouble is expected. The negroes are armed, and the whites are keeping within doors to avoid them. The outbreak began Monday afternoon, when Lee Ranger and John Redmond, negroes, became intoxicated and started in to intimidate whites.

Plunged Through a Bridge.

MOUNT VERNON, N. Y., Dec. 26.—The crew of the Chatham milk train on the Harlem railroad had a remarkable escape from death, while a passenger train which followed the milk train narrowly escaped destruction by the collapsing of Tanner's bridge over a creek midway between Dover Plains and Wassay.

Many Poles Arrested.

VIENNA, Dec. 26.—A dispatch from Warsaw says 52 Poles have been arrested there, being accused of a political conspiracy.

SITUATION CRITICAL.

Position of Cape Colony Hangs In the Balance.

DUTCH ON THE VERGE OF REBELLION

General Kitchener Has Arrived at De Aar and Is Taking Prompt Measures to Stem the Tide of the Boer Invasion.

LONDON, Dec. 26.—A Cape Town dispatch says that the regular railway service between Cape Town and De Aar has been restored. The report of the destruction of a bridge south of De Aar turns out to be incorrect. Only a culvert was damaged. Trains are running from De Aar to Kimberley irregularly. There are considerable delays elsewhere as the result of heavy rains.

The position of Cape Colony is hanging in the balance. According to The Morning Post's Cape Town correspondent everything depends upon the quantity of ammunition in possession of the disloyal Dutch residents, 1,500 of whom have joined the Boers in the Philipstown district alone. Energetic measures have been taken to stem the invasion, but there is unquestionably danger that parties of Boers will get through into parts of the colony and gradually raise the whole Cape into rebellion. Re-enforcements can arrive none too soon.

Most of the dispatches from Cape Town, however, describe the raiders as doing little harm and as being rapidly inclosed by Lord Kitchener's combination. Lord Kitchener is in the heart of the disaffected districts. He has the advantage of being personally acquainted with local conditions. Last March he supervised the suppression of the rising which occurred then. He is bringing down thousands of troops from the north.

The Standard's Cape Town correspondent says the loyalists demand that martial law shall be proclaimed throughout Cape Colony, but adds, "Such a step is now impossible, owing to the lack of sufficient troops to enforce it."

The correspondent of The Daily Mail at Cape Town says:

"The pro-Boer press are singularly quiet. They have been made uneasy by the promptness and thoroughness of the military action, but reports from various parts of the western province foreshadow perilous possibilities.

"A responsible colonist who recently made a tour of the colony declares that 90 per cent of the Dutch are simply waiting for the appearance of a resourceful leader to rebel."

Civil railway traffic has been suspended largely in all parts of the colony, and the movements of both the Boers and the British are almost unknown in Cape Town. It appears that one Boer column attacked Steynsburg, but was repulsed and fled, intrenching itself in the mountains. Another Boer commando captured a party of police at Venterstad. Mounted colonial troops surprised 300 Boers 15 miles from Burghersdorp Dec. 23 and after a brisk interchange of volleys retired with a loss of two men.

Lord Kitchener, telegraphing to the war office under date of Naaukpoort, Dec. 24, reports:

"Thorneycroft's mounted infantry have occupied Britstown without opposition. The Boers retired to the north in the direction of Prieska. They will be followed up."

A dispatch from Durban to a news agency here announces that the Cape to Cairo telegraph line is now in operation to a point 50 miles north of Kasanga and a hundred miles beyond the southern end of Lake Tanganyika.

The important news from South Africa is the arrival of General Kitchener at De Aar, where, it is stated, he is taking measures to crush the Boer invasion of Cape Colony.

All the newspapers, with the exception of The Daily Mail, remain silent on the gravity of the situation. The Mail says it understands that further reliable information has reached London from Cape Town fully confirming the bad condition of affairs.

The invaders are still receiving much assistance from the Cape Dutch. Railway communication between Cape Town and the north has been almost entirely severed, partly by the Boers, partly by washouts and partly by Dutch colonists, who are undoubtedly responsible for much marauding and railroad wrecking. The paper adds that there is considerable anxiety in military circles at Cape Town.

New Zealand Loyal.

WELLINGTON, New Zealand, Dec. 26.—The government has asked the governor, the Earl of Ranfurly, to inform Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, the secretary of state for the colonies, that it does not wish the New Zealand contingent in South Africa to be diminished, that drafts will be forwarded to fill the ranks and that additional mounted men will be sent.

Grain Elevator Burned.

HARTFORD, Dec. 26.—E. P. Yates & Co.'s granary, a five story brick structure in the rear of 1411 Main street, was gutted by fire, causing a loss of about $20,000, which is partially covered by insurance. The fire originated in the basement and when the firemen arrived had swept up the elevator to the top floor, where there was stored 100 tons of hay, and it was three hours before the blaze was under control.

Fatal Cross Country Ride.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 26.—While riding cross country to join the Chester valley hunt yesterday Henry L. Wilbur, aged 42 years, son of H. O. Wilbur, the well known cocoa and chocolate manufacturer of this city, was thrown from his horse and killed on the farm of A. J. Cassatt, president of the Pennsylvania railroad, near Valley Forge.

Dowager Lady Churchill Dead.

LONDON, Dec. 26.—The Dowager Lady Churchill, senior lady of the bedchamber and an intimate friend of the queen, was found dead in her bedroom at Osborne yesterday morning. On retiring the night previous she complained of cold, but no alarming symptoms manifested themselves, and her indisposition was not thought to be of a serious nature.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., DEC. 26, 1900.

Collection of Refuse.

The proposition has been made to the city of Elizabeth by the Elizabeth Sanitary Company that the latter company enter into a twenty year contract with the city to provide for the disposal of garbage, ashes and all other refuse in consideration of $10,000 a year. The plan is practically the same as was proposed to the Council of this city by the Plainfield Sanitary Company although some of the details are slightly different. The Seymour G. Smith system of cremation of garbage was included in the Plainfield offer and also forms part of the proposition to the city of Elizabeth.

According to the terms of the offer presented at a meeting of the Elizabeth Board of Health last week, a plant is to be erected within the city limits with the understanding that it is to be at all times subject to the sanitary oversight and control of the Board of Health. It is proposed to district the city in four collection districts and to establish a regular system for the collection of garbage, ashes and refuse. The company will furnish householders with sanitary tight cans and will have duplicate cans for carrying the matter away from the houses in the wagons. The cans will be cleansed on the arrival at the crematory.

It is proposed to incorporate with a capital stock of $100,000, and to erect a crematory with a minimum capacity to meet the requirements of 100,000 inhabitants.

Plainfield will watch with interest Elizabeth's struggles with the sanitary question. Plainfield has considered the question before, but if Elizabeth succeeds in providing satisfactorily for the collection of the city refuse, it will be an important municipal question solved.

The merchants of Plainfield did the largest holiday business this year in the history of trade in this city. There may be some who will tell you that trade was dull, but the larger concerns have been busy for at least two weeks prior to Christmas and the trade kept up without cessation until late Monday night. More goods of a substantial kind have been purchased for gifts this year than on previous years and in consequence the profits have been correspondingly greater. This increased trade has been due in a measure to the prosperous times and the fact that the weather has been almost ideal. Then, too, the improved trolley service has been the means of bringing to town a great many shoppers from adjacent boroughs, who have discovered the advantages to be found in this city over those offered by some of the others.

WHAT OTHERS SAY.

Clippings From Other Newspapers Which May Be Of Interest to Plainfield and Its Citizens.

Vivian M. Lewis, of Passaic, has been chosen leader of the majority in the House. There is no objection to Mr. Lewis, in his own individual person. He is a man of ability and qualified for leadership. As for the method by which his election was accomplished, that's a different matter.—Elizabeth Journal.

* * * * *

It is deplorable that Assemblyman Foote, who by no possibility could have been a party to Major Lentz's quarrels in Essex, should receive the brunt of the major's fight against an Essex leader, simply because Mr. Foote happened to be supported for house leader by a friend of the gentleman who opposes the major. In politics many an innocent man is unwittingly a sufferer from the too forceful ambitions of others.—New York Press.

* * * * * * *

Unless we are incorrectly informed, Gov. Voorhees takes no stock in maintaining the so-called "political equilibrium" of the Supereme Court. Why should there be any such thing? The Governor should select judges for their ability and rectitude alone. Why try to balance the bench politically? There is no virtue in such a theory The Governor should appoint the man best fitted, and being only human he will probably appoint a Republican. Robert N. McCarter, of Newark, we understand, will be the man.—New Brunswick Home News.

* * * * *

The Plainfield Board of Trade is composed of business men who understand the value of advertising, and they are convinced that their town should advertise its advantages just as a business man would do. They offer to contribute $1,500 for the first year and ask the city to give a similar sum to form a fund of $3,000 to be expended in judiciously advertising the good features of Plainfield for business and residence.

Some persons are inclined to find fault with the Plainfield Board of Trade for this proposition, but there is no doubt that the Board is right. It is the business of the Board and of the public officials to do all in their power to boom the town, and no more effective plan can be devised than that proposed.

Jersey City people did much to build Plainfield. Quite a colony went from here back to the sixties and they were enterprising people. It is quite possible that others might be induced to follow their example if the advantages of Plainfield were properly presented Other cities might follow Jersey City's example and send colonies to Plainfield.—Jersey City Journal.

TEA TABLE TALK.

Short and Gossipy Sketches That Are Not Always News, But Just as Interesting.

If all signs do not fail, this is to be a mild winter, at least the first portion of it. A weatherwise prophet, who has kept in touch with the seasons for more than a quarter of a century, unbosomed himself to a reporter for The Daily Press a few days ago with regard to the prospects for a continuation of the fine weather.

According to this sage's predictions, the next two months will be as mild as has been December. The state of the weather he says on the first three days of the spring, summer, fall and winter months is determined in this wise: From his observation, if the weather is pleasant on the first three days, so will be the first days of each month thereafter. As the first three days of December were pleasant, according to this man's paedictions, the months of January and February will also be pleasant and mild. This is also true of the spring months, or any of the others. The first three days in the first month of the season governs the two other months in that particular season of the year.

Genesee Pure Food Co., Le Roy, N. Y.:
Gentlemen:—I must say in regard to GRAIN-O that there is nothing better or healthier. We have used it for years. My brother was a great coffee drinker. He was taken sick and the doctor said coffee was the cause of it, and told us to use GRAIN-O. We got a package but did not like it at first, but now would not be without it. My brother has been well ever since we started to use it.
Yours truly, LILLIE SOCHOR

We have been closing out entire lines of Holiday Goods from the importers and manufacturers during the past week. Sterling Silver Novelties in immense variety, Medallions, Gold Plated Clocks, Candle Sticks, Photo Frames, Ink Wells, Satin-lined Baskets, Photo Albums, Glove Cases, Handkerchief Cases, Fancy Cushions, Jewel Cases and many other elegant goods suitable for Holiday Gifts. These goods are all new, fresh and particularly attractive. They were bought at very low prices and will be sold very cheap, in not a few instances at 1-4 less than real value. They are wonderful bargains. Those who call early will get the best. Call early in the morning and avoid the afternoon crush.

IN THE CARPET STORE Lace Curtains, Suise Curtains, Table Covers, Cushion Covers, Down Pillows, Silk Floss Pillows and some elegant upholstered Couch Pillows.

TOYS, TOYS AND MORE TOYS.

Toys of every conceivable kind. Toys for rich and poor, Toys, but we can't describe them. Bring the Children, but leave the baby carriages and dogs outside.

EVERYBODY WELCOME.

A CARLOAD OF Parlor Rockers
and
Morris Chairs.

We have just received from one of the largest manufacturers in the country a carload of fine Parlor Rockers and elegant Morris Chairs. We contracted for these chairs to be delivered by Dec. 1st, but the manufacturers failed to deliver them on that date, so rather than lose the sale on them they offered the entire lot to us at greatly reduced prices, in some instances as much as ½ the regular cost, so we accepted them and they go on sale today. All told there are two hundred and sixty high-grade chairs in the lot. To make buying easy we have arranged them in lots as follows: ROCKERS lot 1, at 2.98, worth regular 3.50 to 5.00. ROCKERS lot 2, at 3.98, worth regular 4.00 to 6.50. ROCKERS lot 3, at 4.48, 4.98 and 5.98, worth regular 5.00 to 10.00. MORRIS CHAIRS, lot 1, at 4.98, worth regular 6.50. MORRIS CHAIRS, lot 2, at 5.98, worth regular 7.50. MORRIS CHAIRS, lot 3, at 6.98, worth regular 8.50. CHILDREN'S MORRIS CHAIRS 2.98, worth regular 3 50. Could you find anything more desirable for a gift than one of these chairs?

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence.)

Dunellen, December 26.—The pupils of the Sunday school connected with the Presbyterian church gave a pleasing cantata Monday evening, entitled "Up to Date or the New Santa Claus." It was witnessed by a large audience by all of whom it was greatly enjoyed. At the conclusion of the entertainment the pupils received the usual presents. Those who took part in the cantata were the Misses Carrie Wyhusky, Eva and Mamie Snyder, Amy and Kathie Sampson, Lillian Fisher, Florence Dickerson, Susie Lowrie, Lizzie Reusch, Nettie and Mary Baldwin, Janet Lake, Florence and Edna Coriell, Lottie Ginder, Lizzie Liable and Hattie Giles, Robert Lowrie, Francis Ginder, George Apgar, Bennie Dodwell, Russell Runyon, Joseph Fisher, Ellis Carman, Edgar Starker, Fred Kirchmer, Gerald Dunham, Theodore Day Clarence Carman, Clarence Voorhees, Fred Touzeau and Hudson Wilcox. As an admission fee of 10 cents was charged a neat sum will be added to the Sunday-school treasury.

The pupils of the Methodist Sunday-school held their usual Christmas exercises last evening. The usual programme of songs and recitations was given after which gifts were distributed. At St. John's church the children were given presents yesterday afternoon but no exercises were held.

Raffling for live and dressed turkeys was indulged in at the Park and Taylor's Hotels Christmas eve. The luckiest contestant was George Shierman, who won three of the birds.

A meeting of the Presbyterian congregation will be held this evening for the purpose of electing two elders and two deacons.

Mrs. Frederick Wilcox is now greatly improved from her recent illness, but is still under the care of Dr. Brakeley.

The performance at Stillman Music Hall last evening was attended by a large number from the borough.

Mrs. Catherine Maier has gone to Reaville for a few days visit with her daughter, Mrs. William Conly.

A dancing class will be opened in Apgar's Hall next week by two young ladies from New Brunswick.

A reception will be tendered Rev. N. J. Sproul by his congregation tomorrow evening.

Mrs. C. D. Taylor entertained relatives from Paterson over Christmas.

NEW MARKET.

(Special Correspondence.)

New Market, Dec. 26—Sometime during Sunday night, thieves entered the pigeon cote belonging to Frank Penrose and stole four valuable pouter pigeons, which were great pets. Two Plymouth Rock roosters were also taken. There is no clue to the thieves.

Skating was excellent on the pond yesterday but unfortunately those in Plainfield were not aware of it, thinking the warm spell had spoiled the ice.

Smith & Von Twistern have moved their refreshment tent from in the rear of C. T. Roger's to a similar location at Mrs. E. Herlick's house.

Harry Hummer and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Kelley, spent yesterday with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hummer, of Metuchen.

Mrs. David F. Blackford is confined to her home by illness.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence.)

Scotch Plains, Dec. 26—The members and friends of the Methodist Sunday school enjoyed their annual Christmas exercises Christmas Eve. The church presented a very pretty appearance with its trimming of evergreen and holly while in one corner stood the large Christmas tree. The committee in charge presented a very entertaining programme, consisting of recitations, an interesting reading by Miss Nichol and Christmas carols. When the programme was nearly ended and the little ones had begun to think Santa Claus would miss them a great commotion was heard in the class rooms. This proved to be the old fellow, and, although late in arriving, he excused himself with the plea that on account of there being no snow he had been obliged to come in over the Westfield and Elizabeth trolley line. It did not take long for the old gentleman to become acquainted with all, and to give each member of the school some little reminder of the pleasant event. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Bright, was remembered by a well-filled purse from the church and its friends. Albert Hollingsworth made an admirable Santa Claus.

A number of the lovers of trap shooting in town enjoyed a clay pigeon shoot on Johnston's farm Christmas afternoon. No prizes were offered or entrance fee charged in any of the events. Some very good individual scores were made and those who arranged the shoot are thinking of holding another New Year's Day.

The ice on the ponds in the valley is beginning to get very poor for skating. The warm weather of the past few days having made the ice so soft that the skaters have cut it all up. Very few enjoyed the pleasure yesterday for this reason.

The many friends of Henry Keuhn, Jr., who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis at Muhlenberg Hospitatal, will be pleased to learn that he is improving very nicely and was able to be brought home Monday.

Landlord Anderson, of the Corner hotel, had a drawing Christmas eve for a gold watch. A number of chickens and turkeys were also raffled off Edward Mills, of Plainfield, was the fortunate winner of the watch.

The Misses Alice and Mary Shott, of Hightstown Seminary, are spending their holiday vacation with their father, Rev. G. M. Shott.

James Horne and family, of North Plainfield, have rented through T. M. Paff's real estate agency the Ross Cottage on Park avenue.

Mrs. William S. Terry, of Plainfield, was the guest of her mother, Mrs. James Buckley, Christmas day.

Miss Minnie Hosingar entertained a few friends from Plainfield at her home last evening.

A brilliant young lady of Abingdon, Ill., recently said —"Yes, I use and regard them as an excellent toilet article. Queer, isn't it, to call them that, but wait till I explain and it won't sound so odd. In fact, I always carry them on my dressing table and take one just before leaving for any social function. Before I began their use, I was troubled with indigestion, I had a severe headache frequently and I had dyspepsia so bad that I could scarcely eat anything with relish. I was always dizzy after any quick movement, as rising from a chair, and was seized with such an attack frequently that my head would fairly reel. My complexion became sallow and pimples came on my face. I heard of Ripans Tabules and purchased some. After a short time my usual complexion returned; the pimples are all gone, as you see, and I am not dizzy as before. You can see now why I think them a valuable toilet article. Why, I would just as soon think of going without my hair combed as to neglect to take a Tabule when I go out for the evening."
Ripans Tabules

The Pretty Hats That Are Seen in New York

Fall and Winter Millinery Fashions Are Unusually Attractive This Year

CHARMING HEADWEAR FOR LATE FALL AND WINTER

FALL and winter millinery styles, while in many respects much like those of some seasons that have passed recently, are yet sufficiently new and novel to meet the requirement of those looking for the exclusive, and there is more that can be said in favor of them than against them.

There is one feature of the new hats that makes them unusually attractive; that is they lend themselves so easily to the requirements of the individual. It is really astonishing how easily a clever milliner will change the aspect of a hat by a little rearrangement of the trimming, or a bend in the brim, or a dent in the crown, so that it alters its entire appearance and makes it easily just the thing one wants, while in the shape in which it was first seen there was absolutely no possibility of its being suitable.

In the late hat velvet takes the lead in covering shapes, and for trimmings, but there are also silks, furs, malines, laces and mousseline de soies. Flowers of the large order in many cases cover the entire crown. Of these the popular ones are roses, poppies and chrysanthemums with or without their foliage. On some of the hats one sees numerous small or large buckles caught in with the Alsatian or butterfly bow. There is also a demand for fancy quills and ostrich feathers from all classes, and they are found on hats of all prices the difference being merely in the price of the quill or feather.

In shapes the toques easily lead, though the picture hat, the mushroom shape, colonial shapes, and Louis XVI. styles are seen in numerous varieties.

Still another feature of the fall and winter hats is the extravagant use of plumes, especially suitable this year because of the width of the majority of the hats.

THE PICTURE HATS ARE UNUSUALLY CHARMING

THE fall and winter picture hats are unusually charming. One on that line is made of white velvet with a bell-shaped crown surmounting a mushroom brim. This brim is made to droop gracefully over the face and a little high at the left side, with loops of black velvet ribbon caught with a steel buckle. A butterfly bow of white velvet directly in front.

A charming hat of white felt has the edge of the brim bound with black velvet, and trimmed with rouleaux of velvet. The crown is of black velvet swathed with white oriental satin, with a steel buckle in the center, and loops of black velvet on each side.

A hat in which ostrich feathers play a prominent part is of a combination of black velvet, cloth chenille and sequin. It has a brim turned back away from the face, and is lined with tucked mousseline de soie. Surmounting this is a crown of black velvet cloth, chenille and sequin, while from the center, coming from a rosette, is one large black plume slanting over the back, and one directly in front gracefully hanging over the brim.

A hat more on the flat order is of gray felt. It is bound around the edge with sea green velvet, and has a large butterfly bow directly in front caught in the center with a buckle of brilliants. Resting on the hair at one side is a roll of the velvet with a white rose.

One of the Virot models, of which several are to be seen, is of pale blue felt with garniture consisting of bands of pinked felt. It has a turned-up brim trimmed with a bow of black velvet and fancy feathers.

A hat on the Louis XVI. order is of wood colored velvet finely stitched with silk of the same shade. A torsade of wood colored velvet is finished with a bow of wide gold braid.

SOME OF THE PRETTY TOQUES THAT ARE SEEN

PRETTY toques are probably the most charming and popular hats of the fall and winter season. There is a variety among them that has never been known before, and many of the hats on the toque order can be called such only because the milliners, who are supposed to know, say they are such.

A stylish toque is of gray blue velvet. Of this the crown is built quite high of large pink roses, having a very little green foliage mingled in.

THREE CHARMING FALL AND WINTER MODELS.

Below this is an applique of real point lace. One large rose rests on the hair at the left side.

A smaller toque that has a coquettish appearance is of gray velvet and trimmings of black velvet. At the left side are fancy quills shading the green to black, with a steel buckle as a center to a large black velvet bow, and another steel buckle on the bandeau next to the face.

One of the toques that have such broad effects is made up in the stylish black and white combination. This hat is made of folds of black velvet rolling very high in front and at the side, with a jet trimming covering the edge. A black and white tip comes from the crown and droops over the face.

A toque that catches the fancy of many is of black velvet, with a pretty trimming of pink pigeon's wings and velvet bows on each side.

Of all the velvet toques to me none are prettier than an imported Paris model of shirred castor velvet with sunken crown, and brim encircled with chenille and spangled insertion. Two spangled wings caught with a large rhinestone ornament and a knot of velvet complete the trimming.

A toque of castor velvet and satin of the same shade is a pretty one. The form is laid in small folds, and it has a garniture of pale blue and beige birds in front.

An attractive toque is one with the frame covered with "ophelia" velvet veiled with coarse black chenille lace. A bird's head and plumage is posed over the folds.

Swallow Arrows.

One of the most puzzling feats performed by the Navajo Indians during their great fire dances is the swallowing of the great plumed arrows. During the ceremony ten of the savages come before the sick chief, who is to healed by the fire dance, and thrust long barbed arrows down their throats without apparent harm. The arrows when withdrawn are supposed to have acquired a healing power, and are touched to the feet, body, head and hands of the sick man.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

PARTNER OF A KING.

Colorado Miner Makes a Deal with Leopold of Belgium.

Thomas F. Walsh to Invest Monarch's Money in Mines—How the Western Man Met His Associate.

Thomas F. Walsh, the Colorado millionaire mine owner, whose lavish entertainments have been a feature of the social side of the Paris exposition, has, according to a cable from Paris, formed a business partnership with a king. The monarch is Leopold of Belgium, and several millions of his money will be invested in America by Mr. Walsh. King Leopold's business operations in Belgian Africa have given him the reputation of being, to say the least, a shrewd man. His dealings with the natives have, it is said, been the subject of correspondence between European governments.

Mr. Walsh met King Leopold several times in Belgium in addition to the meeting when he entertained the monarch at dinner. On one of these occasions the king brought up the subject of the International Sleeping Car company, in which he is one of the principal stockholders, and which is in great need of cash for improvements. Mr. Walsh was asked by his royal neighbor at dinner if he would not like a few shares of stock, which, the king declared, would pay him four or five per cent. Mr. Walsh replied that he did not invest in anything that paid less than ten per cent., and that most of his investments were bringing 20 per cent. King Leopold became greatly interested at this and exhibited a lively desire to know all about it. Finally, he asked Mr. Walsh if he happened to know of any American mine investment in which a king might place a million or two. It is said to have taken Leopold two weeks to convince Mr. Walsh that a partnership with a king was not a bad business, and then an agreement was signed, by which the king becomes the partner of Thomas F. Walsh in certain American mining investments. It is thought Leopold will dispose of his sleeping car holdings in order to go fully into the American deal.

Out in Colorado no one knows how much Mr. Walsh is worth, but he is the sole owner of the Camp Bird mine, which is worth $35,000,000, and has large interests in other enterprises. His income is estimated at $100,000 a month. He is extremely popular with the miners on account of his democracy, which admits all alike to his table, at his Washington residence as well as at Leadville and Camp Bird. He became famous for his entertainments before he stepped out of the bounds of Colorado, where he erected a luxurious hotel for the use of his men, and when he removed to Washington to save his wife's failing health he opened the doors of his residence to all and spared no money to "give everyone a good time." He has been subjected to a great deal of criticism on his unlimited invitation lists, but his habit of inviting high and low and spending as much on entertaining one as the other is credited to an honest desire to let all enjoy themselves to the fullest possible extent under his roof. He was born in Tipperary, Ireland, in 1851, and came to America in 1870. He began the study of mining almost upon his arrival in the United States, and, going to Colorado, employed himself as a building contractor while he looked around for an opportunity. This he found 12,000 feet above the sea level, where mine experts had declared it would be ruinous to attempt to mine. Mr. Walsh succeeded, and the Camp Bird gold mine, which is located at that altitude, is one of the richest in the state. The Camp Bird hotel, in which his miners live, is fitted out with porcelain bathtubs, steam heat, library and smoking-rooms. It accommodates 400 men, who live there in sumptuous style at a small cost. The hotel is characteristic of Mr. Walsh's attitude toward his men, and he has never been troubled by a strike.

The Old Doctor Was Mean.

"I don't like our doctor," said small Bobby. "Why not?" asked his aunt. "Because," answered the little fellow, "I caught a cold bad enough to keep me out of school two weeks and the mean old doctor went and cured it in two days."

ROYAL LOVE MATCH.

Beauty of Lowly Station Now Is Queen of Servia.

Young King Alexander Lost His Heart to the Pretty Widow of an Engineer and Forgot All About His Station.

The king of Servia has married himself to the beautiful woman beyond the pale of royalty. And the Servian throne shakes violently thereat. Who ever heard of a king marrying anybody but another queen, or at least a princess? But Mme. Draga Maschin was neither queen, princess or even a humble offspring or a cousin to royalty. But she is now queen. In fact, the young king of Servia has quite set the courts of Europe by the ears.

Mme. Maschin was a widow. She has no title, nor has her family. Her father was a minor court official. Her reputation is spotless though. She is quite poor. She is likewise young.

Before she was out of her teens the girl was married off to an engineer. She had but a few years of wifehood, which were very unhappy. Then her husband died, leaving her still young and more beautiful than ever, but quite sad.

The king of Servia, whose father abdicated the throne in his favor chiefly because there would have been a revolution if he hadn't, went a-seeking a wife a year ago. He thought, of course, that he must have a princess of royal blood for his queen. There being none at home, he went abroad.

He saw the king of Belgium, who said that he wasn't marrying any of his daughters just then. He took a trip to Berlin, where Kaiser Wilhelm made it plain that he didn't want a

DRAGA, QUEEN OF SERVIA.
(King Alexander Married Her in Spite of Vigorous Opposition.)

Hohenzollern to marry anybody from Servia. The czar quietly intimated that the king of Servia would save himself a lot of trouble by not coming to St. Petersburg.

The emperor of Austria was quite shocked at the idea, and as for the prince of Wales—a daughter of his going to Servia was quite out of the question. So the king came home bride-less.

One day he was sadly riding along a country road, moody and preoccupied. Suddenly he met Mme. Maschin. Her beauty electrified him.

He noted her alabaster skin, her deep violet eyes, her superb figure and the classic features that would have put many a Venus to blush. He bowed because he knew that she had been a lady-in-waiting upon Queen Natalie, his mother. But as a boy he had never realized her beauty before.

"Why do I waste my time," he said to one of his intimates, "seeking and courting homely princesses, when this divine woman lives at my door?"

He was head over heels in love. He danced attendance upon Mme. Maschin. He showered her with gifts. From a sot and a roue he changed in the twinkling of an eye to a decent, sober young man, full of love for his people and his beautiful Mme. Maschin. He proposed. The beautiful widow accepted. Only on July 23 the betrothal was published in the Official Gazette. There were murmurs of disapproval. How could a king marry a woman of humble birth?

The king was steadfast. He called his officers about him. He announced who was to be their queen. A few cheered. The king was dumfounded. Then the spirit of the moment carried them away and they joined in wild huzzahs.

"I am the king and I can do as I please," announced the king to his cabinet.

The ministers resigned in a body. Ex-King Milan started at once to reach Servia, vowing that his son could never marry beneath him. He was general of the Servian army, and there might be trouble. King Alexander had his father stopped at the frontier. Then the ex-king resigned his command.

As a matter of fact the present Servian dynasty is not descended from royalty. As late as 1829 the head of the house, Milos Obrenovitch, was a swineherd. King Milan's dissipations cost him his throne and forced Queen Natalie to divorce him.

The new queen is wildly fond of her people, and they of her. Before her marriage she took an extended trip through Servia and was everywhere received with great enthusiasm and respect.

"We shall have many difficulties," she said to a newspaper correspondent, "but we shall surmount them all."

The bridal procession passed through streets gay with flags and flowers. Carpets were hung from windows and the balconies were crowded with people. It is estimated that no fewer than 30,000 persons came from the provinces and from abroad to see the wedding pageant.

FRIGHTENED BY DOG.

William B. Stansbery's Dog Prevented Burglary of Residence of Samuel B. Field Last Night.

A daring attempt to rob the residence of Samuel B. Field, of East Front street, early last evening, was detected by the family and the would-be thief narrowly escaped being shot.

The entire family and a number of friends including Dr. Long and family and William B. Stansbery, were in the parlor about 9 o'clock listening to phonograph selections when the latter's dog, which was on the front porch, began to growl. The growls were followed by barks and Mr. Stansbery realized that something was wrong. As he went to the door to investigate, footsteps were heard on the porch but no one could be seen.

Everybody began searching and a man was finally discovered on the porch roof by Miss Fields. The miscreant slid off and was just passing near the barn when he was seen by Charles Field, who had gone out the rear way with a revolver. Mr. Field took aim at the retreating figure and fired twice, but the shots only served to quicken the man's flight.

A thorough search was afterward made, but the would-be burglar had made good his escape. His evident purpose was to ransack the upper rooms while the family were downstairs, and in all probability would have succeeded but for Mr. Stansbery's dog

Found Stolen Check.

Willie Apgar, whose parents live on DeKalb avenue, yesterday found a check for $1.28 on West Front street. This is believed to be the same check that was stolen from the residence of Joseph Wells at 1314 West Front street last Monday morning by burglars, who entered his house and secured $15 in cash from his trouser's pockets. The thieves evidently did not care to have the check in their possession or attempt to have it cashed.

AT THE THEATRES.

Something About the Attractions Which Plainfield Theatre-Goers May Care to Witness.

In "Too Rich To Marry, which will be presented at Music Hall tonight, the comedy is clean and wholesome. There is not a ribald jest or an offensive line in the whole play. The humor is keen, brilliant and mirth provoking situations follow so closely upon each other that the audience is kept in a continuous roar of laughter. From the rise of the cartain to its fall there is not a dull moment. The action is quick, the sentiments pronounced, and the situations so effective that no one can fail to enjoy the presentation. The plot of "Two Rich To Marry" shows a rich young man who cannot marry the choice of his heart because he is too rich, and a poor young man who cannot marry the girl he loves because he is too poor, and the ingenious and highly amusing ways in which they remove all barriers, including the opposition of an emphatic mother and the wrath of an irate father-in-law, keep the main interest during the three acts of the play. A counterplot runs through the comedy, always provoking hearty laughter and applause.

Next Monday evening the Bennett & Moulton Comedy Company will begin a week of repertoire, with daily matinees commencing Tuesday, New Years' Day, at Music Hall. The Bennet & Moulton Company originated popular prices (10, 20 and 30 cents), 22 years ago, and the concern is the oldest and most famous now appearing in repertoire. The week's programme is made up of plays of the highest class and most sterling character, and vaudeville acts introduced between the acts of every play make the entertainment practically continuous. Prominent among these is the singing of Mme. Flower, "the Bronze Melba," a singer of international fame. The stage effects will be elaborate, and everything will tend to enchance the excellent reputation of this always reliable company. Tha plays will include the following: "Darkest Russia," the bill for Monday; "Lost Paradise," Tuesday night; "Shadows of a Great City," "Wicked London," "A Daughter of the South" and "The Yellow Peril."

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED.

Miss Margaret Porter and Arthur McVoy Were Quietly Wedded in New York Last Sunday.

Miss Margaret Porter, of West Third street, and Arthur McVoy, formerly of this city but who has lately been living in New York, were married at the latter place last Sunday. The ceremony was performed in the Eighteenth Street Methodist Episcopal church, Rev. W. McK. Darwood officiating.

In addition to the contracting parties the only witness to the ceremony was Miss Marion Porter, a sister of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. McVoy came here last night when the announcement of the marriage was made to their respective parents. They left this morning for Washington, D. C., where they will spend a week. Upon their return they will take up their residence in New York, where Mr. McVoy holds a responsible position with the Gorham Manufacturing Co.

Family Gathered for Christmas.

Among the numerous family gatherings in this city and borough on Christmas perhaps none were more pleasant than that held last evening at the home of Horace J. Martin of 68 Jackson avenue. About twenty-five relatives and friends of the family gathered to offer congratulations and enjoy a good Christmas dinner. The afternoon and evening were passed with music, games and refreshments.

church yesterday, and large congregations were present at all the services. The church was handsomely decorated with evergreens and laurel, and at one of the side altars was a representation of the crib at Bethlehem, above which could be seen the star that pointed the way to the Saviour's birthplace. The main altar was resplendent with numerous lighted candles, which added to the beauty of the scene.

The first service was at 6 o'clock, a high mass, the approach of forty altar boys with lighted candles, followed by the celebrant and assistants, to the strains of the Adeste Fidelis, denoting that the services were about to begin. The ritual of the Catholic service was fully carried out and it was an imposing sight to witness. The celebrant was Rev. Father J. A. Stafford, president of Seton Hall College, assisted by Rev. Father McGeary, curate of St. Mary's, as deacon; M. Glennon as sub-deacon, and John Butscher as master of ceremonies, the two latter of whom are preparing to enter the priesthood. Rev. Father P. E. Smyth, pastor of the church, preached a sermon appropriate to the day, after he had extended to all his people a merry Christmas. Masses followed the 6 o'clock service at 7:30, 8:30, 9:30 and 10:30, the last being a repetition of the first mass, the celebrant, assistants, and splendor being the same as attended the 6 o'clock mass. The service closed with the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Not the least was the musical programme that Miss Smith, the organist had prepared, and which was as follows: Processional, Adeste Fidelis; Kyrie, Weber; Gloria in Excelsis, Farmer; Credo, Weber; Christmas hymn, Adeste Fidelis; Sanctus, Mercadante; Agnus Dei, Mercadante; recessional, triumphal march.

The soloists were Mrs. Brady, Mrs. Owens, Messrs. Cashin and O'Donnell, who were assisted by the large choir. The responses were sung by the altar boys. All showed careful training, which was evidenced by the splendid manner in which the hymns were rendered. Miss Smith presided at the organ in her usual capable and effective manner.

FORGED ENDORSEMENT.

Now Bound Brook Police Are Looking For John Gulick's Farmhand Who Departed Saturday.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Bound Brook, Dec. 26—The police of this borough are searching for a farmhand who up to last Saturday was employed by John Gulick, a farmer living at Lincoln. He is wanted for forging his employer's name to a check for $18, which was cashed by Druggist J. F. Lloyd, of this place.

The check was made out by H. F. Baker, of Beechwood Heights, and sent to Mr. Gulick by mail. The farmhand on going to the postoffice received the letter and tore it open. He then, it is alleged, forged Mr. Gulick's name.

The forgery was not discovered until Druggist Lloyd turned in the check with a deposit to the First National Bank of this place. The bank officials refused to accept it and communicated with Mr. Gulick. The farmhand, however, had left Saturday after drawing the balance of his month's wages. There is no clue to his whereabouts.

A Woman's Awful Peril.

"There is only one chance to save your life and that is through an operation" were the startling words heard by Mrs. I. B. Hunt of Lime Ridge, Wis., from her doctor after he had vainly tried to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. Gull stones had formed and she constantly grew worse. Then she began to use Electric Bitters which wholly cured her. It's a wonderful Stomach, Liver and Kidney remedy. Cures Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite. Try it. Only 50c. Guaranteed. For Sale by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

Mr. Bob.

Arrangements are now complete for the performance of "Mr. Bob," which is to be given next Monday evening at the Casino by amateurs of this city for the benefit of the Woman's Exchange and Children's Home. Mrs. William L. Saunders and Mrs. George S. Ring will sing between the acts of the performance. There is every assurance of a finished and enjoyable play.

Christmas Festivities.

The Christmas festival for the Sunday-school of Trinity Reformed church will be held tomorrow evening. The primary department will have their festivities in the afternoon.

IDENTIFIED M'CARTHY.

Wanted by Police For Flim-flamming Miss O'Reilly Out of $9—Held For Grand Jury.

Tim McCarthy, a well known character, was arrested yesterday in West field at the instance of Justice Toucey, of that place who knew that McCarthy was wanted in this city. This morning the accused was positively identified by Ellen O'Reilly, the servant of Mrs. Nancy Wheeler, of 228 East Fifth street, as the man from whom she, one day last week bought three easels for 65 cents. It is alleged that Miss O'Reilly gave McCarthy a $10 bill and he gave her but 35 cents in change, thereby "flim flamming" the woman out of $9 and then skipped.

Stephen Hope, janitor of the Bryant public school, also identified McCarthy as the man he saw run from Mrs Wheeler's residence on the day he was peddling easels.

Justice Nash this morning held McCarthy to await the action of the Grand Jury. It is understood that McCarthy is also wanted in another town for holding up and robbing a man of a considerable sum of money.

THE SUCTION OF TRAINS.

Unsolved Problems in Traction That Have to Do with Modern Railroading.

"The theory that a moving train carries along an envelope of air is very interesting," said an engineer," reports the New Orleans Times-Democrat, "and I believe there is a good deal of truth in it. I first had my attention attracted to the subject by a curious incident that happened several years ago at a crossing near Birmingham, Ala., where trains pass twice a day at a speed of about 40 miles an hour. The tracks are seven feet apart, and there would seem to be ample room to stand between them in perfect safety. One afternoon a small fox terrier dog belonging to a section boss was asleep in the middle space and woke up just as the trains closed in from each side. There was a barrel on the ground near by, and the dog in his fright jumped on top of it. That possibly brought him into one of the rushing envelopes of air; at any rate, he was whirled off his feet and thrown clear to the roof of the opposite car, where he was subsequently found, jammed against a ventilator chimney with no injury except a broken leg. How in the world he ever made such a journey and escaped alive is a mystery, unless his fall was deadened by a cushion of air.

"Apropos of atmospheric pressure, it is a well-known fact that there is a 'vortex space' or 'zone of suction' directly behind any rapidly-moving train, and its presence accounts for a grotesque happening that took place some time ago on the Southern Pacific. While the California-bound express was going through western Arizona at a clipping gait a passenger who was on the verge of the jimjams rushed out to the rear platform, climbed on the rail and jumped off. He was wearing a very long linen duster, and a muscular tourist who happened to be on the platform at the time grabbed it by the tails as it sailed by and yelled for help. When some of the others ran to his assistance they found the lunatic stretched straight out in the air behind the platform, howling like a Comanche, but safely anchored by his duster, which had turned inside out and caught him at the shoulders. The muscular gentleman was hanging on for dear life, but had it not been for the fact that the would-be suicide was virtually sustained and carried along by the suction of the vortex space something would certainly have given way. They reeled the man in and he promised to be good.

"We have very little exact knowledge at present of the atmospheric conditions that surround a moving train. A fuller knowledge of them may lead to the solution of some baffling problems in traction."

Bumble-Puppy at Aldershot.

We are familiar with the statement that the British army is not managed as a business, but followed as a sport—and the criticism is clearly quite sound, though too politely worded. A sport conducted on the principles which prevail at Aldershot would be describable as a species of bumble-puppy. In this country nobody would be excused for setting about serious cricket in the fashion in which gentlemen who are supposed to be officers conduct the work of instruction at Aldershot.—St. James' Gazette.

American Clocks in China.

When a Chinaman is swagger he becomes possessor of a cheap American clock. These alarm clocks have found their way into every city and town in the empire. There is nothing the celestial is so proud of as his alarm clock. POLICE ON TRACK OF BICYCLE THIEVES.

Missing Wheel Identified and Horace Washington Held For Grand Jury.

HE SAYS HE BOUGHT IT.

BICYCLE WAS STOLEN FROM IN FRONT OF DR. HEDGES' HOME.

Belonged to Charles B. Morse, of Franklin Place—Only a Few Changes Made—E. H. Terry Bought It of Washington.

An arrest was made this morning which the police are hoping will bring to light the offenders who have been stealing wheels in the East End for the past two years. Wheel after wheel has disappeared in that section of the city. Sometimes the wreck of the frame, stripped of everything, has been subsequently found but several wheels have disappeared entirely from sight.

A Cleveland wheel was taken to the F. L. C. Martin Cycle Company yesterday morning by Edmund H. Terry, a clerk in Arnold's butcher shop on Liberty street. He wanted the wheel repaired. George M. Macintyre, the manager, recognized the wheel as the one sold to Charles B Morse, of Franklin place, in the spring of 1899, and stolen from him May 21, this year. The wheel was taken from in front of Dr. Hedges' home on Watchung avenue one evening at 8 o'clock. Mr. Morse subsequently identified the wheel as the one stolen from him.

The only changes made were in painting the black rims red, breaking off the lantern holder and removing the bell.

Terry explained that he purchased the wheel from Horace Washington, the colored butler for Former Councilman Stephen A. Ginna, of Watchung avenue, early in October for $10. Terry had a witness of the sale. A warrant was then sworn out before Justice Nash and Washington was haled before him this morning.

Previous to the hearing Washington explained that he had bought the wheel in June of a man who was passing through on his way to San Francisco. He had a receipt but could not produce the man or any witnesses of the sale. Before Justice Nash he waived examination and was held for the Grand Jury under $100 bail. Mr. Ginna furnished the bail.

MARRIED ON CHRISTMAS.

Ralph Vail Was Married to Young School Teacher From Ford's Corner.

A marriage of interest to many Plainfielders took place on Christmas Day at Ford's Corner, near Perth Amboy, when Miss Elizabeth Ludlow, formerly of this city, and Ralph W. Vail, of Greenbrook, were wedded. The affair was a quiet one and attended by only a few relatives. The bride was a school teacher at Ford's Corner, where she was popular. The groom is also popular. He has an excellent position at the Pond Tool Works. He is a brother of Charles E. Vail, of Orchard place. The bride and groom are spending this week with relatives at Dunellen, and will probably take up their residence in this city afterward.

Welcomed Him Home.

Thomas Cundy, of Manson place, returned Saturday from London, where he has been for the past year erecting presses for the Aluminum Plate and Press Company. In honor of his return a number of friends gave him a pleasant reception at his home Monday evening. Dancing was the feature and it was kept up until a late hour.

Successful Entertainer.

Elmer P Ransom, wonder worker, who will appear with other talent in the Y. M. C. A. Star Course Tuesday evening, Jan. 1, has appeared five times under the auspices of the Central Branch of the Brooklyn Y M C A. and twice at the Central Branch of the New York city association.

In Behalf of Foreign Missions.

Next Sunday morning Rev. John Conklin, of India, will speak in Trinity Reformed church. He will not preach a "begging" sermon but will endeavor to enlighten and stimulate his hearers in regard to the work already done and to be accomplished in the far off country.

GORILLA AT MARTINVILLE.

SURPRISED YOUNG JOS. T. VAN NEST ON CHRISTMAS EVE.

Had Already Been Reported—This Time Ventured Into the Heart of the Village—Escaped Hoover.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Bound Brook, December 27.—The importance of Christmas Day to Martinville pales into insignificance before the general interest in the experience which befell Joseph T. VanNest, a lad of seventeen years, who lives with his parents right in the village of Martinville, on Chsistmas Eve. For several weeks there have been reports from the country districts round about that village of a strange monster which was seen prowling about the woods. The concensus of opinion was that it was a gorilla which had escaped from some traveling show and wandered into the Watchung Mountains.

It was just after supper Christmas Eve that young VanNest left his home and started for the postoffice, a quarter of a mile down the street. In the path before him he saw a huge, ungainly body, which somewhat resembled a very large New Foundland dog. As the young man approached, the beast rose up on its hind legs and advanced toward him. The great eyes seemed fairly burning.

VanNest had heard the stories of the gorilla but had but little faith in them. It was evident, however, that the animal was no myth after all. Without delay, the lad fled to the house. He seized a shot gun, jammed a shell in trying to get it into the breech and after he extracted it again and had the gun properly loaded, he went forth to investigate.

Not a sign of the gorilla was there to be found, however. Van Nest hunted up some of his friends and their combined efforts failed to discover the whereabouts of the animal

The story of young Van Nest's encounter spread rapidly through the village and Christmas Day was spent by many of the men hunting for the beast but without success.

MARRIED 'NEATH ARCH.

Isaac Squier Won His Bride at Pottersville and Married Her Christmas Day.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Pottersville, Dec. 27—The marriage of Isaac Squier, of Plainfield, and Miss Anna Ammerman, of this place, took place at the home of the bride Christmas Day at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. There were a number of relatives and friends present to witness the happy event. Rev. J. A. Thurston, of New Hurley, New York State, performed the ceremony.

The bride was attired in a traveling suit of castor cloth and carried a bouquet of roses. She and the groom were unattended. They stood beneath an arch of evergreen while the ceremony was being performed. The house decorations consisted chiefly of chrysanthemums. After a wedding supper Mr. and Mrs. Squier left for a short wedding tour.

Mr. Squier is a valued employe of the Campbell Printing Press Company, of Plainfield, and not very long ago returned from an extended trip through Europe, where he erected a number of presses. It is likely that they will take up their residence in Plainfield.

Only an Electric Light Needed.

The work of setting the curb on the west side of the new Duer street improvement is under way. If the weather continues mild, stone flagging will also be laid up to the bridge. A flag walk has been laid from the bridge to the Babcock building on the east side of Madison avenue. Now let an electric light be supplied and this street will be in good shape.

Bought in a Hurry.

The clerks in the large department stores have been busy since Christmas exchanging goods—presents that were hurriedly bought for dear ones with no idea whether they would fit or suit. From Bibles to underclothing articles have been returned with requests of the clerks that they be exchanged for something more suitable of different size.

Christmas at Relief Association.

The annual Christmas festivities will be enjoyed at the rooms of the Plainfield Relief Association this afternoon and all friends of the association are cordially invited.

TACKLED THE WRONG MAN.

AN OLD OFFENDER TRIED TO GET MONEY FROM POLICEMAN.

So Patrolman McCarthy Locked Him Up For Vagrancy—Thought Officer Was an "Easy Thing."

Patrolman McCarthy, the Beau Brummel of the police department, was out for an airing last evening. He was in plain clothes. Now when Mac is off duty he never would be taken for one of the "finest." He has the appearance of a Wall street banker—a man possessed of much of this world's goods.

Officer McCarthy's genteel appearance is so misleading with regard to his real vocation in life that even an astute individual as Dannie Kirk, one of the citizens of Elizabethport, who rarely earns his bread by the sweat of his brow, was completely fooled. He therefore made one of the many mistakes of his life. The mistake lay in the fact that Mr. Kirk appealed to Mr. McCarthy for aid to reach Easton. He detailed a pitiful tale of hard luck, about having a large family and being out of work, etc.

Usually Officer McCarthy is an "easy one" to work when a person is in trouble. No one will give up quicker or more willingly. But in the unfortunate applicant for alms the lynx-eyed officer recognized an old offender. Before the pleading "hobo" could recover his breath he found himself in a cell in the station house, having been arrested for vagrancy.

In police court this morning City Judge Runyon gave Dannie the alternative of going to jail for ten days or leaving and keeping away from Plainfield, which he made haste to do. Before going, however, he obligingly swept out the court room, by way of apology for his mistake.

SANTA CLAUS WAS THERE.

PAID HIS ANNUAL VISIT TO EAST THIRD STREET CHAPEL.

A Large Crowd and an Entertaining Programme Marked the Festivities.

"All Hail Santa Claus" was the title of a pretty Christmas cantata given last evening at the East Third Street chapel under the auspices of the Sunday-school. "Santa Claus" in all his glory, in the person of Superintendent L. W. Randolph, made his appearance at the chapel from overhead. It was impossible for him to come down the chimney, but he found an opening. He gave the children a good time with his jolly sayings and queer actions.

Miss Alice Woodland was "Mrs. Santa Claus," Clifford Braider appeared as "Uncle Sam," while Miss Margaret Harold impersonated "Liberty." Other characters were Filipinos, Henrietta Walsh, Emily Walsh; Japanese, Bessie Milberg, Florence Mattox, Sarah Harper. A number of the pupils appeared as Cubans.

Recitations were given by Carl and Ollie Ulmer, and Lizzie Frank sang a pretty doll song. Harry Milberg represented Jack Frost perfectly. Those in the chorus were Katie Britten, Dora Wilson, Bessie Vail, Lillie Titus, May Frazee, Howard Wagner, Eugene Walsh and William Mattox.

A feature of the entertainment was the appearance of C. Maynard Evans, who gave several whistling solos. A surprise was given to Superintendent Randolph, who on behalf of the teachers and pupils, was presented with a handsome cut glass berry bowl. H. E. Needham made the presentation. Before the close of the entertainment the members of the high school were presented with boxes of candy, and the programme was concluded with the singing of America. The committee in charge of the affair consisted of H. E. Needham, Clifford Braider, Miss Florence Dodge and Miss Margaret Harold. Miss Dodge presided at the piano and R. W. Barnes played the violin.

Will Impersonate Santa Claus.

Santa Claus, in the person of John H. Carney, will make several visits this week and next. This evening he will entertain the children of the M. E. church Sunday-school near Bernardsville. Next Saturday evening he will give the children of the Swedish people of this city a good time and next Monday evening he will entertain the exempt firemen of this city.

PROGRESS OF GOOD ROADS IN JERSEY.

Interesting Report Made By State Road Commissioner Budd Is Filed.

TELLS OF COST OF BUILDING.

THERE WERE 148 MILES OF STONE ROAD CONSTRUCTED IN YEAR.

Budd Recommends That State Aid Appropriation Be Increased to $200,000—Suggests Use of Gravel Instead of Stone.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, Dec. 27.—The annual report of State Road Commissioner Budd shows that 148 miles of stone roads were constructed under the State aid law during the last year.

Commissioner Budd says the demand for State aid has become so great that the appropriation should be increased from $150 000 to $200 000 at least. He recommends that the amount that a county may spend in any one year for permanent road building be increased from one quarter of 1 per cent. to one-half of 1 per cent. of the ratables.

The average cost per mile for constructing stone roads in the State was $5 385, as against about an average of $4 000 in 1899. The increase, he says, is due to the cost of material and transportation. This increase, he says, is developing a demand for the use of gravel instead of stone in the building of permanent roads.

"The people seem to be wonderfully impressed," says the report, "that by good roads the value of lands will be increased, transportation cheapened, travel and business attracted, schoolhouses and churches filled and civilization advanced, and they are praying earnestly for them."

Continuous good roads are shown on the map from Jersey City to Camden and Atlantic City and from Trenton to the seashore. Since the passage of the State aid law, passed in 1893, 583 miles of permanent roads have been built. This does not include the many miles of roads built in Essex, Hudson, Union and Bergen counties, which did not call for State aid, but built their roads independently.

Taking the roads built by State aid and those without, almost, if not quite, $5 000 000 has been expended upon good roads since January 1 1896.

DINNER TO FIREMEN.

Proprietors of Hotel Imperial Gave Christmas Repast at Headquarters.

Hibbard & Jones, proprietors of the Hotel Imperial, completely won the hearts of the city firemen Christmas night by their generosity. A substantial turkey dinner was prepared at the hotel and sent over to fire department headquarters, where fifteen of the firemen sat down to the excellent repast. The firemen are anxious to thank Messrs Hibbard & Jones for their kindness on that occasion.

JOLLY CHRISTMAS GATHERING

ANNUAL ENTERTAINMENT AT THE FRIENDS' MEETING HOUSE.

Pleasant Programme of Recitations and Readings Given in Meeting House Last Night.

Christmastide was observed in a pleasant manner last evening at the Friends' meeting house on Watchung avenue, when the members of the Sunday school participated in a well selected programme, much to the interest and profit of all present. The entertainment was in charge of the superintendent, Margaret Vail, and she announced the various numbers.

The programme opened with a concert reading, "A Christmas Carol," by the school. The following recitations were then given: "Christmastide," Leslie Palmer; "Santa Claus in Holland," Helen Vail; "Harry's Christmas Message," Ethel Lorton; "When Papa Was a Boy," Clifford Vail; "The Minuet," Agnes Cooley; "The Boyless Town," Anna Morrison; "The Burial of Moses," Robert Goldsack; "If Santa Claus Should Tumble," Ruth Stryker; "What Dolly Thinks," Hazel Morrison; "Dolly's Lesson," Margery Cooley; "The Night After Christmas," Bessie Pound. In addition to the above there were readings by Mrs. Cornelia Gavett who gave "Tom's Idea," and by Margaret Vail who gave "The Meeting house Mouse." "Santa Claus Visits the School," was the title of the reading by Mabel Vail. The programme closed with a concert reading, "The Children's Offering," by the school

All were invited to the room above, where ice cream, cake and candy was served in abundance by the committee in charge.

NEW SCALE ON CENTRAL.

PREPARED BY EMPLOYES AND SUBMITTED TO RAILROAD OFFICIALS.

It is Expected That New Scale Will be Adopted — But Few Changes Noted.

The new scale of wages which the board of directors of the Amalgamated Organization of Engineers, Firemen, Brakemen, Conductors and Telegraphers employed by the Central Railroad of New Jersey have prepared for the railroad officials to accept includes an average increase of about $5 per month for the firemen, brakemen and telegraphers, with a minimum rate of $3 for the day, the same as they now receive, providing the number of miles they run does not equal that sum This would mean a slight increase in the pay of the conductors running through trains.

It is also demanded that the company issue annual passes to the men and their wives. There is practically little change in the proposed pay of engineers, the concessions asked being the extension of a few more privileges not now allowed them

It is expected that the company will give a definite answer to the proposed scale this week. They believe that it will be accepted and put into effect at once.

WILL JOIN NEW ONE.

Plainfield Council, Order of Chosen Friends, in Favor of New Organization.

Plainfield Council, Order of Chosen Friends, held a special meeting last evening and there was a strong sentiment expressed in reference to uniting with the eastern section in the new organization that is soon to be formed. Martin R. Lance, J. Humpston and William Patterson were appointed a committee to attend the large meeting to be held this evening at the Grand Opera House, New York. It is predicted that the new organization will be in full force by January 1, with at least two-thirds of the old membership. It is proposed to drop the western section of the order, and it is reported that some action may be taken against them by the eastern section.

HOLIDAYS WERE ALL THERE.

BUT CHRISTMAS WAS VOTED THE BEST OF THEM ALL.

Enjoyable Christmas Festivities Held at the Seventh-Day Baptist Church Last Evening.

The usual Christmas exercises of the Seventh Day Baptist church were held last evening, and while ostensibly for the pupils of the Sunday-school, were attended and greatly enjoyed by the older people as well.

Pretty greens placed about the room in an artistic manner gave evidence of considerable work on the part of the decorating committee, but the effect produced amply repaid them for their trouble. Previous to the exercises and during the intermissions Miss Jessie Utter presided at the organ and rendered appropriate selections.

The programme opened with the reading of the twenty-third Psalm by Assistant Superintendent H. M. Maxson and was followed with prayer by the pastor, after which Miss Nellie Williams gave a recitation entitled "The Spell of Christmas." An exercise, "The Model Christmas Tree," in which ten children took part, proved very interesting, the tree being loaded with gifts by those participating. An appropriate verse was spoken as each gift was placed in position. While it formed a pretty exercise, it also served for a charitable purpose, as the packages brought by the children contained presents to be given later to worthy people. Those who took part were the Misses Myrtle Randolph, Grace Weeks, Elvira Nordstrom, Nettie Stillman, Ethel Rogers and Leanna Satterlee; Philip Mosher, Joseph Miller, Paul and Ernest Russell.

Another recitation, "Once Upon a Time," was given by Miss Helen Rogers, and was followed by a second exercise, "The Happiest Day." The story deals with the search for the happiest day by the spirit of happiness. Claims for the title are made by all pleasant holidays, but each is rejected in turn until the arrival of Christmas, to which the crown is given. Those who took part in this were Bessie Dunham, spirit of happiness; Roy Titsworth and Evaloise St John, messengers; Dorothy Smith, New Year's Day; Bordman Mosher, Valentine Day; Isabelle Randolph, Easter; Helen Rogers, May Day; Walter Rogers, Last Day of School; Walter St. John, Fourth of July; Warren Rogers, Thanksgiving; Eva Rogers, Christmas.

At the conclusion of the exercise, the children's gifts arrived in a large shoe in which was seated Miss Frances Mosher representing the old woman. A pretty present was then given to each pupil.

When the last one had been given, Frank J. Hubbard approached and declared one more was to be given A covered stand was then brought in and the cloth being removed disclosed a beautiful piece of marble statuary which Mr. Hubbard presented to Superintendent D. E. Titsworth on behalf of the school. Mr. Titsworth was greatly surprised but responded in a few well chosen words. Everyone present then adjourned to a side room where refreshments were served.

The committees in charge were as follows: Supper, Mrs. Charles Randolph, Mrs Charles Dunham, Mrs. William R. Mosher, Mrs. Ira J. West; entertainment, Miss Ernestine Smith, Miss Myra Clark, Miss Ida Spicer, Miss Nan Randolph; gifts, Mrs. George Babcock and Mrs. H. M. Maxson; decorating, O. L. Rogers, chairman.

New Officers For John Hand Camp.

The election of officers of John Hand Camp, No. 28, Sons of Veterans, held this week, resulted as follows: Captain, Frank Clarkson; first lieutenant, Geo Bedford; second lieutenant, Frank Perry; delegates to Division Encampment, Charles Graves and John Devine; to the Death Benefit Association, Clifford Compton and E P. T. Smith; camp council, Clifford Compton, Frank Perry and E. P. T. Smith. The other officers are appointed. This will be done the night of installation.

Kerwin Was Not Shot.

A rumor has been current in town to the effect that Lawrence Kerwin, the hotel keeper at Rock avenue and Fourth street, had been shot in the groin during a dispute over a raffle Monday evening. YOUNG WOMAN KILLED BY PASSING FREIGHT.

Sad Fatality Occurred at Woodbridge Station Early Last Evening.

WAS THROWN MANY EEET.

WAS ABOUT TO BOARD A PASSENGER TRAIN AT STATION.

Father and Sister Were With Her But Escaped—Marshs Lived in Rahway—Father is a Well-Known Civil Engineer.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Woodbridge, Dec. 26.—Miss Lucretia Marsh, seventeen years old and the eldest daughter of Frank Marsh, a civil engineer of Rahway, was killed last evening by a southbound Pennsylvania railroad freight train at the station.

The northbound passenger train No. 280 was only a short distance from the station, and Miss Marsh, her father and a younger sister were about to cross the southbound track. Neither Mr. Marsh nor his daughters appeared to be aware until it was upon them, and struck her with such force that she was instantly killed. She was thrown ten or fifteen feet among the passengers on the station platform, one of whom was knocked down.

Mr. Marsh, when he saw the freight train bearing down upon his daughter, tried to catch her and draw her out of the way of the locomotive, but in the glare of the headlight, or because he was too late he failed of his purpose. The engineer of the freight train, apparently unaware of the accident, did not stop his train.

The body of Miss Marsh was carried into the station to await the arrival of the Coroner. It will be taken to the home of Mr. Marsh in Rahway either tonight or tomorrow morning.

Miss Marsh and her sister had been visiting Miss Valentine, a daughter of E. W. Valentine, of this place, and their father had come from Rahway to escort them home.

Abram Longridge, of Philadelphia, who was waiting on the platform for the train, was also struck by the freight engine and thrown several feet, but was not seriously injured.

TO SEE THATCHER.

Well Known Minstrel Is Drawing Large Crowds to the Brooklyn Academy of Music Nightly.

The return of George Thatcher to the minstrelsy stage with a week's engagement at the Academy of Music, Brooklyn, has been warmly received by the public. There isn't a more popular man in his line on the stage, and his return to his old work in this vicinity has been taken advantage of by the admirers of the veteran minstrel in this city and the surrounding towns.

Almost every night a party of Thatcher's friends have traveled over to Brooklyn to see the show which is reported to be excellent. Christmas morning Thatcher and his troupe went to Sing Sing and gave their performance for the edification of the convicts.

WILL USHER IN NEW YEAR.

Elaborate Preparations Being Made by Warren Engine Company for New Year's Eve.

The members of Warren Engine Company are making preparations on an extensive scale to watch the close of the nineteenth and to usher in the twentieth century. At midnight the fire alarm bell will be rung and while the glad tidings are being conveyed to the citizens of the borough, the fire laddies will gather about the festive board in their handsome rooms at headquarters and make merry over a barrel of oysters and other good things. After the firemen have satisfied the demands of the inner man, they will be entertained by a sketch team, which will give a small-sized vaudeville exhibition.

BIG STEEL DEAL.

Plans For Reorganization of the Pennsylvania Company Completed.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 27.—Plans for the reorganization of the Pennsylvania Steel company have been completed and will shortly be submitted to the stockholders. The company owns plants at Steelton, near Harrisburg, and at Sparrow's Point, Md., besides owning all the capital stock of the Maryland Steel company and of the Baltimore and Sparrow's Point railroad and 50 per cent of the capital stock of the Juragua Iron company, limited, a corporation owning and operating iron mines in Cuba.

Of the $20,500,000 preferred stock to be issued $6,500,000 will be for the retirement of the outstanding preferred and common stocks of the Pennsylvania Steel company, $2,000,000 for the retirement of a like amount of the 6 per cent bonds of the Pennsylvania and Maryland Steel company, $4,000,000 for the acquisition by purchase or otherwise of ore properties, manufacturing plants or other enterprises useful to the company and $8,000,000 for providing funds for working capital for improvements at Sparrow's Point and at Steelton and for such other improvements as may be deemed advisable.

A syndicate has been organized to purchase from the company the $10,000,000 preferred stock, the proceeds of which will retire $2,000,000 outstanding 6 per cent bonds and provide the $8,000,000 cash required for additional working capital and for the improvements and extensions proposed. This $10,000,000 preferred stock will either be offered to the present stockholders of the Pennsylvania Steel company or offered for public subscription in such proportions as may be determined by the syndicate managers. The offer to the present stockholders will be for preferred stock 100 per cent in new preferred stock and 50 per cent in new common stock and for common stock 100 per cent in new preferred stock. The fixed charges of the company as reorganized will be about $270,000. Dividends at the rate of 7 per cent on $20,500,000 preferred stock will call for $1,435,000.

The Booz Inquiry.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Dec. 27.—After a Christmas recess of three days the military court of inquiry resumed its investigation of alleged brutal hazing at the West Point Military academy yesterday afternoon. Twelve witnesses were examined by Generals Brooke, Bates and Clous. They were all of the present first class and classmates of former Cadet Breth. One of them, Cadet Tidball of Virginia, swore that he had seen Breth exhausted after going through an exercising ordeal in camp in 1897. Some of the men who were hazing Breth gave him whisky when he became exhausted. The witness could only remember one of the hazers, and this was Lieutenant Mumma, who graduated last year. Cadet Russell said that he had heard of a cadet being bound hand and foot and placed under a water faucet. He could not vouch for the accuracy of his informant and did not remember his name.

Clubhouse Burned.

OGDENSBURG, N. Y., Dec. 27.—The clubhouse of the Century club was totally destroyed by fire last evening. The clubmen were to have given their annual reception and ball, for which very elaborate preparations had been made, and all was in readiness for the guests. The interior of the building was profusely decorated in token of the holiday season, among the ballroom decorations being club greetings in electrical effects. About 5 o'clock the electrician turned on the current to the special wiring for the inspection of Mayor Hall and other clubmen, and immediately the room was a mass of flames, which ran through the decorations from room to room. The fire was caused by a short circuit. The loss will reach $15,000.

Big Mileage Claim Paid.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Robert H. Wilcox, delegate in the house of representatives from the Hawaiian Islands, has just been paid a claim of $1,000 for mileage. It was the largest claim of the kind ever made, but it was paid promptly by the sergeant-at-arms of the house. Every congressman is entitled to mileage at the rate of 20 cents per mile "by the most direct and practicable route from his home to Washington and return." The distance between Honolulu and Washington is figured at 5,000 miles. Mr. Wilcox will draw $1,000 more for his return trip.

Americans Entered First.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Brigadier General Heywood, commandant of the marine corps, has forwarded to the navy department a letter from Captain Charles D. Long, serving with the marines in China, stating that the American marines were the first to enter the Forbidden City. There has been much controversy as to whether the Russians, British, Germans or Americans were first inside the sacred precincts of the Forbidden City, and this letter is regarded as establishing the claims of the Americans as to having been first on the ground.

Killed by Engine.

WOODBRIDGE, N. J., Dec. 27.—Lulu Marsh, aged 15, of Rahway was killed here last evening in an accident at the Pennsylvania railway depot. A number of people were waiting at the station to board a north bound passenger train, and as the train slowed down the people stepped from the platform on to the south bound track, which they were compelled to cross to the train. Just then an engine running "light" came down the south bound track at a brisk rate. There was a warning cry, but it came too late for some.

Young Rockefeller's Gift.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—It has become known through a report made by the Baptist churches of New York that John D. Rockefeller, Jr., son of the president of the Standard Oil company, has subscribed $250,000 for the founding of an institution of learning for poor boys and girls. The school is now in course of erection in Tenth avenue, between Forty-seventh and Forty-eighth streets, and will be completed and ready for occupancy by March 1 next.

Della Fox Weds.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 27.—Della Fox, the actress, was married yesterday to John Levy of New York in the office of the clerk of the court of common pleas. Rev. William W. Way, pastor of Immanuel Reformed church, performed the ceremony in the presence of the bridesmaid and a few of the court officials.

West Virginia to Be Represented.

BUFFALO, Dec. 27.—West Virginia officials have submitted plans for a handsome building to be erected at the Pan-American exposition. The plans were approved, and the contract has been let.

FRENCH IN A FIGHT.

Reported Rout of Chinese Imperial Troops.

MAY HAVE BEEN MUCH EXAGGERATED

Commander In Chief Waldersee Orders a Search For the Chinese Force and Its Destruction if Possible.

PEKING, Dec. 27.—Field Marshal Count von Waldersee yesterday notified the various commanders of the allied forces that a company of French soldiers encountered 2,500 Chinese imperial troops on Dec. 22 at a point about 13 miles east of Ashobhan. In a fight which followed the French are said to have captured five flags, four guns and 20 caissons. Many imperial troops are said to have been killed. The Chinese retreated toward Kuanshin, and at last accounts the French were preparing to follow them.

In his note Commander In Chief Waldersee requests the commanders of the various troops to look out for this Chinese force and if possible to destroy it.

This announcement on its face looks serious, but there is no doubt that, like previous official accounts of fights with the Chinese regular soldiers, the report of this affair is an exaggeration. It is noticeable that no mention is made of any French casualties. This has been the case in all the battles between the foreign troops and the Chinese during the past three months. The foreigners always fight against overwhelming numbers, according to these reports, many Chinamen are slaughtered, while the allies do not even have any men wounded.

There is not a single case on record where foreign soldiers have been attacked by Chinese troops since a month after the relief of Peking. But there have been repeated instances where imperial troops who were presumably endeavoring to restore order, while avoiding foreign troops, have been attacked by the latter and all who were caught killed.

SCORE OF CHRISTIANS BURNED.

Missionary Reports Further Outrages to Minister Conger.

PEKING, Dec. 27.—The Rev. Mr. Kelly, the Presbyterian missionary who, as cabled yesterday, has reported to Minister Conger the burning by Boxers of 19 Catholic Christians, now reports having received further confirmation of the burning of native Christians. He now says the number burned is 21, and he adds that thousands of armed Chinese have been seen in the San-ho country. Mr. Conger has sent a copy of the communication to Field Marshal Count von Waldersee and Japanese and German troops have been sent to investigate the reports.

The troops of the various nations celebrated Christmas in their own fashion, each force being interested in the doings of the others.

The Germans today were reviewed on the occasion of the presentation of flags to two regiments. The event was made practically international. All the generals and their staffs and detachments of their troops were present, with the result that a great military spectacle was witnessed.

No answer has yet been received to the joint note of the powers.

Minister Conger Hopeful.

LONDON, Dec. 27.—"Mr. Conger takes a hopeful view of the situation," says the Peking correspondent of The Morning Post, wiring Monday, "and thinks that a settlement will be effected, but he declares that no one of the envoys will recognize the empress dowager officially, although all are aware that she has long exercised the supreme power. He believes the crisis will result in the initiation of reforms in China. Senor de Cologan, the Spanish minister, fears that the discussion of the joint note after general acceptance will extend for a year or more. It is rumored that numerous villages east of Peking are combining to exterminate native Christians, several of whom have been burned in a local temple. Li Hung Chang is a trifle better."

It is asserted in Shanghai, according to a dispatch to The Times, that Sheng is going to Peking, having been appointed to assist in the negotiations.

High Price For New York City Bonds

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—Comptroller Coler yesterday opened bids for $3,555,000 40 year 3½ per cent gold bonds of the city. Of the issue $1,500,000 is for dock improvements, $1,610,000 for the hall of records and $445,000 for high schools and sites. There were 12 bids, most of them for the full amount. Vermilye & Co. and Harvey Fisk & Sons, bidding jointly, offered 112.1177 for the entire issue. That was the highest bid, and they will get the bonds. The price is the highest ever paid for New York city securities.

Public Education.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Massachusetts, Nevada, California and New York, in the order named, still lead the other states in the amount of money spent per capita for public education. This statement gives to Nevada undue credit, for the sparsely settled condition of that state makes the public schools an expensive necessity, and Nevada should by right be eliminated from the list for purposes of comparison.

Co-operative Plan Inaugurated.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Dec. 27.—The Peckham Manufacturing company, manufacturers of motors, trucks and car wheels, has notified its 250 employees that hereafter they will participate in the company's profits, receiving the same dividend on their wages as is paid on common stock. The co-operative plan originated with President Edgar Peckham.

Three Christmas Fatalities.

BRYAN, O., Dec. 27.—Wayne Crowell, aged 24, and Charles Conan, aged 21, left here for Blakeslee, where they were to attend a Christmas dance. In crossing the Wabash railroad tracks near that place they were struck by a passenger train and both instantly killed. When Mrs. Conan, mother of one of the young men, was notified of the accident, the shock caused her death.

No Indian Poachers.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Indian Agent Myton of the Uintah and Ouray agency reports to the Indian bureau here that the search of western Colorado by the state officials for Indians hunting in the state has resulted in a failure to find one Indian.

BRYAN AT THE FEAST

First Public Appearance Since Election.

A HEARTY WELCOME IN HOME CITY.

Defeated Presidential Candidate Says the Principles He Fought For Still Live and Will Ultimately Win.

LINCOLN, Neb., Dec. 27.—The annual banquet of the Jefferson club of Lincoln at the Lincoln hotel brought together nearly 300 representative men of the Democratic and Populist parties of Nebraska, together with a number of leaders from other states. William J. Bryan made his first appearance at a public gathering since the election, and the greeting accorded him was never more hearty and spontaneous in his home city. His address received the closest attention, and the applause was frequent. Aside from the remarks of Mr. Bryan, the event of the evening was the speech of John W. Kern, defeated Democratic candidate for governor of Indiana, who aroused the banqueters to a high pitch of enthusiasm not only by his laudation of Mr. Bryan, but by his outspoken criticism of those Democrats whom he accused of contributing to his (Bryan's) defeat. His denunciations of Democrats who offered "gratuitous counsel to Democracy," though he mentioned no names, was accepted by the crowd as a reference to former President Cleveland. It was after 10 o'clock when the dinner was finished and the speaking began.

Mr. Bryan, whose subject was "Principles Live," said in part:

"At this banquet, surrounded by neighbors who have been my friends for ten years, I may be pardoned for saying a word of a personal nature. Five times you have voted for me for public office—twice for congress, once for the United States senate and twice for the presidency—and no candidate ever received more loyal support than you have given me.

"Whether I shall ever be a candidate for office again is a question which must be determined by events. No one can speak with certainty of the future, for one's destiny is not known until his life's work is complete. I shall be content if it is my lot to aid in the triumph of the principles while others enjoy the honors and bear the responsibility of office.

"The holding of public office should be an incident and not the extreme aim of the citizen. It should not be an end, but the means for the accomplishment of a purpose.

"The presidency seemed desirable because it would have enabled me to give effective aid to certain reforms which I believe to be necessary to the public welfare, but defeat—even a second defeat—does not lessen my interest in this reform, and time may prove that my work is to advocate rather than to execute.

"The Commoner will give me an opportunity to participate in public discussions, and I am sure that an editorial pursuit will furnish as much intellectual enjoyment as I could have found in the White House and in addition thereto will give me more time for home pleasures.

"The principles for which we contended in the last campaign still live, and we who believe in them must continue to fight for them. An election does not change principles. It only determines what principles shall be for the time being applied.

"If we are successful in diverting present tendencies and in carrying the government to its old foundations, we shall rejoice in the victory and profit by the reforms secured. I am confident that we shall ultimately win, but if the trend toward plutocracy cannot be checked it is still better that we should be defeated in a righteous undertaking than that we should join hands with those who are ignoring the inalienable rights of man."

Taylor to Stay In Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 27.—The announcement is made that Merrill Moores, assistant attorney general for the past six years, and former Governor Taylor of Kentucky and R. N. Miller, former prosecutor of Breckinridge county, Ky., have formed a law partnership and will enter upon the profession as a firm on Jan. 1. The firm has engaged quarters in the Law building. Both Taylor and Miller are under indictment in Kentucky for alleged complicity in the murder of Senator Goebel, and both have determined to reside permanently in this city.

To Welcome the New Century.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—The board of aldermen has concurred in the resolution adopted by the council last week authorizing an expenditure of $2,500 for a celebration ushering in the new century. A committee on celebration plans will meet later in the day to arrange a programme. The plan at present is to illuminate the city hall and to have a chorus of 1,500 voices sing patriotic songs. Two bands will play in City Hall park, and a supper will be served to guests later.

Saxton's Daughter Married.

CLYDE, N. Y., Dec. 27.—Last evening at the home of Judge Charles T. Saxton of the state board of claims occurred the marriage of his eldest daughter, Ida Louise Saxton, to Professor Arthur Henry Wilcox of Rochester. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Alexander Bramley of New Hartford before 100 invited guests. Arthur Saxton of Albany was the best man and Helen Saxton the bridesmaid. The groom is principal of the Rochester High school.

Wales May Come.

LONDON, Dec. 27.—"The New York Yacht club," says The Daily Express, "will invite Emperor William and the Prince of Wales to witness the cup races, and President McKinley will also send notes expressing the pleasure their visits would give." Sir Thomas Lipton, who has been interviewed on the subject for The Daily Express, said he thought it within the range of possibility that the Prince of Wales would accept such an invitation.

Paderewski Reported Killed.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—A report was currently circulated last night at the Metropolitan Opera House that I. J. Paderewski, the Polish pianist, had been killed in a duel which was said to have been fought on a small island in the Seine river near the city of Sevres. A thorough investigation of the report in Paris and London was made, but no confirmation of such a duel having taken place could be obtained.

AMERICA AT THE FRONT.

Europe Recognizes the Fact That We Have Expanded.

BERLIN, Dec. 27.—In its yearly financial review the Frankfurter Zeitung points out that one of the most important facts of the last 12 months has been the growing influence of the United States upon the economic situation of Europe.

"In the first months of the year," says the writer, "when German industries had not the remotest fear of reaction, it was the report from America regarding the iron market and the fear of flooding the German market with American manufactures that terrified our markets and agitated our bourses. This was the case even when there were no important changes in the business situation in the United States. In short, all the incidents indicating, however remotely, that country's competition were discussed in their bearings upon our business situation, and they thus became very important factors in determining the attitude of the German bourses and the quotation of securities.

"Wall street quotations frequently became the standard for all other exchanges. The entrance of the United States into the ranks of creditor nations signifies a change in the times. Ever since the war with Spain the United States government has pursued undeviatingly a world policy of world conquest. European states must familiarize themselves with the thought that the United States will have a very weighty word in determining the new political constellations among the leading nations. American action in undertaking the Nicaragua canal, also proves that the military, and still more the diplomatic, participation of the United States in the chief troubles shall bear fruit."

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

Ex-President Cleveland denied that he voted for President McKinley.

No further outbreak followed last night's race riot at Cementville, Ind.

University of Chicago professors discovered that salt makes the heart beat.

Lord Cromer assured the Dinkas at Khartum of protection against slave raiders.

A company has been formed to operate a pneumatic tube service between Boston and New York.

Nicaragua will secure to the United States complete control of the canal route in her territory.

Mother Stole Her Child.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 27.—A sensational abduction took place in this city yesterday afternoon, when Mrs. Samuel D. Miller of New York kidnaped her small child and fled from the city. A hot chase was made across the state to intercept the woman, but she could not be located. Seven years ago Samuel D. Miller, son of ex-Attorney General W. H. H. Miller, married a Miss Karcher of New York, the wedding taking place in Washington. The young couple came to this city, where Mr. Miller occupied a high social position, to reside. They lived here two years, when Mrs. Miller induced her husband to remove to New York. After two or three years there Mr. Miller returned to this city to practice law with his father, but Mrs. Miller preferred to remain in New York. While they had been separated for two years no steps in the direction of a divorce had been taken.

Tracing the Kidnapers.

OMAHA, Dec. 27.—It is now known that Pat Crowe was seen in South Omaha scarcely 20 hours before the abduction of Eddie Cudahy. On Monday night, Dec. 17, a well known citizen of South Omaha conversed with him for nearly an hour. Just before they parted Crowe was questioned concerning his future plans and laughingly replied: "Oh, I have something big on. You'll hear from me soon." At the time this was viewed as an idle boast. It is stated that until shortly before the Cudahy abduction Crowe was engaged in the dairy business with his brother-in-law at Albright, just below South Omaha. Mrs. Crowe has admitted to a reporter that her husband was in South Omaha on the Saturday preceding the abduction.

Lepers In the Philippines.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—An appended report to General MacArthur's review of the civil affairs of the Philippines for the past fiscal year gives some rather startling facts regarding the introduction and prevalence of leprosy in the islands. According to the estimates of the Franciscan fathers, says Major Guy L. Edie, the writer of the report, there are no less than 30,000 lepers in the archipelago, the majority portion of these being in the Visayas.

To Improve Boston Navy Yard.

BOSTON, Dec. 27.—The contract for building the sea wall and extending the water front of the Charlestown navy yard has been awarded to Norcross Bros. of Boston. The job is a large one, and for the work the government will pay about $155,000. The work will be commenced immediately, and when it is finished the area of the navy yard will be increased by 20 acres.

Tie Up Continues at Scranton.

SCRANTON, Pa., Dec. 27.—The strike of the motormen and conductors of the Scranton Railway company causes as complete a tie up as at the start. There is not a car in operation carrying passengers, and only those trips were made to suburban places where it was necessary to deliver mails. These cars were handled by the company's superintendents.

Fall Caused Death.

LITTLE FALLS, N. Y., Dec. 27.—While walking on the tracks of the Dolgerville railroad John Crowley, a builder and prominent citizen of this city, fell from a high embankment while trying to avoid an approaching train and received injuries which caused his death. He was 56 years old and was prominent in Republican county politics.

Sailors From the Farm.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—A plan of recruiting sailors for the United States navy from the farms and the country towns is now under consideration at the navy department. The recruiting now is carried on outside of the large cities, but it has not reached the interior sections remote from large centers.

The Czar Completely Restored.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 27.—The Russian minister of the interior, M. Sipiaguine, who has just arrived here from Livadia, where Emperor Nicholas is convalescing, asserts that the czar is now completely restored, being able to take long walks and drives daily.

CONSTITUTION BUILDING.

Committees Hope to Have the Draft Ready Jan. 15.

HAVANA, Dec. 27.—The various sections into which the Cuban constitutional convention was divided some weeks ago for the purpose of preparing and submitting draft constitutions for the consideration of the convention as a whole are gradually getting together on the basis of a unitary government, with restricted suffrage. The convention leaders now hope to have this work completed by Jan. 15, so that the results may be submitted to the United States congress on Feb. 1. The sectional discussions have been bitter and prolonged, and therefore there will be less debate in the open sessions, the hard fights having been made in the secret subsessions in order to save public wrangling.

Charges reflecting upon Mr. Michael J. Dady having been made in the mayor's office in connection with the sewering and paving contract, Mr. Dady yesterday denounced as utterly false the statement that $50,000 had been offered to Mayo Rodriguez with a view of influencing his decision. At the same time he declared that if any one would make an affidavit fixing the responsibility for the slanderous accusation he would take steps to procure the arrest and prosecution of the instigator, even if it should prove to be the mayor himself. "This is not the only occasion," Mr. Dady asserted, "when an attempt has been made to blackmail me." So far as the contract is concerned, Mr. Dady says he will fight to the finish.

Baltimore Bank In Receiver's Hands.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 27.—Roger T. Gill of the law firm of N. Rufus Gill & Sons was late yesterday afternoon appointed receiver for the Old Town bank by Judge Stockbridge. The appointment was made with the consent of the president and officers of the bank. Mr. Gill bonded in the sum of $1,500,000, the assets of the institution being valued at half that amount. George Schilling, a stockholder and depositor, and Robert L. Gill, a depositor, were the complainants. In their statement to the court they say that while the bank until a recent period has done a successful and profitable business it has recently incurred heavy losses by the bad faith of its cashier, Theodore F. Wilcox, in that without authority he wrongfully, without the knowledge of its president or board of directors, permitted Isaac Robinson and the United Milk Producers' association to draw from the bank large sums of money and incurred losses thereby which the bank is unable to bear.

Found Daughter's Body In Morgue.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 27.—After ten years of anxious search and almost weekly visits to the morgue, Ernest Haars, a contractor and builder of 12 Shaw place, found his daughter cold in death on a slab. After a disagreement with her father Miss Haars left her home, saying that she would take care of herself and that he need never expect to see her again. She kept her word, and diligent inquiry and search failed to disclose her whereabouts. Occasionally the father would hear indirectly that she had been seen in the city by some old friend, but her abode could never be located.

Noted Presbyterian Divine Dead.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 27.—Rev. Dr. Thomas Murphy, one of the most eminent Presbyterian clergymen of Philadelphia and a leading writer of ecclesiastical literature, is dead at his home here after a brief illness from bronchial pneumonia. Dr. Murphy was born in County Antrim, Ireland, in 1823. When 12 years old, he came with his parents to the United States and settled in New Hartford, N. Y. He entered Hamilton college, and after graduating with high honors he continued his studies at Princeton university, where he received the degrees of D. D. and LL. D.

To Succeed General Greene.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—It is announced in Republican circles that Robert C. Morris, a well known lawyer and chairman of the campaign committee of the Republican club, has been chosen by the local Republican leaders as the successor of General Greene as president of the Republican county committee. The election will be held at an adjourned meeting of the committee tonight.

Smallpox From Milk.

TOLEDO, Dec. 27.—An epidemic of smallpox is claiming the attention of the state authorities at Cecil, O. The cows of the farmers are infected with smallpox. One family of five persons is afflicted from drinking the milk and several other families are sick. Dr. Chapman of the state board of health of this city investigated the case today and has ordered a rigid quarantine.

A Light Giving Mineral.

BOISE, Idaho, Dec. 27.—George F. Ayres, a well known miner, has unearthed a mineral substance that has illuminating power. He found the stuff at a depth of 300 feet from the surface. He had been running a crosscut tunnel to tap his ledge at considerable depth and ran across a deposit that gave off enough light for him to proceed without the aid of his candle.

Thirty Christmas Killings.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Dec. 27.—Reports show that on Christmas day there were 30 deaths from violence in various parts of the state. This is a record which has not been equaled in years. The killings were confined to the smaller towns and country districts and not to the cities, where saloons are closed on Christmas day.

THE BOER INVASION.

England Hears Nothing Encouraging From the Cape.

DOUBT AS TO CLEMENTS' SUCCESS.

British Press Hopeful, but It Is Certain That Kitchener Is Facing Great Difficulties—More Troops Needed.

LONDON, Dec. 27.—The paucity and obscurity of the dispatches from South Africa give rise to renewed anxiety. Apparently the disturbed area of Cape Colony extends farther south than it did last December, and Lord Kitchener does not appear to have had much success as yet in driving back the invaders.

The war office had received no news last evening of the reported capture of yeomanry near Britstown.

A Burghersdorp dispatch has a mysterious reference to "an unfortunate mistaking of the enemy for Brabant's Horse," which resulted in the sounding of "Cease fire!" and enabled the Boers to occupy all the commanding positions, the British retiring from a difficult predicament.

General Clements' success against the Boers in the Magaliesberg region is also doubtful, the last dispatch reporting that "it was considered advisable not to force the Boers from their positions."

The British press continues in the main optimistic, but the condition of affairs brings home the enormous difficulties that will face Lord Kitchener in patrolling and policing such immense tracts of country, even when the Boers shall be finally subdued.

The Daily Mail, which makes a strong appeal to the government to "face the facts and send Lord Kitchener more troops," says:

"There is a real risk in being lulled to sleep by carefully censured messages."

Lord Kitchener, according to a dispatch from Johannesburg, has issued a proclamation, dated Pretoria, Dec. 20, announcing that burghers who voluntarily surrender will be allowed to live with their families in the government laagers until such time as guerrilla warfare has sufficiently abated to admit of their returning in safety to their homes. The proclamation also promises that all property and stock brought in at the time of surrender will be respected and paid for if requisitioned by the military authorities.

Boers Trap British.

CAPE TOWN, Dec. 27.—A squadron of yeomanry which had been following the Boers from Britstown is reported to have been trapped. There were several casualties, it is said, and the remainder of the force was captured.

Maoris to Aid British.

WELLINGTON, N. Z., Dec. 27.—The sixth contingent of New Zealanders, 200 strong, half being Maoris, will sail for South Africa in three weeks.

Boers Capture Christmas Gifts.

ZEERUST, Transvaal, Dec. 27.—The Boers captured two wagons containing Christmas luxuries destined for the camp of Lord Methuen.

Prosperity In South Carolina.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 27.—The State prints statistics from the office of the secretary of state showing that in 1900 31 new cotton mills were chartered in South Carolina and 14 old ones increased their capital stock by reason of enlargements, the aggregate capital employed being $7,800,000, while during 1899-1900 the new mills numbered 42 and the enlargements 30, with an aggregate capital of $13,500,000. This does not include 12 mills commissioned in 1900, but not yet organized, whose proposed capital aggregated $1,500,000. This is a record unapproached in the south or in the country.

Commercial Teachers In Council.

DETROIT, Dec. 27.—The fifth annual convention of the National Commercial Teachers' Federation began last night in the Hotel Cadillac with a formal welcome to the city by Mayor Maybury and will continue until Saturday. The federation is composed of the following associations. The National Business Teachers' association, the National Penmanship Teachers' association, the National Shorthand Teachers' association and the Private Commercial Schools' Managers' association.

A Redskin's Bloody Deeds.

CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Dec. 27.—News has reached this city from Brule Indian agency that Handsome Elk, the most dangerous redskin of the northwest, beat his squaw in a brutal manner with a neck yoke. It is thought the squaw will die. Elk then seized another Indian woman, Bear Bird's daughter, and scalped her. Then, arming himself with his rifle and other firearms, he went into the hills a short distance from his home and left word that friend or foe must not approach him.

Democrats Against Addicks.

DOVER, Del., Dec. 27.—Democratic leaders from all parts of the state were in conference yesterday with all but three of the Democratic assemblymen elect. The meeting was a secret one, and at its conclusion it was said that the leaders advised the assemblymen to deal with the "regular" or Dupont faction of the Republican legislators if necessary to prevent the election of J. Edward Addicks to the United States senate.

Baldwin Buys Stanch Ship.

LONDON, Dec. 27.—Mr. Evelyn B. Baldwin, the arctic explorer, who is arranging for the Baldwin-Ziegler expedition, has purchased the Esquimaux, the largest and stanchest of the whaling fleet, fitted her with modern appliances and named her The America. The rival bidder was the British antarctic expedition, whose organizers desired to secure the Esquimaux as a substitute ship.

Body of Mountain Guide Found.

UTICA, N. Y., Dec. 27.—Bob Owens, a guide in the North woods, was found dead in his camp near Minnehaha by a hunter. The guide had accidentally shot himself while cleaning his gun. The bullet entered the eye and passed out through the top of his head. It is believed that the guide had been dead at least a month.

Richest Texas Cattleman Dead.

GALVESTON, Dec. 27.—A. H. Pierce, the richest cattleman in Texas, died yesterday at Pierce Station. He was many times a millionaire, with widespread interests in Texas.

Important Council Meeting.

While it is not probable that the meeting of the Common Council this evening will see any important action taken on any of the subjects now before the Council, the meeting will nevertheless be one of the most important of the year. All of the committees of the Council will, at that time, present their reports for the year, and the contents of many of these reports will make interesting reading to such citizens as are at all interested in the government of this city.

Probably the most important of all the reports which will be presented at this evening's meeting will be that of the committee on streets and sewers. For nearly the entire year that committee has had under consideration the question of the necessary changes at the sewage disposal beds of the city. Many methods of sewage disposal have been examined. In order to have the advantage of the best advice to be obtained, the committee retained Mr. Osgood, who is an expert on such matters. The greater part of the report, devoted to the sewage disposal question, consists of Mr. Osgood's report.

This statement of facts from the committee and the course of action which Mr. Osgood advises the city to follow makes such interesting reading that The Daily Press has arranged to print that portion of the report in full tomorrow evening. It is a somewhat lengthy document but worthy of the careful attention of every citizen who will be unable to be present at the meeting this evening and hear it read.

There are also some very important matters presented in the portion of the report of the committee on streets and sewers regarding the work on the streets. This portion of the report will also be printed in full in The Daily Press Saturday evening as lack of space will not permit the publishing of the complete report in one edition of the paper.

It is evident that the New Brunswick Home News was somewhat off the track in trying to pick the probable successor to the late Judge Ludlow. Governor Voorhees is quoted as saying yesterday that while he had not decided as yet who Judge Ludlow's successor would be, he had decided to select the appointee from South Jersey and would choose a Democrat if a suitable one could be found for the place.

From every side words of commendation concerning The Daily Press calendar for 1901 have been received. The calendar is of particularly artistic design and very attractive in appearance. Then it is valuable to Plainfielders because it contains a correct list of the fire alarm boxes in the city and borough. A pretty picture in colors occupies the central position on the calendar.

When the Assembly is organized next month, there will be a journal clerk for Union county to fill. Plainfield already has two candidates for the place. It is understood that Garrett T. Dunham has an excellent chance of landing the place, but that George J. Coe, of Third place, is also after the plum.

That petition of the Board of Trade asking for an appropriation for advertising the city is likely to be presented to the Common Council this evening. The matter will undoubtedly be laid over for the next Council to act upon.

A number of petitions from borough citizens would increase the strength of the opposition to the granting of the license to Mr. Sisser, when his case has a hearing before Judge Schenck at Somerville next week.

The Elizabeth Daily Journal has just issued its almanac and handbook for 1901. This little volume is well gotten up, and contains information of value concerning both the city of Elizabeth and Union county.

The increase of the hotel license rate in North Plainfield, as announced in the Somerset county court yesterday, was a wise one.

WHAT OTHERS SAY.

Clippings From Other Newspapers Which May Be Of Interest to Plainfield and Its Citizens.

Why could not our City Council take advantage of a law passed last year which permits a special tax of one-half per cent. for the purpose of advertising the advantages of our town for those seeking homes and looking for factory sites? The city of Plainfield proposes to do this and expects to reap great results therefrom. The scheme, when wisely handled, should mean the exchanging of one dollar for two, and a great increase in our population. This is a subject that might be given serious consideration before the appropriation budget is fixed next spring.—New Brunswick Home News.

At least two Democratic members of the next New Jersey Legislature have determined to oppose the nomination for United States Senator of ex-Congressman Alvah A Clark by the Democratic caucus. There may be others, but so far as heard from the remaining five members outside of Hudson county are non committal. Senator Martin, of Sussex county, when asked if he would support Mr. Clark, replied: "I will not vote for him in the Democratic caucus." Answering the same question Senator Gebhardt, of Hunterdon county, said: "No; I expect to vote for a Democrat." If these Senators should carry their opposition beyond the caucus there would be plenty of trouble in the party's State convention. But will they? Hardly.—New York Tribune.

TEA TABLE TALK.

Short and Gossipy Sketches That Are Not Always News, But Just as Interesting.

A young man who has a number of friends among the young ladies is the butt of a joke that was played upon him a few days ago. Meeting a bevy of his girl friends the young man in question handed one of them a card upon which was written "A Merry Xmas to Michael from Mamie." He requested that a present be sent to one of his friends, whose given name is Michael. The young woman took the card and agreed to comply with the request. A day or two ago the young man received a small box nicely wrapped. Opening it he was surprised and amused to find the identical card which he had given to the young lady. The box contained a small-sized doll, handsomely tied with a pink ribbon. The boys are now having fun with Michael.

Keeping "tabs" on the letter carriers is one of the interesting things noted about the local postoffice. This does not mean that there is any system of espionage practiced by Postmaster Bird. The rule comes from the authorities at Washington, who have provided a contrivance known as a time lock which registers the exact time of each carrier. When a carrier, or clerk for that matter, reports for duty or leaves the office on his route he must take a key from a place provided for them and insert it in a lock which immediately records the time upon a long slip of paper. These slips are taken out each day and preserved in a book kept for the purpose, new slips being inserted in their places, when necessary. By referring to this book of slips it is easy to ascertain all about the movements of the clerks or carriers. If a carrier is accustomed to loafing on his route the register in the time clock will expose him. Plainfield is not the only place where these time locks are used. They are to be found in all of the first and second class postoffices throughout the United States.

It digests what you eat and is a certain cure for dyspepsia and every form of stomach trouble. It gives relief at once even in the worst cases, and can't help but do you good. L. W. Randolph.

Dear Sirs:—Some days since a package of your GRAIN-O preparation was left at my office. I took it home and gave it a trial, and I have to say I was very much pleased with it, as a substitute for coffee. We have always used the best Java and Mocha in our family, but I am free to say I like the GRAIN-O as well as the best coffee I ever drank. Respectfully yours,

Morris Chairs.

We have just received from one of the largest manufacturers in the country a carload of fine Parlor Rockers and elegant Morris Chairs. We contracted for these chairs to be delivered by Dec. 1st, but the manufacturers failed to deliver them on that date, so rather than lose the sale on them they offered the entire lot to us at greatly reduced prices, in some instances as much as ½ the regular cost, so we accepted them and they go on sale today. All told there are two hundred and sixty high-grade chairs in the lot. To make buying easy we have arranged them in lots as follows: ROCKERS lot 1, at 2.98, worth regular 3.50 to 5.00. ROCKERS lot 2, at 3.98, worth regular 4.00 to 6.50. ROCKERS lot 3, at 4.48, 4.98 and 5.98, worth regular 5.00 to 10.00. MORRIS CHAIRS, lot 1, at 4.98, worth regular 6.50. THEY SAY.

The Merchant Says:

Telephone service is a great promoter of business. It not only is an open door for new business, but increases the facility with which any business may be transacted.

The Railroad Man Says:

It keeps our many departments running in continuous harmony. It increases both our passenger and our freight service, and is a great convenience to our patrons.

The Broker Says:

It keeps me in touch with the market wherever I am; I buy and sell by wire, and by taking telephonic advantage of a turn in the market I have made thousands of dollars.

The Doctor Says:

Telephone service has increased my income to nearly double. Many persons will seek advice by telephone who would hesitate to ask a physician to make a call.

The Caterer Says:

Telephone service enables me to serve my patrons more speedily and with less effort. It minimizes possibility of loss from overstocking.

The Housekeeper Says:

Life without telephone service would be unbearable. It smooths all the rough places. How we ever got along without it, I do not know.

The Suburban Resident Says:

The knowledge that I can call up my house out of town from my office in the city, is a great comfort.

The College Man Says:

"I say, old chap, it's great. You can call up and get the latest news from the football game or the boat race, and every other old thing a fellow wants to know."

Everybody Says:

It is the greatest thing in the world—the greatest convenience of this or any other time. The greatest factor in business, social or domestic life; a service no one can afford to be without.

The Telephone Company Says:

We want your patronage on the basis of LOW RATES, PERFECT SERVICE.

He Made the Most of It.

A certain man's wife was much troubled with the thought that the house would be broken into. Her husband, being kept awake at night by her anxiety, hoped to cure her of the delusion by arranging with a man he knew to enter the house and pretend to be a robber, while he would satisfy his wife by going down and scaring him away by firing his revolver. The man agreed, and received a small fee for his trouble. On the night in question the wife heard some noise, so aroused her husband, who crept downstairs with his revolver. All was quiet, but he boldly entered the dining-room and, crying "Hands up!" fired his revolver into the ceiling. Still not a sound. With a sudden feeling of anxiety he struck a match, and found every particle of plate and valuable things gone. The man had come early and made the most of it.—Tit-Bits.

Mountain Range in the Pacific.

From a scientific standpoint one of the most interesting discoveries made by the government survey in the Pacific was that of a submarine mountain range about 500 knots from Guam, which apparently connects with one which extends from the coast of Japan to the Bonin islands. In this range was found a single peak which came to within 498 feet of the surface, and a careful survey of it developed the fact that it closely resembled in outline the famous volcano Fujiyama, near Yokohama, Japan. To the north of this range, according to the report, the bed of the ocean slopes gradually to the eastward into the great Japanese deep, which for years held the record for ocean depths.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Artificial Indigo.

Artificial indigo is not a new product, although its manufacture has been so expensive as to exclude it from the market. Some time ago a large staff of trained chemists, maintained for purposes of practical research by the Badische Anilin und Soda Fabrik, turned their energies to the production of a cheap though serviceable article. It was a costly investigation, but not an unremunerative one, since many good things were discovered by the way. At the last the triumph of theory was reached in the perfecting of a process which practical ability, combined with vast knowledge and enterprise, has made a great commercial success. The output is now equal to the indigo crop of 250,000 acres in Behar, and the planters are now appealing to the Indian government for aid in setting up a supplementary sugar industry as the only chance of competing with the German factory.—Chicago Chronicle.

The Extreme Limit.

"I think there should be a law against publishing lies," said the innocent-faced man as he laid down his paper and heaved a sigh.

"Have you discovered a lie?" was asked by a fellow passenger.

"I'm sure of it. A man who was on a steamer when she was wrecked claims to have swum a distance of 40 miles to land. We know that is a physical impossibility. I myself was once on a steamer lost off coast and at that time I was called a champion swimmer. I swam and swam and swam, but I didn't swim no 40 miles. I could not have done it."

"How far did you swim?"

"Thirty-nine miles to a foot, sir, and any man in this world who says he has swum 40 is a liar, sir, and the truth isn't in him, sir!"—Chicago Daily News.

Mary Mannering in the Role of "Janice Meredith"

She Scores a Success in Paul Leicester Ford's Charming Story

NOW the dramatic season is with us again, and with us again the dramatized novel. If all the dramatized novels were equal to the one under consideration in this article we should have no quarrel with them; we affirm we would welcome them back as gladly as we do our old friends of the stage from their summerings on mountain side and seashore, at ranch and country place. But few indeed are the novels that, not only for stage purposes but for other qualities, and those sterling qualities, can compare with Janice Meredith.

America has gone wild over it, and no wonder, either. One realizes as one reads it that America has a history to be proud of, though it date back not many hundred years; one seems to become acquaint for the first time with "the true George Washington;" one is able to sympathize with both whig and tory, to appreciate the difficulties of the times; one looks on at the English balls and routs in Philadelphia, the best houses in town, Benjamin Franklin's among them, occupied and enjoyed by the enemy; while, just without, Washington's men are trying to weather the winter with bare feet, rags and empty stomachs. One sees the road along the Delaware marked by the bloody footprints of the ill-shod Continentals, the "rag-tails" as the red coats called them. One feels the horrors of war, one's blood tingles at thought of the indomitable persistence and courage of the fathers of American liberty.

The dramatic qualities of Janice Meredith made it peculiarly capable of adaptation for the stage, and Miss Mannering, the beautiful young actress who stars this season in "Janice Meredith," will, without doubt, win new triumphs by her portrayal of the colonial maid of '76.

The story opens with a dialogue between two mischievous misses seated on the floor in their bed chamber, surreptitiously reading a story book, "Alonzo and Amaryllis;" these two misses being respectively Janice Meredith and Tabitha Drinker, a cousin. The Meredith household represents to us a picture of the life and manners of the time; Squire Lambert Meredith is the usual squire, choleric and genial, lusty, trusty, fond of his glass and his dog, fond also of his importance as landed proprietor of 30,000 acres, and bent on making his importance felt; Mrs. Meredith is a straight-laced Presbyterian, stern, unbending, almost a fanatic. Janice who could describe? Willful, lovable; girlish and capricious, but with womanliness not far below the surface; of beauty so pronounced as to win homage from whig and tory, soldier and spy, officer and servant, captor and captured. At 15 she is considered of marriageable age, and her parents use their influence to betroth her to Phillamon Hannion, a country lout, though the son of the only other squire in the neighborhood. But many men and many events interpose to prevent the consummation of the betrothal.

The second chapter is given over to the arrival and disposal of a band of bond servants, those indentured servants brought over to do the rough toil for the landlords. One of the band goes to Greenwood, the Meredith estate. He is surly and hot-tempered, unkempt and ill-clad, but when off his guard shows he has been used to better things. He is called by the name of Charles Fownes.

Janice and Tabitha wonder about him and watch him, and one day discover he has in his possession the miniature of a very beautiful woman, which miniature is framed with dazzling brilliants. The case is later given to Janice by the bondman, who had placed in it her own miniature, painted by herself.

She is half afraid, much interested in him, a dangerous condition for a proud maid, but will not consider an entanglement with a bondservant. In a moment of anger he tells her her family and pedigree are nothing compared with his, that his great-grandfather was a king.

But war, as well as love, is in the air, and the bondservant, refused by his master the purchase of his freedom, spends his leisure drilling the militia on the village green, and at last runs away, obtains an interview at headquarters with Washington, conveys to him news of much importance, and is made an aid to the commander. He is with Washington when New York is abandoned, when the army met defeat after defeat, when hundred after hundred of men desert, when officers and members of congress work for the chief's fall and failure; with him that snowy Christmas night he gets his 2,400 men across the Delaware and marches them nine miles to Trenton; with him the terrible winter of Valley Forge; with him in repeated defeats and discouragements, but also with him when success is won at Yorktown.

The characters, as well as the events, in "Janice Meredith" stand out strongly. Lambert Meredith, the squire, we have spoken of. Charles Fownes, the bond servant, later Col. Brereton, Washington's aid, and later revealed Charles Lee, the illegitimate son of the English general, Howe, holds our interest from the first; a good soldier, a good lover. Mrs. Meredith becomes, by experience of the fortunes of war, less rigid, more tender, but all through a person of backbone. We watch the gymnastics of Joe Bagby and Esquire Hannion, the rival turncoats, with mingled scorn and amusement, and are glad Mr. Ford, the author, sees they receive their just deserts. Poor, clouish Phil develops in the strenuous years of his military career into quite a man, and we are a bit sorry there are not two Janice Meredits, so he and Brereton may each have one. For, of course, you know in the end Brereton marries Janice.

As the story goes on one begins to think Janice's beauty a curse, for it brings her and "dadda" and "mommy" much trouble. The villain, Lord Clowes, engages in all sorts of machinations to win her, as does also Joe Bagby. Sir Frederic Mowbray offers her his hand and heart and dies with her miniature close clasped to his breast. Phil serves her faithfully for years, and then loses her. John Brereton risks life and honor for her, and receives severe punishment in the loss of Washington's friendship and favor. In vulgar parlance, Janice gets any number of people into a peck of trouble.

THE ASTROLOGER.

He Means Business.

Now, here is a poet who is practical enough. He hails from Dooly county, and it will be seen from his letter that he means business. He writes:

"I have wrote a poem about 100 yards long—as nigh as I kin guess. It took me six months an' two hours to write it. I ain't no judge o' these things, an' what I want to know is where I kin hire a good man to read it for me an' tell me what it is. To sich a man I will pay one dollar a day till he gets through; only he mustn't take too long."—Atlanta Constitution.

GREGARIOUS SPIDERS.

One Species of the Insect, Discovered in Venezuela, Is Truly Republican in Instinct.

The spider has usually been regarded as a type of the solitary among animals, each individual preferring to live alone. But naturalists have discovered exceptions to this rule, and among the most remarkable are three species of spiders recently studied by Eugene Simon in Venezuela. The most interesting of these, the Uloborus republicanus, seems to be truly republican in its instincts, several hundreds of individuals dwelling together in huge webs, made up of smaller webs linked together by strong threads and fastened among the branches of trees. On these webs the spiders can be seen moving freely about, meeting and exchanging greetings with their antennae, like so many ants. In the center of the main web is a space where the eggs of the entire republic are laid, and where, at the proper season, the female spiders can be seen assembled, each guarding her own silken cocoon filled with eggs.—Youth's Companion.

A FRENCHMAN'S IDEA.

He Would Keep Ships from Sinking by Equipping Them with Rubber Gas Bags.

A ship that cannot sink is a great desideratum in view of the increased frequency of collisions in recent years.

This increase is due not only to the increase in traffic, but also to the construction of sea routes. In the good old days, a captain simply followed, as well as he could, the shortest line between his port of departure and his destination, but nowadays vessels seek to take advantage of favorable currents and this concentrates the traffic in comparatively narrow lanes.

A French engineer, Henri Mariolla, has devised a method of keeping a ship from sinking entirely, no matter how badly it may be injured in a collision. The device is ingenious, to say the least.

It consists, in the first place, of a number of bags of India rubber covered with stout canvas. These are placed separately in pockets or depressions distributed along the ship's side a little above the water line. Each pocket is closed by a sheet-iron cover, and from the bottom of each bag a pipe descends nearly to the water level. The bags which are collapsed and folded contain a little dry calcium carbide.

The theory of the device is that when the ship begins to sink water will rise in the pipes, come into contact with the carbide and cause a brisk evolution of acetylene gas. This will distend the bags to their full capacity, bursting off the sheet iron doors in the process. The added buoyancy of the inflated bags, if they are sufficient in number and size, will prevent the ship sinking more than a few feet. And all this is to take place in a few seconds.

The inventor has calculated that a large ocean liner may be made unsinkable by 150 bags of carbide, which will produce about half a million gallons of gas.—N. Y. World.

Flour Made from Bananas.

The nutritive value of flour made from dried bananas has attracted popular attention during the last couple of years. The Connecticut state experimental station has recently analyzed banana flour made from three sorts of bananas. The flour is made by cutting the fruit into small pieces, drying and grinding. It appears that the fresh bananas closely resemble fresh apples in their chemical composition, and banana flour similarly resembles dried apples in nutritive material. It contains much less protein than wheat flour, and less than half as much as rice, while its carbohydrate contents approach closely that of these two popular articles of diet. In those countries where banana flour is prepared in considerable quantities, it is used in combination with milk, sugar, etc., in the preparation of custards, cakes and similar articles.—Southern Industrial News.

Decrease in Clam Supply.

Over the greater part of the New England coast the supply of clams has suddenly diminished to an extent which has become alarming. Extensive areas which four or five years ago produced great numbers of clams are now practically barren. The explanation is simply that the demand has increased at such a rate that too large a number of the natural "seed" clams have been removed and extinction suddenly follows.

American Coal in Europe.

American coal is not only displacing British coal in many European markets, but a competitive test, made in London shows that for gasmaking purposes it is much more economical than the native article. American coal, in the test, made 15,000 feet of gas per ton, against 10,000 feet for the British coal, while the coke was plentiful and good.

SINGLE-RAIL TRACTION.

A New Mode of Electrical Transportation Which is Rapid, Safe and Economical.

Many single-rail roads have been devised or proposed, some of them more curious than practical. One form, however, known in balance as the Decauville system, is in very wide use in Europe and in British India, although almost unknown in this country. It is thus described in Cosmos:

"In the Decauville single-rail railway, the vehicle borne by two wheels placed tandem, rolls on the rail. The vehicle and its load are balanced as nearly as possible, and it is only necessary to keep it in equilibrium when in motion, which can be done with a slight expenditure of energy.

"If the wagon is drawn by a horse, the animal is placed at its side, and a light bow, fixed to the seat, prevents its tipping to one side or the other; if it is pushed by a man, he uses a fixed handle, which effects the same result.

SINGLE RAIL AUTOMOBILE.

"This mode of transportation is very economical, because the single rail is cheap and can without inconvenience be laid on the edge of even the narrowest roads, and it is greatly in use at present.

"In British India it has been slightly modified. The axle for preserving the balance of the system bears a light but large wheel, which rolls on the ground; it is like the balance-float of a pirogue. The weight of the load bears almost entirely on the rail. Vehicles of this kind are usually drawn by oxen.

"Messrs. Mavor and Coulson, of Glasgow, have had the idea of applying mechanical traction to this kind of vehicle. A battery of accumulators and a motor are arranged between the two driving-wheels, and impart motion to them.

"A vehicle thus equipped will carry about a quarter of a ton, but two others may be coupled to it, carrying each a ton. The service is remarkably swift, the mechanical motor being more active than an animal, especially when the latter is an ox."

ELECTRIC MOTOR CYCLE.

Description of a German Machine Which Is Attracting Attention All Over Europe.

Germany gets the credit for the first bicycle fitted with an electric motor and it is said to be partially self-charging. Motor Age describes the new machine as follows:

"Supported within the front frame of the bicycle is a small electric motor whose armature shaft is connected by a belt to a pulley on a stub shaft projecting from the side of the seat mast tube. On the same shaft is a small sprocket wheel over which runs a chain connecting with a sprocket on the rear wheel hub. There is also the usual bicycle sprocket and chain connection between pedal crank shaft and rear wheel.

"A lever underneath the saddle allows the rider to throw the motor driven pulley on the seat mast in and out of engagement with the sprocket on the same shaft. A storage battery hanging from the upper reach tube of the frame is furnished with the proper wire connections to the motor.

"Descending hills the rider throws the motor gearing into engagement and the revolution of the motor armature, now being driven by the bicycle, acts as a brake against the momentum of the machine and also causes the storage battery to be charged with lively electromotive power. When the bottom of the hill is reached and the ascent of the next grade begun, the storage battery, parts with its accumulated energy, the motor armature is whirled round and round and bicycle and rider go merrily skimming up the incline. So says the inventor, and he ought to know. He does not, however."

The automobile and motor cycle have become important adjuncts to the theatrical profession for advertising purposes. Advance agents are beginning to travel the country on motor cycles and several barn-storming companies have gaudily decorated machines, which parade through the streets of the town the morning of the show and "capture the natives." One such machine owned by a juggler has $1,600 worth of silver filigree on it.

When the Rim Is Split.

When a wood rim is split for six inches or more, as often happens, few riders or repair shop men attempt even a temporary repair. Yet one may easily be made if a piece of tin can be gotten, as is usually the case. Cut the tin into a strip about an inch wide and long enough to wrap about the rim the whole length of the split after the tire is removed. Wrap it tightly and secure the ends with stout tacks, then take a hammer and pound it down into the concavity of the rim, which will draw the parts closely together. After replacing the tire and inflating it, tire tape should be wrapped about the tire and rim, as the cement may not hold to the tire very well.

SEWELL WILL BE THERE.

MEETING OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE.

Regarding the Abolishment of Spring Elections, Senator Will Allow Legislature to Fight It Out.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, Dec. 27—A meeting of the executive committee of the State Republican committee will be held at the State House today, at which will be considered the advisability of passing a measure at the coming session of the Legislature having for its purpose the abolition of spring elections.

General William J. Sewell has been invited to attend the meeting and it is confidently expected that he will be present. If an expression can be secured from the Camden leader on the question it will, of course, have great weight with the Legislature.

The impression obtains, however, according to the Trenton True American that Sewell will leave the matter to the Legislature to fight out, and it is quite likely that no measure will be enacted into law abolishing spring elections this winter.

Last year, it will be remembered, the State committee, at the behest of Major Lentz and other rattle brained leaders, expressed itself in favor of the scheme to abolish the municipal elections in the spring, but the Legislature gave the recommendation the cold shoulder.

It is generally believed that a similar fate awaits the action of the State committee this time. The legislators are not very much imbued with the notion of enacting partisan legislation right on the eve of a gubernatorial election and unless Senator McCarter of Essex has the hardihood to introduce the bill for Lentz it is not at all likely that an attempt will be made to even have the proposition considered by the Legislature.

THE LARGEST SIGN.

Erected on Side of Factory of Singer Sewing Machine Works at Elizabeth.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, Dec. 27.—What is believed to be the largest sign in the world is being erected on the factories of the Singer Sewing Machine Company. It is to be 683 feet long and fifteen feet high; is of the wire screen order, and upon the screen are to be wooden letters nine feet high and four feet wide. The screen is stretched on a massive iron frame.

It is longer than two ordinary city blocks, and the trademark of the company, a shuttle or bobbin, will be the size of an ordinary row boat. The sign will weigh about fifty tons. The wooden letters have all been carved by hand.

Newfoundland's Iron Ore.

What the gold reefs of Johannesburg are to the Transvaal, the Wabana iron beds are to Newfoundland. They form immense deposits of rich red hematite ore, three miles long and several hundred feet wide, and showing 34,000,000 tons in sight above water. The beds dip downward at an angle of eight degrees, and it is believed that they extend below the sea in practically unlimited quantity, though what is now in sight will suffice for a generation's work. To all intents and purposes the mine is open quarry. The ore is got at by chopping off a surface covering of earth and rock and then loosening the hematite with charges of dynamite.—Chicago Daily News.

CROWN FOR ALBANY.

British Boy Duke Now Is Ruler of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha.

How He Came to Succeed to the Crown of His Uncle, the Late Duke of Edinburgh—Wales Waived His Rights.

It is owing to the fact that the duke of Connaught and his only son, Prince Arthur, waived their rights of succession to the throne of Saxe-Coburg that the young duke of Albany, son of Prince Leopold, who was the most delicate of all Queen Victoria's children, now succeeds as sovereign duke of the two German duchies in question.

In order to understand how an English prince, who is likewise a British peer, comes to succeed to the crown of one of the numerous independent states of central Europe comprised in the federation known as the German empire, it is necessary to recall the fact that Queen Victoria's husband was the younger of the two sons of the duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, Ernest I. The elder of these two sons, Ernest II., died a few years ago without issue, his crown therefore devolving on sons of his younger brother, Albert, consort of Queen Victoria, and who had preceded him. The English constitution will not permit a foreign crown to be held simultaneously with that of Great Britain, and the constitution of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha is likewise opposed to a foreign ruler becoming sovereign of the two duchies. The heir apparent of the British crown can be titular sovereign of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha until he ascends the throne of Great Britain, but even in that case it is stipulated by the Coburg constitution that he should appoint a viceroy or stadtholder to administer the sovereignty of the duchy, it being regarded as inadmissible that the heir apparent to a foreign throne should actually exercise the duties of rulership in a duchy.

DUKE OF ALBANY.
(By Agreement He Has Become Duke of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha.)

In order to avoid all these difficulties, says the Chicago Tribune, the prince of Wales some time before the death of his uncle, Duke Ernest of Saxe-Coburg, waived his own rights and those of his son and son's sons to the throne of Saxe-Coburg. His abandonment was not absolute, but conditional. True, he renounced his own rights and those of his children, but only to his younger brothers and to their male descendants. In the event of their dying without issue or without ascending the throne of Coburg and Gotha, the crown of these two duchies does not pass to the other members of the house of Coburg, as has been stated, but reverts to the prince of Wales or rather to his son and grandsons.

When the prince of Wales waived his rights to the throne of Coburg and Gotha he did so in favor of a second brother, Alfred, the sailor duke of Edinburgh, who, on the death of their uncle, Ernest, succeeded to the throne of Coburg and Gotha. Duke Alfred had an only son bearing his name, who, broken in mind and body by dissipation, into which he had been led while doing military service at Berlin, committed suicide a couple of years ago, a few days after the celebration of his parents' silver wedding. The necessity of selecting an heir to the ducal throne then became apparent, and Duke Alfred's younger brother, Arthur, duke of Connaught, Queen Victoria's soldier son, as next in line, was gazetted as crown prince, but when the duke of Connaught discovered that it was expected that he should transfer his abode from England to Germany and sever his connection with the British army, which he hopes one day to command, he waived his claims and those of his son to the young Prince Leopold, only son of his deceased younger brother, the duke of Albany.

The people of Coburg agreed to his succession, but insisted on special arrangements being made for his guardianship and for the regency in the event of his succession during his minority. According to the terms of these arrangements it is Duke Alfred's son-in-law, the prince of Hohenlohe-Langenberg, son of the viceroy of Alsace-Lorraine, who becomes regent of the duchies until the young duke of Albany becomes of age, a couple of years hence, when he will find himself at the head of a small sovereignty, but in the possession of private estates worth considerably over $500,000 a year. Eight months ago he was a penniless schoolboy at Eton, looked upon by the royal family in England in the light of a dependent and a poor relation; to-day, through the death of an uncle, through the suicide of a cousin, and the withdrawal of another uncle and cousin, he finds himself a full-fledged reigning sovereign.

Prison Breaking.

The gift of prison breaking is among the rarest of human gifts. Jack Sheppard, for instance, was born with the genius of escape, and it is unlikely that the best instruction would have improved his genius. The handcuffs which could inclose his wrists were never forged; no wall was ever built that he, stripling as he was, could not batter down, and the barest cell his guardians could prepare always contained whatever materials were needed for his escape. Latude, whose supposed persecution was a support to the French revolution, possessed Jack Sheppard's talent in a less degree. It was rather coolness than ingenuity which enabled him to escape the restraints imposed by a severe government, and the famous rope ladder was not all of his own making. The worst is that, pretty as the gift is, few men of distinction have the opportunity of exercising it. The prison breaker too often blushes unseen because there are no walls for him to scale. But for once talent and occasion met in Capt. Aylmer Haldane, whose escape from Pretoria is among the most brilliant exploits of the Boer war.—London Spectator.

Inevitable.

Bobby came home one day covered with dirt and bruises, and trundling a broken bicycle.

"What on earth have you been doing, my child?" exclaimed his terrified mother.

"I ran over a big dog and took a fall," explained Bobby.

"Couldn't you see him and give him the road?"

"Yes, I saw him and was turning out, but when I got within about ten feet of him I shut my eyes, and before I got 'em open again I'd run into him."

"For the land's sake, what did you shut your eyes for?"

"Couldn't help it. Had to sneeze. If you think you can hold your eyes open when the sneeze comes, you just try it some day."

If the reader thinks Bobby's excuse was not a valid one let him try it some day "when the sneeze comes."—Youth's Companion.

English Beekeepers and the Dahlia.

The dahlia is deservedly a favorite flower in most country districts nowadays. A row of brilliant red dahlias on either side of the garden walk are charming and effective. The flower, too, deserves our esteem in that it blooms when most of the good things of summer are hasting to decay. We do not hear beekeepers telling stories against the dahlia nowadays, but it was decidedly a suspect in former days. Authorities held that the cultivation of the dahlia was quite incompatible with successful beekeeping. The bees, it used to be said, were rendered drunk and incapable by feeding on the honey of those flowers; some would die from the effects, while those that recovered made little or no honey when they arrived home at the hive.—London Express.

PROPOSED CHANGES AT SEWAGE DISPOSAL BEDS.

Full Text Of Report Regarding Sewers Of Committee On Streets And Sewers.

COMPOSED OF RECOMMENDATIONS OF EXPERT.

DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF SEPTIC TANKS AND CONTACT BEDS PROPOSED.

Expert Osgood Explains Operation Of Proposed Changes, Their Cost Of Operation, Capacity and Room For Expansion—Committee Approves All His Suggestions.

Following is the full text of that part of the report of the Councilmanic committee on streets and sewers which relates to the subject of sewers and the recommended changes at the city sewage disposal beds:

SEWERS.

The pipe system has worked in an entirely satisfactory manner during the year, and the disposal beds, notwithstanding the fact that they are overworked, have done remarkably well.

Taking advantage of the dry season, the Carlton avenue sewer was recemented in order to prevent leakage during times of high water, and the Kensington avenue sewer should be similarly treated.

We have had under consideration several plans for securing additional disposal facilities, which were submitted to Joseph O. Osgood, as consulting engineer, who has given the matter much study and very careful consideration in all its aspects. His recommendations are as follows:

"It is proposed to utilize at present about 2 1 4 acres of the existing beds, as shown more specifically elsewhere, for the construction of septic tanks and a double contact system of bacterial beds, so located and operated that the works will be about 200 feet from the nearest street and the sewage will not appear on the surface of the ground until purified and ready for discharge into Green brook.

HISTORY OF PROCESS RECOMMENDED.

As both "Septic Tanks" and "Contact Beds" are of comparatively recent introduction it may be well to sketch briefly their history and the experience of others with them.

SEPTIC TANKS.

For many years the principles on which the efficiency of septic tanks depends, have been made use of in the ordinary cesspool and in special devices for the liquefaction and partial disposal of the solid matters contained in sewage, but the septic tank in its present application seems to have been first made use of almost simultaneously in England and this country about five years ago.

In 1895, Donald Cameron, the City Surveyor of Exeter, England, built a tank holding about 54,000 gallons (18 to 24 hours' flow of sewage from the district served) for treating the sewage from a part of the city. The result of passing the sewage of the district continuously through this tank was the removal of about 50 per cent. of the objectional impurities in it and the liquefaction of more than three-fourths of the solid material.

After three years' use without cleaning it is recently stated that the deposit of sediment at the bottom of the tank was under four feet deep and that the insoluble organic matter has been gradually broken up by the bacteria, while the inorganic substances have been kept in suspension by the gases and have passed off in the flow, so that the quantity does not sensibly increase. From the septic tank the sewage, after falling over an aerating weir, flowed to coarse contact filters of coke breeze or clinkers.

In 1897 the system was approved for the whole city of Exeter (England) with a population of 46,000. Since its introduction in Exeter, septic tanks have been made use of for the partial purification of sewage in many places in England and, on a smaller scale, in this country, with very satisfactory results.

In 1894, Prof. A. N. Talbot designed septic tanks for Champaign and Urbana, Illinois.

The Champaign tank is much smaller than the English tanks in proportion to the amount of sewage passing through it, yet has shown a much higher efficiency. For Madison, Wisconsin, septic tanks holding 400,000 gallons have recently been recommended for the disposal, in connection with contact beds, of an average daily flow of 600 000 gallons of sewage. Septic tanks on a smaller scale are now in use in several places in New Jersey.

The greatest application of them has, however, been made in England and notably at Leeds and Manchester. After extended experiments on a very large scale, an able commission appointed in 1898, has recommended septic tanks and double contact beds for the treatment of a daily flow of 30,000,000 gallons of sewage from the latter city.

The septic tank owes its efficiency largely, it is said, by the bacteriologists, to the presence of certain kinds of bacteria which have the power of breaking up and liquefying cellulose and other solid substances, and do their work most effectively in the absence of air. They convert solids into liquids and gases, and the effluent from the septic tank is found, if the process is not carried too far and if the escaping liquid is again aerated on issuing from the tank, to be in the best condition to be nitrified by intermittent filtration or passage through contact beds.

CONTACT BEDS.

It was discovered by Mr. Dibdin about eight years ago as the result of his experiments on a large scale with London sewage at Barking, England, that "Contact Beds" of coarse material in which the sewage was retained for an hour or two after filling, were very much more effective than the sand filters previously used.

Since then extensive practical tests both on a small and a large scale have been made in various English towns; and coarse contact beds form an important part of the machinery for purifying sewage in most of the more recent installations. It was soon found that better results could be obtained on the same area by passing the sewage through two beds in series than through one; although where the sewage is first passed through a septic tank a single contact has been found sufficient in some cases.

The theory of the contact bed seems to be that the large openings in the coarser material permit of more complete aeration when the sewage is drawn off; and the nitrifying bacteria, which require oxygen for their work, are enabled to operate more effectively. They are also enabled to work throughout the bed and for a longer period than in the ordinary intermittent sand filter. As a result they render harmless about ten times as much organic matter in a contact bed as in the same area of ordinary sand filter, where an extreme degree of purity is not required.

PRESENT FLOW OF SEWAGE.

The present flow of Plainfield sewage is a little more than 450,000 gallons daily, of which nearly two-thirds occurs between 8:30 in the morning and 8:30 in the evening, and one-third in the remaining twelve hours; the maximum flow being 50 per cent. more and the minimum flow 59 per cent. less than the average for the 24 hours. At times in the past the flow has been greatly increased by ground water getting into the sewers. There is now much less trouble from this source, but in times of long continued heavy rains there is still a marked increase in the flow through the sewers. This addition to the ordinary flow, being rain water, does not add to the organic matters in the sewage, and the larger flow of weak sewage, provided the changes in rate of flow are not too rapid, is not likely to affect much the efficiency of the works in disposing of organic matter.

DESCRIPTION OF WORKS PROPOSED.
SEPTIC TANKS.

The new works proposed consist, first, of two septic tanks of concrete under one roof, each tank being about 50 feet by 100 feet in plan and six feet deep below the water surface, and capable of holding normally 225,000 gallons. Into one or both of these as desired, the sewage is to flow constantly from the sewers. The total normal capacity of the two tanks (450 000 gallons) is practically equivalent to the present daily flow of sewage, so that with both in use the sewage will remain in the tanks about 24 hours, the solid material falling to the bottom and being retained for the bacteria to act upon, while the liquid portion flows constantly over the outlet weir

FESTIVALS TONIGHT.

Several Churches Will Hold Their Christmas Entertainments This Evening.

The children of the Sunday-school of the Calvary Baptist (colored) church will be entertained this evening by an entertainment and tree. Besides music and recitations there will be an address by Rev. George H Jones upon "The Sunday-school Work."

The children of the Sunday-school of Holy Cross Episcopal church will have their annual Christmas festival and tree this evening. Services will first be held in the church. The distribution of gifts will take place in the parish house, where an artistically decorated tree will be lighted.

The Christmas festival and tree of the Sunday-school of Grace Episcopal church will be held this evening. The services in the church will be followed by the distribution of gifts from a tree in the parish house at the corner of Sixth street and Sycamore avenue. At the services in the church the children will sing carols and there will be an address by the rector, Rev. E. M. Rodman.

Hope chapel will hold its Christmas entertainment this evening. Rev. Dr. Richards will tell of his visit to the Holy Land, and there will be stereopticon views showing scenes and events in the life of Christ. Santa Claus will assist in the distribution of gifts to the younger members of the school.

TWO SOCIETY EVENTS.

Dinner Given By Mrs. L. W. Serrell and Subscription Dance For Young Married People at Casino.

A delightful dinner was given last evening by Mrs. L. W. Serrell, of West Seventh street, to the members of the cast that is to present "Mr. Bob" at the Casino next Monday evening. Covers were laid for ten. The table decorations consisted of red roses, and the favors were bisque cats. The favors were very appropriate, as cats have very much to do with making "Mr. Bob" a success

After the dinner the cast went to the Casino and participated in the first of a series of four subscription dances for young married people that are given under the supervision of F. W. Yates. There were about eighty guests present at the dance, and during the evening supper was served. The next dance will be given Wednesday evening, Jan. 23.

Officers for Franklin Council.

On account of the great interest taken in the election of officers at the meeting of Franklin Council, No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M., last evening, it was decided to postpone the Christmas tree celebration till next week Thursday evening. The following officers were elected for the coming year: Councilor, Henry Kliner; vice-councilor, Wm. A. Kriney; assistant recording secretary, Eph Compton; conductor, I. N. Wyckoff; warden, Wm. J. Hartpence; inside sentinel, Harry Winn; outside sentinel, G. S Martin; trustee, H. B. MacDonald; representative, H. B Thorn.

In Honor of a Friend.

Miss Grace Gaddis, of Regent street, gave a pleasant party to a number of friends last evening in honor of her guest, Miss Lulu Myles, of Elizabeth. The young people passed several hours in a delightful manner after which refreshments were served. Those present were the Misses Bessie Farlee, Hattie McLaughlin, Roberta Thorn, Mamie Weiss and Nettie Weiss, William Porter, John Duckworth, Thomas Chamberlain, Lendrum Jennings, Frank Conover, Walter Roll and Arthur Humble.

Doty Pleaded Guilty.

Nelson M. Doty, formerly of this city, who was arrested in Newark three weeks ago for attempting to pass a forged check upon a clothing merchant of that city, yesterday before Judge Skinner in the Court of Quarter Sessions pleaded guilty to five indictments for "forgery and uttering." The other indictments against Doty were for obtaining money in a similar manner as that attempted upon the Newark clothier. Doty will be sentenced Monday.

Death of Former Plainfielder.

William Reed, formerly of this city, where he was employed at the Pond Tool Works, died yesterday in a Brooklyn hospital, where he had been for some days. The deceased was well-known in this city, being an active worker at Hope chapel. He was also a member of Columbia Lodge, No. 48, A. O. U. W. The body has been taken to the son's residence in Newark and burial will take place at Somerville tomorrow.

YEAR'S WORK REVIEWED BY COMMON COUNCIL

Reports of Various Committees and City Officials Presented at Last Night's Meeting.

ALL IN GOOD CONDITION.

INTERESTING REPORT PRESENTED BY FIRE CHIEF DOANE.

Recommended Placing the Fire Alarm Wires Under Ground—Insurance Rates Reduced—Praise for Police Department.

The adjourned meeting of the Common Council last evening was devoted entirely to the consideration of routine matters. The members did not finish the business but adjourned to Friday evening, January 4, when the year's business will be closed.

All the members were present. Geo. B. Wean acted as clerk pro-tem in the absence of J. T. MacMurray, who is ill. A communication was received from W. Palmer Smith asking for the remittance of $25 paid as an assessment on property located on Prospect avenue which he does not own. The assessment was in error and the Council authorized the return of the amount as requested. Frazee C. Putnam, a call man in the fire department, tendered his resignation to take effect January 1. The bond of Constable Peter V. Weaver was received and referred to the Corporation Counsel for examination.

The annual report of City Judge Wm. N. Runyon showed that 455 persons were arraigned before him, of which number 52 were committed and sentence suspended on 256. There were 33 discharged and 134 fined. The total amount received was $615 50 and $120 50 disbursed, leaving a balance of $495.

The report of Captain of Police P. S. Kiely showed that there had been 498 arrests during the year, 409 whites and 89 colored people. There were 43 held for the Grand Jury. The expenses of the department amounted to $14,541.43. Capt. Kiely praised his command for their efficiency and attention to duty. He thanked the Police Board for its hearty co-operation and assistance. He referred to the new quarters as being commodious and ample. He also paid a touching tribute to the late Geo. W. Grant, former captain, and spoke of his faithfulness and long service in the department.

The report of the Street and Sewers Committee was received and filed. The full text will be found in another column.

Street Commissioner A. J. Gavett reported thirteen sewer permits granted during the past three months. Building Inspector T. O. Doane reported granting 12 building permits during December. He also reported 160 permits granted during the year.

As chief of the fire department, Mr. Doane presented his annual report, which shows that there are 292 hydrants, 20 four-way and 272 two-way, an increase of two this year. There is 5,700 feet of hose in the department, of which 3,000 is in fair condition and 1,700 in poor condition. Nine horses are owned by the city and two are hired for the steamer. During the year there were 92 fire alarms, 44 box alarms, 33 by telephone and 15 stills. The following table of losses and insurance is: Loss on buildings, $22 293; insurance on buildings, $154,900; loss on contents, $26 716; insurance on contents, $93,800; total insurance involved, $248 700; total insurance collected, $49,009; total property involved, $337 540; real estate, $248 200; personal, $119,340. The causes of the various fires were: Defective flues, 25; unknown, 11; stoves and ranges, 7; locomotive sparks, 7; grass, 4; lamp 5; heaters, 4; steam, 3; kerosene stoves, 3; matches, 3; children and matches, 3; bon-fires, 3; spontaneous combustion, 2; gasolene, stoves, 2; boys and cigarettes, burning paper, bed, laundry compound, sulphur candles, ashes, break, gas stove, alcohol explosion, mice and matches, 1 each.

The chief recommended the placing of the fire alarm wires underground next year, also the placing of a transmitter in his office so that he may more quickly transmit fire alarms by telephone. He renewed his request for three extra call men, two for No. 2 house and one for No. 3 house. He also called attention to the fact that owing to the efficient fire department the insurance rates have been decreased 20 per cent. on dwellings and 15 per cent. in the mercantile department. He reported the department

AT RELIEF ASSOCIATION.

Gave Entertainment to Poor Children And Had Gifts For Them All—A Christmas Tree.

Fully three hundred worthy children gathered at the rooms of the Relief Association on West Front street yesterday afternoon and enjoyed the festivities arranged by the Christmas tree committee. There were just fifty more children present than had been invited, but everyone was remembered with an orange, toys and some candy. Owing to the fact that the people of Plainfield responded so generously the committee was enabled to take care of the children nicely. The available money was spent for warm caps, stockings and mittens and these were given the children. J. A. Smith & Bro., and Neuman Bros., each donated a box of oranges.

A beautiful tree was erected and decorated. Miss VanBoskerck was the chairman of the committee in charge, which consisted of Mrs. O. L. Jenkins, Mrs. E. T. Barrows, Mrs. Ernest B. Ackerman, Mrs. W. A. Woodruff, Miss Mary Tweedy and Mrs. J. K. Myers, as president of the Relief Association, a member ex-officio. The committee desire to thank one and all for the assistance given them.

DINNER AT PARK AVENUE HOTEL.

Christmas Dinner Will Be Given at the Hotel Sunday.

Owing to the fact that many of the guests at the Park Avenue Hotel were away Christmas Day, Manager John D. Bailey has arranged to give the dinner intended for that day next Sunday, when all will be home. Anyone outside wishing to partake of the excellent dinner to be served should notify Mr. Bailey by tomorrow evening. Below is the menu that will be served:

Coddington; prophet, Francis J. Blatz; chief of records, Francis E. Whiteside; collector of wampum, William B. Sharp; keeper of wampum, Meyer Leichtentritt; representative to Great Council, William A. Westphal; alternate, Fred J. Huff; trustees, Dr. A. H. Dundon, Francis J. Blatz and William A. Westphal. The installation will probably take place Thursday evening, Jan. 10.

Petition For Mr. Nelson.

A petition is being numerously signed by commuters and citizens, which is to be presented to the officials of the Central Railroad, praying that Edward Nelson, for so many years ticket agent at the North Avenue station, be appointed to the position of ticket agent at the new North Avenue station.

Rode Wheel on Sidewalk.

A young man who gave the name of Bruce Linn was arrested yesterday afternoon by Patrolman McCarthy for riding on the sidewalk. This being the young man's first offense, City Judge Runyon suspended sentence.

Transferred to Westfield.

A. V. Lunger, of 201 Watchung avenue, who has been representing the Prudential Insurance Company at Washington, Warren county, has been transferred to the Westfield district of the company.

Miss Loretta Quinn, of Park avenue, is convalescing from a severe illness.

CHRISTMAS FESTIVALS HELD AT MANY CHURCHES.

Entertaining Programmes Were Provided By Old And Young Of The Sunday-Schools.

SANTA CLAUS APPEARED AT SEVERAL CHURCHES.

GIFTS AND CANDY WERE GENEROUSLY DISTRIBUTED AMONG THOSE WHO ATTENDED.

Madame Jarley's Wax Works Was Feature At Entertainment At Park Avenue Baptist Church—Professional Entertainers At Crescent Avenue And Trinity Reformed Churches—The Other Programmes.

The Christmas festivals of a majority of the local Sunday-schools were held last evening when a great variety of entertainments were provided. All were much enjoyed and largely attended. They were as follows:

TRINITY REFORMED.

The members of the primary department of Trinity Reformed church Sunday-school and the little folks who belong to the cradle-roll had a jolly time yesterday afternoon at the church, when the annual Christmas festivities were held. The little folks occupied the primary department room, while the members and friends of the Sunday-school were given seats in the main room. The members of the cradle-roll were accompanied by their mothers.

The following excellent programme was given: Song, "Christmas Time," school; recitations, "The Round Table," Perry Holder; "The Christmas Message," Ellsworth Bennett; "Little Sister's Dilemma," Arthur Gaskell; "A Christmas Story," Helen Roberts; song, "Such a Lovely Thing Happened," school; recitations, "Santa's Visit," Beatrice Tier; "Little Sunbeam," May Porter; "Charley's Christmas Wish," Rowland Reighton; "Shoes or Stockings," Elsie Tier; song, "Under the Snow," Mildred Caleen, Anna Boss and Bessie Randall; recitations, "Cradled in a Manger," Helen Woolley; "Willie's Santa Claus," Ralph Martin.

After the entertainment ice cream, cake and candy were distributed among the scholars and a good social time was enjoyed. Among the members of the cradle-roll present were the following: Arther Henry Seader, Mildred Ida Oliver, Marguerite H. Barkalew, Sidney Edward Luckey, Claude Roeder, Baetrice T. Bodine, Russel E. Kinney, Jack W. Rogers, Harriett E Higgins, Marjorie Alberta Storr, Grace Heminway Vail, Theodocia Vail, Elmer Case Saums, Mary Eleanor Roth, Harry Seader, Howard Kline Willett, Alfred Edwin Willett and Harold Clifford Gayle.

The entertainment was in charge of the superintendent, Mrs. Josie M. Tier, assisted by these teachers: Mrs. Schoefield, Mrs. Beighton, Miss Berkaw, Mrs. Randall, Miss Olive Wikoff, Miss Wyman, Miss Krietling and William Olmsted.

Mrs. Tier was presented with a silk umbrella by the teachers of her department.

In the evening the older scholars and friends of the Sunday school were entertained by Prof. Hendrickson, of New York, a sleight-of-hand performer. He is very clever and the varied programme he gave held the close attention of all present. He performed many new tricks and he succeeded perfectly in deceiving the eyes of all who wrtched him closely. After the entertainment ice cream and cake was served to all. The affair was in charge of a committee of which Edgar Sheppard was the chairman.

FIRST M. E. CHURCH.

If there is one time in the lives of young children when they look forward to enjoyment it is at the holiday season. This was particularly true in regard to the Christmas festival and tree held yesterday afternoon by the primary department of the First Methodist Sunday-school.

The little folks had a tea party and were provided with a bountiful supply of ice cream and other delicacies. There were more than fifty little ones seated about a long table when a reporter for The Daily Press looked in upon them. After they had been satisfied in this particular, the distribution of gifts was inaugurated. For half an hour the committee was kept busy handing out dolls to the girls, and sail boats to the boys, while boxes of candies were given each child. The committee of arrangements consisted of Miss Elizabeth Horne, Mrs. S. H. Tugwell and Miss Mabel Templin.

In the evening the older scholars were entertained with a more elaborate programme, consisting principally of tableaux, etc. The first tableaux was a poem entitled the "Bride of Malahite." It was read by J. R. Joy, the superintendent. The tableaux was illustrated by moving pictures and was as interesting as it was beautiful.

Miss Bessie Valiant was the bride and Donald McGee the groom. The other characters were personated by Edna French, Elsie Horne, Mabel Templin, Lizzie Stafford, Mrs. S. H. Tugwell, Mrs. Arthur Crane and Gertrude Snodgrass. The second tableaux was entitled "A Children's Xmas Party." The characters were taken by Rowland Horne, Arthur Crane, Archie Derbie, Thomas McDonald, Ray Snodgrass and George Sprague.

After the interesting exercises came the distribution of gifts by Santa Claus, personated by Nelson Miller. For some reason Santa could not find the chimney and he was seen to appear first in the gallery, coming from the infants' department. He seemed to have lost his way. To aid Santa in reaching the children J. Hervey Doane placed a ladder for him and he made his way to the body of the church where he remembered the good boys and girls and also some others who used to be boys and girls.

The festival was one of the best held by this Sunday school in some years. The ladies in charge of the affair have accomplished much hard work. In the primary department Mrs. S. H. Tugwell deserves much credit, while for the entertainment of last evening Miss Bertha Whitney, the well known elocutionist, deserves high praise. Miss Whitney has devoted considerable time in drilling those who took part in the tableaux and the excellent rendition is creditable to her ability.

FIRST BAPTIST.

The little folks who attend the Sunday-school of the First Baptist church had a delightful time yesterday afternoon on the occasion of the annual Christmas festival and tree. It was held in the Sunday-school room, where a handsomely decorated tree was in evidence. The exercises were by the infant department. Among those who entertained a large number of the parents of the school as well as the children were: Lawrence French, Bulah Rogers, Loraine Dunn, Helen Adams, George Rogers. A pretty scene was a recitation entitled "The Little One's Welcome," in which Marian Hall, Eleanor Johnson, Helen Myers, Florence Neal, Bessie Carson, Hazel Morrison and Loraine Dunn took part. "How He Came," a recitation by Charles Lee, Jr., Russell Miller, Pearson Bailey, George Rogers and Fred Krause was also well done. A pretty feature of the entertainment was the birthday exercise, a cradle song, participated in by several little children, among them being little Miss Mary, the year old infant of Mr. and Mrs. J. Hervey Buchanan, who dropped her first offering in the birthday box. Mrs. J. A. Powlison is superintendent of the primary department and credit for the successful carrying out of the programme is due largely to her painstaking efforts.

WARREN CHAPEL.

The Christmas exercises of the primary department of Warren chapel were held yesterday afternoon. As usual they were interesting and delighted those who had the pleasure of listening to the entertainment and witnessing the festivities. In the absence of J. W. Gavett, chairman of the Christmas entertainment committee, Mrs. A. V. D. Honeyman looked after the little ones, and, assisted by Rev. J. W. McKelvey, the pastor, saw that everything passed off smoothly.

This school has 468 scholars and it is safe to say but few were absent. Previous to the distribution of the gifts by a Santa Claus, personated by a young man too modest to have his name divulged, there were recitations by Frank Whiteley, a song by Gertrude and Florence Cooley, Gertie Mair, Ada Mills, Mamie Prentiss, Jennie Rowe, Helen Hanson, Satie Wilson, Ida and Edith Wheeler, Jessie Reynolds, Clara Smith, Adelaide Stiglitz.

One of the interesting features of the afternoon was the reading of a Christmas story by Miss Phœbe Lovel. Then the children were given their

PROPOSED CHANGES AT SEWAGE DISPOSAL BEDS.

to the contact beds.

GASES.

The roof over the septic tanks is to be of wood covered with tar and gravel and is to be made as tight as practicable. Its purpose is principally to retain heat in the sewage but it will serve also to concentrate the gases from the sewage so that they may be conveniently burned or otherwise disposed of.

SLUDGE.

The experience in disposing of sludge in septic tanks varies very much in different places and with different classes of sewage, and no one can state exact results in advance.

In some cases there has been little or no accumulation of sludge after the first few months, but generally it is found that, although the amount of sludge to be disposed of is very much reduced, it is necessary at varying intervals to remove part of it from the tank. For this purpose an eight inch pipe with valve is provided leading from the bottom of each tank to a common outlet at one corner of the present sand filter bed No. 11, where the sludge can, when necessary, be emptied on the surface of the bed to dry; as it need be emptied only at convenient intervals, it can be more readily dried and disposed of.

OPERATION OF SEPTIC TANK.

As the sewage enters the septic tanks, the solid matter in suspenion falls to the bottom and a scum begins to form on the surface of the liquid. As the sewage slowly flows toward the outlet a considerable part of the organic matter in suspension is either liquefied or passes off as gas, the coarser particles remaining in the sludge with the inorganic sediment to be further acted on by the bacteria.

AERATING WEIRS.

At the further end of the tanks from the sewer, openings are made in each tank below the surface of the liquid, through which the settled sewage, free from scum, is to flow to weirs, extending across the ends of both tanks, and over their crests in a thin sheet to a distributing trough below. The purpose of these weirs is to mingle air with the sewage and thus help the action of the aerobic or nitrifying bacteria in the contact beds.

CONTACT BEDS.

2d—The eight contact beds are all of the same size, 92 feet by 106 feet in plan, with concrete walls and floors; and are filled four feet deep with stone or other hard material in sizes up to one inch in diameter, in which the bacterial work is to be done; with a cover of another foot of similar coarse material. They are divided into two similar systems of four beds each, on different levels; the system nearest the septic tanks being high enough to discharge its effluent by gravity to the lower beds at the proper level. From the common distributing trough the sewage, cleared of sludge and partially purified in the septic tanks, passes through a 12 inch pipe in the concrete wall between two of the contact beds, to a gate chamber in the center of the upper contact system of four beds; where it is diverted by wooden stop planks to each of the four beds in succession. It is distributed over the beds, below the cover of coarse material, by means of open jointed vitrified pipes.

When it has filled one bed to the desired level it is diverted to the next and the sewage is retained in the first bed an hour or more, as may be necessary to give the bacteria sufficient time for their work. It is then drawn off from the bottom through a 12-inch gate, in the lower part of the gate chamber, to a 12 inch pipe forming a common outlet for the four beds of the system, and passes to a similar gate chamber in the second or lower system of beds, where the process is repeated. The fully purified sewage is discharged through the lower part of the second gate chamber into a 12 inch sewer laid under the present sand filter bed No. 18 to the outlet at Green brook. The operations when once started are continuous, the beds of each system being filled and emptied in rotation and each one resting in turn for a period depending somewhat on the rate of flow and other conditions. Should it be thought desirable in the future, for any reason, to filter the effluent through course sand, the present filter bed No. 18 could be readily re constructed for the purpose.

CAPACITY OF THE PROPOSED WORKS.

It is not practicable to state in advance just how much Plainfield sewage can be treated to the best advantage in the two septic tanks. Judging from the experience in other places it may, however, be said, with confidence that the tank capacity is more than sufficient for the present flow and will probably prove sufficient for a flow of at least 900,000 gallons per day. Whenever found inadequate, additional tanks can readily be constructed to work in connection with those now planned and with no more expense than if erected now.

The double contact beds, if worked at the rate proposed for Manchester, will handle an average flow of 800 000 gallons per day, and will probably prove ample for 1,200,000 gallons per day.

EXPENSE OF OPERATION.

Operating the works will require two men regularly, one of whom must be on duty through the night. One of the men at least should be young and active and of sufficient intelligence to comprehend thoroughly the instructions given him in regard to the methods of operating the works. The processes are entirely simple but must be performed regularly at their proper times in order to get the best results.

In addition to the two men employed regularly, occasional labor will be required for special repairs on cleaning or for handling and carting away sludge when it is necessary to draw it from the septic tanks.

When not overworked the beds are not likely to be clogged or have their efficiency much reduced so long as the septic tanks do their work thoroughly. At times, however, it may be necessary to work over portions of the filling material of the beds in order to keep them in the best condition.

Exclusive of the maintenance and renewal account, which may be estimated at 5 per cent of the cost of the work, probably $1,500 per year will be sufficient for the operation of the plant.

ROOM FOR EXPANSION.

Referring to the plans of the present filter beds and of the proposed improvements, it will be observed that the latter occupy a little over a quarter of filter bed No. 6 and the whole of filter beds Nos. 10 and 14; and that the other beds are left undisturbed to be used as may be desired either for emergencies as filter beds, or for the construction of additional improvements in the future, when an increased volume of sewage makes enlargement necessary.

By utilizing in the future the two rows of beds northwest of the main sewer and southwest of the proposed improvements, in connection with them and on the same general plan, the proposed capacity for sewage disposal can be nearly quadrupled, without bringing the works nearer to the streets than are those now planned.

Accompanying this report are plans and specifications for the proposed works and an approximate estimate of cost. In preparing these I have had the able assistance of A. J. Gavett, your City Surveyor and Street Commissioner, who is entitled to credit for many valuable suggestions as well as for the final drawing of the plans.

Respectfully submitted,

Jos. O. Osgood."

The Committee on Streets and Sewers concurs in the above recommendations of Mr. Osgood and recommends that the plans and specifications, having been approved by the State Board of Sewerage Commissioners, be adopted by the Common Council early in 1901, and that proposals be invited for constructing the works.

THE BOOZ INQUIRY.

Brother of Dead Cadet Denies Early Testimony.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Dec. 28.—There was an unusually large attendance of spectators at both the morning and afternoon sessions of the court of inquiry at the Military academy yesterday. The fact that two witnesses from distant points would be called upon to testify was the cause of the increased interest. One of these was Horace C. Booz, a civil engineer of Buffalo, and P. O. Phillips of East Cleveland, who was heralded as a congressman, but he told the press representatives that he was never elected to congress. The testimony given by the former was principally a refutation of the statement made about his brother, former Cadet Oscar L. Booz of Bristol, Pa., who died recently, it is alleged, from the effects of the severe hazing which he received while at the West Point academy two years ago. Several of the cadet witnesses during the progress of the investigation accused Oscar of having shown cowardice in his fight with Cadet Keller in August, 1898, and they also accused him of untruthfulness.

Instructor In Mathematics Lieutenant Coe in his testimony last week stated that Booz was not possessed of sufficient mental capacity to successfully pass the necessary examination at the academy. His brother stated that this was not so, as the manner in which the former cadet had passed his examinations at the preparatory school in Bustleton, Pa., was sufficient to prove that Oscar was possessed of sufficient intellect. On the other hand, he said Oscar was not untruthful, and he was anything but a coward.

Mr. Phillips' principal reason for appearing before the court was to show that he had not visited the academy in 1898 for the purpose of saving his son from being hazed. He staid here for about 10 or 11 days in August of that year, shortly after the fight between Booz and Keller had taken place. Mr. and Mrs. Booz stopped at the same hotel with him, but neither of them complained of their son's treatment.

He said that in his opinion Booz was not of the kind of material out of which good army officers could be made.

One of the witnesses at the morning session informed the court that he had seen Cadet Breth so far exhausted from severe exercising that stimulants had to be given him in his tent in 1897.

In the afternoon two other cadets of Breth's class said they had seen him in a nervous condition, his body, arms and legs twitching after he had been hazed, but one of them said he believed Breth was pretending prostration.

There still remain 13 cadets of the first class to be examined.

A Corner In Beans.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 28.—The corner on the white bean market being manipulated by the Dickinsons in Chicago is having a bullish effect on prices here. Within two weeks the price on white beans has gone up from $1.84 per bushel to $2.20, and yesterday at one part of the market the price reached $2.25. It is the opinion of St. Louis merchants that the price may go up as high as $2.50 before the corner ceases. According to local merchants, the Dickinsons have got the market at their mercy, and there are only 300 cars in Chicago and 50 in St. Louis now owned by individuals independent of the corner.

Growth of German Navy.

BERLIN, Dec. 28.—The Berliner Post, summarizing Germany's naval progress this year, says that seven vessels have been launched, including two battleships, one large cruiser and four small cruisers. The paper also calls attention to the "unprecedented activity in the building of warships," six of which are now in process of construction, including four battleships, one large cruiser and one gunboat.

Root Buys a Transport.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—The secretary of war has purchased the large freight steamer Samoa, at Hongkong, for use in the transportation to San Francisco of the volunteer army in the Philippines. The Samoa will have to be altered for the purpose, and the work will be done at Hongkong. The officials refuse to state the price paid for the vessel or the names of her owners.

It is said he has received 7,000 subscriptions.

Forty-nine Children Drowned?

BURLINGTON, Ia., Dec. 28.—A telephone message received here last night says 51 school children were skating on the river near Foster, Ia., when the ice gave way and 49 were drowned. Only two escaped to tell the tale. Foster is near Whatcheer, on the Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad. No confirmation of the rumor or details can be obtained yet.

HUNTING FOR CROWE

Omaha Kidnaper Reported In Many Places.

MAY HAVE SAILED FROM BOSTON.

On the Warren Liner For Liverpool. Another Story Locates the Child Stealer In Chicago Disguised In Woman's Clothing.

BOSTON, Dec. 28.—The Boston police have evidence to indicate, they think, that "Pat" Crowe and the other Omaha kidnapers who stole young Cudahy and returned him to his father for $25,000 are on the Warren liner Michigan bound for Liverpool, and a cable containing that information has been sent to the Scotland Yard detectives, who will be on the Liverpool docks when the steamer arrives out.

Just before the Michigan sailed from the Hoosac tunnel docks last Saturday two men who acted so suspiciously as to attract attention and who answered to the descriptions of Crowe and a kidnaper, boarded the steamer with a large amount of baggage. The steamer sailed in a very short time, but not before word of the presence of the strangers had been sent to police headquarters.

A Nantasket Beach watchman has reported to the police that he saw at the beach a big stranger, dressed like a western cattleman and carrying a big old carpet bag. He asked for a boatman to row him out to an outgoing vessel and said he would pay almost any price for the service, for he was anxious to board some vessel going to a foreign port, he did not care where, so long as it was a foreign port. He answered the description in every detail of "Pat" Crowe as it has been sent out by the Omaha police. The watchman went to notify the police, and when he returned the man was gone.

Seen In Chicago.

CHICAGO, Dec. 28.—Disguised as a woman, "Pat" Crowe, who is being sought by the police all over the United States on the charge of kidnaping Eddie Cudahy at Omaha, has been seen in Chicago within the last few days and may still be hiding here, according to statements made by Detective Sergeant James Storen, a Chicago police officer who has arrested Crowe a number of times in the past. With a view to discovering the fugitive's hiding place a search of several houses in Sixty-third street, near Stewart avenue, has been made by Storen, acting on information that Crowe had been recognized on that street Christmas day. In pursuing his quest the sergeant stumbled upon evidence which he says convinced him that Crowe has been in Chicago recently and that in the guise of a woman clothed in a black robe and heavily veiled the suspect went abroad with impunity in the streets of Englewood, the suburb where he once was resident and is well known to many people.

Crowe Seen In St. Joseph.

OMAHA, Dec. 28.—A special dispatch to The World-Herald from St. Joseph says that Patrick Carson saw "Pat" Crowe enter a saloon here. He says he is sure of the man, as he knows him well. Chief of Detectives Shea placed a posse at the disposal of Carson, and a search is being made in Crowe's haunts in South St. Joseph. In Omaha no credence is placed in the story that Crowe was in Boston or any point in the east.

Germans Want Protective Tariff.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—The vast industrial forces of Germany are organizing for a tremendous struggle with the agrarian and commercial interests, according to a report to the state department from United States Consul Schumann at Mainz. He says that the manufacturing interests of Germany surely will demand the passage of a protective tariff during the present session of the reichstag. Three of the strongest industrial societies of Germany recently convened to organize a national industrial council. The imperial government apparently was in sympathy with the movement and while the efforts so far have failed they are not to be abandoned.

A Fight With Tugeri Pirates.

VICTORIA, B. C., Dec. 28.—The steamer Miowera brings advices of a raid on the British possessions by the Tugeri tribe from Dutch New Guinea. A squad of police met the pirates from Tugeri at the mouth of Morehead river. A fight on the water ensued, the police capturing or sinking five junks. No prisoners were taken, but it is estimated that 40 were shot or drowned. There were no casualties among the government forces. Afterward the Tugeri made another raid on the Morehead villages, killing 15 persons. Six months ago the tribe concluded terms of peace with the British.

Colombian Revolutionists Defeated.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—United States Charge Beaupre at Bogota has cabled the state department that he has been informed by the Colombian government that the invading troops were overtaken by the government forces at Rosario; also that their leader, General Uribide, was defeated at Corazel, in the province of Bolivar. He was retreating with a few remaining followers through the department of Magdalena toward the Venezuelan line. The war is said to be progressing favorably for the Colombian government.

Canibalism Reported.

VICTORIA, B. C., Dec. 28.—The steamer Miowera brings advices from Queensland that a prospector named P. Killane has been killed and, according to the belief of the ship's people, eaten by the natives. It was reported that gold had been discovered near Apia, in Samoa, and that Mataafa is becoming restless and on Dec. 6 called a meeting of native chiefs.

Princeton Won Chess Match.

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—When hostilities ceased at 9 o'clock last night, without the intervention of the referees, Princeton had won the match with Yale in decisive fashion, scoring 3½ of the possible 4 points. A close struggle between Columbia and Harvard ended in the former's favor by 2½ to 1½, no less than three of the games being drawn.

Cashier Morrill Buried.

MANCHESTER, N. H., Dec. 28.—The body of Charles F. Morrill, former cashier of the defunct National Bank of the Commonwealth, arrived here yesterday from Buenos Ayres and was buried in Pine Grove cemetery. The services were brief and private, the Rev. B. W. Lockhart officiating.

BOERS HELD IN CHECK

Kitchener Unable, However, to Repel Invaders.

ASTONISHING DARING DISPLAYED.

Engagement With De Wet's Force Near Leuwkop—Two British Commands Pursuing the Western Boer Column Northward.

LONDON, Dec. 28.—The latest dispatches from South Africa show that Lord Kitchener has succeeded in holding the invading Boers in check. But he has not yet been successful in expelling them from Cape Colony, while small commandos continue to display astonishing daring and activity over an immensely wide field.

It is questionable whether his proclamation will have much effect until General De Wet has been captured. The Boers are likely to regard it as a sign of weakness and to have a wholesome dread of De Wet's vengeance if they surrender.

The proclamation is approved by the party at home that favors conciliatory terms to the Boers as a step in the right direction.

Queen Victoria, it is said, has approved the proposal to institute a new order of knighthood to reward officers who have served in South Africa. The order will probably be called the Star of Africa.

A dispatch from Vryburg, dated Dec. 20, says the Boers in considerable numbers were then making an unexpected movement westward. They had 150 wagons. The dispatch suggests that they were trekking to Damaraland, although the Boers themselves denied such an intention.

In a telegram to the war office Lord Kitchener reports that Generals Knox, Barker, Pilcher and White are engaging General De Wet's force, which is holding a position near Leuwkop.

General De Wet hopes to break through to the southward again.

Lord Kitchener also reports that in Cape Colony the Boers' eastern column is apparently headed off by the British in the neighborhood of Rietpoort spruit.

The western Boer column has gone north and is being followed by two British commands.

Under yesterday's date Lord Kitchener telegraphs the war office as follows:

"Yesterday 200 Boers attacked the police post at Boksburg. They were driven off by the police.

"At 2 o'clock this morning the enemy attacked Utrecht, but were forced to retire.

"Another party of Boers held up a train near Pan, but were driven off.

"The pursuit of the Boer forces in Cape Colony continues."

Boer Attacks Repelled.

NEWCASTLE, Natal, Dec. 28.—The Boers celebrate Christmas in the district between Standerton and Ingogo by a more or less determined attack upon every British garrison along the lines of communication. These, however, were in all cases successfully repulsed. At Utrecht the Boer commandant sent in a demand for whisky, cigars and Christmas luxuries, failing which he threatened to attack the town. His demand was ignored, and the Boers attacked Utrecht in strong force Christmas morning. They were repulsed with loss, the British casualties being but slight.

International Mining Syndicate.

CAPE TOWN, Dec. 28.—A strong international syndicate has been formed for the development of the mineral resources of Damaraland. The bulk of the capital, which is British, will be held jointly in London, Paris, Berlin and New York. The German government, which was formerly extremely discouraging toward the efforts of foreign capitalists to develop the country, is now offering every facility. The scheme includes colonization, mining, irrigation and the construction of a railway from Swakopmund to Etjimbingve. Martial law has been proclaimed in the districts of Beaufort West and Carnarvon.

Efficiency of Telephone Increased.

CHICAGO, Dec. 28.—A practical system of duplexing telephone wires by which, using an auxiliary telephone, conversations with two persons may be held simultaneously on the same wire, has been adopted by the Chicago Telephone company, and instruments for its operation will be put in immediately at many of the big wholesale stores and in offices where the use of the phone is heavy. The auxiliary telephones will as a rule be used for incoming messages, but they are so arranged that out calls may be made at the same time that the main telephone is in use. Superintendent Hibbard said that the plan had been thoroughly tested and proved a success. By its use a heavy saving in the running of wires will be made, besides more than doubling the capacity of the telephone service to firms using it heavily.

Croker Heard From.

LONDON, Dec. 28.—Mr. Richard Croker, who has been rusticating for several weeks in Carlsbad and Nice, returned to Wantage two days before Christmas, where he received a summons to appear Jan. 3 to reply to inquiries respecting his income in connection with the income tax. He left Wantage yesterday, presumably for the continent. His house today was absolutely closed, and there is no expectation of his return before next week.

This Nation Smashes Things.

WICHITA, Kan., Dec. 28.—Mrs. Carrie Nation, president of Barber County W. C. T. U., entered the Carey hotel barroom and with a stone smashed a $300 painting and a mirror valued at $100. Mrs. Nation broke mirrors in two saloons at Kiowa, Kan., some months ago and declared there is no law under which she can be prosecuted. She was lodged in the county jail, charged with malicious destruction of property.

Mother and Children Burned.

DUBOIS, Pa., Dec. 28.—In the little village of Sigel, ten miles from Bookville, the house of John Harriger was burned, and Mrs. Harriger and her two little daughters, aged 5 and 7 years, perished. Mr. Harriger was away from home working on a lumber job, and it will be some time before word can reach him.

Large Emigration From Norway.

CHRISTIANIA, Dec. 28.—More than 6,000 persons, four-fifths of whom went to the United States, emigrated from Christiania during the last 12 months as against 3,300 in 1899.

THE SCRANTON STRIKE.

Superintendent Patterson Assaulted Street Cars Still Tied Up.

SCRANTON, Pa., Dec. 28.—The first blow struck in the street car men's strike was received last evening by William Patterson, the new superintendent of the Scranton Railway company. Teamsters blocked the car he was running, and breaker boys and street urchins assaulted it with potatoes stolen from an adjacent freight car. When the trolley car reached strike headquarters, the strikers boarded it and attempted to take off the crew. Some one pulled Superintendent Patterson from the car, and he was dealt a blow on the head with a fist or club that knocked off his hat and caused him to reel.

Two strikers, Edward and Joseph Pentley, burly brothers, rushed the superintendent into a saloon, protecting him from the crowd with great difficulty, and then barred the entrance to give the superintendent time to escape by the rear door. The other strikers helped three police officers to disperse the crowd and also helped the company officials to take the stalled car to the barn.

Eleven cars were moved yesterday, but not more than six at one time. As far as is known not a single passenger was carried. Some strangers who boarded a car at Lackawanna avenue were induced to get off and accepted a free ride in one of the buses which the strikers maintain for just such a purpose.

FOR A BARGE CANAL.

State Engineer Bond Will Send Recommendation to Legislature.

ALBANY, Dec. 28.—A barge canal costing $62,000,000, following very closely the present lines of the Erie canal except that, while touching the large cities, it may not bisect them, is what State Engineer Bond will recommend to the legislature on or about Feb. 12. The most minute details will be given in the report, maps furnished, and even the character of the soil through which the excavations run will be furnished. It is probable that electricity will be recommended for motive power.

Lieutenant Governor Timothy L. Woodruff, who is in the city, is positive that the recommendations will be agreed to by the legislature, for he asserts that already 25 members of the senate are in favor of it. If the legislature passes it, the measure will go before the people next fall.

Lieutenant Governor Woodruff believes this is the most important question of the year and is of the opinion that the legislature should sit until the question is decided.

HAWAII HAPPENINGS.

Honolulu to Have a Temperance Crusade—A Gift to the Lepers.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 28.—Advices from Honolulu say that that city is about to have a temperance crusade led by the W. C. T. U. and the Ministers' union. Two representatives of the W. C. T. U., Miss Jessie McKerman and Miss Ada Nurcutt, are expected there on the steamer Coptic on Dec. 29. It is part of the plan of the crusade to diffuse sentiment in favor of the bill of Congressman Littlefield of Maine introduced in the house to absolutely prohibit the sale of intoxicants to the aborigines of the Pacific islands over which the United States exercises control.

The sum of $293 in silver dollars was taken to the leper settlement at Molokai, being $1 for each leper, as a Christmas gift from the people of Honolulu. The money was the proceeds from the annual concert for the benefit of the unfortunates.

Poison In Beer.

CHICAGO, Dec. 28.—The possibility of arsenical poisoning by beer was the topic of popular interest at the opening session of the convention of the American Chemical society here. The 100 chemists from all parts of the country turned from discourses on atoms and elements and joined in the argument growing out of the recent wholesale poisoning in England. Dr. Edward Gudeman charged the brewers with willfully introducing into beer an arsenical antiseptic to prevent the fermentation of the beverage from progressing too far, and his assertion proved the sensation of the session. Several other chemists spoke on the question, urging that all beer and other brewed liquors should be thoroughly analyzed to protect the consumers from dangers of poison.

Shot by Anarchists.

BARRE, Vt., Dec. 28.—Chief of Police Patrick Brown is in a critical condition, with small hopes for recovery, on account of three bullet wounds inflicted by Italian anarchists yesterday. The chief had been called to a hall in which an Italian Socialist society was holding a ball to quell a row, during which several persons were driven from the hall. The chief was shot from ambush on his way back to the station. Arcura Bernaccio, aged 22; P. Bernaccio, aged 25; Luigi Sassi, aged 34, and Cebarido Guiseppine, aged 22, have been arrested.

Wolcott's Charitable Bequests.

BOSTON, Dec. 28.—By the will of former Governor Wolcott, which has been filed in the Suffolk probate court, it is learned that Harvard college is to receive $20,000. There are several other public bequests also, as follows: Massachusetts General hospital, $5,000; Boston Museum of Fine Arts, $5,000; Hampton Normal and Agricultural institute, $1,000; Tuskegee Normal and Industrial institute, $1,000; trustees of the Wolcott library of Litchfield, Conn., $1,000; trustees of the Public library of Milton, $2,000.

A London Editor Abroad.

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—Alfred C. Harmsworth, editor and owner of the London Daily Mail, arrived in New York on the White Star liner Teutonic yesterday. He is accompanied by his wife and comes to this country on a much needed vacation. Most of his time in this country will be spent in visiting the various winter resorts in Florida and other southern states. He expects to return to London in March.

Dispensary Robbed.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 28.—The Williamsburg county liquor dispensary at Kingstree was robbed of $1,800 in cash Wednesday night. F. M. Placer, the dispenser, discovered the loss yesterday morning. H. H. Crum, liquor commissioner, has dispatched an inspector to Kingstree. The indemnity bonds of the dispenser expired Dec. 1, and the state may suffer a total loss.

RIOT IN A JAIL.

Female Prisoners Assault Brooklyn Jail Officials.

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—Twenty maddened female prisoners in the Raymond street jail, Brooklyn, rioted yesterday and so badly assaulted Matron Fannie Handy and Warden McGrath that they will for a long time bear marks of the assault.

There was no attempt to escape. The riot was the consequence of nothing but ill feeling. Miss Handy was transferring the prisoners from one corridor to another in the women's section when she was attacked by Nellie Jones, a powerfully built woman, who had been sentenced to 15 days for intoxication. Miss Handy was felled. Nineteen other prisoners then assaulted her. While the blows rained thick upon her head and body she managed to reach a push button that rang a bell in the warden's office.

Warden McGrath, hearing the alarm, rushed to the women's department without waiting to call for assistance. As he entered the corridor he diverted the attention of the infuriated amazons, and they jumped on him. The blows were thick and fast and furious, and Warden McGrath went to the floor. Hatpins were brought into play, and his face, head and neck were gouged.

Miss Handy made her way through the crowd and again rang in the alarm. Sheriff Burgin, Undersheriff Wilson and five deputies replied. They had much trouble in subduing the women, but succeeded, and two of them, Nellie Jones and Teresa White, were placed in straitjackets. The others were put in separate cells, and then the prison physician was called to attend the wounded warden and the matron.

CUBA SATISFIED.

Under American Rule Peace and Prosperity Prevail.

HAVANA, Dec. 28.—Jose Miguel Gomez, civil governor of the province of Puerto Principe, who is in Havana on business connected with the development of the industries of that section of the island, reports that peace and prosperity prevail under the American administration. He says the cane crop is heavy and that wages are high owing to the shortage of men. In his judgment Cuba is gradually becoming satisfied and wishes nothing radical from the constitutional convention. The rural guards, he asserts, are doing good service, and there is no brigandage to speak of. He flatly contradicts the sensational reports on the subject of outlawry that have appeared in some of the Cuban papers during the last few weeks.

A decree has been issued putting the clerks of courts, bailiffs and other officers on salaries from Feb. 1 and doing away with the fee system, which has been greatly abused in Cuba.

The marriage of Mr. Alexis E. Frye, superintendent of Cuban schools, and Senorita Maria Teresa Arruebarrena will be a civil ceremony, taking place on the evening of Jan. 1 at the palace formerly occupied by General Lee at Quemados. Mr. Frye declined a cathedral wedding because of the promises demanded by the church.

The first formal reception and ball held in the palace since General Wood became governor general of Cuba was given last evening, more than 1,000 persons attending.

Paige Pays Large Indebtedness.

AKRON, O., Dec. 28.—Word was received here that David R. Paige of New York has paid the last dollar of his indebtedness. The report was verified by City Commissioner A. T. Paige of this city, a brother of David R. Paige, who said: "It is true that my brother has succeeded in freeing himself from debt. The remaining four notes of Paige, Carey & Co. were lifted Monday, and I assure you that it was a pleasant time for my brother. All except five of the notes were lifted a year ago, but the entire task was completed Monday. It was a gigantic undertaking to wipe out a debt of $720,000, but Mr. Paige accomplished it, and now he proposes to take a short rest." David R. Paige, after meeting all of his obligations, is well off. After returning from South America, where he was practically an exile for a long time, he pressed his claims against New York city for the work on the Croton aqueduct and has been successful in securing a large part of the money due him.

Pardoned by Governor Roosevelt.

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—Guy Roch, who was sentenced to nine years in Sing Sing prison for grand larceny from this city and who has served three years, five months and three days of the sentence, was yesterday released from the prison. Roch at once left for Chicago. None of the prison officials at Sing Sing could give any information concerning the release. All they knew was that the order was signed by Governor Roosevelt.

Stole From Her Benefactor.

KITTERY, Me., Dec. 28.—Lillian Lydston, 14 years old, was arrested, charged with stealing $500 in gold and bank notes from James Richardson, in whose family she was being cared for. The girl, after telling several different stories, acknowledged taking the money, but declares that she threw it away.

Crop Estimates.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—The wheat crop of 1900 is 522,229,505 bushels. The area of winter wheat planted is 30,282,564. The condition of the growing crop Dec. 1 was 97. The production of corn in 1900 is estimated at 2,105,102,516 bushels.

Murder and Suicide.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 28.—John W Tinsley shot and killed his wife, Anna P Tinsley, on the street yesterday and then fired a bullet into his own head, dying instantly.

THE TERMS DISLIKED

Emperor Kwangsu Objects to Reducing Forts.

LEGATION GUARDS NOT WANTED.

Prince Ching and Li Hung Chang Consult and Decide to Communicate Again With the Court Before Meeting the Envoys.

PEKING, Dec. 28.—Li Hung Chang and Prince Ching, the Chinese peace commissioners, have heard from the emperor, Kwangsu. Prince Ching called on the former for consultation, remaining over an hour.

The court objects strenuously to reducing the forts and also to allowing permanent legation guards, which, it seems to think, could be made sufficiently large at any time desired to menace the court itself.

After the conference it was decided to hold further communication with the court before seeing the ministers.

The British have increased their garrison at Yang-tsun to 100 men, with horses and three guns.

A flying column of 1,600 cavalry will scour the country between Tien-tsin and Yang-tsun in obedience to Field Marshal von Waldersee's orders to be on the alert in view of the French report of an engagement with 2,500 Chinese troops.

Colonel Tullock's regiment will return to destroy the towns he recently held. This action is owing to the fact that it has been discovered that a number of Boxers unquestionably made them their headquarters.

The British authorities say they do not expect serious trouble from the Boxers, mainly because they lack arms. Fortunately the Chinese government is afraid to trust them with arms, as it fears a rebellion against the dynasty. Otherwise the danger might have been serious.

British soldiers have been found dead outside the Temple of Heaven with bullets in their heads. The murders are believed to have been committed by Chinese.

Germany's Strange Action.

LONDON, Dec. 28.—The proclamation announcing the division of the country around Peking, Pao-ting-fu and Tien-tsin into districts placed severally under the control of the different military commanders has been posted, according to a dispatch to The Morning Post from Peking, dated Dec. 26, in the German section only. It recognizes the Chinese military and civil governors, but makes no reference to Count von Waldersee. "Germany's action," says the correspondent, "is strange. She, formerly so severe, now recognizes Chinese authority." The largest districts, the dispatch points out, have been awarded to the British, German and French troops.

"It is announced from Sian-fu," says the Shanghai correspondent of The Standard, "that Emperor Kwangsu has selected General Ma Yu Kun to command the advanced bodyguard when the court proceeds to Peking."

Peace Terms Not Liked.

SHANGHAI, Dec. 28.—The Chinese newspapers here object to the proposed peace terms. The Universal Gazette considers that the princes and officials who are to be punished should be named. It is questionable whether General Tung Fu Hsiang is included among those punishable, and so far as Prince Tuan is concerned it is well known that the Chinese peace commissioners have been instructed to consent to no punishment of any person of royal blood exceeding imprisonment. Some of the native journals hold that the presence of permanent legation guards will render the emperor's return impossible, because these would be a menace to the court. "China," says one of them, "would be powerless to suppress risings because prohibited from increasing her military strength, and the powers, therefore, would renew hostilities again, and the people would be mowed down like hemp."

Baltimore Banks Sustain Runs.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 28.—A scare among timid depositors of the several savings banks of the city was the only noticeable result of the failure on Wednesday of the Old Town bank. Runs occurred on nearly all the savings institutions, but the most notable were upon the Savings Bank of Baltimore, the City Savings bank and the Hopkins Place Savings bank. Crowds of persons were assembled upon the sidewalks in the vicinity of these banks long before "bank hours" yesterday morning, and in each case the doors were opened before the usual hour in order to accommodate those who wished to withdraw their deposits. In every case the claims were promptly satisfied, and in a few instances before the doors were closed late in the afternoon some of those who had received their money had, with returning confidence, replaced their savings and begun a new account.

American Wood In Germany.

BERLIN, Dec. 28.—The establishment of a free harbor at Emden is expected to make it an important port for American wood. Westphalian firms have already ordered 10,000 tons of pitch pine to be sent there for shipment via the Dortmund-Ems canal. A joint stock wood company has been organized in Emden to import pitch pine and other woods in large quantities.

Searching For a Dead Man.

DANBURY, Conn., Dec. 28.—For three years United States secret service officers have been searching for William H. Post, an escaped prisoner from Ludlow street jail, New York city. It has just been learned that Post has been buried in the Danbury cemetery for over three years. He was buried under the name of Charles Mason.

Military Changes In Alaska.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—The president has ordered that the military reservation at Nome, Alaska, be made a public reservation under control of the war department and that the military reservation previously set aside near the east side of the mouth of the Nome river be known as the Fort Davis military reservation.

Woman Burned to Death.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Dec. 28.—Mrs. Gertrude Garrett, 42 years of age, the widow of Charles H. Garrett, was burned to death at her home here while alone in her house. Apparently she had set her clothing on fire while trying to start a blaze in the fireplace.

Mr. Osgood's Report.

Of the reports presented at the meeting of the Common Council last evening, undoubtedly the most important was that of the committee on streets and sewers. One of the most important duties which the Council for 1901 will have to perform will be to in some way improve the present service at the sewage disposal beds of the city. This report of the committee on streets and sewers makes certain recommendations regarding this same subject.

For nearly a year the committee has been carefully investigating the various methods of sewage disposal with a view to the improvement of the present method. Realizing that the layman is in a poor position to successfully investigate the relative merits of the various methods, the committee secured the services of an expert, Jos. O. Osgood, who had the best of recommendations from his former employers.

Mr. Osgood has made a careful investigation of the situation at the city disposal beds and makes certain recommendations. These recommendations are set forth at length in the report. He also states the probable cost of carrying on the proposed system. Every thinking citizen is naturally interested in Mr. Osgood's suggestions and so The Daily Press publishes the complete text of that portion of the report in today's issue.

Regarding the excellence of Mr. Osgood's advice, it is hardly possible for a layman to criticize it. His statement seems frank and clear but it is naturally technical enough to require a thorough acquaintance with the subject to be able to give its true value proper consideration.

Printer's Ink for the last week of the year offers to business men a number of timely suggestions. For example: "If you need advertising at all you need it during the dull spell that follows the holiday season. Don't think there is no use in pushing for business. Don't get an idea that people stop buying goods with the passing of Christmas. The beginning of the new year is a very good time to get new customers started with you. That your competitors stop or decrease their advertising immediately after the holidays is the very best reason why you should not do so."

WHAT OTHERS SAY.

Clippings From Other Newspapers Which May Be Of Interest to Plainfield and Its Citizens.

The Plainfield Board of Trade is reported to have offered to contribute $1,500 a year to advertise the advantages of that city, providing the City Council will contribute a similar sum. Whether the Plainfield City Council can contribute to this advertising fund or not is a question which probably involves both law and policy. But the Board of Trade and the citizens need not wait on the action of the Council in this matter. Eleven years ago the Journal entered upon a scheme to advertise the city of Elizabeth. The Board of Trade of this city could not at that time give much encouragement to the enterprise, but it donated $500 to help it along. The City Council could give it only its recommendation but the Journal went ahead, secured the co-operation of the business men, factory owners, public spirited citizens, etc., and issued "The City of Elizabeth Illustrated," the finest and most complete work of its kind that we have yet seen. It cost but little short of $10,000; far more than the original plan contemplated; but it proved one of the best advertisements for this city that was ever issued. The Journal made nothing out of it except a reputation for the finest kind of printing, but the city has reaped immense advantages through the excellent work and influence of this book. This is not saying that Plainfield's best plan is to get out a book, nor is intended as offering any suggestion as to the way in which our sister city would best advertise. It is only to commend Plainfield's Board of Trade for its enterprise and to testify that its advertising, if well done, cannot fail to redound to the credit, advantage and benefit of that city. The more widely and persistently the advantages of any city are made known the more people there will be to appreciate and utilize them.—Elizabeth Journal.

TEA TABLE TALK.

Short and Gossipy Sketches That Are Not Always News, But Just as Interesting.

An illustration of the primitive methods in vogue in some portions of the State recently came to the attention of a reporter for The Daily Press. P. H. Bennett, of 98 Duer street, a traveling salesman for a Newark wholesale house, had occasion to visit his trade at a small hamlet called Fords, located in Middlesex county, a branch line of the Lehigh Valley Railroad. It was dark when Mr. Bennett wished to leave Fords. He asked about the trains and was told that one would be along soon, but that if he wished it to stop he must "flag" it. Mr. Bennett could not see any station; in fact there is none at that point. How was he to stop the train? Simple enough. The merchant with whom he had been doing business gave him a bunch of matches and a good-sized newspaper, telling him that when he heard the rumble of the train to light the paper, stand in the centre of the track and wave the blaze up and down. That was the signal to the engineer. He did as requested. Sure enough the train came to a stop and he climbed aboard. This is a common occurrence at Fords. The natives and others who wish to have Lehigh Valley trains stop in the day time wave handkerchiefs, and at night a lantern. Anything in the way of a light will do. If you don't happen to have a lantern among your luggage, why just make a blaze alongside the track. Verily, this is indeed primitive railroading.

AT THE THEATRES.

Something About the Attractions Which Plainfield Theatre-Goers May Care to Witness.

The announcement that Mme. Flower, known on two continents as "The Bronze Melba," is to sing at every matinee and evening performance of the Bennett-Moulton Company at the Stillman Music Hall next week is one of extraordinary interest to the musical people of this section. For Mme. Flower is not of the degenerate order of present day vaudeville "coon-shouters." She spent five years in study at the Leipsig Conservatory of Music, Germany's most famous training school for singers, and graduated at the age of twenty with high honors. Mme. Melba has toured this country for several seasons as prima donna in light opera, and in 1898 made another European tour, meeting with extraordinary success. A pleasing episode was the concert she gave before the instructors, graduates and pupils of the Leipsig Conservatory, where she was enthusiastically hailed as an honor to the institution. She has been connected with the Bennett-Moulton Company for three seasons, and is singing to houses packed, largely with cultured people. Her voice is a mezzo-soprano of a beautifully rich and robust quality and she sings songs and ballads of the best type with expression that fully satisfies the artistic sense of the most refined critics and touches the hearts of all her hearers.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—Fancy table celery, fresh and crisp, without which no meal is complete, at Neuman Bros.

—The Christmas music will be repeated at the First Baptist church next Sunday evening by the chorus choir.

—Many persons have had the experience of Mr. Peter Sherman, of North Stratford, N. H., who says: "For years I suffered torture from chronic indigestion, but Kodol Dyspepsia Cure made a well man of me." It digests what you eat and is a certain cure for dyspepsia and every form of stomach trouble. It gives relief at once even in the worst cases, and can't help but do you good. L. W. Randolph.

Miss Louise Fisk, of West Seventh street, gave a luncheon yesterday at the Casino for a number of her friends.

Miss Addie Weaver, of Brooklyn, has returned after a visit with her father, Peter V. Weaver, of West End Park.

Gentlemen:—My mamma has been a great coffee drinker and has found it very injurious. Having uses several packages of your GRAIN-O, the drink that takes the place of coffee, she finds it much better for herself and for us children to drink. She has given up coffee drinking entirely. We use a package of Grain-O every week. I am ten years old.

INTERESTING NOTES FROM PLAINFIELD'S SUBURBAN TOWNS.

Daily Budget Of News Gathered By The Daily Press' Corps of Special Correspondents.

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence.)

Dunellen, December 28.—Mrs. John Cooper died at her home on Madison avenue yesterday morning after suffering for three years with lung trouble. She was in her forty-fifth year. In addition to a husband she is survived by five children. They are George, Richard and John Cooper, of the borough, William Cooper, of Perth Amboy, and Mrs. William Zollenbach, of Elizabeth. The funeral services will be held tomorrow morning from St. John's church.

The pupils of Holy Innocents church Sunday-school held their Christmas exercises last evening. The usual programme of songs and recitations was dispensed with and a special service given. There was a representation of "Jacob's Ladder" with the angels bringing messages of peace and good will. Gifts were afterward given to the younger pupils.

The parsonage of the Presbyterian church was the scene of a social gathering last evening when the congregation was entertained by Rev. and Mrs. N. J. Sproul. Various amusements made the hours pass quickly and before leaving for home refreshments were served.

Expressman George Huff is today removing the household goods of Edward Heller to Elizabeth where he will live in the future.

Daniel Randolph and family, of South Plainfield, have been visiting the former's father, David Randolph, of Greenbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Ammerman have returned from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bergen, of Newark.

Miss May Taylor is confined to her home with an attack of pneumonia. Dr. Gaston is in attendance.

Wm. G. Holton Council met last evening and elected officers for the ensuing term.

The regular monthly meeting of Defender Fire Company was held last evening.

Mrs. Annie Abbott has returned from a visit with Westfield relatives.

Court Dunellen, I. O. F., will meet this evening instead of Monday.

Mrs. William Frederick has been confined to her home by illness.

Mrs. J. D. De Groff spent Wednesday with relatives at Linden.

NEW MARKET.

(Special Correspondence.)

New Market, Dec. 28.—Christmas exercises were held in the First Baptist church last evening and in addition to the Sunday-school pupils and their parents were attended by a large number of friends. The church was very prettily decorated with greens while the rear of the platform was taken up with a large Christmas tree, resplendent with glittering ornaments. Besides an appropriate address by Rev. Frank Fletcher, a programme of dialogues and recitations was rendered by the following pupils: Katie Krause, Iva Dayton, Lucy Clawson, William Piddington, Emile and Hannah Nelson, Ethel Gaskill, Eva Ingham, Lester Nelson and Bertha Nelson. The distribution of gifts concluded the exercises. The ladies who were in charge of the affair and who placed the decorations were Mrs. Clawson, Mrs. Sofield, Mrs. Dayton, Mrs. Giles, Mrs. Gaskill and Mrs. Nelson.

Joseph Pyatt, of Phillipsburg, formerly gateman at the crossing, has returned home after calling on friends in town and in Plainfield.

Dr. Richard Turner, of Titusville, N. J., has returned home after a visit with friends in town.

Arthur Leonard, of Chicago, is spending the holidays with his father, G. W. Leonard.

Miss Hannah Danz has gone to Brooklyn for a few days visit with relatives.

Miss Minnie Warren, of Brooklyn, is visiting her aunt, Miss Angie Warren.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence.)

Scotch Plains, Dec. 28.—Goodwill Lodge, K. of P., the oldest fraternal order in town, became a thing of the past at the close of their weekly meeting held last night. For several years some of the more active members have put up a strong fight to keep old Goodwill alive, but their efforts have been fruitless, as a majority of the members would not turn out to the meetings. Out of a membership of about forty it was often found impossible to get a quorum out, so that the weekly meetings could be held. Those who have been striving to keep the old ship afloat finally became discouraged and a meeting was called to take action upon winding up the affairs of No. 101 and consolidate with some other lodge. A committee was appointed to wait upon Perseverance Lodge, of Plainfield, and to ask them to take them in. Perseverance Lodge decided to make the consolidation several weeks ago, but it was decided to run Goodwill the old year out and to join hands with the new century. There are many in town who regret very much that Goodwill has ceased to exist, and extend their best wishes to the members in their new home. Twilight Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., which have been occupying the same rooms, will, it is said, shortly remove to the Library rooms in Excelsior H. and L. Company building.

The Christmas exercises of the Baptist church Sunday-school were held in the auditorium of the church last evening. An interesting programme, consisting of recitations, dialogues and carols, together with the pleasures of a Christmas tree, loaded with something for all, made the evening an enjoyable one for not only the members of the school but by the large gathering of friends who had assembled to help them enjoy their holiday treat. Santa Claus made a call during the evening, but owing to pressing engagements at other places, his visit had to be cut short, but as the old fellow had arranged to have the presents distributed to the little ones his early departure was excused. Rev. G. M. Shott, who occupies the double position of pastor of the church and superintendent of the Sunday-school, was remembered by his friends with a very mysterious package, which was acknowledged by a short but heartfelt speech.

Miss Addie Johnston, who is taking a course of study at Hightstown Seminary, is spending her Christmas vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. D. Johnston.

Twilight Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., will meet in their rooms tonight. Business of importance will be transacted and a full attendance of members is desired.

Mr. and Mrs. Hennings and family, who have been residing in the borough the past year, will leave shortly for Long Island, their former home.

Miss Nancy Wade, of Mahwah, is spending her holiday vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abram Wade, of Stanbery avenue.

The members of the Episcopal Sunday-school will observe their annual Christmas exercises in their church tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frentz, of New York, have been visiting at the home of Mr. Frentz's parents on Westfield avenue.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD

(Special Correspondence.)

South Plainfield, Dec. 28.—Mr. Jones is running the mill to its full capacity and still is unable to keep up with the work. It would take him ten days to grind the grain now in the mill waiting its turn. If he had more water he could grind faster but he has to use it sparingly on account of the ice crop.

There will be an entertainment in the hall tonight under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society. There will be a Christmas programme and a treat for the scholars of the Sunday-school. Some good talent is expected from Newark and some from Plainfield. An admission of 15 cents will be charged.

Work has commenced on the new electric plant near Metuchen and the Bound Brook Electric Light Company is preparing to get wires through this way, so South Plainfield is in a fair way to be lighted by electricity.

Jas. Marooney has rented Frank Miller's house and is having it furnished very nicely. Rumor says he intends to install a bride in the new house in the near future.

At the meeting of the P. O. S. of A. camp last night they held their regular semi-annual election of officers. They also received a visit from their district president.

The coal storage is running on full time now and they are dumping quite some coal of the small size.

—Daily shipments of Florida oranges and grape fruit, the finest in the market, are being received by Neuman Bros.

—Help is needed at once when a person's life is in danger. A neglected cough or cold may soon become serious and should be stopped at once. One Minute Cough Cure quickly cures coughs and colds and the worst cases of croup, bronchitis, grippe and all throat and lung troubles. L. W. Randolph.

PERSONAL.

Patrolman Morris Higgins, of West Front street, who has been very low with pneumonia, is improving under the care of Dr. Pittis.

Miss Hattie Squier, of the borough, has returned from Pottersville, where she attended the wedding of her brother, Isaac Squier.

Miss Abbie VanCleef, of Plainfield avenue, will spend New Year's with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Emmons, of Jersey City.

Frankenthal. Wegen „Landfriedensbruches" wurden im August 1900 in Maxdorf die Arbeiter Ludwig Kohl, Martin Kohl, Jakob Kohl, Philipp Guhmann, Adam Schäfer, Valentin Fink, Tobias Hahn und Karl Marnet verhaftet. Anläßlich eines Tanzvergnügens in Fußgönnheim hatten sie im Verein mit noch etwa 20 anderen Maxdorfer Burschen mit scharfen Patronen in den Tanzsaal des Wirthes Hand geschossen, Fensterläden zertrümmert und durch die Fenster in die Wohnungen der erschreckten Dorfbewohner geschossen. Die Fußgönnheimer Polizei war dem Treiben der Lümmel gegenüber machtlos, und erst der aufgebotenen Feuerwehr gelang die Vertreibung der Rauhbeine aus dem Dorfe. Das Gericht erkannte neulich gegen neun Angeklagte Strafen von fünf bis sieben Monaten Gefängniß.

Württemberg.

Stuttgart. Die neue Volksbibliothek wird auf einem vom Verlagsbuchhändler Engelhorn überlassenen Platz in der Silberburgstraße erbaut. Bis Mitte nächsten Jahres soll der Bau vollendet sein. Für die Baukosten stiftete Engelhorn auch noch 80,000 Mark. Die Stadtverwaltung wird das Unternehmen mit jährlich 5000 Mark subventioniren.

Kannstatt. Die neue Lutherkirche wurde neulich feierlich eingeweiht. Das Königspaar war zu dem Weiheakt aus Bebenhausen hierhergekommen. An den Gottesdienst schloß sich die Taufe eines Knaben und eines Mädchens an, bei denen das Königspaar Pathenstelle vertrat.

Ravensburg. Die Tochter des Maurers Berstel, Kreszentia, hatte sich, um das Leben der Mutter zu retten, einer Operation unterzogen, durch welche Haut ihres Körpers auf den Körper der Mutter übertragen wurde. Die Frau genaß in Folge des Opfermuthes ihrer Tochter. König Wilhelm hat nun dem Mädchen ein Geldgeschenk von 300 Mark zukommen lassen, die Königin sandte eine goldene Brosche mit Namenszug und Krone.

Tübingen. Im Alter von 69 Jahren ist hier Landgerichtspräsident v. Pfaff gestorben.

Ulm. Vor Kurzem wurde mit der Durchbrechung des Festungswalles nach Osten hin begonnen. Mit der vollständigen Entfernung der Wälle kann freilich erst nach einigen Jahren, wenn die weiter draußen liegenden Forts fertiggestellt sind, Ernst gemacht werden. Zugleich wurde mit dem Bau einer neuen Straße über die Umwallung hinaus begonnen. Diese Straße wird im nächsten Frühjahre auch schon mit einer elektrischen Straßenbahn befahren werden.

Baden.

Karlsruhe. Der Bremser Leonhard Koch wurde von einem Eisenbahnzuge überfahren und ihm der Kopf vom Rumpfe getrennt. Der Beamte war 36 Jahre im Dienst.

Ettlingen. Die Lungenheilanstalt Friedrichsheim in Marxzell blickte auf das erste Jahr ihres Bestehens zurück. Ueber 600 Kranke, welche in dem Heim Erholung suchten, sind im Laufe dieses ersten Jahres aus demselben zurückgekehrt. Nächstes Frühjahr soll mit dem Erweiterungsbau begonnen werden, so daß dann 150 Personen in der Heilstätte zu gleicher Zeit Aufnahme finden können.

Heidelberg. Kuno Fischer, der bedeutende Heidelberger Philosoph, hat sein 100. Semester als Universitätslehrer angetreten. Am 28. Oktober 1850 erhielt er die Erlaubniß, an der Heidelberger Universität eine öffentliche Vorlesung über die Philosophie des Cartesius abzuhalten.

Pforzheim. Unter Mitnahme von 8000 Mark unterschlagenen Geldern ist der Buchhalter des Gaswerks, Otto Räuchle, flüchtig geworden.

Waldshut. Die Wiedereröffnung des Nickelbergwerks von Wittenschwand-Horbach verspricht wieder Leben in die dortige Gegend zu bringen. Das alte Schulhaus in Wittenschwand, welches bisher im Besitz der Wittwe Alban Maier war, ging bereits um den Preis von 500 Mark in den Besitz der Bergwerksgesellschaft über, ebenso ist ein größerer Hof in Horbach nächst der Grube für 16,000 Mark angekauft worden.

A lady of Germantown, Pa., has a friend from St. Louis, who asserts that Ripans Tabules are an invaluable remedy for children teething. "And she ought to know," said her friend, "for she is the mother of a child that was awarded a prize for beauty at a baby show." It was during a recent visit at Germantown that this lady related her experience during the teething period of her boy. "At our home in St. Louis," said she, "we keep a constant supply of Ripans Tabules, and my husband, who is a druggist, says the doctors nearly all use them now. My little two-year-old suffered more from his first teeth than most children, and while a lotion rubbed on the gums seemed to relieve him, it was sure to upset his little stomach and make it incapable of retaining any food, and his vomiting would sometimes be something terrible. I had such faith in Ripans Tabules that I determined to make a trial of them in his case, so I gave him the broken half of one and the little one grew better almost immediately. I believe no family can have on hand anything in the medicinal line of such wide application as Ripans Tabules."

THE GOOD ST. ANNE.

Thousands of Pilgrims Visit Her Shrine Every Year.

Wonders of the Basilica of La Bonne Ste. Anne de Beaupre—Noted for Its Miracles and Rare Relics.

[Special Quebec (Can.) Letter.]

DISTANCE lends enchantment. That is as true an axiom as sage ever uttered. Our newspapers and magazines have much to say about the pilgrimages of the faithful to the shrine of Our Lady of Lourdes, in France, and other European "sacred" places. And yet right up here near Quebec, a day's ride from Chicago, a ten hours' journey from Boston, is a place where, if reports are true, most wonderful miracles are performed, where the lame and blind are cured, and where believers find consolation in every sorrow.

"La Bonne Ste. Anne de Beaupre" is worshiped by the Catholics of Canada with honest sincerity, and woe unto him who should dare question the cures wrought by her intercession. To the French-Canadian farmers and peasants St. Anne, who by virtue of a rescript issued by Pope Pius IX. is patroness of the province of Quebec, is not merely a historical personality; she is an active, gracious angel constantly engaged in interceding with God in behalf of those who venerate her.

This reminds me that many years ago I heard a good old Methodist brother say to his Sunday-school class that the Catholics did not worship the Lord, but prostrated themselves before the carved idols of so-called saints. I wonder if such bigoted creatures are still permitted to teach inquiring boys and girls? If so, I want to correct them. The Catholics do not worship the saints; they venerate and adore them. They do not pray to them for spiritual guidance and other favors; they implore them to intercede for them with God, so that He may grant their petitions. The veneration of saints the Catholic church has always declared to be agreeable to God; and its priests command their people to honor those servants of the Lord who are crowned with glory in Heaven. To desire the prayers of the saints they declare to be no less consistent with Christian piety than to ask the prayers of the faithful on earth. The Virgin Mary is looked upon as the great and universal mediatrix with Christ.

St. Anne has always been considered one of the most potent and patient of mediators. According to Catholic tradition she was the mother of the Virgin Mary, and both Nazareth and the little town of Sephoris at the foot of Mount Carmel claim the honor of having been her birthplace. Anne married Joachim or Eli-Achim who, like herself, was of the tribe of Juda, and of David's royal lineage. The only offspring of this union was the Virgin Mary. St. Anne was buried near Jerusalem; but later on her sacred remains were deposited in the church of the "Sepulcher of Our Lady" in the valley of Jehoshaphat. During the reign of the Roman Emperor Trajan, in the first century of the Christian era, the greater portion of St. Anne's body was conveyed to the town of Apt, in the French diocese of Avignon, where it is still held in deep veneration. Concerning this removal Catholic tradition reports that one day a mysterious bark was seen to approach the shores of France. It had neither sail nor rudder, but God was its pilot. In this bark were Lazarus, Mary Magdalen and Martha, together with other saintly women. They were fleeing from Palestine, carrying away with them a number of priceless relics, the most precious among which was the body of St. Anne. This treasure was placed in the hands of St. Auspicius, the first bishop of Apt, while the remaining relics were taken to Marseilles.

From the earliest times St. Anne was venerated by the people of France. The shrine at Apt has been for centuries the objective point of vast crowds of pilgrims, and the shrine and pilgrimage of St. Anne d'Auray, in Brittany, have long been celebrated throughout the whole Catholic world.

The region round about Beaupre, which is located about 19 miles east of Quebec, was settled by immigrants from Perche and Normandy as early as 1650. These sturdy pioneers brought with them an almost childlike devotion for Catholicism and unbounded veneration for St. Anne. They organized a parish called Petit-Cap, on account of the hill at whose foot the church was built. Later on it was called St. Anne du Nord, and finally it was given the name of St. Anne de Beaupre, or "La Bonne Ste. Anne." For some years the settlers worshiped in private houses, but in 1657 a chapel was erected on a plot of ground opposite the present basilica. The men who assisted in the building of the humble little sanctuary were, according to the parish history, singularly blessed, especially one Louis Guimont, who was cured by St. Anne of a painful rheumatism which incapacitated him for hard work. After he had placed three stones in the foundation, he found himself instantly cured, to the great consolation and admiration of his friends and neighbors. Owing to local conditions, the first chapel was never completely finished, but in 1662 the second chapel was completed, which was located nearer the hill than the first. St. Anne showed that this new temple was no less pleasing to her than the first; and granted every kind of favor to those who venerated her. In 1676 a third church, built of stone, was dedicated. It was twice restored, once in 1694, and later in 1787, and was used for public worship until 1876. The present basilica is one of the finest church structures in Canada. Its construction was begun in 1872 and its formal blessing occurred in 1876. Owing to the ever-increasing number of pilgrims this church was enlarged in 1886 and a year later Pope Leo XIII. raised it to the rank of basilica. The new church contains numerous altars of great artistic value, but its most imposing feature is a pedestal supporting a large statue of St. Anne and child. This pedestal is cut out of an onyx block and highly polished. At the foot of this statue the faithful pray for relief from mental and bodily ills; and the hundreds of crutches, bandages, trusses, plaster casts and other evidences of physical sufferings grouped near the main entrance to the church bear eloquent testimony to believers that petitions addressed to St. Anne find a gracious hearing.

Pilgrimages to the shrine of St. Anne de Beaupre occur at frequent intervals, and at times thousands of pilgrims join in procession to do honor to her revered name. Every pilgrim is given an opportunity to venerate the highly-prized relics belonging to the church. The most valued of these is a fragment of a finger bone of St. Anne, which was brought from Carcassone, France, and which was exposed for the first time March 5, 1670, and has not ceased to be the object of fervent devotion. Letters attesting the authenticity of the relic are hanging on the walls of the sacristy. In January, 1881, the chapter of Carcassone, after protracted negotiations, divided into two equal parts its valuable relic of St. Anne, namely, the hand bones, and shared it with the Canadian shrine. Another highly-prized relic is a fragment of rock extracted from the room of St. Anne at Jerusalem, where the mysteries of the immaculate conception and birth of the Virgin Mary are supposed to have taken place.

All of these relics, together with a few others of minor importance, are kept in cases covered with glass and exposed to the faithful whose veneration consists in kissing the precious fragments. It would be interesting to enter into a discussion of the agencies by which the miraculous cures of St. Anne de Beaupre are obtained. The fact that hundreds of men and women who seemed hopelessly lame when they entered the church walked out without crutches, erect and strong; and that scores of deaf worshipers heard the voices of priests and the whispers of the congregation; that drunkards became teetotalers as in the twinkling of an eye, cannot be denied; and even the scoffer cannot leave the basilica without being overcome by reverence for a power that passes human understanding.

Topic For the Week Beginning Dec. 30, "The Old and the New—Your Purposes" — Text, Luke v, 36-39; Math. xiii, 51-52.

"Behold, I make all things new."

It is one of the tritest of truths that life is ceaseless change. All things are in motion, and nothing abides changeless. The old sages of Greece discovered this fact and expressed it that "all things are influx." They also discovered that in the midst of the flow there is somewhat which abides. That which persists is selfhood, itself modified, enlarged and formed in new shapes by the pressure of circumstances and the shock of events.

The old year closes. The new year dawns. The passage is imperceptible, so far as time is concerned. Other days may have been more momentous in changes and crises of fate, but there is a value in the observance of the year's end which yields to no other anniversary in the circle of the seasons.

This is a time for careful thought and honest recognition of the gains and losses of the past. As in business we take account of stock and strike a balance to learn of profit and loss, so in our spirit life this is the time to consider our possessions, our gains and failures. We have no right to do less than our best. Has the past year yielded you all the profit possible? If not, where is the leak? Find it and stop it. Recently in Breslau an American took charge of the largest shoe factory in Germany, employing 450 workmen. It turned out less than 150 pairs of shoes per day. In less than two weeks the same machinery and hands were making 462 pairs. Organization and systematic work made the difference.

With no more exxertion, but with more careful direction of energies, most Christians could accomplish far more than they now do. You spend enough money. Are you doing the most good possible with it? You talk enough. Do you make your talk of the most value? You read enough. Does it do you the good it might? You think enough, but is it of the best things and in the best way? Life is worth just in the degree it yields the things which make existence valuable.

The past year may have seen too much self indulgence and too little self sacrifice. If so, correct the fault. It may have seen too much narrowness and devotion to material things and too little time given to the beautiful things in nature, business and society. Do not lose your relish for the pure and sweet and tuneful things.

Can the next year be made better? Then see to it that it is made so. We shall not go this way again.

A Model Church.

The remark is often made that while business methods and social customs have greatly changed in the last 50 years, while means of transportation and invention have revolutionized society, the church has not kept pace with the times. This is in some measure true, but not altogether so. The pace set has been tremendous, the course new and methods untested. Safety dictated caution. Yet the church moves, cautiously, but steadily; slowly, but powerfully and irresistibly.

This is nowhere on the continent seen more clearly than in the stand taken by Methodism in Duluth, Minn. A little while since this site was an insignificant post in a boundless wilderness at the west end of Lake Superior, almost inaccessible and practicaly unknown. Today it has an immense commerce in grain, lumber and ore.

Methodism here has had men of thought, of nerve and heart. A building, second to none in Methodism, houses the people. Architecturally it is a work of art. It satisfies the most exacting taste. Practically it supplies every convenience that is needed in a large and live church. The auditory is a model of beauty and comfort. Its very atmosphere conduces to worship. It is easy to speak, easy to sing, to pray and to hear in this room. The Sunday school rotunda opens into this and provides all desirable accomodations for many classes in separate rooms, which in a moment can be united in the one great assembly hall and made a part of the auditorium. Vestries, parlor, pastor's office and study, kindergarten, public reading room, dining room, kitchen, closets, sexton's home, heating, ventilation, organs, pianos and every contrivance which consecrated ingenuity could devise for helpful service in religion and money supply is here.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, DULUTH, MINN.

Have you the habit of daily private prayer and Bible reading? If not, you are missing much of helpfulness and comfort and neglecting one of the chief sources of strength and safety in the Christian life. Begin today.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week Beginning Dec. 30—Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

Topic.—The old and new; your purposes.—Math. xiii, 51, 52; Luke v, 36-39. (A New Year's meeting.)

The passing of an old year and the advent of a new year suggest the study of the past purposes and the future purposes of our lives. He is a thoughtless man indeed who does not at this season of the year pause and consider, "What has my life been, and what is my life going to be?" These questions present themselves to us at this time with the greater force because we not only close a year, but a century, and we not only begin a new year, but a new century. If our lives have not been in the past year what we should like them to have been, we have every incentive at this time to make them so in the year upon which we are entering, and that we may do so we may well study these words of Christ about the old and the new, for He sets forth principles that are as applicable today as they were when He spoke them.

1. A new life cannot be made by patching the old. "No man putteth a piece of new garment upon an old," else both are made useless. "No man putteth new wine into old bottles." The new wine, in fermenting, would burst the old bottles, and both wine and bottles would be lost. New wines demand new bottles. The Jews could not become Christians by patching Judaism with the truths of Christ. They could not live the gospel in the forms of the law. That would be putting new cloth on an old garment and new wine in old bottles and would destroy both. No more can we make our lives new by patching the old, by adding a new resolution here and one there, nor can we lead a new life in the old forms of our lives. Our whole lives must be changed, their principles and purposes, and this the Holy Spirit alone can do.

2. The tendency of man is to be satisfied with the old. "No man having drunk old wine straightway desireth new, for he says the old is better." One accustomed to drinking old wine desires it above the new, though the new may be bettter. He says: "The old is pleasant, good enough for me. I have no desire to try the new." This is precisely the attitude of a false conservatism. It is the attitude of many toward their lives. In the past their lives have been lived upon certain principles and with certain purposes in view. These may not have been the best principles or the loftiest purposes. And yet they say: "The old is pleasant. It has done me in the past and is still good enough, and I will try no other, not even a better." But this is a false attitude toward life. Its folly can often be seen in the business and commercial world, and it is just as foolish in the moral and spiritual world. Quality, not age, should be the supreme test of the desirability of the principles and purposes of our lives.

3. There is a proper relation between the old and new which all should strive to maintain. Christ likens His disciples to a householder "who bringeth faith out of his treasures, things new and old." Old truths can be set forth in new lights, and new truths can be brought into proper accord with old ones. He who forgets the old will become a sensationalist and he who forgets the new a fossil. Let us keep the past and the future in their proper relations. The past is prophetic of the future, and through it we may read the future in such a way as to make it a vast improvement upon the past. But let us not strive to do it by moral patchwork, but by having our whole lives changed by accepting Christ as our Saviour and being born again by His Holy Spirit.

THE PRAYER MEETING.

Have a watch meeting or arrange a special appropriate service for the regular meeting.

BIBLE READINGS.

Ps. lxxi, 18; Lam. iii, 22, 23; Math. ix, 16, 17; II Cor. v, 17; Eph. iv, 17-24; Col. iii, 1-11; Heb. x, 19-25; I John ii, 7, 8; Rev. ii, 17; xxi, 1-5.

Labor Is One Thing, Work Another.

Hard labor may be wholly in vain, but good work is never lost, whatever its apparent result. We may labor to no purpose and have no fruit of our toil or anxiety. But good work is its own reward, even if there were nothing beyond it. There is success in merely striving for success, and the prize of success may be our added reward. As Dr. Griffis has reminded us, both the Hebrew and the Greek originals of the Bible make clear distinction between labor and work. With the former are associated the ideas of toil and sweat, weariness and waste; with the latter triumph, value, beauty and permanence. What added meaning does this thought give to the inspired assurance for those who die in the Lord, "that they may rest from their labors, for their works do follow them!"—Sunday School Times.

Glory in the Valley.

The valley of the shadow is not so long but that the light can reach us from either end—faith from this end, glory from the other. A little of the future life will come to us to crowd out the mortal, but we shall have only a taste of it. The realization of this is blessed, not that we may be discouraged, but that by the fragments we may gain a faint idea of the glory that is by the throne and the fullness of joy that is waiting for us when we shall see God face to face.—J. R. Harris in Haverford Meeting.

Like the Lilies.

Like the lilies growing,
Free from anxious care,
Giving out the fragrance
Of a life of prayer;

Like them, sweet and quiet,
In a holy calm,
Let our lives for Jesus
Be like theirs—a psalm.

property to be in first-class condition.

Mr. Lee submitted the annual report for the committee on alms. The amount remaining in the bank to the credit of the department in January of the present year was $1,528 85, making the total amount available for relief from taxes, including that received from the Martin Act tax, $5,233 56. The total expenses during the year, including salaries, etc., was $4,252 01, leaving a balance of $981.55. The committee recommends that the property adjoining the Industrial Home be sown with grass and corn and the crops therefrom used for the maintenance of the live stock at the Home. There has been an average of sixteen inmates in the Home during the year, twelve females and four males. There was one death in the Home and two among the outside poor.

In conclusion, the committee took occasion to say a word in commendation of the loyalty, honesty, integrity and sound judgment displayed by the late Christian P. Hansen in the discharge of his duties as overseer of the poor, he being always willing to help a deserving person.

In connection with Chief Doane's report Mr. Coriell stated that it is customary for the heads of such departments to have their reports published in pamphlet form. He offered a motion, which was adopted, that the clerk be authorized to have one hundred copies printed.

President Dumont made a statement for the committee on ordinances, appointed some time ago. He said that the clerk had been unable to get an opinion from the corporation counsel regarding the publishing of the ordinances in pamphlet form. Until this is obtained nothing can be done. However, the ordinances are in shape so that next year's Council can take the matter up early in the year.

Mr. VanHerwerden moved that the request of Chas. Sandberg, asking for a correction in the matter of an assessment on 1900 taxes be granted. The same member moved that Leonidas Dennis' request for a remittance on personal property amounting to $7.38 be granted, it having been learned that the assessment was in error.

Mr. Tolles moved that all bills for street work be paid, with the exception of David Hand's bill for work on Raymond avenue, which is not yet completed.

Mr. Coriell stated that when the accounts for the year are closed it will be learned that there has been a reduction of about $8,000 on the indebtedness of the fire department.

On motion of Mr. VanHerwerden the sum of $39.75 was transferred from the police department to the general fund, as the money belonged to the latter fund.

After the various bills were audited and ordered paid, the Council adjourned to January 4.

Coal Combine Non-Suited.

(Special to the Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, Dec. 28.—The case of the New Jersey Coal Combine against John Johnson, of Netherwood, was tried yesterday before Judge Atwater in the District Court. The combine brought suit to recover money claimed as dues. S. S. Swackhamer represented Mr. Johnson and succeeded in getting a non-suit on the ground that Mr. Johnson had disposed of his business to another party, who had been recognized by the combine. Judge Atwater contended that as soon as a man disposes of his business he ceases to be a member of the combine and is not liable. Edward Nugent represented the plaintiff.

Funeral of Mr. Conger.

The funeral services of the late Wm. H. Conger were held last evening at 8 o'clock from the residence of his son, Wm Conger, 39 Mountain avenue. Rev. E. E. Loux, of Richmond Hill, L. I., assisted by Rev. Dr. D J. Yerkes, of the First Baptist church, conducted the services. Mr. Loux was pastor of the Baptist church at Rockville Centre, L. I., when the deceased was a resident of that place several years ago, and Mr. Conger was a member of Mr. Loux's church at that time. The interment took place to day in the family plot at Bridgeport, Conn.

CHRISTMAS FESTIVALS AT MANY CHURCHES

gifts by Santa Claus.

In the evening the older scholars had a more elaborate programme. Miss Grace Overton gave a recitation and Dalziel Schoonmaker pleased the audidence with mandolin selections. During the evening a professional prestidigitator amused the audience by his clever tricks and sleight-of-hand work. Refreshments and candy were then distributed and a general good time enjoyed. A pleasant feature in connection with the exercises was the presentation to Robert H. Cook by his class of a handsome Morris chair.

PARK AVENUE BAPTIST CHURCH.

The feature of the Christmas entertainment for the children of the Sunday-school of the Park Avenue Baptist church last evening was "Madame Jarley's Wax Works," which was given with great success. Mrs. W. S. Lowry impersonated "Madame Jarley." The characters were taken by Wesley R. Brokaw, Miss Elizabeth Runyon, Miss Mary A. Giles, Miss Elsie Giles, William H. Sebring, Jr., Miss Henrietta Cuming, Miss Emily Runyon, Miss Laura E. Runyon, Herbert Brokaw, Joseph M. Hawkins, Miss Essie Thompson, Harry Thompson, Miss Adelaide Runyon, Harry Cuming, Aaron Thompson, Miss Elizabeth VanWinkle and Miss Ada M. Runyon. Thomas A. Cuming and Arthur Krom took the part of "Peter" and "John," "Madame Jarley's" attendants. At the close of the entertainment F. A. Ostrom, as Santa Claus, distributed gifts to every member of the primary department and candy to the entire school. The Christmas committee was Joseph M. Hawkins, chairman; the Misses Elizabeth Runyon, Laura E. Runyon, Adelaide Runyon, and E. Frank Vail.

ALL SOULS CHURCH.

The Christmas festival at All Souls church was held yesterday afternoon, when the members of the Sunday-school had a good time. The principal feature was a cobweb party. There were endless lines of string and the young people had lots of fun trying to find the end. When they did so they also found a present. The rest of the afternoon was devoted to playing all kinds of games. Before the scholars went home they were given boxes of candy.

ST. MARY'S CHURCH.

The assembly hall of St. Mary's Parochial School was completely filled yesterday afternoon when the pupils gave their Christmas entertainment. The singing of carols and a recitation, "A Surprise for Santa Claus," by Miss Mary Murray, opened the exercises, after which a cantata, "Up to Date, or, The New Santa Claus," was given. Henry Kearns made a capital old Santa Claus while Bernard Brady as the new Santa Claus was equally as good. The others who took part were the Misses Margaret Harding, Mary Birmingham, Blanche Skinner and Mary Murray, John Kyle, Martin Flatley, John Donnelley and John Caulfield. The pupils afterward walked by the tree and each was given a present by the popular old Santa Claus.

CRESCENT AVENUE CHURCH.

At the Crescent Avenue church chapel last evening the Sunday-school pupils and their parents were entertained for nearly an hour by George H. Simonson, of New York. Jokes, "coon" songs and character sketches made up a programme which kept his audience laughing continually. His impersonation of the Dutch costermonger, the character made famous by Albert Chevalier, was especially good and elicited great applause. At the conclusion of Mr. Simonson's entertainment all present adjourned to a lower room where refreshments were served. The younger pupils of the school held the usual exercises in the afternoon, receiving presents at the close.

ST. STEPHEN'S CHURCH.

The Sunday-school of St. Stephen's church held their Christmas festival yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. The church was well filled by the children and their friends, and the Christmas tree was a thing of beauty. The carols were well sung, under the auspices of Mrs. Lewis, the organist of the Sunday-school, assisted by Mrs. Buckley, the organist of the church. Not only were the scholars remembered in the distribution of gifts, but the rector, the two organists, the superintendent and the sexton, were recipients of the fruit of the tree. The church was tastefully decorated with festoons of arbor vitæ, the altar robed in white, relieved by a profusion of holly. The teachers of the Sunday-school are to be congratulated on the success of the festival, which well repaid their conscientious work.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The members of the First Presbyterian church Sunday-school participated in the annual Christmas festivities yesterday. The primary department entertainment was given in the afternoon when a programme consisting of recitations, songs, etc., was given the scholars. Afterward each one was given a suitable present. In the evening the main school and their friends were entertainted by Prof. Macey, of New York, who gave a clever performance of sleight-of hand work. He also sang some comic songs and gave some pleasing readings and recitations. At the conclusion refreshments and candy was given to the members of the school.

MOUNT OLIVE BAPTIST CHURCH.

There was a good attendance at the Mount Olive Baptist church last evening on the occasion of the annual Christmas festival. There was music by the school and a Christmas play, which was cleverly presented. Arthur James was the "Frost King" and Grace Manning the "Fairy Queen." Among those who also rendered vocal selections were Henry Kingslow, Henry Mitchell, William Kline, Geo. Hill. During the evening an orchestra, composed of Edward Blair, violin; Henry Mitchell, cornet; Henry Kingslow, violin; Horatio Randolph, organ, supplied excellent music. After the entertainment a Santa Claus in the person of Fred Mitchell distributed candy to the scholars. The affair was one of the best ever held by this Sunday-school.

THE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

There was a large attendance at the entertainment of the Congregational church Sunday-school and the room presented an attractive appearance, with its decorations of Christmas greens and a large and elaborately dressed tree standing in one corner. The programme included carols by the school, prayer by A. C. LaBoyteaux, song of welcome and goodnight song, by children in colonial costume, Jeanie Millar, Edith Glaentzer, Maud Emmons, Myra Emmons, Ethel VanZant, Edna Conde, Vreeland VanAlstyne, Walter Pound, Ray Fuller and Clarence Steiner; a vocal solo by Ethel Noe; a costume song, "Stars for Jesus," by Mary Forbes, Alice Van Horn, Marguerite VanZant, Clara Runyon, Edith Koch, Amy Winant, Emma VanAlystyne, Marie Conover, May Mattison and Nettie Steiner; a song by the primary department; a solo by Nettie Steiner; a Christmas exercise by Walter Glaentzer, George Koch, Ray Wyckoff, Ray Kenyon, William Richter, Frank Forbes, LeRoy Voorhees, Francis Baker and Irving VanAlstyne, and collection and distribution of gifts by Santa Claus' son, Santa Jr. Santa, Jr., represented by Harold Millar, read a letter from his father, explaining why he was unable to be present and that he had sent his son to take his place. Assisted by the colonial children, young Santa collected the gifts brought by the school for the children of Antonia Arrighi's Italian mission church in New York, and distributed the gifts for the members of the school.

MRS. WARING'S AT HOME.

Last of a Series of Three Given Yesterday Afternoon at Her Home on Park Avenue.

The third and last of the pleasant "at homes" which have recently been held by Mrs. Orville T. Waring at her home on Park avenue, was attended by about one hundred and fifty of the society people yesterday afternoon. The affair lasted from 5 to 7 o'clock. The parlors and drawing room were handsomely decorated, mistletoe, holly and roses being used in profusion. The effect was very pretty. Among those who assisted Mrs. Waring in receiving were: Mrs. William E. Lowe, Mrs. F. S. Schoonmaker, Mrs. Charles J. Fisk, Miss Elizabeth Cock, Mrs. E. M. VanBuren, Mrs. Marion S. Ackerman, Miss Katheryn Reinhart, Miss Charlotte Lowe, Miss Gertrude Andrews, Miss Sadie Compton.

YEAR'S WORK OF STREET DEPARTMENT.

Report of Councilmanic Committee on Streets and Sewers Regarding Streets.

RECOMMENDATIONS MADE.

SUMMARY OF STREET IMPROVEMENTS MADE DURING 1900.

Advise City Street Sprinkling of All Macadam Roads—Also Recommend Putting Up Street Signs at Once.

The following is that portion of the report of the committee on streets and sewers, presented at the meeting of the Common Council Thursday evening, which relates to the streets and the work of the street department:

We beg to submit herewith the annual report of the committee on streets and sewers.

MACADAMIZING.

In the report submitted by your committee a year ago reference was made to the new method being tried of issuing temporary bonds to provide for the cost of macadamizing streets where all except a small minority of the property owners are desirous of subscribing for the improvement.

This plan has proved successful, as most of the assessments have been paid. We would therefore recommend that ordinances be introduced for macadamizing the following streets, provided the property owners favoring the plan seem to be in the majority: West Sixth street, from Park avenue to Plainfield avenue; First, Second and Third places; Norwood avenue; New street; Spooner avenue; West Fifth street, from Grant avenue to Monroe avenue; Berckman street; East Third street, from Richmond street to Berckman street; Rock avenue, from Front street to the Piscataway township line.

The city's proportion of the cost of macadamizing these streets, with the amount still due (about $1,600) on the previous assessments, should be included in the street appropriation for 1901.

Orange place was macadamized from curb to curb, and was paid for partly by subscriptions of the property owners and partly from the street appropriation; Arlington avenue, from Fourth street to Randolph road; Randolph road, from Arlington avenue to Park avenue, and Woodland avenue in front of Hillside cemetery were macadamized by the Plainfield Street Railway Company without expense to the city.

Madison avenue, from Front street to Green brook, has been macadamized by the property owners.

Re-macadamizing work has been done on the following streets, much of it unusually heavy:

Park avenue, from Front street to Fourth street, having received no attention, except minor repairs, for a number of years, required a large amount of stone to give it the proper crown and grade, but the work is considered very satisfactory, and if such streets are occasionally surfaced with a thin layer of half inch stone, they will last almost indefinitely. East Front street, from Watchung avenue to Richmond street; East Second street, from Watchung avenue to Richmond street, completed; East Third street, from Watchung avenue to Richmond street; Washington avenue; Richmond street, from East Front street to East Second street; Franklin place, from Putnam avenue to Watchung avenue; Putnam avenue, from Franklin place to Webster place; South avenue, from a point east of Leland avenue to Terrill road; also at Woodland avenue, and West Front street, from Park avenue to Grant avenue, were re macadamized in a substantial manner.

Putnam avenue and West Front street also required a large amount of stone; on the former the Street Railway Company paid one-third, plus ten cents per foot, and on the latter the company is to pay one half the cost.

Early in the spring considerable repairing was done on West Front street, near Dunellen, by placing Telford foundation under the macadam where the natural foundation was bad, and Clinton avenue was partially repaired with stone between Front and Second streets and near Dunellen avenue, and with slag and cinders between Second and Third streets.

The construction of the Arlington avenue street railway required considerable work on West Seventh street and particularly on West Eighth street, which had never been cut down

WHY DINNER WAS REFUSED.

MOTORMAN SANDEL TELLS WHY W.C. T. U.'S OFFER WAS REJECTED.

Are Able to Buy Their Own Christmas Dinners and Don't Like to Eat Them in a Cellar.

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—In answer to the article in your valuable paper, "Refused Christmas Dinner," and in answer to the kind ladies of the W. C. T. U., and in defense of the employes of the Plainfield Street Railroad Company, I have this to say:

If the ladies of the W. C. T. U. wanted to do any real act of charity they ought to have taken the money, they so willingly gave for that refused Christmas dinner, to some poor family in the city; it would have done more good there and been highly appreciated, but the kind ladies of the W. C. T. U. didn't seem to know who they had dealings with when they offered that dinner to the street railway employes, which had been advertised in the newspapers a week ahead of time as an act of charity. In offering the men that sort of a dinner they offered them an insult.

Railroad men, as a rule, are, when in health and employment, well able to furnish their own dinners, Christmas or any other day, and need not accept any such offer; furthermore, the good-hearted ladies expected the street railway employes to eat their Christmas dinner in a cellar in the "Weary Willie" style. Even if we're only motormen and conductors, we're not as low as all that. The ladies may say that man must be one of those drunkards; they'll have a job in proving it, as I haven't touched a drop of any intoxicating drink in some time, and if some of the men do take a glass of beer once in a while, it don't mean to say they're disrespectable. The ladies made very little of us in public and I like to answer in public.

Yours truly,
Albert Sandel,
Motorman Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company.

MR. BOB.

Something About the Farce to Be Given in the Casino New Year's Eve.

The performance of "Mr. Bob," to be given at the Casino Monday evening, has been under the stage direction of Douglas Houghton, of New York. Mr. Houghton is the coach of the Players' Club and others. He is a dramatic writer of known ability.

The farce to be given Monday night next is a very laughable chapter of mistakes caused by the appearance of "Mr. Bob" at a house party, where she is supposed to be a man, when in reality she is a woman. The many laughable incidents thus created give promise that the play will be one of the funniest and best put-on amateur performances Plainfield has ever seen. Tickets are now on sale at Armstrong's and Randolph's drug stores, North avenue; also the Woman's Exchange on Park avenue.

SONG SERVICE AT HOSPITAL.

Local Endeavorers Will Conduct One There on New Year's Day Afternoon.

The Endeavorers of the Plainfield Local Union and their friends are planning to give a half hour service of song at Muhlenberg Hospital, New Year's afternoon, from 3 to 3:30 o'clock, using familiar hymns from Sacred Songs No. 1. Those who go are asked to take with them any Christmas or New Year's cards, flowers or potted plants that they can spare.

A cordial invitation is extended all friends who would like to assist in the song service to meet the Endeavorers at the hospital at 3 o'clock.

Charming Studio Tea.

Miss Edith Von Boskerck and Miss Alice Rushmore gave a delightful reception at their studio in the Y. M. C. A. building yesterday afternoon. The walls of the studio were covered with the drawings and paintings of these young artists and showed a remarkable degree of talent and thorough knowledge of the subjects treated. The work done was in all materials, but the drawings from life were possibly executed with the most skill, the pose and action of the figures being unusually good. During the afternoon tea was served to a large number of society people who enjoyed the exhibition and hospitality.

There Will be Another Meeting.

The meeting of the Common Council to be held on Friday evening, January 4, is especially for the purpose of closing up the various accounts for the year. This was impossible at the last meeting. The next meeting will be the last for this year. The new Council holds its first meeting Monday, January 7.

COMING ATTRACTIONS AT MUSIC HALL.

The Bennett & Moulton Comedy Company Will be Here Next Week.

THEY ARE OLD FAVORITES.

OTHER GOOD SHOWS PROMISED FOR MONTH OF JANUARY.

Well-Known Repertoire Company Plays Here Next Week With "Darkest Russia" For Opening Night—Other Attractions Booked.

Large and well pleased audiences were present at Music Hall Christmas Day and night, to witness an exceedingly good performance of the ever-popular drama "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" by the Harry Webber Company. It was very enjoyable throughout and Mr. Webber's appearance in another play will undoubtedly be welcome.

On Wednesday night a comedy entitled "To Rich to Marry" by Edward Owings Towne, a very clever playwright, had its first presentation in this city and was well received by a small audience. All present, however, were well repaid for their attendance for a more worthy comedy has not been offered by Manager Mazie Edwards this season. The story of the play shows that it is abundantly amusing, its character skillfully differentiated, its plot intricate and cleverly developed through a maze of purpose to a clear and consistant final. Its dialogue is colloquially bright and distinctively witty.

In a word the new play is in every way worthy of the author of "Other Peoples Money," and it was admirably acted.

The bill board and newspaper announcements made this week to the effect that the Bennett & Moulton Comedy Company will open for a week's engagement at Music Hall on Monday has no doubt changed the minds of hundreds of theatre goers of this city in a reminiscential direction. For it seems that almost as far back as the mind of living man runneth has the name of Bennett & Moulton been a household one throughout the eastern states.

As a matter of fact Bennett & Moulton's is one of the oldest amusement concerns now in existence in this country. The famous comic opera company was launched by C. S. Bennett and John S. Maulton 22 years ago, on August 27, 1878. In 1887 opera gave way to comedy and drama and the firm name changed from the Bennett & Moulton Comic Opera Company to the Bennett & Moulten Comedy Company.

In this 22 years millions of people have witnessed the productions of this famous old company and it would be more difficult, perhaps, to find a person of adult years in this section who have never attended one of their performances than to find one for whom this is still a pleasure in store.

"Darkest Russia" is the opening bill for Monday night, which will be presented in a magnificent manner, and between the acts entertaining specialties will be given, chief of which will be the introduction of Mme. Flower, the "Bronze Melba," in operatic selections. Daily matinees will be given, beginning with New Year's Day, Tuesday, and popular prices will prevail throughout the engagement.

Miss Dorothy Lewis, a very clever and pleasing actress, will appear Monday, January 7, in Hal Reid's best and latest drama, entitled "Hearts of the Blue Ridge," supported by a strong dramatic company, with special scenery, etc. Mr. Reid is the author of the beautiful play, "Human Hearts," and this fact alone should fill the house. On Thursday, January 10, the great Klaw & Erlanger production of "Jack and the Beanstalk," an operatic spectacular play will be seen, and many other novelties are promised by Manager Edwards in the month of January.

Will Install Separately.

It is quite likely that the members of Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., will install their officers separately next month. Heretofore, the installation of Post, Woman's Relief Corps and Sons of Veterans has been a joint affair. A change has been considered desirable as it allows more time for each installation and it is not so tiresome.

—The Sunday-school of St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church will have their Christmas festival tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the parish house.

M'CUTCHEN MADE PRESIDENT.

HONORED AT MEETING OF STATE SCHOOL BOARD ASSOCIATION.

Held at State House, Trenton, Yesterday—S. St. John McCutchen Elected President.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, Dec. 29—One hundred and fifty members of the New Jersey State School Board Association attended the first annual meeting of the organization, which was held in this city yesterday.

At the afternoon session the following officers were chosen for the ensuing year: President S. St. John McCutchen, of Plainfield; first vice-president, Brewster Willis of New Brunswick; second vice president, Abram T. Morris, of Lyons Farms; third vice-president, G. H. Osgood, of Atlantic City; secretary-treasurer, J. Brognard Betts, of Somerville.

The first session was called to order at the State House shortly after 10 o'clock. State Superintendent of Public Instruction Baxter, of Plainfield, was introduced to the assembled members and made the address of welcome.

President Austin Scott of Rutgers College presented a paper on "The Relation of the Public Schools to Higher Education." President E H Schmidt of the New York State Association of School Boards, in a lengthy paper, urged a more vital interest by parents in the education of their children.

James Owens, of Montclair, spoke on the transportation of pupils.

President Willis spoke of "dead and alive school boards" and referred to the former in a rather rough manner.

The members then repaired to the Trenton House, where after dinner, they resumed business. Immediately after the dinner, Rev. George C. Maddock, State Prison chaplain, made a humorous address on the possibilities of education in New Jeasey. He was followed by Assistant Superintendent of Public Instruction Batte, who urged that the public school money should be distributed on the basis of days attendance.

Rev. A. Maurice Morgan, of Milltown, made the closing address, his theme being "Character Building in the Public Shools." Then followed the routine business, which included the election of officers and the meeting adjourned sine die.

GREAT ARTISTS COMING.

The Kneisels Will Give a Subscription Concert in the Casino January 19.

It will gratify the musical people of Plainfield to know that the movement set on foot a month or so ago to have the Kneisels come to Plainfield for an evening in January has been successful, and they have sent word that they will play on the evening of Saturday, Jan. 19, the following numbers:

Beethoven, quartette in A major, op. 18, No. 5; Chopin, Lento for 'cello and strings; Schubert, one movement from the unfinished quartette in C minor; Dvorak, quartette in E, flat major, op. 51. A more detailed announcement will be given later.

It is hard to imagine a more beautiful programme than the one above. The exquisite modulations of the Beethoven Andante, the passionate warmth of the Chopin Lento, the delicacy of the Schubert fragment, and the weird, rythmic and most modern Dvorak quartette compose precisely such a programme as the Kneisels play to the inner circles of musical London and Boston.

The tickets, at Armstrong's drug store, are limited to 250 in number and will be allotted in the order of application.

Grossly Intoxicated.

Patrick Kearns, an employe of the street cleaning department, was found on North avenue yesterday afternoon grossly intoxicated. Patrolman McCarthy locked Patrick up. This morning City Judge Runyon suspended sentence upon promise that the city should pay Kearns' wages to his family.

To Usher in New Century.

All active and exempt firemen are invited by the members of Warren Engine Co. to be present on Monday evening to help celebrate the ushering in of the new century. The boys will have a jolly time. There is to be plenty of entertainment and some choice oysters and other good things to eat.

Ross at Kearney.

William H. Ross, a former resident and proprietor of the Delmonico Restaurant on Park avenue, has been received at the Soldiers' Home at Kearney. Mr. Ross has been quite ill.

VERDICT FOR $1,400 AGAINST TRACTION CO.

Jury Brought In Verdict Last Night In Case of Komarak vs. Traction Co.

GRAND JURY ADJOURNED.

WILL NOT MEET AGAIN UNTIL NEXT WEDNESDAY.

Is Now Investigating Death of Von Sheffler — Indictments Aagainst Central Railroad Postponed And May Be Dropped.

(Special to the Daily Press.)

Somerville, Dec 29.—In the case of Joseph Komarak against the Middlesex and Somerset Traction Company, which has been occupying the attention of the Somerset courts for two days, the jury last evening rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $1,400.

Last March Komarak was struck by a trolley car between Somerville and Raritan, his wagon smashed to atoms and his horse injured, while he was permanently disabled, not having been able to work any since. The suit was entered for $10,000 damages. Hon. Alvah A. Clark, counsel for the traction company, asked for a rule to show cause why a new trial should not be granted. Hon. James J. Bergen represented the plaintiff.

The Grand Jury adjourned last evening until next Wednesday. They are now investigating the death of William VonSheffler, Dr. Mosher's coachman.

The indictments will be tried by Judge Schenck on January 7, he holding criminal court in the Grand Jury room while Justice Garretson tries the civil cases in the courtroom below. By this method the term of court is shortened and the county is saved $120 a day.

The indictment against the Central Railroad, for maintaining a nuisance in the Middagh and Hamilton street crossings, has been postponed until January 22, and may never be tried at all, as the railroad company proposes to depress the road under the tracks at these crossings. If this is done the indictment will not be pushed.

FAREWELL TO CENTURY.

Watch-Night Service of Endeavorers at Trinity Reformed Church Monday Night.

A union farewell service will be held next Monday night from 11 to 12 o'clock at Trinity Reformed church under the auspices of the Local Union of Christian Endeavor. It will be in the form of a service to see the old century out and the new one in and a very interesting programme has been arranged. All Endeavorers and anyone else interested are cordially invited.

The programme follows:

11:00 Praise service.
11:08 Reading in concert from Psalter, concluding with sentence prayers by the congregation.
11:15 Experience and testimonies of blessings received by congregation.
11:35 Three-minute addresses by pastors. The Past Year's Lesson, Rev. Cornelius Schenck. Proper Use of the Present Moment, Rev. C. E. Herring. The Supreme Aim of 1901, Rev. C. L. Goodrich. Sources of Strength for Action, Rev. A. E. Main.
11:47 Brief prayer service and confession of Need.
11:55 Period for silent meditation.
12:00 Welcome to the New Year.

Week of Prayer.

The week of prayer will be observed in the week beginning January 6, by the First M. E., Grace M. E. and Monroe Avenue churches. On Monday evening, January 7, there will be an Epworth League service at Monroe Avenue church. On the following Friday there will be a Sunday-school service at Grace church, and the other three evenings will be devoted to seasons of prayer at Vincent chapel.

A Fellowship Service.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the First Baptist church will hold an interesting meeting on Friday evening, January 4. It will be a "fellowship" service and devoted to Christian greetings. It is expected that some visiting society will be present.

A Former Teacher Remembered.

The teachers and scholars of the Mt. Olive Baptist church Sunday-school have presented to Jacob Sperling, of Pittsburg, Pa., a fine Bible. He was formerly a teacher at the Mt. Olive school and the gift is in appreciation for his services.

Christmas Music to be Repeated.

The Christmas music will be repeated at Trinity Reformed church tomorrow evening. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

SANTA CLAUSE WAS THERE

CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION AT MARCONNIER CHAPEL LAST NIGHT.

Members of Sunday-school Spent a Pleasant Evening—Entertaining Programme Given.

The Christmas festival was held at Marconnier chapel, Oak Tree, last evening, under the auspices of the Sunday school. The chapel was lavishly decorated with greens and mistletoe which was sent from Texas by Mrs. Swenck's mother. The programme was in charge of Superintendent H. W. Marshall. Mrs. Mae Marconnier Swenck trained the children for the recitations, while B. W. Hand, of this city, drilled the school in singing.

The programme opened with the singing of a carol, "The Shepherds," by the school. This was followed with a prayer by Rev. Cornelius Schenck, Ph. D., pastor of Trinity Reformed church. "Greetings," were given by Miss Bertha Frazee. The rest of the programme is as follows: Vocal solo, Miss Fanny Mundy; recitation, Ettabelle Whepley; carol, school; recitation, Daisy and Ivah Morrison; address, Rev. Cornelius Schenck, Ph.D.; carol, school; recitation, Nettie Stover, Ruth Wilson, Mary Morrison, Jane Robertson, Charlotte Campbell; offertory, school; vocal solo, Nettie Stover; recitation, Master Willie Robertson; carol, school.

At this time Santa Claus appeared in the person of Mr. Compton. He entered the main room, followed by Wm. VanCourt and W. H. Randolph, who carried a large stocking which was filled with little stockings, in which were oranges and candy.

The programme was concluded with a carol, and a recitation by Fred Stover. A number of persons were present from Trinity Reformed church, this city.

BIG DAMAGES CLAIMED.

Former Coachman Sues Jos. Faulkener, of Dunellen, for Alienating His Wife's Affections.

Edmund J. Watson, a former coachman employed by Joseph Faulkener, has brought suit against Mr. Faulkener through Bruce & Runyon for $50,000 for alienating of his wife's affection. Mr. Faulkener lives between New Market and Dunellen and is the proprietor of the Burr Printing House, of New York.

Mr. Watson claims that his wife left him some time ago. He obtained possession of a bundle of letters which it is alleged were written by Mr. Faulkener. Mr. Watson claims that since his wife left him she is being supported by Mr. Faulkener. Mrs Watson is the mother of one daughter at present living with her father.

Mr. Faulkener is a widower with several married children living in Brooklyn. The letters which Mr. Watson has are said to refer to sums of money received from Mr. Faulkener and also to acts between the writer and Mrs. Watson.

EXCITING TEAM SHOOT.

Newark Team Won, Killing Thirty-seven Birds Out of a Possible Forty.

One of the most interesting team shoots held this season took place Thursday afternoon at Campbell,s club house between several teams from various parts of the state. The shoot was for $15 a corner, twenty live birds to a man. The winner was to take all the money, while the second and third teams in order stood one third and two-thirds of the expense of purchasing the birds. Thomas H. Keller was the referee.

Hessinger and Koegel, of Newark, were the winners. The former killed 19 birds and the latter 18, a total of 37 out of a possible 40. Knevels, of South Orange, and Emmons, of Whitehouse, were second with a total of 32 birds to their credit. Knevels killed 15 birds and his partner 17. Reed, of Trenton, and Schenck, of this city, were third. The former killed 14 birds and his partner killed 17, a total of 31.

Twentieth Century Watch-Night Service.

There will be a Twentieth Century watch-night service in Vincent chapel next Monday night commencing at 9 o'clock. The three Methodist churches will unite. The service will be divided in two parts. The first part will be devoted to brief addresses on appropriate subjects. At 10:30 o'clock there will be an intermission of ten minutes, after which there will be a reunion love feast until 12 o'clock.

At East Third Street Chapel.

Harry Gee will lead the meeting at the East Third Street chapel tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Anna Moffett, of Los Angeles, Cal., will sing and a collection for the Florence Mission, New York, will be taken.

MORE CHURCHES HOLD CHRISTMAS FESTIVALS.

Pleasant Entertainments With Varied Programmes Were Held Last Evening.

CANTATAS WERE GIVEN.

GIFTS AND CANDIES FOR THE CHILDREN OF SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Carols Sung and Prizes Presented at Episcopal Churches—Lecture by Dr. Richards at Hope Chapel—Thomas Muir Made a Fine Santa Claus.

While a large number of the Christmas festivals of the local Sunday-schools were held Thursday evening, there were several held last evening at which various forms of entertainment were provided. They were as follows:

HOLY CROSS CHURCH.

The annual Christmas festival and tree provided for the scholars of the Sunday-school of the Holy Cross Episcopal church last evening attracted a large number of the citizens of the borough, many of whom were not members of this denomination.

Previous to the distribution of gifts in the parish house, services were held in the church, Rev. W. Montgomery Downey, the rector, officiating. At this service the children of the school, assisted by the vested choir, sang carols and also listened to a short address by Rector Downey.

Before the close of the services Rev. Mr. Downey announced the five prize winners among the choir boys. The prizes had been given by certain members of the parish for proficiency in music, deportment and good attendance. The first prize, three dollars in cash, was awarded to Malcom Davis, who also won the prize for improvement in his singing and all-round advancement, good conduct, etc. The second prize, a full year's course in the Y. M. C. A., went to Luther L. Shepard, while Paul Brakeley captured the third prize, also a year's course in the Y. M. C. A. The fourth prize, a solid silver cross, fell to Master Harry Smith. Honorable mention was also made of the other members of the choir, all of whom have shown marked advancement in the singing of the difficult music.

At the close of the service the children marched to the parish house, where a prettily decorated tree had been provided for their pleasure. The presents were many of them quite expensive and all very handsome. They were distributed by Rector Downey, who was assisted by Alexander E. Faber, Jr.

GRACE M. E. CHURCH.

The feature of the Christmas festival for the Sunday-school of Grace M. E. church last evening was a cantata entitled "Mrs. Santa Claus and the Christmas Dolls." Among those who participated in the sketch were Emma Ryno, May Higgins, Roy Vanderbeek, Mabel Winans, Evaline Nelson, Elna Sebring, Arthur Stewart, Ida Saums, Russell Conroy, Matthew Darby, Roy Sharp and Louis DeCamp. Santa Claus was personated by Elmer Cutting, who distributed gifts to the children at the close of the cantata.

The entertainment was interesting and the singing of the little folks highly creditable. The characters were well taken and so well carried out as to bring forth deserved praise. Superintendent John Valiant had charge of the exercises. He was assisted by Mrs. Corra Ryno as chairman; the Misses Bella Lunger, Della Voehl, Alice Carroll and May Steiner.

There was a large attendance, the cozy little church being most too small to hold all who wished to enjoy the festivities.

GRACE P. E. CHURCH.

The members of Grace P. E. church Sunday-school enjoyed their annual Christmas festival last evening and it was one of the most pleasant events of the year. The members and their friends met in the church at 7:30 o'clock and joined in a service consisting of carols. The choir under the direction of Mrs. Freeman, organist, had charge of the music, and assisted in the rendition of the various selections. There were addresses by Rev. E. M. Rodman, the rector, and Rev. Floyd Appleton, curate. Mr. Rodman read a greeting from Palestine. It was a folder card bearing a pretty scene taken in that country, also some flowers from the Holy Land. The card was sent to Dr. Rodman by D. N. Tadros, and contained an appropriate verse, which was read. Rev. Mr. Appleton made a short address reciting the important mission of Christ coming to earth to tell of God's love.

After the service at the church all

THEY SAY.

The Merchant Says:

Telephone service is a great promoter of business. It not only is an open door for new business, but increases the facility with which any business may be transacted.

The Railroad Man Says:

It keeps our many departments running in continuous harmony. It increases both our passenger and our freight service, and is a great convenience to our patrons.

The Broker Says:

It keeps me in touch with the market wherever I am; I buy and sell by wire, and by taking telephonic advantage of a turn in the market I have made thousands of dollars.

The Doctor Says:

Telephone service has increased my income to nearly double. Many persons will seek advice by telephone who would hesitate to ask a physician to make a call.

The Caterer Says:

Telephone service enables me to serve my patrons more speedily and with less effort. It minimizes possibility of loss from overstocking.

The Housekeeper Says:

Life without telephone service would be unbearable. It smooths all the rough places. How we ever got along without it, I do not know.

The Suburban Resident Says:

The knowledge that I can call up my house out of town from my office in the city, is a great comfort.

The College Man Says:

"I say, old chap, it's great. You can call up and get the latest news from the football game or the boat race, and every other old thing a fellow wants to know."

Everybody Says:

It is the greatest thing in the world—the greatest convenience of this or any other time. The greatest factor in business, social or domestic life; a service no one can afford to be without.

The Telephone Company Says:

We want your patronage on the basis of LOW RATES, PERFECT SERVICE.

CROWE IDENTIFIED.

Police Certain He Is the Man Wanted In the Cudahy Case.

OMAHA, Dec. 29.—Daniel Burris positively identified at Pacific Junction, Ia., the pony left there mysteriously in the barn of a Mrs. Mack the day following the Cudahy abduction as one he sold to a man answering the description of "Pat" Crowe a few days before the occurrence of that event. Mrs. Thomas B. Cooper, a married daughter of Burris, was shown a collection of 25 photographs taken from the rogues' gallery and asked to select if she could one or more which resembled the "light complexioned man who called to buy the pony."

She at once picked out two of the photographs which she was sure were those of this man. The pictures were those of Crowe. Mrs. Cooper is the fifth person who saw this man who has identified him with a likeness of Crowe, and the police now feel sure that he is one of the men wanted. They have not been able, however, to get a clew to the identity of the dark complexioned man who was associated in the crime.

The detectives are now very anxious to locate Lizzie Burns, who is alleged to have been an intimate friend of Crowe. Miss Burns was employed at hotels in South Omaha up to the time of the Cudahy abduction, since which time she has not been seen.

A NEW EMPEROR.

Empress Dowager of China Said to Have Deposed Kwangsu.

LONDON, Dec. 29.—"Private advices from the province of Shansi say," wires the Shanghai correspondent of The Standard, "that while the court was sojourning at Tai-yuen-fu the empress dowager secretly appointed a new emperor, with the title Tung Hsu. He is a 15-year-old boy who was taken to Sian-fu in the imperial yellow chair. This explains the permission given Emperor Kwangsu to return to Peking.

"Emperor Kwangsu has notified the reform party that he is returning to the capital and will need their assistance."

Movements Against Chinese.

BERLIN, Dec. 29.—The war office has received the following dispatch from Count von Waldersee, dated Peking, Dec. 27: "A column commanded by Major von Madai will start tomorrow for San-ho-hsien to co-operate with the Grucher expedition which left Tien-tsin on Dec. 15 for Yuen-tien-tsien. An American detachment will leave Peking tomorrow via Hiang-ho-hsien with the same object. The Chinese who were defeated by the French Dec. 23 fled in a southerly direction."

A PUSHING CAMPAIGN.

Northern Mindanao the Scene of Great Activity.

MANILA, Dec. 29.—A pushing campaign has been carried on by the Fortieth infantry during December in northern Mindanao. The town of Jemeniz was captured, as was also the insurgent stronghold in the mountains farther inland.

The coast town of Langarin was captured by a detachment of 100 troops, who scattered the enemy in that vicinity, killing and capturing several.

A portion of the troops thus engaged have returned to Cagayan and joined in the campaign which Brigadier General Kobbe is personally prosecuting.

General MacArthur's proclamation is resulting in many arrests of alleged insurrectionists in Manila and vicinity, a few of those taken into custody being prominent. One prisoner was shot dead and another wounded in attempting to escape.

Explosion Kills Six.

KEYSER, W. Va., Dec. 29.—One of the most disastrous accidents in the history of railroad building in this section happened at Baker camp, near Durbin, Pocahontas county, on the line of the coal and iron railroad now building out from Elkins. As the result of a dynamite explosion six men are dead, and several others are not expected to live. The accident happened at noon while the men were at dinner. Some dynamite had been placed about the stove to thaw out, and shortly after a terrific explosion wrecked the camp, killed three men outright and injured eight others, three of whom have since died. The dead men were blown into atoms, legs, arms and hands and even parts of their bodies being found in different directions from the little building in which they lived among the wild mountains.

Pullman Assets Grow.

CHICAGO, Dec. 29.—According to a report filed by the executors of the estate of the late George M. Pullman, the assets of the Pullman family have increased $6,000,000 since the death of the sleeping car magnate a little over three years ago. The accounting made yesterday to the probate court shows that the estate is now valued at $15,000,000 as against $9,000,000 at the time it was turned over to the executors. The tremendous increase is largely due, it is said, to the increase in the value of stocks, bonds and similar property during that period. A large portion of the Pullman millions was invested in property of this kind.

De Wet's Plans Frustrated.

CAPE TOWN, Dec. 29.—General De Wet's attempt to break through to the south has been frustrated, and he is now reported to be at Senekal with a large commando, holding the country between Ficksburg, Senekal and Winburg. General Knox is holding the country between Ladybrand and Winburg. The eastern parties of invading Boers are being constantly harassed and driven back toward the Orange river. The yeomanry who were captured near Britstown have been released.

Blind Comedian Insane.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 29.—Max Hess, professionally known as Max Arnold, the blind comedian, is insane, and it is probable he will have to be removed to a sanitarium for treatment. For the past month or more he has shown extreme nervousness, and evidences of his mind giving way have been apparent to his relatives and friends. Arnold was formerly a partner of Daniel Sully and played with Harrigan and Hart for some time.

Shipbuilding at Bath.

BATH, Me., Dec. 29.—The custom house at this port has made its annual report of vessels built in the district during the present calendar year. It shows that shipbuilding in tonnage surpasses that of any year save 1882, when 42,000 tons were built. This year the total is 41,532 gross or 35,561 net, distributed among 35 craft.

WILD STORM RAGES.

Great Loss of Life on British Coast.

MANY VESSELS ASHORE AND WRECKED

Gale One of the Worst Known In Many Years—Half a Hundred Boats Wrenched From Their Moorings In the Thames.

LONDON, Dec. 29.—Incessant reports of innumerable shipping casualties show that the gale was one of the worst known in many years. Probably several days will elapse before the full extent of the damage becomes known.

In addition to some vessels not yet identified which have been wrecked or placed in great danger the fate of some of the cross channel mail steamers is in doubt. For instance, the Great Western Railway company's steamer plying between Milford and Waterford is 12 hours overdue, and no tidings of her have as yet been received. It would be impossible to enumerate all the minor casualties.

In response to rockets from Eddystone light Plymouth sent a dockyard tug with a lifeboat to assist what was reported to be a large steamer in distress in the channel.

The Primrose Hill went on the Penrhos rocks, three miles off South Stack, not far from Holyhead. She broke in two and went to pieces in a few minutes. One man out of the crew of 35 men was saved by a lifeboat.

Some time before she struck the Primrose Hill dropped her anchors, but mountainous seas were running. No sooner had the ill fated ship touched the rocks than the three aftermasts went overboard, and she broke in twain, leaving only the foremast standing. Three minutes later this went also.

The vessel was soon smashed up. The Hibernia stood by throughout, but was powerless to aid. The Holyhead steam lifeboat made three vain attempts to reach the Primrose Hill. The latter's crew was huddled on the poop, when a huge sea dashed over the vessel, washing all away save one sailor, who was finally hurled against the rocks, sustaining severe injuries.

The British bark Pegasus, Captain Bailey, from San Francisco Aug. 17 for Queenstown, where she arrived on Dec. 23 and sailed Dec. 26 for Sharpness, was incorrectly reported to have foundered off Penarth Roads. One man of the crew of 34 was landed at Cardiff, and the statement of the vessel's loss originated with this sailor. It appears that the Pegasus grounded off Lavernock point, but she was subsequently floated and towed to a place of shelter. When she grounded, her boats were made ready for lowering and the falls of one of them carried away, precipitating five men into the water. They were all drowned with the exception of the sailor landed at Cardiff, who was picked up by a tug.

A terrible accident took place near Taunton. The breakwater at Watchet harbor yielded to the force of the gale and became a wreck, permitting a tremendous sea to have full play against the shipping in the harbor. Several vessels broke adrift, two foundered, and five others were driven into a hopeless tangle in a corner between a pier and a wharf, where they lay grinding each other. Their masts and bulwarks speedily went, and their hulls were greatly battered. The damage will reach many thousands of pounds.

The Austrian bark Capricorn was driven ashore near Bude, Cornwall. Nine of the crew were drowned, one was saved, and four are still on board, with little likelihood of being rescued, as they are unable to avail themselves of the rocket apparatus. Two other vessels are ashore on the Cornwall coast.

Several were stove in at Ilfracombe harbor. The bark Ragna was wrecked off Trevine, near Cardiff, three of her crew being drowned and nine being rescued by rocket lines.

The British steamships Black Prince at Queenstown and Teazer at Portsmouth were both badly damaged.

Wales appears to have suffered the worst effects of the gale both on land and sea, but everywhere the telegraph wires are much disorganized, and reports are therefore incomplete.

Considerable damage to property inland is certain to be reported.

Some 50 barges and sailing craft broke from their moorings in the Thame alone.

At Oswestry a theater was destroyed.

French Coast Storm Swept.

PARIS, Dec. 29.—Storms of extreme violence have swept the west and northwest coasts of France. There has been some loss of life, together with considerable damage to shipping.

Quay Confident.

HARRISBURG, Dec. 29.—Colonel Quay said last night that the stalwart Republicans won their fight at the polls on Nov. 6, and the situation has not changed since he made his original declaration that he would have 150 votes on joint ballot in the senate and house, or 22 more than necessary to a choice. Senator Penrose issued a formal statement in which he says he has no doubt whatever that both branches of the legislature will be organized by the regular Republicans.

Died After Being Pushed Into Fire.

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—Rosie Holwinski, 7 years old, died in Hackensack, N. J., and Mamie Neuble is dying as the result of having been pushed into a bonfire around which they were playing. Two boys are under arrest on the charge of having forced the little girls into the fire. They are Charles Keck and Willie Wenzel, each 10 years of age. All the children live in Hackensack.

Intercollegiate Chess.

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—The penultimate round in the ninth annual intercollegiate chess match between Columbia, Harvard, Yale and Princeton was brought to a close at 10 p. m. last night. Columbia took 3½ games out of 4 and has the lead, with excellent chances of winning back the trophy which has been in Harvard's custody for the past six years.

NURSES KILLED HIM.

Patient In New York Hospital Choked to Death.

MURDER CHARGES MAY BE PREFERRED

Witnesses Swear That Louis J. Hilliard In Insane Ward of Bellevue Was Beaten and Strangled.

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—Murder in the first degree, with the penalty of death upon conviction, is likely to be the charge preferred against the three Bellevue hospital nurses accused of inflicting upon Louis H. Hilliard, a patient in the insane pavilion, injuries from which he died.

When this announcement was made yesterday in the coroner's court by Assistant District Attorney McIntyre, the faces of the accused young men blanched, and they seemed to completely lose the self possession they have heretofore shown.

It was after Thomas J. Minnock, the principal witness for the prosecution, had been recalled to the stand to clear up a disputed point in his testimony that Mr. McIntyre made the sensational announcement. Minnock swore that he was positive that shortly before Hilliard's death the nurses had twisted a sheet around his neck and that J. R. Davis, one of the nurses, had cried: "I'll fix you! I'll fix you!"

Mr. McIntyre was on his feet in a moment.

"If what this witness says is true," he exclaimed, "it shows premeditation, Mr. Coroner, and this case is taken out of the ordinary category of manslaughter and becomes one of murder."

Davis and the other nurses, E. O. Dean and Clinton Marshall, stared hard at one another and became deathly pale.

Subsequently Mr. McIntyre said that he had not the slightest doubt that the accused would be held to face the charge of murder.

The inquest is before Coroner Fitzpatrick and a jury. Davis, Dean and Marshall are represented by Henry B. Anderson.

Mrs. Mary Hilliard of 384 Seventh avenue and her 14-year-old son were present, as were also a score of witnesses.

The accused nurses, who looked anxious and careworn, said that they would not be put on the stand in their own behalf.

The first witness was Mrs. Hilliard, who was recalled, and in answer to the coroner's question said that she noticed bruises on her husband's head when she saw him at the insane pavilion, and he told her he had been beaten. She asked Dr. Fitch how he got the bruises, and he said he did not know and did not want to know. Dr. Fitch testified that he did not notice any bruises on Hilliard's face. Mrs. Hilliard was then excused from further attendance, as she was ill.

A verdict to the effect that Louis H. Hilliard came to his death from asphyxiation and fractured ribs caused by Jesse R. Davis, Edward O. Dean and Clinton L. Marshall was brought in at 9:06 o'clock last night by the jury which had heard the evidence at the inquest before Coroner Fitzpatrick. The jury was out 36 minutes.

Mr. McIntyre, assistant district attorney, asked that the persons named be committed to await the action of the grand jury. "Granted," said the coroner, "and I will hold them under $5,000 bail each."

Put Money In Stove For Safety.

PORT CHESTER, N. Y., Dec. 29.—Several weeks ago Mrs. Jacob Marks, wife of a fruit dealer on Main street, uneasy because of the reports of frequent burglaries, took her savings, amounting to $198, and placed them in the oven of her gas stove. A few days later she put in $21 more, making $219 in bills. On the following day, finding that the fire in her range was out and being in a hurry to get breakfast, Mrs. Marks forgot the money in the oven and lighted the stove. She smelled something burning and upon opening the doors found the bills scorched almost to a crisp. Mrs. Marks sent the charred money to the subtreasury in New York and received new bills for the amount.

Another Negro Lynched.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Dec. 29.—George Fuller, a negro, has been lynched near Marion, Perry county. Wednesday night the barn of Dennis Cummings was burned, together with several hundred bushels of corn, a large amount of forage and seven mules. Fuller had been a tenant of Cummings' and had made threats concerning a settlement. He was arrested, and while on the way to Marion a body of masked men took him from the officers and hanged him to a tree.

War to Last For Years.

ROME, Dec. 29.—Major Grower Botha, brother of Commandant General Louis Botha, has arrived in Rome on his way to The Hague. He carries dispatches for Mr. Kruger. In the course of an interview here he said the war in South Africa would last for years, that Mr. Steyn had planned the invasion of Cape Colony and that a revolt of the Afrikanders was certain.

Cleveland Council Exonerated.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 29.—The city council last night, with only 13 of the 22 members present, finished the trial of the members accused of accepting bribes. With no prosecutor present the cases of D. B. Steuer, A. W. Henry and Lee N. Purdy were taken up. Within 15 minutes all were found not guilty of the charges preferred against them.

Negotiating For the Islands.

LONDON, Dec. 29.—"The American and Danish governments are engaged in direct negotiations for the sale of the Danish West Indies," says the Copenhagen correspondent of The Daily Mail, "and the Danish minister in Washington will shortly submit a proposal for the consideration of the American senate."

Paderewski Did Not Fight.

LONDON, Dec. 29.—"M. Paderewski is at Lausanne with his wife," says the Vienna correspondent of The Daily Telegraph, "and declares the story that he recently fought a duel to be an invention. He asserts that the nervous affection from which he has been suffering has greatly diminished."

Snowshoes For the Army.

STOCKHOLM, Dec. 29.—The ministry of war has decided to supply the army with snowshoes.

BRAVE AMERICANS.

Sailors Commended by the Navy Department For Heroism.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—The navy department has received reports from two widely separated quarters of acts of heroism on the part of American sailors.

Captain Chester of the Kentucky forwarded the letter of Rear Admiral Servan, commanding the French naval forces in Algiers, speaking in warm praise of the heroic conduct of two American bluejackets, Paul Ausseresses and Hugh Patrick Mullin, in rescuing a French seaman in the harbor of Algiers while the Kentucky was there.

In the other case Lieutenant Commander Jesse M. Roper of the Petrel gives the circumstances of unselfish conduct on the part of H. J. Coxe, hospital steward, and J. D. Fuller, S. A. Courser, R. Parsons and J. Ward, sailors, in risking their lives in connection with a smallpox case on board ship in Manila bay. The patient was taken on board a hulk and there was attended night and day by the hospital steward. The climate and attending circumstances made the act one of much danger. The sailors then served as a funeral party and were obliged to undergo 30 days in quarantine and to have all their clothes destroyed.

Acting Secretary Hackett sent to each one of the men named by Captain Chester and Commander Roper a testimonial of the appreciation of their services, stating that it merits and received the hearty commendation of the department.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

A blizzard raged at Wasenberg, Colo., for 36 hours.

Rock Island directors have decided to extend their lines to El Paso, Tex.

Colonel Quay opens his campaign for the United States senatorship in Harrisburg.

American Sugar company and the Arbuckles have compromised their differences.

Mrs. Nation Refuses Bail.

WICHITA, Kan., Dec. 29.—Mrs. Carrie Nation of the Medicine Lodge W. C. T. U., who broke mirrors in the Carey hotel barroom Thursday, appeared for trial in the city court yesterday afternoon and announced that because her lawyer disappointed her at the last moment she was not prepared to answer to the charge. By consent of both sides the case was then continued until Saturday, Jan. 5. A number of citizens and W. C. T. U. members have offered to go on Mrs. Nation's bail, but she refuses to leave prison until the charge against her is cleared. She has no fears at all as to the outcome of the trial, and in this she is supported by some lawyers of repute. The members of the local W. C. T. U. have wired John G. Woolley, late presidential candidate on the Prohibition ticket, to defend Mrs. Nation. Mrs. Nation still asserts that she will keep up her violent attacks on saloons everywhere in Kansas.

Richardson Case Sensations.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Dec. 29.—Two sensations resulted yesterday from the evidence adduced at the inquest over the murder of Frank O. Richardson, the millionaire merchant, who was shot down in his own home at Savannah, Mo., on Christmas eve. The first sensation was testimony establishing the probable innocence of the business partner of the murdered man, who has been under suspicion as the murderer, it having been alleged that the partner, just previous to the murder, was accused by Richardson of undue intimacy with Mrs. Richardson. The second sensation was the fact that the testimony tended to fix the responsibility for the crime on a woman and her adviser, a traveling man, who are alleged to have blackmailed the deceased out of various sums of money, covering a period of almost a year.

Indiana White Cappers Sued.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 29.—D. A. Jennings of Columbus, O., has filed suit in the United States court against about 20 citizens, men and women, of Washington county, Ind., for $200,000 damages. He claims they white capped him on Jan. 30, 1900, and persecuted him and his family until they were forced to leave the state. Jennings says he ran a newspaper in Salem, in which he had $15,000 invested. He claims the people of the county are so intermarried that they control all the social, religious and political institutions. They undertook, he alleges, to control the policy of his paper, and he opposed them. False charges were made against him in the local courts, he says, and the court costs alone took every dollar he had. The women, he says, undertook to get his wife to join in the conspiracy against him.

England Outdistanced.

LONDON, Dec. 29.—The Times, in another article on American egineering progress, deals with educational influences and arrives at the conclusion that it is not so much superiority of technical education which explains this progress as the fact that Americans give to young men positions which in England are supposed to belong to long experience. Commenting editorially upon the whole situation in a regretful tone, The Times says: "It is useless to disguise the fact that Great Britain is being outdistanced. The competition does not come from the glut caused by miscalculation as to the home demand. Our own steelmakers know better and are alarmed. The threatened competition in markets hitherto our own comes from efficiency in production such as never before has been seen."

Alabama's Mineral Production.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Dec. 29.—Secretary J. G. Gibson of the Commercial club has secured statements of the mineral production of Alabama for the present year which estimate the production of coal, coke, ore and pig iron as follows: Coal, 9,000,000 tons; coke, 2,150,000 tons; iron ore, 2,000,000 tons; pig iron production, 1,192,000 tons.

TRADE CONDITIONS.

Failures For 1900 Exceed Those of the Previous Year.

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says:

While it is not yet possible to print accurate figures of failures during the full year 1900, a preliminary statement may be made that will approximate the final result. Detailed returns for all but the last few days of the year have been compiled, and, adding a proportionate amount for the time still to elapse, it appears that commercial failures will number about 10,630, with liabilities of $137,000,000.

This shows a large increase over the preceding year, when all failures numbered 9,393 and liabilities were $123,132,679. It must not be forgotten, however, that 1899 was a year of exceptional prosperity in business, and, while trade was then stimulated by rising prices, the succeeding year had to bear the bitter fruit of reaction. Despite these disasters, made unavoidable by the very conditions that brought such a phenomenal record for 1899, it will still be found that 1900 compares favorably with other recent years.

In both cotton and silk circles better things are expected in January, and in no direction has reduction of working forces in mills occurred. Some wage differences have been adjusted, and in this respect the situation is unusually bright. Railroad earnings for December thus far show an increase of 8.4 per cent over last year and 19.9 over 1898. Each week of the month makes a better comparison than the one preceding, and all groups now show gains.

More talk of a general reduction in coke and cheaper ore after navigation opens might be calculated to unsettle quotations of the finished products, but iron and steel continue the even tenor of their way. In every department of this industry more business is offered than can be accepted unless purchasers are willing to give much time for delivery.

HAZING AT WEST POINT.

Taking Testimony In the Booz Case Closes Today.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Dec. 29.—So far as the taking of testimony the work of the military court of inquiry in regard to the death of former Cadet Oscar L. Booz will be finished at the West Point Military academy this afternoon.

Yesterday's investigation brought out the testimony to the effect that cadets had been hazed to a degree of exhaustion, and two witnesses who were examined last week were recalled in reference to these cases. They were Cadets Pegram and Sheridan. The victims mentioned particularly were Cadets MacArthur and Haskell.

MacArthur himself denied that he had convulsions, but acknowledged that he had been exercised to such an extent that he had cramps in his muscles and that he lost control of them. Haskell is not in the corps now, so that his testimony was not available.

Cadet Ulysses S. Grant was examined and told of the ordeals through which he was put as a fourth class man. He said he felt no ill effects from the treatment afterward.

Several of the present fourth class men were examined and told of what forms of hazing existed during last summer's encampment, and while there were a few cases of men being made to stand on their heads there was very little exercising done, which would show that the majority of the cadets are living up to the class agreement made last year to abolish severe hazing methods.

Boston Will Greet the New Century.

BOSTON, Dec. 29.—The authorities at the statehouse have seconded the plans of the Twentieth Century club to observe the incoming of the new century next Monday night. The attention of Executive Secretary Hamlin, Sergeant-at-arms Davis and others has been called to the discovery that 200 years ago a trumpeter announced the hour of midnight and the beginning of the eighteenth century on Beacon hill, after which a company of citizens marched about the town, singing until daylight. A company of 100 singers, with four trumpeters, will assemble on the front upper balcony of the statehouse at 11:30 Monday night. Rev. Edward Everett Hale will offer prayer, and hymns will be sung, and at the hour of midnight the trumpeters will announce the new century.

Big Steel Plant For Chicago.

CHICAGO, Dec. 29.—According to a report from inside men at the Illinois Steel company's works in South Chicago that corporation has decided to erect a structural steel plant on its property, situated just north of its present works on the lake shore. It is said that $10,000,000 will be spent on the plant, which will be the largest in the country and the only one west of Pittsburg. Judge Gary of New York and the directors had a meeting here, and last night they had a dinner at the Chicago club to celebrate the beginning of the new project.

Hermit Left a Fortune.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Dec. 29.—Forty-five thousand dollars in government bonds, with the coupons still attached and running back for 30 years, have been found in a chest in a hut occupied by Hermit Ypsilanti Smith, who died a few days ago. He had lived near Fletcher, Miami county, for 40 years and was not known to have a cent. His mind was deranged years ago by the death of his wife. Pension vouchers, untouched for years, were also found amounting to about $25,000.

MAIL POUCH STOLEN.

Contained $100,000 In Negotiable Paper and Much Money.

A WYANDOTTE (MICH.) MYSTERY.

The Robbers Traced Along the Michigan Central Railroad Tracks by Scattered Letters, Checks and Drafts.

DETROIT, Dec. 29.—A mail pouch containing $100,000 in negotiable paper and an unknown amount of money has been stolen from the Wyandotte (Mich.) Michigan Central railroad passenger station. The last mail for Wyandotte arrives at 10:28 on the Michigan Central, and owing to the lateness of the hour it is left in the station until morning. When the two mail sacks were thrown from the train at night Night Operator Richert threw the pouches under a seat in the corner of the waiting room. He then went to his home in Detroit. In the morning when Mail Carrier John McCleary came to the station for the mail sacks he missed one. About the same time George Bessy, a driver of an oil wagon, reported at the station that a pouch, ripped open and empty, was behind an oil tank a short distance from the station.

The J. B. Ford Alkali works is one of the principal industries of Wyandotte, and about the time of the finding of the pouch two office employees brought in a number of checks and opened envelopes they had found strewn along the railroad track. Postmaster Johnson of Wyandotte was notified and went at once to the scene of the robbery. The trail of the thief was marked along the railroad track by strewn letters, checks and drafts. Most of the mail was intended for the J. B. Ford company, and a force of clerks was sent out to collect the letters strewn along the track.

The reason for this activity on the part of the J. B. Ford company was that J. B. Ford, Jr., said he expected a draft from New York for $40,000. The draft did not come yesterday, and it is believed that the robber or robbers took it with other valuable papers from the pouch.

President Heald Dead.

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—Daniel Addison Heald, president of the Home Insurance company of this city, died suddenly yesterday afternoon supposedly of heart disease at his home near West Orange, N. J. He was 83 years of age and was at his office yesterday in what seemed to be good health. Mr. Heald was born in Chester, Vt. He worked on a farm as a boy, but in his spare hours fitted himself for Yale, from which college he was graduated in 1841. He took up the study of law and was admitted to practice in Vermont in 1843. He became agent for various insurance companies and in 1856 accepted the general agency of the young Home Insurance company and came to New York.

Distributed Much Poison.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Dec. 29.—There is excitement among hunters who own fine dogs and among cattle owners in the neighborhood of Boston Corners, Dutchess county, over the death of a number of valuable hounds from eating poison that had been spread over the fields and mountain paths by a stranger who came to the locality a fortnight ago. The man, who said he was from New York, distributed the poison, it is said, to kill foxes for the purpose of selling their skins. Small cakes of lard and fish were found, and an analysis showed them to be filled with strychnine. The stranger has disappeared, taking with him a large number of fox skins.

Cornell Medical Building Open.

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—The new building of the Medical college of Cornell university in this city will be formally opened today with simple exercises. The exercises will be held in the main hall of the building and will begin at 4 p. m. Those who are expected to make addresses are President Jacob G. Schurman of Cornell, Dr. L. A. Stimson and Governor Roosevelt. The cost of the building and equipment is more than $750,000.

Coach Horses For the President.

AKRON, O., Dec. 29.—A team of fine coach horses, purchased by President McKinley by an agent, were shipped from Fairlawn, Summit county, yesterday. They are perfectly matched bays, with black points, 16½ hands high and weigh 1,250 pounds each. The horses were sired by a Morgan stallion, Bay Highland, first dam by the imported coach horse Sensation and second by Erie Abdallah.

Cornell Professor Dead.

ITHACA, N. Y., Dec. 29.—Moses Coit Tyler, professor of American history in Cornell university, is dead after an illness of three weeks. He leaves a wife and one daughter, the latter the wife of Assistant Librarian W. H. Austen, and a son. Professor Tyler was considered one of the greatest historical authorities in America.

Inventor Westlake Dead.

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—William Westlake, an inventor, died at his home in Brooklyn yesterday. He was born in Cornwall, England, in 1821. Mr. Westlake came to this country when 16 years old. His first work was as a roller boy in the office of The Evening Wisconsin in Milwaukee.

Concerning City Streets.

A portion of the report of the committee on streets and sewers, which was presented at the meeting of the Common Council Thursday evening, was published in full in yesterday's issue of The Daily Press. It included that part of the report relating to the sewers and sewage disposal plant of the city. The remainder of the report, which deals with the streets and the work of the street department, is published in full today.

There are some very interesting facts contained in the part of the report published today. The work done in maintaining the macadam street system is reviewed and recommendations made regarding the work which should be done next year. The policy of this and former Councils has been to keep the macadam streets in good condition by giving them plenty of attention and gradually increase their number each year as the street appropriation will warrant. The policy has proved a good one, for the streets of Plainfield were never in as good condition as they are today, and if continued next year, promises to see the streets even in better shape at the close of 1901.

The committee also recommends the sprinkling of all the macadam streets by contract, the cost to be included in the tax budget. Heretofore the sprinkling of the city streets outside of the business districts and along the trolley lines has been done by private contractors working directly with the property owners. The experiment of street sprinkling under municipal control was tried in the borough last year and the general opinion seems to be that it was a success. One of the chief arguments advanced in favor of such an arrangement in this city is that the life of the macadam streets can be greatly prolonged by proper sprinkling and the city thereby saved many dollars every year.

A further recommendation of the committee is that a start be made in the work of providing proper street signs, as was agitated by The Daily Press some time ago. This is a matter which deserves the immediate attention of the Common Council of 1901. Before any move is made to advertise this city, it will be far better that the city should be provided with street signs so that strangers, when they do come here, will be able to find their way about town.

The rupture in the ranks of the Democratic minority in the New Jersey Legislature over Robert Davis' plan of nominating Hon. Alvah A. Clark, of Somerville, as the choice of the minority for United States Senator, seems to be growing. A poll made by the Jersey City Journal among the Democratic members of the Legislature showed that several of the members from central and southern Jersey were outspoken in their intention of supporting some other Democrat than Mr. Clark for the rather empty honor of being Democratic nominee for United States Senator. Mr. Davis says, however, that he has no intention of changing his course.

As a test of the question whether small advertisements in a newspaper are widely read, says the Philadelphia Record, a Boston man advertised in a Chicago newspaper for a wife. The advertiser reports that he received replies by the bushel from women in all parts of the country. This sort of test has been made many times, and it was long ago settled that the people who have an interest in any subject rarely fail to read all advertisements that refer to it.

The fact that the insurance rates in Plainfield have been reduced shows that the excellence of Plainfield's fire department is recognized.

It does not seem probable that there will be any special celebration in Plainfield to welcome the arrival of the new century.

Never has a Christmas season in Plainfield seen so much activity as this one.

WHAT OTHERS SAY.

Clippings From Other Newspapers Which May Be Of Interest to Plainfield and Its Citizens.

The borough of North Plainfield believes in high license as a means of getting rid of objectionable liquor sellers. The court has complied with the request of the authorities there increasing the license fee. It will be instructive to watch the result. It will increase the revenue of the town, undoubtedly, but whether it will reduce the number of selling places is quite uncertain, unless the fee is made so high as to be nearly prohibitive.—Somerville Unionist Gazette.

* * * * * *

The trolley motormen and conductors in Plainfield are sensitive souled creatures. A sense of injured innocence made them turn down a chance to enjoy a fine Christmas luncheon Tuesday. The lunch was sent to the offices of the company by the members of the Plainfield W. C. T. U., but the men refused to accept the gift, because some months ago the W. C. T. U. sent a letter to the company's headquarters referring to the use of liquor among the employes of the company. No specific charges were made, and the men felt hurt because such a letter cast imputations upon total abstainers as well as drinking men. More than that they claimed that there was no reasonable ground for the charges of the association. The trolley men nursed their grievance in secret until there came an opportunity to give it public expression. All of the baskets and boxes were sent back to the donors, who were notified that the men could not accept any gifts from such a source. The incident has broken into innumerable fragments what the diplomats call the entente cordiale.—New Brunswick Times.

TEA TABLE TALK.

Short and Gossipy Sketches That Are Not Always News, But Just as Interesting.

The day before Thanksgiving a package labeled "Martin, 28 Somerset" was left at the shop of Horace J. Martin. It contained a fat turkey. The bird was taken home and hung in Mr. Martin's cellar. It had been Mr. Martin's intention to have a pair of chickens for Thanksgiving dinner. When the turkey arrived, however, he presented the chickens to one of his workmen, intending to have the turkey, which he believed had been sent him by some of his many friends. In the meantime a young man who lives at 28 Somerset place was making inquiries about a turkey that a well-known citizen had sent him, as his custom, each Thanksgiving. Investigations followed, resulting in the discovery being made that the turkey had been sent to the wrong address. Then the benevolent citizen's gift was immediately sent around to its rightful owner, whose name was also Martin. Horace J. Martin had given away his chickens, and thus was left at the eleventh hour without a turkey for his Thanksgiving dinner. His good wife was equal to the emergency, though. She suggested that they get another pair of chickens, which was done, and the Thanksgiving dinner was relished in silence.

ROYAL

The absolutely pure

BAKING POWDER

ROYAL—the most celebrated of all the baking powders in the world—celebrated for its great leavening strength and purity. It makes your cakes, biscuit, bread, etc., healthful, it assures you against alum and all forms of adulteration that go with the cheap brands.

Alum baking powders are low priced, as alum costs but two cents a pound; but alum is a corrosive poison and it renders the baking powder dangerous to use in food.

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence.)

Dunellen, Dec. 29—Very impressive funeral services were held this morning over the remains of the late Mrs. John Cooper, who died Thursday morning. They were conducted at the residence on Madison avenue first and from St. John's church afterward, Rev. Father Bogaard officiating. Those who acted as pall bearers were Bartley Kelley, Thomas Costello, Michael Boyle, John Boyle, Patrick O'Keefe and Maurice Shannon. The remains were afterward taken to Plainfield and interred in St. Mary's cemetery.

Valentine McLaughlin, the assistant at J. H. L. Peters' tonsorial establishment, returned to New York yesterday. His place will be taken by John Peters, Jr.

Joseph Maier has had a fine concret stepping stone placed in front of the Park Hotel for the convenience of the traveling public.

Miss May Taylor, who is ill with pneumonia, has improved slightly since yesterday but she is not yet entirely out of danger.

A. A. Parker, of the borough, is to be one of the judges at the poultry show to be held at Orange, January 1 to 6 inclusive.

Miss Mabel Stutz has taken a position at Plainfield.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence.)

Scotch Plains, Dec. 29—One of the pleasant events at this season of the year was that held last evening in All Saints Episcopal church, when the members of the Sunday-school and their friends gathered in the church to enjoy their annual Christmas exercises. The church was very tastefully trimmed with evergreen and holly and the pleasing programme rendered was a treat that was thoroughly enjoyed by both members and friends. Santa Claus did not pass All Saints, even if it was the last Sunday-school in town to celebrate the day so dear to the hearts of the little ones, but remembered all with some pretty little reminder of Christmas, 1900.

Rev. G. M. Shott, of the Baptist church, will preach a New Year's sermon on Sunday morning. In the evening the subject will be the fourth of the series of sermons upon the Elder Son, namely, "The Elder Son Envious."

Mr. and Mrs. Cass Acheson and child, who have been spending a pleasant visit of several days with Mrs. Acheson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clark, have returned to their home in Hazlet, this State.

The hunting season for rabbits is rapidly drawing to a close, much to the regret of the hunters in this vicinity. Game has been quite plentiful this year and all have had a good season's sport.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Gere and son, who have been spending Christmas with Mrs. Gere's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Brockway, of Brooklyn, returned home yesterday.

James Riley, of Washington Valley, has been entertaining relatives and friends from New York for a few days.

Mrs. J. S. Braker, of Waltham, Mass., is the guest for a short visit of the Misses Hayes, of Fanwood.

Twilight Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., held a large and interesting meeting in their rooms last evening.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD

(Special Correspondence.)

South Plainfield, December 29.—Baptism will be administered at the Baptist church tomorrow at the morning and the evening services. The pastor will speak in the morning upon "God the Front and the Rearward;" in the evening upon "The Symbol of Baptism."

From present indications the children will have to attend school in the old building. It will be about six weeks yet before the new building will be ready for occupancy.

A Christmas cantata and other entertainment was given in Washington Hall last night. The entire Sunday-school was treated with candy, etc.

McDonough Brothers have their new icehouse ready for ice. The roof will be put on after it is filled.

Rev. J. A. Cubberley has returned from a Christmas family gathering at his old home near Trenton.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Bannister, of Bayonne, are visiting at the home of J. S. Eckert.

The road overseer will soon commence top dressing the road beyond the dam.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hartsell have returned from their visit out of town.

adjourned to the parish house, where the Christmas tree was lighted and there was a distribution of gifts. Everyone received a box of candy, while special gifts were given to Rev Dr. Rodman, Rev. Mr. Appleton, Mrs. Freeman, F. R. Stevens, secretary; Harry L. Finch, treasurer; VanWyck Brooks, librarian. Mr. Rodman presented the gifts.

A feature was the presentation of gifts to the scholars who have attended Sunday-school the most number of Sundays during the year. Those who received presents and the number of Sundays they were present is as follows: Lavinia Rushton, Florence Hill, Juliet Hill, Etta Trembly, Janette Hansber, 51 Sundays; Edward Schiller, 50; Henry Hansen, John Yost, 49; Hannah Hansen, 47; Emma Rushton, 46; Caroline Lambert, 45; Gretto Trembly, 42; Gordon Stewart, Susan Gardner, Grace Karr, 41; Julia Fitzgerald, Harold Hepburn, 40. Others on the list to receive honorable mention were Edson Gardner, Alice Titus, 39; Catherine Titus, Marion Lambert, 38; Eleanor Waring, Lucy Hepburn, Millie Trembly, 37; Mamie Bremble, Jessie Stevens, 36; Ethel Pope, Florence Stuart, Alice Karr, Arthur Mills, 35.

HOPE CHAPEL.

Hope chapel's Sunday school entertainment, which was held last evening, had for its feature an illustrated lecture on the Holy Land by Rev. Dr. William R Richards. Always an interesting topic, the lecture was made still more enjoyable by the speaker's knowledge of the scenes displayed, he having taken most of the photographs himself while on a recent trip.

The attention of the large audience was closely held throughout as the scenes connected with biblical history were displayed. The stereopticon was operated in an able manner by John Neagle. Interpersing the lecture carols were sung by the primary department assisted by the entire school.

As the last carol was sung the ringing of sleighbells announced the arrival of Santa Claus, who in the person of Thomas Muir, assisted in the distribution of dolls, books and candy to the lower departments. The impersonation was an excellent one.

The decorations for the occasion were very pretty, greens and bunting being placed about the large chapel. The committee in charge of the affair consisted of I. W. Travell, chairman, assisted by Miss Helen Hall, John Young and Alex Muir.

MONROE AVENUE CHURCH.

The annual Christmas entertainment of the Sunday-school connected with the Monroe Avenue church was given by the pupils last evening. The programme opened with the singing of an athem by the school and was followed by prayer from the pastor. Miss Margerite Phillips gave a well rendered solo after which a cantata, "Santa Claus and the Doll," was given. Mansfield Smith impersonated Mr. Santa Claus and Miss Lizzie Foster made an admirable Mrs. Santa Claus.

The remaining parts were taken by twelve little pupils from the lower departments. Another anthem was sung and the programme came to a close by the passing of gifts.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused be catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Proceedings of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of Union County.

[OFFICIAL.]

Adjourned meeting of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the county of Union, N. J., held on Thursday, Nov. 22, 1900 at 2:30 p. m.

Roll call showed all members present—18

The minutes of the previous meeting, reading of bills being omitted, were on motion, approved as read.

PETITIONS, COMMUNICATIONS, ETC.

From F. J. Hubbard, engineer, and Anthony Wahl, supervisor, a statement of the cost of macadamizing Springfield avenue in New Providence, length of said road, etc. The total cost $12 405 46, not including advertising, printing of specifications, etc Total length 15 910 feet.

After being read in full, it was received and placed on file.

From County Attorney W. R. Coddington, as follows:

Nov 17th, 1900.

To the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union:

Gentleman: I take pleasure in informing you that the report of the commissioners in the Westfield avenue boulevard matter so far as relates to the properties between Orchard street in Elizabeth and the Cranford township line has been confirmed and the order confirming the same made by Judge Swayze has been filed with the Clerk of the Circuit Court.

I enclose herewith a copy of said order. Signed,

Yours Respectfully,
W. R Coddington, Co. Atty.

The order of Court was read as follows:

Union County Circuit Court.

In the matter of the application of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union for the appointment of commissioners to condemn land belonging to Jonathan P. Glasby, and others, for the purpose of widening North or Westfield avenue, in the township of Union.

Order confirming report of commissioners.

The commissioners, Frederick C Marsh, Joseph A. Hubbard and James O. Clark, heretofore appointed by this Court in the above stated matter, having filed their report and the Court being unwilling to confirm the same, and having referred it back to said commissioners to consider the subject matter thereof and to return the same correct and revised or a new report to be made by them in the premises, and the said commissioners having made a new report within the time limited by this court, and filed the same on the first day of August last, and this court having fixed the twenty-second day of August last, at the hour of 11 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, at the courthouse in the city of Elizabeth, as the time and place for hearing an application to confirm the same and to hear any objections that might be made thereto, due notice of said application to confirm said report having been given, and at the time and place so fixed certain objections to the confirmation of said report having been made and testimony taken in support thereof, and counsel for the respective parties making such objections and counsel for the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union having been heard, and certain of the objections made thereto having been withdrawn, and this court having considered the report, the objections not withdrawn and testimony taken in support thereof, and the arguments of counsel for the respective parties:

It is on this fifth day of November, in the year nineteen hundred, ordered that all of the objections made to the confirmation of said report and not withdrawn be and the same are hereby overruled, and that the said report shall be and the same is hereby confirmed. Signed,

Francis J. Swayze, Circuit Judge.

On motion of Freeholder Farrell, the communication of the County Attorney, together with the order of the court were accepted and placed on file.

NEW BUSINESS.

By Freeholder King:

Whereas, the report of Frederick C. Marsh, Joseph A. Hubbard and James O. Clark, commissioners heretofore appointed by the Union County Circuit Court, in the matter of the application of this Board to condemn lands belonging to Jonathan P. Glasby and others for the purpose of widening North or Westfield avenue, has been confirmed, the order of the court confirming the same having been filed;

And whereas it is desirous on the part of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union to pay the respective awards mentioned and referred to in the said report at as early a date as possible.

And whereas, the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company by the terms of their contract with this Board are not required to pay until July 1st, 1901, the sum of $73,000 by them agreed to be paid;

And whereas, it is not deemed advisable to issue county bonds for the purpose of raising the necessary funds to pay said awards pending the payment of said moneys to the county by said Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company,

Therefore, be it resolved, that the Director of this Board and the County Collector of the county of Union be and hereby are authorized to borrow on notes from time to time such sums as may be necessary to pay the awards so made by said commissioners, not exceeding $75 000 and that the County Collector be and hereby is authorized to pay the same.

Freeholder Farrell moved the adoption of the foregoing preamble and resolution, and on roll call they were unanimously adopted.

By Freeholder King:

Whereas, the report of the commissioners appointed in the matter of the application of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union for the appointment of commissioners to condemn lands belonging to Jonathan P Glasby and others has been filed with the Clerk of the Union County Circuit Court;

And whereas, by the report of said commissioners several buildings have been condemned and taken by said county in said condemnation proceedings as shown by said report;

And whereas it is desirous that said buildings so taken and condemned should be disposed of and removed from the premises whereon the same now stand;

Therefore be it resolved, by the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union that the County Attorney be and hereby is authorized to take such proceedings for the advertisement and sale of said buildings as may be required and that said advertisement and sale be made by and in the name of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union, and that said sale be advertised at least three weeks in the following newspapers namely: the Elizabeth Daily Journal, the Cranford Citizen and Plainfield Courier News; that said sale be advertised to take place at such time and place and under such conditions as may be deemed best for the interest of the County of Union.

On motion of Freeholder Woodruff the foregoing preamble and resolution were unanimously adopted.

On motion of Freeholder Farrell, it was ordered that this Board, as a committee of the whole, meet at Keron's stables Friday, Nov. 30, 1900, at 10 a. m. and go from there to New Providence to examine Springfield avenue, as recently macadamized, etc, under the State Road Act.

YEAR'S WORK OF STREET DEPARTMENT.

to the established grade.

The cost of the macadamizing mentioned above was $12,438 91, and the length of streets 17,345 feet.

With the completion of the street railway to Elizabeth, came larger cars, which necessitated the lowering of Watchung avenue under the railroad bridge. This work was done by the Street Railway Company under the supervision of the Street Commissioner, and the approaching grades were so adjusted that the streets are in better condition now than before the work was done.

We would recommend that the work of surfacing with half-inch stone should be begun as early as possible in the spring, and be prosecuted vigorously on streets which need only this treatment to put them in first-class condition; that afterward the streets which require heavier work should receive attention. Among the latter are North avenue, Somerset street, Plainfield avenue, Liberty street, portions of Watchung avenue, East Front street, from Park avenue to Watchung avenue, and from Richmond street to Leland avenue, West Front street, from Clinton avenue to the Dunellen line, Park avenue, near the city line, and Belvidere avenue.

Tar-macadam is being used with great satisfaction in a number of cities and we would suggest its use on Somerset street.

Though considerable sums of money have been expended during the past few years in repairing the steam roller, it is now in need of more overhauling than ever before. Your committee would therefore recommend that a new roller be secured, the old one to be sold or exchanged, and we would suggest that a lighter machine be selected of the most approved make. A very considerable saving would result from the use of such a roller, both in the amount of coal required and by reason of its more rapid and continuous running.

GRADING AND TURNPIKING.

More attention than usual has been paid this year to the dirt streets of the city and we believe that it has been appreciated; streets on which no work had been previously done have been shaped up and brought to a permanent grade. Most of the dirt streets were rolled after scraping and have kept in good condition.

The following are the principal streets on which such work has been done: North avenue, from Richmond street to Terrill road; Netherwoood avenue, rough grading; Church street, Raymond avenue, Hillside avenue, Norwood avenue, Johnston avenue, LaGrande avenue, Lee place, Stebbins place, Pond place, Prescott place, Monroe avenue, Carlton avenue, graveled; Webster place, Woodland avenue, Sycamore street, Arlington avenue, Putnam avenue, from Webster place to Woodland avenue, graveled; Rock avenue, Front street to C. R. R., Spooner avenue, south of Seventh street, graveled; Arlington avenue between Third and Fourth streets, graveled.

The gravel was furnished by the Street Railway Company, during the lowering of Watchung avenue, and was also obtained from East Front and East Third streets in reducing the crown of those streets. The cost of the above work was $1,499.28. The length was 31,070 feet.

The application of property owners for a new bridge on Giraud avenue was refused by the Freeholders on account of the narrowness of the street; we would recommend that the city agree to do the necessary clearing and grading provided the owners of the property will dedicate the required strip of land.

FLAGGING AND CURBING.

The amount of flagging and curbing laid is not as large as in previous years, for many property owners could not well afford the expense of flagging this season, having just paid assessments for macadamizing.

The total length of flagging laid during the year was 7 357 feet; and the total length of curbing set was 1,688 feet; a considerable portion of each being done without notice.

STORM SEWERS.

The storm sewer in Watchung avenue was extended under the railroad bridge, and the two inlets were constructed at the southeast end of the bridge. The cost of this work, $240, was divided between the Street Railway Company, the Central Railroad Company of New Jersey, and the city. New inlets were also built at East Third street and North avenue.

On New street two new inlets were connected with the sewer at West Fourth street.

The Washington avenue storm sewer was lowered at the north end to get more fall, and was given an independent outlet at the brook.

For the partial relief of the New street sewer we would recommend that the culverts at Liberty and West Second streets be changed in direction so that some of the water which now floods this point be turned along the railroad wall to the large inlet at Plainfield avenue; that the Plainfield Gas and Electric Light Company be requested to make a cash payment toward the cost of a storm sewer in Madison avenue, from the railroad bridge to Green brook, in lieu of the present annual payment of $25 for the use of the New street sewer.

Your committee has carefully considered the petition of Charles Hyde for an outlet to the ditch and underdrains east of Central street, also the verbal protests against diverting so much water to LaGrande avenue through Central street, and would recommend that a 12-inch pipe be laid in East Sixth street to Cedar brook; but suggest that the size be increased to 15-inch, with inlets on East Sixth street, if the property owners will make a reasonable contribution.

At Arlington avenue and Cedar brook 18-inch pipes were laid under each gutter for a total distance of 170 feet, by the Plainfield Street Railway Company, and inlets were built by the city, thus allowing the dangerously deep gutters to be filled in before macadamizing.

The amount expended on storm sewers was $270 26

CULVERTS.

Nine culverts were built or rebuilt, not including many which were repaired. The cost of all culvert work was $539 71. Culverts were also constructed by the Street Railway Company along the line of their new road.

CROSSWALKS.

Eighteen (18) new crosswalks were laid during the year, the cost of which, with the repair and renewal of old walks, was $445 79.

STREET LINES AND GRADES.

The work of defining and monumenting street lines has been continued. Twenty three stone monuments and twenty-two iron bars have been set. Many iron manhole heads have been notched to mark street intersections.

The grade map just adopted by the Common Council confirms the grades of streets as they have been actually improved over a large part of the city.

STREET SPRINKLING.

The subject of having the macadam streets sprinkled by contract, the cost to be included in the tax budget, was favorably considered last summer, but it was too late to make arrangements for the current year.

We believe that the public would be benefitted by this change, and that even those living on streets not included in the contract would receive a benefit equal to the additional tax

During long spells of dry weather, macadam pavements are liable to ravel; regular sprinkling, (not drenching), would add to the durability of the pavements as well as to the comfort of those using them.

BILL POSTING.

We would recommend that the posting of bills and signs on telephone and electric light poles be prohibited.

STREET SIGNS.

It is desirable that a start be made in the work of providing street signs, the need of which is too evident to require further comment.

MINOR TOWN HAPPENINGS.

BRIEF ITEMS OF INTEREST TO EVERY DAILY PRESS READER.

Some Of the Doings In City and Borough Told In Concise and Pertinent Paragraphs.

—Frank O. Bristol, who made so decided a hit in the Y. M. C. A. Star Course last year, will again appear New Year's Night with other talent, as advertised in another column.

—Doane & Edsall call attention to their large stock of rubbers, rubber boots, arctics; your size and the kind you want—cheap and good. You always get reliable goods at this house.

—When the stomach is tired out it must have a rest, but we can't live without food. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure "digests what you eat" so that you can eat all the good food you want while it is restoring the digestive organs to health. It is the only preparation that digests all kinds of food. L. W. Randolph.

—The Simon-Reigel Cigar Company, of New York, represented by their New Jersey salesman, B. F. Alexander, are introducing their product to their customers from a brand-new, modern rubber-tired, handsomely-decorated business wagon. The Cherry Diamond cigar is now being introduced to the trade by Mr. Alexander. Powers' drug store is an agency for this concern, where all their brands are on sale.

PERSONAL.

W. W. Moore, of Third place, has been visiting Philadelphia friends for a short time.

Miss Etta Brusby, of Hoboken, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Marsh, of Plainfield avenue.

Lindsey Woolley, of West Front street, will leave next week for Connecticut, where he will spend ten days on business.

Martin Mantz, senior member of the firm of Mantz Bros., of West Front street, has returned from an extended business trip through the south.

Miss Clyde Slater will celebrate her fourteenth birthday this evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Slater, on Jackson avenue.

Miss Mary Tripney, of Morristown, Pa., returned home today after spending three months with her sister, Mrs. Walter Bradford, of West Third street.

MISS TALMAGE'S DANCE.

Charming Affair Given Last Evening to the Younger Set of Plainfield Society Folk.

The dance given last evening by Mrs H. P. Talmage at her home on Belvidere avenue for her daughter, Miss Talmage, was one of the pleasant events of the holiday season among the younger set of society people. The dance was given to the young people who are home for the holidays from out of town schools and colleges. There were about thirty-five present which included some of Plainfield's society buds Elliott's orchestra, of New York, supplied the music.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

Important Meeting of Perseverance Lodge, K. of P., Held Last Night.

Perseverance Lodge, No. 74, K. of P., held a large and important meeting last evening, at which time the election of officers resulted as follows: Master of work, J. J. Crouse; chancellor commander, J.P. D Kirch; vice-chancellor, James Armstrong; prelate, William N. Runyon; master of exchequer, J. C. Blimm; master of finance, J. B. Higgins; keeper of records and seals, Charles McGinley; master of arms, Fred Wharton; inside guard, Henry Hansen; outside guard, Peter Stream; representative to Grand Lodge, Robert Kenney; alternate, Charles McGinley. Considerable interest was evidenced at the meeting over the receiving of ten propositions for membership. The installation will take place next week.

Trouble at Boarding House.

Frank McCabe and Thomas L. Bell, agents for a New York magazine, were arrested at 9:30 o'clock last night by Patrolmen Myers and Saunders, who found them drunk and creating a disturbance at their boarding house at 324 West Second street. The accused pleaded guilty and were sentenced to pay a fine of $3 or go to jail for ten days, when arraigned before City Judge Runyon this morning.

Holiday Gospel Service.

Tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock there will be a holiday Gospel service at the First Church of Christ. The Sunday school and also the West End Colored Disciples' mission will take part, and there will be short addresses by the pastor, Dr. Morse, and others. All are invited, and poor people who do not attend any other place of worship, will be made especially welcome.

To accommodate those who are partial to the use of automizers in applying liquids into the nasal passages for catarrhal troubles. the proprietors prepare Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price including the spraying tube is 75 cents. Druggists or by mail. The liquid embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation. Cream Balm is quickly absorbed by the membrane and does not dry up the secretions but changes them to anatural and healthy character. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

SPORTING.

BASKET BALL.

The Fanwood basket ball team will play its first game this evening at Fanwood with a team composed of Plainfield business men. The game scheduled with the Brooklyn team is declared off.

The basket ball game between the Business Men's team and the W. W. W.'s at the Y. M. C. A last evening was won by the former. The score was 20 to 7. While the game was an interesting one, it was not altogether free from fouls, this being the first match of either team this season. Another game will probably be played on New Year's Day between two home teams. The players in last evening's game were as follows: Business Men, J. Doane, W. Peterson, Dr. W. K. Browning, P. Van Wyck, E. Giles; W. W. W., R. Pruden, G. C. Smith, W. Reynolds, W. Neal, P. Hand.

FANCY DRESS PARTY.

Charming Affair Given By Mrs. Frederick C. Mead For Her Daughter, Miss Margaret Mead.

A delightful affair was the fancy dress masquerade given Thursday evening by Mrs. Frederick G. Mead, of East Front street, for her daughter, Miss Margaret Mead. Each one of the seventy young people present wore a fancy costume.

As the guests arrived at the door they donned masks and these were worn for a half-hour afterward. Music was furnished by Rogers, and one very pretty feature was the Labyinthine march, which was led by Miss Margaret Mead and Ames Brooks. After the march the masks were removed and dancing followed.

The decorations in the dining room were in harmony with Christmastide. Santa Claus was represented on the table standing on a pedestal of fruit, surrounded with evergreens. There was a generous display of holly and the whole table was brilliantly lighted.

FUNERAL OF MR. MOORE.

Many Friends Gathered at the Obsequies of Late William H. Moore Yesterday Afternoon

The funeral services of the late William H. Moore were held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the residence on West Sixth street, and were largely attended. Rev. Dr. D J. Yerkes, pastor of the First Baptist church, conducted the services. He read Scripture selections, after which he made a short address.

There were many floral tributes from relatives and from the Western Electric Company, of which Mr. Moore was the private secretary. Those who served as pall bearers were William McClurg and S. D. Collins of this city; William Terry, of New York; F. H. Bristow, of the Western Electric Company; Benjamin Nelson, of Baltimore, and Edward Bonny, of Rahway. The remains were placed in a vault at Hillside and will be interred later.

Miantonomo Chose Its Chiefs.

Miantonomo Tribe, Red Men, nominated and elected the following officers at their meeting last evening: Prophet, Foster Johnson; sachem, Frank VanPelt; senior sagamore, Charles McKinley; junior sagamore, Fred Bowe; chief of records, Charles L. Holstein; collector of wampum, N. C. Mague; keeper of wampum, A. J. Stiglitz; trustee for two years, Howard Woolston; trustee for three years, Charles Fulmer; representative to Great Council, Howard Woolston; alternate, John Green.

Business is Increasing.

Since the introduction of uniformed drivers, handsome new carriages and other new equipment by the Plainfield Cab Company, there has been a great increase in patronage. This increase has necessitated the hiring of three new drivers to meet the demands of the public. Everything is up-to-date at the company's stables and a feature is prompt and efficient service day or night. Manager James Davis is in charge and he gives his personal attention to all matters pertaining to the business.

—VanAredale's shoes would make a sensible New Year's gift.

—The consecration meeting of the Endeavor Society of Trinity Reformed church will be held tomorrow evening at 6:45, instead of Monday evening, as usual.

Attention Exempts!

THIS CITY'S WELCOME TO THE NEW CENTURY

No General Celebration But a Number of Events are Planned For Tonight.

OTHERS FOR TOMORROW.

MANY WATCH MEETINGS TONIGHT IN LOCAL CHURCHES.

Society Has Planned Attractions For The Holiday Chief Of Which Is The Assembly at The Casino—Music Hall's Attractions.

The dawn of the new century tomorrow morning, New Year's Day, promises to be celebrated in Plainfield by the citizens in an enthusiastic manner. It is possible that the fire committee of the Common Council may authorize the blowing at 12 o'clock tonight of the fire-alarm gong. It is expected that the church bells will also be rung at that hour. Young Amercia will then let itself loose. It is an important occasion in the lives of all Christendom and it will undoubtedly be observed by all.

In several of the churches watch night services will be held tonight. At 12 o'clock high mass will be said in St. Mary's and St. Joseph's Roman Catholic churches. These services are very interesting and are attended by many not members of that faith, the attraction being the fine music rendered.

At Trinity Reformed church tonight between 11 and 12 o'clock a farewell service will be held under the auspices of the Trinity Reformed Christian Endeavor Society. An interesting programme has been prepared. Besides Rev. Cornelius Schenck, Ph.D., other ministers will be present to make addresses. Everybody is invited.

There will also be a Twentieth Century watch night service of the three M. E. churches this evening in Vincent chapel. The services will be divided into two parts. The first part will begin at 9 o'clock and will be devoted to brief addresses after which there will be a reunion love feast. Another watch meeting will be held at Hope chapel.

One of the interesting affairs in the realms of society will be the second of the assemblies to be held tomorrow night at the Casino. This will be on an elaborate scale and one of the events of the holiday season. A feature of the dance will be the music of the celebrated banjo quintette furnished by Brooks & Denton, of New York, in addition to the regular orchestra.

This evening at the Casino society folk will turn out in large numbers to witness the farce comedy entitled "Mr. Bob" to be given by local talent the characters being taken by some of the well known society people of the city.

Another of the interesting society events for this evening is the junior subscription dance to be given at the Park Club house. Like other pleasant affairs of this kind this one promises to be well attended by members of the younger fashionable set.

In the way of entertainments lovers of the theatre will find much to interest them in the attraction at Music Hall this evening, when the Bennett-Moulton Company will play "Darkest Russia." Tomorrow afternoon "A Prisoner of Algiers" will be presented. There will also be a performance tomorrow evening.

With the firemen there will also be an observance of the dawn of the new century. While perhaps the members of the paid department will "persue the even tenor of their way," the old Exempts will keep open house and fall into reminiscent moods while watching out the old and welcoming the new year. All exempt firemen and their friends are invited to meet with the old fire laddies in the Coward building.

Over the brook the members of Warren Engine Company will also gather at their headquarters and enjoy themselves in various ways, a vaudeville performance having been arranged. There will also be a good supper served.

Tomorrow—New Year's—there will be various private functions kept among the citizens. The now almost obsolete custom of making New Year's calls, however, will not be observed to any great extent. As usual, the Y. M. C. A. will keep "open house" and Secretary Manning and some of the officers of the association will be on hand to welcome all who choose to call and everybody is welcome. In the evening there will be the Star Course entertainment in the big hall.

WARD STEPHENS' RECITAL.

Was Much Enjoyed by Audience Which Assembled in Crescent Avenue Church Saturday Night.

The musically-inclined citizens of Plainfield, to the number of several hundred, were interested listeners to an organ recital given Saturday evening at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church. It was the third of the recitals that Ward Stephens, the organist at that church, has given. Mr. Stephens was assisted by Harry Clifford Lott, baritone, who rendered in good voice two or three selections, which were well received. Mr. Stephens is well-known in Plainfield, where he is considered a musician of much skill, that an attempt to particularize seems out of place. The recital was if anything superior to the previous ones, and thoroughly enjoyed by those who had the pleasure of listening to it.

DEFEATED AT ARLINGTON.

STATE ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL CHAMPIONS AGAIN WON.

Game Was Played Saturday Afternoon—Arlington Won By Score of Seven to Two.

The Plainfield Association Football Club, accompanied by a retinue of enthusiastic "rooters," journeyed to Newark, Saturday, for the purpose of playing the Arlingtons, of that place. The game was equal to, if not better, than the one played on the local grounds two weeks ago by the same teams, but like the previous game the result was the same. In spite of the many clever plays and hard work on the part of the local team they were vanquished by a score of 7 to 2.

The Newark team, which holds the State championship, made every effort to shut the Plainfielders out, but were unable to do so, the two goals being made by Blair and Hendry. Profiting by their first defeat the local team had strengthened the line-up in several weak spots, which accounts for the good showing made.

Following was the line up:

PLAINFIELD.		ARLINGTON.

ONE YEAR OLD.

First Anniversary of Dedication of Hope Memorial Chapel Held Last Evening.

Practically every seat in pretty Hope Memorial chapel was occupied last evening when the first anniversary of its dedication was celebrated. The erection of the chapel was made possible by a legacy of $5,000 left by the late Mrs. Cornelia Van Deventer.

The order of worship last evening was similar to that used at the service of dedication one year ago, with the exception that they were conducted by Rev. G. K. Newell, pastor of the chapel. Mr. Newell delivered the anniversary discourse, the text of which was taken from John 25:24-25. The sermon was filled with truths and was greatly enjoyed by the congregation.

A touching part of the service was the calling of the church roll from the time of its foundation. The services were concluded with prayer from Henry C. Squires and John Doull Miller.

Aid to Receive New Century.

All members of Warren Engine Company and citizens generally are invited to drop into the fire house this evening and enjoy the hospitality of the fire laddies while they watch out the old year and welcome the new century. There will be plenty to eat and an entertainment of an impromptu character provided for amusement.

Watch Meeting.

The Endeavor Society of Trinity Reformed church will hold a meeting tonight from 11 to 12 o'clock, for the purpose of seeing the old year out and welcoming the new year and new century. Rev. J. W. Richardson will have charge of the meeting. A very helpful service is looked for. All Endeavorers and others are cordially invited.

Robbed Music Hall Dressing Room.

The police are looking for a well-known character who is wanted for stealing a stove, mattress and other articles which he took from one of the dressing rooms at Music Hall a few days ago. The furniture was found on Watchung avenue, where the fellow had moved it and was about to begin housekeeping with his mother.

To Aid Children's Home.

At the Christmas festival of the church of the Holy Cross Friday evening the offertory was for the Children's Home of this city.

GRADUATED TO MAIN SCHOOL

INTERESTING EXERCISES HELD AT TRINITY REFORMED CHURCH.

Two Classes of Children Graduated From Primary Department—Short Address Made.

Exercises of an unusual interest were held at Trinity Reformed church yesterday afternoon during the session of the Sunday-school. It was the graduation of a class of boys and one of girls from the primary department, of which Mrs. J. M. Tier is the superintendent, to the main school. The event was marked by several interesting features. Before the scholars were graduated they recited the Apostle's creed, the Ten Commandments, the Beatitudes, the Books of the Bible and a number of special Scripture texts, all of which were given without a single break.

Rev. Cornelius Schenck, Ph. D., pastor of the church, presented the graduation diplomas and made a short address. He complimented Mrs. Tier upon her proficiency and earnest efforts and the scholars for their excellent showing. Mrs. Tier then delivered the charge as she turned the scholars over to the care of the larger school. Superintendent E E Anthony delivered the response in his usual happy and appropriate manner, after which Rev. J. H. Conklin, a returned missionary from India, who made an address on "Missions," took occasion to compliment the scholars as well as Mrs. Tier. He remarked that it was the first time he had witnessed such a pleasing sight.

The class of girls graduated, of which Mrs. Elizabeth Randall is the teacher, consists of Mildred Vera Caleen, Rose May Hook, Bessie Chadwick Randall, Emma Boss, Elsie May Dunavan, Ida May Tier and Margaret Gertrude Neal. The boys' class, of which Miss Olive Wikoff is the teacher, consists of Cornelius Freling huysen Schenck, John Brooks Schoefield, David Westcott Rogers, Elmer Ellsworth Gayle, Ira Randolph Vail, Arthur Julius Williams, Edward Everitt Anthony, Ray Demarest Hodge, Herbert VanDaren, Arthur Kenneth and Charles Talmadge Cobb.

WAS NOT CHARITY.

But Trolleymen Needn't Worry About Its Happenings Again, a Member States.

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—If the insulting conductors and motormen, of our trolley company think for one moment that the women of the "Women's Christian Temperance Union" consider them charity objects, they are mistaken. What we did was with kindness of feelings. We thought it would make them a happy Christmas to know they were remembered on that holiday. As for a turkey dinner we never thought of giving them one. Hot coffee is usually acceptable to men exposed to the cold, pie and cake we thought they would enjoy with it. We did not expect to serve it to them. Simply placed it where they could help themselves when inclined. We are sorry such an insult was accepted. It shall not occur again.

A Member of the Executive Committee.

A Fellowship Meeting.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the First Baptist church will hold its first meeting of the year Friday evening and invitations have been sent to the Epworth League of the First M. E. church, and the Endeavor Societies of the Trinity Reformed and Park Avenue Baptist churches to meet with them and join in the service which will be called a "fellowship" meeting. A social will follow. A cordial invitation is extended to all interested to attend the meeting.

Christmas Music Repeated.

The Christmas music was repeated last evening by the choir of the First Baptist church and a large congregation gathered to enjoy it. The service was a beautiful one and the various selections by the choir, with the solo parts by Miss Harris, Mrs. Ward, Wm. Holmes and George Smith, were greatly enjoyed. At the close a collection was taken for the Organized Aid Association.

His First Offense.

Louis Walz, a young man employed by a local butcher, was arrested late Saturday night by Patrolman Saunders, who found him helplessly intoxicated. This morning young Walz said it was the first time he ever drank and he did not know how it happened. Sentence was suspended.

John H. Carney Will Be There.

The Exempt Firemen's Association will have an entertainment in their rooms this evening. John H. Carney will be present and entertain the "vets" with his original monologues.

PRESENT CURATE WILL LEAVE GRACE CHURCH.

Rev. Floyd Appleton Has Accepted a Call From a Brooklyn Church.

LEAVES WITH MUCH REGRET.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF HIS PROPOSED DEPARTURE MADE YESTERDAY.

Was a Great Surprise to the Members of the Congregation—Has Been in Plainfield For Four Years.

Great surprise was occasioned yesterday over the announcement that Rev. Floyd Appleton, who has been curate at Grace Episcopal church for over four years, had accepted a call to St. Luke's Episcopal church, Brooklyn, the second oldest church in the denomination in that city. He will have charge of the mission work in that parish and be an assistant to Dr. Swentzel, the rector of the church. He enters upon his new duties in February next.

Mr. Appleton, as stated, has been at Grace church over four years, he recently entered upon his fifth year. He has been a hard and zealous worker during his stay here and through his efforts in assisting Dr. Rodman, the rector, the church has progressed and grown most favorably. In the city Mr. Appleton has made many friends and in charitable enterprises and mission work his energy and good deeds have been a source of strength and help.

By his proposed change he will have a larger field of usefulness and feels it his duty to accept the call. Sometime ago he made known his desire to change and with great reluctance the members of Grace church consented to it. As yet his successor has not been chosen.

MORE MONEY IS NEEDED.

SO NO ACTION WILL BE TAKEN ON NEW HOSPITAL TONIGHT.

Question Will Probably be Acted Upon at a Special Meeting Next Month.

Expected action by the Board of Governors of Muhlenberg Hospital on the question of a new hospital in place of the present quarters will not be taken at the regular monthly meeting of the Board at the Library this evening. When the chances of a new hospital took such a boom a few weeks ago, it was generally expected by the Governors and those interested that some steps in the matter would be taken at the meeting this evening.

Since the recent agitation of the new hospital, the necessary funds have not come in quite as fast as was expected, and it is understood that the finance committee will not be ready to report at the meeting this evening. A meeting of the finance committee will probably be held later in the week so that the report may be presented to the Governors as soon as possible. If the committee is ready to go ahead, a special meeting of the Board of Governors will probably be called for some day next month and the anticipated steps taken which will give Muhlenberg Hospital entirely new quarters.

ALL WERE REMEMBERED.

Loyal Temperance Legion Gave its Annual Christmas Festival Saturday Evening.

The annual Christmas festival of the Loyal Temperance Legion was held Saturday evening in the rooms of the W. C. T. U. on Madison avenue. A tree was the centre of attraction. During the evening a programme of vocal and instrumental music and recitations by the young folks were given. Miss Minnie Smalley played several piano solos. Mrs. Honeyman conducted the singing and Miss Green presided at the piano. Mrs. R. K. Case, superintendent, was in charge of the entertainment, and she was assisted by Mrs. Dudley S. Miller and Miss May E. Howlett. At the close gifts of oranges, candy and bananas were given to the members of the Legion.

Mr. Ivins Retires.

The firm of D. C. Ivins & Company, dealers in coal and lumber, was dissolved today by mutual consent, Mr. Ivins retiring from the business. Walter Freeman, the other member of the firm, is now in charge of the business. Mr. Ivins intends to devote his entire time to his New York interests.

Must Show Tickets.

Members of the Y. M. C. A. are requested to show their membership tickets at the door tomorrow evening.

CHRISTMAS FOR SWEDES.

THULA SOCIETY GAVE ITS ENTERTAINMENT SATURDAY EVENING.

John H. Carney Was Chief Entertainer of the Evening—An Illuminated Tree.

The Thula Society, composed of the Swedish people of the city, held their Christmas anniversary in the rooms of Perseverance Lodge, No. 74, K. of P., Saturday evening. A large tree, located in the centre of the room, was loaded to its capacity with good things. The evening was delightfully spent.

Prof. Wallender, with violin solos, accompanied on the piano by his accomplished daughter, proved a treat. Many selections by the little folks were given, after which John H. Carney was announced. He proved to be a favorite and was called again and again, after which all gathered around the illuminated tree. The scene was so real that it carried many back to Norway. With clasped hands the members danced around the tree, similar to the May dance, all joining in singing the National airs of their country as played by Prof. Wallender.

Then with a neat speech Thomas Caleen, master of ceremonies, presented the gifts, which included a handsome cane to their German friend, John H. Carney. It was prettily decorated with the National colors of Sweden. John responded in his usual happy manner, after which all were invited to the banquet room where a bountiful repast was served and another hour happily spent. Other features of the evening was the singing of Swedish songs by Martha and Marie Heiden, comic songs by Mr. Brandt, and phonographic selections by Mr. Peterson.

The committee in charge consisted of Mrs. Krog, Mrs. Caleen, Mrs. Radel, Mrs. Peterson, Miss Anna Heiden, Miss Kruigein and Miss Freda Anderson.

WAS WELL-KNOWN.

Thomas J. Hughes Died at His Home on Jackson Avenue Saturday Evening.

Thomas J. Hughes, a well-known citizen of the borough, died Saturday night at his late home, 108 Jackson avenue, aged 69 years. Mr. Hughes has been unwell for several months, being afflicted with asthma and other diseases. For many years Mr. Hughes followed the trade of a carpenter, but of late he has not been actively employed.

He is survived by Joseph and John Hughes, Mrs. Philip Maag and Miss Mary Hughes. The funeral will be held tomorrow morning from St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church at 9 o'clock. The interment will be in Calvary cemetery.

Ran Away But Did No Damage.

Becoming impatient, while the driver was delivering an order, a horse belonging to Fred Endress started off on West Front street Saturday. The equine's course lay up West Front street toward town, and when opposite the Babcock building the horse was traveling at a very lively pace. The runaway was captured opposite Rowley's before any serious damage resulted.

Charged With Fighting.

Thomas O'Keefe and Daniel Kiely were arrested Saturday evening by Patrolman McCarthy, charged with fighting on West Front street. They were allowed to go until this morning. When they appeared before City Judge Runyon Kiely pleaded guilty but O'Keefe denied that he had been fighting. He appeared in court with William Newcorn to defend him. The case was adjourned until next Saturday morning.

A Big Brood.

E. K. Allen, who lives on the mountain, has a hen of which he is mounproud. Last Saturday without any knowledge she brought forth twenty-one little chicks out of twenty-one eggs upon which she was setting. The event happened in the woods a little distance from where Mr. Allen lives and the hen had fixed her own nest according to her fancy.

On a Texas Ranch.

John Powers, the druggist, has received a letter from Fred A. Shepard, formerly of this city, who is located on a ranch at San Angelo, now. Mr. Shepard left Plainfield some two weeks ago. He writes that the weather is quite warm there and that the wolves and wild cats are to be seen near his ranch.

Getting Ready to Visit Tribes.

Early next month Great Sachem William Newcorn will start on his tour about New Jersey to make his annual visitation among the Red Men. It will require the month to complete the visits.

ST. JOSEPH'S GOOD TIME.

Christmas Festival at St. Joseph's Church Yesterday Afternoon Was Largely Attended.

The Sunday-school of St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church celebrated the annual Christmas festival yesterday afternoon in the parish house. There was standing room only for outsiders who gathered in large numbers to witness the interesting exercises. Among the features of the function were the solos on the violin by Miss Mary Searl and Frank Meeney and a trombone solo by William Frey. Three classes in the senior department also rendered most acceptably good music. Before the distribution of gifts Miss Lizzie Ryan made a short address to the children, about 200 of whom were present. Then the little folks were treated to refreshments of cake, ice cream and candy, besides receiving a small present.

FINE MUSICAL SERVICES.

CHRISTMAS MUSIC AT THE CHURCH OF THE HEAVENLY REST.

Large Congregations Listened to Good Music Well Rendered by Two Choirs.

The Christmas music at the Church of the Heavenly Rest was rendered at that church on Clinton avenue yesterday morning and afternoon. The church was prettily decorated with the usual Christmas greens. The congregations at both services were unusually large and all enjoyed the music which was particularly satisfactory.

There are two distinct choirs with different organists at the church, one which is heard at the morning services and the other at the afternoon services. Garrett T. Dunham was organist at the morning service and the special anthems were sung by Mr. and Mrs L. H. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. E E. Brown and Miss Wenzel. A chorus of sixteen voices sang in the afternoon, Miss Grace Phillips and Miss Ella Tallamy taking the solo parts very acceptably. Fred J. Pope trained the choir carefully for the service but he was unable to be present on account of illness. The singing was well done, however, under the supervision of D. Stuart Pope, the organist.

This parish has showed a great improvement in the last few months, and W. W. Moore and F. F. Moore, the lay readers in charge, are greatly encouraged at the advancement made.

MIDNIGHT MASS.

Elaborate Preparations Being Made for Services at St. Joseph's Church Tomorrow.

Preparations are completed for a proper observance tonight of the dawn of the new century by the Roman Catholic churches in this city and borough. At St. Joseph's and St. Mary's church midnight mass will be sung. At St. Joseph's church Rev. Father Miller will be the celebrant; Father Brennan, the deacon and Father Frances, of Trenton, the sub deacon. Farmers' mass will be sung with full orchestral accompaniment, Prof. Koff being the leader. The soloists who will take part are A. E. LaPort, Miss Justina Smith, Mrs. T. J. Reilly and J. E. Bailey.

At 12 o'clock the sacrament will be exposed and remain for twelve hours or until 12 o'clock noon of Tuesday. A guard of honor, consisting of 50 men and women, will remain in devotional attitude during the exposure devotional attitude during the exposure of the sacrament. A feature of the musical portion of the services will be the solo, "Beyond the Gates of Paradise," which will be sung by Robert M. Clark.

Interesting Service at Y. M. C. A.

There was a good attendance at the service yesterday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A., when Rev. Samuel Frender, of New York, a reformed Jewish Rabbi, addressed the men's rally. The address was as interesting as it was scholarly and those who listened to it were well repaid for their attention. A feature of the services was the singing of Mrs. Emma Moffatt, of Los Angeles, Cal., whose cultivated voice was much appreciated. The service was one of the best held at the Association in some time.

ATTACK OF ANGRY COW FINALLY PROVED FATAL.

Miss Mary Coulter, of South Plainfield, Passed Away at Her Home Saturday.

WAS PERFECTLY HELPLESS.

INJURIES FIRST RESULTED IN ALMOST COMPLETE PARALYSIS.

Has Since Been Failing Steadily—Was Well and Favorably Known in Plainfield—Lived With Her Brother.

Miss Mary Coulter, of South Plainfield, aged 64 years, died Saturday night from the terrible injuries she received several weeks ago, when a cow belonging to Sumner Randolph, a neighbor, attacked her. Miss Coulter was caught upon the animal's horns and tossed into the air. She would have been instantly killed had not a colored boy hastened to her rescue.

The horns of the cow were incurved so that the animal was unable to gore her, but Mrs. Coulter was thrown into the air several times before her rescuer arrived. In falling she landed on the back of her neck and shoulders. It is supposed that one or more of the vertebræ of the spinal column were broken. She was unable to move any portion of her body below her shoulders. This paralysis continued and she grew gradually weaker until she finally passed away. Although perfectly helpless, she retained the use of her mental faculties to the last and was able to converse with her family and friends.

Miss Coulter, who lived with her brother, was an active member of the Baptist church at South Plainfield and took much interest in the Sunday-school, where she was also a teacher for a number of years. She was a woman of many excellent qualities and her thorough devotion to religious affairs and her proverbial kindness to all in times of trouble or adversity were characteristics that won for her hosts of friends. Her death is deplored by many citizens of this city who also knew and loved her for the many excellent virtues that went to make up a woman who had lived the life of a Christian and good neighbor.

The funeral will be held at 1:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon from her late home and from the Baptist church, South Plainfield, at 2:30 o'clock. All relatives and friends of the deceased are invited. The interment will be in the South Plainfield cemetery.

SUDDEN DEATH OF MRS. TRUST.

Wife of August Trust Passed Suddenly Away in Brooklyn Yesterday.

A great many Plainfielders and boroughites will be pained to learn of the death of Mrs. August O. Trust, a former resident of the borough. Her death occurred in Brooklyn yesterday where she had been for the past ten days. She and her husband and family came north from Marlarville, N. C., to spend the holidays. The cause of her death has not yet been learned. William L. Smalley, Jr., of this city, a great friend of Mr. Trust, received word last evening concerning the death of Mrs. Trust.

Mrs. Trust was Miss Nettie Allison before her marriage, and although a native of Brooklyn, spent much time in Plainfield, where she had many friends. The family had lived in North Carolina about six years. The funeral service will be held tomorrow evening at 6:30 o'clock from the home of her sister, 369 Third street, Brooklyn.

Fell Between the Ties.

While drilling cars on the Cadmus Saturday afternoon, Frank Bowland, a conductor on drill engine 67, partially fell between the ties in some manner he struck upon his face, cutting and bruising it badly and he feared, fractured the cheek bone. He was taken to his home in Dunellen and today was reported as greatly improved.

LITERARY.

Human interest is the keynote of Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly. Its stories and its articles follow as closely as may be the lines of genuine human experience. Its editors do not reject romance; indeed, they seize upon a good story whenever they find it, but they try to give the magazine as a whole the flavor of reality. The reader feels instinctively that most of the stories are transcripts from life; not the commonplace existence too familiar to most of us, but the life of energy and experience. Take for example the January number. It opens with a singularly dramatic article, "The Reign of Soapy Smith," the notorious boss of Skaguay.

This is the first number of Leslie's Monthly which represents the new century, and it may fairly be taken as establishing the high-water mark of mechanical excellence in magazine making in an inexpensive form. The editors are conventional enough to believe in appearances, and they wish to call especial attention to the looks of the Monthly—the printing, the paper, the illustrations and the general "make-up." The illustrations show the best results yet achieved by tenent magazines. The paper is opaque, the print in single column, big and clear—the best print for weak eyes which any illustrated magazine of today has to show.

BOGUS BUTTER.

Sale In New York State Decreasing. New Jersey Violations.

ALBANY, Dec. 31.—State Commissioner of Agriculture Charles A. Weiting in his annual report to the legislature will point out that the clandestine sale of oleomargarine under the brand of "renovated butter" in New York state is on the decrease, which is due, he says, in a great measure to the alertness of the agents of his department. Upon this subject he will say:

"The most of these violations are committed by persons coming in from the state of New Jersey distributing oleomargarine in wagons which from the markings have the appearance of being duly licensed, legitimate expressmen in the state of New Jersey; that the object of the scheme is to leave the impression that they are common carriers. This makes the work of detection and prosecution quite difficult."

The commissioner calls attention to the fact that the report made to congress by the commissioner of internal revenue as to the amount of oleomargarine sold in the different states in the Union during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1899, shows that there was sold in the state of New York during that period the small amount of about one-fourth of 1 per cent of the total of 79,898,744 pounds sold, and this is a good showing when it is taken into consideration that this state contains about one-eleventh of the population of the United States.

The commissioner states in relation to the oleomargarine cases against Armour & Co., dismissed by Judge Hiscock, that he advised a settlement two years ago, when the defendants offered $20,000 in settlement and to keep out of the markets of the state of New York with their commodity. He made this recommendation after a careful examination of the facts and upon the advice of counsel that there was not evidence enough to convict Armour & Co.

The consumption of milk in the cities has increased 2 per cent during the past year. During that period 13,504,610 40 quart cans of milk were received in New York city as compared with 6,062,216 cans in 1888. This is an increase of over 100 per cent of the amount consumed in that city during the past 12 years.

WOMAN'S ADVANCE.

Hall Caine Pays High Tribute to American Womanhood.

CHILLICOTHE, Mo., Dec. 31.—Hall Caine, writing to the Sorosis, a local woman's club, under date of Greba Castle, Isle of Man, Dec. 8, says:

"When one considers what the position of woman was, even in the most civilized countries, as recently as 100 years ago, and how high a place she has now won for herself, not only in the statute books of nations, but in the republic of art, one cannot but feel that the change is even more remarkable than some of the great material developments which have distinguished the century.

"Speaking as one who has seen life in many countries, I feel that it is within the truth to say that the position of woman is higher in America than in any other part of the world. For this result American women have no doubt to thank their own natural gifts and great independence of mind, but they have also, I think, to be grateful to the splendid chivalry in the other sex, which is nowhere more conspicuous than in the best type of American gentlemen."

Twelve Families Made Homeless.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—Twelve families were driven into the street in their nightclothes by an early morning fire in Hoboken, N. J., which gutted a row of two story frame buildings extending from 158 to 166 Fourth street and including two buildings at 141 and 143 Garden street. The fire started in the cobbler shop of Antonio Verdicas. The buildings were 50 years old, and the flames spread so quickly that the entire row was doomed before the firemen arrived. All of the sleeping tenants had narrow escapes with their lives.

Caught In a Prairie Fire.

WICHITA, Kan., Dec. 31.—Gotlieb Stacker and his family, moving from Stillwater, O. T., to Roger Mills county, were caught while asleep in their wagon in a prairie fire Friday night. A 17-month-old baby was roasted to death, and a boy will die. A young lady will lose both her limbs, and no hopes are entertained of saving the mother's life. In their roasted condition and with the eyes and hair of their horses burned out, they reached a dugout a few miles away. The fire was fanned by a wind traveling 60 miles an hour.

Many Kentucky Killings.

LONDON, Ky., Dec. 31.—Four men have been killed and ten wounded in Clay county fights within the past two weeks, while two other Clay county men were killed and two wounded in a fight just over the Clay county line during the same period, making a total of six killed and 12 wounded within two weeks. The factions are again becoming hostile, and drastic measures may be necessary to quell the feudists.

California's Fruit Shipments.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 31.—The New Year's edition of the San Francisco Chronicle gives a comprehensive summary of California's commerce during the past year. Considerable space is given to the growing trade with the Philippines. The orange and lemon shipments from California for the year amounted to 22 carloads. The product of raisins was 75,000,000 pounds and prunes 120,000,000 pounds.

Congressman Cummings Laid Up.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—Congressman Amos J. Cummings, who since Christmas has been on a wheeling trip through Connecticut, fell from his bicycle near New Haven and fractured his right leg at the ankle. Mr. Cummings has not been in the best of health recently, and he took this outdoor trip to see if it would not improve his condition.

American Paintings Bought.

PARIS, Dec. 31.—The Luxembourg museum has just purchased several pictures that were displayed in the foreign sections of the Paris exposition. Among these are Mr. Walter MacEwen's "A Sunday In Holland" and Mr. Humphreys Johnson's "Portrait of a Woman," both from the United States section.

Fought Over Cards.

NEWBURG, Dec. 31.—John Carr and William Biddins quarreled while playing cards in their boarding house, and Biddins drove his knife into Carr's chest, puncturing the lung. Biddins escaped.

ROUNDING UP TAGALS

Scouting Parties Capture Many Insurgents In Luzon.

FOUR GENERALS REPORT PROGRESS.

Grant Trying to Catch Alejandrino. Camp of Filipino Leader Raided. Commission to Employ Six Hundred American Teachers.

MANILA, Dec. 31.—Many reports have just reached Manila of capture of insurgents as the result of scouting throughout Luzon. The Americans in this work sustained no casualties. A detachment of the Fourth regiment captured 60 in the province of Cavite.

General Wheaton reports having captured and burned Gremorio's camp in the peninsula, near San Antonio.

General Funston reports that five insurgents were killed and several captured near Gaysan.

General Smith wires that the proclamation of the governor general has had good results in his district.

Near Moriones Saturday a dozen insurgents were killed and eight wounded.

General Grant telegraphs that he has detachments covering the lower portions of Mount Arayat in the hope of catching Alejandrino. He says that last Friday a detachment of the Forty-first infantry raided the camp of the insurgent leader and secured some of his papers.

Near Aliaja yesterday Captain Mendoza, with 30 men of Sandico's command, surrendered.

Detachments of the Eleventh and Ninth cavalry killed 12 insurgents and destroyed several camps in the Camarines district.

The Philippine commission has added to the pending school bill a provision for the employment of 600 American teachers at salaries ranging from $75 to $100 per month.

American Skinned Alive.

WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., Dec. 31.—In a letter written from the Philippines just before the recent election to his relatives in this city Captain Harry W. Newton says that at the time the encroachments of the natives were worse than they had been at any time during the year previous. As one instance of their ferocity he writes: "Just the other day they jumped a detachment of our Twenty-fourth, numbering 22 men, and captured 16 of them. One of them was found terribly mutilated, showing signs of being skinned while yet alive."

England's Dark Outlook.

LONDON, Dec. 31.—All the religious denominations arranged for "end of the century services," some of which were held yesterday, and others will be held today. At Westminster abbey Archdeacon Frederick W. Farrar, preaching yesterday, took a very gloomy view of the future. He said he thought it by no means improbable that early in the coming century England would have to meet a combination of European powers. Referring to the "serious trade competition of Germany and the United States," he appealed to England to rouse herself. Alluding to the national curse of intemperance, he said that the Rev. Charles Sheldon had told him that he had seen more drunkenness in England in one year than in his own country, the United States, in a whole lifetime.

Shearman Memorial Service.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—Memorial services in honor of the late Thomas G. Shearman of Brooklyn took the place of the regular service at Plymouth church in that borough last evening. Mr. Shearman was long a trustee of the church and superintendent of its Sabbath school. He participated in the legal defense of Henry Ward Beecher in the Tilton trial. As a single tax advocate he had an international reputation and always had a voice in public questions of the day. Included in the list of speakers were William Lloyd Garrison of Boston, Henry George, Jr., son of the late Henry George; John S. Crosby and Edward M. Shepard. The Rev. Dr. Lindsay Parker of St. Peter's P. E. church, Brooklyn borough, presided.

Another Pingree Pardon.

LANSING, Mich., Dec. 31.—Governor Pingree has pardoned Charles R. Mains, a Battle Creek lawyer. About two years ago Mains used language derogatory to Judge Clement Smith, whom he accused of a conspiracy to ruin him. He was given a hearing in the supreme court on a charge of contempt and was disbarred. Governor Pingree in granting the pardon says that Mains was not given an opportunity to prove the truth of his charges and that he has suffered great loss in being deprived of the right to practice his profession. This is the first time in the history of the state that a pardon has been issued to an attorney disbarred from practicing law, and the courts may not recognize its validity.

Colombian Rebels Active.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, Dec. 31.—The British steamer Orinoco, which has arrived here from Colon, Colombia, reports considerable rebel activity in nearly all the provinces. The Colombia railway and the Magdalena river services are disorganized, and business is at a standstill in every section except Colon. The Colombian government, according to the same advices, has been making unsuccessful attempts to corner the rebel bands.

A Smallpox Stricken Town.

ST. PAUL, Dec. 31.—Of the 25,000 inhabitants of Winona 1,000 are being treated for smallpox. Health Commissioner Dr. Justus O'Hage of this city, who had established quarantine against Winona, raised it yesterday, having been satisfied that the new health board formed at Winona has taken proper measures to guard against the spread of the disease.

Two Elevator Fatalities.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 31.—Two frightful elevator accidents occurred here yesterday morning within five minutes in buildings only a short distance from each other. Sydney Hamm of London, Ont., stepped into an open shaft and fell six stories, and Ralph Spellman, aged 19, fell nine stories. Both were instantly killed.

McGuire Gives a Bell.

SYRACUSE, Dec. 31.—Mayor James K. McGuire has presented St. Vincent de Paul's church with a beautiful bell which he will ring for the first time at midnight, ushering in the new century.

Weather Probabilities.

Colder; fair; fresh westerly winds.

THE NOTE ACCEPTED

Chinese Ministers Ordered to Sign.

IMPERIAL INSTRUCTIONS A SURPRISE

Li Hung Chang Said to Have Urged the Throne to Yield Complete Compliance to Foreign Demands.

PEKING, Dec. 31.—The Chinese plenipotentiaries have been unexpectedly ordered to sign the preliminary joint note and have notified the foreign envoys to that effect.

The Chinese themselves were greatly astonished at receiving the imperial instructions. Neither Li Hung Chang nor Prince Ching has expected success in persuading the court under ten days.

The emperor's instructions are to agree fully to the note, but to endeavor to get the best terms possible, particularly in the matter of limiting the number of the legation guards and also as to the places where these are to be located.

The plenipotentiaries are instructed to endeavor to limit the number of army posts along the line of railway to as few as possible and finally to request the powers not to destroy the forts, but merely to disarm them.

Li Hung Chang's health is bad, and it is doubtful whether he will be able to do more than affix his signature to an instrument delegating his powers to Prince Ching until another plenipotentiary has been appointed. He was dressed yesterday morning and carried in a chair to the residence of Prince Ching, with whom he held a long consultation. Prince Ching then called upon the doyen of the diplomatic corps, the Spanish minister, Senor de Cologan, and requested him to notify the other envoys that instructions had been received from the emperor to sign the note.

The foreign communities in Peking are greatly gratified at the decided tone of the collective note and the assertion that the powers are determined to entertain no proposals for the modification of their demands. It is understood Li Hung Chang sent a memorial to the throne, couched in very strong terms, urging complete compliance.

The Germans killed 40 Chinese troops near Man-cheng, ten miles northwest of Pao-ting-fu. They had no casualties.

Among the natives a feeling of great distrust is being caused apparently by the high handed action of the Germans, as the Chinese suspect them of an intention to force a serious engagement with the Chinese troops.

Court to Return to Peking.

SHANGHAI, Dec. 31.—There are persistent reports in circulation here that the imperial court is preparing to return to Peking. Chinese advices from the capital say that 90 carts with mules and horses have been dispatched to Tai-yuen-fu to meet and bring back the imperial personages and their entourage. It is also asserted that Emperor Kwang Su has summoned Hu Ping Chih, former governor of the province of Shansi, to Sian-fu to accompany him to Peking. The Mohammedan rising in the province of Kan-su is spreading, and the troops of the viceroy of the province of Hunnan are alone able to hold their own against the rebels.

Negotiations Said to Have Failed.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—Negotiations between the board of federation, representing the engineers, conductors, firemen, brakemen and telegraphers employed by the Central Railroad of New Jersey, and the officers of the company over the demand of the employees for a new wage scale and agreement were terminated Saturday night, the employees and employers being unable to come to an agreement. The company virtually rejected the demands of the board of federation committee, of which L. P. Titus is chairman. The proposed wage scale had been under consideration since last May. A meeting of the chief officers of the brotherhoods will endeavor to have the railroad company accept the new wage scale.

Great Slaughter of Sheep.

MILES CITY, Mon., Dec. 31.—A telephone message from Otter, Custer county, says 11 masked men stampeded 3,000 sheep, killing the whole flock. The sheep belonged to R. R. Selway, the largest owner in eastern Montana, and were probably driven and crowded over a precipice. There have been range troubles at Otter all the summer, and the grangers and sheep owners are hostile. Many here fear further deeds of violence. The sheriff and a deputy have gone to the scene of the outrage.

Fatal Election Riots.

MADRID, Dec. 31.—Two persons were killed and 11 seriously wounded at Vivar, province of Grenada, during an election riot. Rumors of a cabinet crisis increase. Senor Segasta, former premier, who has finally broken silence, declares that a change of ministry is inevitable on account of the differences in the cabinet itself as well as in the ranks of its supporters. Many Ministerialists assert that the Azcarraga government will continue. Should it fall its only possible successor would be a Silvela ministry.

Mrs. Nation Stays In Jail.

WICHITA, Kan., Dec. 31.—Mrs. Carrie Nation, the W. C. T. U. woman who broke mirrors and destroyed a valuable painting in a Wichita saloon, has refused bail secured by her coworkers. She now says that under no circumstances will she step out of jail until cleared of the charge against her, and the W. C. T. U. has practically abandoned their efforts to secure her release. Mrs. Nation says if she is released from imprisonment she will demolish saloon furniture in other Kansas cities.

British Steamer Disabled.

QUEENSTOWN, Dec. 31.—The British steamer Lake Megantic, Captain Taylor, from Liverpool Dec. 25 and Queenstown Dec. 26 for St. John, returned to Queenstown harbor yesterday morning after a terrible experience in the gale. She left Queenstown Wednesday, carrying the Canadian mails, 45 saloon and second class cabin passengers and about 500 steerage passengers, principally foreigners, with many Jews among them.

German Tourists Killed.

LONDON, Dec. 31.—Two German torists, Herren Lainer and Kindlinger ascended Mount Schwartzenbergen without guides, according to a dispatch to The Daily Express from Vienna, and fell into an abyss and were killed.

CUDAHY AGAIN THREATENED.

Another of His Children May Be Kidnaped if Search Is Pushed.

OMAHA, Dec. 31.—E. A. Cudahy, the millionaire packer, has received a second communication from the men who kidnaped his son. This time, as formerly, the letter contains a threat and says in substance that unless he withdraws his offer of $25,000 reward for the arrest and conviction of each of the three bandits they will kidnap another of his children.

The letter refers to the failure of the police to get anything like a tangible clew as to the identity of the kidnapers, scoffs at the idea of Pat Crowe's being one of them, mentions the ease with which "the first job was pulled off" and concludes by saying that if Mr. Cudaby is as wise as he showed himself in the first instance he will comply with the request and withdraw the reward at once.

This letter is written in pen and ink on the same kind of yellow paper as the first and evidently by the same person. It was found by a servant of the Cudahy household early on the morning of Dec. 27. Some one called up the house by telephone and asked if Mr. Cudahy was in. The servant answered that he was not.

"Well," came the voice over the phone, "you go out to the front yard, and you'll find a letter there near the gate. It's addressed to Mr. Cudahy. See that it's delivered to him personally and to no one else."

The servant went out at once and found a letter. It was in a plain white envelope and was addressed "Mr. E. A. Cudahy, Sr. Personal and Private."

Mr. Cudahy, who was then at his packing house in South Omaha, was summoned home at once. No one was permitted to see the letter at first except Mr. and Mrs. Cudahy. Mr. Cudahy's intention at the time was to keep its contents to himself, as the bandits had requested, but later he thought better of it, as he believed that in the hands of the police it would prove a valuable clew, so he took Chief Donahue into his confidence.

They held a consultation at the chief's office which lasted nearly three hours. The chief was seen afterward, but refused to disclose the nature of the subject discussed. Mr. Cudahy says he has not withdrawn the reward nor will he do so. The reward offered stands as originally announced.

Robert Robinson, a broommaker employed by the Schneiderwind Broom factory, has positively identified Pat Crowe as the man who in his presence rented the Schneiderwind house on Grover street which was used as a prison for Eddie Cudahy while he was being detained for the $25,000 ransom. This is the first positive personal recognition of any of the bandits and establishes the most important point yet developed in the case.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

Lord Roberts sailed from Gibraltar for England.

A Japanese training ship was lost with 121 persons.

A bill providing for a national naval reserve has been prepared.

Edgar C. Burnz, who killed the postmaster of Scarsdale, N. Y., was found guilty of murder in the second degree.

The London and Globe Finance corporation, limited, failed, dragging down 13 lesser firms on the London Stock Exchange.

Samuel MacDonald, who murdered Auditor Morris of the war department, died in a Washington hospital from self inflicted wounds.

It is announced at the state department that negotiations for the purchase of the Danish West Indies are practically concluded and only await the appropriation of the necessary money by congress.

Burglars Arrested.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 31.—Two burglars who have confessed to two robberies and are supposed to be the men who have committed numerous burglaries in the western addition during the past month have been arrested. They are Eugene Chorigno and Charles Lowell. Both men said they came here recently from New York city. They were captured through the discovery of jewelry they had pawned. The men were identified by four pawnbrokers to whom they had sold their plunder. In all they had pawned jewelry and silverware worth $44,000.

Denmark's American Trade.

COPENHAGEN, Dec. 31.—Denmark's trade with the United States is growing rapidly, showing record figures for 1900. Imports from the United States have trebled since 1896 and now exceed $20,000,000. The increasing commerce between the two countries is inducing many Danish-Americans to return to Copenhagen to represent American houses, and this is doing much to introduce American goods. As a natural result, new ships have been ordered for the American trade.

Colorado's Gold Production.

DENVER, Dec. 31.—Colorado closes the nineteenth century with a record of gold production amounting to $29,226,198. While this does not come up to the predictions of a year ago, $30,000,000, it is much closer to that figure than conservative estimates made at that time. In 1899, accepting the revised figures of the Denver mint, the state produced $26,265,487 in gold, an increase over 1898 of about 10¾ per cent, the largest percentage of increase recorded up to that time.

Boy Kidnaped.

HOUGHTON, Mich., Dec. 31.—The 5-year-old son of Mrs. Raymond Thierby of Dollar Bay has been kidnaped, evidently in the hope of securing a ransom. It is believed the boy was taken by a well known character in the copper region, and the sheriff, with a large posse of indignant citizens, is scouring the country hoping to catch him before he gets beyond the state line. It is thought he is heading for Canada.

Lived In Three Centuries.

UTICA, N. Y., Dec. 31.—Abraham E. Elmer will witness for the second time the birth of a new century and attain the distinction of having lived in three centuries. Mr. Elmer was born in Warren, Herkimer county, Jan. 26, 1782, and on his next birthday he will be 119 years old. He is in good health, his only affliction being blindness. He is still able to walk about his home and has a good appetite.

Gale Renewed.

LONDON, Dec. 31.—A dispatch from Dover says the gale has renewed and that the wind is blowing heavily in the channel.

TO WELCOME THE CENTURY.

New York to Lead the Cities In Noisy Celebration.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—From Eastport, Me., to Los Angeles, Cal., separated by three hours in time, the twentieth century's arrival will be followed across the continent from east to west by a wave of noise never heard before. Every big city in the land will join in the mighty chorus, and New York will make the most noise of all.

The center of New York's welcome to the new century will be City Hall park. Today will find the great plaza gay with bunting and the buildings swathed in flags. Tonight 4,500 electric bulbs of a dozen hues will make the park a fairyland and outline the city hall in lines of twinkling light. There will be streamers of electric lights from pole to pole and a great legend in electricity, "Welcome, Twentieth Century!" There will also be a celebration beginning at 10 o'clock by the city officials, the programme of which has not yet been made public.

The big band will strike up promptly at 10 and play for two hours. The People's Choral union, 1,000 strong, will sing several choruses, as will the United German Singing societies, 500 more.

J. A. Chanler Is Now Legally Free.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—John Armstrong Chanler, the millionaire and former husband of Amelia Rives, the authoress, now the Princess Troubetskey, who ran away from Bloomingdale asylum at White Plains, N. Y., on Nov. 28 last after having been a patient there for six years, is now practically a free man. According to a rule laid down by the state commission in lunacy, where a patient has been absent from an institution for 30 days he is marked "down" as discharged, and he can only be returned to the asylum under a new commitment of the court. Dr. Lyon, superintendent of Bloomingdale asylum, said: "Mr. Chanler, being a lawyer, is probably conversant with this provision, and for that reason since his escape he has evaded us."

Portrait of Chief Justice Marshall.

CHICAGO, Dec. 31.—Though lost and forgotten for nearly a quarter of a century, an authentic portrait of Chief Justice Marshall of the United States supreme court has been discovered. For 22 years the portrait has hung in the home of H. M. Underwood, Waukegan, Ills., and not until Adolph Moses, an attorney, began the agitation for an observance by the legal profession of Feb. 4 as John Marshall day was the location of the long lost portrait discovered. The discovery of the portrait is rendered the more valuable because of the fact that so few really authentic portraits of the great jurist are extant. The newly discovered picture is done in oils by E. L. Hammond, one of the leading artists early in the century.

She Whipped the Editor.

CARBONDALE, Ills., Dec. 31.—Elbert E. Waller, editor and publisher of the Ava Advertiser, was whipped with a rawhide by Mrs. John Connor for an alleged insult which appeared in the last issue of Waller's paper.

BOERS SCORE AGAIN.

British Driven From Helvetia With Heavy Loss.

CAPE COLONY INVASION UNCHECKED.

[illegible] Lord Kitchener, wi[illegible] Saturday, Dec. 29, says:

"There is not much change [illegible] Colony. The easte[illegible] enemy appears to have broken [illegible] small parties as far north and to be [illegible] Tarkastad, roaming in the same district [illegible] support from the nor[illegible]

"The last [illegible] ern force is movi[illegible] Lisle and Thorneycroft [illegible] suit.

"French has occupied V[illegible] Clements reports that he is [illegible] the road to Rustenburg. [illegible] line was blown up near Pan, [illegible] was held up this morning on [illegible] ton line near Vaal station.

"White's column has arriv[illegible] kal. Knox's column and Bo[illegible] are holding De Wet fr[illegible] south."

While Lord Kitchener se[illegible] for England on the closin[illegible] year the press continues [illegible] prisingly hopeful view of [illegible] tion and of revelations of a [illegible] wide field of Boer activity. [illegible] Wet is still at large. Kimberley is [illegible] lated. The Boers are in force enough [illegible] have captured a strong position at He[illegible] vetia, in the Lydenburg district, while, judging from Lord Kitchener's very re[illegible] cent advices, no progress is being made against the Boer invaders in Cape Colony.

According to further telegrams received yesterday, Zeerust is practically besieged, but has provisions sufficient for five months. The garrison at Ottoshoop has been withdrawn to Lichtenburg.

A dispatch from Carnarvon, dated yesterday, reports that the Boers who have been threatening that point were driven off and are being pursued.

The Boers admit that in their fight with General Clements at Nooitgedacht they lost 130 men.

"It is understood that Lord Kitchener cannot ask the colonies officially to send troops," says a Durban dispatch dated Dec. 29, "but he desires it to be known in Australia and Canada that Australians and Canadians arriving in Natal will be eligible for immediate enlistment in an irregular corps which is proceeding to Johannesburg for five months' service."

To emphasize Lord Kitchener's covert admission that no progress is being made against the invasion of Cape Colony a correspondent at Burghersdorp, wiring Saturday, reports as follows:

"Two fresh commandos are entering the colony. One has already crossed near Knaapdaar, and the arrival of another is momentarily expected in the Steynsburg district. The Boers are said to have two or three horses each, though in bad condition. They have no guns or transport, but are well supplied with Lee-Metford rifles and ammunition. Captured Boers say that the intention of these commandos is to roam about and wait until General De Wet appears upon the scene."

Details of the Greylingstad affair show that while Colvile's column was pursuing the Boers a second force of 400 of the enemy was seen moving toward the camp where the British transport was inspanned. The small British force made a plucky stand until re-enforcements arrived with artillery, and after severe fighting the Boers were defeated. The British losses altogether were 9 killed and 63 wounded and missing. The Boers are said to have had 31 killed.

The Anthracite Trade.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 31.—In its coal article The Ledger this morning says: "The anthracite coal trade is concluding the year 1900 with the vigorous working at the mines and large output which have characterized recent weeks. While the Christmas holiday season has interfered somewhat in different localities, yet this has been a minimum, and the work has been pushed to a point rarely reached at this season. The unusually good weather for December has also favored both the mining and shipping of coal, and it is being forwarded to market as rapidly as the railway facilities will permit."

Three Killed In a Drunken Row.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 31.—Three men were killed in Abbeville, this state, as the result of a drunken man's spleen and malice. Two of them were the sheriff of the county and a highly respected northerner, William Kyle of Massachusetts, who has been superintending the building of a cotton mill in Abbeville.

Coke Ovens at Montreal.

MONTREAL, Dec. 31.—A company is being formed here to establish extensive coke ovens. Cape Breton coal will be utilized and the product shipped to the smelters at and near Sudbury, Ont. From July to November these smelters imported nearly 700 cars of coke from Everett, Mass.

Will Sell All or None.

COPENHAGEN, Dec. 31.—In Danish official circles the report that Germany is negotiating to purchase the Danish Antilles is denied. "If the islands are to be sold," said a high official, "the purchaser will be the United States and no other power. All will be sold or none."

Ashanti Rebellion Ended.

LONDON, Dec. 31.—Colonel Willcocks has cabled the government that the Ashanti rebellion has ended, all of the rebel chiefs having surrendered.

The New Century.

When the clock strikes twelve tonight, a new year and a new century will be ushered in. While these divisions of time are largely artificial, all the civilized world awaits the dawn of the Twentieth Century as the beginning of a new epoch in the world's history. Without doubt, the century which ends tonight has been marked by more wonderful achievements in all lines of progress than have any previous ones. It is truly the "Wonderful Century" but no man can tell what new wonders, what great inventions, what world wide changes will take place ere another hundred years shall have passed by.

There is something alluring about the possibilities of the new century. Although there is nothing in the course of natural events which will tend to vary the existing condition at this time more than any other, humanity feels that it has reached a vital hour. Behind are the remarkable records of the last hundred years, before are the unfathomable mysteries of the future. It is but natural to stop a moment, review the past and wonder at the future. Far abler pens than ours have already written, and at length, on the grand achievements of the Nineteenth Century. Others have presented the vast problems economic, social, mechanical and physical, which must be solved during the incoming century.

Plainfield's career has thus far been confined to the Nineteenth Century. Before that time, only a few scattered farmhouses, a tavern and a blacksmith shop, perhaps marked the site of this city. But as the Nineteenth Century has grown old and neared its end, Plainfield has rapidly increased in wealth and population until today, the last day of the departing century, sees it one of the fairest and best governed cities in all this broad land. For Plainfield, the Twentieth Century has wonderful possibilities. The city is bound to grow and if the citizens continue to work for its best interests, there can be no limitations placed on its advancement.

For the past twelve years and a trifle more of the departed century, The Daily Press has appeared regularly at the homes of hundreds of Plainfielders. Its growth has been steady and healthful. Increased subscriptions and liberal patronage by advertisers have enabled The Daily Press to improve its service until today it is one of the best newspapers published in a city of the size of Plainfield. The Daily Press is independent in politics and treats all issues fairly and honestly without prejudice. The success of Plainfield is essential to the success of The Daily Press and our aim is and will always be to advance the interests of the city and borough in every possible way.

If the Twentieth Century brings continued prosperity to The Daily Press' its services will be improved as the century grows older. The people of Plainfield have been fair to The Daily Press and The Daily Press has always aimed to treat its friends and patrons with equal consideration. There will be no change in that policy as the new century begins. Co-operation along the right lines is bound to bring success. It has in the Nineteenth Century. It will in the Twentieth Century. So, good friends, let us in conclusion wish you all a Happy New Year and the best of success in the century which is to come.

To doubt the efficacy and profit of newspaper advertising, says the Philadelphia Record, is to deny the value of an intelligent and enterprising salesman and to affirm that sales cannot be promoted by judicious talk. When a salesman tells a prospective customer anything favorable about the wares of the establishment which he represents, or when he says that the concern has this or that thing at a reasonable price, he advertises So, too, the display window is an advertisement. The chief difference between this form of advertising and newspaper publicity is that the latter reaches thousands instead of a few prospective customers.

There is considerable agitation over the advisibility of the State Legislature providing for the election of members of Assembly by districts instead of in the counties at large. If such changes are made, Plainfield ought to have almost all of one of Union County's Assembly districts.

Many cities through the State are preparing to have formal celebrations tonight. There will be none in Plainfield. The passing of the century is the event of a life time, however, and so it would seem proper to make some unusual stir to greet the Twentieth Century.

What would the folk of a hundred years ago say to the trains which now make it possible to reach Plainfield from New York in forty-one minutes?

Judging from the weather of today, the last hours of the century are melancholy ones.

There will be no issue of The Daily Press tomorrow as it is New Year's Day.

WHAT OTHERS SAY.

Clippings From Other Newspapers Which May Be Of Interest to Plainfield and its Citizens.

A Plainfield clergyman is early in the field with an announcement that he will preach on March 24 next on the disadvantages of living in the Twentieth Century. Why not give the new century a chance? Does life in Plainfield make men pessimists?—New Brunswick Home News.

What's become of the Plainfield Advancement Association? It has not been heard of since the clam-bake. The Plainfield Press makes the above inquiry. The editor of The Real Estate News and Union Star attended that clam-bake at Mountain Park Inn, and we saw some of those who attended eat from ten to thirty-two clams. Hon. J. J. Bergen, of Somerville, ate a great many clams. He was a high-water clam that day, himself. He was looking for the Democratic nomination for Congress against Hon. B. F. Howell. Bergen ate the clams, received the nomination; you know what they did to him November 6. It is true the Plainfield Advancement Association is either asleep or dead, and its death dated from that clam-bake. There were many good wide awake men at the clam bake, and perhaps after the clams have been thoroughly digested, the Plainfield Advancement Association may be revived.—Real Estate News.

INTERESTING NOTES FROM PLAINFIELD'S SUBURBAN TOWNS.

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence.)

Dunellen, Dec. 31.—After a very pleasant vacation of nearly two weeks, the pupils of the borough schools will reassemble for the winter term Wednesday morning. Most of the teachers have been spending the holidays at their respective homes but will return either today or tomorrow.

The announcement made some time ago that a large factory is to be erected at Dewey Park was received gladly by residents of the borough as the subsequent benefits to be derived from it will be felt mostly by Dunellen, being the nearest to it. The building is to be completed in a short time and will employ at the start about forty hands.

There will be no watch meetings or special services at any of the churches this evening in honor of the new year and with but one exception the old year will be watched out by individuals. It is the intention of the Foresters to have an informal social time this evening and incidentally welcome the dawning of the new century.

During the past few days, skating in this vicinity has been excellent and the young people have been taking advantage of it. The New Market pond still continues to be the most popular resort and large crowds may be seen wending their way toward it daily.

Miss Margaret VanArtsdale, who has been spending the holidays with her parents, will return to her studies at the Trenton Normal School Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Heller and family left today for Elizabeth where they have taken up their residence.

Miss May Taylor still continues to improve slightly from her recent serious attack of pneumonia.

Two young ladies from New Brunswick will open a dancing class in Apgar's Hall this week.

Mrs. James Martin has been suffering from an attack of rheumatism.

NEW MARKET.

(Special Correspondence.)

New Market, Dec. 31.—What came near being a serious fire took place at the home of Mrs. Ella Michling Saturday morning. In some unknown manner a lambrequin on the parlor mantle became ignited from a nearby stove and sprang into a blaze. It was discovered by Mrs. Mechling's guest, Miss Stella Conger, but not before the lambrequin had been consumed and the mantle itself was blazing merrily. Miss Conger managed to beat out the flames without receiving any serious burns. The damage was trifling but a greater loss was averted only by the timely discovery.

Mrs. M. W. Casrerline, who has been seriously ill, still improves slowly. Mrs. Raymond Burton, of Philadelphia, is caring for the patient.

William B. Smith has taken a position in a New York restaurant. His bread route is being covered by Edward and William Johnson.

Mrs. Joseph Hill and son John, of Trenton, returned home today after a week's visit with the former's mother, Mrs. Mary Runyon.

Mrs. Emma DeLong and Wotton Monthorn, of New York, were in town Saturday looking after property interests.

Miss Mary Jenner entertained her cousin, Miss Alice Martin, of Plainfield, Saturday.

Mrs. Leonard, of Caldwell, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Hannah Nelson.

Mrs. J. G. Ruppel has been confined to her home by illness.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence.)

Scotch Plains, Dec. 31—Twilight Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., elected the following officers for the ensuing six months at their meeting Friday evening: Councilor, James Johnston; vice-councilor, Henry Guerrier; conductor, William Spicer; inside sentinel, Thomas Whitmark; outside sentinel, Ernest Clark; trustee, Charles Fields; representative to grand council, Horace Hand. The committee on rooms reported that they had made arrangements with Excelsior Hook and Ladder Company to hold their meetings in the Library rooms Thursday evenings. The change from the regular night, which has been Friday, being made so as not to interfere with the Library night. The first meeting of the council in their new home will be held Thursday of this week.

The merchants in town report an unusually large holiday trade this year. This not only speaks well for the residents and shows that Scotch Plains is enjoying prosperity, but speaks well for the merchants. As the day is past when one should take their money out of the village, with the excuses that prices are too high, for today the usual commodities of life can be bought just as low in the village as they can in the larger towns.

No special preparation has been made by Scotch Plains to help usher in the new century tonight. No watch services are to be held in any of the churches. But there is no doubt but what many of the residents will see the passing of the old and help welcome in the new in their own quiet way.

A number of the lovers of trap shooting will hold a clay bird shoot tomorrow afternoon in the rear of Lee's Hotel. No matches will be shot or prizes given, but anyone may enter by paying for what pigeons they use.

The monthly conquest meeting of the B. Y. P. M. Society held in the Baptist church last evening was in charge of Dr. J. H. Park. Subject: Missionary Work in China.

Mrs. Gould and her daughter, Miss Ada, both of Greenwood Lake, N. Y., are spending a week as the guest of Mrs. George H. Lyons, of Front street.

Today ends the open season for rabbits. A number of hunting parties are out for their last hunt of the season.

Rev. G. M. Shott is attending the weekly ministers' conference meeting in New York today.

Mrs August Kiemser, of Stout avenue, is spending a few days with relatives in New York.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD

(Special Correspondence.)

South Plainfield, Dec. 31—Baptism was administered at the Baptist church yesterday. At the morning service Miss Grace VanNest, Miss Hattie VanNest, Miss Georgia Brantingham and Miss Carrie Dayton were baptized. During the evening service those to offer themselves for baptism were: Mrs. R. B. Manning, Harry Manning, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Eckart, Ralph Eckart, Lewis Randolph, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gage and John Linaberry. The church was full at both morning and evening services.

Last week at an important meeting of the P. O. S. of A., the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: President, Jas. Eckart; vice-president, Jas. Carckoff; master of forms, William D. Clawson; conductor, R. B. Manning; inspector, A. Brundage; guard, Chas. H. Brantingham; financial secretary, H. J. Manning; recording secretary, C. A. Cubberley, and trustee for eighteen months, R. B. Manning. Installation will take place next month.

A petition in favor of local option, to be represented at the next legislature in Trenton, is being circulated here. Many signers have been secured.

Alfred Young returned today from Pennsylvania, where he has been spending a few days with relatives.

Mrs. W. C. Clawson will spend a few weeks at the home of N. S. Tingley, of Bound Brook.

The regular Tuesday evening prayer meeting is postponed until Wednesday night.

Mrs. W. R. Wilsford is in Easton spending a few days with her parents.

Charles Gathney, of Jersey City, spent yesterday with friends in town.

Miss Lillian Gunther has been visiting at the home of Mrs. Laing.

Miss Edna VanNeft is confined at home by illness.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—The McAll Auxiliary will hold the regular meeting at the Public Library next Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock.

—The Prospect Social Club will give a dance in Washington Hall this evening and incidentally watch the old year pass away.

—Two wooden balls, such as are used in bowling, were found under a culvert at Netherwood yesterday by Patrolman Watson. The balls await a claimant at police headquarters.

—The Women's Association of the Congregational church will hold a sewing meeting in the church parlors Thursday afternoon beginning at 2 o'clock for the benefit of the Children's Home.

Preußen.

Provinz Brandenburg.

Berlin. Zu der Feier des 200. Jubiläums der preußischen Monarchie am 18. Januar 1901 werden 100,000 Fünfmarkstücke und 2,000,000 Zweimarkstücke mit besonderer Ausstattung und Inschrift geprägt.—Der größte Bauherr Berlins ist zur Zeit der Postfiskus. Nicht weniger als sieben große Neu- beziehungsweise Erweiterungsbauten, die den Zwecken der Reichspost dienen, werden augenblicklich ausgeführt. An erster Stelle steht der mächtige Erweiterungsbau der Oberpostdirektion in der Königs- und Heiligegeiststraße.—Das Fest der goldenen Hochzeit feierten der besonders in den Kreisen der Abgeordneten bekannte Bürger August Schulz und seine Gattin. Der „alte Schulz," wie er kurz genannt wird, ist seit mehr als 23 Jahren im Abgeordnetenhause thätig. Seit dem Jahre 1879 hat er die Kartenausgabe für das Publikum unter sich.—Aus Hypochondrie wegen Krankheit erhängte sich die 87jährige Polizeidienerswittwe Anna Riemann.—Die verwittwete Frau Sanitätsrath Pauline Schmidt feierte ihren 100. Geburtstag. Die alte Dame stammt aus dem Kreise Schönau in Schlesien und wohnt seit 44 Jahren in Berlin. Der Gatte der Jubilarin, die sich bis auf ihre Schwerhörigkeit noch des besten Wohlseins erfreut, war hier ein angesehener und beliebter Arzt.

Küstrin. Der Militär-Musikdirigent Rudolf Pieske ist im Alter von 65 Jahren gestorben. Der Verstorbene hat während seiner 48jährigen Dienstzeit die drei Feldzüge 1864, 1866, 1870 auf 1871 mitgemacht. Er war unter Anderem Komponist des populären Düppelmarsches von 1864.

Potsdam. Für den Kirchenbau in Bornim hat der Kaiser ein Geschenk von 30,000 Mark bewilligt.

Provinz Hannover.

Osnabrück. In der anfänglich hochgehenden Begeisterung für das Innungswesen ist in vielen Orten des Bezirks Osnabrück eine starke Erkältung eingetreten. So hat sich hier die Bauhandwerkerzwangsinnung trotz aller Vorstellungen seitens der zuständigen Behörden mit einer erdrückenden Majorität aufgelöst, da man sich von den Innungen auch nicht den geringsten Vortheil verspricht, vielmehr das Innungswesen den Meisten nur neue, ganz erhebliche Opfer auferlegt.

Twistringen. Der frühere Redakteur der hiesigen „Tribüne," Willibald Löble, würde von der Strafkammer wegen Betrugs zu fünf Jahren Zuchthaus verurtheilt.

Provinz Hessen-Nassau.

Frankfurt. Der frühere Kellner Andreas Ort suchte sich am Hauptbahnhof Bauern aus, an die er einen werthlosen Ring für theueres Geld anzubringen suchte. Sein Geschäft scheint ziemlich einkömmlich gewesen zu sein. Das Gericht erkannte auf drei Monate Gefängniß und drei Tage Haft, weil er sich bei Verkündigung des Urtheils sehr unverschämt benahm.

Hanau. In einer vom Ausschuß für die Errichtung einer Bismarcksäule einberufenen Versammlung wurde beschlossen, als Platz für die Säule das Terrain des Kurortes Wilhelmsbad und als Kostenpunkt den Betrag von 25,000 Mark in Aussicht zu nehmen.

Hohenzollern.

Hechingen. In einer Strafkammersitzung wurde der Fuhrmann Wilhelm Schaupp von Killer, welcher zwischen Jungingen und Schlatt die ledige Katharina Scheu aus Burladingen fahrlässiger Weise überfuhr und dadurch deren Tod herbeiführte, zu neun Monaten Gefängniß verurtheilt.

Provinz Pommern.

Stettin. Bei der Stadtverordneten-Stichwahl haben die Sozialdemokraten drei Sitze errungen, so daß sie nunmehr mit sieben Vertretern ihren Einzug zum ersten Male in das Rathhaus halten.

Köslin. In Charbrow wurde der Bauer Albert Bode auf dem Heimweg aus dem Wirthshause angefallen und mit einer Wagenrunge derartig mißhandelt, daß er in Folge eines Schädelbruches starb.

Notice as to Unmuzzled Dogs Running at Large.

By a city ordinance, it is provided that no dog shall be permitted to run at large within the city limits, unless a good and sufficient muzzle shall be placed over the mouth of said dog in such manner as to render biting impossible. If any person permits or suffers any dog owned or harbored by him and not so muzzled to run at large, the ordinance provides that he shall upon conviction be punished by a fine not exceeding ten dollars for each offense.

Any person prepared to make complaint under oath of any violation of this ordinance may apply to the subscriber and have prosecution begun forthwith.

A young man whose home is in East 76th street, New York City, has a considerable acquaintance among medical students and hospital doctors. Almost every morning, when riding down town to business on the Third Avenue Cable Road, he meets one or more of his professional friends, and this has happened so often that the conductors, knowing him and his associates by sight, have come to address him as Doctor. One morning not long ago the conductor approached our friend and said: "Doctor, I have been troubled so much with dyspepsia that I haven't been able to eat a square meal in two days and am nearly dead. What shall I take?" The man addressed put his hand in his pocket and, taking out a carton of Ripans Tabules, replied: "Here, take these, and when you use them buy some more at the druggist's." A week later the same conductor, while collecting his fare, said: "I used those Tabules you gave me, and then bought some more at the druggist's. They fixed me up all right. I have no more dyspepsia, and I can eat without getting sick."

A Simple Question.

Plainfield People Are Requested to Honesty Answer This.

Is not the word of a representative citizen more convincing than the doubtful utterances of people living everywhere else in the Union? Read this:

Mr. Robert Love, of 44 Duer street member of the firm of Love Brothers, grocers, of 257 West Front street, says: I suffered from kidney complaint for eight or nine years; pain across the back and a lameness over the kidneys. Colds always settled there and aggravated it. At last my back grew weaker and any heavy lifting or too much standing or sitting gave me additional pain. In the mornings my back bothered me greatly until I moved about and took some exercise when it became better to a certain extent. I doctored and used different kinds of so called kidney cures but it was throwing money away. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills highly recommended in our paper, and being in bad shape at the time, I got a box from L. W. Randolph's drug store. Before taking half of it my condition was greatly improved and continuing their use all the pain left me."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

The simple girl helped herself to a sandwich tied up in pink ribbon. "What a jam of people at this reception!" she mumbled with her mouth full.

The blase girl absorbed two salted pecans with great composure. "Yes, and not a badly dressed crowd either," she commented.

"I really believe that Horner girl flounces around so merely to show that her silk petticoat matches the pale blue rosette in her hat," muttered the simple girl enviously. "Honestly, I think she has a different one every time I see her! Some of them are mighty elaborate too. I wish I had all her money to dress with."

SHE INTERVIEWS THE SHOPKEEPER.

The blase girl coughed delicately. "Since you're my friend, I don't mind telling you something," she said. "That gorgeousness only runs up a little way."

The simple girl almost swallowed the ribbon on her sandwich. "What!" she gasped.

"My dear child, didn't you ever hear of a foundation petticoat? Well, that's what Daisy Horner has. It's made of plain black cloth, and it reaches to her knees. From there down there is a ruffle of silk, and it hooks on by means of snap hooks. Why, she has as many as a dozen of these ruffles, and they don't cost her more than two whole skirts would."

"But she has so many hats?"

"Has she?" remarked the blase girl sarcastically. "I don't agree with you. She has just three—that fur toque, a black hat and a lace one, but she changes her trimmings so that they appear a dozen."

"Why, how?"

"Oh, dear, easy enough! They're made detachable; just big pink or blue rosettes or trimmings of artificial flowers which fall into place of their own selves. If you get the right shape, it's one half, and if your trimming matches your dress it's the other half. Daisy is clever, and with those two tricks of hers she gets the reputation of being a well dressed girl."

The simple girl moved toward the door.

"Well, I must catch my car," she said. "I won't ask you to come with me because I noticed you came in a carriage."

"I hope several other people noticed it, too," muttered the blase girl in an undertone. "But I have no one with me. Won't you share my magnificence?" she added laughingly.

The simple girl accepted with alacrity.

"You see, it's this way," observed the blase girl as after trotting a little way down the street they turned a sharp corner. "When you're in Rome, you must do as the Romans do, but after you have left the Romans you may do as your purse dictates, and therefore, my dear," she continued as the carriage suddenly came to a stop, "I will trouble you to alight, as I picked up this rig at this corner, and here our ride ceases." Then as her friend gasped in astonishment she gave a great peal of laughter. "You see, I didn't have it quite an hour; 20 minutes at the reception and 10 minutes each way," she exclaimed exultantly.

The simple girl frowned. "I think the world's a sham!" she said.

"Probably," remarked the blase girl, "but you must remember that if you don't play the game according to the rules of the majority you are out of it. Oh, cheer up! It won't kill you to walk. Here, let me show you something funny. See that girl coming toward us?"

"The one with the red hair and the beautiful bunch of violets? That rich Ethel Marburg?"

"Why do you say rich?"

"Why, look at her clothes and the style she lives in and the people she goes with!"

The blase girl gave her a quizzical side glance. "There's just one thing true out of all that," she said, "and that refers to the people she goes with. They're the best in town."

"But"—

"But that's an accident of birth and the secret of her prosperity. Dear me, how blind the world is! I suppose you have never noticed how kind dear Ethel is and how she spends whole mornings helping her friends do their shopping; how, when Mrs. Newlyrich furnished her new house, Ethel went with her and showed her all the best furniture places, and when she bought her daughter's wedding trousseau Ethel"—

"Good gracious, you don't think"—

"I don't think. I know. Why, Ethel has an understanding with nearly every big dealer in town. She has a little private conversation with each one, and it's all done very politely, but she gets a big commission. The very apartment she lives in she obtained almost rent free. The house had just been built. It was almost winter, and the owner had only one floor let. Ethel had an interview with him, after which she moved in her goods and chattels, and inside of two months every bit of space in that house was let."

"But don't her victims suspect?"

"Not they. Why, child, even the violets she wears so lavishly are"—

"Artificial!"

"Well, you can't class them with the ordinary kind. They're works of art"—

"But they're fragrant."

"The best perfume is cheap when you can't get a decent bunch of real flowers under $2."

The simple girl turned and looked her friend full in the eyes. "Betty," she said quietly, "how do you happen to know so much about these things?"

The blase girl grew very red. "Because," she said. A smart brougham drew up at the corner ahead of them, and its occupant beckoned to her excitedly. "Ah—er—that's a particular friend of mine. Will you excuse me, dear?" she remarked suavely, and as she disappeared in a whirlwind of ruffles and laces the simple girl caught a flash of a handsome pink silk petticoat matching the roses in her hat.

MAUD ROBINSON.

The Most Luxurious Woman on Earth.

The wife of Li Hung Chang has the credit of being not only the richest lady in China, but also of being the most luxurious woman on earth.

Twice daily Mrs. Li bathes in oil of orange and acacia flowers, and she has a staff of a thousand servants. Her wardrobe is most extensive and contains no less than 2,000 coats and 1,200 trouserettes.

Mrs. Li is only able to walk a few feet at a time, being crippled, like the majority of Chinese ladies, but if report be trustworthy she is by no means an idle woman, for she is said to keep a detailed account of the expenditures of her vast household and to be an excellent woman of business.

A Titled Dairymaid.

The Duchess of Hamilton has a fancy for dairy work and has built herself a beautiful little dairy at Easton park. The walls are of marble, the tables of alabaster and the floor of terra cotta. A fountain of the finest spring water adds beauty and coolness to the whole. Often the duchess rises at an early hour and makes dainty little pats of butter in time to appear on the breakfast table, and sometimes she even takes a turn at milking.

A Leader of the Canine Four Hundred.

Here is a little dog who has attracted the attention of more than one royal and noble personage. Mlle. Fauvette is a 2-year-old toy bulldog. She is a Parisienne and is considered the perfection of her kind. Her mistress is Miss Elizabeth Harbury, the well known dramatic agent and the American representative of the Societe des Auteurs et Compositeurs Dramatiques. Miss Harbury calls Fauvette "her little leading lady," and she has refused many tempting offers to part with her. There was one in particular from the Grand Duke Alexis, who was so anxious to own her that he offered $700.

Fauvette has received so many prizes in her short life that it is a wonder that her small head is not turned. However, she adopts none of the airs of canines of high degree, but is thoroughly friendly and so democratic that she receives with equal good grace the caresses of the elevator man at the theater and the attentions of people of quality.

A woman, Mrs. Regina Stucklen, is assistant inspector of immigration in New York. She has been promoted in the civil service to a class in which the salary is $1,200.

Jack Frost Will Soon Provide Our Favorite Winter Sport

IT WILL not be long before Jack Frost will provide plenty of ice and the ring of steel skates on the frozen surfaces of rivers, lakes and ponds will be merry music for myriads of ruddy-cheeked lads and lassies. Ice skating will never lose its popularity as a sport. There may be a falling off in professional speed attractions, due principally to the fact that the real enjoyment of skating comes not from seeing skilled men or women cutting long dashes in the smooth ice, but from filling the lungs with the invigorating air as one tears over the smooth surface of ice on a bright moonlight evening. There cannot be the glamour of the gridiron about skating matches and the sport does not permit of the comforts of the theater, but America has adopted skating as her greatest winter outdoor sport. The foreigners, with their queer looking but keen rocker styles of skates, are no more expert in the use of the "ice knives" than are countless thousands of people in the United States.

NORVAL BAPTIE.

L. A. Servatius is one of the Nestors of skating sport in this country. He has seen many changes in the way speed contests are brought off since the days of 1868, when he first appeared as a contestant for high honors in Canada. This skater is of the opinion that there will be an unusually large number of young men out for championship honors this winter, both in the exhibition and race events. The year 1871 was a noted one in skating in this country. At that time there was as much interest in speed contests as there was in walking matches a few years afterwards. "Deerfoot," an Indian supposed to be almost invincible at a mile and at two miles, was beaten by Servatius, and then followed a period which yielded such notable performers as G. D. Phillips, J. F. Donoghue, Axel Paulsen and S. J. Montgomery. These American flyers set such high marks that there are no foreigners who can lay claim to better marks.

Improvement in skating during the last 20 years has been marked. Many of the men who are responsible for the development of the sport are still able to "show off," especially when it comes to figure and fancy skating. John Doughty, of Paterson, N. J.; T. M. Vincent, of Boston; Louis Edwards, C. Horner, F. P. Good, Sam Montgomery, etc., are still enthusiasts. It was due to the efforts of these men that the figure skating championships held last year in the east assumed national importance. In five years there has been the greatest possible development in skill on skates. Judges pay more attention to grace of motion and accuracy in cutting the design than formerly and a betterment in conditions naturally follows this discrimination.

Pressed to tell something about figure skating, Mr. Servatius said it was not a matter of much detail. Frank Good won the first championship in 1888, and the next season was defeated by Rubenstein and Phillips. The latter men continued to be about as good skaters as the country had, and in 1892 Phillips won the championship only to surrender it to Rubenstein the following season. The latter held the title for two years, when Phillips again took it and held it until 1897, when he forsook the ranks of the amateurs and became a professional.

L. A. SERVATIUS.

No one has approached the amateur champion skater Arthur J. Keane, the New York doctor, and few doubt his ability to take world's championship honors if he cares enough about them to go abroad. He might have won the highest possible honors at Vienna last year had he wished to make the trip. But he was intent upon his medical studies and contented himself with honors gained in the east. Howard Ward was counted upon by many followers of skating to bring the world's championship to the United States. Ward is young and some day may teach some of the expert Germans that grace of motion, finish of artistic figure work and technical execution may be mastered as well by an American as by a German.

All reforms in fancy skating this year seem to be destined to center on the multiplicity of figures. The schedules must contain fewer figures, say the critics. The 26 movements, comprising over 100 sections, compel the contestants to spend too much time on the ice. Besides, shorter schedules would permit more originality by the performers. Originality in sport is the essence of success. Furthermore, there are thousands of fairly clever skaters on the ice surfaces of parks and ponds who are masters of the simple movements and many of the elaborate ones. Why, then, should champions not ignore all the simple movements? Everybody knows that they are expert in them, else they could not execute the maltese cross, pirouette spins, outside edge rings, double flat foot spins, etc.

I will never forget the first sight I had of Johnny Johnson's new style of hollow tubing skate. It was in 1896, when the cycling wonder was under the management of Tom Eck and an attendant at the National Cycle show. Taking some friends into the office Johnny showed them the skate attached to a shoe, also of his own design. The many good properties that he claimed for the skate have not been disproved. Johnson gained as much distinction, if he did not get as much financial benefit, from the ice sport as he did from the sport of cycling. Norval Baptie, who was also a Tom Eck protege, is said to have used the John S. Johnson skate when he made the following records: Quarter mile straightaway, :28 1-5; half mile straightaway, 1:00 2-5, and mile straightaway, 2:08. Baptie comes from Bathgate, N. D., and it is fair to assume that he will be a contestant again this winter. His records displaced those held by Johnny Johnson, Olaf Rudd and Joe Donoghue. John Nilsson, who has fallen before the speed of the northwestern champion, is said to be anxiously awaiting the time when he may put on his long ice skates and go after the marks held by Baptie. It is rather singular that Minneapolis has given the skating world such a trio of great skaters—John S. Johnson, John Nilsson and Olaf Rudd. But the fact that the Minnesota city has so many hardy young Scandinavians and so many facilities for rinks should be taken into account. Peter Peterson, of Excelsior—that is some little place up near Minneapolis, I have heard—had many try-outs with Baptie last winter, and is said to be able to hold his own against any skater in the country. It may be that Peter will be the new comet in the north this winter. Rumor has it that once Peter developed so much speed that he beat Baptie, but the controversy over this developed nothing more than an admission that Petersen was a pacemaker for the champion. Peter is the son of a Lake Minnetonka boat builder, and presumably he has had much training on the ice at that lake. More power to his limbs this winter should he go after laurels. He is a trimly-built, pleasant-faced fellow.

A. J. KEANE,

If you feel that you have confidence in yourself on skates take the first opportunity this winter to try the cross-foot spin. Mr. Keane says this starts with a double foot whirl. Then make the familiar figure three on both feet at the same time. The spin is continued on the outer edge of both skates, the toes rigidly together. The arms are gradually lowered to give the speed.

Money in an Old House.

While making repairs to the house of E. J. Buckingham, in Huntington, Conn., the workmen found in a cunningly devised hole in one of the walls, a tin box containing $1.570 in gold, silver and copper coins. The coins bear dates from 1796 to 1812. Twelve years ago $40 in gold coin were found concealed in the same house, which was built in 1772. The owner believes other treasures are concealed in the dwelling.

The Difference in Society in NEW YORK and CHICAGO

Chicago and—society.

No, the two do not go together; they are separated much farther than is possible by an em dash. Society is unknown in Chicago; at least such society as that which Mr. Hobart Chatfield-Taylor gives us a glimpse of in his new book, "The Idle Born," and Chicago may be glad it has been spared the acquaintance—provided, of course, that Mr. Chatfield-Taylor's book depicts society as it is known and exists in New York, and the author, as a society man and one of the colony of "the idle born," should certainly know.

The "Idle Born" in Chicago.

The "idle born" in Chicago are as a rule yet in their teens, or so little past them that they cannot be said to constitute a distinct social class with sufficient influence to corrupt the morals of a municipality. There are a few wealthy sons of wealthy fathers who have traveled the pace that brings disgrace and moral death—in Chicago. But these do not rule society as it is known in Chicago. Not until these sons have become fathers and grandfathers will it be possible for society in Chicago to sink to the level of what the author depicts as everyday occurrences in New York, and then may Chicago be spared the disgrace. Such a society will never add to the greatness of the city; its coming but foreshadows the day of doom as the wickedness of Sodom did of that historic city.

To-day Mr. Chatfield-Taylor could not have secured the material for his book in the western metropolis; the "idle born" as a class are not yet large enough to have given him the needed characters, and Chicagoan though he is he went to Gotham for his plot. If it is a true one it is not one of which the eastern city should be proud, and Chicago glories in the fact that the journey was necessary.

The Elite of Chicago.

The class of men and women who represent the "elite" of Chicago at the present time are the self-made class. The city has given opportunities which they have improved to the extent of amassing enormous fortunes. The man in trade, whose business demands his attention, who is not ashamed to get to his office by eight in the morning and go to bed at a seasonable hour at night, is still the envied and respected man in Chicago, and not the one who was born with a silver spoon in his mouth, who knows nothing of the getting but all of the spending of money.

They Are Not Ashamed of This.

These men, as a rule, married for love; their courting was not done with an eye to dollars but to domestic bliss, and they are not ashamed of their old fogyish ways that compel them to continue kissing the wives who shared their early privations and struggles.

The divorce court scandals of Chicago do not come from the homes of the elite, for the reason that the elite are not of the same class as it is in Gotham, and when Mr. Chatfield-Taylor wanted a plot with these things in it he had to go to New York to get it.

For this reason Chicago is a poor place for "yellow journalism." Its scandal columns must be taken from the lives of the unknown, and because of that are less interesting. The morbid taste that demands scandal at all wants it to come from the ranks of "high life;" from the palace, and not from the hovel.

The wealthy homes of Chicago are clean homes; the wealthy man of Chicago loves his wife and is not ashamed to let the world know it.

The Funny Side.

But while Chicago, in its lack of a "modern society," escapes much that is bad, it also misses much that is amusing.

"Wake Up, Dobbs; You're Wanted."

The public scorns the trust while secretly envying the man who builds them. But the envy is misplaced if Mr. Chatfield-Taylor paints a truthful picture of these men, and he should, for he meets them in the "modern soicety" into which they are dragged by their society-loving wives.

What could be more pitiful than the case of Mr. Ferry Dobbs, president of the Trans-Mississippi railway system and the beet sugar trust? His wife reigned supreme over New York society, with a suite of admirers following in her train that would have done honor to a Cleopatra, while the august partner of her joys and sorrows is described as "the deuce of spades," or "the humble bearer of her family burdens."

Imagine, if you can, a society that would dare to trample under foot the claims to greatness of such a man because, forsooth, he made his money and did not have it given to him. But to go further, imagine a nincompoop of an open admirer of his wife saying to one of so much greatness:

"Wake up, Dobbs; you're wanted!"

Small wonder it is that the Chicago man of affairs cares so little for what the world calls society. If he has but viewed it from afar, as is the case with many of them, he should read Mr. Chatfield-Taylor's book, and he will want even less of it after he has been given an insight into its revolting mysteries.

Mr. Chatfield-Taylor evidently understands the difference between the social atmosphere of the two cities, for, while he goes to New York for his story, he keeps his home in Chicago.

Is Chicago Degenerating?

Will Chicago society ever degenerate to the level of New York? It is a question that might bear investigating. While the men of position in Chicago today are, as a rule, self-made men who have grown to greatness and wealth with the growth of the city, and quite as rapidly they are rearing sons and daughters who will not have to battle with the adversities of the world; who will constitute "the idle born." What is to be their future?

He Is Growing in Chicago.

In the preface of his book, which he styles a homily, the author adds the old proverb of Isaac Watts and says: "Satan finds some mischief still for idle hands to do." It may be that some of this mischief will be put in the idle hands of the governing generation of the sons and daughters of wealthy Chicagomen. They may fall into the wiles of modern society which the author styles a "shoddy manikin," and it may be that in time another author will be able to find a plot for a story in Chicago of which he can say "the canvas is small because the people are small. The talk is fatuous, and the actions at times contemptible, because to be straightforward and outspoken is to be serious, and to be serious is fatal in society."

If the author of "The Idle Born" has painted a picture that may in time be truthful of Chicago he has not drawn an entrancing view for the future, and it is safe to say that the sturdy men and women who have made the young western city great will not welcome the day when their sons and daughters fall into the ways of this kind of society.

But when we read of the escapades of some of the young men and women from the best homes of the city we wonder if a realization of the picture is not to come within the near future.

The Coming Horse Show.

Chicago is to attempt another horse show. The horses will be there, the best the land produces, but the show will not, for Chicago is not a society center.

Will Be King for a Week.

The managers of the Chicago horse show have for several years past attempted to make the annual exhibition of equine stock the rival of the like attraction in New York, but without success. The reason for this lack of success is easy to find. Chicago is not a society center as we understand society. There are many wealthy men in the city, and the admirers of horse flesh are numbered by thousands, and they go to the horse show; but they go to see the horses, and not to study each other's clothes and rehash questionable society gossip.

It is neither a lack of horses or a lack of people to admire them that has failed to make the Chicago horse show great. It is a lack of gowns. The New York papers in describing the local horse show devote pages to a description of the gowns that were seen; to the brilliant display of jewels; to the gorgeous millinery effects, and inches to the horses.

Chicago will have to cultivate a taste for this sort of thing before its horse show will startle the world. As it is now people go to see the horses and not because it is fashionable. In fact the Chicago people are not given to patronizing entertainments simply because they are fashionable. Merit is demanded in all things.

Previous horse shows in Chicago have usually ended in a row. Maj. "Jack" Logan lost his local standing because of one of them before he went to the Philippines to be shot. It may be that the one to be held from October 29 to November 3 will produce more pleasing results.

TEA TABLE TALK.

Short and Gossipy Sketches That Are Not Always News, But Just as Interesting.

Among the novelties placed in the stockings at "The Club" celebration on Thursday night was a small toy horse and wagon that was presented to James F. Buckle, a member of the Common Council and chairman of the police committee. Attached to the horse's head was a card upon which had been written this jingle:

Here's a health to Councilman Jim:
We wish, by gosh, there were more like him.
But look here, James, bless your soul,
When do we get a Police Patrol?

In view of the fact that the police have been anxious to have the much coveted patrol added to the equipment of the force, Captain Kiely was given a large tin horn to "blow 'till he gets the pataol wagon."

Killed By Train.

An unknown woman was killed by an express train near the Madison avenue bridge this afternoon.

Decision for Defendant.

The case of Wengworth against Davis, in tort, was tried in Justice Moffett's court Saturday and nearly three hours were required to finish it. Wengworth purchased a milk route of the defendant, which he claims was not as profitable as Davis represented and sued to recover damages. Decision was rendered in favor of the defendant giving no cause for action. Wengworth was represented by Bruce & Runyon, and Murphy & Blatz looked after Davis' interests.

Tickets Will be Sold at Door.

"Mr. Bob" will be produced in the Casino this evening by local talent. There has been an excellent sale of tickets but a few will be sold at the door. Arrangements have been made for the convenience of the women who attend the performance. There will be a dressing room for their use where they may remove their hats before the performance.

Lambert DeCamp Dead.

The death of Lambert DeCamp, aged twenty-five years, son of Emily and the late Lambert DeCamp, occurred this morning at his mother's home at Pomptown. The funeral services will be held from the late residence Thursday afternoon next at 2:30 o'clock.

Departed Quietly.

The Greek candy makers, who have occupied a store in the John H. French building on West Front street, packed up their goods yesterday and departed quietly at an early hour this morning.

Regular Rehearsal Hereafter.

After this evening the cast for "The Private Secretary" will take up their rehearsals regularly so as to be able to give a finished performance early in the year.

AT THE THEATRES.

Something About the Attractions Which Plainfield Theatre-Goers May Care to Witness.

The great play, "Darkest Russia," will be the opening play of the famous Bennett-Moulton repertoire company at Music Hall tonight. Musical people and indeed every one who enjoys a beautiful song well sung will be interested in the announcement that Mme. Flower, the renowned "Bronze Melba," who has toured with equal success in this country and in Europe, is to be one of the special attractions offered by the Bennett-Moulton company, and she will sing at each of the five matinees and every evening. Mme. Flower had so rich and beautiful a voice when a girl that her parents determined that she should be given the best of training, and at 15 years she was sent to the famous conservatory of music at Leipsig, Germany, where she spent five years in study and graduated with high honor. After touring this country as prima donna in light opera and in concert companies for several years, she went on a concert tour to Europe, her every appearance creating a perfect furore. Her magnificent mezzo soprano voice, still as rich and robust as ever, and, combined with the fine plays and other features of the Bennett-Moulton performances, draws great audiences at every matinee and evening. Seats are now on sale at the box office. "A Prisoner of Algiers" is the bill for tomorrow—New Year's Day—matinee, and "The Lost Paradise" will be given tomorrow night. "The Mother" will be performed for Wednesday matinee and "Wicked London" at night.

* * * * * *

A play that tells a story of mountain life in North Carolina and has not a word to say about an illicit distillery or drags in an unwilling revenue officer who invariably gets killed is indeed a novelty and such is "Hearts of the Blue Ridge," which will be seen for the first time here at Music Hall, Monday, Jan. 7. This play depends entirely for sensation upon the various dramatic incidents of a feud between the Carter family and the Reynolds, and certainly that field offers much that is startling. However, sensation is not all the piece portrays for there is a very pretty love story running through it and a whole lot of fun is furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Whitacre Watson, the colored servants of the Carters. Whitacre is pretty sure that marriage is a failure but finally convinces his wife that he is the proper head of the family. Dorothy Lewis is the bright feature of this attraction, her rendition of "Missy" being noteworthy.

LEASES MADE.

Number of Plainfield Residences Have Been Recently Rented or Purchased.

Through the Mulford real estate agency J. K. Tillison, of New York, has leased Mrs. G. H. Babcock's residence at 823 Madison avenue; Mrs. Everest, of Brooklyn, has purchased the property at 620 LaGrande avenue: W. K. Hockridge has purchased Mrs. Purcell's property at 237 East Fifth street; John E. Glass, of New York, has leased Mrs. John M. Lewis' house corner of East Second and Richmond streets; Rev. Mr. Maderia, of New York, has rented J. A. Martin's house on East Ninth street, and George Conover has purchased the Marsh estate on Jackson avenue, and after making a number of repairs, will take possession. Woodhull & Martin have also purchased a piece of property 50x200 on Washington avenue, near West Front street, upon which they will erect a building for stables and storage.

Lost Their Little Daughter.

The death of Caroline Elizabeth, aged 18 months, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Neil Bristol, of Hartford, Conn., occurred last Thursday and the funeral services were held on Saturday. Mrs. Bristol was formerly Carrie Lowrie, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Lowrie, of Park avenue and many friends will sympathize with her in her loss.

Small Daughter Dead.

Pauline Ford, daughter of James and Virginia Ford, aged thirteen years, died this morning after a short illness. The funeral services will be held from the late residence, 513 East Sixth street, Wednesday next at 2:30 o'clock. Interment in Hillside cemetery.

Mayor is Home.

Mayor George W. Rockfellow and Robert Cook, who have been enjoying a trip through Virginia, returned home Saturday. The Mayor is much improved in health, but the trip did not do Mr. Cook much good.

FINGERHUTHS FIGURE AGAIN.

ROBERT MURPHY WANTS THEM OUT OF HIS HOUSE.

Past Endeavors Toward That End Have Failed and Now the Law's Aid is Invoked.

Justice Mosher issued dispossess papers this morning in the case of Robert Murphy, of New Providence, against Theodore Fingerhuth and family, who occupy Mr. Murphy's house at the latter place. This is the same family which was in trouble at Watchung, when Paul Roericht, of New York, was shot by Mrs. Fingerhuth.

For some time past nothing much has been heard of the Fingerhuth family, but since they took up their residence at New Providence, there has been more or less trouble. Mr. Murphy has been trying to get the family out of his house, but, it is said, they protect themselves with guns.

At first Mr. Murphy went there but was driven away. Then Justice Clark attempted to get the family out. He, too, was driven off, it is said, with the threat of being shot. "Count" VanNest was the third man to attempt the risky job. He was more fortunate than the others. He got in the house and a lively time followed. It is said that they gave an exhibition of what they would do with him if he did not leave. The "Count" got away unharmed.

The Fingerhuth family still occupy the house, but an effort will now be made to get them out by process of law. The papers issued this morning are returnable Wednesday, January 9, when further trouble is expected.

It is possible, if the weather is clear, that there may be a practice game of association foot ball. Lovers of golf may also stroll to the links and enjoy their favorite sport, for both local courses can be used although not officially open.

In the afternoon the local Union of the Christian Endeavor Society will visit Muhlenberg Hospital and hold a song service.

Among the other gatherings that will be held tomorrow afternoon will be the reception to Rev. Dr. W. R. Richards, pastor of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, by the members of his congregation and many friends.

An interesting feature also in connection with the festivities for tomorrow evening will be the celebration by Howell Division, Sons of Temperance, of the thirty-second anniversary of their organization.

Not the least of the celebrations and entertainments will be the entertainment provided at the Boys' Club in the evening, where the young chaps will have a jolly time and be regaled with good things to eat after giving a vaudeville show.

At St. Stephen's church tonight at 12 o'clock the holy communion will be celebrated and Rev. Floyd Appleton, curate of Grace P. E. church, will preach the sermon.

Beginning at 10 o'clock and continuing all day, shooting for live turkeys, geese and pigeons will be held at the Burke farm on Park avenue, near Randolph road, under the management of John Goff. A number of prominent marksmen will be present and some good sport is promised.

The members of the Girls' Friendly Society and their friends will hold a Christmas party New Year's Eve in the Guild house of Grace church from 7:45 until 9:30.

There will be no circulation of books at the Public Library tomorrow, New Year's Day being a legal holiday. The reading room will be open from 2 until 6 p. m. and the art gallery from 2 until 4 p.m.

Ants, Cockroaches, Bed Bugs.

Mix, say, a 25c. box of "Rough on Rats" carefully with a pound or so of mashed boiled potatoes, or with a loaf of finely crumbled dampened bread, or two tin cups of fine powdered sugar, and place about their haunts, out of reach of children or pet animals. Even the hardier Black Cockroaches, Beetles, Wood or Water Bugs, in one or two applications will be completely annihilated. "Rough on Rats" is the only thing that will effectually and permanently annihilate Bed Bugs, and it stands unrivalled the world over for the prompt and effective extermination of Rats and Mice. 15 and 25 boxes at druggists.

Foresters Doing Well.

Court Plainfield, 1144, I. O. F., at their meeting on Friday evening received five applications and eighteen members were initiated. At a special meeting tonight five members will be initiated, making a total membership of 219. The officers-elect will be publicly installed in Washington Hall on January 11, at which time an entertainment, collation and dance will be enjoyed by the members, their families and friends.
